LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Board of Trustees of Duke University:

There is submitted herewith the consolidated report of the financial condition of Duke University for the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1949. The Balance Sheets and the related Condensed Statements of Revenue and Expenditures are accompanied by the report of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., Certified Public Accountants, who were engaged to examine the accounts of the University.

The Balance Sheet is in the usual form, and requires no particular comment, other than to point out that it does not include any portion of the indivisible corpus of The Duke Endowment the income of which, subject to the terms of the Trust Indenture, accrues to Duke University. As a beneficiary of The Duke Endowment, Duke University received from this source during the fiscal year the sum of $1,297,112.95.

The Condensed Operating Statement shows that the University closed the fiscal year with revenue in excess of expenditures, $27,414.39. This very favorable year of operation was brought about by the fact that income from endowment sources, due to the high level of business activity, was in excess of expectations.

The great importance of gifts and grants to the University is well illustrated by the fact that they totaled during the last fiscal year a gross amount, including the 1947-48 Loyalty Fund, of $2,530,213.57. Even though a large proportion was for building and expansion of plant, it is also evident that the support of research and even the balancing of the University budget is dependent upon this source of income.

Duke University is constantly being called upon for increased services in the field of research and the training of students at the graduate level. What it can do is directly limited by the funds available for the support of these activities and the physical facilities in which they must be carried on. It is our belief that the friends and supporters of the University will continue and expand their generous support, and thus make possible the continuation and strengthening of the work being undertaken.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. MARKHAM,

Treasurer.

A. S. BROWER,

Business Manager and Comptroller.

Durham, N. C., November 1, 1949.

Accountants' Report

To the Board of Trustees,
Duke University,
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of Duke University as of June 30, 1949 and the related condensed statement of revenue and expenditures for the fiscal year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accounts of Duke University do not include as endowment that portion of the indivisible Corpus of The Duke Endowment, the income of which accrues to Duke University, subject to the terms of an indenture dated December 11, 1924, whereby Mr. James B. Duke established a trust to be administered for educational and charitable purposes.

Land, buildings and equipment are stated in the accompanying balance sheet at amounts shown by the books without provision for depreciation or obsolescence; further, it is not the practice of the University to record all transactions for assets discarded or replaced.

In our opinion, with the explanations set forth in the two preceding paragraphs, the accompanying balance sheet and condensed statement of revenue and expenditures present fairly the financial position of Duke University at June 30, 1949 and the results of its operations for the fiscal year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

PEAT, MARWICK, MITCHELL & CO.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS

Duke University derives its principal support from endowment funds and from miscellaneous gifts and grants. Permanently invested capital funds enable the University to offer to students academic and professional training at a fraction of its actual cost. The effectiveness of the University is determined to large extent by its financial resources.

Gifts and bequests devoted to the improvement of the work of the University will be received and administered by the Trustees in accordance with the desires of the donor.

GIFTS. Any kind of property, real or personal, may be the subject of a gift and only such form as is required to pass title is necessary. If the gift consists of real property, the title will be passed by deed; if it consists of cash or unregistered bonds, the gift is consummated by delivery of the property; or if stocks, by delivery of properly endorsed stock certificates. Unless restricted, the use of gifts is at the discretion of the Board of Trustees. Usually the proceeds, conservatively invested, are added to the permanent endowment of the University. The donor may, however, restrict the use of any gift and designate definitely the object for which it shall be used. In such cases, the transfer of property would be accomplished by a letter or other document describing in detail the objects for which the proceeds of the gift are to be used and when accepted by the University the terms or conditions set out therein become binding upon it.

BEQUESTS. Bequests may be made to the University by an appropriate clause inserted in a will or by codicil to a will already drawn. The forms shown on the following page will serve as appropriate clauses for wills or codicils.

FORMS FOR BEQUESTS

General

I give, devise and bequeath to Duke University, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina and located in the City and County of Durham, State of North Carolina, and its successors forever the sum of.....dollars (or otherwise describe the gift) for the general purposes and uses of the University at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

Specific

I give, devise and bequeath to Duke University, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina and located in the City and County of Durham, State of North Carolina, or its successors forever, the sum of.....dollars (or otherwise describe the gift) and direct that the income therefrom shall be used for the following purposes, viz. (here describe in detail the use desired).

Codicil

Having heretofore made my last Will and Testament dated....., and being of sound mind, I hereby make, publish, and declare the following codicil thereto; (here insert clause in same form as if it had been included in body of Will). Except as hereinbefore changed, I hereby ratify, confirm and republish my said last Will and Testament.

(It is strongly recommended that a competent lawyer be employed to prepare the will and to supervise its execution in order to comply with all the requirements of the law of the state in which the maker of the will resides. It is also wise to give the University considerable latitude in the use of any fund so that a change of circumstances may not impair the usefulness of the gift. The Treasurer of the University will be glad upon request to review the phrasing of any proposed form of bequest.)

FORESTRY IN DUKE UNIVERSITY

GENERAL STATEMENT

Duke University, located at Durham, North Carolina, comprises Trinity College, the Woman's College, the College of Engineering, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Divinity School, and the professional schools of Forestry, Law, Medicine, and Nursing. Nearly every state of the Union and several nations are represented in the student body of more than five thousand, not including the enrollment in the Summer Session.

The University goes back in its origin to 1838, when Union Institute was founded in Randolph County by the Methodists and Friends. In 1851 the institution became Normal College, one of the first schools in America for the training of teachers. In 1859 the name was changed to Trinity College and so continued until 1924, when the College became a part of Duke University.

By virtue of an indenture of trust, executed December 11, 1924, by James Buchanan Duke, a great benefaction was placed at the disposal of humanity by providing for hospitalization, church work in rural communities, and education. The principal feature of the educational provision was the creation of Duke University.

The University occupies two campuses. The Woman's College campus, with its 108 acres, was formerly the campus of Trinity College. About a mile to the west are the new units of the University. The new campus, totaling 467 acres, also known as the West Campus, was first occupied in September, 1930.

Forestry in Duke University began early in 1931, when, through placing the Duke Forest under intensive management for forestry purposes, a substantial beginning was made in laying the foundation for educational work and research in forestry.

An academic-forestry curriculum, designed for students intent upon pursuing the study of forestry, particularly as a profession after graduation, was organized in Trinity College of Duke University in 1932 (see Announcement on Undergraduate Instruction in Duke University). This four-year course of study provides only for instruction in fundamental and auxiliary subjects basic to a proper understanding of the highly specialized work in technical forestry. Duke University offers no professional degree in technical forestry available to undergraduates.

Training in technical forestry leading to the professional degrees, Master of Forestry and Doctor of Forestry, is offered in the School of Forestry, and is open to all graduates of the academic-forestry curriculum in Trinity College and to graduates of recognized scientific schools or colleges, universities, and professional schools of forestry.

Duke University is also prepared to offer, through the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, graduate work in the more scientific aspects of forestry leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. This work is available to graduates of schools of forestry of recognized standing, and to college or university graduates holding the Bachelor's degree with their major work in appropriate scientific subjects. Undergraduate subjects which the college student, who does not have forestry training but who is contemplating work toward either degree in forestry, should take in preparation for this work may be illustrated as follows: At least two full years in botany, including general morphology or anatomy, the taxonomy, physiology, and ecology of plants; at least one course in zoology or general biology; courses in chemistry, physics, geology, economics, mathematics; and at least two years of French or German.

Several staff members of the Southeastern Forest Experiment Station are engaged in co-operative research projects in the Duke Forest. Specialists from this station and other prominent members of the U. S. Forest Service and representatives of forest and wood-using industries give occasional scheduled lectures at the School.

EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

The School of Forestry is located in the Social Science and Biology Buildings on the West Campus. The School is provided with instruments and tools for use in both field and laboratory work in silvics, silviculture, harvesting, and forest mensuration. Modern surveying instruments and accessory equipment are available for work in forest surveying.

Laboratories for work in wood anatomy and properties are provided with microtechnique and photomicrographic instruments, wood-working machinery, and a 50,000-pound Olsen Universal timber-testing machine, in addition to a glue and plywood laboratory. A modern forest soils laboratory equipped for physical and chemical studies is available. In the field of seasoning and preservation of wood a commercial-sized, single-compartment dry kiln and a fully equipped experimental pressure treating cylinder are available for instruction and research.

Facilities are also available for advanced work in plant physiology, plant anatomy, plant taxonomy, genetics, plant ecology, plant pathology, and the several branches of zoology.

The School of Forestry Library contains a growing collection of material on forestry and related subjects. It includes important books and periodicals in English and in French, German, and other foreign languages. The Library is well provided with American material, including Federal and State documents and reports. Over 150 periodicals and serials of importance in forestry and related fields are received by subscription or exchange.

Greenhouses, connected to the Biology Building through a soil-storage and work room, provide adequate space for experimental work.

A nursery has been established by the University for joint use of the Sarah P. Duke Floral Garden, the Botany Department, and the School of Forestry. The forestry section of this nursery is used mainly for the growing of planting stock for the Arboretum and trees needed for research or other special purposes.

West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company has made available to Duke University a field headquarters for work in forests of the South Atlantic Coastal Plain located 18 miles northwest of Summerville, South Carolina. This company has extensive forest holdings under close supervision of a staff of technical foresters in South Carolina and permits access to its lands for instruction and research in forestry and allied fields. This headquarters camp with modern facilities for as many as 45 men is used as a base primarily for utilization work each spring and for special work in silviculture. The quarters may be available at other times for students and faculty members of the Duke School of Forestry working on special problems or doing advanced work in any of the fields of forestry concerned with coastal plain problems. The establishment of this headquarters camp in the coastal plain region makes it possible for the School of Forestry to provide instruction and conduct research in this important forest area in which many privately owned forests as well as public forests are intensively managed for the production and utilization of a wide range of forest products. The Southern Railway Demonstration Forest is within easy reach of this center and will also be available for work, particularly with longleaf pine.

The School sponsors occasional lectures on forestry and conservation by speakers of national reputation.

An active Forestry Club is maintained as a student organization to bring the members of the School and students in the undergraduate academic-forestry curriculum into closer contact and to afford opportunities for extracurricular activities not otherwise available.

FOREST INDUSTRY TRAINING PLAN

The School of Forestry and the Southern Pine Association have initiated a joint plan for training graduate foresters in the Southern lumber industry. Graduates of the School will be placed, with the assistance of the Association Forester, with companies desiring to participate, for a period of approximately one year during which time the men will work in a variety of capacities under competent supervision.

The plan is designed better to equip young foresters for careers in forest industries and to make them more useful employees capable of developing executive capacities. The gap between academic education and practical training will be bridged under the operation of the plan for the mutual benefit of the men and their prospective employers.

Detailed information about this program can be obtained from the School of Forestry or from the Southern Pine Association, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE DUKE FOREST

The Duke Forest, located in Durham and Orange counties, North Carolina, consists of five main units: namely, the Durham, New Hope Creek, Hillsboro, Eno, and Blackwood divisions. Early in the development of Duke University it was recognized that the possession of such an area offered an unusual opportunity for the development of educational work in forestry.

Situated on the lower Piedmont plateau at elevations ranging from 280 to 650 feet, and composed of second-growth shortleaf and loblolly pines, oak, gum, hickory, maple, yellow poplar, ash, and other hardwoods, the Forest is representative of the various types of timber growth found throughout the region. Over a hundred different species of trees are found within or near the Forest. The land is rolling and there is relatively little rock outcrop, swamp, or other land of low productivity for timber growing. The total area of the Forest proper, exclusive of the University campus, is approximately eight thousand acres.

In developing the Duke Forest the following objectives are being emphasized:

1. Demonstration of the various methods of timber growing, silvicultural treatment, and forest management applicable to the region.

2. Development as an experimental forest for research in the problems of timber growing and in the sciences basic thereto. In spite of the present timber situation and the accompanying economic ills, the technical and scientific knowledge required to handle forest crops efficiently on a permanent basis is still largely lacking. The Duke Forest affords a place where studies may be carried on to augment this knowledge for the large region of which the local forest and soil conditions are representative.

3. To serve as an outdoor laboratory where field work can be carried on by forestry students under the guidance of the Forestry Faculty. One of the most difficult problems in forestry education is to bring the students into contact with the realities of professional activities. With all operations in the Forest, both routine and research, recorded annually, it is possible for a qualified man to get in a short time a degree of practical knowledge or technical expertness which only an organized forest can provide.

The Duke Forest is particularly well located to serve as a field laboratory, since most of it is adjacent and easily accessible to the University campus. In fact, the Durham division practically surrounds the West Campus, which was laid out in one corner of the Forest. A paved State highway runs lengthwise through the Durham division, and several good roads cross the Forest. About fifteen miles of improved woods roads make all parts of the Forest readily accessible. A five-minute walk will take one well into the Forest, and any part of the Durham or New Hope Creek divisions can be reached by automobile in from ten to twenty minutes. At few other places in America can be found provision for forestry training and research which includes the necessary forest literally at the door of a large university with its instructional, laboratory, and library facilities.

Approximately 1,400 acres of the Forest was open land, which had been under cultivation prior to the establishment of the Forest. Such of the open land as was not restocking naturally to forest trees was planted.

Arbitrarily by mixing species and varying the spacing between the trees in the plantations, the foundation was laid for future research into many perplexing problems, such as species relationships and requirements, the most desirable spacing and species to use in this region, and the survival and relative rates of growth of the different species of trees. To date approximately 1,100 acres of such plantations have been established. Pulpwood thinnings on a commercial basis are now being made in a number of the older pine plantations.

A large number of permanent sample plots, ranging in size from one-tenth acre to over one acre, have been laid out in the Forest to study various problems. The plots are distributed through all the forest types, and range in purpose from studies of the effects of various silvicultural practices to studies of rates of growth and yields of the different timber types. Accurate records are kept on all this work, which will provide excellent material for student research. In the future many of these plots can also be used to demonstrate desirable forestry practices.

The development of the Forest as a demonstration of practical forest management is well advanced. Forest type and timber stand maps are available for each of four divisions except for recently acquired areas. A detailed soils map for the entire area is being prepared. Except for very recent acquisitions, each division has been subdivided into permanent compartments, and plans for the silvicultural treatment of each stand and working group have been formulated. The second 10-year inventory of the Forest resources has been completed and the results of management practices during the first decade are being assembled and will soon be available.

Cutting operations within the limits of annual growth are being carried on, and, as markets for definite products are developed or expanded, such operations will be increased. To date, approximately 1,000 acres in the pine types have been thinned. These thinnings serve the dual purpose of contributing to the operation of the Forest as a going business and of demonstrating sound forestry practices. An efficient fire protection organization has been developed in co-operation with the State and Federal governments, and forest fire losses are being held to a minimum. In managing the Forest, public recreation activities are recognized. Several recreation areas have been established, and over fifteen thousand picnickers, hikers, and horseback riders use the area annually. The Durham and New Hope Creek divisions of the Forest, together with several hundred acres of neighboring privately owned land, are incorporated in an Auxiliary State Game Refuge to give the necessary protection which will ultimately result in an increased amount of game in the surrounding territory. Records are being maintained of all activities in the Forest, and these records will become increasingly useful as they are improved as a result of further experience and research. With the diversification and expansion of activities now going on, students have an opportunity to study an operating forest in all its phases and to obtain a grasp of the proper balance between theory and practice.

The Forest is admirably located for research in forest soils. An unusually large number of different soil conditions occur in the Forest because of the diversity of parent rock, topography, and past land culture. Major soil differences are due to the nature of the parent material which includes the basic rock of the Carolina Slate formation, granites, Triassic sedimentary rock, and many types of basic intrusives.

An exceptionally good opportunity exists for the conduct of forest research by graduate students due to the wide range in forest types, ages, and soil conditions within the Forest and its proximity to the laboratories, greenhouses, and other scientific equipment and library facilities of the University. Research is being conducted on special problems, particularly in the fields of silvics, forest soils, forest-tree physiology, forest entomology, forest pathology, silviculture, forest management, and wood technology. The Forest is used not only for research in forestry but also for research in forest biology by members of allied departments.

THE ARBORETUM

Of outstanding value in the teaching of both forestry and botany in the future is the provision for the development of an arboretum. In their annual meeting on June 4, 1934, the Board of Trustees of Duke University, upon the recommendation of their Forestry Committee, voted to set aside permanently an area of over three hundred acres in the Forest to be used for arboretum purposes. The area lies adjacent to the main University campus immediately across the road from the Chapel.

Through the generosity of the late W. W. Flowers, of New York, a member of the Class of 1894 and a Trustee of the University, it has been possible to develop preliminary plans and to make a number of plantings. This is naturally a long-time project, and many years will elapse before the Arboretum will be most useful and most attractive. The University Trustees' Committee on Forestry in its report to the Board refers to the Arboretum as follows:

"The Arboretum should serve as a station for the study of trees and woody plants as individuals and in small groups in their scientific relations, economic properties, and cultural characteristics, requirements, and possibilities. It should render an economic service by acting as a research laboratory where trees and shrubs can be studied from the viewpoint of a fuller utilization of their commercial possibilities. It should render a cultural service by serving as a center where foresters, landscape architects, nurserymen, gardeners, and the general public may increase their knowledge of indigenous trees and shrubs and where they may become acquainted with the foreign species that can be grown here. Within the University the Arboretum will supply living specimens and material for several branches of botany and forestry."

The development of the Arboretum will proceed along these lines as rapidly as available funds and planting stock will permit.

FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS IN FORESTRY

A number of fellowships, scholarships, and research assistantships are available to men who offer promise of becoming leaders in the forestry profession. These will be awarded for high character and marked scholastic ability as judged by education, experience, and personal references.

Holders of the awards will pay tuition and such additional fees as are regularly required.

The awards are of three classes with stipends and special conditions as follows:

(1) Fellowships of $600 to $1,000 each. Each recipient must have previously completed work equivalent to that required at Duke University for a Master's degree with major in forestry or in a discipline basic to forestry. He will devote his time to an approved program of study and research in any of the branches of forestry. He is expected to become a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Forestry or Doctor of Philosophy.

(2) Scholarships of $250 to $700 each. Each recipient will normally devote his time to an approved program of study leading to the degree of Master of Forestry or Master of Arts with a major in forestry.

Holders of fellowships and scholarships will be expected to do a limited amount of assisting.

(3) Graduate assistantships of $1,000 each. Each recipient will devote half-time to research or other work of the School of Forestry. He will be permitted to enroll for not more than 20 semester hours in a school year on a program of study, or study and research, leading to the degree of Master of Forestry, Master of Arts, Doctor of Forestry, or Doctor of Philosophy.

Two Union Bag & Paper Corporation forestry fellowships of $800 each are available for graduate study leading to the degrees of Master of Forestry or Doctor of Forestry with major work in the fields of harvesting and marketing of forest products, silviculture, or forest economics, or combination majors in two of the above fields, for men interested in private forestry careers. Preference will be given to forestry graduates of southern institutions for one of the awards. College graduates not having degrees in forestry must have completed at least one year of forestry in a recognized school of forestry to be eligible for these fellowships. The Woodlands Division of the Union Bag & Paper Corporation with headquarters at Savannah, Georgia, has agreed to employ the recipients of the awards during the summer preceding their enrollment in the Duke School of Forestry to provide opportunity for contact with private forestry activities and to assemble material for their theses, should they desire to avail themselves of this opportunity. A fund is available each year for expenses incurred in the collection and analysis of thesis data and for other expenses in connection with the fellowships. This fund is disbursed by the School of Forestry only as needed for essential expenses.

The following arrangements are common to all fellowships, scholarships and research assistantships in forestry:

(1) Each applicant must have received a Bachelor's degree from an acceptable professional school of forestry or must be a graduate of a recognized college or university. If an applicant is not a graduate of a school of forestry, he must have had major work in botany or soil science and in the allied basic sciences. Each applicant must show reasonably high scholarship. Preference will be given to men who have already obtained technical or professional training in forestry.

(2) It is highly desirable that each applicant state as specifically as possible the field in which he wishes to study. The definite selection of a major field of work—one that is specific in purpose and involves training both in fundamentals and in technique—is very helpful to the Committee on Awards.

(3) Application blanks for fellowships, scholarships, and research assistantships may be obtained by writing to the Dean of the School of Forestry, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina. When the blank has been filled out by the applicant, it should be returned to the above address, and an official transcript of record showing college or university credits must accompany it or be forwarded promptly. The application and transcript must be filed not later than March 1 for consideration for the following academic year. In case vacancies occur, applications submitted on a later date may be considered.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

The following general requirements of the School of Forestry apply to candidates for the Master of Forestry degree:

Admission to the School of Forestry presupposes that the applicant is either a graduate of a scientific school, college, or university of high standing, but without professional training in forestry; or that he is a graduate of a professional school of forestry. He will present not less than four years of credit of collegiate grade with at least one and one half times as many quality points as hours.¹

An applicant with no professional training in forestry will present a certified transcript of his academic record showing that he has had conferred upon him a degree in arts, science, or engineering; and that he has satisfactorily completed undergraduate work in minimum amount as follows:

One year of botany, including the morphology, physiology, and identification of plants.

One year each of English composition and of chemistry.

One course each in physics and in the principles of economics.

Mathematics, through college algebra and trigonometry.

It is urged that an applicant without professional training in forestry present additional credits in the above subjects and in one or more of the following subjects: soils, geology, mineralogy, petrology, climatology, surveying, languages (particularly German and French), sociology, political science, philosophy, psychology, and zoology.

An applicant who is a graduate of a professional school of forestry will present a certified transcript of scholastic record showing the award of a degree. Before registering for the first semester of residence, such applicants will be required to select the branch or branches of forestry in which they wish to concentrate the major part of their work and to prepare their proposed programs in conference with the appropriate faculty adviser.

Students must make application for admission in advance of the opening of the school year. Those students entering without acceptable courses in plane surveying, forest surveying, and forest mensuration must take the twelve weeks of work in these subjects in the Summer Session, and are required to submit their applications prior to May 1. Students entering with advanced standing in surveying and forest mensuration should make application before September 1. Application blanks will be sent upon request made to the Dean of the School of Forestry.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF FORESTRY

The degree of Master of Forestry (M.F.) is conferred upon students who have satisfactorily completed two years of study in technical forestry and one term of twelve weeks work in plane surveying, forest surveying, and forest mensuration in the Summer Session. In addition to the Summer Session work a total of not less than sixty semester hours credit is required for the M.F. degree, of which at least fifty shall have been obtained in the School of Forestry. Each student must have obtained at least as many quality points as semester hours of credit, under the quality-point system described in footnote 1 of the preceding section, to qualify for the M.F. degree.

Field studies of typical timber-harvesting, manufacturing, and other utilization operations in the South Atlantic Coastal Plain are conducted from the School's field headquarters during a two-week period in the spring semester as part of the work required of students registered in Harvesting and Processing Forest Products (Forestry 212). Other students may be permitted or advised to take this work for which one semester hour of credit may be earned by registering for it in Forestry 212A. A similar period of field work in silviculture, forest management, and other subjects in the Coastal Plain is available to students.

No student may take less than fourteen or more than eighteen hours in any one semester without special permission of the School of Forestry Faculty. The following work will be required of all candidates for the M.F. degree:

SUMMER SESSION

	S.H.
Plane Surveying (C.E. S110)	4
Forest Surveying (F. S150)	5
Forest Mensuration (F. S151)	4

SECOND YEAR

Two curricula in forestry are available after the common minimum requirements for both have been met. One is in general forestry; the other in forest products. The required work in each curriculum, in addition to that common to both, is:

GENERAL FORESTRY CURRICULUM

First Semester		Second Semester
	S.H.		S.H.
Forest Entomology (F. 231)	3	Silviculture (F. 266)	2
Silviculture (F. 265)	3	Forest Valuation (F. 278)	3

Thesis and electives	3

Each candidate is required to file in the office of the Dean of the School of Forestry on or before May 15 three copies of a thesis, typewritten and bound in accordance with regulations set forth by the Faculty. The thesis shall be based upon an original study made in the field, laboratory, or library.

Work of equivalent grade done in residence at other institutions may, with the approval of the Faculty, be accepted as credit toward the M.F. degree. A minimum of one year's residence is required at Duke University. Students who have had satisfactory undergraduate training in forestry may, with the approval of the Faculty, elect to devote the major portion of their time to research under the supervision of one or more members of the Faculty and prepare a more comprehensive thesis than is required of students entering the School without previous work in forestry. Students in the School of Forestry may take in allied departments of the University as electives certain courses approved by the Faculty.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF FORESTRY

THE DEGREE

The degree of Doctor of Forestry (D.F.) is a professional and research degree, involving both advanced study and research. It is based upon evidence of high attainments in a special branch of forestry knowledge or in the broad field of forestry, including the production of a thesis which is the result of original work and which is a distinct contribution to knowledge in the field of forestry.

A student who plans to enter upon a program of work leading to the degree of Doctor of Forestry should consult or enter into correspondence with the Dean of the School of Forestry. He will then be advised as to the possibility of obtaining the necessary instruction and supervision of work in the fields desired.

RESIDENCE

The normal period of resident graduate study, following satisfaction of the general requirements for admission to the Duke School of Forestry, is a minimum of two academic years after the student has obtained the graduate professional degree of Master of Forestry, or its equivalent. At least one of these two years of graduate study must be spent in actual residence at Duke University. With the approval of the Faculty of the School of Forestry work of equal grade done in residence at another college or university, or at a research station or institute not connected with a college or university, may be accepted toward a Doctor of Forestry degree. Only in connection with the preparation of the thesis will work be accepted that has been done elsewhere than in residence at a college, university, research station, or institute. A student whose undergraduate work is insufficient in amount or unsatisfactory in character may be required to spend additional time in preliminary courses essential as a basis for the graduate work he proposes to undertake.

Students whose research is concerned with the study of trees and forest stands in the Duke Forest during the growing season may find it necessary to be at the University during the summer.

Credit for one year of work done in regular terms of the Summer Session at Duke University may be given with the approval of the School of Forestry Faculty. Graduate work of fragmentary character taken over a long period of years, or work completed many years before the student becomes a candidate for the degree at Duke University, will not be accepted as satisfying the requirements of residence, except in unusual cases.

APPLICATION FOR CANDIDACY

No student will be admitted as a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Forestry until he has obtained the professional graduate degree of Master of Forestry or its equivalent, either at Duke University or at a professional school of forestry of recognized standing. A student desiring to become a candidate for the Doctor of Forestry degree is ordinarily required to file with the Dean of the School of Forestry, at the beginning of his graduate work toward this degree, a formal application indicating in which field and under what professor he proposes to carry on research. A committee of the Faculty will then be appointed to supervise the student's work, with the professor in charge of his research as chairman. If and when the committee finds that the preliminary requirements of the major field have been satisfied, the chairman of the committee will report the fact in writing to the Dean of the School of Forestry. In the case of students who come to Duke University for only the last year of graduate work, and in special cases approved by the School of Forestry Faculty, the application for recognition as a candidate for the Doctor of Forestry degree may be filed later than provided above, but not later than October 15 of the academic year in which it is desired that the degree be conferred.

PROGRAM OF STUDY

The program of study of a candidate for the Doctor of Forestry degree will be arranged after consultation with the committee provided for in the preceding section and is subject to the approval of the Dean and Faculty of the School of Forestry. The student must select a major field and one or two minor related fields. Both major and minor may be selected in different branches of forestry or the minor may be taken in a related field in some other school or department of Duke University.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

A reading knowledge of two foreign languages is required. One language shall be either French or German, and the other optional to fit the requirements of the student's problem. No student may come up for his preliminary examination before having satisfied the language requirements for the Doctor of Forestry degree. Foreign language examinations are conducted by the appropriate language department or, in special cases, by another qualified member of the Faculty of Duke University.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

Toward the end of the first full year of graduate work for the Doctor of Forestry degree (or in special cases early in the second year), a preliminary examination of each candidate will ordinarily be held covering the general field of his studies. This examination will be conducted by the committee in charge of the student's work and will be written. A student who passes the examination will be recognized as a candidate for the Doctor of Forestry degree. A student's major and minor subjects will ordinarily be included in this preliminary examination.

If a student fails on his first examination, he may make a second attempt after six months upon recommendation of his committee and approval by the Dean of the School of Forestry. Two failures on this examination make the student ineligible to continue work toward the Doctor of Forestry degree at Duke University.

THESIS

The thesis for the Doctor of Forestry degree must be a contribution to knowledge. The subject of the thesis must be filed with the Dean of the School of Forestry on or before October 15 of the academic year in which the candidate desires to take the final examination for his degree. The subject must receive the written approval of the professor under whom the thesis is being written and of the Dean of the School of Forestry. The thesis must be completed to the satisfaction of the major professor. Four typewritten copies in approved form must be deposited with the Dean of the School of Forestry on or before April 15 if the student desires to be examined on the thesis in the same academic year. The title page must be approved by the Dean of the School of Forestry. Two of the copies, the original and a carbon copy, are placed in the School of Forestry library, one copy goes to the major adviser, and one is returned to the student.

The candidate's thesis must be published either in its original form or in a modified form approved by the Dean of the School of Forestry and the committee in charge of the candidate's work. In its published form the title page should include this statement: "A Thesis Submitted in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Doctor of Forestry in the School of Forestry of Duke University."

Before the degree is conferred the candidate must deposit with the Treasurer of the University a special thesis fee of fifty dollars in cash. If the thesis is published in a form satisfactory to the Dean of the School of Forestry and to the professor under whom it is written within a period of three years from the date the degree is granted the fee of fifty dollars is returned. Ten copies of the published thesis must be deposited in the office of the Dean of the School of Forestry as provided by regulations of the Faculty of this school.

FINAL EXAMINATION

The final examination will be on the thesis and on related subject matter and will be oral. Approximately one year must elapse between the date of the preliminary examination and the final examination, except in special cases approved by the School of Forestry Faculty. Two failures on this examination make a student ineligible to continue work toward the Doctor of Forestry degree at Duke University. The second examination may be given only upon the recommendation of the professor in charge of the thesis and the approval of the Dean of the School of Forestry.

GRADING

Members of the Faculty are expected to report grades of graduate students to the School of Forestry Office not later than February 15 for the first semester and not later than June 15 for the second semester on the cards provided for that purpose. An average grade of "B" or better will be required for all work, beyond that for the degree of Master of Forestry, that is to be credited toward the Doctor of Forestry degree. A mark of "Incomplete" may be given when a student has failed, for an acceptable reason, to complete some portion of the required work in which his standing is generally satisfactory. Unless a report is made within one year that the work has been satisfactorily completed all credit will be lost.

FORESTRY IN THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Graduate work toward the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in the more scientific branches of forestry is available to adequately prepared students at Duke University. This work is given through the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences by certain members of the School of Forestry Faculty.

The following special conditions will influence the acceptance of students for graduate study in forestry: The student must have received a degree from a professional school of forestry of recognized standing or from an approved college or university. Graduates of professional schools of forestry must also have had adequate training in liberal arts and sciences, approximating 86 semester hours, before being admitted to candidacy for the Master of Arts or Doctor of Philosophy degree. College graduates who have had specialized training in botany or soil science and in allied basic subjects, such as physics, chemistry, geology, and zoology, may pursue graduate study and research only in the specialized fields for which their previous work has qualified them.

The Forestry Staff will determine whether a student is qualified to pursue graduate study in any of the special fields of forestry in which work is available.

The Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees are attained through scientific work rather than technical or professional training in forestry. Work for these degrees may be pursued only in forest-tree physiology, wood anatomy and properties, forest pathology, forest entomology, silvics, forest soils, forest mensuration, forest management, and forest economics, except that a major cannot be taken in forest management. A student upon registration chooses a field of study which may lie in two or more departments. The members of the Graduate School Faculty best qualified in that field are named as the student's advisory committee, regardless of the department of which they are members. This committee will advise the student in the planning and conduct of his work and will evaluate it when completed.

A reading knowledge of French and German must be acquired early in the course of graduate study in forestry because much of the forestry literature of the world is written in or has summaries in these languages. For the Ph.D. degree the language requirement must be met before the preliminary examination is taken and usually before the preparation of the thesis is begun.

The length of time required for a student to obtain the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in forestry is determined by the character of his previous work and by the quality of his work in the Graduate School. Upon the recommendation of the Forestry Staff and with the approval of the Council on Graduate Instruction, work of equal grade done in residence at another college or university, or at a research station or institute not connected with a college or university, may be accepted toward a Ph.D. degree, but at least the last year of the first two years of graduate study must be spent in actual residence at Duke University. Only in connection with the preparation of the thesis will work be accepted that has been done elsewhere than in residence at a college, university, or research station.

Students whose research is concerned with the study of trees and forest stands in the Duke Forest during the growing season may find it necessary to be at the University during the summer.

The field of study may include advanced work in allied subjects as well as advanced work in forestry. The students should have covered, however, most of the basic subjects prior to entering the Graduate School. The required advanced work will depend upon the student's previous training and the special field of study selected. Before beginning his work a student must obtain approval of his proposed program of study, including the plans for the research for his thesis. Courses of study must be correlated with each other and with the thesis research.

For further information on requirements for admission to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and on the general requirements for the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees reference should be made to the Bulletin of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

COURSES AND SUBJECTS OF INSTRUCTION

With the exception of the summer session courses, odd-numbered courses are offered in the autumn semester, and even-numbered courses are offered in the spring semester.

IN THE SUMMER SESSION

C.E. S110. Plane Surveying.—A special section of C.E. 61 intended for students in Forestry and others of advanced standing. Four weeks, nine hours a day, beginning June 13, 1950. 4 s.h. Mr. BROWN

S150. Forest Surveying.—Application of plane surveying to forest problems; practice in making boundary and topographic surveys of forested tracts, using both intensive and extensive methods. Work includes use of transit, level, traverse board, topographic abney and slope tape, and aneroid barometer. Prerequisites: Civil Engineering S110, plane surveying, or equivalent. Five weeks, eight hours a day, beginning July 11, 1950. 5 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RUDOLPH

S151. Forest Mensuration.—Field studies in methods of measuring content and growth of trees and forest stands; practice in timber estimating, log scaling, use of mensurational instruments, and collection of basic data. Four weeks, eight hours a day, beginning August 14, 1950. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

212. Harvesting and Processing Forest Products.—Methods of harvesting and processing products obtained from forests, with emphasis on application of methods to managed forests in important forest regions of North America and a consideration of costs. A two-week field trip in the southeast is required for visits to typical harvesting operations and manufacturing plants. 4 s.h. (w).

PROFESSOR WACKERMAN

213. Seasoning and Preservation of Wood.—Principles of seasoning lumber and other forest products by air drying and kiln drying, types of kilns and their operation; principles, methods, and materials used in treating wood to increase its durability. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR WACKERMAN

214. Marketing Forest Products.—Methods of selling and distributing timber, lumber, and other forest products in domestic and foreign trade; transportation methods; promotional activities of trade associations; competition between producing regions for markets and problems arising from the development of wood substitutes. Prerequisites: Forestry 212 or equivalent. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR WACKERMAN

224. Forest Pathology.—Special reference to diseases of forest trees. Prerequisites: Botany 1 and 2, and Forestry 253, or equivalents. 3 or 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR WOLF

231. Forest Entomology.—Morphology, general classification, life histories, and control of insects injurious to forest trees, logs, and lumber. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR BEAL

232. Forest Products Entomology.—Special reference to insects infesting forest products; recognition, character of damage, and control of species causing injury to manufactured wood products. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR BEAL

236. Forest Game Management.—Characteristics and life histories of forest animals; interrelationship between animals and forests; management of forest animals for revenue; control of noxious species. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR BEAL

251. Sampling Methods in Forestry.—Statistical background for solution of sampling problems with special reference to sample inventory of a forest property. Offered both semesters. Prerequisite: Forestry S151. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

252. Forest Mensuration.—Empirical equations and curve fitting appropriate for construction of timber yield tables, tree volume and taper tables; significance tests and graphical solution of equations. Assignments require operation of calculating machines. Prerequisite: Forestry 251. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

253. Dendrology.—Nomenclature, classification, and identification of woody plants with special reference to species indigenous to southeastern United States and other important forest regions of temperate North America. Laboratory and field work. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR HARRAR

255. Bonding of Wood.—Preparation of veneers and lumber for bonding; types and characteristics of modern adhesives used in the manufacture of plywood and laminates; cold and hot pressing procedures; use of electronic heating; bag molding techniques; manufacture and properties of transmuted wood; inspection and testing procedures. Prerequisite: Forestry 260 or equivalent. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR HARRAR

257. Design of Forestry Experiments and Analysis of Data.—Role of experimental design in field and laboratory, and statistical analysis of data as aspects of scientific methods in forest research. 5 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

259. Wood Anatomy.—Study of the physical features and the gross and minute structural characteristics of wood leading to the identification of the commercial woods of the United States, and the important tropical woods used in American wood-working industries. Elementary microtechnique. Prerequisite: One year of botany. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR HARRAR

260. Properties of Wood.—The chemical nature of wood substance and its industrial chemical derivatives. Wood-moisture relationships; pertinent non-mechanical physical properties; mechanical properties and factors affecting the strength of wood; standard timber testing procedures. Uses of woods as determined by their properties. Prerequisites: Forestry 259, one year of college chemistry; one course in college physics. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR HARRAR

261. Forest Soils.—Origin, development, and classification of soils with special emphasis on those developed in humid climates; morphological, physical, and chemical properties of soils in relation to growth of trees; effect of forests on soils. Prerequisites: Chemistry 1 and 2, and Physics 1, or equivalents; physical geology, mineralogy, petrology, and analytical chemistry are also desirable. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR COILE

263. Silvics.—Ecological foundations of silviculture with special reference to forest site factors; influence of forests on their environment; growth and development of trees and stands; origin, development, and classification of forest communities; methods of studying forest environments. Desirable prerequisites: plant physiology, plant ecology, and Forestry 253 and 261, or equivalents. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

265. Theory and Practice of Silviculture.—Principles governing natural regeneration and treatment of forest stands and their application; reproduction methods, intermediate cuttings, and cultural operations. Field practice includes marking for various kinds of cuttings, cultural treatments, and study of managed stands in the Duke Forest. Prerequisite: Forestry 263 or equivalent. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

266. Applied Silviculture.—Application and comparison of silvicultural practices to principal commercial forest species, types and regions of temperate North America, with particular emphasis on the South. Field work will include preparation of silvicultural plans and approximately one week at the spring camp studying silviculture in the Atlantic Coastal Plain. Prerequisite: Forestry 265 or equivalent. 2 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

268. Forest Seeding and Planting.—Place of artificial regeneration in practice of forestry; reforestation surveys and plans; collection, extraction, cleaning, testing, and storage of forest tree seeds; direct seeding; nursery practice; forest planting. 2 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

273. Forest Protection.—Principles of forest protection; causes, character and effects of forest fires; principles of forest fire prevention, presuppression and suppression; fire control costs and fire plans; protection against domestic animals, wildlife, and atmospheric agencies. 2 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RUDOLPH

275. Forestry Policy.—Critical study of forestry movement and development of a forestry policy, particularly in United States; brief résumé of forestry in important foreign countries; public land laws of United States; development of Federal and State forestry; forestry laws. 2 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMSON

277. Economics of Forestry.—Principles of forest economics. Contributions of land, labor, and capital to income from forestry enterprises; costs of production and maintenance of forest income; forest resources and requirements in products and services; consumption and prices of forest products; forest ownership problems; forest appraisal and comparative valuation; forest fire insurance and forestry credit; forest taxation; timber marketing problems; effect of business cycles and long-term trends upon demand and prices of forest products. Prerequisite: at least one course in the principles of economics. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMSON

278. Forest Valuation.—Principles underlying the appraisal of values of forests and forestry. The use of interest and the discount process in timber appraisals for going enterprises and in determinations of the profitability of prospective forestry enterprises. Use of sale comparisons and conversion returns as aids in forest valuation. Prerequisites: Forestry 277 and 280, or equivalents. Not open to students who have previously had a course in forest valuation. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMSON

279. Economic Analysis in Forestry.—Economic analysis as an aid in the solution of forestry problems. Applications peculiar to forestry in consideration of land and economic rent, labor and wages, capital and interest, risk, and flow of income; use of marginal cost and comparative valuation in testing efficiency of forestry operations and in solving problems of land use and forest ownership; analysis of timber prices and their relation to the business cycle; critical analysis of suggested solutions of the problems of forest taxation, forest insurance, and forestry credit. Open only to graduates of schools of forestry. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMSON

280. Forest Management.—Principles of organizing forest properties for systematic management; use of data obtained in surveys and inventories; principles of forest regulation, including a study of normal and actual forests, rotations, cutting cycles, and methods of regulating the cut in even-aged and all-aged forests for sustained yield; introduction to the preparation of preliminary forest management plans. Prerequisite: Forestry 251 or equivalent. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RUDOLPH

282. Management Plans.—The preparation of a preliminary forest management plan. Relocation of property boundaries; forest surveys and inventories; subdivision of forest properties for management purposes; determination of the increment and regulation of the cut; selection of applicable methods of silvicultural treatment; provisions for the protection, operation and general administration of forest properties; forest records. One week is spent in field work in the South Atlantic Coastal Plain. Prerequisites: Forestry 265 and 280 or equivalents. 2 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RUDOLPH

212A to 282A. Special Studies in Forestry.—Work on the same level as the foregoing Senior-Graduate courses to meet the needs of individual students. Credits and hours to be arranged. THE STAFF

FOR GRADUATES

301-302. Advanced Studies in Forestry.—Credits to be arranged. To meet individual needs of graduate students in the following branches of forestry:

- a. Silvics.—Prerequisites: Forestry 253, 261, and 263, or equivalents. PROFESSOR KORSTIAN
- b. Forest Soils.—Prerequisite: Forestry 261 or equivalent. PROFESSOR COILE
- c. Silviculture.—Prerequisites: Forestry 265 and 266 or equivalent. PROFESSOR KORSTIAN
- d. Forest Management.—Prerequisite: Forestry 280 or equivalent. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RUDOLPH
- e. Forest Economics.—Prerequisite: Forestry 277 or 279 or equivalent. PROFESSOR THOMSON
- f. Properties of Wood.—Prerequisites: Forestry 259 and 260, or equivalents. PROFESSOR HARRAR
- g. Forest Mensuration.—Prerequisite: Forestry 252, or equivalent. PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER
- h. Forest Entomology.—Prerequisites: Forestry 231, 232 or equivalent. PROFESSOR BEAL
- i. Forest Utilization.—Prerequisite: Forestry 212 or equivalent. PROFESSOR WACKERMAN
- j. Dendrology.—Prerequisite: Forestry 253 or equivalent. PROFESSOR HARRAR

311. Advanced Forest Utilization.—Analysis of the principles of determining the cost of and returns from harvesting and manufacturing timber for various products and other uses of forests; study of factors governing the relation of tree size to net stumpage values; and the application of these principles and methods in the solution of actual case problems. Prerequisite: Forestry 212 or equivalent. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR WACKERMAN

320. Seminar in Silviculture.—Arranged primarily to give graduates of other schools of forestry special training in the silviculture of the forests of the South. Approximately one week will be spent at the spring camp studying silviculture in the Coastal Plain. Prerequisite: At least one course in silviculture. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

322. Soil Classification and Mapping.—Classification of soils as natural bodies. Mapping of soils, land use classes and forest site classes. Prerequisite: Forestry 261. 2 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR COILE

323-324. Advanced Forest Pathology.—Advanced study and research on life histories and control of diseases of forest trees to meet individual needs of graduate students. Prerequisites: plant physiology and forest pathology. Credits to be arranged. PROFESSOR WOLF

351-352. Advanced Physiology of Forest Trees.—Advanced study and research on problems in physiology of forest trees to meet individual needs of graduate students. Prerequisites: plant physiology and plant ecology or silvics. Credits to be arranged. PROFESSOR KRAMER

354. Forest Soil Fertility.—Experimental approach to the problems of fertility in forest soil. Influence of stand composition on nitrogen transformation. Methods of studying the exchange complex and the significance of base exchange in forest soil fertility. Prerequisites: Forestry 251 and 261, plant physiology, bacteriology and analytical chemistry. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR COILE

356. Comparative Forest Valuation.—Critical analysis of classical and contemporary doctrines of comparative forest valuation. Principles underlying the measurement of forces affecting values of land for forestry and alternative uses and investments of capital. Solution of problems involving procedures based upon these principles. Prerequisites: Forestry 277, 278, or 279, or equivalent; courses in economic theory are desirable. 2 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMSON

357-358. Research in Forestry.—Credits to be arranged. Students who have had adequate training may do research under direction of members of the Faculty in the branches of forestry indicated under courses 301-302 with the same prerequisites as thereunder noted. Each branch to bear the same letter designation as under Courses 301-302. THE STAFF

FEES AND EXPENSES

The following tables show the general fees and charges collected from all students. All fees for each semester are due and payable, unless otherwise specified, at the time of registration at the beginning of that semester, and no student is admitted to classes until arrangements have been made with the Treasurer of the University for the settlement of fees.

GENERAL FEES

Tuition, per semester	$175.00
General Fee, per semester	60.00

TRANSCRIPTS

A student desiring to transfer from Duke University to another institution is entitled to one transcript of his record. A charge of one dollar is made for each additional copy.

PAYMENTS TO FELLOWS AND SCHOLARS

Payments by the University of stipends to fellows, research assistants, and scholars are made in four installments, on November 25, January 25, March 25, and May 25. Fellows and scholars are required to pay the regular tuition fee and such additional fees as are ordinarily required of graduate students.

ROOMS AND CONDITIONS OF RENTING THEM

ROOM-RENT FOR MEN OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

Single room, per semester	$87.50
Double room, per student, per semester	62.50

Rooms may be reserved only for applicants who have been officially accepted by the University. A fee of $25.00 is required for reservation. This fee is deducted from the room rental charge at the time of registration for the semester; it is not refunded unless application for the refund is made 60 days prior to the registration date of the semester.

A resident student in order to retain his room for the succeeding semester must make application, accompanied by a reservation fee of $25.00. All rooms which have not been reserved on or before an announced date will be considered vacant for the succeeding semester and will be reserved in the order in which applications are made.

Rooms are rented for no shorter period than one semester unless by special arrangement with the Housing Bureau. A period of occupancy other than a semester and without special arrangement will be charged at a minimum rate of $1.00 per day.

The exchange of rooms may be arranged at the Housing Bureau within 15 days after the official opening of either semester of the school term. A charge of two dollars ($2.00) will be made for the exchange of rooms after the periods allowed for such exchange. Persons exchange-ing rooms without the approval of the Housing Bureau will be subject to charges for both rooms.

The authorities of the University do not assume the responsibility for the personnel selected as roommates. Each student is urged to select the roommate when the room is reserved.

DORMITORIES FOR MEN

On the West Campus there are four groups of dormitories, Craven, Crowell, Kilgo, and Few. Each group forms a quadrangle enclosing a court. Few Quadrangle is reserved especially for the use of graduate and professional school students.

BOARDING ACCOMMODATIONS

West Campus.—Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities in the Union on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus and, in addition, the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served. In the Union also are located the U. S. Post Office, the University Store, the University Barber Shop, and miscellaneous offices and assembly rooms.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR AN ACADEMIC YEAR

The necessary expenses of a graduate student are moderate: the University dormitories provide thoroughly comfortable and wholesome living conditions at a minimum cost, while all charges made by the University have been kept low. Incidental expenses naturally depend upon the tastes and habits of the individual. The following table gives the necessary college expenses for one year:

	Low	Moderate	Liberal
Tuition	$350.00	$ 350.00	$ 350.00
General Fee	120.00	120.00	120.00
Room-rent	125.00	125.00	175.00
Board	337.50	388.00	468.00
Laundry	20.00	25.00	35.00
Books	22.50	30.00	45.00
Athletic Fee (optional)	10.00	10.00	10.00
Total	$985.00	$1,048.00	$1,203.00

GENERAL STATEMENT

Duke University, through the College of Engineering, offers standard four-year courses in Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. In addition to the technical subjects leading to professional engineering work, correlated instruction is given in English, economics, mathematics, chemistry, physics, history, and non-technical electives.

ACCREDITING

The Engineers' Council for Professional Development has accredited the Duke University College of Engineering in all three of its curricula—Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. The ultimate authority of the engineering profession on educational standards, the Council represents the five major professional engineering societies of national scope and the state boards of engineering examiners. In addition, the three curricula of the College of Engineering are approved by the Regents of the State of New York and by other national and regional accrediting groups.

By this accrediting Duke engineering graduates are assured of full recognition of their educational background, both in admission to professional organizations and in the issuance of licenses for professional practice.

FACULTY

The members of the Instructional Staff are men of recognized professional competence who have been chosen particularly for their ability to teach. Instruction is given in small sections in order to provide personal attention for each student.

HISTORY

Instruction in engineering subjects began at Duke University in 1887. Separate departments in civil and electrical engineering were established in 1927; instruction in mechanical engineering began in 1930. This arrangement led in 1937 to the establishment of the Division of Engineering, which included the separate Departments of Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering.

In 1939 the Division composed of these three Departments was incorporated into the University structure as the College of Engineering, one of the three coordinate undergraduate colleges of Duke University. Through the College of Engineering, Duke University now offers the degree of Bachelor of Science in Civil, Electrical, or Mechanical Engineering.

ADMINISTRATION

The chief administrative officer of the College of Engineering is the Dean, who correlates the activities of the three component Departments of Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. Three departmental Chairmen supervise the work of their respective departments. Together with the Dean, these Chairmen constitute the Executive Committee of the College.

The Council of the College of Engineering is authorized to exercise all educational functions that lie within its field. The Council consists of the Dean of the College of Engineering, the Dean of Undergraduate Studies, the Chairman and one representative from each department of engineering, and three members to be appointed annually by the President from the general faculty representing departments in which students of engineering are required to take work.

PHYSICAL PLANT

A major step in the evolution of engineering instruction at Duke University was completed when the College of Engineering first occupied a new physical plant in January, 1948. This structure is on the West Campus in a setting of tall pines apart from the Main Quadrangle and yet within a few hundred feet of the Duke Chapel tower. Unlike the Gothic buildings of the Main Quadrangle, the Engineering Building is of Georgian Colonial style, with red brick façade and white stone trim.

This E-shaped building houses the entire College of Engineering. It has a total volume of 1,200,000 cubic feet and provides a floor area of 70,000 square feet. Each of the three wings houses the laboratories and the specialized classrooms of one of the three engineering departments. The main portion of the building has offices, classrooms, and other general facilities.

GENERAL FACILITIES

Provided in the Engineering Building for the use of all three departments of engineering are a number of general facilities.

Library: The Engineering Library contains a growing collection of approximately 13,000 volumes on engineering and closely related subjects, and in addition subscribes to approximately 210 periodicals, of which 130 are bound each year. The well-lighted reading room has seating accommodations for 48 students. Engineering students also have full access to the University Library, to the Woman's College Library, and to the various specialized departmental libraries.

Lecture Room: An attractively decorated lecture room seating 216 people permits audio-visual instruction of large groups.

Classrooms: There are nine well-lighted classrooms seating an average of 30 students per room.

Drafting Rooms: Five drafting rooms that accommodate an average of 30 students each facilitate work in the various courses in which graphic methods are taught and employed.

Mimeographing and Blue-Printing: A special room is furnished with equipment for reproducing printed matter and diagrams by either mimeographing, blue-printing, or white-printing.

Photographic Dark Room: In a separate room are facilities for processing a wide variety of photographic material used to supplement course instruction.

Student Lounge: A convenient lounge is provided for the use of students.

Engineering Publications Room: The staff of the Duke Engineer, official student-published magazine of the College of Engineering, has its headquarters in the building.

Conference Room: A special room is furnished for conference work by faculty committees and for student interviews with visiting industrial personnel representatives.

THE AIR FORCE RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Duke University, in cooperation with the United States Air Force presents the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps program administered by an Air Force ROTC Unit under the command of the Professor of Air Science and Tactics which functions as a regular department of instruction known as the Department of Air Science. This organization is one of more than one hundred (100) whose purpose it is to select and train students who possess the character, intelligence, desire, and sense of duty to become Air Force Officers and responsible citizens.

Eligibility requirements for enrollment in the Basic Course (freshman and sophomore years) are:

- a. Be a male citizen of the United States.
- b. Be physically qualified under standards prescribed by the Air Force. Due allowance will be made for defects which are correctible prior to the student's eligibility for appointment as a commissioned officer.
- c. Be accepted by the institution as a regularly enrolled student.
- d. Be not less than 14 years of age and not have reached 23 years of age at the time of enrollment.
- e. Successfully complete such general survey and screening tests as may be prescribed.

For enrollment in the Advanced Course (junior and senior years) the student must:

- a. Have successfully completed the Basic Course or have had at least one year of honorable service.
- b. Execute a written agreement with the government to complete the Advanced Course, contingent upon remaining in school, and to attend Advanced Summer Camp at the time specified.
- c. Not have reached 27 years of age at the time of initial enrollment in the Advanced Course.
- d. Have successfully completed such general survey and screening tests as may be prescribed.
- e. Be selected by the Professor of Air Science and Tactics and the head of the institution.

All uniforms, texts, and training equipment required for the Air Science Course are furnished at government expense and students are paid approximately $600 while completing the Advanced Course.

Upon graduation and completion of the Advanced Course students will be offered commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve. Outstanding students will be offered lifetime careers in the Regular Air Force. Flying training is available after graduation for those who desire it and are physically qualified.

A student enrolled in Air Force ROTC is eligible for deferment from the Draft.

The above information can be summarized as follows:

Eligibility Requirements. All physically qualified freshmen who are citizens of the United States and are enrolled in the College of Engineering are eligible to enroll in the Air Force ROTC Courses in Air Installations. Veterans with one year or more of military service may be exempted from the freshman and sophomore courses (AS 11-12, AS 61-62).

Air Force ROTC Courses. The courses are established by the United States Air Force and are approved by the College as electives for all undergraduates. Field or laboratory instruction in leadership, drill, and exercise of command is included as a part of all courses to indoctrinate the student in the fundamental principles of command.

THE NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

The NROTC Unit at Duke University affords the opportunity for selected students to qualify for commissions in the U. S. Navy and U. S. Marine Corps, or the Reserve components of these services. The Naval Science Department is a department of Trinity College, and its courses are given full credit toward the degrees awarded by Trinity College and the College of Engineering.

Navy scholarships under Public Law 729 (The Holloway Plan) are awarded each year as a result of a nation-wide test and selection procedure. Successful candidates are appointed Midshipmen, USNR, and are designated Regular NROTC Students. These Midshipmen are provided with uniforms and equipment, and receive retainer pay at the rate of $600 per year. The scholarship covers the cost of tuition, fees, and books. The Duke University Unit normally has an input of 40 new NROTC Regulars each year. These students are normally expected to earn a degree in four academic years, and must make a training cruise each summer. On graduation they are commissioned and are obligated to serve on active duty for 15-24 months. After this period of duty they have the option of going into inactive duty in the Reserve or of requesting retention in the service as career officers.

Local selection of NROTC Contract Students is made during Freshman Orientation Week from qualified applicants. Contract Students have the status of civilians who have entered into a mutual contract with the Navy. They do not receive the compensation or benefits paid the Regular Students, but are furnished uniforms, equipment, and Naval Science textbooks. During the last two years of the course they receive a subsistence allowance, currently 90 cents per day. They must agree to accept a Reserve commission on graduation, but may, if they so desire, request assignment to active duty and a Regular commission. If so assigned, they then enjoy all the privileges of graduating Regular Students. The Contract Students make only one summer cruise, normally for a three-week period between the junior and senior years.

NROTC students who major in Engineering are normally commissioned general service Line Officers. However, any engineering major may request commission in the Civil Engineer Corps. Preference for such assignment will be given to those who are pursuing a course leading to a degree in Civil Engineering. The selection of CEC candidates is made during the fourth semester, and a summer surveying session will be substituted for the regular summer cruise just prior to the junior year.

There are certain minimum requirements in mathematics, physics, and English for officer candidates. A student who follows any of the NROTC-Engineering curricula will automatically complete all of these requirements. However, he must take in addition such instruction in swimming as will enable him to qualify as First Class Swimmer. These requirements are summarized below.

Naval Science Requirement: 19 s.h. for Naval Officer Candidates. 24 s.h. for Marine Corps Officer Candidates.

University Course Requirement: Completion of course requirements to qualify for the baccalaureate degree, or higher. These courses must include Mathematics 6, and Physics 1, 2 or 51, 52, to be completed by the end of the sophomore year. Physical training must be taken in accordance with University requirements, and each student must include such instruction in swimming as will enable him to qualify as a First Class Swimmer.

Summer Training Requirement: Regular NROTC students must participate in three periods of training on board ship or at Naval Stations. Contract students are required to take one training cruise of three weeks duration, normally between the junior and senior years.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

ADMISSION TO THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Admission to the College of Engineering of Duke University is on a selective basis, dependent upon the ability, attainment, and character of the applicant. No student is admitted until the Committee on Admissions has received his scholastic record from school or college, a certificate of vaccination and of good health, and satisfactory evidence of good character and ability. Prospective students and relatives are invited to visit the University and the College of Engineering in particular. This would be advantageous to the applicant, since it would enable him to acquaint himself with the facilities of the University and to discuss possible courses of study.

Certain days are announced in the University Calendar each year for the registration, classification, and sectioning of students. Those students who are admitted later than the dates announced must pay to the Treasurer $5.00 additional for the privilege of matriculating.

All correspondence relating to admission of men should be addressed to the Secretary of Duke University, Duke Station, Durham, N. C.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

An applicant for admission to the Freshman Class in engineering must have completed at least fifteen units of preparatory work, partly in required and partly in elective subjects. A unit represents a year of work in a subject in an accredited secondary school, provided the work done in that subject is approximately one fourth of the annual amount of work regularly required in the school.

The subjects in which this credit may be offered and the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject are given in the following table:

	UNITS		UNITS
English	4	Botany	1
Latin	4	Zoology	1
Greek	3	General Biology	1
German	3	Physical Geography	1
French	3	General Science	1
Spanish	3	Agriculture	2
Mathematics	4	Mechanical Drawing	2
History and Civics	4	Woodworking, Forging, and Machine Work	2
Physics	1	Household Economics	2
Chemistry	1	Commercial Subjects	3

For a detailed explanation of the units in the table above, see the definitions as set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and other regional associations.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

Applicants able to submit certificates of proficiency from accredited schools in subjects accepted for admission to the Freshman Class will be admitted without examination. These certificates must be made out properly on the regular blanks furnished by the University, signed by the principal of the school from which the applicant comes, and presented before or at the opening of the academic year. The applicant must have completed the course of the school from which he comes.

Required Units

Ten of the fifteen units required for admission must come from the following list of required units.

English	3 units
*A Foreign Language	2 units
Physical Science	1 unit
History	1 unit
Algebra	1½ units
Plane Geometry	1 unit
Solid Geometry	½ unit

Elective Units

In addition to the above required units, sufficient elective units must be offered to make a total of fifteen. It is recommended that these electives be chosen from the following list:

Algebra	½ unit
Trigonometry	½ unit
†German or French or Latin or Spanish or Greek	1 to 4 units
History or Civics (not the required unit)	1 to 3 units
Physics or Chemistry or Biology (not the required unit)	1 to 3 units

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION

Students who present fifteen units for admission from schools not accredited by the University, and students who present the proper units but whose grades are not acceptable, are required to validate their units by entrance examinations in English and in mathematics, and such other tests as the University may prescribe, including the test required by the North Carolina College Conference.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Students may be admitted to advanced standing from other approved institutions under the following conditions: all applicants must have fulfilled the equivalent of the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, must present official certificates of all work done in other institutions, and have honorable dismissal from the institutions they previously attended.

* Any deficiency in this requirement may be made up before graduation.

 Any deficiency in this requirement shall be made up before the beginning of the sophomore year.

† One elective unit in any of the above languages will be accepted for admission provided the language requirement has been satisfied without it. As many as four units will be accepted in any one of these languages.

Applicants for advanced standing should present, so far as possible, subjects corresponding to those required at Duke University. Students admitted to advanced standing may not, during their first semester, elect more than the minimum number of hours required of the class which they enter except by permission of the Dean of Engineering.

Students who have transferred from other colleges must, in order to make their provisional classification final, pass during their first year of residence not less than the equivalent of four year-courses with an average grade of C or higher.

The date for the registration and classification of students with advanced standing from other institutions is announced in the University Calendar. Students who are admitted later than this date are required to pay to the Treasurer $5.00 additional for the privilege of matriculating.

FRESHMAN WEEK

The week immediately preceding the opening of college is set aside for the induction of freshmen. During this period health examinations, psychological tests, and placement tests in English and mathematics are given. Sectioning in these two subjects is based on the grade made on the placement tests. The freshmen are divided into groups for instruction in the use of the library, in the regulations of the student body, and in all matters pertaining to the adjustment of the individual to a new environment. Attendance upon these exercises is required of all freshmen.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Students of mature age not fully prepared to enter the Freshman Class may be admitted as special students and allowed to enroll for such work as they are prepared to carry. Further, they are required to take fifteen hours of classwork a week.

GENERAL ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

The College of Engineering operates on the two-semester plan: the autumn semester and the spring semester begin and close in accordance with the published calendar of this bulletin.

It is important that all students be present on the first day of the session; those who are late incur the penalties described in the Undergraduate Bulletin under the topics "Admission to College" and "Course Cards." Students who enter after the beginning of the semester are marked absent from classes to which they have been assigned, and these absences carry the same penalty as other absences.

DEFINITION OF CREDIT

The unit of credit used in computing class standing is the semester hour, which signifies one recitation a week throughout the semester. Three hours of laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of classwork.

Two semesters of seventeen weeks each constitute the academic year.

EXPLANATION OF QUALITY-POINT SYSTEM

The requirements for the degree are computed not only in semester hours but also in quality points. Quality points are the points earned by a student on the basis of his grades: for an A three quality points per semester hour; for a B two quality points per semester hour; for a C one quality point per semester hour; for a D no quality points. A grade of F carries neither semester hours nor quality points. Credit for 148 semester hours and at least 148 quality points is required for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Civil, Electrical, or Mechanical Engineering.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

All candidates for engineering degrees are required to take the work of the senior year (a minimum of 36 semester hours) in residence. Senior work is defined as comprising, in each curriculum, those courses outlined in the Bulletin for the senior year of that curriculum.

SENIOR WORK

A candidate for the Bachelor of Science degree in any one of the branches of engineering, regardless of his average grade in preceding years, must, in order to be eligible for graduation, complete his senior work as defined in the preceding paragraph with a minimum average, grade of C.

ASSEMBLY AND CLASS MEETINGS

Regular meetings of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes of the College of Engineering are held according to their respective schedules. Meetings of the Freshman Class are held weekly.

Attendance upon these class meetings is compulsory.

OTHER REGULATIONS

See the Undergraduate Bulletin for the regulations concerning class attendance and absences, grades, exclusion for failure, scholastic requirements for participation in athletic and other organizations, etc.

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN ENGINEERING

The studies in the College of Engineering are designed for students who are preparing for civil, electrical, or mechanical engineering as a profession. These studies lead to the following degrees: B.S. in C.E., B.S. in E.E., and B.S. in M.E. All curricula of the College are fully accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development.

UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS

Each of these degrees requires 148 semester hours of work, four of which are in physical education. A student must have at least a C average both for the entire program and in his senior year.

Besides the courses in their special fields, the three departments of the College—the Civil, the Electrical, and the Mechanical—require (1) a uniform program during the student's first year and (2) supplementary work in general courses throughout his last three years. The general courses are listed below. The special program of each department is given in the section of this Bulletin devoted to the specific department.

Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps and Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps students who are majoring in engineering take the standard programs of their departments of specialization with certain exceptions that are noted under the respective departments.

GENERAL COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

REQUIRED NONENGINEERING SUBJECTS

Chem. 1-2. General Inorganic Chemistry.—Lectures, recitations, and laboratory work on the elementary principles of chemistry and on the occurrence, preparation, properties, and uses of the elements and their compounds. One lecture, two recitations, and three laboratory hours, throughout the year. 8 s.h.

Econ. 51-52. Principles of Economics.—For sophomores. 6 s.h.

Engl. 1-2. English Composition.—All freshmen are required to take course 1 and course 2. 6 s.h.

Engl. E93. Advanced Composition for Engineers.—Designed for achieving effectiveness in writing reports, descriptions, technical investigations, etc. Open to juniors and seniors. 3 s.h.

Engl. 151. Essentials of Public Speaking.—A basic course in public speaking designed to give the poise and confidence necessary to think and speak freely before an audience. Particular attention is paid to the gathering and organization of speech materials and to oral presentation. 3 s.h.

Hist. E1-2. The United States in the World Today.—This course is designed for students in the College of Engineering. Topics treated in the first semester are: the rise of national states in Western Europe and other circumstances attending the discovery and settlement of the New World; the foundation of American institutions; the establishment of the Federal Republic; the frontier, the westward movement, and contemporary international developments; the Civil War; the growth of industry and its influence on society; the Spanish-American War and the emergence of the United States as a world power. In the second semester the emphasis is on the growing interdependence of the Western Nations in the twentieth century; their influence throughout the world; the participation of the United States in the World Wars, and the resultant problems of today. 6 s.h.

Math. 5. College Algebra.—Advanced topics in quadratic equations, systems involving quadratics, variation, binomial theorem, progressions, inequalities, theory of equations, permutations and combinations, probability, determinants, partial fractions. This course and Mathematics 2 may be taken concurrently. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1, or one and one-half units in algebra and one unit in geometry. 3 s.h.

Math. 6. Plane Trigonometry.—Logarithms, right and oblique triangles, radian measure, graphs of trigonometric functions, inverse trigonometric functions, trigonometric identities and equations, complex numbers. This course and Mathematics 5 may be taken concurrently. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1, or one and one-half units in algebra and one unit in geometry. 3 s.h.

Math. 50. Plane Analytic Geometry.—Rectangular and polar coordinates, loci, straight lines, conic sections. This course and Mathematics 51 may be taken concurrently. Prerequisites: Mathematics 5 and 6. 3 s.h.

Math. 51. Calculus I.—Differentiation of elementary functions, curve tracing, maxima and minima, motion. Must be preceded or accompanied by Mathematics 50. 3 s.h.

Math. 52. Calculus II.—Integration of elementary functions, areas, solids of revolution, length of arc, surfaces of revolution, centroids, moments of inertia, pressure, curvature, indeterminate forms. Prerequisite: Mathematics 51. 3 s.h.

Math. 53. Calculus III.—Introduction to solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, multiple integrals, series, introduction to differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 52. 3 s.h.

Math. 131. Elementary Differential Equations.—Solution of elementary types; formation and integration of equations arising in applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 52. 3 s.h.

Phys. 51-52. General Physics.—This course treats the basic principles of general physics in a more quantitative manner than Physics 1-2. It is designed for sophomores and juniors and meets in a thorough way the requirements for entrance into the study of either medicine or engineering and is well suited for the general science student. A limited number of freshmen who present physics for entrance and who are taking the required mathematics concurrently may be admitted by permission of the instructor. This course is not open for credit for students who have taken Physics 1-2. Four lecture-recitations and one three-hour laboratory period each week. Prerequisite: Mathematics 2-5 or equivalent (Mathematics 5 may be taken concurrently). 10 s.h.

AIR SCIENCE COURSES

The following courses are required of students in the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps, as outlined in the various curricula:

AS 11-12. Principles of National Defense and Introduction to Aeronautics.—This is an introductory course in the physical structure and functions of the armed forces and the fundamentals of aeronautics. During the first semester the student deals with the national military policies, organization of the armed forces and the influence of geographical and historical problems. The second semester is devoted to maps and aerial photographs, military psychology and personnel management, and aeronautics. 6 s.h.

AS 61-62. Applied Air Power and Elements of Air Installations.—During the first semester the principles of military logistics and administration, military teaching methods, and air force management are taught. The second semester is allotted to air operations and the functions and organization of the air installations office. Prerequisites: AS 11-12 or equivalent. 6 s.h.

AS 111-112. Air Installations and Maintenance Engineering.—This is the first year of the advanced course in air science for engineering students and is applied to specialized instruction in the field of installation and maintenance engineering. The first semester covers the construction of bases and landing fields, roads, railroads and sewage disposal plants; the disposal of refuse and the control of insects and rodents. The second semester is allotted to fire prevention and crash rescue, electrical facilities, water supply, and preventive maintenance. Prerequisites: AS 11-12, 61-62 or equivalent. 8 s.h.

AS 211-212. Advanced Air Installations.—Not offered in 1950-1951. Prerequisites: AS 11-12, 61-62 or equivalent, AS 111-112. 2 s.h.

NAVAL SCIENCE COURSES

The following courses are required of students in the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps, as outlined in the various curricula.

(Standardized titles and designators for courses are established by the Bureau of Naval Personnel for use at the 52 NROTC Institutions. The first digit indicates the year of the course; the second digit indicates whether semester or quarter (0 for semester, 1 for quarter); the third digit indicates the semester or quarter of school year in which offered. Specialized courses for Marine Corps officer candidates are indicated by the letter "M" after the designator, and substitute for the basic course of the same number.)

NS-101. Naval Orientation.—Organization for national security; the naval establishment and the operating forces; naval customs, traditions, regulations; basic characteristics, capabilities, and limitations of naval vessel types; nomenclature; introduction to carrier air, surface, undersea, and amphibious warfare; basic leadership. 3 s.h.

NS-102. Naval Orientation.—American sea power since 1775; the elements of sea power; applications of sea power in campaigns of the two World Wars; deck seamanship, rules of the nautical road, naval formations and maneuvers. 3 s.h.

NS-201. Naval Weapons.—Evolution of naval ordnance; types and properties of explosives; principles in design and assembly of guns, ammunition, fuses; automatic weapons; basic designs in torpedoes, mines, anti-submarine devices, rockets; principles in the control of fire of naval weapons against air, surface, and underwater targets; nuclear explosives. 3 s.h.

NS-202. Naval Weapons.—The elements in the problem of control of naval gun fire, the principles of mechanical and electronic solution of the problems; basic principles, capabilities and limitations of radar, sonar, and guided missiles; shore bombardment. 3 s.h.

NS-301. Navigation.—Magnetic and gyro compass; principles of chart construction; the sailings and dead reckoning; piloting; electronic and radar navigation; relative motion; rules of the nautical road; basis aerology and meteorology; maneuvering in storm areas. 3 s.h.

NS-302. Navigation.—Nautical astronomy including a study of the actual and apparent motion of earth, celestial coordinates, time systems, solutions of the astronomical triangle; solutions of observations for lines of position; use of the sextant; identification of stars and planets; complete day's work in practical navigation. 3 s.h.

NS-302M. History of the Art of War.—The development of tactics and material as shown by decisive battles of history; historical causes and effects of wars; the development of United States military policy; total war; briefs of campaigns of World War II. 3 s.h.

NS-401E. Naval Machinery, Ship Stability.—Applications of standard steam, electrical, and internal combustion machinery for marine propulsion and ship operation; the principles of ship stability and buoyancy in the practice of ship design and in the practice of damage control. 1 s.h.

NS-401M. United States Military History and Policy.—The development of U. S. military policy, the tactics of U. S. forces in selected battles, current policy and functions of the armed services. 3 s.h.

NS-402M. Amphibious Warfare.—History of amphibious warfare and its development, principles of amphibious techniques, and applications of these principles in selected examples. 3 s.h.

GENERAL ENGINEERING SUBJECTS

1. Engineering Drawing.—The study of mechanical drawing with emphasis on third angle projection, pictorial drawing, dimensioning, working drawings, pencil and ink techniques. 2 s.h.

2. Descriptive Geometry.—A study of drawing board geometry with emphasis on line and plane problems, developments, and intersections. Further emphasis on drawing techniques. Prerequisite: GE 1. 2 s.h.

57. Statics.—Concurrent forces, parallel forces, nonconcurrent and non-parallel forces, centroids, friction, moment of inertia. Prerequisites: GE 1, GE 2. Mathematics 52 concurrent. 3 s.h.

58. Dynamics.—Translation, rotation, work, energy, and momentum. Prerequisites: GE 57 and Mathematics 52. 3 s.h.

101. Construction Methods.—Principles of scientific management as set forth by Gilbreth and Taylor; selection of materials and accumulation of cost data; use of modern equipment and methods; job design, description, selection and placement of personnel. Prerequisite: Junior standing. 3 s.h.

102. Motion and Time Study.—Fundamentals of stop-watch time study; effort (tempo) rating; uses of time study, and relationships between time study, motion study, and wage incentives; micromotion study; motion economy principles and their applications; standard data—derivation and application. Prerequisite: Junior standing. 3 s.h.

107. Strength of Materials.—Elastic bodies under stress; flexure of simple, overhanging, fixed, and continuous beams; columns; combined stresses, etc. For Civil Engineering students, the laboratory work is included in course CE 118. Other students should take course GE 109 for laboratory. Prerequisite: GE 57. 3 s.h.

109. Strength of Materials Laboratory.—Concurrent with course GE 107. 1 s.h. Either semester.

128. Hydraulics.—Hydrostatics; flow of water through orifices, weirs, pipes, and open channels; general principles of water wheels and turbines. Prerequisite: GE 57. 3 s.h. Either semester.

* Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.

The work of a civil engineer may be divided into four major fields: sanitation—dealing with water works, sewerage systems, and garbage disposal; hydraulics—dealing with flood control, river improvements, irrigation, drainage, and water power; transportation—dealing with railroads, highways, airports, waterways, park systems, traffic control, and city planning; structures—dealing with bridges, buildings, foundations, dams, tunnels, tanks, bins, and various industrial structures. The concern of a civil engineer is primarily with design and construction, although often his responsibility includes maintenance. His undergraduate education comprises scientific, technical, civic, and cultural subjects. In order that he may become qualified to assume responsible charge of engineering work, he should supplement this instruction with progressive study after he graduates and while he is securing his practical experience.

The various facilities of the department are described below.

HIGHWAY MATERIALS

Complete equipment is available for the preparation and routine testing of aggregates, cement, and bituminous materials. There is also a Hubbard stability machine for additional tests.

SANITARY ENGINEERING

In the sanitary laboratory there is complete equipment for performing the physical, chemical, bacteriological, and microscopic tests as outlined by the American Public Health Association. Different types of water current meters are available for work in stream gauging.

SURVEYING

The department has an unusually modern and representative collection of transits, levels, plane tables, accessory equipment, as well as a precise level and theodolite.

CIVIL ENGINEERING DRAFTING ROOM

A special drawing room has been set aside for upperclassmen in civil engineering. The room is specially illuminated with fluorescent lights and has properly conditioned two-toned walls to relieve eye strain. Filing cabinets for storing each student's equipment, eight large-sized universal drafting machines, numerous smaller-sized ones, planimeters, curves, and other accessories are readily available.

STRESS LABORATORIES

For advanced instruction in stress analysis there are various polariscopes with facilities for taking and developing pictures, large-sized Begg's deformer, loading frames, and miscellaneous tools for preparing accurate models for testing. Electric calculating machines are to be found in an adjoining room so that the students may more readily compare calculated and experimental results.

CEMENT AND CONCRETE TESTING

For the testing of cement, fine and coarse aggregates, and concrete, two rooms and an adjoining closet are provided, the closet being equipped with temperature and moisture control. In addition to the small accessories there is an automatic shot-testing briquette machine, flow table, Ro-tap shaker, steam baths, unit weight measures, capping devices, special equipment for making the flexural test, as well as a new 300,000-pound hydraulic compression machine.

SOIL TESTING

For the classification of soils there is standard equipment for finding the liquid limit, plastic limit, shrinkage limit, field moisture equivalent, centrifuge moisture equivalent, specific gravity, sieve analysis using Ro-tap shaker, and hydrometer analysis using a constant temperature bath. In making foundation studies, permeability is measured by constant and variable head permeameters and by horizontal capillarity; shearing values are determined by unconfined compression tests, four modern shear machines as well as by two triaxial shear machines; bearing values are found by the Proctor and California bearing tests; consolidation and settlement forecasts are made from data secured on three consolidation machines. New laboratory tables will accommodate twenty students. Drying racks, electric ovens, and other accessories of the latest types are to be found in this laboratory. Adjacent to the main laboratory are two smaller rooms available for research work in soils.

MATERIALS LABORATORY

This laboratory is equipped to give instruction in the basic principles of stress and strain and for the testing of structural members. Its facilities are adequate for both graduate and undergraduate instruction. Included in this laboratory are three universal testing machines with capacities from 5,000 to 150,000 pounds; various hardness testers; machines for torsion, fatigue, and impact; calibration apparatus; and a variety of modern strain gauges of direct acting mechanical and electric-resistance types.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

61. Plane Surveying.—Use of instruments; transit, stadia and compass surveying; determination of meridian by observation on Polaris; differential and profile leveling; setting grade stakes; calculation of bearings, latitudes, departures and areas; methods of plotting; survey and plot of portions of campus by stadia, and transit and tape; care and adjustment of instruments. Prerequisites: GE 1 and Math 6. 4 s.h. MR. BROWN

62. Advanced Surveying.—Simple triangulation; topographic surveying using stadia and plane table; laying out and division of land; public land system; calculations; grading plans and quantities; determination of azimuth by H.O. 211. Prerequisite: CE 61. 4 s.h. MR. BROWN

108. *Advanced Strength of Materials.—Applications of Mohr's circle, deflections, and energy of strain to advanced problems. Prerequisite: GE 107. 3 s.h. MR. WILLIAMS

S110. Plane Surveying.—The equivalent of CE 61 given especially for students in forestry. See Bulletin of Summer Session. 4 s.h. STAFF

113. Route Surveying.—Thorough drill in the calculation and laying out of simple, compound, and easement curves; widening of curves; vertical curves; setting slope stakes; ordinary earthwork computations and mass diagrams. Prerequisite: CE 61. 3 s.h. MR. WILLIAMS

116. Highway Engineering.—Location, design, construction and maintenance of highways and city streets; soil stabilization; traffic studies; economics of planning and design. Prerequisites: CE 113, CE 135. 3 s.h. MR. WILLIAMS

118. Materials of Engineering.—Study and testing of materials commonly used in civil engineering; proportioning concrete. Prerequisite: GE 107 or concurrent. 3 s.h. MR. WILLIAMS

120. *Engineering Statistics.—Statistical methods applied to engineering problems. Typical engineering data analyzed to illustrate arithmetically and geometrically normal distributions; binomial distribution; Poisson's distribution. Testing data of engineering materials and the use of student's distribution. Sequential analysis and control of production quality. 3 s.h. MR. SNOW

121. *Hydrology.—Fundamentals of meteorology; precipitation; evaporation. Ground water development. Stream flow and stream gaging. Hydro-

graph analysis. Flood control. Field trips to be arranged. Prerequisite: GE 128. 3 s.h. MR. SNOW

123. Water Supply and Sewage.—Statistical analysis of rainfall and runoff records; population estimation; analysis of the yield of watersheds and storage requirement; design of water distribution systems; design of sanitary and storm sewerage systems. Prerequisite: GE 128. 4 s.h. MR. SNOW

124. Water Purification and Sewage Treatment.—Chemical and bacteriological analysis of water and sewage effluents; design of water purification treatment systems; design of sewage treatment plants. Prerequisite: course CE 123. 3 s.h. MR. SNOW

128. Industrial Water Supplies.—Water quality for industrial uses. Analytical techniques and interpretation of results. Boiler feed water requirements; softening; ion exchange; deaeration, priming; foaming; corrosion; embrittlement. Control of treatment processes. Prerequisite: Chemistry 1-2. 3 s.h. MR. SNOW

129-130. Elementary Structures.—Stresses in beams and trusses for fixed and moving loads. Deflection of beams and trusses. Design of tension, compression, and flexural members; connections; and plate girders. Design of reinforced concrete beams, slabs, columns, footings, and retaining walls. (For students not majoring in Structural Engineering.) Prerequisite: GE 107. 6 s.h. MR. PALMER

131. Structures.—Analysis and Elementary Design.—Stresses in roofs, parallel and inclined chord bridges, including sub-divided panels, by algebraic and graphic methods under all conditions of loading; shear and moments in frames and bents; influence lines; Williot diagram. Structural drafting; details in steel and wood; methods of fabrication and erection. Prerequisites: GE 57, 107. 5 s.h. MR. PALMER

132. Structures.—Design.—Tension, compression, flexural members, end posts, eccentric connections, unsymmetrical bending; riveted and welded plate girders; trusses and office building frames; wind analysis. Design and detail drawings. Prerequisite: CE 131. 5 s.h. MR. PALMER

133. Reinforced Concrete.—Theory and design of reinforced concrete beams, slabs, and columns including eccentric loads; footings; retaining walls. Prerequisite: GE 107. 4 s.h. MR. BIRD

135. Soil Mechanics.—Identification and classification; flow nets; frost action; stability of foundations, cuts and embankments, and retaining walls; settlement. Laboratory includes identification, permeability, shear, unconfined compression, consolidation and compaction tests. Prerequisite: GE 107. 3 s.h. MR. BIRD

137-138. Seminar.—Students are required to make reports and to talk on current engineering literature or on such other topics as may be assigned. 2 s.h. STAFF

140. Indeterminate Structures.—Application of least work, slope deflection, moment distribution, and column analogy. Analytic, graphic, and experimental methods are used. Prerequisites: CE 131, CE 133. 3 s.h. MR. BIRD

142. Hydraulic Engineering.—Static and dynamical principles of fluids applied to specific engineering problems. Effects of gravity, viscosity, compressibility, and surface tension on fluid motion in closed conduits and open channels; surface and form resistance; dimensional analysis and theory of models. Non-uniform flow in open channels. Hydraulic jump, backwater curves. Hydraulic problems of flood control, flood routing. Dam design. Prerequisite: GE 128 or ME 105. 3 s.h. MR. WILLIAMS

143-144. Projects in Civil Engineering.—This course may be assigned by the Chairman of the Department to certain seniors who have shown an aptitude for research in one distinct field of civil engineering, in which case it may be substituted for certain general civil engineering courses. 2-6 s.h.. STAFF

The field of electrical engineering enters into every form of industry and public service where power is utilized, intelligence is transmitted, and precise control is exercised over physical, chemical, or mechanical operations. The field of electrical engineering includes the generation, transmission, distribution, and utilization of electric power; communications, embracing telegraphy, telephony, radio, television, and radar; illumination; electrical transportation; and industrial processes and their control. In any one of these varied fields the electrical engineer may engage in work which ranges from highly technical and specialized research and design to manufacturing, maintenance, sales, and administration. As a result of these broad professional demands, the curriculum in electrical engineering has been designed to provide a solid foundation of basic science and fundamental training in the field of electricity, as well as to provide the introduction to humanistic studies which is required of all engineering students at Duke University.

The laboratory facilities of the Department of Electrical Engineering are distributed among various specialized rooms of the electrical engineering wing of the Engineering Building. These facilities are described below.

THE ELECTRIC CIRCUITS LABORATORY

This laboratory is equipped with all necessary instruments and devices for carrying out experiments on direct-current and power-frequency alternating-current electric circuits and magnetic circuits. Oscillographs are provided for viewing and photographing both steady-state sinusoidal and non-sinusoidal waves and transients. A harmonic generator permits the synthesis of non-sinusoidal waves in both single-phase and polyphase circuits.

THE ELECTRICAL MEASUREMENTS LABORATORY

Facilities are provided in this laboratory for studying the principles and techniques of measuring electrical quantities throughout the entire frequency spectrum, from direct current and power frequencies through audio and radio frequencies. Instruments of both the indicating and recording types, d-c and a-c bridges, and associated apparatus are included.

THE ELECTRONICS LABORATORY

The equipment of this laboratory makes possible studies of the physical behavior of high-vacuum and gas-filled electronic tubes and their associated circuits. Included are power-supply units, vacuum-tube voltmeters, oscillators, amplifiers, sweep-circuit generators, cathode-ray oscilloscopes, and a wide variety of electronic tubes.

THE ELECTRIC MACHINERY LABORATORY

The electric machinery laboratory contains a wide variety of direct-current and single-phase and polyphase alternating-current electric machines, and associated apparatus for loading and testing these machines. Equipment includes a number of a-c to d-c and d-c to d-c motor-generator sets, a sine-wave generator, a synchronous converter, an ignitron rectifier, a phase-displacement dynamometer, numerous constant-potential transformers, a constant-current transformer, a high-current testing transformer, induction regulators, a variety of representative d-c and a-c motors and generators, a large selection of fractional-horsepower motors, numerous loading devices, oscillographs, and complete stock of other indicating, recording, and graphic measuring instruments.

THE COMMUNICATIONS LABORATORY

Complete equipment for the performance of experiments and for all but the most precise measurements in the audio and radio-frequency ranges is provided in this laboratory. Typical of the experiments performed by students with this equipment are: harmonic generation and wave analysis, circuit elements at audio and radio frequencies, square-wave testing, transmission characteristics of an artificial telephone line, impedance matching at audio and radio frequencies, modulation systems, detectors, generation and amplification of audio and radio frequencies, frequency measurements, field intensity measurements, and antenna radiation patterns.

THE ULTRA-HIGH FREQUENCY LABORATORY

This laboratory is equipped to study the action of circuits and systems in the frequency range from 100 to 5,000 megacycles. Typical experiments are performed in the study of resonant lines, stub-matching sections, wave guides, resonant cavities, klystrons, magnetrons, horn radiators, parabolic reflectors, etc.

THE ANECHOIC LABORATORY

As the name implies, the anechoic laboratory is a non-echoing or sound-proofed room in which experiments and measurements can be performed on microphones, loudspeakers, and associated acoustical devices. A Western Electric sound level meter makes possible the measurement of the reverberation characteristics of rooms and the absorbing qualities of various materials. At present the experiments with acoustical systems are performed in conjunction with the communications laboratory course. The facilities for a more complete treatment of acoustics are available when the demand arises.

THE INDUSTRIAL CONTROL LABORATORY

The industrial control laboratory contains typical electromagnetic and electronic industrial control apparatus, and associated testing equipment. Included are a thyatron-controlled resistance welder, industrial X-ray equipment, an electrostatic air cleaner, a general-purpose timer, a light-sensitive photo-troller, an automatic d-c motor speed regulator, an electronic adjustable-speed drive, a high-frequency industrial electronic heating unit, and a variety of servo-mechanism system components.

THE HIGH-VOLTAGE LABORATORY

Housed in a special room, this laboratory contains equipment for 60-cycle testing up to 100,000 volts, and a surge ("artificial lightning") generator for impulse testing up to 500,000 volts. Auxiliary equipment provides for the control and measurement of the observed phenomena.

THE STANDARDIZING LABORATORY

This room is provided with standard instruments for the purpose of checking and calibrating instruments used in the other laboratories. Standard cells, potentiometers, voltmeters, ammeters, wattmeters, watthour meters, shunts, bridges, and equipment for obtaining standard time and frequency from U. S. Bureau of Standards signals are included.

AMATEUR RADIO STATION W4AHY

The Engineers' Radio Association is licensed by the Federal Communications Commission to operate and maintain amateur radio station W4AHY. The station is equipped with a 125-watt 80-meter phone and C. W. transmitter, a 150-watt 20-meter phone and C. W. transmitter, a Collins 30FXB 100-watt 10-meter phone transmitter, Hammarlund Pro and HQ129 receivers, and associated testing and operating equipment. The facilities of the station are used by licensed students to gain practical experience in short wave radio and to communicate with other amateur radio operators the world over.

THE PHOTOGRAPHIC DARK ROOM

Adjoining the industrial control laboratory is a photographic dark room maintained by the Department of Electrical Engineering to meet its specialized needs.

THE COMPUTATION AND BRIEFING ROOMS

On each floor of the electrical engineering wing adjacent to the laboratories, there is a laboratory computation and briefing room.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

51. Survey of Electrical Engineering.—A course designed to give the student a general survey of the engineering profession, to define the scope of activities of the electrical engineer, and to provide an introduction to engineering problems. One two-hour computation. 1 s.h. MR. KRAYBILL

52. Electric and Magnetic Fields.—An introductory course covering a mathematical and physical analysis of energy relations in electrostatic and magnetostatic fields; resistance, capacitance and inductance of systems of conductors; systems of electric and magnetic units. Two recitations and one two-hour computation. Prerequisites: EE 51, Mathematics 52. Physics 52, Mathematics 53 concurrently. 3 s.h. MR. VAIL

101-102. Circuits in Electrical Engineering.—A two-semester course covering methods of electric and magnetic circuit analysis applicable in all branches of electrical engineering; alternating and direct currents; the algebra of vectors and complex quantities; net works; nonsinusoidal waves; coupled circuits; transients; polyphase circuits; symmetrical components. Prerequisite: EE 52. Mathematics 131 concurrently. 6 s.h. MR. VAIL

105. Electrical Measurements.—A course covering direct-current and low-frequency measurements; the theory, calibration, and use of laboratory standards, potentiometers, instrument transformers, and power and energy measuring apparatus; and audio-frequency measurements of impedance, current and potential. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: EE 52. Mathematics 131 and EE 101 concurrently. 4 s.h. MR. SLAUGHTER

106. Electron Tubes and Circuits.—A course covering electronic emission, static and dynamic tube characteristics, rectification, glow-discharge tubes, amplifiers, oscillators, and other typical circuits. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: EE 101, EE 107. EE 102 and EE 108 concurrently. 4 s.h. MR. SLAUGHTER

107-108. Circuits Laboratory.—A two-semester course designed to provide instruction in electrical laboratory techniques and in the preparation of engineering reports, and to provide experimental verification of the theory of course EE 101-102, with which it should be taken concurrently. One three-hour laboratory. 2 s.h.
MESSRS. VAIL AND KRAYBILL

123. Principles of Electric Circuits.—A course designed especially for students in other branches of engineering, covering the fundamental electric units and both alternating and direct-current circuits. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: Mathematics 53 and Physics 52. 4 s.h.
MESSRS. KRAYBILL, EGERTON, AND MARTIN

124. Principles of Electric Machinery.—A course designed especially for students in other branches of engineering, covering the application of the principles of course EE 123 to alternating and direct-current machinery and associated apparatus. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: EE 123. 4 s.h.
MESSRS. KRAYBILL, EGERTON, AND MARTIN

148. Direct-Current Machinery.—A study of the principles which underlie the design and operation of all types of direct-current generators, motors, and associated apparatus. Prerequisites: EE 101 and EE 107. EE 102 and EE 108 concurrently. 3 s.h.
MESSRS. MEIER AND MARTIN

158. *Electric-Power Stations.—A course providing a brief survey of the electric-power industry followed by a consideration of the economic and engineering features of power plant location and design, and by a study of the apparatus utilized in the generation, transmission and distribution of electric power. Prerequisites: EE 148 and ME 104, and permission of instructor. EE 257-258 concurrently. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h.
MR. SEELEY

159. Transmission.—A development of the theory underlying the transmission of electric energy over conductors at both power and communication frequencies. Two class sessions and one two-hour computation. Prerequisites: EE 101-102, EE 105, EE 106, Mathematics 131. 3 s.h.
MR. SEELEY

160. *High-Voltage Engineering.—An introductory study of high-voltage phenomena and their engineering applications: behavior of gaps and insulators upon application of power-frequency and impulse voltages; corona; properties of insulating materials; high-voltage measurements; elements of high-voltage design. Two class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: EE 52, EE 101-102, EE 106, and permission of instructor. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h.
MR. VAIL

MESSRS. MEIER AND MARTIN

165-166. Electrical Engineering Seminar.—A course in which seniors are required to present oral reports and dissertations on material appearing in current engineering literature. Juniors may participate, but without credit. 2 s.h.
STAFF

170. *Fundamentals of Illumination.—A course designed to familiarize the student with some of the factors that influence seeing; to provide a working knowledge of lighting language, sources, and measuring techniques; and to acquaint the student with the basic factors involved in recommended lighting practice. Two class sessions and one two-hour computation. Prerequisites: EE 101-102, EE 105, EE 106, and permission of instructor. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h.
MR. KRAYBILL

173-174. *Projects in Electrical Engineering.—A course which may be undertaken only by seniors who show special aptitude, or who may have had previous experience directly related to the proposed project. The consent of the Chairman of the Department must be obtained before registering. Elective for electrical majors. 3-6 s.h.
STAFF

* Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.

180. *Radio-Frequency Transmission and Propagation.—Theory and application of transmission and propagation at high and ultra-high frequencies; impedance-matching elements; coupling devices; cavity resonators; wave guides and antennas. Two class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: EE 159, EE 261, and permission of instructor. EE 262 concurrently. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h. MR. HATLEY

197. *Industrial Applications of Electrical Equipment.—A course of lectures, demonstrations and recitations designed especially for students in other branches of engineering, dealing with the basic principles of utilization of a wide variety of electrical equipment in industrial practice. Emphasis is on industrial control, motor and generator applications, and electronic devices and applications. Prerequisite: EE 124, and permission of instructor. Elective for non-electricals. 3 s.h. MR. MEIER

198. *Industrial Control.—This course, open only to students majoring in electrical engineering, consists of a study of the electromagnetic and electronic control of electric motors in industrial applications. Prerequisites: EE 101-102, EE 106, EE 148, EE 257, and permission of instructor. EE 258 concurrently. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h. MR. MEIER

257-258. Alternating-Current Machinery.—A two-semester course dealing with the theory underlying the design, construction, and operation of synchronous generators, transformers, polyphase induction motors, synchronous motors, single-phase motors of all types, and converters and rectifiers. Prerequisites: EE 101-102 and EE 148. 6 s.h. MESSRS. MEIER AND MARTIN

261. Communication Engineering: Low Frequency.—An advanced course dealing with the principles underlying voice-frequency communication. Included are the nature of sound and speech; wave propagation over metallic circuits; filters; resistance, inductance and capacitance at audio frequencies; transmission characteristics of audio-frequency communication equipment. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: EE 101-102, EE 106, and Mathematics 131. 4 s.h. MR. HATLEY

262. Communication Engineering: High Frequency.—An advanced course dealing with the principles underlying communication at radio and ultra-high frequencies. Included are oscillating and coupled circuits, antennas, radiation, transmission, reception, and ultra-high frequency techniques. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: EE 261. 4 s.h. MR. HATLEY

263-264. *Operational Circuit Analysis.—An advanced course covering the mathematical analysis of certain circuits used in electrical engineering, with an introduction to the application of operational calculus to circuit analysis. Prerequisites: EE 101-102, Mathematics 131, and permission of instructor. Elective for electrical majors. 6 s.h. MR. SEELEY

* Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.

The profession of mechanical engineering is founded upon the production of power from nature's resources and the application of this power to useful ends. It is a profession with many specialized fields of both theoretical and applied knowledge and techniques. Some of these fields of specialization are combustion or power production engineering, machine and machine-tool design, railway motive power engineering, automotive engineering, heating and air conditioning, refrigeration, and industrial management.

The Department makes no attempt to train specialized engineers during the four-year undergraduate course; rather, a well-balanced fundamental training with applications in the more active fields is its aim. Theoretical training in the classroom is carefully supplemented by application in the laboratory.

The equipment in the mechanical engineering laboratories has been carefully selected and grouped to yield the greatest educational benefit to the student.

POWER PLANT LABORATORY

This laboratory occupies a two-story wing off the main mechanical engineering wing of the Engineering Building. A 3200-pound per hour, automatic, oil-fired Combustion Engineering boiler, designed specifically for the needs of this laboratory, produces steam at 250 pounds pressure and a total temperature of 556° F. This steam is utilized to operate a complete experimental power plant in the same wing. The experimental power plant consists of two 25-kw Westinghouse turbogenerator units, condenser and air ejector with after-condenser, feed-water heater, pumps and accessories, and a control and instrument board. The electric energy generated operates a synchronous motor and hydraulic dynamometer. Interconnection of piping and controls, and complete instrumentation, enable the simulation and study of any type of power plant in common use.

MECHANICAL LABORATORY

Steam Equipment: Adjacent to the boiler room are a horizontal Troy engine with shaft cut-off governor, a Troy vertical throttling governing engine, a Sturtevant steam turbine, a condenser and air ejector with after-condenser and accessories, and a boiler feed pump. These may be tested and studied individually or in combinations. Additional equipment for studying flow and quality of steam, an injector, and traps are located in this area.

Internal Combustion Equipment: A section of the west side of the laboratory contains two automotive-type and one tractor-type gasoline engines, with dynamometers, accessories and instruments for determining their characteristics and energy balances; in addition, a small single-cylinder Diesel engine-generator unit, a 6-cylinder Diesel engine-generator unit, and a 4-cylinder gasoline engine-generator unit provide complete coverage of types for thorough study of internal combustion.

Air Compression: Near the internal combustion section is a Worthington 8 by 9-inch V-belt driven compressor supplying air at 100 pounds pressure and instrumented to permit very complete study of its characteristics and the general theory of air compression.

Hydraulic Apparatus: A section of the east side and south end of the laboratory contains a Cameron centrifugal pump combined with a series of weirs and orifices, as well as a hydraulic turbine which may be equipped alternately with either a Kaplan or Francis type of wheel. This equipment offers a complete range of experiments and tests in hydraulics and fluid mechanics.

Lubricants and Fuels Testing Laboratory: In the south end of the main laboratory are five rooms completely equipped for the study of solid, liquid, and gaseous fuel analysis and calorimetry; lubricant testing; and feed-water analysis.

Instrument Room: An instrument room is provided for the storing and maintenance of instruments. Such instruments include steam and internal combustion engine indicators and reducing motions, tachometers and speed counters, planimeters, pressure gauges and gauge testers, thermometers of all types, scales of all types and small tools.

Heating, Air Conditioning, and Refrigeration: A standard type of coal-fired heating boiler, standard centrifugal fan testing setup, equipment for studying the flow of air through ducts, registers and grilles, and two five-horsepower York Freon-12 refrigerating compressors are provided on the balcony for study and testing in this field.

MATERIALS PROCESSING LABORATORY

Machine Tools: Two engine lathes, a universal milling machine, a shaper with slotter attachment, a drill press, a power grinder, and a power hack saw compose the metal-working tools. Such auxiliary attachments as are needed for general-purpose machines are provided for the above machine tools. Woodworking machines that include the lathe, band saw, circular saw and planer, and a disc sander are available for pattern and model construction.

Welding Equipment: A 200-ampere electric arc welding machine and complete oxy-acetylene welding and cutting equipment are provided for demonstration of these methods of construction and fabrication.

Casting Equipment: A gas-fired melting furnace and sufficient molding equipment are available for the production of small castings on a demonstration basis.

Metallographic and Heat Treating Equipment: Polishing equipment and a microscope are available for the preparation and examination of metal specimens. Heat treatments may be carried out with the use of a gas-fired heat-treating furnace.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

51. Constructive Processes.—Recitation course covering fundamentals of metallurgy and general processes of casting, forging, and machining. Demonstration or observation of basic machining operations is arranged when possible. Prerequisite: Chemistry 2. 3 s.h. MESSRS. HOLLAND AND L. C. WILBUR

52. Kinetics-Mechanism.—Motions of particles. Applications of Newton's laws of motion to motions of rigid bodies. Work, energy, impulse, and momentum. Linkages, cams, gears, trains of mechanism. Three recitations, three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: GE 2, GE 57, Mathematics 52. 4 s.h. MESSRS. REED AND HARDY

55. Steam Engineering.—Elementary principles of boilers, engines, turbines, and auxiliaries; properties of steam; fuels and combustion. Prerequisite: Chemistry 2. 2 s.h. MESSRS. MORGAN AND L. C. WILBUR

101-102. Engineering Thermodynamics.—A study of thermodynamic properties and processes of gases, vapor and gas-vapor mixtures; cycles; efficiencies and performance of steam power plant equipment. Three recitations. Prerequisites: Mathematics 52, Physics 52, ME 55. 6 s.h.

MESSRS. R. S. WILBUR, REED AND KENYON

103-104. Heat Power Engineering.—A short course in engineering thermodynamics with applications to power plant design, for CE and EE students only. Three recitations. Prerequisites: Chemistry 2, Mathematics 52, Physics 52. 6 s.h.

MESSRS. KENYON, MORGAN AND L. C. WILBUR

105. Fluid Mechanics.—Fluid statics; kinematics of fluid flow; application of fluid dynamics theory to flow through orifices, weirs, and pipes; general principles of centrifugal pumps and turbines. Prerequisites: ME 52, Mathematics 52, Physics 52.

MESSRS. R. S. WILBUR AND MORGAN

106. Heat Transfer.—Conduction, radiation and convection; heat transfer to boiling liquids or condensing vapors; over-all transfer of heat, steady state or variable flow. Applications to heat power, heating, and air conditioning, and refrigeration. Prerequisites: ME 101 or 103, ME 105 or GE 128, Mathematics 52. ME 102 or 104 concurrently. May be elected by limited number of CE and EE students. 3 s.h.

MR. REED

108. Aeronautics.—A general course applying fluid mechanics principles to airfoils, propellers, and the complete airplane. Prerequisite: ME 105. 3 s.h.

MR. MORGAN

113-114. Junior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Open only to mechanical engineering students. First semester, three laboratory hours, devoted to experiments and reports in hydraulics, flue gas analyses, calorific value of fuels. Second semester, six laboratory hours, devoted to experiments and reports related to thermodynamics, such as boiler inspection, air compression, injectors, steam and fuel calorimetry. Prerequisite: ME 55. ME 101-102 concurrently. 3 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR AND STAFF

115-116. Junior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Open only to electrical and civil engineering students. Experiments and reports on measuring instruments and apparatus, flow of air, steam and water, economy of boilers, steam and internal combustion engines. Three laboratory hours. ME 103-104 concurrently. 2 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR AND STAFF

150-151. Machine Design.—Application of principles of mechanics, strength of materials, constructive processes and engineering drawing to the design of bolted, riveted and welded connections, pressure vessels and machine elements, followed by design of at least one complete machine. ME 150 has two recitations and three laboratory hours; ME 151 has two recitations and six laboratory hours. Prerequisites: GE 2, ME 52, GE 57, ME 51, GE 107. 7 s.h.

MESSRS. HOLLAND AND L. C. WILBUR

153-154. Heating, Air Conditioning and Refrigeration.—Determinations of heat losses and gains; design of steam, hot water and warm air heating and air conditioning systems; panel heating. Fundamentals of refrigeration theory and design. Applications of refrigeration to summer and year round air conditioning; commercial and industrial applications of refrigeration. Prerequisites: ME 102, ME 105, ME 106. ME 159-160 concurrently. Two recitations, three laboratory hours. 6 s.h.

MR. REED

155. Internal Combustion Engines.—Principal cycles; fuels and fuel mixtures; effect of real mixtures on theoretical cycles; combustion; carburetion and fuel injection. Thermodynamic analysis of engine performance. Modern development in the internal combustion engine. Three recitations. Prerequisite: ME 101-102. 3 s.h.

MR. HARDY

157. Centrifugal Pumps and Blowers.—A study of the basic principles of design, construction and application of centrifugal pumps and blowers. May be elected by a limited number of mechanical engineering seniors with consent of Chairman of Department. Prerequisite: ME 105. 3 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR

158. Industrial Engineering.—A study of the industrial growth and present tendencies of productive industries as concerns the engineer. Specific topics treated are: plant location, organization, production and cost controls, wage payment, etc. Seniors only. Three recitations. 3 s.h.

MR. LEWIS

159. Senior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Tests and reports on performance and economy of internal combustion engines, steam engines and turbines; heat transfer, radiator tests, and energy balances. Required of all seniors in mechanical engineering. Six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: ME 114. ME 153 concurrently. 2 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR AND STAFF

160. Senior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Required of all seniors in mechanical engineering. Tests and reports on boiler, engine, turbine, condenser and accessories; heat transfer; refrigeration equipment. Six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: ME 159. ME 154 and ME 162 concurrently. 2 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR AND STAFF

162. Power Plant Calculations.—Study of economic and engineering factors in developing steam power plants. Consideration of the performance of boilers, prime movers, condensers and various auxiliaries in various groupings as they affect the plant heat balance. May be elected by limited number of CE or EE students. Three recitations. Prerequisite: ME 101-102 or ME 103-104. 3 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR

164. *Engineering Analysis.—A study of a series of engineering problems with particular reference to mathematical and graphical methods of solution and engineering interpretation of results. 3 s.h.

MR. L. C. WILBUR

166. Air Conditioning Design.—Analysis of air-conditioning requirements, summer and winter, commercial and industrial. Design of systems and units, and selection of equipment. Open to seniors who have completed ME 153. 3 s.h.

MR. REED

197-198. Projects in Mechanical Engineering.—This course may be assigned by the Chairman of the Department to certain Seniors who express a desire for such work and who have shown aptitude for research in one distinct field of mechanical engineering. Elective credit for either semester. 3-6 s.h.

MR. R. S. WILBUR AND STAFF

* Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.

FEES AND EXPENSES

All fees listed below, with the exception of that for registration, are due and payable at the beginning of each semester. The General Fee, adopted by the Board of Trustees in March, 1947, became effective for the academic year 1947-48. It takes the place of various separate fees heretofore collected, and is a consolidation, principally for simplification, of these separate fees. Among the fees included in this consolidation are the laboratory fees, athletic fee, publication fee, medical fee, matriculation fee, library fee, and commencement fee.

Registration, payable only once, on notice of acceptance. This is not refundable	$ 20.00
General Fee	75.00

An advance deposit of $25.00 is required of all students at the time of spring registration in order to reserve a place in the classes for the fall semester. This is applied toward payment of the general fee upon the opening of the fall semester. The deposit will be refunded to students whom the University does not permit to return. Students who fail to return of their own volition are not entitled to a refund.

An advance deposit of $25.00 is also required of old students who have been out of school for one or more semesters and have been accepted for readmission. It is applied toward payment of the general fee for the semester of readmission. The advance deposit is paid at the time of acceptance and is not refundable.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR AN ACADEMIC YEAR

The necessary expenses of a student are moderate; the University dormitories provide thoroughly comfortable and wholesome living conditions at a minimum of cost. Incidental expenses depend naturally upon the tastes and habits of the individual, but the actual necessary expenses are as follows:

	Low	Moderate	Liberal
Tuition	$350.00	$ 350.00	$ 350.00
General Fee	150.00	150.00	150.00
Room-rent	100.00	125.00	175.00
Board	325.00	375.00	450.00
Laundry	25.00	30.00	35.00
Books	20.00	30.00	40.00
	$970.00	$1,060.00	$1,200.00

The actual fees and expenses necessary for one year in residence as a student in the College of Engineering, then, can be met within $970.00.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MEN

Single room, per semester—Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, West Campus	$87.50
Double room, per student, per semester—Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, West Campus	62.50

There are three groups of resident houses designated as Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles on the West Campus. The rooms are single, double, or arranged in suites of two rooms for four students. There are thirty-one houses within the three groups designated by the letters of the alphabet.

One dormitory is assigned to freshmen.

Rooms may be reserved only for applicants who have been officially accepted by the University. A fee of $25.00 is required for reservation. This fee is deducted from the room rental charge at the time of registration for the semester; it is not refunded unless application for the refund is made sixty days prior to the registration date of the semester.

A resident student in order to retain his room for the succeeding semester must make application, accompanied by a reservation fee of $25.00. All rooms which have not been reserved on or before an announced date will be considered vacant for the succeeding semester and will be reserved in the order in which applications are made.

Rooms are rented for no shorter period than one semester, or, in the case of a medical student, one quarter, unless by special arrangement with the Housing Bureau. A period of occupancy other than a semester or quarter and without special arrangement will be charged at a minimum rate of $1.00 each day.

The exchange of rooms may be arranged at the Housing Bureau within fifteen (15) days after the official opening of the semester or quarter of the school term. A charge of two dollars ($2.00) will be made for the exchange of rooms after the periods allowed for such exchange. Persons exchanging rooms without the approval of the Housing Bureau will be subject to charges for both rooms.

The authorities of the University do not assume the responsibility for the personnel selected as roommates. Each student is urged to select the roommate when the room is reserved.

DINING SERVICE

West Campus.—Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus and, in addition, the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

RULES REGARDING PAYMENTS

The Executive Committee of Duke University has enacted the following regulations which govern the payment of all fees due the University.

1. The President and the Treasurer of the University have no authority to suspend or in any way alter these regulations.

2. Any student who has failed to pay his bills on the dates advertised in the catalogue is denied the right to attend classes until his account is settled in full; subsequent withdrawal does not entitle a student to a refund.

3. No student is considered by the Faculty as an applicant for graduation until he has settled with the Treasurer for all his indebtedness to the University.

4. No student who has not settled all his bills with the Treasurer of the University is allowed to stand the midyear or final examinations of the academic year.

When a student wishes his bills sent to his parents or guardian, the student or his parent or guardian must so notify the Treasurer of the University in writing in due time, but this in no way releases the student from liability to established penalties, if his bills are not paid on the dates advertised.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT BRANCHES OF ENGINEERING PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

The three Departments of the College of Engineering support student branches of the following national professional engineering societies:

American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

ENGINEERING STUDENT HONORARY SOCIETIES

Chapters of the following national engineering student honorary societies are maintained at Duke:

Tau Beta Pi (National Honorary Engineering Fraternity).

Pi Tau Sigma (Mechanical Engineering National Honorary Society).

Order of St. Patrick (Leadership in Engineering Student Activities).

ENGINEERING STUDENT PUBLICATION

The DukEngineer, official student-published magazine of the College of Engineering which appears twice each semester, contains articles on technical and semi-technical topics and other matters of interest in the College.

THE ENGINEERS' CLUB

The Engineers' Club sponsors social activities among students of the College of Engineering.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES OPEN TO ENGINEERS

The Young Men's Christian Association; Classical Club; Debate Council; Club Panamericano; Duke Masonic Club; Duke University Steering Committee; Duke Players; Duke University Church (Interdenominational); Duke University Handbook and Directory; Freshman Advisory Council; Hoof 'n' Horn Club; Interfraternity Council; Intramural Athletic Department; Pegram Chemistry Club; Quadrangle Pictures; Shoe and Slipper Club; Student Religious Council; Town Boys' Club; G.O. Politan Club; World Student Service Fund; Young Democrats Club; Duke University Instrumental Music Association; Men's Glee Club; The University Chapel Choir; The Archive (Monthly); Chanticleer (Annual); Chronicle (Weekly); Duke 'n' Duchess (Monthly Humor).

HONORARY SOCIETIES

In addition to the national engineering student honorary societies, students of the College of Engineering are eligible for membership in the following national honorary societies:

Phi Beta Kappa (Scholarship); Sigma Xi (Scientific Research); Omicron Delta Kappa (Leadership—Men); Phi Eta Sigma (Freshman Scholarship); Pi Mu Epsilon (Mathematics); Sigma Pi Sigma (Physics); Sigma Delta Pi (Spanish); Tau Kappa Alpha (Forensic); Tau Psi Omega (French); Theta Alpha Phi (Dramatic); Delta Phi Alpha (German).

Local honorary societies for which engineers are eligible include: 9019 (Scholarship); Rcd Friars (Leadership); Beta Omega Sigma (Sophomore Leadership); Tombs (Athletic).

NATIONAL SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

Alpha Tau Omega; Beta Theta Pi; Delta Sigma Phi; Delta Tau Delta; Kappa Alpha; Kappa Sigma; Lambda Chi Alpha; Phi Delta Theta; Phi Kappa Psi; Phi Kappa Sigma; Pi Kappa Alpha; Pi Kappa Phi; Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Sigma Chi; Sigma Nu; Sigma Phi Epsilon; Theta Chi; Zeta Beta Tau.

HONORS

To be eligible for Honors, a student must earn during the year a credit of not less than thirty semester hours. Students in the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes who earn an average of at least two and one-half quality points per semester hour are given Honors. All semester hours on which a student receives a grade are counted in the determination of Honors.

The degree of Bachelor of Science in Civil, Electrical, or Mechanical Engineering with distinction is conferred under the following rules:

Students who have completed a minimum of ninety semester hours in Duke University are eligible for general Honors at graduation. Those who earn an average of at least two and one-half quality points per semester hour are recommended for a degree magna cum laude. Those who earn an average of at least two and three-fourths quality points per semester hour are recommended for a degree summa cum laude. All semester hours taken in Duke University on which a student receives a grade are counted in the determination of Honors.

PRIZES

The Sigma Xi Prize: The Society of the Sigma Xi, national scientific research society, is devoted to the encouragement of scientific research and seeks to stimulate those who show promise of accomplishment in this field. As an encouragement to younger men and women the Duke Chapter of Sigma Xi has established several prizes to be awarded annually, among them a prize for an outstanding undergraduate project or paper.

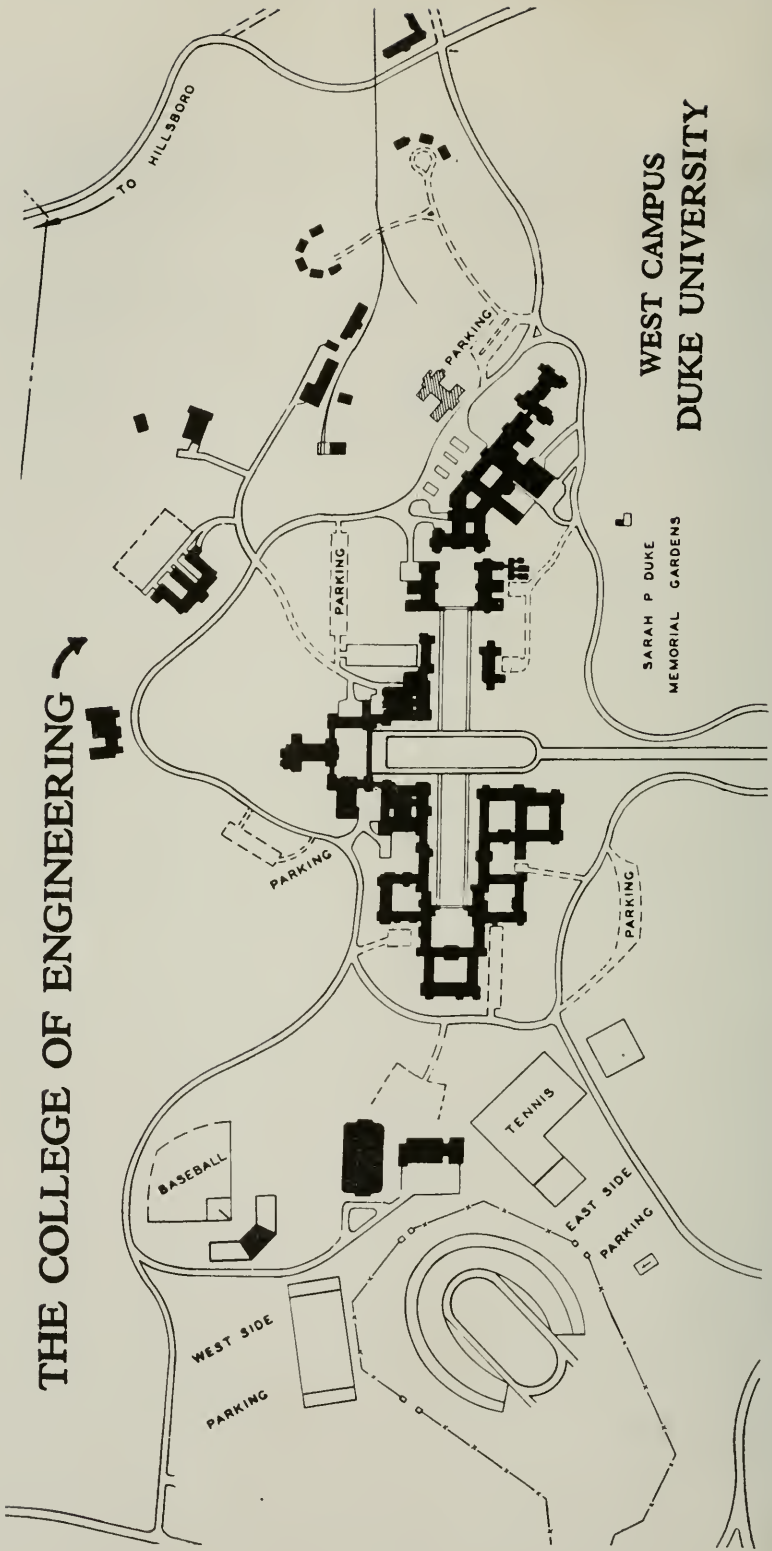

Julia Dale Prize in Mathematics: This is a prize of books given annually to the undergraduate who shows the greatest proficiency in the study of the calculus.

The Milmore Prize: This prize, consisting of one year's subscription to the Electrical World, is awarded each year to that student from North or South Carolina graduating in the Department of Electrical Engineering, who, in the opinion of the faculty of that department and as shown by his grades, has made the most progress in electrical engineering during his last year in college.

The Tau Beta Pi Prize: The North Carolina Gamma Chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity, awards each year a suitable prize, such as an engineering handbook, to a sophomore student in engineering for outstanding scholastic achievement during the freshman year.

The William Senhauser Prize is given by his mother in memory of her son, a member of the class of 1942, who lost his life in the Pacific Theatre of War on August 4, 1944. The award is made annually to the sophomore or junior in Trinity College or the College of Engineering who has made the greatest contribution through participation and leadership in intramural sports. The winner of this prize is chosen by a committee selected by the President of the University.

CALENDAR OF SUMMER SESSION

- June 13 Tuesday, 9 A.M.—Registration for the first term.
14 Wednesday, 7:40 A.M.—Instruction begins for the first term.
19 Monday, 7:40 A.M.—Instruction in Physics S51 begins.
24 Saturday—Not a holiday. All classes meet.
26 Monday, 7:40 A.M.—All 4-hour courses in Chemistry, Geology, Physics, and Zoology begin.
- July 1 Saturday—Not a holiday. All classes meet.
3-4 Monday and Tuesday—Holidays.
5 Wednesday, 9 A.M.—Registration for the second term.
6 Thursday, 7:40 A.M.—Instruction begins for the second term.
10-13 Dates for graduate reading examination in Romance Languages. (Arrange with Professor L. B. Walton.)
11 Tuesday—Final date for filing intention of completing degree requirements first and second terms and for filing title of Master's thesis with the Dean of the Graduate School.
15 Saturday—Not a holiday. All classes meet.
21-22 Final examinations for the first term.
22 Saturday, 9 A.M.—Registration for the third term.
24 Monday, 7:40 A.M.—Instruction begins for the third term.
24 Monday, 9 A.M.—Institute for Nursing Education begins.
28 Friday—Final date for filing intention of completing degree requirements third term and for filing title of Master's thesis with the Dean of the Graduate School.
- August 5 Saturday—Not a holiday. All classes meet.
7 Monday, 9 A.M.—Institute for Teachers of Mathematics begins.
11-12 Final examinations for the second term.
19 Saturday—Final examinations in Chemistry, Geology, Physics S102, and Zoology.
26 Saturday—Final examination in Physics S52.
30-31 Final examinations for the third term.
- September 1-12 Special course in Solid Geometry.

DUKE UNIVERSITY SUMMER SESSION

Duke University, located at Durham, North Carolina, includes Trinity College, the Woman's College, the College of Engineering, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Divinity School, and the Schools of Law, Medicine, Nursing, and Forestry. The student body is drawn from the entire United States, with a representative group of foreign students.

Duke University is located on two campuses connected by prompt bus service. The Duke Forest is adjacent and easily accessible to the West Campus. This campus, with its Tudor Gothic architecture, has all dormitories, laboratories, classroom buildings, auditorium, administration building, and buildings of the professional schools arranged in quadrangles, of which the University Chapel is the dominating center. To the right of the Chapel, as one enters the main quadrangle, stands the General Library, the largest in the South. Opposite the Library is the Union, center of student activities, in which are housed practically all the facilities needed in the general day-by-day round of student life, including a large social lobby, reading room, information office, alumni headquarters, Bureau of Public Information offices, three cafeterias, the Oak Room, reception rooms, headquarters for various student organizations, a government post office, a typing bureau, the University stores, and a barber shop.

The East Campus, or the Woman's College Campus, is well located with regard to the business section of Durham. Its dormitories, classroom buildings, library, auditorium, and administration building are conveniently grouped together with the Union, center of student activities, the government post office, and the College Store. The Ark, the recreational building for women students, the swimming pool in the Woman's College Gymnasium, the tennis courts, and the playing fields afford ample opportunity for recreational activities during the summer term.

For the Summer Session of 1950 men students will be housed on the West Campus. For the first and second terms women students will be housed on the East Campus. All students, men and women, enrolled in The School of Spanish Studies will be housed in the Spanish House (Southgate, East Campus). Classes will be scheduled on both campuses during the first and second terms. Classes in the Departments of Education, English, French, Philosophy, Psychology, and Sociology will be scheduled for the most part on the East Campus.

THE SUMMER SESSION PROGRAM: CREDITS

The Summer Session program is designed to serve:

1. Students now matriculated in the various schools and departments of Duke University, graduate and undergraduate, who wish to earn additional credits toward the completion of the work for their degrees.

2. Students matriculated in other colleges and universities who wish to earn credits to be transferred back to the school in which they are matriculated.

3. Graduates of accredited high schools and undergraduates with advanced standing who have been admitted to Duke University and who wish to enter upon their program of work in advance of the regular session.

4. Teachers in service who wish to earn credits for the renewal of their certificates, or to enter upon a program of work for an advanced degree, or to pursue certain courses which will contribute to the improvement of their teaching efficiency.

5. Candidates for the Master of Arts and Master of Education degrees who desire to complete degree requirements in a series of summers.

Professional credits towards teachers' certificates are granted by the various state boards of education, each in accordance with its own carefully planned rules. Teachers in service, before enrolling for certification credit, should consult the rules laid down by their State Board of Education. If necessary, they should send to their State Board of Education a list of the courses in which they plan to enroll and inquire whether these will be acceptable for certification credit.

The normal courses in the Summer Session will meet daily, Monday through Friday, for an eighty minute period, throughout the term of six weeks. (Certain unit courses, particularly the beginning courses in English and the foreign languages, will meet twice daily. Elementary courses in the physical and natural sciences occupy a student's entire time daily and continue through a period of eight weeks, except Physics S51, S52 which will continue through ten weeks.) Each normal course carries a credit of three semester hours and two such courses constitute a full load for the student. No student is permitted to obtain credit for more than two such courses and no instructor teaches more than two. The maximum credit allowed for Summer Session work is one semester hour per week spent in residence and work. The maximum credit allowed for the six-weeks term, therefore, is six semester hours. Laboratory courses which are extended to eight or ten weeks carry eight or ten semester hours of credit.

Courses numbered 1-49 are primarily for Freshmen, or Freshmen and Sophomores. Courses numbered 50-99 are ordinarily for Sophomores, or Sophomores and Juniors. Courses numbered 100-199 are designed for Juniors and Seniors. Courses numbered 200-299 are planned for Seniors and graduates. Courses numbered from 300 up admit graduate students only and are of limited enrollment. Courses numbered from 200 up are usually limited in enrollment to approximately twenty-five students, and during the Summer Session consist almost entirely of graduate students. Graduate seminars are limited to fifteen students or fewer.

SPECIAL COURSES FOR FRESHMEN AND UNDERGRADUATES

Graduates of accredited high schools, entering as Freshmen, who desire to begin their program of work before the regular year, may enter summer classes and complete, within six weeks, a full year's work in the subject taken. The School of Spanish Studies offers exceptional opportunity for such of these students as desire work in Spanish. General Zoology is also offered for beginning students, whether pre-medical or simply students desiring to complete their year of required science for the Bachelor of Arts degree. General Chemistry, English Composition, Elementary French, General Geology, Elementary German, College Algebra, and Plane Trigonometry are other courses open to such Freshmen.

Undergraduate students of the Woman's College, Trinity College, and the College of Engineering, Duke University, as well as undergraduates of other colleges who need credit for six or twelve semester hours to complete the requirements for their degree, or who need credits in certain courses to round out their program of work, will find a variety of courses carrying undergraduate credits available in both the first and third terms of the Summer Session. The variety of courses available in the third term is much less than that in the first term. In order to get the courses they prefer students should apply promptly. If as many as ten students apply for a course not listed in the Bulletin, an effort will be made to secure an instructor and to give the course.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

A majority of the students in the Summer Session are graduates of standard colleges. Many of them are teachers and administrative or supervisory officials in the public schools. The Summer Session program specifically attempts to provide offerings in those departments of instruction where the work of the courses will be related to the training needs of such teachers and school officials. An attempt has been made to build up regular sequences of graduate courses continuing through a series of summer terms in which graduate students may enroll with reasonable assurance that sufficient work will be offered to enable a properly qualified student to complete the requirements for the Master's degree within the six-year period permitted by the University. Departments which have developed graduate courses whereby students in a series of summer terms may complete the requirements for the Master's degree are: Botany, Economics, Education, English, History, Mathematics, Psychology, Religion, Sociology, Spanish, and Zoology. As soon as the demand justifies it, complete sequences will be added in other departments. In the Department of Education complete sequences of work for the Master's degree are offered in the divisions of public school administration, public school supervision, secondary education, educational psychology, and elementary education.

In all departments a graduate student must select his minor with the approval of the department of his major. Specific regulations and suggestions of the various departments in regard to this matter are given in this bulletin under "Courses of Instruction." All degree candidates are expected to choose their courses according to some unified plan. The mere accumulation of more or less unrelated credits in various divisions of a department with a minor in some department only remotely related to the student's major work will not be accepted as meeting the requirements for a graduate degree. From the very beginning of their graduate work students should plan their program with their major professor. Each succeeding term they should select their courses with the advice of their major professor and the approval of the department concerned and of the Dean of the Graduate School.

ENROLLMENT IN THE SUMMER SESSION

The Summer Session makes available the facilities of Duke University to those persons who can use them to good advantage and for serious purposes. Candidates for degrees, graduate and undergraduate, will be admitted on the same basis as they are admitted to Duke University for work during the regular session. Applicants who do not desire to matriculate for a degree may be admitted as unclassified students upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that they are qualified to do satisfactory work in the courses which they may elect to pursue.

Undergraduates—Undergraduate students now enrolled in Trinity College or the College of Engineering should enroll for the Summer Session just as they do for classes in the regular year. They should go to the office of Dean H. J. Herring and obtain the proper blank for enrollment and have their programs approved when they enroll. Undergraduate students now enrolled in the Woman's College should obtain the enrollment blank from Dean Hazen Smith and have their programs approved by her.

Men who desire to enter Duke University, either as Freshmen or undergraduates with advanced standing, should make application to Dean H. J. Herring, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. Women desiring to enter either as Freshmen or undergraduates with advanced standing, should apply to Mrs. W. S. Persons, Chairman of the Committee on Admissions for the Woman's College, College Station, Durham, N. C.

Other undergraduates, men or women, Freshmen or upperclassmen, who desire to enter as unclassified students and who are already admitted or enrolled at another institution, should apply to Paul H. Clyde, Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C. Students already matriculated in another institution should ask for the Course Approval Blank for use in securing the approval of the Dean of their school for the courses they elect and for use in transferring their credits back to the institution in which they are matriculated. Applicants who are entering college for the first time should have the institution in which they will be enrolled for the regular year submit to the Director of the Summer Session a certificate of admission.

Teachers in service who do not hold a Bachelor's degree but desire to attend the Summer Session in order to earn credits towards the renewal or the advancement of their certificate and who do not wish to become candidates for a degree from Duke University should apply to Paul H.

Clyde, Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C., and have sent to him a transcript of their undergraduate college record. In some cases the presentation of their teaching certificate will be sufficient evidence for admission. Teachers who wish to matriculate for a Bachelor's degree will apply for admission to the appropriate persons as indicated in the preceding paragraphs.

Graduates—Applicants who wish to earn credits toward the renewal of their certificates or who wish to enroll for certain courses on the graduate level and who do not plan to matriculate for a graduate degree may be admitted to the Summer Session as unclassified graduate students. These should apply to Paul H. Clyde, Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C., and should have sent to him a transcript of their undergraduate and previous graduate work. This is necessary in order that such students may be admitted to courses in which regularly matriculated graduate students are enrolled.

All applications for admission to the graduate school should be made as early as possible in order to allow ample time for obtaining transcripts and for evaluating credentials. Decisions on applications that come in after June 1 in all probability cannot be reached until after the opening of the Summer Session.

REGISTRATION

Registration days for the three summer terms are:

First term: Tuesday, June 13.

Second term: Wednesday, July 5.

Third term: Saturday, July 22.

Students now in residence in Duke University should pre-enroll for Summer Session courses on dates set by their respective colleges. Fees are payable at the Treasurer's Office after May 20 or on registration day.

Students not now in residence are urged to submit by mail their applications and to select their courses for approval on the application form (see final pages of this Bulletin) at the earliest possible date. Fees may be paid in advance by mail after the application has been accepted and courses approved, or in person on registration day.

All students will complete their registration on registration day (secure class enrollment cards, schedules of classroom assignments, recreation card, etc.).

A student may not be admitted to a class and receive credit for the course later than the fifth day after the class begins. Late entrance to class is not advised, and the days missed are counted as absences. If during the term more than four absences are incurred in any course, full credit for the course cannot be obtained. Applicants may register for the short term courses of three, four, and five weeks, which do not begin when the regular terms begin, at any time prior to the day on which class work starts. Students who find it impossible to reach here on the day before these courses start may enter their class at the first session and complete their registration after class has adjourned for the day.

Candidates for graduate degrees must register their courses in the Graduate School office at the beginning of each term of their residence at Duke University. This registration is in addition to the registration in the Summer Session office. Before reporting for registration in the Graduate School office, students should have their courses endorsed by the Director of Graduate Studies in the department of their major subject. Any one registering in the Graduate School after the close of the Summer Session registration period will be charged a late registration fee of five dollars.

ADMISSION TO GRADUATE COURSES

Applicants who wish to matriculate for a graduate degree should apply directly to The Dean of the Graduate School, Duke University, Durham, N. C., for a graduate school application blank. When such applicants have been admitted, the Summer Session Director will send the proper blank for the reservation of a room and course enrollment.

A student who has received the A.B. or B.S. degree from an institution of recognized standing for a four-year undergraduate course may be admitted to take graduate courses in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Duke University, provided that his undergraduate record gives positive evidence of ability to undertake graduate study successfully. An average grade of not less than "B" is ordinarily accepted as evidence of such ability.

All new applicants for admission to graduate courses are now required to take the Graduate Record Examination before they can be admitted. In cases where it is not possible to take the Examination before arrival at Duke University and where the transcript of work taken elsewhere clearly shows that the student is otherwise eligible, the Examination may be taken after the student's arrival. Students may make their arrangements for taking this Examination directly with the Educational Testing Service, Box 592, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Examinations are conducted several times each year at centers distributed throughout the United States and Canada, and wherever possible students should apply to such a center for the Examination. Admission to graduate standing is marked "provisional" until a satisfactory Graduate Record report has been made. Such a provisional listing may be permitted for the first Summer Session only.

A candidate for admission to graduate courses should ask the proper officer of the college, or colleges, he attended to send directly to the Dean of the Graduate School an official transcript of his undergraduate record. An advanced student should provide also a transcript of the graduate work completed by him. Students who have attended more than one college or university should note that certification by one institution of work completed at another institution cannot be accepted. In no case will a transcript presented by the candidate himself be accepted as a basis for admission, nor will a transcript mailed by any institution be returned to the student.

All applications for admission to the Graduate School should be made as early as possible in order to allow ample time for obtaining transcripts and for evaluating credentials. The application and supporting credentials should be submitted to the Graduate School at least fifteen days before the applicant proposes to enter courses; otherwise he may have to enter tentatively and as an unclassified student.

After twelve semester hours of graduate work for which a student is registered in the Graduate School office, the student may apply for formal admission to the Graduate School, and thus become a candidate for the Master's degree. Such admission is dependent upon the fulfillment of two conditions. (1) The student must have made a mark of "G" or "Good," in at least three semester hours of work, with no mark less than "S." Candidates who cannot meet this condition may at a later time submit their records for re-evaluation, provided that in their subsequent work they shall have made a substantial number of "G's."* (2) The student in his undergraduate work must meet substantially the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University.† Any deficiencies of undergraduate work must be satisfied before admission to the Graduate School. The graduate courses taken at Duke University prior to formal admission to the Graduate School will count toward a higher degree provided they are in accord with the requirements and are acceptable to the department of the student's major. A graduate student may be requested to withdraw from the University at the discretion of the Dean of the Graduate School.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS

Language Requirements—Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts are required to have a reading knowledge of at least one foreign language. The various departments have the right to recommend specific languages that are acceptable to them. The candidate may satisfy the foreign language requirement either by examination or by transcript showing the completion of the third college year of the language, or he may satisfy the requirement by transcript showing the completion of the second college year in each of two acceptable languages. This requirement must be satisfied before the candidate will be allowed to take his thesis examination.

* In the grading of graduate students, "E" (exceptional) is the highest mark; "G" (good), the next lower; and "S" (satisfactory) indicates work of an acceptable but not distinguished quality. "F" (fail) indicates that the work of the student is below passing. In a course in which both graduates and undergraduates are enrolled, the grade "S" represents approximately an 80 per cent rating.

† In meeting the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University, a student is not allowed excessive concentration in any one field. The same principle is applied in evaluating the undergraduate record of candidates for admission to the Graduate School.

Major and Minor Subjects—As a prerequisite to graduate study in his major subject, a student must have completed a minimum of twelve semester hours of approved preliminary courses in that department and twelve additional semester hours either in that department or in related work. Many departments require eighteen semester hours of undergraduate credit. The student should read carefully the special requirements listed by his department.

To obtain the degree of Master of Arts, a candidate must complete satisfactorily twenty-four semester hours of graduate courses and a thesis. (The student who takes more than fifteen semester hours of work in the Summer Session must complete a total of twenty-seven semester hours of course work and a thesis.) The credit for the thesis is six semester hours. Each candidate for the degree must select a major subject, in which the minimum requirement is twelve semester hours and a thesis. A candidate must take six semester hours of graduate work in a minor outside of his major but approved by the department, and the remaining six semester hours in the major or minor fields, or in a department approved by the department of his major and by the Graduate School Council. No undergraduate course may be credited toward the degree of Master of Arts.

Residence Requirements—The minimum residence requirement of candidates for the Master's degree is one academic year. Often a longer period of residence will prove necessary. Those students who take more than fifteen semester hours of courses in the Summer Session must fulfill a minimum residence requirement of thirty-three weeks.

Not more than six semester hours of course credit toward the Master's degree may be given to candidates for the Master's degree for acceptable graduate courses or for research work completed elsewhere. Such credit does not shorten the minimum period of full-time residence work required at Duke University. However, with the approval of the department of the student's major and of the Dean of the Graduate School, the student with such credit may be permitted to take six semester hours of required undergraduate training, six semester hours of required language, or to register for nine or twelve hours of thesis research instead of the usual six semester hours. No credit toward advanced degrees is given for University extension or correspondence courses.

All the work offered for the Master's degree, whether in the regular academic year or in Summer Session, must be completed within a period of six years from the date of beginning. A student who expects to complete the work for his Master's degree in the Summer Session should file in the Graduate Office a statement of his intention to complete the work. This statement should be filed during the first week of the term in which the student expects to complete his requirements.

Thesis—The title of the thesis required in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts (or Master of Education) must be filed with the Dean of the Graduate School on or before July 1 of the summer in which it is expected that the degree will be conferred. The subject must receive the written approval of the Director of Graduate Studies of the department in which the candidate has his major field of work and also of the professor under whose direction the thesis is being written.

Four (or, at the discretion of the department concerned, three) bound typewritten copies of each thesis must be submitted to the Dean of the Graduate School in approved form at least one week before the date proposed for the thesis examination. All copies of the thesis should be brought to the Graduate Office before distribution to the examining committee. The examining committee is composed of three members of the Graduate Faculty appointed by the Dean of the Graduate School after consultation with the professor directing the thesis. Each candidate for the Master of Arts degree is required to appear before his examining committee for a final examination, which will approximate one and one-half hours in length and will be on the thesis and major field. When the candidate's thesis has been approved by the examining committee, the original and one carbon copy will be endorsed by the committee and returned to the Dean of the Graduate School, who will deposit them in the University Library.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF EDUCATION

The degree of Master of Education is granted to teachers or others engaged in educational work, upon completion of the prescribed program of study. Before candidates may be admitted to graduate study for the degree of Master of Education they must have completed a minimum of eighteen semester hours of approved undergraduate work in education, including courses in educational psychology and in the history of education, or educational sociology, or school administration. To be accepted as candidates for the degree, students must early in their residence (1) make a satisfactory score on a test of general ability and (2) demonstrate by examination that they can write acceptable English. In addition, they must have had two years of practical experience in teaching when the degree is conferred. This experience may be obtained at any time prior to entering upon candidacy for the degree, or it may be obtained concurrently with the period of study for the degree.

The degree of Master of Education may be earned either with or without a thesis.

Requirements Without Thesis—Students who elect not to write a thesis must earn thirty semester hours of course credit (thirty-three in the Summer Session). Twelve of these hours must be chosen from the four basic required courses, Education 204, 210, 217, and 235. Exemption from not more than two of the four basic courses will be allowed students who can by examination show that they already possess adequate knowledge of the subject matter of the courses omitted. Such students must, however, substitute other courses for those from which they are excused, thus still earning the minimum of thirty (or thirty-three) semester hours of course credit. Toward the end of their residence students must also pass a comprehensive examination on the content and inter-relationships among these four courses. Before taking this examination students must obtain the approval of the Director of Graduate Studies in Education and, three weeks before its announced date, must file a notice of their intention to take it.

In addition to these twelve semester-hours of credit in the four basic courses, the student must have credit in a departmental major of at least twelve semester hours and credit in an extradepartmental minor of at least six semester hours. Educational psychology may count in the minor when the major is elementary education or public school supervision. Toward the end of their residence students must stand a comprehensive examination on their departmental major.

Requirements With Thesis—Students are permitted to substitute a thesis for six semester hours of course credit, provided (1) that in the first fifteen hours of their work (twelve in the Summer Session) they earn a "G" record on at least six hours, and (2) that they present a thesis subject that has been approved by the member of the staff in Education who will supervise the thesis as well as by two other members of the staff. Two of the three faculty members approving the subject must be resident members of the staff in Education.

Besides the thesis, students must earn twenty-four semester hours (twenty-seven in the Summer Session) of course credit. Six of these hours must be earned by taking any two of the basic courses, Education 204, 210, 217, and 235. Thesis students are exempted from the comprehensive examination which is required of non-thesis candidates. Of the remaining eighteen semester hours (twenty-one in the Summer Session), six hours must be taken in some department other than Education. The other twelve (or fifteen) are taken in the department of the student's major. All other requirements, such as those relating to residence, preparation of thesis, thesis examination, etc., are the same as for the degree of Master of Arts.

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations in courses are held on the two last days of each term. Final examinations for short courses which occupy the student's complete program will be held on the last day of each course. The examination dates for the three terms are:

First term: July 21-22.

Second term: August 11-12.

Third term: August 30-31.

Courses in science which begin after the opening date for the first term have been scheduled so that their final examination will come on July 22. The second half of the science courses which begin July 24 and run for four weeks will have their final examination on August 19. Final examination for Physics S52 will be on August 26. The University has no provision for giving examinations in absentia. Students absent from examinations for valid reasons are permitted a liberal extension of time to return to the University for completion of credit.

The qualifying examination for the Master of Education degree will be held on Saturday, July 8, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Room 2D, West Duke Building.

The comprehensive examination for the Master of Education degree will be arranged to suit the convenience of the students concerned in so far as is possible. Dates for these examinations will be set after the candidates have notified the Co-Director of the Summer Session as to the time when they will be ready to take the examination. Only those who have completed the four basic required courses are eligible for this examination.

Students who have completed the course work in their professional major may take the examination on Saturday, July 8, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., or at a later date fixed by arrangement with the Co-Director of the Summer Session.

Students who have completed the course work in their minor subject may take the examination Saturday, July 8, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m., in Room 2D, West Duke Building, or at a later date fixed by arrangement with the Co-Director of the Summer Session. The minor examination is not required of any student who has passed the qualifying examination. Since June 1, 1945, the qualifying examination has been required of all candidates for the Master of Education degree. Students who enrolled prior to that date are permitted to substitute the qualifying examination for the minor examination upon approval of the Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of Education.

Any student who expects to take any of these examinations during the Summer Session should notify A. M. Proctor, Co-Director of the Summer Session, at least a week before the date set for the examination and at least two weeks in advance if he expects a special examination date to be arranged. A student who expects to take the comprehensive examination at any time during the Summer Session should notify A. M. Proctor during his first week on the campus.

The date and place of holding a student's examination upon his thesis will be arranged by the chairman of the student's thesis committee after consultation with the Graduate School office.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS

Rooms—In all dormitories the rate of room rent is $21.00 for each student, where two students occupy a room. There are a limited number of single rooms available at the rate of $30.00 for the six weeks. Graduate and undergraduate students will be assigned to separate dormitories in so far as this is possible. More mature undergraduates may be assigned to dormitories for graduates.

Occupants of University rooms furnish their own bed linen, blanket, pillow, and towels. All other essentials are furnished by the University.

There is no dormitory available for married students whose wives accompany them. Frequently, when both the husband and wife are enrolled in the Summer Session, the husband will room in the men's dormitory and the wife in the women's dormitory. Children are not admitted to the dormitories. Available apartments in town are often listed in the Summer Session office. This list will be sent upon request.

Applications for room reservations, accompanied by the full amount of room rent for the term concerned, should be made directly to the Housing Office. Applications for rooms on the East Campus and in the Spanish House should be sent to Miss Mary Grace Wilson, College Station, Durham, N. C. Applications for rooms on the West Campus and at the Marine Laboratory should be sent to Mr. W. E. Whitford, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. Room assignments for the first term will be made beginning about May 1. In order to be sure of a reservation requests should be mailed in promptly. Applicants should be sure to express their preference as to roommate, if they have a preference. Room assignments for the second term will not be made until about June 25, and for the third term, July 15.

Rooms rented from the University will not be available for occupancy for the first term before 9:00 a.m., Monday, June 12; for the second term before 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, July 4; and for the third term before 9:00 a.m., Friday, July 21. Room assignments are made with the understanding that the student is expected to vacate the room at the end of the term within twenty-four hours after his last examination begins.

Students living on the campuses and occupying University dormitories during the Summer Session are governed by the same rules and regulations as apply to students during the regular year.

Dining Halls—The cafeterias and Oak Room, located in the Union on the West Campus, will be open throughout the Summer Session. The cafeteria in the Union on the East Campus will be open for the first nine weeks beginning with the evening meal Monday, June 12, and ending August 12. Meals are on a cash basis and range from $1.50 to $1.75 per day depending upon the needs and tastes of the individual.

Arrangements may be made in the Office at the Dining Halls to have books of script issued to a student and the bill sent to the parent.

A special dining hall, where only Spanish will be spoken, will be provided in Southgate Dormitory for the students of the School of Spanish Studies.

MEDICAL CARE

With the exceptions noted below, full medical and surgical care is furnished to all regularly matriculated students of the University, during the Summer Session, at no additional cost to them beyond the medical fee of $3.50 for each six-weeks term of residence, or any shorter period. This service is under the direction of the University Physician with the cooperation of the staffs of the infirmaries and the University Hospital. It includes hospitalization for a maximum period of six days, medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, X-ray work, and ward, but not special nursing. Refraction of eyes, treatment of teeth and of all chronic and pre-existing conditions, such as diseased tonsils, hernias, elective surgery, chronic skin conditions, endocrine disturbances, etc., or accidents or illness occurring during vacations or while off the campus, are not included in this service. The cost of braces and necessary orthopaedic appliances and of blood, as well as special nursing, must be borne by the student. A charge for board will be made of the student while he is in the hospital. All necessary telephone and telegraph charges will be borne by the student.

No illness is treated in dormitory or other rooms occupied by students. Students needing treatment for minor medical or surgical conditions have the attention of the Director of Student Health at his two daily visits to the infirmaries, which have day and night nurses on duty. Students developing serious conditions are promptly transferred from the infirmaries to the University Hospital, where they come under the care of the staff of the hospital. For admission to the hospital a student needs to present the receipt for his registration fees or a certificate from an official of the Summer Session as evidence that he is matriculated in the Summer Session and entitled to hospitalization.

FEES AND EXPENSES

A registration fee of $20.00 is charged to all students carrying the normal program of six semester hours. When the program carried is four semester hours or less, the fee is $10.00. The regular tuition fee is $8.00 for each semester hour. Teachers in active full-time service in schools and colleges are, upon proper application, allowed a tuition scholarship rebate amounting to one-half of the regular tuition, for not more than four terms of six weeks within a period of six years. After their fourth term teachers pay regular tuition charges. (Application for this scholarship rebate should be made to the Director of the Summer Session in advance of registration.) Graduate students completing the work for the Master's degree in the Summer Session will pay a fee of $25.00 for thesis supervision and/or for examinations. Because of the extra services rendered, a special fee of $10.00 is charged students enrolled in the School of Spanish Studies, and a $10.00 laboratory fee is charged students enrolled in the Marine Laboratory.

Major expenses for a six-weeks term are estimated as follows:

Registration	$20.00
Tuition (deduct $24.00 for teachers in active service)	48.00
Medical service	3.50
Room-rent	$30.00 or 21.00
Board, estimated: ample $90.00, minimum	60.00
Special fee for School of Spanish Studies or Marine Laboratory	10.00
Books and class materials	$7.00 to 10.00
Bus fare, laundry, and miscellaneous expenses range from	$9.00 to 15.00

The minimum expenses for teachers who receive the scholarship rebate should be approximately $150.00. Maximum expenses will range up to $200.00 or possibly $225.00.

THE SCHOOL OF SPANISH STUDIES

The ninth annual session of the School of Spanish Studies will be held during the first term, June 14 to July 22. The courses offered will include undergraduate work of the first three years and advanced oral Spanish, as well as graduate work in Spanish and Spanish-American literature. There will be liberal opportunity for speaking the language, hearing lectures, holding discussions, and attending evening programs all conducted in Spanish. Students of the School of Spanish Studies will live in the Residence, Southgate Hall on East Campus. Here only Spanish will be spoken. A private dining-room in the Residence will be used on all days except Sundays, when facilities will be available in the East Campus Union. A member of the staff or a native Spanish-American assistant will be assigned to each table to lead the conversation.

During the Summer Session courses in Spanish are given only in the School of Spanish Studies. An applicant, however, may register for one course in the School of Spanish Studies and another course in some other department. In this case the registrant is a member of the Spanish School student body and is privileged to live and eat in the Spanish House. When it appears necessary for such a student to live elsewhere, this may be arranged by permission of the Director of the School.

The School of Spanish Studies is intended to offer to students and teachers an opportunity for intensive training in the knowledge and use of the Spanish language. It is designed to provide a basic orientation in the literature and cultural background of the Hispanic world. In addition to the regular staff of Duke University, visiting professors and lecturers of note have been engaged. Assistants from Latin America whose native language is Spanish have been secured to aid students in pronunciation and intonation and to give instruction in the cultural mores of Latin America. Because of special facilities provided in the School of Spanish Studies, a fee of $10.00 is charged but all other expenses are the same as in other parts of the Summer Session.

The work is intended for the following groups of persons:

1. High-school and college teachers who need review or further training and orientation for their professional equipment;
2. College teachers who wish to pursue advanced studies in Hispanic literature or cultural history;
3. Graduate students with a major or minor in Spanish;
4. Prospective teachers of Spanish and specialists in other fields (business, government service, history, etc.) whose work may require a knowledge of Spanish;
5. Undergraduates who are majoring in Spanish;
6. Undergraduates who plan to fulfill their requirement in foreign language by courses in Spanish and who desire more than a reading knowledge of the language.

For details of the School of Spanish Studies, write the Director of the Summer Session for special Bulletin. The course offerings of the School are listed in this Bulletin in the "Courses of Instruction" under Spanish.

INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS OF MATHEMATICS

The Institute for Teachers of Mathematics will hold its tenth annual session August 7-18 inclusive. The theme of the Institute is "Mathematics at Work." There will be morning, afternoon, and evening meetings each day of the Institute. Applications of mathematics to current problems in industry and science will be stressed. Lecturers of recognized ability in industrial research and teachers of note have been secured. Approximately eight study groups will be arranged under the leadership of outstanding teachers.

The Mathematics Laboratory now being established at the University will provide helpful materials and suggestions for the members of the Institute. The registration fee will be $10.00. Those who so desire may secure a room in the University dormitories at $1.50 per day. Meals may be secured in the University dining halls, cafeteria style. A separate folder containing full details and program of the Institute will be ready for distribution about April 15. For further information write the Director of the Summer Session or W. W. Rankin, Director of the Mathematics Institute, Duke University, Durham, N. C.

THE INSTITUTE OF NURSING EDUCATION

In addition to the courses in Nursing Education, this summer there will be held for the fourth year an Institute of Nursing Education. The Institute will be held for a period of one week, July 24-29. The program will deal with "Improving Nursing Care Through an Effective Clinical Teaching." Nurses who wish to attend the Institute should write to Miss Dorothy Smith, Acting Director of the Division of Nursing Education, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C., for an application blank. The fee for the Institute is $5.00. A room may be secured in the nurses' residence hall at $1.50 per day. Meals may be secured in the University dining halls, cafeteria style, at very reasonable prices. For detailed information write to the Director of the Summer Session, College Station, Durham, N. C.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Religious services are held each Sunday morning at eleven o'clock in the University Chapel on the West Campus. Choral music for these services is provided by a voluntary student choir of which Mr. J. Foster Barnes is the director. Summer Session students with vocal talent are invited to join this group. In the past students have found their participation in the choir very enjoyable. The pulpit is usually occupied by a regular University preacher, or a special visiting preacher.

1950 Summer Preaching Schedule

June	18	Dr. Frank S. Hickman, Preacher to the University.
	25	Dr. Frank S. Hickman, Preacher to the University.
July	2	The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University.
	9	The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University.
	16	The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University.

- 23 The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University.
- 30 Bishop W. W. Peele, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia.
- August 6 The Reverend W. A. Stanbury, District Superintendent, Gastonia District, The Methodist Church.
- 13 Dr. J. H. Phillips, Director of Religious Activities, Duke University.
- 20 The Right Reverend Edwin A. Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, The Episcopal Church.
- 27 The Reverend T. R. Milford, Chancellor of Lincoln Cathedral, England.

SUMMER SESSION RECREATION

The recreation program of the Summer Session will be in charge of Mr. W. S. Persons, assisted by Mr. R. B. Fearing. The program of intramural sports has been an enjoyable part of former Summer Sessions. The swimming pools, tennis courts, handball courts, volleyball courts, and other playing fields are open to Summer Session students without charge. Organization of students by state groups is encouraged. These groups arrange picnics, field trips, and other social activities which add much to the enjoyment of Summer Session attendance. A special feature of past summers has been the Sunday evening open-air sing. Stunts and special features arranged by various student groups add much to the enjoyment of these affairs. Informal dances are held each week end in the gymnasium.

APPOINTMENTS BUREAU

A Teachers' Appointments Bureau is maintained in Room 103, Page Building, the year around. The service of this Bureau is available to teachers registered in the Summer Session who may desire a change of position and to school officials who may be seeking the services of new teachers. There is no charge for this service.

THE LIBRARY TOWER, WEST CAMPUS, DUKE UNIVERSITY

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS

Classes meet daily five times per week, Monday through Friday, for six weeks unless otherwise indicated. Where a course is conducted for a shorter period than the usual six weeks, the dates for the courses are shown in italics following the course description. For most courses the regular daily period lasts for eighty minutes, and such courses carry three semester hours of credit. This is indicated by the abbreviation "3 s.h." A few courses may meet for two regular periods daily or may meet for a sixty-minute period. In such cases the courses will carry more or less credit. The credit hours allowed for each course are indicated under the description of the course. The numbers given courses offered in the Summer Session are the same numbers used in describing courses in the regular term, with the letter "S" preceding; for example, English S1 in the Summer Session would correspond to English 1 of the regular term. The campus on which a class is held is indicated by (w) for the West Campus and (E) for the East Campus.

The four daily periods of the Summer Session are designated as periods A, B, C, and D. The hours of these periods are as follows:

Period A—From 7:40 A.M. to 9:00 A.M.

Period B—From 9:20 A.M. to 10:40 A.M.

Period C—From 11:00 A.M. to 12:20 P.M.

Period D—From 1:40 P.M. to 3:00 P.M.

The term in which a course will be given is indicated by "I" for the first term, June 14 to July 22; by "II" for the second term, July 6 to August 12; and by "III" for the third term, July 24 to August 31. A schedule of the hour and place of meeting for the various courses will be found posted on the bulletin boards prior to the opening of each term. Copies of these schedules may also be obtained from the Summer Session Office or from the offices of the deans of the various schools.

MINIMUM ENROLLMENT REQUIRED FOR COURSES

All courses are offered tentatively and subject to minimum enrollments. The University reserves the right to withdraw undergraduate courses in which fewer than twelve students enroll, graduate courses numbered 200-299 in which fewer than ten students enroll, and graduate courses and seminars numbered 300 or above in which fewer than six students enroll. In withdrawing a course, the University attempts to avoid undue hardships on students. Sometimes, therefore, courses are offered in spite of small enrollments. Some courses not listed will be given when a demand develops and an instructor is available. Some instructors, otherwise not in residence, will permit students who wish to complete theses begun during the academic year to enroll in the Summer Session.

Such students must present a written request from the supervising instructor to the Dean of the Graduate School and must make an application for enrollment in the Summer Session. If accepted for registration, they will pay the regular Summer Session fees. A graduate student who desires to pursue an individual research or laboratory project during the Summer Session under the supervision of the department concerned may register and obtain residence credit. In this case his fee will be $10.00 per semester hour credit.

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS AND REGULATIONS

Departments offering Summer Session programs are listed alphabetically. Under each department is given the name of the chairman and, for those departments now offering in the Summer Session a full sequence of courses leading to the Master's degree, the name of the director of graduate studies is added. Where departments have set up special regulations for admission to candidacy for the Master's degree, these are usually included.

BOTANY

PROFESSOR HUGO L. BLOMQUIST, CHAIRMAN—203 BIOLOGY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS); PROFESSOR PAUL J. KRAMER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—04 BIOLOGY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

For admission to candidacy for the Master's degree in Botany, students must have completed a minimum of eighteen semester hours of biological science, including six semester hours of Botany in courses numbered above 100. Students who have not yet had the minimum eighteen hours, however, may enter higher courses by permission of the instructor, if he is convinced that they can carry the work for undergraduate credit, and may count such work toward the eighteen hours necessary for candidacy.

S225. Special Problems.—Hours to be arranged. June 14-August 31. (w) STAFF

S235. Introduction to Field Botany.—A survey of the ferns and seed plants of the Piedmont; practice in identification; regular field trips to learn the common as well as rarer species in their native habitats. Prerequisite: one year of botany or equivalent. Lectures and field trip or laboratory daily, morning and afternoon, I (first three weeks). 3 s.h. (w) MR. ANDERSON

Note: This class consumes the entire day for the first three weeks and therefore conflicts with all other courses offered. It carries graduate credit provided S236 is also completed for graduate credit; otherwise undergraduate credit only.

S236. Field Botany.—A continuation of Botany S235, with field work extended to include a wide variety of vegetation. Experience in the identification of the more difficult families, collecting and preserving specimens, the keeping of records and use of the herbarium. Prerequisite: S235 or equivalent. Classes daily, morning and afternoon, I (second three weeks). 3 s.h. (w) MR. ANDERSON

S359. Research.—Hours to be arranged. June 14-August 31. (w) STAFF

Courses following given at the Marine Laboratory, Beaufort, N. C. (Write for special bulletin of the Duke University Marine Laboratory.)

S211. Structure and Classification of Algae.—Structures and life histories of algae with emphasis upon marine forms, the principles underlying their classification, their ecology, and economic importance. Collecting, identifications and preservation for the herbarium and morphological study. July 24-August 31. 6 s.h.
MR. WILLIAMS

This course will be given only if there is sufficient demand.

S225. Special Problems.—Hours to be arranged. June 14-August 31.
MR. BLOMQUIST, MR. WILLIAMS

S359. Research.—Hours to be arranged. June 14-August 31.
MR. BLOMQUIST, MR. WILLIAMS

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR JOHN H. SAYLOR, EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE DEPARTMENT—115A
CHEMISTRY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS); PROFESSOR WARREN C. VOS-BURGH, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—211 CHEMISTRY
BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

All first term courses in the Department of Chemistry will begin on Monday, June 26, and continue through Friday, July 21. All second term courses will begin on Monday, July 24, and continue through Friday, August 18. A course in chemistry constitutes a student's full program and occupies his entire time during each school day.

S1. General Inorganic Chemistry.—Elementary principles of chemistry, the occurrence, preparation, properties, and uses of the elements and their compounds. A, B, and C, I. 4 s.h. (w)
MR. WILDER

S2. General Inorganic Chemistry.—A continuation of S1. Prerequisite: Chemistry S1. A, B, and C, III. 4 s.h. (w)
MR. POWELL

S61. Fundamentals of Analytical Chemistry.—A study of the relations of electrolytes in solution and of chemical equilibrium illustrated by laboratory experiments involving the techniques of gravimetric, volumetric, and colorimetric analysis. Prerequisites: Chemistry 1-2 and Mathematics 6 or equivalent. A, B, and C, I. 4 s.h. (w)
MR. SAYLOR

S151. Organic Chemistry.—An introduction to the study of carbon compounds. Compounds of the aliphatic series form the basis of lectures, discussions, and laboratory experiments. Prerequisite: Chemistry 61. A, B, and C, I. 4 s.h. (w)
MR. BRADSHER

S152. Organic Chemistry.—A study is made of compounds of the aromatic series and of carbohydrates and proteins. Prerequisite: Chemistry 151. A, B, and C, III. 4 s.h. (w)
MISS BROWN

S275. Thesis Research.—Research in the fields of physical, analytical, inorganic, or organic chemistry. Open to those students whose research programs for the A.M. or Ph.D. degrees have been approved by the department and by one of the instructors in charge of the course. Schedule to be arranged. (Not more than one semester hour of credit per week for full-time schedule or one semester hour each two weeks for half-time schedule.) 2 to 8 s.h. (w)

ECONOMICS

PROFESSOR FRANK T. DE VYVER, EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE DEPARTMENT—203J
SOCIAL SCIENCE BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS); PROFESSOR JOSEPH J.
SPENGLER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—322 LIBRARY
BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

S51. Principles of Economics.—A short course in the essential principles of economic science. (This course will not count as a part of the minimum economics requirements for graduation until the equivalent of S52 has been completed. It will, however, count as elective credit.) A, I, and III. 3 s.h.

(w)

I MR. SAVILLE
III MR. MCKENZIE

S52. Principles of Economics.—A continuation of Economics S51, emphasis on economic problems. D, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SIMMONS

S57. Principles of Accounting.—Elementary principles of single proprietorship, partnership, and corporation accounting. A, B, and C, June 14-July 1. 3 s.h. (w) MR. MACMILLAN

S58. Principles of Accounting.—A continuation of Economics S57. A, B, and C, July 5-22. 3 s.h. (w) MR. MACMILLAN

S103. Transportation.—Essential features, problems, and competitive positions of rail, highway, air, and inland-water transportation, with most emphasis on rail transportation. Special attention is given to the economic significance of transportation, and to cost factors, rates and their economic effects and regulations. C, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. LANDON

S115. Economic Geography: Teachers' Course.—A study of the interrelation of human activities and environmental elements. The discussion embraces location, maps and their interpretation, the major climatic regions, seasonal influences, weather, lands and their uses, soils, and minerals, bodies of water, plants, animals, and the works of man, as environmental factors. A, I. 3 s.h. (E) MR. LEMERT

S116. Economic Geography and Industrial Organization.—A study of the economic resources and industries of the world; a general appraisal of the natural and the cultural environment; agricultural and manufacturing industries and their location; the conservation of natural resources; world aspects or resource ownership and utilization. B, I. 3 s.h. (E) MR. LEMERT

Note: Conservation of Natural Resources.—Teachers especially desiring to take courses dealing with the conservation of natural resources are advised to elect S115, or S116. Teachers with good background in geography should elect S116 if they can take only one of the two.

S132. The Economic History of the United States.—A study of the agricultural, industrial, commercial, and financial progress of the United States from colonial times to the present day. Special attention will be devoted to mass production, business cycles, great fortunes, and the relationships between government and business. C, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SMITH

S143.—Corporation Finance.—Principles and problems in the financial organization of corporations; the study of corporate securities, the management of capital, the distribution of earnings; industrial combinations; insolvency and reorganization. (Though not a prerequisite, Economics 57-58, Principles of Accounting, is recommended to students electing this course.) B, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. JOERG

S144. Investments.—A study of the role which the security markets play in American economic life. Attention is devoted to the various types of securities, to the mechanics of their purchase and sale, to the factors which affect and determine their market prices, and to the relationship of stock speculation to the banking system and to general prosperity. Prerequisite: Economics 57-58 and 143. D, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. JOERG

S153. Money, Credit, and Banking.—A study of the nature, characteristics, and functions of money, credit, and the commercial banking system; the history of commercial banking in the United States; the foundation, organization, and functions of the Federal Reserve System; the supervision and control of commercial banks; deposit insurance; and the value of money. C, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SAVILLE

S171. Advanced Accounting.—Advanced accounting theory and practice applied to the managerial problems of valuation and operation in corporations, consolidations, mergers, and liquidations. Open to students who have completed Accounting 57-58. A and C, June 14-July 1. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SHIELDS

S172. Advanced Accounting.—A continuation of Economics S171. A and C, July 5-22. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SHIELDS

S181. Business Law: Contracts, etc.—The fundamental principles of law as applied to common business transactions. A and C, June 14-July 1. 3 s.h. (w) MR. HYLDBURG

S182. Business Law: Partnerships, etc.—A continuation of S181, dealing with agency, bailment, sales, negotiable instruments, partnerships, and bankruptcy. A and C, July 5-22. 3 s.h. (w) MR. HYLDBURG

S199. Economic Analysis.—The study of the theory of price and output with particular attention to the effects of imperfect competition. B, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. MCKENZIE

S204. Monetary and Banking Theory.—Structure and functioning of monetary and banking mechanism. Particular attention is given to the theoretical basis of monetary management. C, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SIMMONS

S217. Population Problems and Resources.—A survey of population theory and policy. Study of national and international trends in population—growth and resource—use, together with analyses of their economic and social implications. B, II. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SPENGLER

S231. The Economic History of Europe.—The economic development of Europe from medieval times to the present, treating such topics as the guilds, mercantilism, money, banking, crises, the Industrial Revolution, the interrelationships of government and business, and the economic consequences of war. A, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SMITH

S234. Federal Finance.—A study of the expenditures, revenues, and financial administration of the government of the United States, with emphasis on current problems. FORESTRY

PROFESSOR CLARENCE F. KORSTIAN, DEAN OF THE SCHOOL OF FORESTRY AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—307 SOCIAL SCIENCE BUILDING
(WEST CAMPUS)

Organized course work in the School of Forestry during the Summer Session is limited to plane surveying, forest surveying, and forest mensuration which are required of all students entering upon two years of study in technical forestry leading to the degree of Master of Forestry (M.F.).

Qualified students may engage in thesis research in certain branches of forestry during the Summer Session with the approval of the instructor concerned and the Dean of the School of Forestry or of the Director of Graduate Studies in the case of work taken through the Graduate School.

C.E. S110. Plane Surveying.—Use of instruments; transit, stadia, and compass surveying; determination of meridian by observation on Polaris; differential and profile leveling; setting grade stakes; calculation of bearings, latitudes, departures and areas; methods of plotting; survey and plot of portions of campus by stadia, and transit and tape; care and adjustment of instruments. Prerequisites: G.E. 1 and trigonometry. (Four weeks, eight hours a day, beginning June 13.) 4 s.h. (w) MR. BROWN

S150. Forest Surveying.—Application of plane surveying to forest problems; practice in making boundary and topographic surveys of forested tracts, using both intensive and extensive methods. Work includes use of transit, level, traverse board, topographic abney and slope tape, and aneroid barometer. Prerequisites: Civil Engineering, S110 Plane Surveying, or equivalent. (Five weeks, eight hours a day, July 11 to August 12.) 5 s.h. (w) MR. RUDOLPH

S151. Forest Mensuration.—Field studies in methods of measuring content and growth of trees and forest stands; practice in timber estimating, log scaling, use of mensurational instruments, and collection of basic data. (Four weeks, eight hours a day, August 14 to September 8.) 4 s.h. (w)

MR. SCHUMACHER

S357. Research in Forestry.—Open to students whose research programs for the M.F. or D.F. degree have been approved by the Dean of the School of Forestry and the instructor responsible for directing the research and whose programs for the A.M. or Ph.D. degree have been approved by the Director of Graduate Studies and the instructor in charge. (Credits and schedule to be arranged.) June 14-August 31. 2 to 12 s.h. (Not more than one semester hour of credit per week for full-time schedule or one semester hour each two weeks for half-time schedule.) (Consult courses 301-302 in Announcement of School of Forestry for letter designation of branches of forestry in which research is to be conducted.) (w)

FRENCH

PROFESSOR B. R. JORDAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES
—214 CARR BUILDING (EAST CAMPUS)

S1. Elementary French.—B and D, June 14-July 1. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. NAJAM

S2. Elementary French.—B and D, July 5-22. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. NAJAM

Note: A student enrolled in French S2 must also attend French S1.

S3. French Prose.—Reading and translation, exercises in grammar review and verb drill. Prerequisite: French S1-S2 or two years of high-school French. A, I. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. LEWIS

S4. French Prose.—Reading and translation writing in French from dictation, and aural drill. Prerequisite: French S3. C, I. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. LEWIS

S51. Introduction to French Literature.—Prerequisite: French 3-4 or equivalent. A, I. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. ARCHIE

S52. Introduction to French Literature.—Prerequisite: French 51 or equivalent. B, I. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. ARCHIE

GEOLOGY

S51. General Geology.—This course is designed to give a general view of the surface features of the earth, their origin, structure, and materials. Illustrative materials are studied in the laboratory. Excursions may be made to neighboring points where principles of the science are studied in the field. Lectures or recitation, A and B daily; Laboratory 2:00-5:00 P.M., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, June 26-July 22. 4 s.h. (E)

MR. BERRY

S52. General Geology.—This course is designed to give some knowledge of the chief events of the earth's history. Excursions may be made to suitable neighboring localities. Lectures or recitations, A and B daily; Laboratory 2:00-5:00 P.M., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, July 24-August 12. 4 s.h. (E)

MR. BERRY

GERMAN

PROFESSOR CLEMENT VOLLMER, CHAIRMAN—106A SOCIAL SCIENCE BUILDING
(WEST CAMPUS)

S1. Elementary German.—The fundamentals of grammar and pronunciation; vocabulary drill, translation, and dictation. Emphasis upon a sound reading knowledge of the language and individual achievement. B and D, June 14-July 1. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. MAXWELL

S2. Elementary German.—The equivalent of the second college semester of German; intensive reading of graded material; grammar and vocabulary drill; dictation and sight translation. B and D, July 5-22. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. MAXWELL

Note: A student enrolled in German S2 must also attend German S1.

S3. Intermediate German.—Grammar and composition; dictation, spoken German; reading of narrative and dramatic prose. A, I. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. WILSON

S4. Intermediate German.—Grammar and composition; dictation, spoken German; reading of narrative and dramatic prose. Prerequisite: German 3. C, I. 3 s.h. (w)

GREEK

S121. Greek Literature: Homer.—Iliad and Odyssey. The purpose of this course is to give a general survey of the life and civilization of the Greeks, especially to those who have never studied the language but wish to become acquainted with some of the choicest portions of the literature by the use of translations. The Iliad and the Odyssey are read in translation, and the excavations and discoveries at Troy and other cities of the Aegean age are discussed. A, I. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. TRUESDALE

S122. Greek Literature: The Tragic Poets.—The purpose of this course is similar to that of course S121. Many of the extant plays of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides are studied in English translations. B, I. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. TRUESDALE

HISTORY

PROFESSOR WILLIAM T. LAPRADE, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES
—2B WEST DUKE BUILDING (EAST CAMPUS)

For admission to candidacy for a Master's degree in History the student must present a total of eighteen semester hours of prior work in History, of which at least six must be in American History if he plans to take his major work in that field. Before enrolling for thesis supervision, candidates for the Master's degree are required to complete at least three semester hours of seminar work and are strongly urged to enroll for this work in the second term of their attendance in the Summer Session. (See courses numbered 300 or above.)

S51. Historical Background of the World Today 1500-1871.—The central fact of the expansion of Europe underlies the content of the course. The chief themes are: the contest between liberty and authority in the modern state, changing economic theory and organization, and the problems of peace and war among the states, including the Western infiltration of Asia, Latin America, and Africa, and the rise of the United States as a world power. A, I. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. HAMILTON

S52. Historical Background of the World Today 1871-1949.—A continuation of History S51. A, III. 3 s.h. (w)

MR. ROPP

S91. The Development of American Democracy to 1865.—This course is a study of trends vital to an understanding of the United States today. The main theme is the development of American democracy. Problems of foreign policy, the growth of capitalism, political practices, social behavior, and conflicting ideals are considered in relation to this main theme. B, I. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. WATSON

S113. America in the Twentieth Century.—An historical study of political, economic, and social problems of twentieth-century United States. Emphasis is placed on reform movements from the Muckrakers through the New Deal, the emergence of the United States as a world power, and conflicting ideas and ideologies. D, I. 3 s.h. (E)

MR. WATSON

S232. The Hispanic American Republics.—B, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. LANNING

S235. War in the Modern World.—This course, which deals with military and naval history since Napoleon, is concerned with the relations between war and modern political, economic, and social conditions rather than with the details of battles. Special attention is given to the development of British and American military methods and to events in the American Civil War and the two World Wars. C, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. ROPP

S236. The South from 1877 to the Present.—A study of the social, cultural, economic, and political development of the South since reconstruction. C, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SYDNOR

S262. Russia in the Twentieth Century.—A study of the background of the Revolution of 1917 followed by an analysis of the history and policies of the Soviet state. A, I. 3 s.h. (E) MR. CURTISS

S263. American Colonial History and the Revolution, 1606-1783.—The growth of institutions and economic life in the English colonies; the American Revolution. C, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. WOODY

S270. The History of England from the Accession of the Tudors to Victoria.—Emphasis will be on important personalities, the composition of society, selected topics pertaining to political and social forces, with some attention to the background of the chief literary periods. C, I. 3 s.h. (E) MR. HAMILTON

S315. Seminar in Southern History.—Selected topics in the development of the Southern region, chosen year to year in different periods in its development. B, I and III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. SYDNOR

III MR. WOODY

S321. Seminar in the History of the Spanish-American Colonies.—D, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. LANNING

S363. Seminar in Recent Russian History.—C, I. 3 s.h. (E) MR. CURTISS

LATIN AND ROMAN STUDIES

S111. Roman Literature in English Translation.—Selected readings of Latin literature in English translation with emphasis on the drama, lyric poetry, and the varied contributions of Cicero to literature. C, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. ROSE

S112. Roman Literature in English Translation.—A continuation of S111 with emphasis upon the epic, the satire and the novel. D, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. ROSE

MATHEMATICS

PROFESSOR J. J. GERGEN, CHAIRMAN—220 PHYSICS BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS); PROFESSOR J. H. ROBERTS, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—
219 PHYSICS BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

For admission to candidacy for the degree of Master of Arts with major in Mathematics, a student must have a minimum of twenty-four semester hours credit for course work in Mathematics and related fields. This course work must be approved by the Department through the Director of Graduate Studies. It must include differential and integral calculus and an additional six semester hours of work in mathematical courses of at least Junior level.

To obtain the Master of Arts degree with major in Mathematics by Summer Session work, a candidate must complete twenty-one semester hours of course work in Mathematics, six semester hours of course work in a minor field, and a thesis in Mathematics. The course work must be in courses numbered not less than 200. All work must be approved by the Department through the Director of Graduate Studies. To help students meet the thesis requirement, the Department offers Thesis Seminar, S389X, in which supervision of thesis writing is available.

Each student should, as early as possible in his graduate work, discuss his program with the Director of Graduate Studies or his representative.

- Solid Geometry.—September 1 through September 12. 0 s.h. (w)

- S50. Plane Analytic Geometry.—Prerequisite: Mathematics S5 and S6.
A, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. PATTERSON
- S51. Calculus I.—Differentiation of elementary functions, curve tracing, maxima and minima, motion. Must be preceded or accompanied by Mathematics S50. B, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. PATTERSON
- S53. Calculus III.—Introduction to solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, multiple integration, series, introduction to differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 52. C, I. 3 s.h. (w) MR. DRESSEL
- S224. Mathematical Statistics.—Representation of data, averages, measures of dispersion, comparison of distributions, correlation, probability functions, normal curve and generalizations, sampling, multiple and partial correlation. Prerequisite: Calculus. B, II. 3 s.h. (w) MR. GERGEN
- S258. Finite Differences.—Interpolation formulas, symbolic methods, polynomials of Bernoulli and Euler, numerical differentiation and integration, difference equations. Prerequisite: Calculus. A, II. 3 s.h. (w) MR. CARLITZ
- S259. Solid Analytic Geometry.—Lines, planes, spheres, quadric surfaces, transformations. Prerequisite: Calculus. A, B, June 14-July 1. 3 s.h. (w)
MR. DRESSEL
- S291. Theory of Functions.—Complex numbers, analytic functions, elementary functions, geometry of elementary functions, integrals. Prerequisite: Calculus. C, II. 3 s.h. (w) MR. GERGEN
- S292. Theory of Functions.—Power series, residues and poles, conformal mapping, application of conformal mapping, Riemann surfaces. Prerequisite: S291. A, B, August 14-31. 3 s.h. (w) MR. ROBERTS
- S389X. Thesis Seminar.—Supervision of individual theses in algebra, analysis, and geometry. Students should consult the Director of Graduate Studies or his representative before registering. Thesis credit only. Hours to be arranged. II. (w) MR. CARLITZ

MEDICAL MYCOLOGY

A month's course in Medical Mycology, under the direction of Dr. Norman F. Conant, is to be offered at Duke University School of Medicine and Duke Hospital, July 2-July 29, 1950. The course will be offered every day in the week, except Sunday, and has been designed to insure a working knowledge of the human pathogenic fungi within the time allotted.

Emphasis will be placed on the practical aspects of the laboratory as an aid in helping establish a diagnosis of fungus infection. Insofar as possible and as patients become available, methods of collecting materials in the clinic for study and culture will be stressed. Work with patients, clinical material, cultures and laboratory animals will serve as a basis for this course. Also, an opportunity to study pathologic material, gross and microscopic, will be given those whose previous training would allow them to obtain the greatest benefit from a study of such material.

The number of applicants for the course will be limited and the applications will be considered in the order in which they are received. An attempt will be made, however, to select students on the basis of their previous training and their stated need for this type of work.

A fee of $50.00 will be charged for this course, upon the completion of which a suitable certificate will be awarded. Please direct inquiries to Dr. Norman F. Conant, Professor of Mycology, Duke University School of Medicine, Durham, N. C.

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR GLENN NEGLEY, CHAIRMAN—3-I WEST DUKE BUILDING (EAST CAMPUS);
PROFESSOR R. L. PATTERSON, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—3-I WEST
DUKE BUILDING (EAST CAMPUS)

S48. Logic.—An introduction to critical thinking: the analysis of arguments with emphasis on inductive reasoning, valid forms, and fallacies in argument. Practice in analysis. B, I. 3 s.h. (E) MR. WELSH

S94. History of Modern Philosophy.—A study of the leading contributions to philosophical thought from Descartes to the present. B, III. 3 s.h. (w) MR. McLARTY

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR WALTER M. NIELSEN, CHAIRMAN—119 PHYSICS BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS); PROFESSOR L. W. NORDHEIM, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—
209 PHYSICS BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

S51. General Physics.—This course treats the basic principle of general physics in a more quantitative manner than Physics 1-2. It is designed for Sophomores and Juniors and meets in a thorough way the physics requirements for entrance into the study of either medicine or engineering, and is well suited for the general student. A limited number of Freshmen who present physics for entrance and who have completed the required mathematics may be admitted by permission of the instructor. (Not open for students who have completed Physics 1-2.) Prerequisite: Mathematics 2-5 or equivalent. Lecture and recitation daily, 8:30-9:50 and 10:10-11:30; laboratory three days per week, 2:00-5:00. June 19-July 22. 5 s.h. (w) MR. CARPENTER

S52. General Physics.—A continuation of Physics S51. Prerequisite: Physics S51. Lecture and recitation daily, 8:30-9:50 and 10:10-11:30; laboratory three days per week, 2:00-5:00. July 24-August 25. 5 s.h. (w) MR. CARPENTER

S101. Intermediate Physics.—Mechanics and heat. This course covers in a thorough manner the elements of mechanics and heat. Prerequisites: Physics

1-2 or 51-52 or equivalent, and a course in differential and integral calculus which may be taken concurrently. Lecture and recitation daily; laboratory three days per week. June 26-July 22. 4 s.h. (w) MR. NIELSEN

S102. Intermediate Physics.—A continuation of Physics S101. Prerequisite: S101. Lecture and recitation daily; laboratory three days per week. July 24-August 18. 4 s.h. (w) MR. NIELSEN

S353X. Thesis Seminar.—Students who are properly qualified may carry on research work under direction. Credits and hours to be arranged. (w) STAFF

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROFESSOR ROBERT S. RANKIN, CHAIRMAN—308 LIBRARY (WEST CAMPUS);
PROFESSOR R. R. WILSON, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—311

ZOOLOGY

PROFESSOR IRVING E. GRAY, CHAIRMAN—218 BIOLOGY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS);
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR KARL M. WILBUR, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES
328 BIOLOGY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

For admission to candidacy for a Master's degree in Zoology, a student should have completed an undergraduate major in Zoology (courses in General Science and Botany are not counted as a part of a Zoology major). This normally amounts to about twenty-four semester hours, which should be distributed among the various fields of Zoology, and must include Vertebrate Zoology or Comparative Anatomy, Physiology, and Embryology, passed with creditable grades. A candidate should also have completed at least one year of Chemistry. Work for the degree will require eighteen hours in advanced courses in Zoology, and six hours in another department for a minor, in addition to a thesis. Before registration for a degree, students should confer with the Director of Graduate Studies for the Department. Students not candidates for a degree may take courses offered, if they have necessary prerequisites; but may not count them toward a degree until an undergraduate major has been completed.

S1. General Zoology.—A brief survey of the animal kingdom. Lectures, recitations and laboratory daily, 8:00-12:00, 2:00-4:00. June 26-July 22. 4 s.h. (w) MRS. HUNTER

S2. Animal Biology.—The principles of biology as applied to animals. Prerequisite: Zoology 1. Lectures, recitations and laboratory daily, 8:00-12:00, 2:00-4:00. July 24-August 19. 4 s.h. (w) MR. ROBERTS

S53. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy.—The anatomy and evolution of the organ systems of vertebrates. Prerequisite: Zoology 2. Lectures, recitations and laboratory daily, 8:00-12:00, 2:00-4:00. June 26-July 22. 4 s.h. (w) MR. HORN

S92. General Embryology.—The fundamental principles of embryology as illustrated in frog, chick, and mammal. Prerequisite: Zoology 53. Lectures, recitations and laboratory daily, 8:00-12:00, 2:00-4:00. July 24-August 19. 4 s.h. (w) MR. JOHNSON

S225-S226. Field Zoology.—A field and laboratory course dealing with the taxonomy, life histories, and habits of animals—with special emphasis on field methods. Opportunity will be afforded to follow special interests. S225 first three weeks, S226 second three weeks. Classes daily, morning and afternoon. July 6-25, July 26-August 12. 3 or 6 s.h. (w) MR. BAILEY

Courses at the Marine Laboratory, Beaufort, N. C. (Write for special bulletin of the Duke University Marine Laboratory.)

S203. Marine Ecology.—A study of marine animals in relation to environment. Consideration of environmental factors, succession, rhythms, communities, intraspecific and interspecific relations, productivity, conservation, problems, etc., concerned with animal life in the ocean. Lectures, reviews, conferences, field and laboratory work. June 14-July 22. 6 s.h. MR. GRAY

S211. Quantitative Biology.—The analysis and interpretation of measurement data obtained from biological populations including sampling techniques, estimation, the applications of analysis of variance and regression, and computational procedures. Statistical concepts in biology—binomial and Poisson type populations. June 26-July 22. 4 s.h. MR. MONROE

S274. Marine Invertebrate Zoology.—A study of invertebrate animals that occur in the Beaufort region. A number of field trips will be made to a variety of habitats to study, collect, and classify animals in their natural environments. The structure, embryology, and habits of living invertebrates as well as their behavior under certain experimental conditions will be studied in the laboratory. July 24-August 31. 6 s.h. MR. BOOKHOUT

S353. Research.—Hours to be arranged. June 14-August 31. MR. GRAY AND MR. BOOKHOUT

APPLICATION FOR DORMITORY ROOM

Women students should address their applications for room reservations, and all correspondence concerning such reservations, to: Woman's College Housing Bureau, College Station, Durham, N. C.; men should address theirs to: University Housing Bureau, Duke Station, Durham, N. C.

Room assignment will not be made until the applicant's admission to the Summer Session is certified by the Summer Session Office. Rooms may be reserved only upon payment of full room rent. Rental fees for a six weeks period are as follows: single room, $30.00; double room, $42.00 or $21.00 per person. These fees are refundable provided the applicant cancels his room reservation at least 15 days before the opening of the session for which he is applying for admission.

If the applicant requests a double room but gives no preference of roommate, Bureau officials will try to assign a roommate of seemingly congenial interests. It is understood, however, that the responsibility for getting and keeping a roommate rests with the applicant; otherwise, it will be necessary for him to move to a single room or to make the indicated financial adjustment.

III. THE SCHOOL: ITS PURPOSES AND METHODS

Built on the foundation of the School of Law of Trinity College, with its history of legal instruction running back to the middle of the past century, the Duke University School of Law was established in 1924. In 1930 the School was moved into its present building, the Faculty and library were greatly increased, and the activities of the School broadened. The School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the "Approved List" of the American Bar Association. More than thirty-five states and one hundred institutions of higher learning are represented in its student body.

The curriculum of the School of Law provides thorough preparation for the practice of law in any state; its graduates have been admitted to the bar in forty states and the Territory of Hawaii. Opportunities for specialization in particular branches of the law are afforded.

In carrying out the trust imposed by the indenture establishing the Duke Endowment, the School of Law seeks to have the student acquire knowledge and comprehension not only of legal doctrine, but also of the judicial process and of the social, economic, and political problems with which law and lawyers must deal. The method of instruction employed compels analysis of judicial opinions and inquiry into the non-legal as well as the legal considerations which underlie them. In appropriate courses, special consideration is given to the work of the legislative and administrative agencies of government. In recognition of the increasing importance of the role of the lawyer in representing private interests before government agencies and in government service, an unusually broad program is offered in the public law field. Scope for creative student work is provided by seminar courses and supervised individual study and research.

Practical training is not left for the first years of practice. A carefully integrated series of courses is designed to give students actual experience in the work of lawyers. Legal research and writing courses and moot court work in the first and second years are followed in the third by seminar courses emphasizing legal planning and drafting and by practice courses and work in the Legal Aid Clinic. A student bar association affords a means whereby the student may gain acquaintance with the professional organizations through which a lawyer may and should contribute to the well-being of his profession and of society.

For details of the program of study see Program of Instruction, page 22. The separate courses are described on pages 26 through 32.

IV. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS—REGISTRATION—FEES

DIRECTIONS TO APPLICANTS FOR ADMISSION

Application must be made on the prescribed Law School application blank which will be sent upon request. No application can be finally passed upon until all required documents are on file. These documents are: (1) the application itself, to which a recently made personal photograph should be attached; (2) a complete transcript of record and evidence of graduation or right to honorable withdrawal from the institution from which credit is offered; (3) letters from (a) a responsible official of the college attended, (b) a responsible person in the applicant's home community, and (c) the applicant himself, in his own handwriting, containing a statement of his general activities, and intellectual interests with special reference to reasons for wishing to attend law school; (4) a report of the applicant's score on the Law School Admission Test described below.

The Law School seeks to select students who give promise of leadership in some of the various phases of professional activity. Applicants for admission and their sponsors are requested to keep this fact in mind.

The Law School Admission Test, referred to above, is administered by the Educational Testing Service and is participated in by a number of the leading law schools of the country. It is given four times a year at examination centers conveniently located throughout the United States. No special preparation for the test is necessary, since it is designed to measure aptitudes rather than knowledge of subject matter. The applicant's score on the test will be considered along with other data in passing upon his admission to the Law School. Application forms and information concerning the test should be procured by writing directly to the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey.

TIMES OF ADMISSION

Beginning students may enter only at the opening of the Fall semester in any year. Students who have completed the first year of law study at this or any other law school approved by the Association of American Law Schools may enter at the beginning of any semester.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

An application for admission as a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws may be submitted by any person (1) who is a graduate of a college of approved standing and who has maintained a minimum average of "C" on all work taken, or (2) who has completed in a college of approved standing work equivalent in number of units to three-fourths of that required for graduation and whose college work in its entirety shows an average grade equal to that required for graduation, the requirement in each case being determined by the regulations of the college where the work was taken.

Special provisions for the admission of veterans, whereby military service may be substituted for one year of the three years of college required for admission, are stated below.

VETERANS' ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Any person who served in active military or naval service on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of the war, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable and who either has served ninety days or more (exclusive of any period he was assigned for a course of education or training under the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program), or has been discharged or released from active service by reason of an actual service-incurred injury or disability, may substitute such term of service for one year of the three years of college required for admission. Academic credits will be recognized if gained through examinations on work of college grade pursued while in the military or naval service, if such work is given credit by an approved college; such credits, however, may not exceed one year of the required two years of college study.

The Duke University School of Law has been approved by the Veterans Administration for law study under the provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, Public Law 16, and the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, Public Law 346, often referred to as the "G.I. Bill of Rights." An office is maintained at the University for the handling of the interests of the many students studying under the supervision of the Veterans Administration.

COMBINED COURSE

A number of colleges, upon application by their students, have permitted those who have completed three years of undergraduate work to enter the Law School of Duke University and upon the satisfactory completion of the first year of law school work to receive their Bachelor of Arts degree from such colleges. It is suggested that students desiring to enter Duke University School of Law make inquiry of their proper college authorities regarding this point.

A student from an undergraduate college of Duke University who has completed three years of study may apply to that college to enroll in a combined course wherein his first year of law study may be accepted toward the Bachelor of Arts degree, and, upon the completion of four additional semesters of law study, he will receive the Bachelor of Laws degree.

Any person who has complied with the requirements for admission set forth in this announcement prior to the commencement of his law study, who presents evidence of the satisfactory completion of at least one year of study at any law school which is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and who is eligible for readmission to the law school from which he proposes to transfer, may be admitted to advanced standing, subject to such rules as would be applicable to students in this School having a comparable scholastic record. Provisional credit for courses so completed will be given, final credit being conditioned on the completion of at least one full year of law study in this School with an average at least five points above the passing grade. Adjustment of credit for work done in such other law schools may be made by the Dean or by vote of the Faculty.

CANDIDATES FOR GRADUATE DEGREES

Applications for admission to graduate study should be addressed to the Dean of the Law School and should include transcripts of records of legal and pre-legal work. For the requirements for the graduate degrees, see pages 16 and 17.

REGISTRATION

Registration must be completed on the first day of each semester. Instruction will begin in all classes on the following day. The applicant must obtain from the Dean of the Law School an admission card, indicating that he is entitled to register. Registration is conducted in the Law Building. All students, both old and new, are required to register at the beginning of each semester, at which time class schedules and course cards must be filled out and approved. Students who register in any semester at a date later than that prescribed are required to pay to the Treasurer of the University a penalty of $5.00 for late registration unless excused therefrom. A student's registration for any semester is not complete until he has paid the tuition and fees for that semester. The $5.00 penalty for late registration will be imposed, therefore, unless the student has paid his tuition and fees by registration day.

REGISTRATION FOR BAR EXAMINATION

Many states now require that a student, prior to or shortly after beginning the study of law, register with the board of bar examiners of the state if he intends to practice therein. Each student should write to the secretary of the board of bar examiners of the state in which he plans to practice and ascertain if that state makes this requirement.

CONDUCT OF STUDENTS

All students are admitted subject to the rules of the University and of the School of Law, and continuance in the School is conditioned upon the observance of such rules.

The University expects of its students loyal and hearty co-operation in developing and maintaining high standards of conduct as well as of scholarship. The University, therefore, reserves the right, and matriculation by the student is a concession of this right, to compel the withdrawal of any student whose conduct at any time is not satisfactory to the University.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Tuition fees are due at the beginning of each semester. The tuition fee is $175.00 a semester. In addition, a general fee of $50.00 per semester is required in lieu of separate fees for matriculation, medical service, and the like.

The admission of an applicant is not final until he deposits the sum of $25.00 with the Treasurer of the University. This deposit will not be returned. It will be credited to the account of the student or, if the student is entitled to the benefits of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act or the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, it will be refunded upon his matriculation.

An athletic fee of $5.00, plus any Federal taxes that might be imposed, payable at the beginning of each Fall and Spring semester, is optional. Payment of the athletic fee entitles the student to admission to all athletic events on the campus.

The payment of the general fee entitles the student to full medical and surgical care, with the exceptions noted below. This service is under the direction of the University Physician with the co-operation of the staff of Duke Hospital. It includes hospitalization, medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, X-ray studies, and ward nursing. A charge for board is made at the same rate as in the University dining halls. Refraction of eyes, treatment of teeth and of all chronic conditions, such as the removal of diseased tonsils, are not included in this service. The cost of any necessary braces and orthopedic appliances, as well as of special nursing, must be borne by the student.

DINING SERVICE

Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day, depending on the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple-choice menus and the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

THE GRADUATE DORMITORY AND THE "LAW CABINS"

Furnished double rooms may be secured in the graduate dormitory on the West Campus at $62.50 per person per semester. A few single rooms are available at $87.50 per semester.

A group of log cabins, a part of the dormitory system, especially designed as a study center for law students, is located in the Duke Forest about five minutes' walk from the Law Building. These cabins, five in number, including a large cabin for use as a social hall, house thirty-two students. All rooms in the law cabins are furnished double rooms and may be secured at $50.00 per person per semester.

These charges in each case include heat, light, water, and janitorial service but do not include pillows or bed clothing of any kind.

Rooms are reserved only for applicants who have been officially accepted by the University, upon application to the Director in the Business Division, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina. A reservation fee of $25.00 must accompany the application for a room. The fee is deducted from the room rental charge at the time of registration for the semester; it is not refunded unless application for the refund is made sixty days prior to the registration date of the semester.

Each student is expected to supply necessary sheets, blankets, pillows, rugs, and curtains. Furniture, beds and mattresses (39" x 74"), tables, chairs, dressers, mirrors, and window shades are furnished by the University.

Law students are advised to make early application, since assignment of rooms is made considerably in advance of the beginning of each semester. The applicant should state that he has been accepted for admission to the School of Law. All dormitory or cabin rooms are to be occupied under the rules and regulations established by the University. Law students are not required to live in the University dormitories.

LAWS REGARDING PAYMENTS

The Executive Committee of Duke University has enacted the following regulations which govern the payment of all fees due the University:

1. The President and the Treasurer of the University have no authority to suspend or in any way alter these regulations.
2. Any student who has failed to pay his bills on the dates advertised in the catalogue is denied the right to attend classes until his account is settled in full; subsequent withdrawal does not entitle a student to a refund.
3. No student is considered by the Faculty as an applicant for graduation until he has settled with the Treasurer for all his indebtedness to the University.
4. No student who has not settled all his bills with the Treasurer of the University is allowed to stand the midyear or final examinations of the academic year.

When a student wishes his bills sent to his parents or guardian, the student or his parent or guardian must so notify the Treasurer of the University in writing in due time, but this in no way releases the student from liability to established penalties, if his bills are not paid on the dates advertised.

Further information will be sent upon request. Address

V. BACHELOR OF LAWS DEGREE

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE BACHELOR OF LAWS DEGREE

Upon favorable recommendation of the Faculty, the degree of Bachelor of Laws will be conferred on students who shall have successfully completed six semesters' study of law, the last two semesters of work immediately preceding the granting of such degree having been completed in this School.

A student shall be deemed to have completed successfully six semesters' study of law if during this period he has

(1) secured a passing grade in courses aggregating the number of semester hours in the first-year program, plus forty-eight semester hours, including all courses required for graduation;

(2) secured in every required course a grade not requiring repetition thereof; and

(3) secured an average grade at least five points above passing in all work taken other than first-year courses, or, if the grade in such work is lower than that above specified, an average grade of five points above passing in all work taken.

Students who have spent only their last two semesters of study in residence in this School must have received an average grade at least five points above passing for that year.

MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM STUDENT LOADS

No regular student is permitted to take less than ten course hours per semester. No first-year student is permitted to take courses in excess of the first-year program.

Second- and third-year students are not permitted to take for credit more than fifteen course hours per semester; nor to audit and take for credit more than sixteen course hours per semester. In exceptional cases, students may petition the Faculty for permission to take more or less than the prescribed maximum or minimum loads.

STANDARDS OF SCHOLARSHIP

Grades. The final grades in each course are given in numerical terms which are equivalent to letter grades according to the following scale: 80 to 100, A; 70-80, B; 55-70, C; 50-55, D; 0-50, F.

Grade averages are computed by multiplying the numerical grade in each course by the number of semester hours in that course and by dividing the sum of such products for the courses for which the average grade is sought by the sum of the semester hours in such courses.

A grade of 50 is necessary for passing a course. Where a grade below 50 is given a student in any required course, the course must be repeated if the instructor reports the grade with the notation "must repeat." When a student is required by the instructor to repeat a course which he has failed, the grade given after such repetition supersedes the previous grade in the course.

Eligibility to Continue Law Study. Any student who at the end of his first year or at the end of any subsequent semester, has an average grade lower than 50 on all the work then taken is ineligible to continue his work in the School. Any other student (1) whose average final grade at the end of his first semester is below 50, or (2) whose average grade at the end of any subsequent semester on all the work then taken is below 55, or (3) who in any single semester or in any single year receives failure grades in courses totaling eight or more semester hours, may at any time be declared by the Dean ineligible to continue.

Notification of Unsatisfactory Scholastic Standing. Every student subject to the provisions of the second sentence of the paragraph above, who has not been declared ineligible to continue his work in the School will be given a formal, written notice by the Dean's Office. This notice will set forth his average grade or grades and inform him (1) that he will be subject for the ensuing year to the special supervision of the Dean who may order his dismissal from the School in the event of his failure to maintain a satisfactory scholastic standard, and (2) that he will be ineligible to receive a degree unless his work meets the scholastic requirements for graduation which will be set forth in full in such notice.

Every other student whose average final grade at the end of any semester on the work of that semester, or on all work then taken, does not exceed the minimum average grade required for graduation by more than two points will be given a notice similar to that provided for above.

VI. GRADUATE WORK IN LAW

OBJECTIVES OF THE GRADUATE STUDY PROGRAM

The graduate program of the School of Law is framed with a view to the encouragement and recognition of legal scholarship. It is addressed to the needs of those who have objectives consistent with the purposes of graduate legal education. It provides training for the qualified student who aspires to a teaching career, or who wishes to become proficient in a special field of the law, to do serious legal research, to prepare himself for a public law practice in or out of government, or to acquire a broader and deeper legal education than the undergraduate curriculum offers.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF LAWS

Any person who has received the first degree in law from a law school qualified for membership in the Association of American Law Schools may be admitted as a candidate for the degree of Master of Laws, provided he satisfies the Committee on Graduate Study that his objective in desiring to do graduate work in law is consistent with the purposes for which the program is offered, and provided he demonstrates to the Committee, on the basis of his law school record, his capacity to take and profit by graduate work in law. In exceptional cases an applicant who does not meet the above requirements may, on vote of the Faculty, be admitted to candidacy for this degree if he is able to demonstrate that he is specially qualified, as by reason of practice or teaching. Normally the applicant will be required to show a level of scholarship appreciably higher than that required for the first degree in law at the institution from which he received that degree. An exceptionally high record in law school and in the graduate study program is expected of those who aspire to a teaching career. It should be emphasized that the graduate study program is designed for graduates with a definite objective, not for those who seek to pursue further law study simply from disorientation.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF LAWS

The degree of Master of Laws is reserved for students who, having demonstrated their capacity for graduate work in law, maintain a level of scholarship substantially higher than that required for the degree of Bachelor of Laws in a course of study which involves distinctively graduate work.

The candidate for this degree is required to complete a course of study comprising not less than twenty nor more than twenty-six semester hours, or approved research equivalent thereto. Two full semesters are required for the completion of this program. A candidate for this degree is required to include in his course of study at least two of the following courses: International Law, Jurisprudence, and Legal History. In addition to the minimum requirement of twenty semester hours, the candidate is required to submit an essay representing substantial research on a legal subject. This essay is to be prepared under the supervision of the instructor in charge of the field in which the research is done. The candidate will find it helpful to have formulated a project of research, or alternative projects, before his admission to graduate study.

The candidate's course of study will be selected, ordinarily, from the following list of courses: Public Regulation of Business Seminar, Jurisprudence, Conflict of Laws, International Law, Legal History, Banking, Corporate Planning, Debtors' Estates, Insurance, Corporate Reorganization, Credit and Insolvency, Family Law, Family Law Seminar, Future Interests, Tax and Estate Planning, Labor Relations, Labor Standards, Labor Law Seminar, Federal Taxation I, Federal Taxation II, and State Taxation. This program of study is not inflexible. In appropriate cases the candidate will be encouraged to take related work in other departments of the University. Other courses of comparable content may be substituted for those listed. In special circumstances, credit not in excess of two hours per semester may be arranged for special, supervised research projects.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF JURIDICAL SCIENCE

Any person holding the degree of Master of Laws from this or any other law school which is qualified for membership in the Association of American Law Schools may, on vote of the Faculty, be admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science, provided he completed the work for the Master's degree with distinction.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF JURIDICAL SCIENCE

Upon favorable recommendation of the Faculty, the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science will be conferred on students admitted to candidacy for that degree who complete and submit a monograph or series of essays suitable for publication and deemed by the Faculty to be of distinguished character. At least one academic year, and, in the absence of an extension granted by the Faculty, not more than three years, must elapse between the award of the Master's degree and the award of the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science. Students who have received the degree of Master of Laws from another law school must spend at least two full semesters engaged in research at this School, and in addition may be required to complete a course of study prescribed by the Committee on Graduate Study. The monograph or series of essays required may be based upon, or be an extension of, the essay required for the Master's degree, provided substantial additional research is represented.

POST-GRADUATE AND REFRESHER COURSES

The School of Law provides instruction for students not meeting the requirements for admission to candidacy for graduate degrees who desire refresher courses or who desire simply to complete a fourth year of law school work. The successful completion of the courses taken by such students may be evidenced by certificate of the Dean.

VII. FACILITIES AND ACTIVITIES

THE LAW SCHOOL BUILDING

The Law Building, like all other structures on the main campus of Duke University, is in Tudor Gothic style of colorful Cambrian stone from the Duke University quarries. It was occupied by the School of Law for the first time in September, 1930. In it are classrooms, seminar rooms, offices for Faculty and Staff, quarters for the Legal Aid Clinic and for the Duke Bar Association, a courtroom equipped for trial court and appellate court sessions, and the Law Library. For a description of dormitory accommodations, see page 12.

THE LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library, containing a collection of over eighty-seven thousand volumes, is the largest law school collection in the South. It consists of American and English statutory and case law; a collection of Continental law materials; treatises, digests, encyclopedias; the various selected case series; a comprehensive collection of legal periodicals; and publications in the fields of history, economics, government, and the other social sciences, supplemental to the strictly legal materials. The Library receives every current legal periodical of general interest printed in the English language.

There are several thousand additional volumes of a legal nature in the main University library building, immediately adjoining the Law School, as well as the general collection of over half a million volumes, to all of which the law students and Faculty have convenient access.

The Law Library is administered by a professionally trained staff and is open to the public daily throughout the year and in the evenings, as well, whenever the Law School is in session.

THE LEGAL AID CLINIC

A Legal Aid Clinic was organized at the School of Law in 1931 under the direction of Professor John S. Bradway. The purpose of the Clinic is threefold: to give the student experience in handling actual cases; to develop creative skills, techniques, and mental habits; to encourage a sense of responsibility to client, court, profession, and community. The student is obliged to synthesize his knowledge in applying it to concrete situations which may often cut across course boundaries. He is introduced to the technique of fact gathering, the steps in a legal plan of campaign, the handling of clients, the management of a law office. A series of exercises is conducted in legal research and briefing, leading in the first semester to the writing by each student of a trial brief and in the second semester an appellate brief for a lawyer in active practice. Classroom work involves laboratory exercises in preparation for the handling of actual cases. The law practice in the Clinic is of a sort calculated to stress the ethical responsibilities of the lawyer and the social implications of his work. Instruction in the handling of the actual cases is individualized. Training in the art of interprofessional co-operation is provided through contacts between the Clinic and various agencies of social welfare in North Carolina.

The Legal Aid Clinic is in effect an active law office offering the student, under supervision, experience in interviewing actual clients, investigation of facts, preparing cases for adjustment or for trial in court, writing legal documents, briefing, and other tasks familiar to the practicing attorney. Approximately four hundred persons a year apply for the services of the Clinic. Only those applicants who are unable to pay counsel fees, and only those cases where there is no opportunity for a contingent fee are accepted.

The activities of the Clinic are centered in a suite of offices in the Law School building, and in an interviewing office in the business center of Durham. In addition to the Director, a staff of five members of the North Carolina State Bar assists in the educational and supervisory activities of the Clinic and in representing its clients in court proceedings.

LAW AND CONTEMPORARY PROBLEMS

The School of Law publishes a quarterly, Law and Contemporary Problems, under the editorship of Professors Robert Kramer, John deJ. Pemberton, Jr., and Bueford G. Herbert. This periodical, now in its fifteenth volume, presents in each issue a symposium on a problem of current importance, in which the interrelated social and economic, as well as legal, factors are discussed by writers of competence in these respective fields. Where student research may contribute to the understanding of the legal aspects of such problems, student writings are accepted for publication. Issues to be published this year will feature discussions of air cargo, delivered price systems, private insurance, and regulation of insurance.

The circulation of Law and Contemporary Problems extends not only to members of the legal profession and law libraries throughout the country, but also to industrial and financial concerns, governmental agencies, and public and general university libraries. Individual issues are not infrequently used as materials for study in university courses.

JOURNAL OF LEGAL EDUCATION

The Journal of Legal Education, a quarterly, is also edited at the School of Law under the direction of Professors Robert Kramer and John deJ. Pemberton, Jr. The publication serves as the organ for the Association of American Law Schools, providing a clearing house for ideas and professional studies in the constantly expanding field of legal education. The editorial policy of the Journal of Legal Education is determined by an editorial board named by the Association, assisted by an advisory committee consisting of prominent legal educators and practicing attorneys.

THE DUKE BAR ASSOCIATION

The Duke Bar Association was established in the spring of 1931. It is open to all the students of the Law School and is organized along the lines of the American Bar Association. Its purpose is to introduce the student to the problems considered by the bar in professional organizations and to develop professional consciousness and responsibility. A Faculty Committee on Student Affairs serves as general adviser to the student officers.

MOOT COURTS

A program of student Moot Court arguments is conducted under the supervision of the Faculty as a part of the courses in Research and Writing in which all students are required to participate.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOAN FUNDS

Scholarships covering tuition ($350) are available to a limited number of first-year students, graduates of approved American universities and colleges, who are in need of such assistance. Applicants must have made excellent records in their college work and must show unusual promise of success in the study of law.

Applications for scholarships should be presented to the Dean of the Law School, together with a transcript of college work and letters of recommendation from responsible persons, certifying to the character and fitness of the applicant.

Other scholarships are awarded, as funds may permit, to high ranking students who have spent a year or more at the Law School. There are also a number of positions as assistants in the Law Library and as research assistants which are open to students, particularly in their second or third year, who do not receive other aids from the University.

The University administers certain endowed loan funds for the benefit of students who are not able to meet their expenses, for the purpose of helping worthy students who have established a satisfactory record at the School to continue their education.

Two funds have been provided out of which small loans may be made to tide students over temporary financial emergencies arising during the course of the year. One of these was supplied by the Law School Guild and is limited as to amount and duration of loan. The other is due to the generosity of Mr. P. Frank Hanes of the Winston-Salem bar and is limited to the needs of selected students. These funds are administered by a committee of the Faculty.

GRADUATE LAW FELLOWSHIPS

Two graduate fellowships carrying a grant of $1,500 each are awarded each year. To be eligible for these fellowships, applicants must have completed with distinction the work required for the first degree in law at this Law School or some other school approved by the Association of American Law Schools, and must have been admitted to candidacy for the LL.M. or J.S.D. degree. Preference will be given to students who plan to make law teaching a career. All applications should be addressed to the Dean of the School of Law, Duke University. Fellowships will be awarded by the law faculty on recommendation of the Committee on Graduate Study.

WILLIS SMITH PRIZE

Mr. Willis Smith, a member of the Raleigh bar and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Duke University, awards annually to that member of the graduating class of the Law School who has maintained the highest scholastic average during the entire three years of law school work, a prize consisting of a set of books selected personally by Mr. Smith each year for that purpose. To qualify for this prize the student must have made an outstanding record through his law school course.

JAMES F. BYRNES SENATE PRIZE

Delta Theta Phi Foundation, Inc., through the James F. Byrnes Senate, awards each year to that member of the first-year class of the Law School who has completed the work of the first year with the highest scholastic average during that year a cash prize of fifty dollars.

ORDER OF THE COIF

A chapter of the Order of the Coif, national legal scholarship society, has been established at Duke University School of Law. Its purpose is "to foster a spirit of careful study and to mark in a fitting manner those who have attained a high grade of scholarship." Election is restricted to the ten per cent of the graduating class who have attained the highest rank in their law school work.

LEGAL FRATERNITIES

Three of the largest national legal fraternities maintain active chapters at the School of Law. The Charles Evans Hughes Inn of Phi Delta Phi International Legal Fraternity was founded at the School of Law in 1931. The Wiley Rutledge Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was founded at the School in 1946. In 1947 the James F. Byrnes Senate of Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity was installed at the School. All three fraternities seek to further professional standards. Students may be elected to membership at any time following their first full semester of law study. During the school year the fraternities sponsor separate programs of luncheons featuring prominent local speakers from the profession, an annual address by an attorney of national prominence, and occasional social functions.

RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

The University is located about two miles from the business district of Durham on wooded hills constituting part of the five-thousand-acre Duke Forest, which is maintained by the School of Forestry. Within a short distance from the campus are facilities for golf, horseback riding, and woodland hiking. Students of the Law School are entitled to the use of the University gymnasium, tennis courts, swimming pool, and similar privileges without cost. Motion pictures are shown in Page Auditorium twice a week, and concert programs, recitals, lectures, and plays are presented frequently.

VIII. PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION

The program of instruction of the School of Law has been thoroughly revised as a result of studies made by the Faculty. The curriculum had become overcrowded. For years new courses have been added at this and other schools as new fields of law have become important; old courses have been retained. Students who wished to specialize in particular fields often found it necessary to omit some of the older, more fundamental courses. Insufficient attention had been given to legal writing, the drafting of legal instruments, and legal planning.

The newly adopted curriculum is designed to insure that students may prepare to specialize in practice without foregoing any part of the basic legal education required for general practice and desirable for all specialists. Courses have been combined; duplications in courses have been eliminated. The larger part of students' third year has been opened for studies of specialties. New courses and seminars have been added, especially in the third year in which teaching methods will be different from those used in the older courses. In these courses and seminars legal writing and drafting and legal planning will be emphasized.

The courses offered are listed below. They are grouped under three headings: First-Year Program; Recommended Second-Year Program, and Third-Year Courses. At page 26 the individual courses are described; in that section of the Bulletin they are grouped under the following headings: 1. General Courses; 2. Business Courses; 3. Property Courses; 4. Public Law Courses; 5. Procedure and Practice Courses.

The First-Year Program is prescribed. It includes basic courses in the fields of contracts, business associations, property (including sales and other chattel transactions), and torts. These courses serve also to acquaint the student with the nature of the judicial process (which is stressed in Chattel Transactions), the court system and court procedure (stressed in Torts), and legal history (stressed in the second property course and in other courses). In the field of public law, legislation and the legislative process are studied in the first semester; there follows in the second semester a course in the fundamentals of criminal law and its administration. A course in research and writing (which is continued throughout the second year), after consideration of how the law is found in law books, trains students in writing memoranda of law and legal arguments and in drafting legal documents; the course emphasizes, for each student, the law of the state in which he intends to practice, and introduces students to the art of legal planning. It includes the preparation of briefs and the arguing of moot court cases.

The Recommended Second-Year Program comprises nearly all the other basic courses which all students need regardless of what kind of law practice they plan to enter and the courses prerequisite to third-year work in special fields and in legal planning. Third-year courses may be substituted for courses in this program with the consent of the instructor and Dean. The research and writing course continues throughout the year. The basic work in property and business associations is completed. In the field of business transactions, the students study negotiable instruments and credit. A course in federal taxation, basic to advanced third-year work for specialists, adequately covers the subject for students not planning to specialize in it. Legal and equitable remedies, and court procedure in civil cases, are studied in the course in remedies. Students continue their study of public law in courses in constitutional and administrative law.

The Third-Year Courses (of which an aggregate of 10 to 15 hours each semester is to be selected by each student) are designed to emphasize legal planning and drafting and to enable students to equip themselves to specialize in particular fields. The faculty recommends that all students complete their basic legal education by taking courses in evidence and legal ethics. There are also fundamental courses in legal history and jurisprudence and in conflict of laws and international law. The rest of the third-year courses are in specialties; they are grouped below under the headings (1) business (including inter alia advanced corporation law), (2) estates, family, and property, (3) procedure, practice, and local law, and (4) public law (including inter alia labor law and taxation). A number of these specialty courses (those preceded by asterisks in the list below) emphasize legal planning and drafting. Each student is required to include two of these courses in his third-year program; enrollment in each is limited.

Promoters, subscription to and issue of shares, stock structure and corporate capital, dividends, preferred stock, bonds, capital increases and reduction, corporate re-acquisition of own stock, elementary principles of corporate accounting, public issue of securities, stock transfers, fundamental corporate changes (recapitalization, sale, merger and consolidation, dissolution), stockholders' suits, and certain principles concerning management and operation not studied in Business Associations I. Three hours a week first semester.

MR. LATTY

Contracts. Problems in the formation of simple contracts (making of promises and judicial standards of interpretation, offer and acceptance); the consideration doctrine; third party beneficiaries; assignments; Statute of Frauds, including legal effects of failure to comply; the performance and breach of contract (conditions, order of performance, anticipatory breach); illegal bargains (types, nature and effect of illegality); discharge of contracts. Three hours a week throughout the year.

MR. STANSBURY

Corporate Planning. The student is given hypothetical corporate problems (perhaps taken from the practicing lawyer's desk) on a client's proposed course of action; each problem is designed to require the student to grasp the business situation and goals involved, analyze for pertinent legal principles, plan the transaction to avoid legal and business (including taxation) pitfalls, plan the requisite steps to consummate the desired transaction, draft the appropriate papers, and present his research. Two hours a week first semester.

MR. LATTY

Corporate Reorganization. Reorganization of financially embarrassed corporations in equity proceedings, under state statutes, and under the Bankruptcy Act, Chapters X and XI. Comparison with simplifications of public utility holding company systems under the Holding Company Act of 1935. Recapitalization of solvent corporations. Work of the semester will be devoted primarily to advanced research projects involving planning, drafting, and writing, rather than to coverage of an entire syllabus by all students. Two hours a week second semester.

MESSRS. LATTY AND PEMBERTON

Credit and Insolvency. A more intense study of selected problems falling in the fields of credit transactions and debtors' estates, especially bankruptcy. Creditors' choice of remedies including alternative methods of liquidation or administration of insolvent estates; insolvencies passing through several methods of administration. Work of the semester will be devoted primarily to advanced research projects involving planning, drafting and writing, rather than to general coverage of an entire syllabus by all students. Two hours a week second semester.

MR. PEMBERTON

Credit Transactions. Contracts of accommodation, including those on bills and notes, contracts of suretyship and guaranty, letters of credit. Mortgages and security interests in real property, chattel mortgages, pledges, trust receipts, conditional sales and consignment contracts. Three hours a week second semester. MR. PEMBERTON

The organization and jurisdiction of the federal courts; when and how judicial review can be invoked; limitations on governmental power with respect to economic matters, civil liberties and criminal and civil procedure. The powers of Congress, express and implied; limitations on State governmental powers resulting from the existence and from the exercise of Congressional powers. The constitutional question involved in administrative law, conflict of laws, intergovernmental tax immunities, jurisdiction to tax, and state taxation of interstate commerce are covered more fully in other courses. Three hours a week first semester, two hours a week second semester.

MR. MAGGS

Constitutional Law and Federal Courts Seminar. Advanced study of current Supreme Court cases and of particular fields in constitutional law and history and federal court organization. Two hours a week second semester.

MR. MAGGS

Criminal Law. An introductory study of the law of crimes and the administration of criminal justice; analysis of the criminal act and the mental element in crime; consideration of specific offenses as defined by statute and the common law; discussion of typical defenses in relation to specific crimes; elementary criminal procedure; study of the Anglo-American penal system. Three hours a week first semester.

MR. LIVENGOOD

Federal Taxation I. An introduction to the federal income, estate and gift taxes, with particular emphasis on the federal income tax. The course is designed as a final course for students who do not intend to specialize in tax practice and as an introductory course for those who do. Three hours a week second semester.

MR. LOWNDES

Federal Taxation II. Advanced courses in federal taxation and federal tax practice. Problems in income tax practice and procedure, followed by a detailed study of the federal estate and gift taxes and the relation of the federal income, estate and gift taxes. Three hours a week first semester.

MR. LOWNDES

International Law. A survey of public international law of peace, as evidenced especially in decisions of national and of international courts; the drafting and interpretation of treaties; the nature and handling of international claims; the organization and jurisdiction of international tribunals, with special reference to the International Court of Justice; developments with respect to the codification of the law. Three hours a week second semester. MR. WILSON

Tax and Estate Planning. See Property Courses, page 28, for description. Two hours a week second semester. MESSRS. BOLICH AND LOWNDES

5. PROCEDURE AND PRACTICE COURSES

Case Studies. Detailed analysis of an important civil suit, under supervision of a visiting instructor who was counsel therein. The instructor's files and the record and briefs will be studied. Consideration will be given to how the matter first arose and what business or other problems of the client were involved; how counsel first analyzed the matter and how he ascertained relevant facts; how counsel prepared for and conducted the trial and appellate proceedings. Two hours. Repeated each semester. INSTRUCTOR TO BE ANNOUNCED

Evidence. Examination of witnesses; admission and exclusion; competency of witnesses; privilege; relevancy; demonstrative evidence; writings; the hearsay rule and exceptions thereto; the burden of producing evidence; presumptions; the burden of persuasion; judicial notice. Two hours a week throughout the year. MR. McDERMOTT

Legal Aid Clinic. During the first semester the objectives of the course are: to give the student experience in actual cases; to develop creative skills, techniques and mental habits; to encourage a sense of responsibility to client, court, profession and community. Students under supervision of staff attorneys and in co-operation with members of the Durham bar, court officials and social and other professional agencies in the community, engage, so far as students may, in the handling of actual cases from the first interview with the client until the final disposition of the problem by litigation or otherwise. Trial briefs are prepared for lawyers in active practice. In the second semester the students continue their work with actual cases and clients. In addition they are given experience in special exercises such as building legal documents, dealing with members of other professional groups, conciliation proceedings. Appellate briefs are written for lawyers in active practice. Opportunity is afforded for special work in fields of particular interest. Two hours a week throughout the year.

MR. BRADWAY

Legal Ethics. A seminar approach to the ethical problems of the lawyer and the profession. Readings are assigned in legal biography, law reform, the history of the profession, legal aid work. Class discussions cover canons of ethics, statutes, cases, and opinions of grievance committees dealing with the daily problems of the practicing lawyer. A written report is required on some phase of the reform of the administration of justice. One hour a week second semester.

MR. BRADWAY

North Carolina Practice. A study of the steps in an action at law from the issuance of process to the entry of final judgment including service of process; appearance and waiver of process; selecting the jury; various motions made during the trial; submission of case to jury; verdict; judgment; noting and perfecting appeal. Also included are such topics as jurisdiction of various courts in North Carolina; venue; trials without a jury; provisional remedies and special proceedings. Two hours a week second semester.

MR. BRYSON

Remedies. A study of the principal remedies available for the judicial enforcement of substantive rights, and the procedure by which these remedies are pursued. The first part of the course is devoted chiefly to equitable remedies, but includes the basic principles of restitution (quasi contract and specific restitution) and declaratory judgments, with such incidental reference to damages as is necessary for comparison. The second part (approximately two-thirds of the course) consists of a general study of procedure in civil actions at common law and under the codes and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure: jurisdiction, venue, institution of suit, parties, joinder of causes, pleadings and objections thereto, provisional and extraordinary remedies, pre-trial hearings, trials, judgments, and appellate review. Three hours a week throughout the year.

MR. STANSBURY

6. LEGAL RESEARCH AND WRITING

Research and Writing I. Classroom instruction and individual problems in the use of law books, the preparation of memoranda of law, and moot court briefing and argument. The first year of a two-year program designed to familiarize the student with the materials and methods of legal research and legal writing. One hour a week throughout the year.

MESSRS. STANSBURY, BRYSON, AND BRADWAY,
AND THE LEGAL AID CLINIC STAFF

Research and Writing II. The second year of the two-year program of research and writing. In addition to more advanced work of the kind involved in the first-year program, the student will be assigned one or more problems in research or drafting, and will assist in editing memoranda prepared by first-year students and in judging first-year moot court arguments. Required of all second-year students. One hour a week throughout the year.

MESSRS. STANSBURY, BRYSON, AND BRADWAY,
AND THE LEGAL AID CLINIC STAFF

Upon recommendation of the Committee on Graduate Study, seminars not listed in the bulletin may be created or arrangements made for supervision of special research by individual graduate students in any subject.

All matters presented in this bulletin are subject to change as the University or the School of Law may deem expedient.

THE COLLEGES

GENERAL STATEMENT

Duke University offers in Trinity College, the Woman's College, and the College of Engineering the following academic degrees for undergraduate work: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education, and Bachelor of Science in Civil, Electrical, or Mechanical Engineering.

TRINITY COLLEGE

Trinity College, situated on the West Campus, is the undergraduate college of arts and sciences for the men of Duke University. Through the catholicity of its subject matter, its insistence on a common core of fundamental courses, and its emphasis on a more intensive study of some selected subject, the College aims to give its students a knowledge and appreciation of the culture of the Western World and at the same time to provide a foundation for careers in business and the professions. Its fundamental object is to develop the individual talent of its students.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The Woman's College, the college of arts and sciences for undergraduate women, is situated on the East Campus. As a co-ordinate college within the University system it offers distinctive advantages. The superior faculties, libraries, and laboratories of the university are available; yet the students also have the special opportunities which belong to a separate woman's college. They receive training in leadership by administering their own organizations and by participating in community projects. At the same time they have the stimulus which comes from co-educational classes and the experience of working with the men of the other colleges in many campus activities.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The College of Engineering, one of the three undergraduate colleges of the University, offers standard four-year programs of study in Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. All three curricula are fully approved by the national accrediting agencies of the engineering profession. Courses in the humanities have been given due recognition because it is realized that the engineer has definite responsibilities as a citizen and these responsibilities cannot be properly stressed in the purely technical curricula. Men and women civilian students, as well as members of both the Air ROTC unit and the Naval ROTC unit, are admitted to the College. Engineering students may participate in all general campus organizations and activities as well as in those of the College of Engineering.

THE LIBRARIES

The University Libraries contained 960,859 volumes and more than a million manuscripts at the end of the school year 1948-49. Many additional hundreds of rare books, periodicals and newspapers are available in the 3,129 reels of microfilm which the Library possesses. Seventy foreign and domestic newspapers and about 3,600 periodicals are received currently.

The General Library, in which 618,613 volumes are shelved, is centrally located on the West Campus. The Undergraduate Reading Room on the first floor contains a selected collection of 3,500 books for general reading, together with an equal number of supplementary volumes reserved for undergraduate courses. One of the features of this unit of the Library is an attractively furnished room opening off the Undergraduate Reading Room, with a selection of current books of general interest on open shelves. The main reference room of the Library, containing 5,000 volumes of important reference works of a general character, is on the second floor. Nearby are the Loan Desk, where books may be borrowed from the stacks, and the Union card catalog, a record of all the books in the University Libraries. In the same general area is the Documents Room, which houses the official publications of the federal and state government. These areas are open to all students.

The General Library building has been doubled in size by completion of an addition which was begun in 1947. The new area contains stacks, special reading rooms, offices for staff and faculty, and reading and storage facilities for rare books and manuscripts. The entire area for book storage, rare books and manuscripts is air-conditioned. Seniors, honor students, and others undertaking special studies may be admitted to the stacks of the General Library.

The Chemistry library of 13,555 volumes, the Physics-Mathematics library of 13,002 volumes, the Biology-Forestry library of 40,090 volumes, are housed for the convenience of the faculty and students in the buildings of these departments. The libraries of the schools of Divinity (46,318), Law (89,122), and Medicine (48,070), and the College of Engineering (12,994) likewise are shelved in the buildings of these special schools. Undergraduate students may, if occasion demands, have access to material in any of the libraries.

The Woman's College Library contains 79,095 volumes, chiefly the books most constantly needed in the undergraduate work of women students. An attractive feature of the library is the Booklovers' Room, where on open shelves students may find interesting books in various fields. In honor of Mr. James A. Thomas, the Thomas Memorial Room was opened in December, 1942, affording a quiet, attractive place for study or reading. The decorations and furnishings in the room were provided by Chinese and American friends of Mr. Thomas.

THE AIR FORCE RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Duke University, in cooperation with the United States Air Force, operates an Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps program administered by an Air Force ROTC Unit under the command of a Professor of Air Science and Tactics. The unit functions as a regular department of instruction known as the Department of Air Science. It selects and trains students, who possess the requisite character, intelligence, desire, and sense of duty, to become Air Force Officers.

For enrollment in the Basic Course (freshman and sophomore years) the student must:

- a. Be a male citizen of the United States.
- b. Be physically qualified under standards prescribed by the Air Force. Due allowance will be made for defects which are correctible prior to the student's eligibility for appointment as a commissioned officer.
- c. Be accepted by the institution as a regularly enrolled student.
- d. Be not less than 14 years of age and not have reached 23 years of age at the time of enrollment.
- e. Successfully complete such general survey and screening tests as may be prescribed.

For enrollment in the Advanced Course (junior and senior years) the student must:

- a. Have successfully completed the Basic Course or have had at least one year of honorable service.
- b. Execute a written agreement with the government to complete the Advanced Course, contingent upon remaining in school, and to attend the Advanced Summer Camp at the time specified.
- c. Not have reached 27 years of age at the time of initial enrollment in the Advanced Course.
- d. Successfully complete such general survey and screening tests as may be prescribed.
- e. Be selected by the Professor of Air Science and Tactics and the appropriate authority of the institution.

All uniforms, texts, and training equipment required for the Air Science Course are furnished at government expense and students are paid approximately $600.00 while completing the Advanced Course.

Upon graduation and completion of the Advanced Course students will be offered commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve. Outstanding students will be offered life time careers in the Regular Air Force. Flying training is available after graduation for those who desire it and are physically qualified.

A student enrolled in Air Force ROTC is eligible for deferment from the Draft.

THE NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

The postwar NROTC was established by Public Law 729, signed by the President on August 13, 1946. This law, commonly known as the Holloway Plan, instituted the selection and training of officer candidates for the Navy and Marine Corps by means of Naval Scholarships in colleges and universities throughout the country. A Naval ROTC Unit, under the command of the Professor of Naval Science, a Captain in the regular Navy, is located at Duke University.

The purpose of the NROTC is to provide a steady supply of well-educated junior officers for the line and staff corps of the regular Navy and Marine Corps and to build up a Reserve of trained officers who will be ready to serve their country in a national emergency. The NROTC, the U. S. Naval Academy, and the Naval Aviation Cadet Program are the three sources of career officers for the Navy. Officers commissioned from these sources are assured equal rank, treatment, and opportunity.

Scholarships are awarded to candidates selected as a result of an annual nation-wide test and selection procedure. These men are designated as Regular NROTC Students and are appointed Midshipmen, USNR. The scholarship covers the cost of tuition, fees, and textbooks. NROTC Midshipmen receive retainer pay at the rate of $600 per year. The Navy furnishes necessary uniforms and equipment.

Normally students will attend college for four years while in the NROTC. They may take any course leading to a baccalaureate or higher degree, except that Midshipmen entering in 1950 and thereafter may not pursue courses leading to degrees in pre-medicine, pre-dentistry, pre-theology, medicine, dentistry, or theology. They must include in their courses of study 24 semester hours of Naval Science plus certain minimum requirements in mathematics, physics, and English. They will wear the uniform only when engaged in drills or other Naval Activities prescribed by the Professor of Naval Science, and except for the ordinary requirements of gentlemanly behavior will be subject to Naval discipline only at those times. They are required to make two summer cruises at sea, and one summer training period of amphibious and aviation indoctrination. Upon graduation Regular NROTC students must accept a commission as Ensign, USN, or Second Lieutenant, USMC, if offered, and will be ordered to active duty for a period of 15-24 months. After fifteen months service those so desiring may request an additional year of active duty, and apply for permanent retention in the services as career officers. Those who do not desire to remain as career officers must accept a commission in the Reserve of the appropriate service and remain in the Reserve at least until the sixth anniversary of their first commission. Reserve Officers are not called to active duty except during a declared emergency or war, unless at their own request.

A second type of officer candidate in the NROTC is the Contract NROTC Student. These students are selected from qualified students regularly enrolled in Duke University. They have the status of civilians who have entered into a mutual contract with the Navy. They do not receive the compensation or benefits paid the Regular NROTC Student, but are furnished uniforms, Naval Science textbooks and equipment; and a subsistence allowance (currently 90 cents per day) during the final two years of NROTC training. Contract students make one training cruise during which they receive active duty pay. Contract students on graduation must accept a commission in the Naval or Marine Corps Reserve, but may, if they so desire and their services are required, request active duty and a commission in USN or USMC. If ordered to active duty they then are eligible for selection as career officers under the same provisions as graduating NROTC Regulars.

Under the provisions of the Selective Service Act of 1948, Regular NROTC Students who serve a period of active duty as an integral part of their training under Public Law 729 are deferred from Selective Service. Contract Students, by virtue of an agreement to accept a commission on graduation and to serve on active duty if required, are deferred from Selective Service. All NROTC Students are considered on inactive duty in the Naval Reserve while in college, and such service may not be counted for exemption or deferment should a student be separated from the program for any reason.

TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

ADMISSION

Applicants may qualify for admission to Trinity College or the Woman's College as members of the Freshman Class or as students with advanced standing. Since the enrollment in the two colleges is limited, the Committee on Admissions will select the students who, in its opinion, are best qualified to benefit from the educational advantages which the colleges offer.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application for admission to Trinity College should be made to the Secretary of Duke University, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina, for transmittal to the Council on Admissions. Application for admission to the Woman's College should be made to the Committee on Admissions, College Station, Durham, North Carolina. Forms of application will be sent on request.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Admission to Trinity College and to the Woman's College is dependent upon the ability, attainments, and character of the applicant. Each applicant must see that the Committee on Admissions receives a complete record of his work in secondary school or college, the required medical certificate, and satisfactory evidence of his good character and ability.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

An applicant for admission to the Freshman Class must present at least fifteen acceptable units of secondary school credit. A unit of credit is allowed for a course of study pursued throughout an academic year in an accredited secondary school, provided five recitations per week have been held and the prescribed amount of work has been completed satisfactorily.

1. Twelve units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics, and natural science; and must include:
 - (a) English—3 units.
 - (b) Algebra—1 unit.
 - (c) Plane geometry—1 unit.
2. The three additional units may be in the subjects listed above or from those in the following table. The units indicate the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject:

SUBJECT	UNITS	SUBJECT	UNITS
Agriculture	2	Mechanical Drawing	2
Art	1	Music	1
Commercial Subjects	3	Physical Geography	1
Household Economics	2	Woodworking, Machine Work	2

Other units offered in subjects not included in this list will be considered for acceptance on the basis of full statements transmitted with the applicant's record from the school recommending him.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

A graduate of an accredited school, who submits fifteen acceptable units of secondary school subjects, is recommended by his principal, and otherwise meets the requirements of the Committee on Admissions, may be admitted without examination. The certification and recommendation must be on blanks furnished by the College and signed by the principal of the school in which the applicant completed his course.

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION

An applicant who presents fifteen acceptable units for admission from a nonaccredited school is required to validate these units by entrance examinations and such other tests as the College may prescribe.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING

A student of good character who has completed satisfactorily at least one full year of college work in an approved college may be admitted with advanced standing. He must have fulfilled the equivalent of the requirements for admission to the Freshman class, must present official certificates of all work completed in other institutions, and must have an honorable dismissal from each institution previously attended. Credit for work completed will be determined in relation to the curriculum of Trinity College or the Woman's College.

A student enrolling for the Bachelor's degree, who transfers from a junior college or from a four-year college not affiliated with the Southern or a similar regional association, must continue, for at least one semester in Trinity College or in the Woman's College, the foreign language he presents for minimum graduation requirements. Credit for courses in science offered for advanced standing by a transfer from a junior college or a non-affiliated four-year college will be determined by the departments concerned.

Transfer credits are tentatively evaluated pending the completion of two semesters of work in residence. To validate provisional credits the student must earn at least an average of "C" in a normal load of work. Transfer grades of "C" or above are rated at one quality point per credit hour when validated.

The maximum amount of credit acceptable from a junior college is 60 semester hours, exclusive of physical education. No credit is given for work completed by correspondence, and not more than six semester hours credit is allowed for extension courses. Any extension work accepted must be specifically approved by the Dean of the College.

ADMISSION FOR SPECIAL WORK

Upon the approval of the Dean, a student of mature age may be admitted for special work in such courses of instruction as he is qualified to take. He may not be admitted as a candidate for a degree in a regular course unless he meets all requirements for admission.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

A student, who, following withdrawal from College, desires to return, should apply to the Committee on Admissions. When applying for re-admission the student should make a detailed statement of his or her activities since withdrawal from College.

PRELIMINARY TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS

General ability and achievement tests are administered to all entering students during an orientation period at the beginning of each semester. These tests enable the appropriate adviser to prepare a course of study adapted to the ability and achievements of the individual student. Physical examinations are also given.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are based on the principle that the student will derive the maximum benefit from his college work if his program includes a broad distribution of studies among representative fields of culture, concentration within a special field, and some work of his own choice.

For graduation with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, the following course work must be completed in accordance with the academic regulations as stated on pages 161-165 of this Bulletin.

Uniform Course Requirements	S.H.
English Composition	6
Foreign Language	6-18
Natural Science	11
Religion	6
Social Science and History	12
Literature, Music, Art, and Philosophy	6
Physical Education	4
Major and related work	42
Electives to make a total of	124

These requirements are described in detail below. Descriptions of courses can be found under "Courses of Instruction, Trinity College and the Woman's College" on pages 72-146 of this Bulletin.

English Composition, 6 s.h.—This requirement is met by the completion of English 1-2. Students who demonstrate proficiency in English usage may be allowed to substitute a course in English literature for English 1.

Foreign Language, 6 to 18 s.h.—This requirement is met by the completion of the third college year of a foreign language. The languages which meet this requirement are French, German, Greek, Latin, Spanish. The number of courses required depends on previous training and ability as shown on placement tests. Students presenting for entrance four units of Latin may, however, satisfy the language requirement by the completion of the third college year of Latin or by two years of Greek. In exceptional cases, on the recommendation of the language department concerned and with the approval of the Dean, a student who has completed the second college year of one language may satisfy the requirement by the completion of the first year of another language.

Natural Science, 11 s.h.—To satisfy this requirement a student must complete a laboratory course (8 s.h.) in one of the natural sciences (botany, chemistry, geology, physics, zoology), and one course of at least 3 semester hours selected from mathematics (except Mathematics 1), logic and scientific methodology (Philosophy 48, 104, and 242), or from the sciences listed above.

Religion, 6 s.h.—To meet this requirement 6 semester hours must be chosen from Religion 1, 2, 51, 52, 101, 103, 114, 181, 182, 183, or Philosophy 99.

Social Science and History, 12 s.h.—(a) Students who present for entrance two acceptable units of history can satisfy this requirement by 12 semester hours chosen from History 1-2, or 51-52, Economics 51-52, Education 84,

105, Political Science 61-62, Psychology 91-92, or Sociology 91-92. Six of the 12 semester hours must be taken in economics, history, political science, or sociology. (b) Students who do not present for entrance two acceptable units of history must take History 1-2, or 51-52, and 6 semester hours selected from the other social sciences named in (a).

Literature, Music, Art, and Philosophy, 6 s.h.—This requirement can be satisfied by a total of 6 semester hours in courses in English or American literature, foreign literature courses numbered above 100, literature courses in translation, courses in aesthetics, art, music, or Philosophy 91, 93, or 94.

Physical Education, 4 s.h.—In Trinity College physical education is required during each of the first two years and is normally completed by the end of the sophomore year; in the Woman's College it is required during the first three years and is normally completed by the end of the junior year.

Major and Related Work, 42 s.h.—Prior to registration in the spring of his sophomore year, each student is required to choose his major field and confer with his departmental adviser on the requirements for major and related work.

The major work consists of 18 to 24 semester hours in one department exclusive of courses open primarily to Freshmen.* The choice of courses must be approved by the major department. The related work must be taken in at least two other departments and is selected subject to the approval of the major department and the Dean; it may not include more than one course of 6 or 8 semester hours open primarily to freshmen. Courses satisfying the uniform course requirements may also be counted toward the requirements in major and related work. Information on specific departmental requirements for major and related work can be found in the section "Courses of Instruction" (pages 72-146), and several programs of study designed as preparation for professions are given in the next section.

The total amount of work that a student may take in any one department toward the Bachelor of Arts degree is limited to a maximum of 36 semester hours. In the Department of Aesthetics, Art, and Music, and the Department of Philosophy, the Department of English, the Department of Economics and Business Administration, and the Department of Romance Languages, a total of 54 semester hours is permitted, provided a total of not more than 36 semester hours is taken in any one division of the department.

Electives.—In addition to the uniform courses required and major and related work, other courses must be completed to make a total of at least 124 semester hours, including 4 semester hours of physical education.

Students whose courses of study permit may elect a maximum of 18 semester hours in engineering, forestry, or medical science. The courses elected in these subjects must be approved by the major department and the Dean of the college.

CHOICE OF A MAJOR FIELD

The requirement of 42 semester hours in a major field is based primarily on the belief that some advanced study in one subject, together with related work in allied subjects, is a valuable part of a general education. The selection of a major field usually depends on a student's cultural or vocational interests.

GENERAL PROGRAM

The General Program is designed for the student whose primary interest is in one of the liberal arts subjects. The subjects in which major work is offered are: art, botany, chemistry, economics, education, English, French, geology, German, Greek, history, Latin, mathematics, music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, religion, sociology, Spanish, zoology.

* Courses open primarily to freshmen are numbered from 1 to 49 and a list of them is given under "Courses of Instruction, Trinity College and the Woman's College."

SPECIALIZED PROGRAMS

The student who has chosen a vocation may wish to include specialized training in his program. The following programs of study in preparation for various professions or professional schools are outlined for the guidance of the student.

BUSINESS

The student who plans to engage in some form of business may choose his major work in economics or he may take the following specified courses to satisfy the requirements for the major and related work.

Freshman Year: Economics 11 (recommended but not required), Mathematics 5 and 16.

Junior and Senior Years: Economics 138, Economics 143, Economics 144, Economics 153, Economics 171-172 or Economics 105 and 158, Economics 181-182, Economics 189. Three hours of the economics courses shown in Economics Major Section B.

In addition to the courses specified above, 9 semester hours from other courses in the Department of Economics and Business Administration must be elected.

A student planning to take the examination to qualify as a Certified Public Accountant may, with the permission of the Department of Economics, substitute courses in accounting (including Economics 184) for courses 11, 138, 144, 189, and for 3 semester hours of the electives in Section B (p. 90).

RELIGIOUS WORK

A student who plans to enter the ministry or other religious work should have a broad liberal arts training. He may major in religion or any other subject. It is suggested that the student include in his program as many as possible of the following courses.

Freshman Year: Religion 1-2, History 1-2.

Sophomore Year: Religion (6 s.h.), Economics 51-52 or Political Science 61-62, English Literature (6 s.h.).

Junior Year: Religion (6 s.h.), Psychology 91-92, English 151-152.

Senior Year: Religion (6 s.h.), Sociology (6 s.h.), Philosophy (6 s.h.).

SOCIAL WORK

The student who plans to pursue professional studies in preparation for social work (such as family welfare, child welfare, public welfare, probation and parole and similar forms of neighborhood and community work) should take his major work in sociology, with related work in other social sciences. The following courses should be included:

History 1-2, or 51-52.
Economics 51-52.
Political Science 61-62.
Psychology 91-92.
Philosophy (6 s.h.).

Zoology is recommended for the required course in Natural Science. Electives should be chosen mainly from history, economics, political science, education, sociology, philosophy, psychology, or religion.

TEACHING

The program for students who intend to teach is designed to prepare for positions both in the elementary school and in the high school. All prospective teachers, regardless of the type of school in which they expect to teach, (a) must take a sequence of four basic courses in the Department of Education, namely, Education 84, 88, 103, and 118; (b) should read carefully the certification requirements of the state in which they plan to teach and should arrange their programs with their departmental adviser accordingly; and (c) should begin early the required sequence of courses in education, taking Education 84 and/or 88 first, preferably in the first semester of the sophomore year.

High School Teaching. Students may meet certification requirements by qualifying in one teaching subject, but they are strongly advised to choose their electives to meet requirements in two teaching subjects. In any case their programs must include courses in education and in other subjects sufficient to satisfy the certification requirements of the state in which they will teach. Courses in materials and methods should be reserved for the senior year; and courses in observation and practice teaching may be taken only in the senior year.

Elementary School Teaching. Students preparing to teach in the elementary school must complete the following specific requirements: Education 142, History 91 or 92, and Political Science 63 or 61-62, Economics 115-116, Music 151, Physical Education 102, and Health Education 112. Education 101-102 (which includes observation and practice teaching) should be reserved for the senior year.

PREPARATION FOR GRADUATE SCHOOL

The student who plans to enter a graduate school of arts and sciences for advanced study should consult an adviser in the field of the proposed advanced study concerning suitable preparation. Most graduate schools have definite requirements in foreign languages for all students. Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are required to pass reading examinations, usually in German and French. In some cases other languages may be substituted. As soon as practicable, the student should ascertain the requirements of the particular graduate school he desires to enter.

PREPARATION FOR LAW SCHOOL

Students who plan to study law may select their major work in any field. The following courses are recommended:

Economics 51-52, 57-58.
 English 55-56.
 History 1-2 or 51-52, 105-106.
 Philosophy 48 and 91.
 Political Science 61-62.
 Sociology 91-92.

Advisers for the pre-legal students are: Mr. Frank de Vyver, Mr. J. H. Hallowell, and Mr. W. B. Hamilton.

PREPARATION FOR MEDICAL OR DENTAL SCHOOL

Students planning to enter a medical or dental school should select the following foundation courses for the study of medicine:

Chemistry 1-2, 61, 151-152.
 English 55-56.
 Mathematics 5, 6.
 Physics 51-52.
 Zoology 1-2, 53.

Pre-medical and pre-dental students may take their major work in a single department, or they may satisfy the requirement for the major and related work by the completion of at least 13 semester hours chosen from the following courses in addition to the 48 semester hours of foundation courses above:

Botany 101 or Zoology 110.
 Chemistry 70.
 Mathematics 51, 52.
 Physics 101-102.
 Psychology 91-92.
 Zoology 92, 171.

Other science courses numbered above 100 may be substituted for these with the approval of an adviser for the pre-medical group and the Dean. When the major work is in science, electives in social sciences or humanities are recommended. It is advisable to choose German or French as the foreign language. Each pre-medical student should ascertain the requirements and recommended courses of the medical school that he expects to attend.

Advisers for the pre-medical students are: Mr. C. C. Hatley, Mr. Mychyle W. Johnson, and Mr. Charles K. Bradsher.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

For graduation with the degree of Bachelor of Science, the following course work must be completed in accordance with the academic regulations as stated on pages 161-165 of this Bulletin.

Uniform Course Requirements	S.H.
English Composition	6
French and German (second college year)	12-24
Mathematics	6
Natural Science	8
Economics, History, or Political Science	6
Religion	6
Physical Education	4
Major and related work	48
Electives to make a total of	124

These requirements are described below. Descriptions of courses can be found under "Courses of Instruction, Trinity College and the Woman's College" on pages 72-146 of this Bulletin.

English Composition, 6 s.h.—This requirement is met by the completion of English 1 and 2. Students who demonstrate proficiency in English usage may be allowed to substitute a course in English literature for English 1.

French and German.—Bachelor of Science candidates must complete at least the second college year, or equivalent as determined by examination, of both French and German.

Mathematics, 6 s.h.—This requirement may be met by completion of Mathematics 5 and 6.

Natural Science, 8 s.h.—This requirement can be satisfied by courses in one of the natural sciences, namely, botany, chemistry, geology, physics, and zoology. The courses must include laboratory work, and may not be counted as part of the major or related work.

Economics, History, or Political Science, 6 s.h.—A student who does not present for entrance two acceptable units of history (exclusive of other social work) must take a course in history; otherwise, he has his choice of economics, history, or political science. The courses that will satisfy this requirement are listed under "Courses of Instruction."

Religion, 6 s.h.—To meet this requirement 6 semester hours must be chosen from Religion 1, 2, 51, 52, 101, 103, 114, 181, 182, 183, or Philosophy 99.

Major and Related Work, 48 s.h.—Major and related work consists of 48 semester hours in the Natural Sciences. This work must be selected from the departments of botany, chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics, psychology, and zoology. The major work consists of not less than 24 semester hours in one department, the choice of courses being subject to the approval of the department. The major work does not include courses primarily open to freshmen. The related work is taken in at least two other departments and is selected subject to the approval of the major department. It may not include more than one course primarily open to freshmen. A minimum of 14 semester hours of related work is required, 8 hours of which must be in laboratory science. Further information concerning the requirements for the major and related work in the various departments will be found under "Courses of Instruction" (pages 72-146).

Electives.—In addition to the above, the student must elect sufficient courses to complete, with an average grade of "C," the 124 semester hours necessary for graduation.

Students whose courses of study permit may elect a maximum of 18 semester hours in engineering, forestry, or medical science. The courses elected in these subjects must be approved by the major department and the Dean of the college.

The total amount of work that a student may take in any one department toward the Bachelor of Science degree is limited to a maximum of 40 semester hours.

On or before the date announced for the spring registration, every sophomore in this group should select his major department in the Natural Sciences and arrange, under the guidance of an adviser in the major department, his program of studies for the following year. He should obtain the adviser's written approval of all courses selected in the division before submitting his program to the Dean for final action. In like manner, each upperclassman will recheck the courses in his division of concentration each year with a representative of his major department.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN ENGINEERING

See page 150 of this Bulletin.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING EDUCATION

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education are designed to prepare qualified graduate nurses for administrative, teaching, and supervisory positions in schools of nursing and in nursing service agencies.

To be eligible for admission to Duke University as a candidate for this degree a student must meet the following requirements:

1. Graduation from an approved secondary school with at least fifteen acceptable units of credit. (See specific requirements for admission to Trinity College and the Woman's College.)
2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing which provides satisfactory preparation in medical, surgical, pediatric, and obstetric nursing, as a minimum.
3. Satisfactory scores on specified tests.
4. Supervisory ratings from three individuals, preferably former teachers and supervisors with whom the individual has had fairly recent contact.

Credit for 120 semester hours (exclusive of physical education) on which an average grade of at least "C" is made is required for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education. The work of the final year must be taken in residence at Duke University. The program of studies leading to this degree must include:

	S.H.
1. Minimum general education requirements	38-50
May be taken at Duke University or at any accredited college or university.
English 1-2	6
Natural science	8
History, economics, or political science	6
Sociology	3-6
Psychology	3-6
Electives	12-18
Literature, art, music, religion, ethics, language are suggested.
2. Basic Nursing Program	maximum 40
May be taken at the Duke School of Nursing or at any approved school of nursing. The amount of credit which is granted for the nursing school program is determined on an individual basis.
3. Courses in Education and Nursing Education	20
88 Psychological Foundations of Modern Education ...	3
84N Social Foundations of Nursing Education	3
101N The Curriculum of the School of Nursing	3
115N-116N Nursing Education: Principles and Practices ...	8
117 Community Nursing Service—Seminar in Field Trips of Community Agencies	3

4. Field of Concentration 15
Fifteen semester hours in one field, such as chemistry, physics, psychology, sociology, zoology, or in a clinical area and related subjects. No freshman work may be included in these 15 semester hours.
5. Professional Experience
One year of experience as a graduate nurse is required before the degree is awarded.

COMBINED ACADEMIC-PROFESSIONAL COURSES

The provision whereby a senior may elect the work of the first year in a professional school of the University shall apply solely to eligible students in Trinity College or the Woman's College. The privilege of completing a combined course for the degree is conditioned upon admission to the professional school at the close of the junior year. A student thus admitted registers as a senior in the College and as a first-year student in the professional school.

ACADEMIC-LAW COMBINATION

A student who has completed, with an average grade of "C" or higher, 96 semester hours of undergraduate work, including the uniform course requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and the work of the junior year in his major and related fields, may, with the approval of the Dean of the College, transfer to the Duke University School of Law and be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Duke University upon the satisfactory completion therein of the work of the first year.

It is understood that this provision shall apply solely to eligible undergraduates who have completed three years in residence in Duke University, and that not less than the full first-year's work of the Law School will be acceptable for credit towards the bachelor degree.

No single discipline or program of study can be described as the best preparation for the study of law. There are various methods of approach to legal study. Students differ with respect to the undergraduate studies by which they profit most in preparing themselves for law school.

Completion of the undergraduate work necessary to qualify for the Academic-Law Combination does not insure admission to the Duke University School of Law, nor impose any restriction whatever upon its freedom in selecting students for admission.

The first-year program of the Law School will include in 1950-1951 the following courses:

	Fall Semester	Spring Semester
	S.H.	S.H.
Chattel Transactions	2	2
Contracts	3	3
Estates in Land	—	3
Research and Writing	1	1
Torts (including some Procedure)	2	3
Legislation	3	—
Business Associations I (Agency, Partnership, Introduction to Corporations)	—	2
Criminal Law	3	—
	14	14

Students wishing further information are invited to consult with the Dean of the School of Law.

ACADEMIC-FORESTRY COMBINATION

A student who has completed with an average grade of "C" or higher the program of study given below may, with the approval of the Dean of the College, transfer to the School of Forestry and be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Science from Duke University upon the satisfactory completion of one year's work. It is understood that this provision shall apply solely to eligible undergraduates who have completed three years in residence in Duke University. The professional degree of Master of Forestry may be obtained on the satisfactory completion of an additional year in the School of Forestry.

The program of studies in preparation for admission to the School of Forestry is divided into four parts: (1) a group of studies required of all students; (2) courses required in a selected division of concentration; (3) additional elective courses sufficient to make a total of at least 92 semester hours of credit; and (4) summer field work in surveying and forest mensuration as described below.

The studies required of all students, of which the first four, together with 6 semester hours of a language, should ordinarily be taken in the freshman year, are as follows:

	S.H.
Botany 1-2	8
Chemistry 1-2	8
English 1-2	6
Engineering Drawing 1-2	4
Modern Foreign Language*	12-18
Mathematics 5, 6	6
Physics 1-2	8
Economics 51-52	6
Geology 51	4

At the end of the freshman year each student shall select a division of concentration. One of the following programs of concentration is recommended:

Botany. Botany 52, 151, 156, one additional course in Botany and Zoology 1.

Chemistry. Chemistry 61, 70, and 151-152; and Botany 151.

Economics. Economics 60, two additional semester courses in economics, and Political Science 61-62.

A student who does not select one of the above programs must complete the work of the junior year in his major and related fields.

Summer field work is required of all students in the School of Forestry. This program of 13 weeks, preferably to be taken upon completion of the junior year, includes Civil Engineering S110 (Plane Surveying), 4 s.h.; Forestry S150 (Forest Surveying), 5 s.h.; and Forestry S151 (Forest Mensuration), 4 s.h.

Completion of the first three years of work toward the Bachelor of Science degree does not insure admission to the Duke University School of Forestry, nor impose any restriction whatever upon its freedom in selecting students for admission.

* The requirement is the same as for the Degree of Bachelor of Science, except that Spanish may be substituted for French.

Students wishing information concerning admission to the School of Forestry are invited to consult with the Dean of that School.

ACADEMIC-NURSING COMBINATION

A student who graduated from the Duke University School of Nursing in September, 1947, or thereafter, with an average grade of "C" or better, may, upon recommendation of the Dean of the School of Nursing, apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University. If accepted, she may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science by fulfilling the requirements of either degree.

Forty semester hours of credit toward the 120 semester hours (exclusive of physical education) required for the Bachelor's degree are allowed for the three-year nursing program. At least 30 semester hours, of which 24 semester hours must be in courses numbered 100 or above, must be taken in residence in the Woman's College. An average grade of "C" or better is required for all work.

The program of studies leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts must include:

	S.H.
1. Uniform Course Requirements	47-59
English 1-2	6
Language (completion of the third college year)	6-18
Natural Science	11
Religion	6
Social Science and History	12
Literature, Music, Art, and Philosophy	6
2. Basic nursing program	40
3. Field of concentration	12
At least 12 semester hours in one department other than nursing in courses not primarily open to freshmen ...	12
4. Electives	9-21

To be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Science, a student must complete the course of study outlined under the Requirements for the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Note: Courses primarily for freshmen are numbered from 1 to 49; those primarily for sophomores are numbered from 50 to 99; those primarily for juniors and seniors from 100 to 199; those primarily for seniors and graduates from 200 to 299. The amount of credit for each course is given in semester hours following the description of the course.

The designation (w) or (e) indicates that the course is to be given on the West Campus or on the East Campus. The designation E means Engineering; L, Law; DS, Divinity School. When this designation precedes a course number, the course is not approved for graduate credit.

Odd-numbered courses are offered in the fall semester, and even-numbered courses are offered in the spring semester. Double numbers indicate that the course is a year-course and must normally be continued throughout the year if credit is received. A student must secure written permission from the instructor in order to receive credit for either semester of a year-course.

GILBERT, CHAIRMAN; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SUNDERLAND, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES IN ART; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALL, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION IN ART; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JULIA W. MUELLER, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES IN MUSIC; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS JENKINS, KLENZ, MARKMAN, AND EARL MUELLER; MRS. SAVILLE, MR. SIBLEY, AND MR. WITHERS

AESTHETICS

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. The Philosophy of Art.—Analysis with the aid of examples of general terms used in the discussion of art. Reference to recent aesthetic theories. 5 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GILBERT

213-214. History of Aesthetics.—Theories of art and beauty from Pythagoras to Croce. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GILBERT

ART

1-2. History of Art.—An introductory course for freshmen, designed to help the new student in relating the different manifestations of art in each period to the civilization that produced them. Open to freshmen only. 6 s.h. (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALL

51-52. History of Art.—An historical survey of the development of architecture, sculpture, and painting as material manifestations of the culture of the western world from Egypt to modern times. Open to upperclassmen who have not had Art 1-2 or 61-62. 6 s.h. (E & W) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN

53-54. Theory of Representation and Design.—A study of the basic elements in art and the principles of their organization, with reference to pure and representational forms in historical and contemporary usage. No previous experience in drawing and painting is required. One lecture and four laboratory hours. Open to students who are enrolled in, or have completed, a year-course in the Department. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR E. MUELLER, MR. SIBLEY

55-56. Art Laboratory.—A course in drawing and painting or design, as elected by the student. Individual and class criticism of student work, with investigation and discussion of contemporary developments in painting and design. Four laboratory hours. Open to students who are enrolled in, or have completed, a year-course in the Department. Prerequisite: Art 53-54, or consent of the instructor. 4 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR E. MUELLER, MR. SIBLEY

61-62. Architectural History and Design.—An introductory course in the historic development of architectural principles, and their application to elementary problems of design. No previous experience in freehand or technical drawing is required. Two lectures and three laboratory hours. Open to upperclassmen who have not had Art 1-2 or 51-52; and occasionally to freshmen who present to the instructor evidence of special preparation. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALL

94. American Art.—A study of the formation of a cultural tradition in the United States as seen through examples of architecture, sculpture, and painting, with some reference to the minor arts of furniture, silver, and glass. 3 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR E. MUELLER, MR. SIBLEY

101. Mediaeval Architecture.—A survey of Christian architecture in the Near East and Eastern and Western Europe from the beginnings of the mediaeval style in the late classical period to its disintegration in the fifteenth century. 3 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SUNDERLAND

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR IN ART

Prerequisite: Art 1-2 or 51-52 or 61-62.

Major Requirements: Art 53-54, and 18 additional semester hours in the Department.

MUSIC

THEORY

11-12. Fundamentals of Music (Theory I).—The elements of harmony, rhythm, and form; the visual and aural recognition of scales, intervals, triads, and seventh chords, and their functions in relation to the system of tonality; harmonization of melodies; development of rhythmic discrimination. Designed for those students who wish to pursue a more technical study of music. Three lectures and two laboratory hours. Open to freshmen only. 8 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ

61-62. Fundamentals of Music (Theory I).—An amplification of Music 11-12. Open to upperclassmen who have not had Music 11-12. 8 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ

73-74. Harmony and Smaller Forms (Theory II).—A continuation of Music 11-12, plus analysis and composition of the smaller forms; further development of proficiency in harmonization; continuation of aural training; introductory study of counterpoint. Prerequisite: Music 11-12 or 61-62. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ

117-118. Advanced Harmony and Counterpoint (Theory III).—A continuation of Music 73-74. Emphasis upon development of technical and expressive means and stylistic treatment by practical work in composition, and analysis and observation of larger forms; further study of counterpoint. The completion of an original large form composition for chamber group, chorus, or orchestra. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, and 73-74. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ

121. Conducting.—The conducting of orchestral and vocal scores. Score-reading and analysis, principles of interpretation, establishment of vocal and instrumental conductorial techniques leading to practical experience in conducting the departmental musical organizations in rehearsal. Participation in or regular weekly observation of a musical organization is required laboratory work beyond the three lecture periods. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, and 73, or consent of the instructor. 3 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

122. Orchestration.—A study of the technical characteristics and transpositions of the instruments of the modern symphony orchestra and concert band. Study of standard orchestration texts. Instrumentation of piano scores or original compositions for string, woodwind, and brass ensembles and for full symphony orchestra or concert band. Arrangements to be played by departmental musical organizations in rehearsal. Participation in or regular weekly observation of an instrumental organization is required laboratory work beyond the three lecture periods. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, and 73, or consent of the instructor. 3 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

125. Piano Ensemble.—The study and performance of classical and contemporary two-piano repertoire and the piano concerto. The reading of standard symphonies and overtures arranged for four hands. Emphasis on ensemble principles: rhythm, phrasing, balance. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, and 73, or consent of the instructor. 1 s.h. (E)

MR. WITHERS

HISTORY AND CRITICISM

1-2. Introduction to Music.—Rhythm, melody, harmony, form. The instruments of the orchestra and their use. Orchestral, chamber, choral, and operatic music of the Classic and Romantic periods. Designed for those students who wish to acquire a general appreciation of Music. Open only to freshmen who do not plan to major in Music. 6 s.h. (E)

MR. WITHERS

51-52. Introduction to Music.—Content the same as for Music 1-2, but with more emphasis upon individual work. Open to upperclassmen who have not had Music 1-2. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR J. MUELLER

81-82. History of Music.—An historical survey of the evolution of music from ancient times to the present. An elementary study of the basic principles of form and of musical aesthetics to serve as a basis of criticism. Prerequisites: Music 1-2 or 51-52, or 11-12 or 61-62, or consent of the instructor. Either semester may be taken for credit. 6 s.h. (E) MRS. SAVILLE

131-132. Orchestral Literature.—The historical background and development of music for the orchestra. A critical and analytical study of orchestral suites, overtures, concerti, symphonies, and symphonic poems from early instrumental combinations of the seventeenth century to the present. Prerequisites: Music 1-2 or 51-52, or consent of the instructor. Either semester may be taken for credit. 6 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

135. Piano Literature.—A comprehensive survey of the great works for keyboard instruments, from the time of the English virginal composers to the present. Prerequisites: Music 1-2 or 51-52, or consent of the instructor. 3 s.h. (E) MR. WITHERS

137. Chamber Music.—A study of form, style, and interpretation of masterpieces of chamber music. Prerequisites: Music 1-2 or 51-52, or 11-12 or 61-62, or consent of the instructor. 3 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR J. MUELLER

138. Contemporary Music.—A critical survey of contemporary stylistic trends and theory in the light of their twentieth-century background. Prerequisites: Music 1-2 or 51-52, or 11-12 or 61-62, or consent of the instructor. 3 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ

141-142. Choral Literature.—A survey of choral styles from the Renaissance to the present. A critical analysis of representative sacred and secular forms such as the motet, mass, oratorio, cantata, madrigal, and opera. Prerequisites: Music 1-2 or 51-52, or 81-82, or consent of the instructor. Either semester may be taken for credit. 6 s.h. (E) MRS. SAVILLE

MUSIC EDUCATION

101-102. Vocal Methods.—A study of materials and methods of teaching vocal music and appreciation in public schools; emphasis on music-reading, the changing voice, part-singing, integration of music within the general school curriculum. Elementary, intermediate grades studied first semester; junior senior high levels, second semester. Designed primarily for Music Education majors. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, or consent of the instructor. 6 s.h. (E) MRS. SAVILLE

103-104. Instrumental Methods.—A study of materials and methods of teaching instrumental music in the public schools; emphasis on instrumental pedagogy, organization, and administration of the junior and senior high school instrumental curriculum. Designed primarily for Music Education majors. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, or consent of the instructor. 6 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

106. Piano Methods and Materials.—A study of the materials and methods of piano pedagogy. The appropriate choice of essential and supplementary literature. Development of technique, style, and musicianship. Supervised practice teaching. Prerequisites: Music 11-12 or 61-62, or consent of the instructor. 3 s.h. (E) MR. WITHERS

151-152. Fundamentals of Music for Education Students.—Primarily designed for students who desire to qualify for the State Teaching Certificate. Treatment of the child voice, materials and methods of music teaching in the first six grades; music-reading, elementary theory and form. Open to upper-classmen who have not had Music 11-12 or 61-62. Either semester may be taken for credit. 6 s.h. (E) MRS. SAVILLE

APPLIED MUSIC

Members of the Department offer instruction in the following media: A. Piano; B. Strings; C. Woodwinds; D. Brass.

A student who plans to take Applied Music should consult with the appropriate faculty member as early as possible before registering for the course offered in his chosen medium at his class level. His proficiency before registration is tested by audition and rated as Grade I-VIII. Upon satisfactory completion of the course his proficiency is again rated, and his Grade recorded as a Roman numeral following the course number; e.g., a freshman who passes the first semester course in Piano with a proficiency rating of Grade VI is recorded as having completed Music 47A-VI, a senior who passes the first semester course in Violin with a proficiency rating of Grade II is recorded as having completed Music 197B-II, and so on. This is in addition to the customary letter-grades recorded for students in all courses.

97A-98A. Piano.—Sophomores only. 2 s.h. (E)

MRS. SAVILLE, MR. WITHERS

147A-148A. Piano.—Juniors only. 2 s.h. (E) MRS. SAVILLE, MR. WITHERS

197A-198A. Piano.—Seniors only. 2 s.h. (E) MRS. SAVILLE, MR. WITHERS

47B-48B. Strings.—Freshmen only. 2 s.h. (E)

Cello: ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ
Violin, Viola: ASSISTANT PROFESSOR J. MUELLER

97B-98B. Strings.—Sophomores only. 2 s.h. (E)

Cello: ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KLENZ
Violin, Viola: ASSISTANT PROFESSOR J. MUELLER

147B-148B. Strings.—Juniors only. 2 s.h. (E)

47D-48D. Brass.—Freshmen only. 2 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

97D-98D. Brass.—Sophomores only. 2 s.h. (E)

147D-148D. Brass.—Juniors only. 2 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

197D-198D. Brass.—Seniors only. 2 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

Requirements and Credits: One semester hour of credit is allowed for $\frac{1}{2}$ hour of private instruction per week and a minimum of one hour of practice daily, under the particular conditions specified below, and in accordance with standard university practice in grading proficiency. For any number of semester hours of credit in Applied Music, an equal number of hours must be taken in Music Theory or Music History.

Majors in Music Theory must earn 7 semester hours credit in Applied Music. Credit may be reckoned from Grade I.

Majors in Music History and Criticism must earn 8 semester hours credit in Applied Music. Credit may be reckoned from Grade I.

Majors in Music Education must earn 7 semester hours credit in Applied Music, as follows:

General (Choral) majors:

- Major medium, reckoned from Grade III.—5 s.h.
- Minor medium, reckoned from Grade I.—2 s.h.

Instrumental majors:

- Major medium, reckoned from Grade III.—5 s.h.
- Minor medium, reckoned from Grade I.—2 s.h.
- Piano proficiency through Grade II.

Students other than Music Majors may receive not more than 8 semester hours credit for work in Applied Music. Credit may be reckoned from Grade I.

Fees per Semester: Fees for instruction in Applied Music include rental of practice facilities sufficient to meet the credit requirements. They are payable to the Treasurer's Office of Duke University at the beginning of each semester, as follows:

One ½ hour lesson per week for 15 weeks.....	$40.00
Either
One hour's daily use of cubicle with piano.....	15.00
Or
One hour's use daily of cubicle without piano.....	10.00.

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR IN MUSIC

Prerequisite: Music 11-12 or 61-62.

Major Requirements: Music 81-82, and 22 additional semester hours in the Department. The major student will select, in consultation with his Departmental Adviser, a sequence of Music courses emphasizing (a) theory, or (b) history and criticism, or (c) education, or (d) the use and understanding of a particular medium.

DEPARTMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS

Students taking Applied Music are urged by the Department to participate in one or more of the following departmental organizations:

- Duke University Symphony Orchestra
- Duke University Chamber Orchestra
- Duke University Concert Band
- Duke University Madrigal Singers

AIR SCIENCE

PROFESSOR SWITZER, COLONEL, USAF; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RAMBEAU, LIEUTENANT COLONEL, USAF; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BAIRD, MAJOR, USAF; AND ASSISTANTS

Eligibility Requirements.—All physically qualified freshmen who are citizens of the United States and are enrolled in Trinity College or the College of Engineering are eligible to enroll in the Air Force ROTC (Engineering students see College of Engineering). Veterans with one year or more of military service may be exempted from the freshman and sophomore courses (AS 1-2 or 11-12, AS 51-52 or 61-62).

Air Force ROTC Courses.—Trinity College students pursuing the program will specialize in general administration and supply. Students in the College of Engineering will specialize in Air Installations. The courses are established by the United States Air Force and are approved by the College as electives for all undergraduates. Field or laboratory instruction in leadership, drill and exercise of command is included as a part of all courses to indoctrinate the student in the fundamental principles of command.

ADMINISTRATION AND SUPPLY

AS 1-2. Principles and Problems of National Defense.—In the first semester the potential air officer is taught the physical structure and functions of the Armed Forces, national and world military policies and the history and foundations of national power. The second semester is devoted to Military Psychology, Personnel Management, Evolution of Warfare, Maps and Aerial Photographs, First Aid and Hygiene. 4 s.h. (w) STAFF

AS 51-52. Applied Air Power and Elementary Air Force Administration.—This course covers during the first semester the development and use of military aircraft, air navigation, and weather; and in the second semester teaches the use of records for an Air Force organization and the administration of an Air Force base. Prerequisite: AS 1-2 or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w) STAFF

AS 101-102. Air Force Administration and Supply.—The course in general administration and supply includes instruction in the basic functions of administrative and supply officers; records, expenditure of funds, transportation and special administrative responsibilities. Prerequisites: AS 1-2 and 51-52 or equivalent. 8 s.h. (w) STAFF

AIR INSTALLATIONS

AS 11-12. Principles of National Defense and Introduction to Aeronautics.—This is an introductory course in the physical structure and functions of the armed forces and the fundamentals of aeronautics. During the first semester the student deals with the national military policies, organization of the armed forces and the influence of geographical and historical problems. The second semester is devoted to maps and aerial photographs, military psychology and personnel management, and aeronautics. 6 s.h. (w) STAFF

AS 61-62. Applied Air Power and Elements of Air Installations.—During the first semester the principles of military logistics and administration, military teaching methods, and air force management are taught. The second semester is devoted to air operations and the functions and organization of the air installations office. Prerequisites: AS 11-12 or equivalent. 6 s.h. (w) STAFF

AS 111-112. Air Installations and Maintenance Engineering.—This is the first year of the advanced course in air science for engineering students and is applied to specialized instruction in the field of installation and maintenance engineering. The first semester covers the construction of bases and landing fields, roads, railroads and sewage disposal plants; the disposal of refuse and the control of insects and rodents. The second semester is allotted to fire prevention and crash rescue, electrical facilities, water supply, and preventive maintenance. Prerequisites: AS 11-12 and 61-62 or equivalent. 8 s.h. (w) STAFF

AS 211-212. Advanced Air Installations.—Not offered in 1950-1951. Prerequisites: AS 11-12 and 61-62 or equivalent, AS 111-112. 2 s.h. (w) STAFF

BOTANY

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST, CHAIRMAN; PROFESSOR OOSTING, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSOR ADDOMS, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION (WOMAN'S COLLEGE); PROFESSORS HARRAR, KRAMER AND WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY; MR. WARREN; AND ASSISTANTS

1. General Botany.—An introduction to the structure and life-processes of seed plants and the environmental factors influencing their distribution. Laboratory, discussions, and field trips. Three two-hour periods. 4 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

2. General Botany.—A survey of the plant kingdom with emphasis on reproduction and an introduction to identification. Three two-hour periods. Prerequisite: Botany 1. 4 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

51. Culture and Propagation of Plants.—Experimental studies of the processes involved in growth, and the application of this knowledge to the selection, growth, and propagation of plants. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR ADDOMS

52. Plant Identification.—Practice in the identification of local plants, especially flowering plants, and a study of the principles and rules underlying plant classification. Laboratory, lectures, and field trips. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

55. Morphology and Anatomy of Vascular Plants.—A comparative study of representative ferns and seed plants, including vegetative and reproductive structures. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR OOSTING

101. Principles of Heredity.—The basic principles of heredity and their significance. Lectures, three hours; laboratory, two hours; conference (attendance optional), one hour. Laboratory work includes experimental breeding of the fruit fly. May be taken as a lecture course without laboratory. Prerequisite: one (high-school or college) course in biology, botany, or zoology. High-school or college algebra recommended. 3 or 4 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY

103. General Bacteriology.—A study of the morphology and fundamental physiological processes of bacteria; their relationship to sanitation, public health, soil fertility and food preservation. Prerequisite: one year of botany or zoology, or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w), first semester; (e) second semester. MR. WARREN

104. The Structure and Identification of Lower Plants.—A study of representative examples of algae, fungi, mosses and liverworts, including collection, identification, and classification of common forms. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

151. Introductory Plant Physiology.—The principal physiological processes of plants, including water relations, synthesis and use of foods, and growth phenomena. Prerequisite: Botany 1, 2 or equivalent; one year of chemistry recommended. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR KRAMER

156. Plant Ecology.—The principal factors affecting plants and plant communities as they exist in different environments. Laboratory, lectures, and field trips. Prerequisites: Botany 1, 2 and 52, or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR OOSTING

202. Genetics.—The principles of heredity, their cytological basis, and their bearing on other fields of biology. Laboratory work involves experimental breeding of the fruit fly and interpretation of data from the breeding of plants. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: one year of botany or zoology, or equivalent, and college algebra. 4 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY

203. Plant Cytology.—A study of the structure and organization of plant cells in relation to growth, reproduction, and especially heredity. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

204. Advanced Plant Anatomy.—The structure of vegetative and reproductive organs of seed plants. Physiological and ecological implications of structure are stressed. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Botany 55 or equivalent. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADDOMS

216. Botanical Microtechnique.—Studies in methods of preparing temporary and permanent microscopical slides; theory of staining; the use of the microscope, especially microscopical measurements; drawing, and photomicrography, botanical photography, and lantern slides. Prerequisite: two semesters of botany. 4 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

221. Structure and Classification of Fungi.—Prerequisite: two semesters of botany. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR WOLF

222. Physiology and Ecology of Fungi.—Prerequisite: Botany 221 or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR WOLF

225-226. Special Problems.—Students with adequate training may do special work in the following fields:

a. Bacteriology, Mycology, and Plant Pathology. PROFESSOR WOLF

b. Cytology. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

c. Ecology. PROFESSOR OOSTING

d. Genetics. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY

e. Morphology and Anatomy of Higher Groups.
PROFESSORS ADDOMS, HARRAR, AND OOSTING

f. Morphology and Taxonomy of Lower Groups.
PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

g. Physiology. PROFESSORS KRAMER AND ADDOMS

h. Plant Microchemistry. PROFESSOR ADDOMS

i. Taxonomy of Higher Groups. PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

j. Senior Seminar.—1 s.h. (w) STAFF

252. Advanced Plant Physiology.—The physicochemical processes and conditions underlying the physiological processes of plants. Prerequisite: Botany 151 or equivalent; organic chemistry recommended. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR KRAMER

255. Advanced Taxonomy.—A study of the historical background of plant taxonomy, modern concepts and systems of classification, nomenclatorial problems and the taxonomy of specialized groups. Prerequisite: two years of botany, including Botany 52 or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

256. Field Ecology.—An ecological survey of local vegetation including theory and practice in the use of instruments for precise habitat studies, and analysis of community and successional relationships. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Botany 1, 2, and 52 or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR OOSTING

FOREST BOTANY

224. Forest Pathology.—Special reference to diseases of forest trees. Prerequisites: Botany 1, 2. 3 or 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR WOLF

253. Dendrology.—Nomenclature, classification, and identification of woody plants with special reference to species indigenous to southeastern United States and other important forest regions of temperate North America. Laboratory and field work. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR HARRAR

Related courses which may be counted toward a major in botany. Zoology 110. Introduction to Genetics. 2 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JOHNSON

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Prerequisites: Botany 1 and 2.

Major Requirements: A minimum of 21 hours of work including courses 52, 55, and 104. The remaining hours may be selected from any other courses in the Department for which the student is eligible, subject to the approval of the Departmental Adviser. All majors are expected to register for Senior Seminar for one semester of their senior year.

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR SAYLOR, EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HILL, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, LONDON AND VOSBURGH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN AND HOBBS; DRs. STROBEL AND WILDER; MR. POWELL AND ASSISTANTS

1-2. General Inorganic Chemistry.—Lectures, recitations, and laboratory work on the elementary principles of chemistry and on the occurrence, preparation, properties, and uses of the elements and their compounds. One lecture, two recitations, and three laboratory hours, throughout the year. 8 s.h. (w & e)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HILL; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, HOBBS AND BROWN; DRs. STROBEL AND WILDER; MR. POWELL; AND ASSISTANTS

61. Fundamentals of Analytical Chemistry.—A study of the reactions of electrolytes in solution and of chemical equilibrium illustrated by laboratory experiments involving the techniques of gravimetric, volumetric, and colorimetric analysis. One lecture, one recitation and six laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 1-2, and Mathematics 6 or equivalent. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; DRs. STROBEL AND WILDER; MR. POWELL; AND ASSISTANTS

70. Quantitative Analysis.—A study of the theory and technique of inorganic gravimetric and volumetric analysis. One lecture, one recitation, and six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: Chemistry 61. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; DRs. STROBEL AND WILDER; MR. POWELL; AND ASSISTANTS

131. Advanced Quantitative Analysis.—A second course in the theory and technique of inorganic analysis with special reference to the analysis of complex materials. One lecture and six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: Chemistry 70. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSORS VOSBURGH AND SAYLOR AND ASSISTANT

151-152. Organic Chemistry.—An introduction to the study of the compounds of carbon. Both the aliphatic and the aromatic series are dealt with and the lectures are illustrated by selected laboratory experiments. Two lectures, one recitation, and three laboratory hours. Prerequisite: Chemistry 61. Course 151 is prerequisite for 152. 8 s.h. (w)

PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND HAUSER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER AND BROWN; DR. WILDER; AND ASSISTANTS

206. Elements of Theoretical Chemistry.—A course in general theoretical chemistry for students who do not present credit in calculus. Credit is not given for both 206 and 261-262. Three recitations and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, Physics 51-52 or 1-2 and Mathematics, 6 s.h. With the permission of the Director of Graduate Studies, graduate students from other departments may offer other advanced science courses in place of some of these prerequisites. 4 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR SAYLOR AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS

215-216. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry.—A study of modern theories of valence and molecular structure; also of inorganic compounds, particularly the less common types, illustrated by suitable laboratory preparations. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, and 261-262. 6 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR VOSBURGH AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HILL

233. Instrumental Analysis.—Experiments in the use of physical measuring instruments in chemical analysis with special attention to optical instruments. One lecture and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and one year of physics. 2 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; PROFESSORS

VOSBURGH AND SAYLOR

234. Physico-Chemical Methods of Analysis.—Discussion of physico-chemical principles as applied to methods of instrumental analysis, illustrated by laboratory experiments, with emphasis on methods involving electrical techniques. One lecture and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 261-262; the latter may be taken concurrently. 2 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; PROFESSORS
VOSBURGH AND SAYLOR

236. Theory of Analytical Chemistry.—A study of such topics as precision and errors, theories of precipitation and titration, oxidation and reduction, and others, illustrated by typical analytical methods. One lecture. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 261-262. 1 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOSBURGH

251. Qualitative Organic Analysis.—Systematic identification of organic compounds, including a study of solubilities and classification reactions. One lecture and six laboratory hours. With permission of the Director of Graduate Studies, graduate students may take three hours of laboratory work instead of six and receive 2 semester hours credit. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR HAUSER AND ASSISTANT

252. Advanced Organic Preparations.—A laboratory course including experiments of a more difficult type than those required on the elementary level, accompanied by oral discussions of the techniques and theories involved, and designed to round out the student's knowledge of fundamental organic processes. Three or six laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 1 or 2 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BROWN AND PROFESSOR BIGELOW

253-254. Advanced Organic Chemistry.—Discussion of the theories of organic chemistry with special reference in the first semester to the mechanism of reactions and in the second semester to the synthesis of some of the more complex compounds such as vitamins, hormones, and alkaloids. Undergraduates are admitted to this course only by permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 4 s.h.

PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND HAUSER

261-262. Physical Chemistry.—Fundamentals of general theoretical chemistry illustrated by selected laboratory experiments. Two recitations and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, Physics 51-52 or 1-2 and Mathematics 51-52 or equivalent. 6 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS AND PROFESSOR SAYLOR

275-276. Research.—The aim of this course is to give instruction in methods used in the investigation of original problems. It is open to seniors by permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies. Nine hours a week and conferences. 3 or 6 s.h. (w)

PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, LONDON, SAYLOR, VOSBURGH;
ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

A. For the degree of A.B.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 1-2, Mathematics 6 s.h.

Major Requirements: Chemistry 61, 70, 151-152, and an additional 6 or 7 s.h., which may be satisfied by 261-262 or by 206 together with 2 or 3 s.h. selected from courses 131, 233, and 251. The related work must include one year of Physics.

B. For the degree of B.S.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 1-2, Mathematics 6 s.h.

Major Requirements: Chemistry 61, 70, 131, 151-152, 234, 251, 261-262. The related work must include Mathematics 51-52 and one year of Physics.

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

PROFESSOR HOOVER, CHAIRMAN; PROFESSOR DE VYVER, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; PROFESSORS BLACK, HUMPHREY, RATCHFORD, SMITH, SPENGLER, AND VON BECKERATH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS HANNA, LONDON, LEMERT, MACMILLAN, SHIELDS, AND SIMMONS; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS ASHBROOK, JOERG, MCKENZIE, AND SAVILLE; MESSRS. BRANDIS, DICKENS, EASTMAN, EMMA, HULL, HYLDBURG, MCCLEAIN, MANSFIELD, AND SCHALLER

The courses offered by the Department are listed under two divisions, Economics and Business Administration.

In general, the Economics courses aim to develop in the student such critical and analytical skills as underlie the ability to understand economic problems and institutions, both in their contemporary and in their historical setting. While no particular vocational or professional goal is emphasized, these courses furnish the academic background necessary for many positions in industry, for work in the economic branches of government service, and for graduate study in economics and the social sciences.

Courses in Business Administration, although more concerned with general principles than with specific applications, stress in greater measure than courses in Economics the knowledge and techniques useful to students definitely preparing for business careers. The student who majors in Business Administration may elect courses in accountancy, business law, and related work sufficient to qualify for admission to C.P.A. examinations.

ECONOMICS

12. American Economic Institutions.—A survey of the main economic factors, trends, and institutions in the development of American society, including such topics as the economics of the frontier, the economic basis of regionalism, tariff policies, imperialism, capital accumulation, monopoly, modern technology and mass production, labor movements, and corporate enterprise. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR SMITH

51-52. Principles of Economics.—6 s.h. (E & w)

STAFF

This course must be passed by all students planning to elect further courses in Economics and Business Administration.

One section of Economics 51 will be offered during the spring semester, and one section of Economics 52 will be offered during the fall semester.

103. Transportation.—Essential features, problems, and competitive positions of rail, highway, air, and inland-water transportation, with most emphasis on rail transportation. Special attention is given to the economic significance of transportation, and to cost factors, rates and their economic effects and regulations. 3 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LONDON

107. Conservation.—A study of the extent and distribution of our natural resources and their service in regional and national development. Emphasis will be placed upon both the natural and human factors involved in the genesis of current problems. Term reports dealing with problems of special interest to those participating will be considered. 3 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEMERT

132. The Economic History of the United States.—A study of the agricultural, industrial, commercial, and financial progress of the United States from colonial times to the present day. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR SMITH

138. Business Statistics.—A survey of the principal statistical methods and their application to economics and business administration. The material is also of interest to those specializing in engineering, forestry, political science, and sociology. The course deals with collection of statistical data, construction of statistical tables and charts, and a brief study of the fundamental statistical concepts and techniques. Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 or the equivalent. Offered both semesters. 3 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HANNA

Open to juniors and to sophomores in the second semester. Not open to seniors except with the permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

139. Advanced Business Statistics.—This course is designed for students who wish more thorough preparation in statistics, either for use in business or to meet civil service requirements. Special emphasis is placed on index numbers, time series analysis, and correlation methods. Prerequisite: Economics 138 or the equivalent. 3 s.h. (w)

EDUCATION

PROFESSOR PROCTOR, ACTING CHAIRMAN; PROFESSOR CARR, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR EASLEY, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSORS CHILDS AND NAHM; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BOLMEIER, RUDISILL AND STUMPF; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS INGLES AND MOSER; AND ASSISTANTS

Courses in the Department of Education are designed for two groups of students: (1) students with teaching experience or others who have definitely chosen teaching as their life-work, and (2) students who desire to study the school as an outstanding social institution. The courses listed in Nursing Education are for students preparing to teach in schools of nursing.

Students who do not expect to teach but merely desire an understanding of the school as part of a liberal education are advised to elect such courses as 54, 84, 88, and 105 for their introductory work in the Department and then to elect further work in accordance with their special interests. Students who expect to teach in the public schools should plan their courses in accordance with the general regulations set forth under "Teaching" on page 63 of this catalogue. All prospective teachers must enroll in courses 84 and 88, preferably before their junior year, and are then required to complete courses 103 and 118 before taking either 101-102 or 115-116 in their senior year.

1. Orientation in Study and Study Habits.—A course for freshmen whose high-school and other records indicate the need for help in working out satisfactory study methods and in adjusting to college life. Note-taking from reading and lectures, time planning, remedial reading, and pertinent principles of the psychology of learning are among the matters considered. Either semester. 3 s.h. (w) MR. WALTON

6. A Laboratory Course in Reading.—A laboratory course for the improvement of the reading skills of students handicapped by reading deficiencies. Admission to the class is obtained through recommendation of a counselor. Two class periods per week, and individual conferences and practice as prescribed. (Non-credit.) (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR RUDISILL

54. Introductory Course in History of Education.—A study of the types of educational systems and institutions evolved in Western Europe and the United States as an introduction to current educational problems. 3 s.h. (E) [Not offered in 1950-51]

68. Mental Hygiene of the School Child.—A study of personality factors as related to the adjustment and success of the school child; the foundations of motivation; typical problems of maladjustment; social heredity and its educational implications; variations in intelligence. Not open to students who have had Psychology 116. 3 s.h. (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR EASLEY

84. Social Foundations of Education.—This course is the first of four intended to give the student a thorough survey of the place and function of education and an understanding of the school as a social institution. It is an introductory course emphasizing those historical, philosophical, and sociological factors which explain trends in American education. Either semester. 3 s.h. (w & E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR STUMPF AND MR. SLAY

Note: Courses 84, 88, 103, and 118 constitute a sequence of 12 hours in Education required of all prospective teachers. Students who intend to teach in the elementary school should confer with Professor Carr, and students who intend to teach in the secondary school should confer with Professor Childs, in order to work this sequence into their schedules. See courses under Nursing Education for modified sequence of courses for students preparing to teach in schools of nursing.

88. Educational Psychology: Learning and Measurement.—This course and Education 118 constitute a general introduction to the field of Educational Psychology. This course deals with (1) the psychology of learning, including: the nature of the learning process; general principles or laws of learning; the course of learning and forgetting; factors influencing efficiency in learning and retention; and the transfer of training; and (2) measurement, including: the basic concepts in the measurement of intelligence; standardized achievement tests; the extent and significance of individual differences in ability and performance. Opportunity will be afforded for examination and study of a variety of tests of intelligence and achievement. Either semester. 3 s.h. (E & w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR EASLEY, MISS FARTHING

See note following course 84.

101-102. Elementary Education: Principles and Practice.—The study of the nature, subject matter, and methods of elementary education. The course is designed to give prospective elementary teachers an understanding of basic principles and practices in the organization of instruction and of subject matter for the primary and grammar grades of the public school. Students may elect primary or grammar-grade work, according to their special interests. A minimum of ninety clock hours of observation and supervised practice teaching is required. The specific problems which arise in the student teachers' experiences are treated in group and individual conferences. For seniors only.

8 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR CARR AND ASSISTANTS

A. Integrated Art in the Public School.—This course consists of three semester hours of work in materials and methods. (Required of all students intending to teach in the elementary school.) For juniors and seniors. (E)
[Not offered in 1950-51] MRS. MASON

B. Industrial Art in the Public School.—This course consists of three semester hours of work in materials and methods. (Required of all students intending to teach in the elementary school.) For juniors and seniors. (E)
[Not offered unless as many as eight students enroll.] MRS. MASON

103. Organization and Management of the School.—An introduction to the problems of school organization and administration which are of particular concern to the classroom teacher. Although federal and state control over education is briefly reviewed, the main consideration is the local school system. Considerable attention is given to the administration of teaching personnel, pupil personnel, and the program of studies. Either semester. 3 s.h. (E & w)
See note following course 84.

58. Geomorphology.—A detailed study of the processes at work on the land surface and the topographic forms produced by them under different climatic conditions. This course includes practice in the interpretation of topographic maps. Three one-hour lectures or recitations and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: Geology 51, 52. 4 s.h. (E)

101-102. Mineralogy.—This course is devoted to a study of the fundamentals of crystallography and the crystal groups, using crystal models and crystallized minerals. Followed by the systematic study of about 175 important minerals. Determinative work includes exercises on sight recognition, identification by blowpipe, and other physical and chemical tests. Excursions will be made to neighboring mineral localities. Three two-hour periods. Prerequisite: Chemistry 1-2 (can be taken concurrently). 8 s.h. (E)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BERRY

151. Economic Geology.—Study of world distribution, geologic occurrence, and uses of important mineral deposits. Three one-hour lectures or recitations and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: Geology 101-102. 4 s.h. (E)

152. Introductory Paleontology.—Systematic study of invertebrate paleontology, dealing mainly with generic characters of the fossil invertebrates and their use in identifying and correlating geologic formations. Three one-hour lectures or recitations and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: Geology 51, 52, and Zoology 1. 4 s.h. (E)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BERRY

164. Introduction to Geologic Mapping.—An introduction to the fundamental principles and techniques used in geologic mapping, including applicable methods of surveying, the use of aerial photographs, the interpretation of geologic maps, and the solution of problems in geologic relationships. Field excursions will be made when possible. Two hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: Geology 51-52, 55, 151. 3 s.h. (E)

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Prerequisites: None for Geology 51. Chemistry 1-2 for Geology 101-102; Zoology 1 for Geology 152.

Major Requirements: Geology 51, 52, 55, 101-102, 151, 152, 164. Geology 58 may be elected.

GREEK

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

Courses 15, 121-122, 141-142, and 131 are entirely in English and require no knowledge of the Greek language. The purpose in offering them is to give a wider circle of students some conception of the debt which modern civilization owes to the Greeks.

1-2. Course for Beginners.—Open to all students. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

53-54. Xenophon.—Anabasis, Books I-IV. Open to students who have completed course 1-2. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

105-106. Homer.—Iliad, Books I-III. Plato.—Apology and Crito. Open to students who have completed courses 1-2 and 53-54 or their equivalents. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

107-108. Euripides.—Medea. Sophocles.—Oedipus Tyrannus. Aristophanes.—Clouds. Open to students who have completed the required preliminary work. 6 s.h. (w)

STAFF

15. Mythology.—A study of Greek mythology and the use made of it in art and English literature. No knowledge of the Greek language is required. Open to freshmen as an elective in either semester. 3 s.h. (w & e)

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS TRUESDALE AND WAY

115-116. Sight Reading in Greek.—Three hours per week through the year. 4 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

117-118. Greek Prose Composition.—The character of this course is determined by the needs of the students enrolled. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

121-122. Greek Literature in English Translation.—The purpose of this course is to give a general survey of the life and civilization of the Greeks, especially to those who have never studied the language but wish to become acquainted with some of the choicest portions of the literature by the use of translations. It is, however, open as an elective to all juniors and seniors, whether they know Greek or not. First, the Iliad and the Odyssey are read in translation and illustrated with stereopticon views of the excavations and discoveries at Troy and other cities of the Aegean age; then, many of the extant plays of the three great tragic poets are studied in English translation. 6 s.h. (w & E) ASSISTANT PROFESSORS ROSE AND TRUESDALE

Students may elect course 122, whether they have taken course 121 or not.

141-142. Greek Art.—Lantern lectures, designed to provide a comprehensive survey of the development of Greek sculpture and Greek architecture in all periods. The course is opened by a preliminary account of Egyptian, Mesopotamian, and Aegean backgrounds. Open to seniors, juniors, and (by arrangement) sophomores. No knowledge of Greek is required. 6 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

Students may elect course 142, whether they have taken course 141 or not.

131. History of Greece.—The history of the Greek world from the Late Bronze Age to the Macedonian conquest. Open to seniors, juniors, and (by arrangement) sophomores. No knowledge of Greek is required. 3 s.h. (w & E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

203-204. Homer.—Odyssey. Pindar and Bacchylides. 6 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

207-208. Greek Orators.—Selected speeches. 6 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

209-210. Plato.—Symposium, Protagoras, and parts of the Republic. 6 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

Only one of the three year-courses for seniors and graduates (203-210), listed above, is offered each year.

243. Athenian Topography.—The topography and monuments of ancient Athens. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

244. Greek Epigraphy.—Lectures on the history of the alphabet and the development of the local Greek alphabets, followed by extensive reading of inscriptional texts in facsimile. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

245. Greek Dialects.—A linguistic study of transliterated inscriptions illustrative of the major Greek dialects. The interrelations of the dialectal forms are examined with reference, where possible, to their origin in proto-ethnic Greek. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

246. Greek Historical Inscriptions.—The more valuable historical inscriptions are read in chronological order and interpreted in their general bearing upon the course of Greek history. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

247-248. Greek Archaeology.—Advanced course in the general field for seniors and graduates, comprising architecture, sculpture, vases, and the minor arts. 6 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

Of the courses numbered from 243 to 248 only two semester-courses are offered each year.

DUKE UNIVERSITY

HENDRICKSON, HILL, KARMAZIN, LEWIS, MONTFORT, PARKER, PERSONS, WADE

REQUIRED PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR MEN

A student must complete four semesters of physical education in order to fulfill graduation requirements.

All students are given a medical and physical examination before registration. Students who have physical handicaps must register in Corrective Physical Education. Students assigned to these classes will take work suited to their particular needs and capacities.

Students without defects will register in Physical Education 1 and 2 in their freshman year. The activities are selected from the following: Apparatus, combatives, games (fundamentals of basketball, soccer, volleyball), swimming and tumbling. Swimming is required each semester of freshman year.

After a student has completed Physical Education 1 and 2, he may complete his physical education requirement by electing and satisfactorily completing two courses from the following individual and team sports: Apparatus-tumbling, advanced; badminton; basketball-handball; boxing-wrestling; lacrosse; swimming-water safety techniques; tennis-volleyball.

For information concerning gymnasium uniform see page 170.

ELECTIVES IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Students in Group VI A may elect 15 semester hours from the courses offered below. Six semester hours may be elected from the courses listed under Special Methods in Physical Education and 9 semester hours may be elected from the courses listed under Theory and Practice in Physical Education.

These courses are arranged to meet the increasing demand for teachers who are qualified to coach and teach physical education. These courses should be selected with the advice of the Director of Undergraduate Studies in order to meet the needs of the individual.

SPECIAL METHODS IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

163. Athletic Coaching in Secondary Schools.—Theory and practice in the fundamentals of coaching baseball and track. Prerequisites: courses 1 and 2. Open to juniors and seniors. Sophomores by permission only. 3 s.h.

MR. COOMBS, MR. CHAMBERS

164. Athletic Coaching in Secondary Schools.—Theory and practice in the fundamentals of coaching football and basketball. Prerequisites: courses 1 and 2. Open to juniors and seniors. Sophomores by permission only. 3 s.h.
MR. WADE AND STAFF

THEORY AND PRACTICE IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

65. History and Principles of Physical Education.—A study of the objectives and principles upon which physical education is based. The history of physical education is studied in order to show the changes in objectives, principles, and methods and as an aid in the interpretation of trends. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. 3 s.h.
MR. AYCOCK, MR. GERARD

172. Recreational Leadership.—Cambative contests, games, mass athletics, supervision of community recreation. Open to juniors and seniors. Sophomores by permission only. 3 s.h.
MR. GERARD

WOMAN'S COLLEGE

PROFESSOR GROUT, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BOOKHOUT AND LEWIS; MISS FRANCE, MISS HOLTON, MISS MASON, MISS PAYNE,
MRS. SWASEY, AND MISS UHRHANE

REQUIRED PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

Four semester hours of physical education, to be completed in six semesters, are included in the 124 hours required for graduation.

Every student must take one semester ($\frac{1}{2}$ s.h.) of each of the following types of activity: individual or dual sport, dancing, and swimming (if she is unable to pass the swimming test). The remaining work necessary to complete the requirement may be elected from the activities listed in this section. All required work should be completed by the end of the junior year.

All students are given a physical and medical examination upon entering and at intervals throughout their college course. Classes in individual physical education and light sports are arranged for those who should not take the more active work.

For information concerning gymnasium costumes refer to page 170.

SPECIAL FRESHMAN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

At the beginning of the freshman year, after a series of tests has been given, individual conferences are held and each student is guided into the type of activity she most needs, as determined from the evaluation of the test scores and the results of the conference. In addition, one lecture hour of orientation, body mechanics, and social hygiene is required during the first semester.

In the Woman's College the three-year requirement is met as follows:

FRESHMAN YEAR

Physical Education 1, Orientation and Body Mechanics.—First semester. $\frac{1}{2}$ s.h.

Freshman Activities.—First semester. $\frac{1}{2}$ s.h. Second semester. 1 s.h.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Physical Education Activities.—1 s.h.

JUNIOR YEAR

Physical Education Activities.—1 s.h.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

Dancing: Folk dancing, modern dance, social dancing, square dancing, tap dancing.

Individual and dual sports: Archery, badminton, bowling, diving, fencing, golf, life saving, light sports, riding, stunts and tumbling, swimming, tennis.

Team sports: Basketball, hockey, softball, volleyball.

Special developmental activities: Body mechanics, individual physical education, fundamental rhythms, motor skills, posture.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION THEORY

Students in the High School Teaching Program may receive academic credit for all courses listed below.

Students in the Elementary School Teaching Program may receive academic credit for Physical Education 102, Health Education 41 and 112.

Students in all groups may receive credit for Physical Education 105-106, 108, 114, and Health Education 41, 112, and 62.

101. History and Principles of Physical Education.—An historical survey of physical education stressing the relation between the types of activity developed and the social and political ideals of different nations and periods. A study of the principles upon which physical education is based. Analysis of successful teaching in physical education. 2 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GROUT

102. The Teaching of Physical Education in Elementary Schools.—A study of methods and materials used in teaching physical education to children; includes discussion on the theory of physical education, and practice in teaching elementary school activities. Required of women students in the elementary school teaching program. 3 s.h. (E) MRS. SWASEY

103. Group Games of Low Organization.—Childhood rhythms and games of low organization. Required of students preparing for full-time teaching of physical education. 2 s.h. (E) MRS. SWASEY
[Offered every other year alternating with P.E. 107.]

105-106. Methods and Materials in Recreation.—A course intended to familiarize students with recreation activities and methods of organizing groups in these activities. Laboratory work includes practical leadership experience with a recreational club or group in a city organization. General fields covered are: Social Activities, Music Activities, Folk and Square Dancing, Games and Sports, Arts and Crafts, Drama Activities, Nature and Outing Activities. Open to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. A year course meeting five periods per week throughout the year. 6 s.h. (E) MRS. SWASEY

107. The Teaching of Rhythmic Activities.—Theory and practice in different types of rhythms and dancing. Stress is laid on those types suitable for school use. 2 s.h. (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEWIS
[Offered every other year alternating with P.E. 103.]

108. Problems in Community Recreation.—A study of the historical development of organized recreation; recent trends and theories in recreation; qualifications and preparation for leadership; recreational interest of different age groups; the administration of playgrounds and community centers, including the study of local and state recreation departments. Open to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. 3 s.h. (E) MRS. SWASEY

114. Kinesiology.—A study of muscle function. Analysis of fundamental movements with emphasis on the development of normal posture and efficient body movement. Required of students taking the 30-hour major in physical education. Prerequisites: Zoology 1 and 2, and Zoology 53. 3 s.h. (E) (Not open to students who have had P.E. 116.) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

116. Kinesiology.—A study of muscle function. Analysis of human motion as a basis for therapeutic exercise. Prerequisite: Human Anatomy. 3 s.h. (w) (Not open to students who have had P.E. 114.) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

118. Orthopedic and Remedial Physical Education.—A study of conditions requiring special or remedial exercises for different age groups. The teaching of body mechanics to normal groups. Purpose and technique of physical examination and evaluation of results. 2 s.h. (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

119. Organization and Administration of Physical Education.—Curriculum building in physical education. A study of facilities including plans and equipment for gymnasiums and playgrounds. Administrative problems of the high-school teacher and public school supervisor. Tests and measurements in physical education. 2 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GROUT

181-182. Methods and Materials in Physical Education.—A course in the theory and practice of teaching and officiating in games and sports. Laboratory hours arranged to provide practice on the field and in the gymnasium. 4 s.h. (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEWIS AND STAFF

185-186. Advanced Methods and Materials in Physical Education.—A continuation of 181-182. Required of seniors preparing for full-time teaching in physical education. 4 s.h. (E) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEWIS AND STAFF

HEALTH EDUCATION

41. Personal Health Problems.—This course is designed to present basic health information to the student as an individual and also from the point of view of the student's relation to the social group in which she lives. The emphasis is on the individual as a dynamic, functioning personality, rather than as an anatomical structure. Open as an elective to all students and prerequisite for students preparing to teach physical education. Either semester. 3 s.h. (E) MISS UHRHANE

62. Community Health Problems.—This course includes problems of health in community living such as environmental health hazards and their control, methods of community attack on specific diseases and disorders, health problems specific to certain groups, and the place and contributions of official and non-official public health agencies. With the assumption that the student is now a participating member of and will be a future leader in the community, an attempt is made to correlate and emphasize the physical, mental and emotional aspects of health in their relation to rich and effective and more complete social living. Prerequisite: H.E. 41. 3 s.h. (E) MISS UHRHANE

112. School Health Problems.—An introduction to school health problems as they confront the classroom teacher. The course recognizes the child's place as the center of the instructional program, and the center around which the environmental aspects of the school are organized. Specific problems to be studied include: physical inspection of school children, communicable disease control, problems of the school plant in relation to the child's health, safety education, teaching procedures based on modern educational theories, and the physical and mental health status of the teacher as contributory to the effectiveness of the whole program. Required of all students in the elementary school teaching program and of all students preparing to teach physical education in secondary schools. 3 s.h. (E) MISS UHRHANE

REQUIREMENTS FOR TEACHING HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The following requirements have been set up for students in the Teaching Program who wish to qualify as full-time or part-time teachers of Health and Physical Education. These requirements meet the standards of the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction for certification in Health and Physical Education and of most of the other states represented in the student body. Students preparing to teach in any state are advised to check with the department as to specific requirements.

Prerequisites: Zoology 1-2, Health Education 41.

Thirty semester hours, including Physical Education 101, 103, 107, 114, 118, 119, 181-182, 185-186, Health Education 112 and Zoology 53, 142.

Education Requirements: Consult Department of Education.

Students preparing to teach physical education and health on a part-time basis only are advised to take at least the following program:

Prerequisite: Health Education 41.

A minimum of 15 semester hours, including Physical Education 101, 103, 107, 119, 181-182, Health Education 112.

Education Requirements: Consult Department of Education.

HISTORY

PROFESSOR LAPRADE, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HAMILTON, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR FERGUSON, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSORS CARROLL, CLYDE, LANNING, ROBERT, AND SYDNOR; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS CURTISS, MANCHESTER, NELSON, ROPP, AND WOODY; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS ACOMB, PARKER, STEVENS, AND WATSON; DR. HOLLEY; MESSRS. COLTON AND GIVAN

The undergraduate courses in history are designed to afford (1) an introduction to the study of history by a consideration of the history of the modern world; (2) a more intensive study of general American history; (3) opportunities for more advanced study of phases of American, English, European, Hispanic-American, Russian, and Eastern history which interest the teachers and students.

Course 1-2 or 51-52 or an equivalent is a prerequisite for all other courses; course E 1-2 is the prescribed course for students in the College of Engineering; courses 91 and 92 are prerequisite for courses 109-110, 113-114, 153-154, 203-204, 207-208, 209-210, 215-216, 263-264. Sophomores who took only one semester of course 1-2 in the freshman year may be admitted to courses 91 and 92, 63, or 67-68, provided they made a grade of "B" or above on the semester taken. Courses offered for seniors and graduates are limited to twenty-five students; juniors may not elect them without special permission from the Department and the Council on Graduate Instruction. Sophomores must obtain permission of the instructor in order to be admitted to courses numbered above 100; students who are not fully qualified sophomores will not be admitted to these courses.

1-2. Historical Background of the World Today.—This course is an introduction to the study of modern history with special reference to the issues in the modern world. Topics selected for emphasis are: the contest between liberty and authority in the modern state; changing economic organization and theory—capitalism and the challenges to it; the problems of peace and war among the states; the changing faiths men live and die by. Beginning about 1500 with the rise of the European dynastic states, the story is pursued in the first semester to approximately 1871, and in the second through the two great world wars. The central theme in both semesters is the expansion of the influence of Western Europe throughout the world, with some attention to the rise of the United States as a world power. 6 s.h. (w & e)

Sophomores and juniors are not admitted to this course. One semester of the course may be counted as a general elective but not as fulfilling the minimum uniform requirements or, except as provided above, as a basis of further work in history.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HAMILTON; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS ACOMB, FERGUSON, AND STEVENS; MESSRS. COLTON AND GIVAN

E. 1-2. The United States in the World Today.—This course is designed for students in the College of Engineering. Topics treated in the first semester are: the rise of national states in Western Europe and other factors attending the discovery and settlement of the New World; the foundation of American institutions; the establishment of the Federal Republic; the frontier, the westward movement, and contemporary international developments; the Civil War; the growth of industry and its influence on society; the Spanish-American War and the emergence of the United States as a world power. In the second semester the emphasis is on the growing interdependence of the Western nations in the twentieth century; their influence throughout the world; the participation of the United States in the World Wars and the resultant problems of today. 6 s.h. (w)

DR. HOLLEY

51-52. Historical Background of the World Today.—An introductory course for sophomores, juniors, and seniors dealing with the topics indicated in the description of course 1-2. 6 s.h. (w & e)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS CURTISS AND ROPP; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PARKER; MR. GIVAN

[Not open to freshmen or to students who have had course 1-2.]

63. Naval History and Elementary Strategy.—After a review of earlier periods, attention is given to the rise of sea-power and its importance in more recent times and to naval actions, especially in the two World Wars. This course is not open to students who have had N.S.102. 3 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ROPP

67-68. The Background of Modern European Civilization.—The work in this course deals with salient features of the history of the peoples of Europe and adjacent areas from the period of the earliest written records to the formation of the European States-system (c. 1648). Particular attention is paid to the correlation of economic and social activities with religious, artistic, and intellectual development. While intended primarily for sophomores, the course is open also to qualified juniors and seniors. 6 s.h. (e)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NELSON

91. The Development of American Democracy to 1865.—This course is a study of trends vital to an understanding of the United States today. The main theme is the development of American democracy. Problems of foreign policy, the growth of capitalism, political practices, social behavior, and conflicting ideals are considered in relation to this main theme. 3 s.h. (w & e)

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS WATSON AND STEVENS

92. The Development of American Democracy, 1865 to the Present.—A continuation of History 91 with emphasis upon the emergence of contemporary problems. 3 s.h. (w & e)

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS WATSON AND STEVENS

Courses 91 and 92 are intended both to serve as continuation courses in the study of history and to afford the student an opportunity to gain the understanding of the past of the United States essential for intelligent citizenship.

105-106. English Constitutional History.—A history of England with emphasis on constitutional aspects. This course is prescribed for students in the Pre-Legal Group in the junior or senior year. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HAMILTON

Students who have had course 123-124 may not receive credit for this course.

107-108. Social and Cultural History of England.—A study of English history from the fourteenth century to the present time in an effort to arrive at a synthesis of social and political events and thus provide a background for the study of English literature. Emphasis is placed on the ages of Chaucer, Shakespeare, and Milton; the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries; the reign of Victoria and the twentieth century. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR FERGUSON

Sophomores who made an average grade of "B" or above on course 1-2 may be admitted to this course.

109-110. Constitutional History of the United States, 1760 to the Present.—A study of the basic problems in forming the Constitution; of its development through the major crises in the history of the United States; of the effects of changing social, cultural, economic, and political conditions on the Constitution. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR STEVENS

113-114. America in the Twentieth Century.—A historical survey of political, economic, and social problems of twentieth-century United States. Emphasis is placed on reform movements from the Muckrakers through the New Deal, the emergence of the United States as a world power, and conflicting ideas and ideologies. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WATSON

115-116. The Age of Absolute Monarchy and the French Revolution.—The study in the first semester deals primarily with the political and social institutions of Western Europe in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, including such topics as the absolute monarchy in theory and practice, the peasants, the nobles, commercial and industrial classes, the Church. The study in the second semester includes the old regime in France, the French Revolution, and Napoleonic institutions in Western Europe. 6 s.h. (E)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ACOMB

123-124. English History.—A study in the first semester of the development in England of the institutions and habits of life characteristic of the nation and in the second of the extension of English influence throughout the world in the eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth centuries. 6 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR LAPRADE

Students who have had course 105-106 may not receive credit for this course.

125-126. Europe in the Nineteenth Century.—The work in the first semester deals with the emergence of the Napoleonic empire from the French Revolution and subsequent events to 1861, including such topics as the organization of Europe against Napoleon, the attempts to settle Europe at Vienna and afterward, the revolutions of 1830 and 1848, and the creation of the kingdom of Italy. Readings are assigned from contemporary writers. The work in the second semester begins with the growing importance of the sciences, with attention to Darwin and Faraday. It includes such topics as the application of thermodynamics and electrostatics to industry, the spread of the industrial revolution from England to America and the Continent, the intensification of social conflict, the rise of Marxian and Fabian socialism, Prussia and the unification of Germany, the rivalry of the European nations in Asia and Africa. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PARKER

[Not offered in 1950-51]

127-128. History of Latin America Through the Formation of the National Governments.—3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR LANNING

128. Inter-American Affairs.—This course treats the relations of the Latin-American states with each other and with the United States with the design of explaining the current significance of Latin America. Chief emphasis is placed upon social problems and movements common to all the republics and upon the role of the United States in Latin-American affairs, including such topics as American intervention; contributions of the United States to Latin-American life in such matters as public health; Pan-Americanism; Pan-Hispanism; foreign penetration and ideologies; the cultural and commercial aspects of the Good Neighbor Policy; Latin-American states in the World War. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR LANNING

129-130. European Expansion Overseas.—In the first semester attention is given to the age of discovery and exploration, the origin and development of the great European empires overseas, and the influence of this movement on the peoples of Western Europe. The work in the second semester deals with the decline of the mercantile empires of the eighteenth century, the rise of free-trade expansion, and the revival of mercantile imperialism in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MANCHESTER

Ancient History.—Greek 131—Latin 131-132.—See Departments of Greek, Latin and Roman Studies. These courses do not count toward a major in history. (w)

136-136. Europe in the Twentieth Century.—The work in the first semester deals with the period before 1920, including such topics as international relations at the beginning of the twentieth century, the rise of German naval power, the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente, the economic interdependence of the world, the Turkish Revolution, the Turco-Italian War and the Balkan wars, the first World War, and its immediate aftermath. In the second semester such topics are treated as the rise of totalitarian states, the disruption of world trade, and the second World War. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR CARROLL

141-142. The Far East from Commodore Perry to Chiang Kai-shek.—Historical interpretations of the role of Eastern Asia in the recent World War with attention to such topics as Western imperialism in China and Japan in the nineteenth century; the rise of Japan as a military and industrial power; the emergence of militant Chinese nationalism; the fusion of the Far Eastern and the European wars into a world conflict; the rise of Chinese communism. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR CLYDE

153-154. The History of the South.—A study, beginning in the Colonial period, of the development of the Southern part of the United States with particular attention to its distinctive characteristics and institutions and to their influence in shaping Southern attitudes toward major questions of national policy. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR SYDNOR
[Not offered in 1950-51]

161-162. Russia from Ivan the Terrible to Stalin.—Topics treated include the rise of the Russian state and its relations with Poland and Turkey; the agrarian problem and the rise of industry; the Russian Revolution; the political, agricultural, and industrial policies of the Soviet Union; the role of the U.S.S.R. in World War II and its postwar policies. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR CURTISS

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

203-204. The United States, 1850-1900.—The rise of sectionalism, secession, war-time problems of the Union and Confederacy, political and economic adjustments of Reconstruction, the status of the Negro, the New South, problems of capital and labor, the agrarian revolt, political parties and reform, the Spanish-American War. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WOODY

207-208. Social and Cultural History of the United States.—A study of American life and manners with emphasis on educational and reform movements, religion, and the social effects of a changing economy. 6 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR ROBERT

209-210. American Constitutional History.—A study of the Colonial foundations of American constitutional attitudes, the constitutional aspects of the American Revolution, the framing and ratification of the Constitution, the statehood process and the extension of democracy, the constitutional implications of sectional conflict, and the Supreme Court in its relation to the problems of an industrial America. Prerequisites: courses 91 and 92. 6 s.h. (w)

[Not offered in 1950-51]

211. The Teaching of History and the Social Studies (Education 225).—3 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MANCHESTER

215-216. The Foreign Policy and Diplomacy of the United States.—The work in the first semester, covering the period 1775-1877, deals with such topics as the origin and development of basic foreign policies; isolation from Europe; paramount interests in Latin America, including the Monroe Doctrine; international co-operation in the Far East. The work in the second semester, covering the period since 1877, deals with topics such as the rise of the new "manifest destiny"; beginnings of American imperialism in Latin America and the Far East; the failure of traditional neutrality in the first World War; postwar conflicts between isolation and collective security; involvement in the second World War. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR CLYDE

[Not offered in 1950-51]

217-218. Europe since 1870.—International relations since the Franco-German War is the chief subject of study in this course; special emphasis is placed upon the underlying economic and political influences. 6 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR CARROLL

219-220. The History of the European Proletariat.—This course is concerned chiefly with the origins, expansion, and organization of the industrial working classes of Europe. The following problems are emphasized: the decline of serfdom, the growth of an urban working class and social revolutions in England, France, and Germany prior to the eighteenth century, the results of the Industrial Revolution, and labor movements and theories during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. 6 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR CARROLL

[Not offered in 1950-51]

221-222. The Age of Renaissance.—A survey of social and cultural changes in Western Europe from Dante to Erasmus. 6 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NELSON

225-226. The Age of the Reformation.—A survey of European civilization from 1500 through the Peace of Westphalia. 6 s.h. (w)

[Not offered in 1950-51]

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NELSON

227-228. The Napoleonic Empire and Its Aftermath.—A study, in the first term, of the conditions favoring the rise of Napoleon, the details of his rise to power, the characteristics of his Empire, its importance for European civilization, its decline and collapse, and the attempt of the conservatives at the Congress of Vienna to restore in part the pre-revolutionary world. The theme in the second term is the gradual disintegration of the settlement of Vienna through the ensuing decades to the unification of Germany in 1871. The emphasis after the collapse of the Napoleonic Empire is on Germany and the influences that made her civilization. 6 s.h. (w)

[Not offered in 1950-51]

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PARKER

230. The Portuguese Empire and the Rise of Brazil.—The course deals with Portuguese explorations, the establishment of the Portuguese Empire in the East, the transplanting of Portuguese culture overseas, and the rise of a native Brazilian civilization. 3 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MANCHESTER

231. The Hispanic Colonies of the New World.—The development of the Iberian states as colonizing powers, the work of the conquerors, the Spanish colonial policy and system, their influences and results, native races, the international contest for supremacy, and the decay of Spanish power in America and the Philippines. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR LANNING
[Not offered in 1950-51]

232. The Hispanic American Republics.—3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR LANNING
[Not offered in 1950-51]

233. The Cultural and Institutional History of Colonial Hispanic America.—3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR LANNING

234. Political and Social Problems in the Hispanic American Republics.—3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR LANNING

235. War in the Modern World.—This course, which deals with military and naval history since Napoleon, is concerned with the relations between war and modern political, economic, and social conditions rather than with the details of battles. Special attention is given to the development of British and American military methods and to events in the American Civil War and the two World Wars. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ROPP

241-242. Nationalism and Revolutionary Movements in the East since 1900.—The industrialization of Japan and the rise of militaristic and totalitarian trends; modernization, republican, and communist movements in China; nationalism in Southeast Asia; American relations with these developments. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR CLYDE

261-262. Russia in the Twentieth Century.—A study of the background of the Revolution of 1917 followed by an analysis of the history and policies of the Soviet state. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR CURTISS

263-264. American Colonial History and the Revolution, 1606-1783.—The growth of institutions and economic life in the English colonies and the American Revolution. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WOODY
[Not offered in 1950-51]

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Prerequisites: The Introductory Course in History (1-2 or 51-52).

Major Requirements: Students in the General Group desiring to take a major in history are required to elect 24 semester hours in the Department, including six semester hours in the senior year from courses in the 200 group. Students desiring to take the more advanced courses in American history should elect courses 91 and 92 in the sophomore or junior year.

LATIN AND ROMAN STUDIES

PROFESSOR ROGERS, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES;
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION

Students who wish by study in English to make acquaintance with Roman antiquity from either a literary or an historical approach are afforded that opportunity through the courses in translated Latin Literature (111-112), and Roman History (131-132).

Work is offered in several branches of Roman Studies: Latin Language and Literature, Roman Art and Archaeology, Roman History, Roman Law. Students who present two entrance units in Latin should take course 3-4; those who present three entrance units should take courses 57 and 65 and follow up with courses 4 and 58 or 66, or both, the second semester; those who enter with four units of Latin should pursue course 51-52. A course for beginners, Latin 1-2, is open to all college students.

1-2. Course for Beginners.—Forms, vocabulary, pronunciation, and syntax are emphasized the first semester and will be followed by the reading and translating of Caesar's Gallic War the second semester. An effort is made to promote rapid development of ability to read easy Latin with satisfaction. 6 s.h. (E) THE STAFF

3. Cicero's Orations.—Four orations including the Manilian Law and Archias are read, and attention is paid to prose style. Prerequisite: two entrance units of Latin. 3 s.h. (E) THE STAFF

4. Vergil's Aeneid.—Selections from Books I-VI, to the amount of four books or more, will be read and translated, due attention being paid to prosody. Prerequisite: three entrance units and Latin 57 taken in the semester preceding admission to the course, unless Latin 3 was taken. 3 s.h. (E) THE STAFF

51. Latin Prose.—Selections from prose authors, or Cicero's De Senectute and De Amicitia, or selected books of Livy's history, with special emphasis on developing competence in reading Latin. 3 s.h. (E) THE STAFF

52. Latin Poetry.—Selections from the greatest Latin poets, especially Horace's Odes. 3 s.h. (E) THE STAFF

53. Sallust and Tacitus.—The Jugurtha of Sallust, the Agricola of Tacitus. Prerequisite: Latin 51-52 or an equivalent. 3 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

54. Catullus.—Most of the poems will be read, and Catullus' influence on certain ancient and modern poets will be discussed. 3 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

57. Sight Reading in Classical Latin.—One period of an hour per week devoted to practice in the reading of Latin of the classical period; designed to train students to read with facility. (See Course 4.) No outside preparation is required. 1 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

58. Sight Reading in Medieval Latin.—One period of an hour per week devoted to reading interesting medieval prose and poetry. Prerequisite: at least one of the following courses: Latin 3, 4, 51, 52, and 57, or an equivalent. No outside preparation is required. 1 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

65-66. Latin Prose Composition.—Recommended to students who are pursuing course 3-4, 57, and 51-52, and may at the discretion of the instructor be required of such students. 2 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

101. Tacitus and Suetonius.—Interesting and historically important selections from the Annals or the Histories of Tacitus, with some parallel sections of Suetonius' Lives of the Twelve Caesars, are read, with attention to the literary style and the value of the historical narrative. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR ROGERS

102. Juvenal and Persius.—Juvenal's literary satire forms the basis of the course, and some selections from Persius are read for comparison. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR ROGERS

103. The Roman Elegiac Poets.

104. Horace: Satires and Epistles.

105. Martial's Epigrams.

106. Letters of Pliny the Younger.

107. Livy: Ab Urbe Condita.

108. Cicero's Letters.

109. Materials and Methods.—A study of Latin in the secondary school curriculum for prospective teachers of Latin in high schools. Prerequisite: eighteen approved semester hours of college Latin, including courses 51-52, or equivalent courses. Required of students who plan to teach Latin in state high schools. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

111-112. Roman Literature in English Translation.—Selective readings in Latin literature in English translation with emphasis on the drama, lyric poetry, and the varied contributions of Cicero to literature in the first term, and upon the epic, the satire and the novel in the second semester. (No language credit.) 6 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

113-114. Roman Civilization.

115-116. Art and Architecture of Ancient Rome.

131-132. History of Rome.—A survey of the history of the Roman State from its beginnings to the death of Justinian; its expansion; development of its constitution and public administration; social, legal, political and economic problems of perennial life and interest; the background and setting of Christianity's rise and growth. (This course carries no language credit. No knowledge of Latin is required for admission.) 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR ROGERS

203-204. Roman Epic: Ennius, Vergil, Manilius, Lucan, Flaccus, Statius, Silius.—A study of this literary genre, and its development by Roman writers: extensive reading of the Roman epics. Not offered if 205-206 is given. 6 s.h. (E)

205-206. Roman Drama.—Select comedies of Plautus and Terence; select tragedies of Seneca. Rapid reading course. 6 s.h. (E)

207-208. Roman Philosophy.

209-210. Vulgar Latin: Introduction to Romance Philology.

211-212. Roman Oratory.—A reading course in the history and development of Roman oratory, based for the most part on Cicero's Brutus and the Dialogus of Tacitus. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR ROGERS

215. Roman Art and Archaeology.

216. Topography and Monuments of Ancient Rome.

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Prerequisites: Latin 1-2, 3-4, or acceptable equivalents.

Major Requirements: Latin 51-52, 53-54, 65-66, six semester hours in courses numbered 101-108, and in the senior year six semester hours in courses of the 200-group.

Majors are recommended to elect course 131-132, History of Rome.

Majors who contemplate graduate work are reminded of the necessity of Greek, German, and French for such study.

MATHEMATICS

PROFESSOR GERGEN, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSEL, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HICKSON, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSORS CARLITZ, ELLIOTT, RANKIN, ROBERTS, AND THOMAS; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PATTERSON; DRs. ESTILL AND RUDIN; MESSRS. FULTON AND GARRETT; AND ASSISTANTS

The following program of courses in Mathematics is planned for 1950-51.

Fall: 1, 5, 6, 50, 51, 52, 53, 123, 131, 139, 229, 235, 255, 285, 291.

Spring: 1, 5, 6, 16, 50, 51, 52, 53, 124, 125, 131, 140, 230, 236, 256, 286, 292.

1. Intermediate Algebra.—Elementary topics, factoring, fractions, linear equations in one, two, and three unknowns, functions and graphs, exponents and radicals, elements of quadratic equations. Prerequisite: one unit in algebra and one unit in geometry. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

5. College Algebra.—Advanced topics in quadratic equations, systems involving quadratics, variation, binomial theorem, progressions, inequalities, theory of equations, determinants, partial fractions, probability. This course and Mathematics 6 may be taken concurrently. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1, or one and one-half units in algebra and one unit in geometry. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

6. Plane Trigonometry.—Logarithms, right and oblique triangles, radian measure, graphs of trigonometric functions, inverse trigonometric functions, trigonometric identities and equations. This course and Mathematics 5 may be taken concurrently. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1, or one and one-half units in algebra and one unit in geometry. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

15. Spherical Geometry and Trigonometry.—Geometric properties of the sphere, theory and computation for spherical triangles, applications to navigation and astronomy. Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 and 6. 3 s.h. (w) STAFF

16. Mathematics of Investment.—Simple and compound interest, annuities certain, amortization, sinking funds, depreciation, evaluation of bonds, life insurance. Prerequisite: Mathematics 5. 3 s.h. (w) STAFF

50. Plane Analytic Geometry.—Rectangular and polar coordinates, loci, straight lines, conic sections. This course and Mathematics 51 may be taken concurrently. Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 and 6. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

51. Calculus I.—Differentiation of elementary functions, curve tracing, maxima and minima, motion, curvature, indeterminate forms. Prerequisite: Must be preceded or accompanied by Mathematics 50. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

52. Calculus II.—Integration of elementary functions, areas, solids of revolution, length of arc, surfaces of revolution, centroids, moments of inertia, pressure. Prerequisite: Mathematics 51. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

53. Calculus III.—Introduction to solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, multiple integrals, series, introduction to differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 52. 3 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

63. Nomography.—Theory and actual construction of charts for approximate numerical calculations, theory of the slide rule, design of special purpose slide rules. Prerequisite: Mathematics 50. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMAS

123. Higher Algebra.—The number system, mathematical induction, inequalities, series, recurring series, continued fractions, recurring continued fractions, summation of series, probability. Prerequisite: Mathematics 52, or permission of the instructor. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HICKSON

124. Statistics.—Averages, moments, dispersion, skewness, kurtosis, correlation, types of distributions, curve fitting, graduation of data to type curves, sampling theory. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HICKSON

125. Elementary Theory of Equations.—Permutations, determinants, matrices, linear systems, polynomials and their roots, constructibility, resultants, discriminants, simultaneous equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 3 s.h. (w) STAFF

131. Elementary Differential Equations.—Solution of elementary types; formation and integration of equations arising in applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 52. 3 s.h. (w) STAFF

139-140. Advanced Calculus.—Multiple integrals, series, Taylor's theorem, partial differentiation, improper integrals, line integrals, Green's theorem, complex numbers. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR ELLIOTT

160. Elementary Solid Analytic Geometry.—Planes, straight lines, quadric surfaces. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 3 s.h. (w) STAFF

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201. History of Mathematics.—Evolution of the number system, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, calculus, and modern geometry. Brief sketches of mathematicians. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Mathematics 51. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR RANKIN

204. Teaching of Mathematics.—Fundamental processes, methods of study, mathematical literature, content of courses, applications, use of instruments, correlation of different branches, historical development of secondary school mathematics. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Must be preceded or accompanied by Mathematics 52. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR RANKIN

226. Galois Theory of Equations.—Permutation groups, group of an equation, solvability by radicals. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMAS

235-236. Abstract Algebra.—Groups, fields, rings, matrices, quadratic and bilinear forms, general Galois theory, hypercomplex systems. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR CARLITZ

250. Higher Geometry.—Properties of the triangle, transversals, harmonic properties of figures, poles, polars, inversions. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMAS

255-256. Projective Geometry.—Postulational, synthetic treatment centering around Desargues' theorem and the principle of projectivity. Conics, coordinates, order, continuity, metric properties. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR THOMAS

258. Finite Differences.—Interpolation formulas, symbolic methods, polynomials of Bernoulli and Euler, numerical differentiation and integration, difference equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR CARLITZ

271-272. Introductory Topology.—Topological properties of Euclidean spaces, set-theoretic and combinatorial methods. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR ROBERTS

275. Probability.—Combinatory analysis, mean values, Bernoulli's theorem, probability integral, applications to statistics. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSSEL

285-286. Mathematical Analysis for Physicists.—Potentials, Fourier series, Legendre polynomials, Bessel functions, heat equation, wave equation, telegraphic equation, Schrödinger's equation. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSSEL

291-292. Theory of Functions.—Limits, implicit functions, power series, double series, Cauchy's theorem and its applications, residues, Riemann surfaces, conformal mapping. Prerequisite: Mathematics 53. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR GERGEN

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

The student who is planning to take his major work in mathematics is advised to consult with the Director of Undergraduate Studies of the Department as early as possible in his college work. The specific major and related work requirements are as follows.

For the A.B. degree:

Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 and 6.

Major and Related Work: 42 semester hours.

Major Requirements: Mathematics 50, 51, 52, 53, and 12 semester hours in courses in Mathematics numbered above 100, exclusive of Mathematics 201, 204. The total amount of work which the student may take in Mathematics toward the A.B. degree is limited to 36 semester hours.

Related Work: 18-24 semester hours of course work, ordinarily in the following departments: chemistry, economics and business administration, philosophy, physics. This work must be approved by the Department of Mathematics through the Director of Undergraduate Studies of the Department. It may include at most one 6 or 8 semester hour introductory course. The work must be taken in at least two departments.

For the B.S. degree:

Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 and 6.

Major and Related Work: 48 semester hours.

Major Requirements: Mathematics 50, 51, 52, 53, and 12 semester hours in courses in mathematics numbered above 100, exclusive of Mathematics 201, 204. The total amount of work which the student may take in mathematics toward the B.S. degree is limited to 40 semester hours.

Related Work: 14-24 semester hours of course work in the natural sciences. This work must be approved by the Department of Mathematics through the Director of Undergraduate Studies of the Department. It may include at most one course primarily open to freshmen. A minimum of 8 semester hours must be in laboratory science. The work must be taken in at least two departments.

MEDICAL SCIENCE

These courses in medical science have been approved by the Faculty Council as appropriate for the Bachelor's degree.

103. Human Physiology.—A course in human physiology in which the functions of all organ systems are covered. Special emphasis is given to the study of neuro-muscular and cardiovascular functions. Lectures, laboratory experiments and demonstrations, and conferences. Limited to sixteen students. Primarily for physical therapy students. Prerequisites: Chemistry 1-2 and Zoology 1-2. 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCCREA AND STAFF

109. Anatomy Related to Motion.—A course in human anatomy in which the dissection is restricted to the muscles, bone, and joints, and to the circulatory and nervous systems as they are related to movement. Lectures and laboratory. Prerequisite: Zoology 1-2. 8 s.h. PROFESSOR MARKEE AND STAFF

NAVAL SCIENCE

PROFESSOR EARLE, CAPTAIN, U. S. NAVY; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR VAN ARSDALL, COMMANDER, U. S. NAVY; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS BRACKETT, BREWER, COX, AND GUSTAFSON, LIEUTENANTS, U. S. NAVY; AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR FETTERS, CAPTAIN, U. S. MARINE CORPS

Standardized titles and designators for courses are established by the Bureau of Naval Personnel for use at the 52 NROTC institutions. The first digit indicates the year of the course; the second digit indicates whether semester or quarter (0 for semester, 1 for quarter); the third digit indicates the semester or quarter of school year in which offered. Specialized courses for Marine Corps officer candidates are indicated by the letter "M" after the designator, and substitute for the basic course of the same number.

NS-101. Naval Orientation.—Organization for national security; the naval establishment and the operating forces; naval customs, traditions, regulations; basic characteristics, capabilities, and limitations of naval vessel types; nomenclature; introduction to carrier air, surface, undersea, and amphibious warfare; basic leadership. 3 s.h. (w) CAPTAIN EARLE, LIEUTENANT BREWER

NS-102. Naval Orientation.—American sea power since 1775; the elements of sea power; applications of sea power in campaigns of the two World Wars; deck seamanship, rules of the nautical road, naval formations and maneuvers. 3 s.h. (w) CAPTAIN EARLE, LIEUTENANT BREWER

NS-201. Naval Weapons.—Evolution of naval ordnance; types and properties of explosives; principles in design and assembly of guns, ammunition, fuses; automatic weapons; basic designs in torpedoes, mines, anti-submarine devices, rockets; principles in the control of fire of naval weapons against air, surface, and underwater targets; nuclear explosives. 3 s.h. (w) LIEUTENANTS BRACKETT AND GUSTAFSON

NS-202. Naval Weapons.—The elements in the problem of control of naval gun fire, the principles of mechanical and electronic solution of the problems; basic principles, capabilities and limitations of radar, sonar, and guided missiles; shore bombardment. 3 s.h. (w) LIEUTENANTS BRACKETT AND GUSTAFSON

NS-301. Navigation.—Magnetic and gyro compass; principles of chart construction; the sailings and dead reckoning; piloting; electronic and radar navigation; relative motion; rules of the nautical road; basic aerology and meteorology; maneuvering in storm areas. 3 s.h. (w) LIEUTENANT COX

NS-302. Navigation.—Nautical astronomy including a study of the actual and apparent motion of earth, celestial coordinates, time systems, solutions of the astronomical triangle; solutions of observations for lines of position; use of the sextant; identification of stars and planets; complete day's work in practical navigation. 3 s.h. (w) LIEUTENANT COX AND COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL

NS-302M. History of the Art of War.—The development of tactics and material as shown by decisive battles of history; historical causes and effects of wars; the development of United States military policy; total war; briefs of campaigns of World War II. 3 s.h. (w) CAPTAIN FETERS, USMC

NS-401. Naval Machinery and Diesel Engines.—Principles of steam engineering as related to naval installations for main propulsion; naval boilers, turbines, and related auxiliary machinery; pumps, distilling plants, and refrigeration. Basic principles of internal combustion engines, applications to propulsion installations for naval vessels, craft, and boats; fuels and lubricants. 3 s.h. (w) COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL

NS-401E. Naval Machinery, Ship Stability.—Applications of engineering practices in marine propulsion plants; principles of ship stability. (Limited to Engineering Majors.) 1 s.h. (w) COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL

NS-402. Ship Stability, Naval Justice, and Leadership.—The principles of ship stability and buoyancy in the practice of ship design, and in the practice of damage control. The procedures for, and the responsibility of, an officer in the administration of naval justice. The psychology and techniques of leadership. 3 s.h. (w) COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL

NS-401M. United States Military History and Policy.—The development of United States military policy, the tactics of United States forces in selected battles, current policy and functions of the armed services. 3 s.h. (w) CAPTAIN FETERS, USMC

NS-402M. Amphibious Warfare.—History of amphibious warfare and its development, principles of amphibious techniques, and applications of these principles in selected examples. 3 s.h. (w) CAPTAIN FETTERS, USMC

REQUIREMENTS FOR COMMISSION

Naval Science: 24 semester hours.

University courses: Completion of course requirements to qualify for the baccalaureate degree, or higher. These courses must include Mathematics 6, and Physics 1, 2 or 51, 52, to be completed by the end of the sophomore year. Physical training must be taken in accordance with University requirements, and each student must include such instruction in swimming as to qualify him as a first class swimmer.

Summer training: Regular NROTC students must participate in three periods of training on board ship or at naval stations. Contract students are required to take one training cruise of three weeks duration, normally between the junior and senior years.

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR NEGLEY, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSORS GILBERT, PATTERSON, AND WIDGERY

Courses on the "100" and "200" levels do not generally have formal prerequisites, but unless the student has a special reason for taking one of these courses, he will be well advised to begin the study of philosophy with a course at the "40" or "90" level.

48. Logic.—The general character of logical thinking, with special emphasis on the fundamental principles of valid reasoning. 3 s.h.

(E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH
(W)

49. Ethics.—An elementary consideration of some of the important moral problems in the light of philosophical tradition and the science of values. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR GILBERT AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

91. Introduction to Philosophy.—This course is intended to acquaint the student with the nature of philosophical problems. 3 s.h. (E & W)
PROFESSORS GILBERT AND WIDGERY; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

93. History of Philosophy: Ancient and Mediaeval.—A study of the major philosophers of the period with special reference to the continuity of their thought. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR PATTERSON

94. History of Philosophy: Modern.—A study of the major philosophers of the period with special reference to the continuity of their thought. 3 s.h. (E & W) PROFESSOR WIDGERY; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY

97. Political and Social Philosophy.—A discussion of the fundamental principles of political government and of social organization, with some reference to social values and methods of political activity at the national and international levels. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR NEGLEY

98. Social Ideals and Utopias.—Readings of selected Utopias; analysis of the value-structures and political principles of these ideal societies. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR NEGLEY

99. Fundamentals of Christian Morality: An Introduction to Christian Ethics.—Modes and ideals of life as exemplified in Christian history and expressed in Christian literature. 3 s.h. (E) First and second semesters.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY

103. Logic.—Continuation of 48. Application of the principles of logic. The nature of deductive systems. Prerequisite: Philosophy 48. 3 s.h. (E)

104. Scientific Methodology.—A survey of the techniques and methods used for the attainment of knowledge in mathematics, the sciences, history and philosophy. 3 s.h. (E)

108. Philosophical Ideas in Ancient Greek and Roman Culture.—A study of selections from non-philosophical literature and of some other aspects of Greco-Roman culture, with attention to problems requiring philosophical discussion. 3 s.h. (E)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY

109. Introduction to Semantic Analysis.—The origins, nature, and uses of language; defects inherent in language as an instrument of communication; primary and subsidiary meanings; the function of association and imagery. 3 s.h. (E)
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

116. The Development of Philosophy in America.—A historical and critical survey of the leading philosophical movements from Colonial times to the present. 3 s.h. (E) First and second semesters. PROFESSOR NEGLEY

117. The History of Ethics.—A critical study of the principal ethical theories from Socrates to the present. 3 s.h. (E) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

121. The Philosophy of Plato.—A general introduction, to acquaint the student with what Plato had to say about the problems of thought and life. 3 s.h. (E)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY

199. Philosophy of Religion.—A critical examination of the facts of religious experience and their bearing upon metaphysics. 3 s.h. (E)
PROFESSOR PATTERSON

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. The Philosophy of Art.—Analysis with the aid of examples of general terms used in the discussion of art. References to recent aesthetic theories. 6 s.h. (E)
PROFESSOR GILBERT

203. Contemporary Ethical Theories.—Reading and discussion of twentieth-century American and British moralists. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR NEGLEY

205. The Philosophy of History.—An enquiry into the logic and methodology of the knowledge of history and into the metaphysical implications of history. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR WIDGERY

208. Political Philosophy.—Analysis of the structure of social organization, with particular reference to the function of legislation in democratic politics. 3 s.h. (E)
PROFESSOR NEGLEY

209-210. The Philosophy of Religion.—A critical consideration of the empirical data of religion and the constructive development of a modern philosophy of religion. 6 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR WIDGERY

211. History of Ancient Philosophy.—Topic for 1950-51: Later Dialogues of Plato. 3 s.h. (E)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY

212. History of Modern Philosophy.—Topic for 1950-51: British Idealists. 3 s.h. (E)
PROFESSOR PATTERSON

213-214. History of Aesthetics.—Theories of art and beauty from Pythagoras to Croce. 6 s.h. (E)
PROFESSOR GILBERT

217. The Philosophy of Aristotle.—Prerequisite: course 93 or 211. (E)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY

236. Oriental Philosophy I.—Chinese philosophy. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR WIDGERY

238. Oriental Philosophy II.—Indian philosophy. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR WIDGERY

242. Scientific Methodology.—A survey of the methods used in the various natural and social sciences. 3 s.h. (E)

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Prerequisite: Philosophy 48, but this course may be taken concurrently with courses that count toward the major.

Major Requirements: Twenty-four semester hours in philosophy. The program must include:

3 semester hours in the history of ancient philosophy (Course 93 or 211).

3 semester hours in the history of modern philosophy (Course 94 or 212).

Philosophy 117 (waived for students who take Course 49).

6 semester hours of work in the 200 series.

The prospective major should consult the director of undergraduate studies.

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR NIELSEN, CHAIRMAN; PROFESSOR HATLEY, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; PROFESSOR CARPENTER, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION;
PROFESSORS GORDY, NEWSON, NORDHEIM, AND SPONER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS GREULING
AND LEWIS; MR. BROWN AND ASSISTANTS

A student wishing to major in physics should arrange to complete the necessary mathematics as soon as possible.

1-2. Introductory Physics.—This course traces historically and experimentally the development of the important principles of physics. This course is open to freshmen, sophomores and juniors and meets the general science requirement. Three hours of recitation and one two-hour laboratory each week. 8 s.h. (w & E)

PROFESSORS CARPENTER AND HATLEY AND STAFF; AND ASSISTANTS

51-52. General Physics.—This course treats the basic principles of general physics in a more quantitative manner than Physics 1-2. It is designed for sophomores and juniors, and meets in a thorough way the physics requirement for entrance into the study of either medicine or engineering, and is well suited for the general science student. A limited number of freshmen who present physics for entrance and who are taking the required mathematics concurrently may be admitted by permission of the instructor. This course is not open for credit for students who have completed Physics 1-2. Four lecture-recitations and one three-hour laboratory period each week. Prerequisite: Mathematics 5-6 or equivalent (Mathematics 6 may be taken concurrently). 10 s.h. (w)

PROFESSORS HATLEY AND CARPENTER AND STAFF; AND ASSISTANTS

101-102. Intermediate Physics.—Mechanics and Heat.—This course covers in a thorough manner the elements of mechanics and heat. Three recitations and one three-hour laboratory period per week. Prerequisites: Physics 1-2 or 51-52 or equivalent, and a course in differential and integral calculus which may be taken concurrently. 8 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR NIELSEN

151-152. Intermediate Physics.—Electricity and Optics.—The elements of electricity and magnetism and elementary electromagnetic theory leading up to optics. Geometrical and physical optics. Three recitations and one three-hour laboratory per week. Prerequisites: Physics 101-102 or equivalent work approved by the instructor and differential and integral calculus. 8 s.h. (w)
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR LEWIS

A course in general college physics, Physics 101-102 or equivalent validated by examination, and a course in differential and integral calculus are prerequisites to all courses numbered 200 and above.

201-202. Mechanics.—The fundamental principles of statics and the dynamics of particles and rigid bodies. Three recitations each week. 6 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

203-204. Electricity and Magnetism.—Fundamentals of electricity and magnetism. Electrostatics and magnetostatics. Direct current circuits and networks—bridges, potentiometers, galvanometers, alternating current circuits and networks. Electromagnetic waves. 6 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

205. Spectroscopy.—The theory of optical instruments and a discussion of spectroscopic laws and of information obtained by spectroscopic methods. Three lectures and one three-hour laboratory each week. 4 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR SPONER

207. Sound and Acoustics.—Theory of vibrating systems. Mechanical-electrical-acoustical analogies. Emission and reception of sound, speakers and microphones. Transmission, reflection, refraction and absorption of sound. Acoustical applications. Two lectures and one three-hour laboratory each week. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR NIELSEN
[Not offered in 1950-51]

213-214. Contemporary Physics.—A course which covers the fundamental concepts and the experimental basis of modern physics. Three lectures each week. 6 s.h. (w)
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

217-218. Advanced Physics Laboratory.—Measurements involving the fields of mechanics, electricity, magnetism, heat, sound, optics and modern physics. 2-6 s.h. (w)
THE STAFF

219. Electron Tubes and Their Application.—Fundamentals of electron tubes. Motion of charged particles, space charge, gaseous conduction. Electron tube circuits. Three hours of lecture and one three-hour laboratory per week. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

220. Electronic Circuit Analysis.—Linear and non-linear circuit analysis, electric oscillations, operation of filters, Fourier analysis of wave phenomenon, coupling in electrical circuits. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR GORDY OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

225-226. Elementary Investigations.—The aim of this course is to provide training in the laboratory and library methods of physical research. Properly qualified students may conduct elementary investigations under the supervision of a member of the staff. 3-6 s.h. (w)
THE STAFF

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

A. For the A.B. degree:

Prerequisites: Physics 1-2 or 51-52 or equivalent, and Mathematics 5-6.

Major Requirements: Eighteen to 24 semester hours in physics including Physics 101-102 and Physics 151-152 or equivalent.

B. For the B.S. degree:

Prerequisites: Physics 1-2 or 51-52 or equivalent, Chemistry 1-2 and Mathematics 5-6 or equivalent.

Major Requirements: Not less than 24 semester hours in physics including Physics 101-102 and Physics 151-152 or equivalent.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROFESSOR RANKIN, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; PROFESSORS COLE, CONNERY, WILSON AND VON BECKERATH; LECTURER ELLIS; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS HALLOWELL, SIMPSON AND VAN WAGENEN; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS HANSON, RICHARDS AND TRAVIS; DR. CHEEK; MESSRS. DEENER AND HATHORN

21. Principles of Government.—An introductory study of the principles and problems of government. Open to freshmen as an elective. 3 s.h. (w & e) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR VAN WAGENEN AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRAVIS

22. Governmental Problems in International Relations.—A study of international politics as seen in current problems of international relations. Open to freshmen as an elective. 3 s.h. (w & e)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR VAN WAGENEN AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRAVIS

61-62. American Government and Politics.—A study of the American political system, including the organization and functioning of national, state, and local government in the United States. 6 s.h. (w & e)

PROFESSOR CONNERY; DR. ELLIS; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SIMPSON; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS RICHARDS, HANSON; DR. CHEEK; MR. DEENER, MR. HATHORN

63-64. Modern Constitutional Government.—Principles and institutions of modern constitutional government, the first semester being devoted to American government, the second to government outside the United States. 6 s.h.

DR. ELLIS

Course 61-62 or 63-64 is ordinarily taken before any advanced course in political science. A student who has not had either of these courses may take an advanced course in the Department with the approval of the instructor giving the advanced course. No student may receive credit for both course 61-62 and course 63-64.

111. Survey of Far Eastern Politics.—An introductory survey of international politics in Eastern Asia and the Western Pacific; the rise of Japan as a modern state; China's struggle for political unity, independence and national development. 3 s.h.

DR. ELLIS

121-122. Elements of International Relations.—Analysis of the operations of international politics, of the foundations of national power, and of international organization, with emphasis upon attempted solutions of the central problem of international security. 6 s.h.

DR. ELLIS; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR VAN WAGENEN

125. American Political Parties and Practical Politics.—A study of the historical development, organization, and methods of political parties in the United States. 3 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SIMPSON

136. Major European Governments.—A survey of the governments of the major European countries. 3 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALLOWELL AND PROFESSOR COLE

141. Public Administration.—An introduction to the role of administration in the governmental process considering principles of administrative organization, methods of administrative control, personnel and fiscal management. Current problems and development are emphasized. 3 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RICHARDS

146. Legislation.—A study of the legislative process with attention to procedure, methods, techniques, delegation of discretion, and the use of controls. 3 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SIMPSON

151. Latin-American Political Institutions.—A study of Latin-American governments during the colonial period. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRAVIS

152. Latin-American Political Institutions.—A study of Latin-American governments during the national period, particular attention being given to the political institutions of Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Uruguay, Brazil and Mexico. 3 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRAVIS

161. Government and Planning.—A study of selected aspects of physical and economic planning. Emphasis is placed upon governmental organization and procedures involved in planning, with some reference to British and Russian procedure. 3 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HANSON

164. Government Control of Public Utilities.—A study of the legal, political and administrative considerations involved in governmental regulation of public utilities—communications, transportation, electric power and related segments of business enterprise. Attention is also given to problems of governmental ownership. 3 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HANSON

174. Politics and Economics.—An analysis of the influence of politically dominant forces and ideologies upon economic policies in societies of principal Western countries since the seventeenth century. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR VON BECKERATH

207. American Constitutional Law and Theory.—A study of leading principles of American government, as developed through judicial interpretation of the Constitution. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR WILSON

209. State and Local Government in the United States.—A study of the historical development of state and local governments, their present organization, their relation to each other and to the federal government. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR RANKIN

211. Political Institutions of the Far East.—A study of the governmental systems of Japan, Korea, and China from the Chou Dynasty to the present. 3 s.h.

212. International Politics of the Far East.—A study of changing power relationships in the Orient since the arrival of the Europeans. 3 s.h.

(E) PROFESSOR LUNDHOLM

228. Psychology of Belief.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR LUNDHOLM

231-232. Introduction to Research.—Restricted to senior psychology majors with at least a "B" average in psychology who have completed Psychology 119 and Psychology 120. Before registration an outline of the project must be submitted for written approval by a departmental committee and by the staff member to whom it assigns the supervision of the research.

PROFESSORS ADAMS, LUNDHOLM, ZENER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BANHAM AND KOCH; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS MCHUGH AND REICHENBERG-HACKETT

266. Advanced Statistics of Psychological Investigation.—A study of various more advanced statistical principles and procedures employed in psychological research. The course includes the topics of multiple and partial correlation, analysis of variance as employed in controlled experimentation, measures of correlation other than product-moment correlation, reliability and validity of measures, and fundamental concepts of factor analysis. Prerequisite: Psychology 120 or equivalent. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR KUDER

Prerequisite: Psychology 91-92 or equivalent.

Major Requirements: 24 semester hours of work in the department including Psychology 91-92, Psychology 119 (Elementary Laboratory), one semester of psychological statistics, and at least 6 semester hours in senior-graduate courses. Related work must include Zoology 1 and 2 or equivalent in biology, and 6 semester hours of sociology or anthropology.

RELIGION

PROFESSOR MYERS, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; PROFESSORS CANNON, HICKMAN, SPENCE, AND STINESPRING; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS CRUM AND YOUNG; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS PHILLIPS
AND SPENCE; VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BRADLEY; DR.
BROWNLEE; MESSRS. JONES AND SALES

The uniform course requirements in Religion may be fulfilled by completing six semester hours in any of the following courses: 1, 2, 51, 52, 91, 101, 103, 114, 181, 182, 183.

1. The English Bible.—Survey of the contents of the historical and prophetic books of the Old Testament with particular reference to the literary, historical, and religious values. Required of all students majoring in religion and open to others as an elective in the freshman year. 3 s.h. (E & W) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR CRUM; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SPENCE; VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BRADLEY; DR. BROWNLEE; MESSRS. JONES AND SALES

2. The English Bible.—Study of the Psalms, Wisdom Literature, and the literature of the New Testament with special attention given to the literary, historical, and religious values. Required of all students majoring in religion and open to others as an elective in the freshman year. Although Religion 1 is not a prerequisite, it will be an aid to the student to complete 1 before taking 2. 3 s.h. (E & W) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR CRUM; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SPENCE; VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BRADLEY; MESSRS. JONES AND SALES

51. The History of the Hebrew People.—A study of the Hebrew people that gives attention to their political history, their religious and social institutions, their literary development, with special reference to their contributions to civilization. For sophomores; not open to students who have had Religion 1. 3 s.h. (E & W)

PROFESSOR MYERS; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SPENCE; VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BRADLEY; DR. BROWNLEE; MR. JONES

52. New Testament Life and Literature.—After a rapid survey of the Psalms and Wisdom Literature, a study of the literature of the New Testament is made with attention given to its historical setting and religious values. PROFESSOR GRAY, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT, DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROBERTS, SUPERVISOR OF FRESHMAN INSTRUCTION; PROFESSOR HARGITT; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS HUNTER, WHARTON, AND WILBUR; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS BAILEY, HORN, AND JOHNSON; AND ASSISTANTS

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES

1. General Zoology.—A brief survey of the animal kingdom. 4 s.h. (w & e) ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BOOKHOUT AND HUNTER; AND STAFF

2. Animal Biology.—The principles of biology as applied to animals. Prerequisite: Zoology 1. 4 s.h. (w & e)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HUNTER AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROBERTS AND STAFF

53. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy.—A study of the anatomy and evolution of the organ systems of vertebrates. Prerequisites: Zoology 1, 2. 4 s.h. (w & e) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JOHNSON; AND STAFF

92. General Embryology.—A study of the fundamental principles of embryology as illustrated in the frog, chick and mammal. Prerequisite: Zoology 53. 4 s.h. (w & e) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JOHNSON AND STAFF

109. Evolution.—The facts and theories of organic evolution. Prerequisite: two years of zoology. 2 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BAILEY

110. Introduction to Genetics.—The principles and practical applications of genetics as applied to animals, including man. Prerequisite: one year of zoology. 2 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JOHNSON AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

120. Ornithology.—Lectures, laboratory and field trips dealing with the classification, adaptations, and natural history of birds. Prerequisite: one year of zoology. Zoology 53 recommended. 4 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BAILEY

152. Comparative Physiology.—Comparative studies of the physiological processes of invertebrate and vertebrate animals. Prerequisites: one year of zoology and at least one year of chemistry. 4 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WILBUR

156. Vertebrate Histology.—The microscopic structure of normal tissues and organs of the vertebrate body. Training will be given in the preparation of material for microscopic study. Prerequisite: Zoology 53. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR HARGITT

161. Animal Parasites.—With emphasis upon those infesting man. Prerequisite: one year of zoology. 4 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

193. Fundamentals of Zoology.—The principles involved in the study of structure, function, ecology, genetics, classification, and evolution of animals. An elementary course without laboratory designed for senior students. Not open to students who have had previous courses in zoology. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GRAY

196. Seminar: Current Developments in Zoology.—Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92, and 152 or 271. Open only to seniors. 2 s.h. (w) STAFF

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

202. Helminthology.—Classification, morphology, and host relations of parasitic worms. Lectures, readings, reports and laboratory work. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Zoology 161. 4 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HUNTER

204. Advanced Parasitology.—Lectures, conferences, readings, and laboratory work, dealing with practical and theoretical matters relating to animal parasites. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Zoology 161. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

219, 220. Special Problems.—Senior majors who have had proper training may be permitted to carry on special work. Permission must be obtained from the Director of Undergraduate Studies and the instructor under whom the student wishes to work. Not more than 4 s.h. (w & e) STAFF

222. Entomology.—A study of anatomy, physiology, embryology, and classification of insects. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: one year of zoology. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GRAY

224. Vertebrate Zoology.—A study of life histories, adaptations, ecology and classification of vertebrate animals. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Zoology 53. 4 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GRAY

229. Endocrinology.—The structure, physiology, and embryology of the endocrine glands. Lectures, reading assignments, reports and laboratory work. Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92. 4 s.h. (w)

238. Systematic Zoology.—The fundamental theory and practice involved in the collection, identification, and classification of animals. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 1, 2. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

253. Advanced Vertebrate Morphology.—Lectures, reports, and reading assignments in the comparative morphology of the vertebrates, with particular emphasis on theories concerning the interrelationships of vertebrates and the origin of certain vertebrate structures. Advanced laboratory study of structure in selected groups of vertebrates. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92. 4 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HORN

271. General Physiology.—The physiological processes of living matter approached through studies of cells and tissues. Prerequisites: two years of biology and at least one year of chemistry. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WILBUR

274. Invertebrate Zoology.—A study of structure, function, and habits of invertebrate animals under normal and experimental conditions. Field trips will be made to study, collect, and classify animals in their natural habitats. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 1, 2. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

276. Protozoology.—The morphology, physiology, taxonomy, and culture of protozoa. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 1, 2. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

278. Invertebrate Embryology.—Lectures, readings and laboratory work dealing with culture, life history and development of invertebrates. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Zoology 92. 4 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

For summer courses in Marine Biology consult the Bulletin of the Duke University Marine Laboratory.

Prerequisites: Zoology 1 and 2.

Major Requirements: Twenty-four semester hours including courses 53, 92 and 152 or 271. The remaining twelve hours may be from any other courses for which the student is eligible. Related work, usually chosen from courses in botany, chemistry, geology, mathematics, and physics, must include at least one year of chemistry.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ADMISSION

Students may qualify for admission to the College of Engineering as members of the Freshman Class or as a student with advanced standing. Since the enrollment in the College is limited, the Committee on Admissions will select the students who, in its opinion, are best qualified to benefit from the educational advantages which the College has to offer. Prospective students and relatives are invited to visit the University and the College of Engineering in particular. This would be advantageous to the applicant, since it would enable him to acquaint himself with the facilities of the University and to discuss possible courses of study.

All correspondence relating to admission of men should be addressed to the Secretary of Duke University, Duke Station, Durham, N. C.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

An applicant for admission to the Freshman Class in engineering must have completed at least fifteen units of preparatory work, partly in required and partly in elective subjects. For a detailed explanation of the units in the table below, see the definitions as set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and other regional associations.

The subjects in which this credit may be offered and the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject are given in the following table:

	UNITS		UNITS
English	4	Botany	1
Latin	4	Zoology	1
Greek	3	General Biology	1
German	3	Physical Geography	1
French	3	General Science	1
Spanish	3	Agriculture	2
Mathematics	4	Mechanical Drawing	2
History and Civics	4	Shop Work	2
Physics	1	Art	1
Chemistry	1	Music	1
		Commercial Subjects	3

Required Units

Seven of the fifteen units required for admission must be:

English	3	units
Physical Science	1	unit
Algebra	1½	units
Plane Geometry	1	unit
*Solid Geometry	½	unit

Elective Units

In addition to the above seven required units, sufficient elective units must be offered to make a total of fifteen. At least five of the additional units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics, and natural or physical science. It is recommended that these electives be chosen from the following list:

English (in addition to the required 3 units)	1	unit
Algebra (in addition to the required 1½ units)	½	unit
Trigonometry	½	unit
Physics or Chemistry or Biology (in addition to the required unit)	1 to 3	units
Foreign Languages	1 to 4	units
†History or Social Studies	1 to 3	units

The three additional units needed to make the total of fifteen may be in the subjects listed above or they may be selected at large from the table under the heading General Requirements.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

A graduate of an accredited school, who submits fifteen acceptable units of secondary school subjects, is recommended by his principal, and otherwise meets the requirements of the Admissions Committee, may be admitted without examination. The certification and recommendation must be on blanks furnished by the College and signed by the principal of the school in which the applicant completed his course.

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION

Students who present 15 units for admission from schools not accredited by the University, and students who present the proper units but whose grades are not acceptable, are required to validate their units by entrance examinations in English and in mathematics, and such other tests as the University may prescribe.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Students may be admitted to advanced standing from other approved institutions under the following conditions: all applicants must have fulfilled the equivalent of the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, must present official certificates of all work done in other institutions, and must have an honorable dismissal from the institutions they previously attended.

* Any deficiency in this requirement shall be made up before the beginning of the sophomore year.

† Students who do not present at least one acceptable unit of history must take history in college.

Applicants for advanced standing should present, so far as possible, subjects corresponding to those required at Duke University. Students admitted to advanced standing may not, during their first semester, elect more than the minimum number of hours required of the class which they enter except by permission of the Dean of Engineering.

Students who have transferred from other colleges must, in order to make their provisional classification final, pass during their first year of residence not less than the equivalent of four year-courses with an average grade of "C" or higher.

ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS

Students of mature age not fully prepared to enter the Freshman Class may be admitted as special students and allowed to enroll for such work as they are prepared to carry. Further, they are required to take 15 hours of classwork a week.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

A student, who, following withdrawal from College, desires to return, should apply to the Committee on Admissions. When applying for re-admission the student should make a detailed statement of his or her activities since withdrawal from College.

PRELIMINARY TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS

General ability and achievement tests are administered to all entering students during an orientation period at the beginning of each semester. These tests enable the appropriate adviser to prepare a course of study adapted to the ability and achievements of the individual student. Physical examinations are given also.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN CIVIL, ELECTRICAL, OR MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

GENERAL STATEMENT

The studies for degrees in Engineering are designed for students who are preparing for civil, electrical, or mechanical engineering as a profession and lead to the following degrees: B.S. in C.E., B.S. in E.E., and B.S. in M.E. All curricula of the College of Engineering are fully accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development.

Credit for 148 semester hours and at least 148 quality points is required for each of these degrees. A grade of "F" carries neither semester hours nor quality points. The work of the senior year (a minimum of 36 semester hours) must be taken in residence. The following course work must be completed with the exceptions noted above in accordance with the academic regulations as stated on pages 161-165 of this Bulletin.

GROUPS OF STUDIES FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN CIVIL, ELECTRICAL, OR MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

PROFESSOR HALL, DEAN; PROFESSOR BIRD, CHAIRMAN, CIVIL ENGINEERING; PROFESSOR SEELEY, CHAIRMAN, ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING; PROFESSOR R. S. WILBUR, CHAIRMAN, MECHANICAL ENGINEERING; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS MEIER, REED, AND SNOW; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS EGERTON, HAINES, KENYON, KRAYBILL, LEWIS, PALMER, VAIL, AND WILLIAMS; MESSRS. BROWN, DAVIS, HARDY, HATLEY, HOLLAND, MARTIN, MORGAN, SLAUGHTER, RABIN, L. C. WILBUR, AND WILDER

GENERAL ENGINEERING

1. Engineering Drawing.—The study of mechanical drawing with emphasis on third angle projection, pictorial drawing, dimensioning, working drawings, pencil and ink techniques. 2 s.h. STAFF

2. Descriptive Geometry.—A study of drawing board geometry with emphasis on line and plane problems, developments, and intersections. Further emphasis on drawing techniques. Prerequisite: G.E. 1. 2 s.h. STAFF

57. Statics.—Concurrent forces, parallel forces, nonconcurrent and non-parallel forces, centroids, friction, moment of inertia. Prerequisite: G. E. 1, G. E. 2. Mathematics 52 concurrent. 3 s.h. STAFF

58. Dynamics.—Translation, rotation, work, energy, and momentum. Prerequisites: G.E. 57 and Mathematics 52. 3 s.h. STAFF

101. Construction Methods.—Principles of scientific management as set forth by Gilbreth and Taylor; selection of materials and accumulation of cost data; use of modern equipment and methods; job design, description, selection and placement of personnel. Prerequisite: Junior standing. 3 s.h.

[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.] MR. WILDER

102. Motion and Time Study.—Fundamentals of stop-watch time study; effort (tempo) rating; uses of time study, and relationships between time study, motion study, and wage incentives; micromotion study; motion economy principles and their applications; standard data—derivation and application. Prerequisite: Junior standing. 3 s.h. MR. WILDER

[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

107. Strength of Materials.—Elastic bodies under stress; flexure of simple, overhanging, fixed, and continuous beams; columns; combined stresses, etc. For Civil Engineering students, the laboratory work is included in course C.E.

118. Other students should take course G.E. 109 for laboratory. Prerequisite: G.E. 57. 3 s.h. STAFF

109. Strength of Materials Laboratory.—Concurrent with course G.E. 107. 1 s.h. Either semester. STAFF

128. Hydraulics.—Hydrostatics; flow of water through orifices, weirs, pipes, and open channels; general principles of water wheels and turbines. Prerequisite: G.E. 57. 3 s.h. Either semester. STAFF

CIVIL ENGINEERING

PROFESSORS BIRD AND HALL; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SNOW; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS LEWIS, PALMER, AND WILLIAMS; MESSRS. BROWN, DAVIS, AND WILDER

61. Plane Surveying.—Use of instruments; transit, stadia and compass surveying; determination of meridian by observation on Polaris; differential and profile leveling; setting grade stakes; calculation of bearings, latitudes.

departures and areas; methods of plotting; survey and plot of portions of campus by stadia, and transit and tape; care and adjustment of instruments. Prerequisites: G.E. 1 and trigonometry. 4 s.h. MR. BROWN

62. Advanced Surveying.—Simple triangulation; topographic surveying using stadia and plane table; laying out and division of land; public land system; calculations; grading plans and quantities; determination of azimuth by H. O. 211. Prerequisite: C.E. 61. 4 s.h. MR. BROWN

108. Advanced Strength of Materials.—Applications of Mohr's circle, deflections, and energy of strain to advanced problems. Prerequisite: G.E. 107. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WILLIAMS

S110. Plane Surveying.—The equivalent of C.E. 61 given especially for students in forestry. See Bulletin of Summer Session. 4 s.h. STAFF

113. Route Surveying.—Thorough drill in the calculation and laying out of simple, compound, and easement curves; widening of curves; vertical curves; setting slope stakes; ordinary earthwork computations and mass diagrams. Prerequisite: C.E. 61. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WILLIAMS

116. Highway Engineering.—Location, design, construction and maintenance of highways and city streets; soil stabilization; traffic studies; economics of planning and design. Prerequisites: C.E. 113, C.E. 135. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WILLIAMS

118. Materials of Engineering.—Study and testing of materials commonly used in civil engineering; proportioning concrete. Prerequisite: G.E. 107 or concurrent. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WILLIAMS

120. Engineering Statistics.—Statistical methods applied to engineering problems. Typical engineering data analyzed to illustrate arithmetically and geometrically normal distributions; binomial distribution; Poisson's distribution. Testing data of engineering materials and the use of student's distribution. Sequential analysis and control of production quality. 3 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SNOW

[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

121. Hydrology.—Fundamentals of meteorology; precipitation; evaporation. Ground water development. Stream flow and stream gaging. Hydrograph analysis. Flood control. Field trips to be arranged. Prerequisite: G.E. 128. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SNOW

[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

123. Water Supply and Sewage.—Statistical analysis of rainfall and runoff records; population estimation; analysis of the yield of watersheds and storage requirement; design of water distribution systems; design of sanitary and storm sewerage systems. Prerequisite: G.E. 128. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SNOW

124. Water Purification and Sewage Treatment.—Chemical and bacteriological analysis of water and sewage effluents; design of water purification treatment systems; design of sewage treatment plants. Prerequisite: C.E. 123. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SNOW

128. Industrial Water Supplies.—Water quality for industrial uses. Analytical techniques and interpretation of results. Boiler feed water requirements; softening; ion exchange; deaeration, priming; foaming; corrosion; embrittlement. Control of treatment processes. Prerequisite: Chemistry 1-2. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SNOW

129-130. Elementary Structures.—Stresses in beams and trusses for fixed and moving loads. Deflection of beams and trusses. Design of tension, compression, and flexural members; connections; and plate girders. Design of reinforced concrete beams, slabs, columns, footings, and retaining walls. (For students not majoring in Structural Engineering.) Prerequisite: G.E. 107. 6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PALMER

131. Structures.—Analysis and Elementary Design.—Stresses in roofs, parallel and inclined chord bridges, including sub-divided panels, by algebraic and graphic methods under all conditions of loading; shear and moments in frames and bents; influence lines; Williot diagram. Structural drafting, details in steel and wood; methods of fabrication and erection. Prerequisites: G.E. 57, 107. 5 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PALMER

132. Structures.—Design.—Tension, compression, flexural members, end posts, eccentric connections, unsymmetrical bending; riveted and welded plate girders; trusses and office building frames; wind analysis. Design and detail drawings. Prerequisite: C.E. 131. 5 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PALMER

133. Reinforced Concrete.—Theory and design of reinforced concrete beams, slabs, and columns including eccentric loads; footings; retaining walls. Prerequisite: G.E. 107. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR BIRD

135. Soil Mechanics.—Identification and classification; flow nets; frost action; stability of foundations, cuts and embankments, and retaining walls; settlement. Laboratory includes identification, permeability, shear, unconfined compression, consolidation and compaction tests. Prerequisite: G.E. 107. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR BIRD

137-138. Seminar.—Students are required to make reports and to talk on current engineering literature or on such other topics as may be assigned. 2 s.h. STAFF

140. Indeterminate Structures.—Application of least work, slope deflection, moment distribution, and column analogy. Analytic, graphic, and experimental methods are used. Prerequisites: C.E. 131, C.E. 133. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR BIRD

142. Hydraulic Engineering.—Statical and dynamical principles of fluids applied to specific engineering problems. Effects of gravity, viscosity, compressibility, and surface tension on fluid motion in closed conduits and open channels; surface and form resistance; dimensional analysis and theory of models. Non-uniform flow in open channels. Hydraulic jump, backwater curves. Hydraulic problems of flood control, flood routing. Dam design. Prerequisite: G.E. 128 or M.E. 105. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WILLIAMS

143-144. Projects in Civil Engineering.—This course may be assigned by the Chairman of the Department to certain seniors who have shown an aptitude for research in one distinct field of civil engineering, in which case it may be substituted for certain general civil engineering courses. 2-6 s.h. STAFF

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

PROFESSOR SEELEY, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MEIER; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS EGERTON, KRAYBILL, AND VAIL; MESSRS. HATLEY, MARTIN, AND SLAUGHTER

51. Survey of Electrical Engineering.—A course designed to give the student a general survey of the engineering profession, to define the scope of activities of the electrical engineer, and to provide an introduction to engineering problems. One two-hour computation. 1 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KRAYBILL

52. Electric and Magnetic Fields.—An introductory course covering a mathematical and physical analysis of energy relations in electrostatic and magnetostatic fields; resistance, capacitance and inductance of systems of conductors; systems of electric and magnetic units. Two recitations and one two-hour computation. Prerequisites: E.E. 51, Mathematics 52. Physics 52 concurrently. 3 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR VAIL

101-102. Circuits in Electrical Engineering.—A two-semester course covering methods of electric and magnetic circuit analysis applicable in all branches of electrical engineering; alternating and direct currents; the algebra of vectors and complex quantities; networks; nonsinusoidal waves; coupled circuits; transients; polyphase circuits; symmetrical components. Prerequisite: E.E. 52. Mathematics 131 concurrently. 6 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR VAIL

105. Electrical Measurements.—A course covering direct-current and low-frequency measurements; the theory, calibration, and use of laboratory standards, potentiometers, instrument transformers, and power and energy measuring apparatus; and audio-frequency measurements of impedance, current and potential. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: E.E. 52. Mathematics 131 and E.E. 101 concurrently. 4 s.h.
MR. SLAUGHTER

106. Electron Tubes and Circuits.—A course covering electronic emission, static and dynamic tube characteristics, rectification, glow-discharge tubes, amplifiers, oscillators, and other typical circuits. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: E.E. 101, E.E. 107, E.E. 102 and E.E. 108 concurrently. 4 s.h.
MR. SLAUGHTER

107-108. Circuits Laboratory.—A two-semester course designed to provide instruction in electrical laboratory techniques and in the preparation of engineering reports, and to provide experimental verification of the theory of course 101-102, with which it should be taken concurrently. One three-hour session. 2 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS VAIL AND KRAYBILL

123. Principles of Electric Circuits.—A course designed especially for students in other branches of engineering, covering fundamental electric units and both alternating and direct-current circuits. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: Mathematics 53 and Physics 52. 4 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS KRAYBILL AND EGERTON; MR. MARTIN

124. Principles of Electric Machinery.—A course designed especially for students in other branches of engineering, covering the application of the principles of course E.E. 123 to alternating and direct-current machinery and associated apparatus. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: E.E. 123. 4 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS KRAYBILL AND EGERTON; MR. MARTIN

148. Direct-Current Machinery.—A study of the principles which underlie the design and operation of all types of direct-current generators, motors, and associated apparatus. Prerequisites: E.E. 101 and E.E. 107. E.E. 102 and E.E. 108 concurrently. 3 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MEIER AND MR. MARTIN

158. Electric-Power Stations.—A course providing a brief survey of the electric-power industry followed by a consideration of the economic and engineering features of power plant location and design, and by a study of the apparatus utilized in the generation, transmission and distribution of electric power. Prerequisites: E.E. 148, M.E. 104, and permission of instructor. E.E. 257-258 concurrently. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR SEELEY

159. Transmission.—A development of the theory underlying the transmission of electric energy over conductors at both power and communication frequencies. Two class sessions and one two-hour computation. Prerequisites: E.E. 101-102, E.E. 105, E.E. 106, Mathematics 131. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR SEELEY

160. High-Voltage Engineering.—An introductory study of high-voltage phenomena and their engineering applications: behavior of gaps and insulators upon application of power-frequency and impulse voltages; corona; properties of insulating materials; high-voltage measurements; elements of high-voltage design. Two class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: E.E. 52, E.E. 101-102, E.E. 106, and permission of instructor. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR VAIL

163-164. Electric Machinery Laboratory.—A study of the technique of testing electric machines and a thorough analysis of their performance. Concurrent with E.E. 257-258. One three-hour session, for two semesters. 2 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MEIER AND MR. MARTIN

165-166. Electrical Engineering Seminar.—A course in which seniors are required to present oral reports and dissertations on material appearing in current engineering literature. Juniors may participate, but without credit. 2 s.h. STAFF

170. Fundamentals of Illumination.—A course designed to familiarize the student with some of the factors that influence seeing; to provide a working knowledge of lighting language, sources, and measuring techniques; and to acquaint the student with the basic factors involved in recommended lighting practice. Two class sessions and one two-hour computation. Prerequisites: E.E. 101-102, E.E. 105, E.E. 106, and permission of instructor. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KRAYBILL

173-174. Projects in Electrical Engineering.—A course which may be undertaken only by seniors who show special aptitude, or who may have had previous experience directly related to the proposed project. The consent of the Chairman of the Department must be obtained before registering. Elective for electrical majors. 3-6 s.h. STAFF
[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

180. Radio-Frequency Transmission and Propagation.—Theory and application of transmission and propagation at high and ultra-high frequencies: impedance-matching elements; coupling devices; cavity resonators; wave guides and antennas. Two class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: E.E. 159, E.E. 261, and permission of instructor. E.E. 262 concurrently. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h. MR. HATLEY
[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

197. Industrial Applications of Electrical Equipment.—A course of lectures, demonstrations, and recitations designed especially for students in other branches of engineering, dealing with the basic principles of utilization of a wide variety of electrical equipment in industrial practice. Emphasis is on industrial control, motor and generator applications, and electronic devices and applications. Prerequisite: E.E. 124 and permission of instructor. Elective for non-electricals. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MEIER
[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

198. Industrial Control.—This course, open only to students majoring in electrical engineering, consists of a study of the electromagnetic and electronic control of electric motors in industrial applications. Prerequisites: E.E. 101-102, E.E. 106, E.E. 148, E.E. 257, and permission of the instructor. E.E. 258 concurrently. Elective for electrical majors. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MEIER
[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

257-258. Alternating-Current Machinery.—A two-semester course dealing with the theory underlying the design, construction, and operation of synchronous generators, transformers, polyphase induction motors, synchronous motors, single-phase motors of all types, and converters and rectifiers. Prerequisites: E.E. 101-102 and E.E. 148. 6 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MEIER AND MR. MARTIN

261. Communication Engineering: Low Frequency.—An advanced course dealing with the principles underlying voice-frequency communication. Included are the nature of sound and speech; wave propagation over metallic circuits; filters; resistance, inductance and capacitance at audio frequencies; transmission characteristics of audio-frequency communication equipment. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisites: E.E. 101-102, E.E. 106, and Mathematics 131. 4 s.h.

MR. HATLEY

262. Communication Engineering: High Frequency.—An advanced course dealing with the principles underlying communication at radio and ultra-high frequencies. Included are oscillating and coupled circuits, antennas, radiation, transmission, reception, and ultra-high frequency techniques. Three class sessions and one three-hour laboratory. Prerequisite: E.E. 261. 4 s.h.

MR. HATLEY

263-264. Operational Circuit Analysis.—An advanced course covering the mathematical analysis of certain circuits used in electrical engineering, with an introduction to the application of operational calculus to circuit analysis. Prerequisites: E.E. 101-102, Mathematics 131, and permission of instructor. Elective for electrical majors. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR SEELEY

[Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

PROFESSOR R. S. WILBUR, CHAIRMAN; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REED; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KENYON; MESSRS. HARDY, HOLLAND, MORGAN, RAHIN, AND L. C. WILBUR

51. Constructive Processes.—Recitation course covering fundamentals of metallurgy and general processes of casting, forging, and machining. Demonstration or observation of basic machining operations is arranged when possible. Prerequisite: Chemistry 2. 3 s.h.

MESSRS. HOLLAND AND WILBUR

52. Kinetics-Mechanism.—Motions of particles. Applications of Newton's Laws of Motion to motions of rigid bodies. Work, energy, impulse, and momentum. Linkage, cams, gears, trains of mechanism. Three recitations, three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: G.E. 2, G.E. 57, Mathematics 52. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REED AND MR. HARDY

55. Steam Engineering.—Elementary principles of boilers, engines, turbines, and auxiliaries; properties of steam; fuels and combustion. Prerequisite: Chemistry 2. 2 s.h.

MESSRS. MORGAN AND WILBUR

101-102. Engineering Thermodynamics.—A study of thermodynamic properties and processes of gases, vapor and gas-vapor mixtures; cycles; efficiencies and performance of steam power plant equipment. Three recitations. Prerequisites: Mathematics 52, Physics 52, M.E. 55. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR WILBUR, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REED,
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KENYON

103-104. Heat Power Engineering.—A short course in engineering thermodynamics with applications to power plant design, for C.E. and E.E. students only. Three recitations. Prerequisites: Chemistry 2, Mathematics 52, Physics 52. 6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR KENYON, MESSRS. MORGAN AND WILBUR

105. Fluid Mechanics.—Fluid statics; kinematics of fluid flow; application of fluid dynamics theory to flow through orifices, weirs, and pipes; general principles of centrifugal pumps and turbines. Prerequisites: M.E. 52, Mathematics 52, Physics 52.

PROFESSOR WILBUR AND MR. MORGAN

106. Heat Transfer.—Conduction, radiation and convection; heat transfer to boiling liquids or condensing vapors; over-all transfer of heat, steady state or variable flow. Applications to heat power, heating and air conditioning, and refrigeration. Prerequisites: M.E. 101 or 103, M.E. 105 or G.E. 128, Mathematics 52. M.E. 102 or 104 concurrently. May be elected by limited number of C.E. and E.E. students. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REED

108. Aeronautics.—A general course applying fluid mechanics principles to airfoils, propellers, and the complete airplane. Prerequisite: M.E. 105. 3 s.h. MR. MORGAN

113-114. Junior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Open only to mechanical engineering students. First semester, three laboratory hours, devoted to experiments and reports in hydraulics, flue gas analyses, calorific value of fuels. Second semester, six laboratory hours, devoted to experiments and reports related to thermodynamics, such as boiler inspection, air compression, injectors, steam and fuel calorimetry. Prerequisite: M.E. 55. M.E. 101-102 concurrently. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR WILBUR AND STAFF

115-116. Junior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Open only to electrical and civil engineering students. Experiments and reports on measuring instruments and apparatus, flow of air, steam and water, economy of boilers, steam and internal combustion engines. Three laboratory hours. M.E. 103-104 concurrently. 2 s.h. PROFESSOR WILBUR AND STAFF

150-151. Machine Design.—Application of principles of mechanics, strength of materials, constructive processes and engineering drawing to the design of bolted, riveted and welded connections, pressure vessels and machine elements, followed by design of at least one complete machine. M.E. 150 has two recitations and three laboratory hours; M.E. 151 has two recitations and six laboratory hours. Prerequisites: G.E. 2, M.E. 52, G.E. 57, M.E. 51, G.E. 107. 7 s.h. MESSRS. HOLLAND AND WILBUR

153-154. Heating, Air Conditioning and Refrigeration.—Determinations of heat losses and gains; design of steam, hot water and warm air heating and air conditioning systems; panel heating. Fundamentals of refrigeration theory and design. Applications of refrigeration to summer and year round air conditioning; commercial and industrial applications of refrigeration. Prerequisites: M.E. 102, M.E. 105, M.E. 106. M.E. 159-160 concurrently. Two recitations, three laboratory hours. 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REED

155. Internal Combustion Engines.—Principal cycles; fuels and fuel mixtures; effect of real mixtures on theoretical cycles; combustion; carburetion and fuel injection. Thermodynamic analysis of engine performance. Modern developments in the internal combustion engine. Three recitations. Prerequisite: M.E. 101-102. 3 s.h. MR. HARDY

157. Centrifugal Pumps and Blowers.—A study of the basic principles of design, construction and application of centrifugal pumps and blowers. May be elected by a limited number of mechanical engineering seniors with consent of Chairman of Department. Prerequisite: M.E. 105. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR WILBUR

158. Industrial Engineering.—A study of the industrial growth and present tendencies of productive industries as concerns the engineer. Specific topics treated are: plant location, organization, production and cost controls, wage payment, etc. Seniors only. Three recitations. 3 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR LEWIS

159. Senior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Tests and reports on performance and economy of internal combustion engines, steam engines and turbines; heat transfer, radiator tests, and energy balances. Required of all seniors in mechanical engineering. Six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: M.E. 114. M.E. 153 concurrently. 2 s.h. PROFESSOR WILBUR AND STAFF

160. Senior Mechanical Engineering Laboratory.—Required of all seniors in mechanical engineering. Tests and reports on boiler, engine, turbine, condenser and accessories; heat transfer; refrigeration equipment. Six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: M.E. 159. M.E. 154 and M.E. 162 concurrently. 2 s.h.
 PROFESSOR WILBUR AND STAFF

162. Power Plant Calculations.—Study of economic and engineering factors in developing steam power plants. Consideration of the performance of boilers, prime movers, condensers and various auxiliaries in various groupings as they affect the plant heat balance. May be elected by a limited number of C.E. or E.E. students. Three recitations. Prerequisite: M.E. 101-102 or 103-104. 3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR WILBUR

164. Engineering Analysis.—A study of a series of engineering problems with particular reference to mathematical and graphical methods of solution and engineering interpretation of results. 3 s.h. MR. L. C. WILBUR
 [Offered only upon sufficient demand; enrollment limited.]

166. Air Conditioning Design.—Analysis of air-conditioning requirements, summer and winter, commercial and industrial. Design of systems and units, and selection of equipment. Open to seniors who have completed M.E. 153. 3 s.h.
 ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REED

197-198. Projects in Mechanical Engineering.—This course may be assigned by the Chairman of the Department to certain seniors who express a desire for such work and who have shown aptitude for research in one distinct field of mechanical engineering. Elective credit for either semester. 3-6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR WILBUR AND STAFF

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The undergraduate colleges are operated on the two-semester plan: the autumn semester and the spring semester begin and end in accordance with the published calendar of this bulletin. Two semesters of seventeen weeks each constitute the academic year.

MATRICULATION, REGISTRATION, AND ENROLLMENT

All new students must appear before the Committee on Admissions and obtain cards of admission which must be presented at the Treasurer's Office at the time of matriculation. All students, both old and new, are required to matriculate at the beginning of each semester and to obtain from the Treasurer certificates of matriculation before they can be registered in classes. Students matriculating in either semester at a date later than that prescribed in this catalogue shall pay to the Treasurer a penalty of $5.00 for late registration. Students whose course cards have been approved in the spring in the manner provided below are given an opportunity during the summer to matriculate by mail for the first semester. No student without an enrollment card is admitted to any class. Students who enter after the beginning of the semester are marked absent in the work they have missed in the courses to which they are admitted, and these absences carry the same penalty as do other absences from the courses.

COURSE CARDS

Members of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes are required to submit to the Dean, not later than the date of spring registration, cards showing their selection of courses for the following year. These cards must be approved by the Dean. After being approved, the cards must be filed for permanent record in the Dean's office. Students who do not select their courses for the following year at the time appointed must pay a fee of $5.00 to the Treasurer of the University before their course cards may be approved in the fall. The same regulations apply for the second semester. An advance deposit of $25.00 is required before the spring registration for the fall semester.

Students whose course cards have been approved but who, for reasons not arising within the University, desire to make changes in the cards approved are required to pay to the Treasurer a fee of $1.00 for each change made.

No course may be elected later than two weeks after the opening of the semester.

If a student drops a course without permission from the Dean, the grade for that course shall be recorded as "F."

If a student drops with permission a course in which he is failing at that time, the grade for that course shall be recorded as "F" unless, in the judgment of the Dean, circumstances do not justify this penalty.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

One year in residence (a minimum of 30 semester hours in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and 36 in the College of Engineering) is required of all candidates for degrees. The work of the senior year must be taken in residence with the exception that one course of 6 to 8 semester hours in final fulfillment of requirements may be taken in another institution of approved standing, provided the course is approved by the head of the department concerned and by the Dean.

DEFINITION OF CREDIT

The term of credit used is the semester hour, which signifies one recitation a week throughout the semester. Two or three hours of laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of class work.

SEMESTER HOURS AND QUALITY POINTS

The requirements for the degree are computed not only in semester hours but also in quality points. Quality points are the points earned by a student, according to his grades: for an "A" three quality points per semester hour; for a "B" two quality points per semester hour; for a "C" one quality point per semester hour; for a "D" no quality points; for an "F" a loss of one quality point per semester hour. Credit for 124 quality points is required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science. (See page 150 for special requirements in the College of Engineering.)

HOURS OF CLASSWORK

The normal course load of an undergraduate student in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences is five academic courses, 14 to 17 semester hours, and the maximum number permitted is 19 semester hours, exclusive of physical education. In the College of Engineering the normal course is six academic subjects and 15 to 18 semester hours, exclusive of physical education. No student is permitted to take less than 14 semester hours work without special permission from the Dean nor to take more than the normal load of work unless his average grade in the preceding semester is higher than "C."

CLASS STANDING

In the Colleges of Arts and Sciences to rank as a sophomore a student must have to his credit at least 26 semester hours and 26 quality points; as a junior at least 56 semester hours and 56 quality points; and as a senior at least 92 semester hours and 92 quality points. In the College of Engineering he must have, respectively, at least 30 semester hours and 30 quality points; 68 semester hours and 68 quality points; and 106 semester hours and 106 quality points.

JUNIOR-SENIOR COURSE RESTRICTIONS

In the Colleges of Arts and Sciences no senior may take for graduation credit any course primarily open to freshmen; and no junior may take for graduation credit more than one course primarily open to freshmen. A list of these courses is published in the Bulletin under "Courses of Instruction."

SENIOR WORK

A student of the Senior Class, irrespective of his average grade in preceding years, must, in order to be eligible for graduation, complete the work of his senior year with a minimum average grade of "C".

DEFICIENCIES IN COMPOSITION

The following regulations have been adopted by the Faculty:

1. Any student, who must take English 1 and whose score in the English placement test indicates that he is not yet ready for English 1, must earn a passing grade in English I before being permitted to enter English 1.

2. In the fall of his or her junior year every student of Trinity College and of the Woman's College must take an examination in English usage. The regulation does not apply to students of the College of Engineering, which has special course requirements in English composition in addition to the freshman year. Students with irregular schedules, resulting from acceleration or transfer to Duke after the fall of their junior year, should take the examination in the fall of the year most nearly approximating the fifth semester. Students who prove deficient in this examination will be required to complete satisfactorily a special, non-credit laboratory course in remedial English.

3. Whenever the work of a student in any course is considered to be unsatisfactory because of gross errors in English, the instructor may report the student to the Dean who will require him to enroll in remedial English until, in the opinion of the director, the deficiency is removed.

4. All instructors are requested to advise their students each semester concerning this regulation.

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations are held in all subjects in January and May.

REGULATIONS REGARDING GRADES

Grades shall be reported so as to indicate one of four things:

(1) Passed. A grade of "A," "B," "C," or "D" shall indicate that a student has passed a course. The work of this group of students shall be graded according to the following system: "A": exceptional; "B": superior; "C": medium; "D": inferior.

(2) Failed. A grade of "F" shall indicate that the student has failed the course, and in order to receive credit for the course he must repeat the work in class.

(3) Incomplete. (a) A grade of "I" may be reported by the instructor if for any reason he is unable to report the final grade at the regular time. (b) Incomplete courses must be completed before the close of the succeeding semester; otherwise the "I" is recorded as "F," and the course must be repeated in class if the student is to receive credit for it.

(4) Absent from Final Examination. (a) The grade "X" shall indicate that the student was absent from the final examination. (b) A student absent from examination, if his absence has been excused by the Dean of the College, may receive an examination upon the payment of a fee of $3.00 to the Treasurer of the University. The instructor concerned shall arrange for the examination in cases where absences are excused. (c) All students (with "X" grades), who have not obtained a passing grade before the end of the succeeding semester in which the "X" was incurred, are regarded as having failed in the course concerned and must repeat the work in class in order to receive credit. (d) If a student's absence from an examination is not excused by the Dean of the College, his grade for the course concerned shall be recorded as "F."

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCE REGULATIONS

Regular and punctual attendance in class work is expected of all students. Weekly reports of all absences from class are to be made by each instructor and filed in the Dean's office. No instructor has the authority to excuse a student from class attendance, and it is his duty to report all absences and tardinesses to the Dean's office. The first three tardies in a given course are counted as one absence, and each succeeding tardy is counted as one additional absence.

To provide for absences due to brief illness and other absences for necessary reasons, one absence per semester hour credit may be incurred in each course during each semester.

Absences due to continuous illness of at least four days' duration and authorized absences for representation of the University may be excused provided foresight has been used in previous absences.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors who, in a normal schedule, make averages of "B" or above in the preceding semester will be allowed two absences per semester hour but will, in all other respects, be subject to the same regulations as other students.

All absences immediately before and after announced holidays are doubled.

For each unexcused excessive or consecutive absence, the student incurs the loss of quality points in proportion to the number of such absences taken; one quality point for the first absence, two for the second, and three for the third. When the third unexcused, excess, or consecutive absence is incurred, the student is debarred from the course with the loss of six quality points.

When a student's course load is reduced, because of unexcused absences, to less than 12 semester hours, he shall be required to withdraw from the University.

EXCLUSION FOR FAILURE

A student of the Freshman Class to remain in the University must pass at least 6 semester hours of work in his first semester and 18 semester hours in his first year. All other students must pass at least 9 semester hours each semester. A student who is ineligible to re-enter in September is ineligible to enter the Summer Session.

STUDENTS TRANSFERRING FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS

Students whose advanced credits from another institution are accepted by the University will be given one quality point for each semester hour with which they are credited, provided an average of "C" or better is made during the first two semesters in residence.

CANDIDATES FOR ACADEMIC DEGREES

A tentative list of all candidates for the Bachelor's degree shall be prepared under the supervision of the Dean of the College as early in the college year as possible, shall be furnished in copy to each department of instruction for information and reference, and also shall be posted in copy on the official bulletin board of the University for the information of the students concerned.

A final list of all candidates for the degree shall be submitted by the Dean to the Faculty at its first regular meeting in May and shall be adopted by the Faculty as the final list. After the adoption of this list no name may be added to it.

A student who completes in a summer session the work required by the University for the Bachelor's degree will be granted the degree at the end of the summer.

GENERAL REGULATIONS AND INFORMATION

ASSEMBLY AND CLASS MEETINGS

TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The sophomore, junior and senior classes of Trinity College and the College of Engineering are held on call. The freshman classes of these colleges meet weekly; attendance is compulsory.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE

A weekly assembly is held for all students in the Woman's College. The freshman class meets once each week, and other classes meet at appointed times.

Attendance upon all of these meetings is compulsory for all students involved.

CONDUCT OF STUDENTS

The University expects of its students loyal and hearty co-operation in developing and maintaining high standards of conduct as well as of scholarship. The University therefore reserves the right, and matriculation by the student is a concession of this right, to ask the withdrawal of any student whose conduct at any time is not satisfactory to the University, even though no specific charge be made against the student.

SCHOLASTIC REGULATIONS FOR ATHLETIC AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

The following regulations have been adopted by the Faculty:

1. Any student who receives less than a passing grade on more than six hours of his required work of the preceding term shall be ineligible to represent the University in any athletic contest, concert, or other public event.

2. Members of athletic teams or other student groups engaging in public representation of the University are expected to be carrying satisfactorily their current work. A student may be barred from participation in such representation if, in the opinion of the Dean, he is not passing satisfactorily his current work.

Duke University is a member of the Southern (Athletic) Conference and observes the scholastic requirements of that Conference.

PUBLICATIONS COUNCIL

The student publications of the University are under the control of a council that was established in 1924 and reorganized by the Executive Committee of the University in 1935, and is constituted as follows: three members from the University Staff appointed by the President of the University; two members from the alumni appointed by the President of the University; six men from the junior and senior classes, elected by the students in Trinity College and the College of Engineering; four women from the junior and senior classes, elected by the students in the Woman's College; and four editors and four managers of student publications, ex officio members without voting power.

No student publication can be started at the University without the approval of the Council.

REGULATIONS REGARDING PUBLIC LECTURES AND OTHER PUBLIC OCCASIONS

All public lectures or addresses and other public events that are given under the auspices of the University or of any organization in any way connected with the University are under the supervision of the Faculty Council on Public Lectures. All dates and programs must be approved by this council.

(1) The Council on Public Lectures shall provide each year an official calendar.

(2) All public occasions held on either the East or the West Campus are listed for the Weekly Calendar of Duke University in the office of the Department of Alumni Affairs in the West Campus Union. This calendar appears each Saturday, and such notices must be received by 1:00 P.M. on the Thursday preceding.

Social or other events held in the West Campus Union must be listed in the Office of the Director of Alumni Affairs, and permission must be secured for such social use of the public rooms in the building.

REPORTS

A report of each student's class attendance and his proficiency in academic work is sent to his parents or guardians after the examinations at the end of each semester. Mid-semester reports for freshmen are also mailed to parents.

ADMINISTRATION OF DISCIPLINE

General oversight of the conduct of students and the administering of discipline are under the supervision of the Vice-President in the Division of Student Life. The duty of immediate supervision, guidance, and control of the students in each college is entrusted to the Dean of that College. However, through the expressed willingness of the students of the University to assume the responsibility of maintaining high standards of morals and honor at all times, the student body has properly become to a great degree self-governing. Two councils, one of men and the other of women, each composed of duly elected representatives of the student body, exercise the authority granted the students to investigate all cases of misconduct, as well as all other cases of violation of proper student standards and traditions, and to make recommendations of penalties based on their findings.

The student councils have been helpful to the administrative authorities of the University. They exert a guiding and stimulating influence for the promotion of high ideals of conduct and of student relationships.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The program of Health and Physical Education in Duke University has four distinct phases, as follows:

1. Student Health.
2. Physical Instruction.
3. Intramural Sports.
4. Intercollegiate Athletics.

MEDICAL CARE

With the exceptions noted below, full medical and surgical care is furnished to all regularly matriculated students of the University, during both the college year and the summer quarter. The cost is included in the general fee paid each semester and in the medical fee charged each student in the summer quarter. The service is under the direction of the University Physician with the co-operation of the Staffs of the Infirmaries (one on each campus) and the University Hospital. It includes hospitalization (limited to thirty days), medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, X-ray work, and ward, but not special, nursing. The student pays for his board while in the hospital. Refraction of eyes, treatment of teeth and of all chronic and pre-existing conditions, such as diseased tonsils, hernias, elective surgery, chronic skin conditions, endocrine disturbances, etc., and accidents or illnesses occurring during vacations or while off the campus, are not included in this service. (A commercial accident-expense reimbursement policy is available if desired.) The cost of any necessary braces and orthopaedic appliances, as well as of special nursing, must be borne by the student.

A woman physician is in residence on the Woman's College campus, and a nurse is in constant attendance at the women's Infirmary. Patients in this Infirmary can be transferred to the Duke Hospital at any hour of the day or night. Male students receive ambulant care at the student health office in the hospital building during dispensary hours. Men are admitted to the hospital directly whenever necessary. The emergency service and the specialist consulting services of the Hospital and Medical School are always available.

The medical certificate, required by the Committee on Admissions and sent to all prospective students, gives advice as to certain types of medical and surgical care to be done by the home physician or surgeon prior to the departure of the student for college. The advice concerns such things as the giving of typhoid or smallpox vaccine, removal of diseased tonsils, correction of errors of refraction, repair of a hernia, or removal of a chronic appendix. Important time is frequently lost in correcting these conditions after entrance into college, and the cost of this work must be borne by the student.

When the student comes to the University, he is given a careful physical examination. Any physical defects are recorded along with the record of the questionnaire from the family physician. All students are requested to be successfully vaccinated against smallpox before admission to the University. It is urgently advised that they take typhoid vaccine if they have not done so within three years.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS
TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The men's colleges require all students to engage in some type of physical activity for two years or four full semesters. This work consists of participation in natural, practical, physical activity for at least three one-hour periods each week. A credit of four semester hours is required in physical education for graduation. The purpose of this work is to improve body control and strength through big muscle activities, to stimulate the development of mental and physical alertness, to establish habits of regular exercise, and to give training and experience in various kinds of recreational sports that will be indulged in after the student graduates from the University.

Intramural sports are fostered and promoted in all lines of athletic activity. Meets, tournaments, and leagues are seasonally organized in the different sports. All students in the University are eligible to enjoy the intramural privileges, provided they comply with the intramural rulings. Participation in these activities is entirely voluntary, but they are very popular because they provide an opportunity for every man to enter into competition and recreation in those sports which he enjoys most.

The intercollegiate athletic program is controlled entirely by the University and consists of the organization and training of representative freshman and varsity teams in the following sports: football, basketball, baseball, track, cross country, swimming, lacrosse, wrestling, tennis, and golf.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The Physical Education Department aims to give the students of the Woman's College an appreciation of the value of activity for general physical well-being, skill in one or more activities which can be enjoyed as recreation during and after college, a well-developed and well-coordinated body, and a knowledge of good posture and efficient handling of the body in everyday activities.

To this end, students are allowed to choose from a large number of activities including individual, dual, and team sports, swimming, and several types of dancing. In order to insure a variety of skills, each student, during her three years of required physical education, must elect one semester's work in each of the following types of activity: individual or dual sports, and dance. All students who are unable to pass the swimming test must take one semester of swimming before graduation. In addition to the two hours per week of activity classes, all freshmen are required to take a course in orientation in physical education and body mechanics, meeting once a week during the first semester.

The Dance Group, the Swimming Club, and the Woman's Athletic Association give opportunities for all students to take part in the types of intramural activities most interesting to them. The swimming pool, tennis courts, and other athletic equipment are available to all students for use at specified times.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION FEES

In order to meet certain hygienic aspects of physical education and intramural athletics, the University has made available for all students, in addition to facilities for physical activity and recreation, the following equipment and services:

1. (a) Men. A regulation uniform: shirt, trunks, supporter, socks, sweat clothes, and towel.
(b) Women. Gym suit, dance costume, bathing suit, warm-up suit.
2. Provision for locker and handling of uniform.
3. The laundering of uniform and towel as needed.

The privileges and services listed above are available to all students who pay full fees, so long as they comply with the rules and regulations established for the care and handling of same.

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees at a meeting held on January 8, 1949, received and considered a report from the Board's standing Committee on Physical Education and Athletics recommending a reconstitution of the Athletic Council. The report recommended that the action of the Board of Trustees at its regular annual meeting in June, 1907, by which it set up an Athletic Council, be rescinded and that a new Athletic Council be created. The Executive Committee adopted the report of the Board's standing Committee on Physical Education and Athletics as follows:

The Athletic Council shall be composed of seven members on the following basis:

Three from the Faculty to be appointed at once by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and thereafter annually at the time of the annual Commencement by the President as follows: one member from the General Administration; one member from the undergraduate colleges division of the educational administration; and one member from the instructional staff of the undergraduate colleges. From this group the President shall appoint the Faculty Chairman, who shall be Chairman of the Athletic Council and its Executive Committee.

Four from the Alumni, one of whom shall be a University Trustee, an alumnus, and a member of the Board's standing Committee on Physical Education and Athletics, who is to be appointed not less frequently than every three years by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. The remaining three of the Alumni members of the Council shall be elected annually by the general Alumni Association for terms of three years and may not succeed themselves. (For the purpose of giving effect to this limitation as of the 1949 Commencement, one member shall be elected for a term of one year, one for two years and one for three years. In order to immediately reconstitute the Council, the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees shall appoint at once the four Alumni members to serve until their successors are elected or appointed at the 1959 Commencement.)

The Director of Alumni Affairs shall ex officio be Secretary of the Athletic Council and of its Executive Committee.

The three Faculty members of the Athletic Council constitute a committee which alone has the responsibility of enforcing the scholarship and athletic requirements of the University for participation in intercollegiate sports. The athletic eligibility rules are those of the Southern Conference.

The Executive Committee of the Athletic Council is composed of the Faculty Chairman of the Council, one other Faculty member of the Council and one Alumni member of the Council. The Executive Committee of the Council recommends to the President of the University persons to serve as Director of Athletics and as coaches in the various sports. The election of such persons however rests solely with the Board of Trustees of the University or with its Executive Committee on recommendation of the President of the University. The Executive Committee of the Council recommends to the Athletic Council athletic schedules and the award of insignia of merit earned by members of the athletic teams. However, decisions with respect to same rest solely with the Athletic Council subject to approval of the President.

Each of the four undergraduate classes shall select annually, for terms of one year, a member of each respective class to serve in an advisory capacity to the Athletic Council upon call of the Faculty Chairman on the matter of awarding insignia of merit.

All funds arising from athletics are handled entirely by the Treasurer of the University. An audit of the receipts and disbursements of these funds is to be made annually by the official auditors of the University and a report thereof made annually to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

The Duke University Church (Interdenominational) conducts services throughout the year. Preaching services are held on Sunday at 11:00 A.M. in the University Chapel. A Vesper service, conducted each Thursday at 7:00 P.M., is sponsored by the Student Religious Council. Organ recitals and special musical programs are given from time to time on Sunday afternoons in the Chapel. During the summer, carillon recitals are given twice a week.

APPOINTMENTS OFFICE

The University maintains an Appointments Office, with services extended to all students and alumni without charge. This office has two divisions, commercial (general placement) and educational (teacher placement). Students and alumni are encouraged to register with the office in order to make available in one center information respecting their various qualifications for the employment they seek.

THE BUREAU OF TESTING AND GUIDANCE

The University maintains a Bureau of Testing and Guidance in which is centralized the counseling and guidance program for students. It is responsible for the administration of various testing programs throughout the year. Included in the responsibilities of the Bureau are admissions tests, placement tests, vocational series, other specialized programs including the Graduate Record Examination, the Navy College Aptitude Test, the Medical College Admissions Test, and specific testing programs requested by the schools and colleges within the University. The Bureau likewise maintains facilities for research projects in the field of guidance and testing and offers such services to schools and individuals outside the community as its facilities permit. Requests for further information should be addressed to The Director, Bureau of Testing and Guidance, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina.

FEES AND EXPENSES

UNDERGRADUATE COLLEGES OF ARTS AND SCIENCES AND COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

All fees listed below, with the exception of that for registration, are due and payable at the beginning of each semester. The General Fee, adopted by the Board of Trustees in March, 1947, became effective for the academic year 1947-48. It takes the place of various separate fees heretofore collected, and is a consolidation, principally for simplification, of these separate fees. Among the fees included in this consolidation are the laboratory fees, athletic fee, publication fee, medical fee, matriculation fee, library fee, and commencement fee. Special fees for instruction in Applied Music are listed on page 78.

Registration, payable only once, on notice of acceptance. This is not refundable$ 20.00
 Tuition 175.00
 General Fee 75.00

An advanced deposit of $25.00 is required of all students at the time of spring registration in order to reserve a place in the classes for the fall semester. This is applied toward payment of the general fee upon the opening of the fall semester. The deposit will be refunded to students whom the University does not permit to return. Students who fail to return of their own volition are not entitled to a refund.

An advance deposit of $25.00 is also required of old students who have been out of school for one or more semesters and have been accepted for readmission. It is applied toward payment of the general fee for the semester of readmission. The advance deposit is paid at the time of acceptance and is not refundable.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR AN ACADEMIC YEAR

The necessary expenses of a student are moderate; the University dormitories provide thoroughly comfortable and wholesome living conditions at a minimum of cost. Incidental expenses depend naturally upon the tastes and habits of the individual, but the actual necessary expenses are as follows:

	Low	Moderate	Liberal
Tuition	$350.00	$ 350.00	$ 350.00
General Fee	150.00	150.00	150.00
Room-rent	100.00	125.00	175.00
Board	325.00	375.00	450.00
Laundry	25.00	30.00	35.00
Books	20.00	30.00	40.00
	$970.00	$1,060.00	$1,200.00

The actual fees and expenses necessary for one year in residence as a student in Trinity College, the Woman's College or the College of Engineering, then, can be met within $970.00.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MEN

Single room, per semester—Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, West Campus	$87.50
Double room, per student, per semester—Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, West Campus	62.50

There are three groups of resident houses, designated as Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, on the West Campus. The rooms are single, double, or arranged in suites of two rooms for four students. There are thirty-one houses within the three groups designated by the letters of the alphabet.

One dormitory is assigned to freshmen.

Rooms may be reserved only for applicants who have been officially accepted by the University. A fee of $25.00 is required for reservation. This fee is deducted from the room rental charge at the time of registration for the semester; it is not refunded unless application for the refund is made sixty days prior to the registration date of the semester.

A resident student in order to retain his room for the succeeding semester must make application, accompanied by a reservation fee of $25.00. All rooms which have not been reserved on or before an announced date will be considered vacant for the succeeding semester and will be reserved in the order in which applications are made.

Rooms are rented for no shorter period than one semester, or, in the case of a medical student, one quarter, unless by special arrangement with the Housing Bureau. A period of occupancy other than a semester or quarter and without special arrangement will be charged at a minimum rate of $1.00 each day.

The exchange of rooms may be arranged at the Housing Bureau within fifteen (15) days after the official opening of the semester or quarter of the school term. A charge of two dollars ($2.00) will be made for the exchange of rooms after the periods allowed for such exchange. Persons exchanging rooms without the approval of the Housing Bureau will be subject to charges for both rooms.

The authorities of the University do not assume the responsibility for the personnel selected as roommates. Each student is urged to select the roommate when the room is reserved.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS FOR MEN

Duke University is particularly eager that its students shall have the best dormitory life to be found in any institution. It has endeavored to provide buildings and equipment commensurate with this ideal. The institution asks and believes that in return each student will respond by arranging his personal belongings in an orderly manner and by caring for the buildings and furniture as he would do in the home of a friend. The following regulations are offered as a guide and a reminder that care is desired.

1. The student will be held responsible for any damage to the room or furnishings during the rental period, and will pay for all damages caused by his neglect, misuse or abuse of any part of the University property. Inspections will be made throughout the college year to observe the condition of the rooms and to advise students concerning the care of rooms, if necessary.

2. Maids will prepare the rooms daily except Sunday, the service beginning promptly at 8:00 A.M. and ceasing at 1:00 P.M., thereby giving the student complete use of his room during the afternoon.

3. University furniture or furnishings must not be removed from the room in which they have been placed by the University.

4. Electric wiring, door locks, window screens, steam or water lines should not be changed or added, since the University supervises and makes such changes as are necessary and advisable.

5. Pictures, pennants and clippings should be hung from the picture moulding and not tacked or pasted on walls or woodwork.

6. Each student is expected to supply necessary sheets, blankets, pillows, rugs, and curtains. Furniture, beds and mattresses (39" x 74"), tables, chairs, dressers, mirrors, and window shades are furnished by the University.

7. All trunks and heavy luggage will be stored in the trunk rooms. Janitors will remove the trunks from the hallways to the storage rooms when they are unpacked.

8. The exchange of rooms or keys should be arranged at the office. Any exchanges made otherwise will subject the participant to charges for both rooms.

9. The use or possession of intoxicating liquors, wines or beer, and gambling in any manner in any of the buildings or on the grounds of Duke University are forbidden.

10. Animals shall not be kept in the dormitories.

11. Women are permitted in the dormitories only when accompanied by the University Hostess.

12. The use of dormitory rooms as a sales office or storeroom, or the solicitation for sales or gifts within the buildings or on the grounds is prohibited except by appointees of the University.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR WOMEN

Undergraduate women are required to live in the residence houses of the Woman's College unless they are living with parents or close relatives in the city. Under special circumstances the Dean may make an exception in the case of a mature student.

Residence Houses. There are eight residence houses: Alsbaugh, Aycock, Bassett, Brown, Giles, Jarvis, Pegram and Southgate. All rooms in Jarvis and Southgate are double; in Aycock there is a limited number of singles; and in the other houses there are a few singles and several suites consisting of a double and a single or two singles.

A Counselor, who is a member of the Dean's Staff, lives in each dormitory to advise the students and to assist the student House Council in the administration of the house.

Room Furnishings. All rooms contain only the principal articles of furniture. A student is required to supply her own linens, blankets, bedspreads, curtains, and study-lamps. She may, if she wishes, provide additional articles such as scatter-rugs and small tables or bookcases, but she is not permitted to have large rugs or heavy overstuffed furniture.

Room Rent. Each occupant of a double room is charged $62.50 a semester; the occupant of a single room, $87.50 a semester.

Rooms are rented for no shorter period than one semester, unless by special arrangement with the Dean of Residence. A period of occupancy other than a semester or quarter and without special arrangement will be charged at a minimum rate of $1.00 each day.

Room Reservations. Room reservations are made with the Dean of Residence of the Woman's College. To obtain a reservation, a student must pay a fee of $25.00, which is later deducted from the room rent. A new student should pay this fee as soon as she is accepted by the Committee on Admissions. If she does not pay it within ten days, her admission is cancelled. As an applicant for admission may not reserve a room until she is officially accepted, she is requested not to send the reservation fee before she receives notice of her admission.

A student cancelling her room reservation sixty days or more prior to the official opening of the semester may have her fee refunded. After that date no refunds are made.

In the spring, resident students reserve rooms for the next fall semester in accordance with the plan announced by the Dean of Residence. New students are, as far as possible, given their choice of the remaining rooms.

Roommates. A new student who wishes a double room but has made no arrangement for a roommate will be assigned a roommate by the College. After a student has been a resident for one semester, she is responsible for obtaining and keeping a roommate. If a student occupying a double room does not obtain a roommate in the time required by the Dean of Residence—approximately two weeks after the beginning of the semester—she may be required to pay the rental consideration for the entire room.

Room Occupancy. After a student has engaged a room, she is not permitted to move to another without the consent of the Dean of Residence. A student leaving one room and occupying another without permission may be charged for both rooms for the entire semester. No student is allowed to rent or sublet the room she has engaged to another occupant.

DINING SERVICE

West Campus.—Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day, depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus, and the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

Woman's College, East Campus.—The dining halls of the Woman's College are situated in the Union and in Southgate. No resident woman is permitted to board elsewhere than at these halls. The charge for board is $175.00 per semester, payable at the time of registration.

It is hoped that present rates may be maintained. Charges, however, are necessarily dependent upon costs of labor, foods and materials, and some adjustment may be necessary.

Because of the large number of those served in the dining halls, it is not possible to arrange special diets for individual students. Special diet for the sick is served in the Infirmary.

REGULATIONS REGARDING PAYMENTS

The Executive Committee of Duke University has enacted the following regulations which govern the payment of all fees due the University:

1. The President and the Treasurer of the University have no authority to suspend or in any way alter these regulations.
2. Any student who has failed to pay his bills on the dates advertised in the catalogue is denied the right to attend classes until his account is settled in full; subsequent withdrawal does not entitle a student to a refund.

3. No student is considered by the Faculty as an applicant for graduation until he has settled with the Treasurer for all his indebtedness to the University.

4. No student who has not settled all his bills with the Treasurer of the University is allowed to stand the final examinations of the academic year.

When a student wishes his bills sent to his parents or guardian, the student or his parent or guardian must so notify the Treasurer of the University in writing in due time; but this in no way releases the student from liability to established penalties, if his bills are not paid on the dates advertised.

TRANSCRIPTS

Students desiring transcripts are entitled to one transcript without charge. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. Records are not released when any outstanding amount is reported by the Treasurer's Office.

SCHOLARSHIPS, LOANS, AND EMPLOYMENT AID

Duke University annually awards available scholarships, administers loan funds, and supervises student employment through a committee of the Faculty for deserving undergraduates of Trinity College, the Woman's College, and the College of Engineering.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships intended to aid needy and deserving students have been established from time to time by persons deeply interested both in Duke University and in the members of its student body. All scholarship endowments are held in trust and are kept separate and distinct from other holdings of the University. All income is faithfully applied in accordance with the terms of the gift or bequest.

In addition, a limited number of scholarships, notably the honorary awards in recognition of scholastic merit and strength of character, are financed through current funds of the University.

Scholarships are awarded annually by a committee of the Faculty appointed by the President of the University. In some cases donors have specified certain limitations and conditions. These are faithfully followed, but in all cases final award is made by the Faculty committee.

Any prospective student may apply for a scholarship. Applications, however, may be made formally by a prospective student only after his application for admission has been made, all necessary credentials have been presented, and notification of acceptance has been given. All applications are to be by letter and must include on a form furnished by the University a complete statement of the applicant's needs. The number of scholarships available is small in comparison with the number of applicants for these awards. As a result, the committee, in making its decisions, must in so far as possible limit scholarship aid to cases where the need is imperative.

All applications for scholarship aid should be made to the Scholarship Committee, Secretary's Office, Duke University.

THE ANGIER DUKE REGIONAL PRIZES

Value. Nine prizes of $750.00 each are awarded annually to six men and three women. Prizes are awarded for one year and are renewable from year to year for a maximum duration of four years, on the condition that the holder maintain a scholastic average in the upper quartile of his class and further that he show evidence of developing the qualities of leadership which served as the basis for the original selection. When all awards are renewed, there are thirty-six holders of prizes in residence. The total value to the recipient who qualifies for the maximum period is $3,000.00.

Eligibility. Any resident of the state of North Carolina is eligible to apply regardless of where he or she prepares for college. A candidate may be a graduate of a secondary school, public or private, located within or beyond the borders of the state. Candidates must be eligible for admission to the freshman class of Trinity College, the College of Engineering or the Woman's College in the ensuing academic year. A candidate must have attained scholastic standing in the highest 25 per cent of his or her class as of the closing date of his or her most recently completed semester.

Objective. The prizes are intended to encourage as students young men and women who give promise of becoming leaders in their chosen fields of endeavor. As potential leaders, they should possess character, personality, intellectual integrity, vitality, and imagination. As students they should possess scholastic ability of a creative sort and minds that can digest and use the knowledge they acquire. The prizes are designed to stimulate young men and women who possess these traits to become citizens with a genuine interest in society and ability to influence and direct the course of affairs.

Procedure. Applications for one of the prizes awarded either to men or women should be addressed to Mr. John M. Dozier, Office of the Secretary, Duke University, Durham, N. C.

LOAN FUNDS

A number of loan funds have been established for the benefit of students of Duke University. The most important and largest of these is the Angier B. Duke Memorial Student Loan Fund, which is administered through an advisory committee of officers of the University. The amount available to be loaned annually depends upon the income from investments and on the amount repaid on loans previously made to students.

The same committee of officers administers the other endowed loan funds of the University.

Although a considerable sum accrues annually for loans to students, it is not sufficient to provide for all calls for assistance. The committee in approving loans selects those students who, from the standpoint of character, scholastic attainment, personality, and degree of financial need, are most deserving of consideration.

The following regulations govern the making of all student loans:

1. No loans shall be made to a student who violates any of the regulations of the University or whose classwork is not satisfactory to the Faculty.

2. As a general policy a student is not potentially eligible for loan assistance until he has been in residence at least one semester and until those responsible for the administration of loan funds have had an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the worthiness and the need involved in any particular case.

3. Loans will be made only to students who are taking approved courses of study that lead to a degree, and all loans must be arranged for not later than one week after the beginning of a semester.

4. Every applicant for a loan must present with the application such security as the President of the University may approve, and no money shall be advanced before a note with approved security is in the hands of the Treasurer of the University.

5. No loan will be made to defray any other expenses than those incurred during the academic year for tuition, for matriculation, or for room-rent.

6. Interest at rate of six per cent annually shall be charged for all loans of money, and the interest must be paid annually.

7. Applications for loans should be made to the Loan Committee, Secretary's Office, Duke University Station. A formal application for loan assistance may be made only on blanks furnished in the Secretary's Office at the time of registration. The granting or withholding of a loan is a matter entirely within the discretion of the Loan Committee. A student is expected to use all other possible means of securing financial assistance before applying for aid from the Loan Fund.

EMPLOYMENT

In order to serve the students attending Duke University who need part-time employment, a student employment office is maintained. There are many work opportunities both on the campus and in the city of Durham. Although there is no definite number of such places, a considerable number of students each year help defray their college expenses by working.

A listing of all known available jobs is kept in this office, and the majority of students who wish to work are placed in suitable jobs. The student employment office also keeps a permanent record of the work activities of the self help students and is able to write recommendations in the senior year of these students for the Appointments Office.

Prospective students may make application for part-time employment only after they have completed an application for admission and notification of acceptance has been given. The job application should be by letter prior to the reporting date for entrance, and a complete detailed job application form must be completed on the date of arrival at Duke University.

Those students in Trinity College and the College of Engineering in need of such employment may apply to Mr. J. M. Dozier, 209 Administration Building, West Campus. Students in the Woman's College should apply to the Assistant Dean of Residence, 108 East Duke Building, East Campus.

HONORS AND PRIZES

To be eligible for Honors a student must earn during the year a credit of not less than thirty semester hours. Students in the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes who earn an average of at least two and one-half quality points per semester hour are given Honors. All semester hours on which a student receives a grade are counted in the determination of Honors.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts or of Bachelor of Science with distinction is conferred in accordance with the following rules:

Students who have completed a minimum of ninety semester hours in Duke University are eligible for general Honors at graduation. Those who earn an average of at least two and one-half quality points per semester hour are recommended for a degree magna cum laude. Those who earn an average of at least two and three-fourths quality points per semester hour are recommended for a degree summa cum laude. All semester hours taken in Duke University on which a student receives a grade are counted in the determination of Honors.

MEDALS AND PRIZES

The Wiley Gray Medal was established by the late Robert T. Gray, Esq., of Raleigh, North Carolina, to be awarded annually in memory of his brother. It is given for the graduating oration that shall be, in the opinion of a committee, the best, with respect to both declaration and composition.

The Debate Council authorizes the awarding of medals to members of the graduating class who have represented the University in at least two intercollegiate debates. The medals are given by the local chapter of the Tau Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

The Robert E. Lee Prize is the gift of The Reverend A. W. Plyler, of the Class of 1892, and Mrs. Plyler. The sum of $50 is awarded annually at Commencement, preferably to that member of the Senior Class who in character and conduct, in scholarship and athletic achievement, in many virtues and capacity for leadership, has most nearly realized the standard of the ideal student. The Dean of the College, the Graduate Manager of Athletics, and the President of the Student Council constitute a committee to draft and adopt regulations governing the award.

Alpha Kappa Psi Medallion. Beta Eta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional fraternity in commerce, awards annually the Alpha Kappa Psi Scholarship Key to the male senior student pursuing a degree in the Department of Economics and Business Administration, who has attained the highest scholastic average for three years of collegiate work in this University.

The Willis Smith Prize. Mr. Willis Smith, a member of the Raleigh Bar and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Duke University, awards each year to that member of the graduating class of the Law School who has maintained the highest scholastic average during the entire three years of Law School work, a prize consisting of a set of books selected personally by Mr. Smith each year for that purpose.

Julia Dale Prize in Mathematics. This is a prize of books given annually to the undergraduate who shows the greatest proficiency in the study of the calculus.

The Milmore Prize, consisting of one year's subscription to the Electrical World, is awarded each year to that student from North or South Carolina graduating in the Department of Electrical Engineering, who, in the opinion of the Faculty of that department and as shown by his grades, has made the most progress in electrical engineering during his last year in college.

The Tau Beta Pi Prize. The North Carolina Gamma chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity, awards each year a suitable prize, such as an engineering handbook, to a sophomore student in engineering for outstanding scholastic achievement during the freshman year.

The Pegram Chemistry Club Prize will be awarded in the spring of each year for scholarship in chemistry, physics, and mathematics. The prize is to consist of one-year junior membership in the American Chemical Society, and a one-year subscription to either the Journal of the American Chemical Society, or to Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. To qualify for this prize the student must (1) be enrolled as an undergraduate of Duke University and (2) be taking or have taken a fourth-year chemistry course. The winner of this prize is to be selected by a committee consisting of at least one Faculty member and at least two members of the Pegram Chemistry Club; the selection is to be based on the quality-point average for all courses taken in chemistry, physics, and mathematics. In case of a tie equal awards will be given.

The Sigma Xi Prize. The Society of the Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, is devoted to the encouragement of scientific research, and seeks to stimulate those who show promise of accomplishment in scientific research. As an encouragement to younger men and women the Duke Chapter of Sigma Xi has established the following prizes to be awarded annually to students resident at Duke University: $20.00 for an undergraduate project or paper, $20.00 for a Master's thesis or its equivalent, and $40.00 for a Ph.D. dissertation or its equivalent. Nominations, recommendations, copies of theses, reports or other material must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Chapter on or before May 5.

The Erasmus Club Prize in the Humanities. The Erasmus Club, founded in 1925, a group of Duke faculty members interested in research in language, literature, and the arts, seeks to stimulate interest and study in these fields. To encourage Duke students in this field, the Erasmus Club has established an annual prize, amounting to $25.00, for the best original essay by an undergraduate which embodies the results of research, criticism, or evaluation in some subject in the humanities. Prospective competitors should consult some member of the Faculty, preferably their major professor. Essays must be typewritten and must be submitted to the president of the Club before the first of April. The Club reserves the right to withhold the prize in case there are no essays of acceptable quality.

The Anne Flexner Memorial Award in Creative Writing has been established by the friends and family of Anne Flexner, who graduated from Duke in 1945. It consists of fifty dollars in cash and a book bearing the Anne Flexner Memorial Award bookplate. It is given annually for the best pieces of creative writing submitted by a Duke undergraduate. It is limited to short stories (5,000 word limit), one-act plays (5,000 word limit), poems (100 line limit), and informal essays (3,000 word limit). Only one manuscript may be submitted by a candidate, and manuscripts must be delivered to the English Office, Room 2G5, West Duke, before April 15.

The William Senhauser Prize is given by his mother in memory of her son, a member of the Class of 1942, who lost his life in the Pacific Theatre of War on August 4, 1944. The award is made annually to the sophomore or junior in Trinity College or the College of Engineering who has made the greatest contribution through participation and leadership in intramural sports. The winner of this prize is chosen by a committee selected by the President of the University.

The Friends of Duke University Library offer three prizes of $25.00, $15.00, and $10.00 in an annual contest open to all undergraduate students for the best book collections acquired during their college years. The contest is supervised by the Undergraduate Committee of the Friends of the Library, which announces each fall the terms of the award. Inquiries may be directed to the Curator of Rare Books. Collections entered in the contest are exhibited each spring in the General Library, and the prizes are awarded on the basis of the student's collection and a personal interview to determine the over-all planning and objectives of his collecting activity, and his familiarity with his own books and the general field of his collecting interest.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

The Men's Association of Duke University comprises all men students in Trinity College and the College of Engineering. Through its officers and a council it initiates policies and oversees matters within the control of the student body. The council is composed of nine members: three executive officers, two representatives from the Senior Class, two from the Junior Class, one from the Sophomore Class, and one from the College of Engineering.

The Women's Student Government Association is similar in character to the men's association. Its council is composed of the officers of the Association, house presidents and president of the Town Girls' Club, class representatives, and chairman of the Freshman Advisory Council, ex officio.

The Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association are branches of the national student Christian Associations. Each body aims to enrich not only the religious life of its members as individuals but also to promote religious group activity. These organizations carry on extensive activity in the fields of social service, faculty-student relations, forums, and other related projects. Membership in the Student Religious Council relates these organizations to the total religious activities program of the Duke University Church, Interdenominational.

Other organizations and activities include the following:

Bench and Bar Society (Pre-Legal Undergraduates); Class of 1950; Class of 1951; Class of 1952; Class of 1953; Classical Club (Men); Club Panamericano; Commodore Club; Debate Council (Men); Duke Masonic Club; Duke Players; Duke University Church (Interdenominational); Duke University Handbook and Directory; Duke University Steering Committee; Engineers' Club; G. O. STUDENT ACTIVITIES OFFICE

The Student Activities Offices were established for the purpose of assisting and co-ordinating the financial activities of the various student organizations in Trinity College, the College of Engineering, and the Woman's College.

The offices offer to student organizations a banking service through the office of the University Treasurer. They also provide auditing services for organizations requiring it. Permanent records of all financial activities of organizations are kept under the supervision of the offices. The Student Activities Offices, co-operating with the University Purchasing Department, also serve in the capacity of purchasing agent for affiliated student organizations. There is no charge for this service.

In addition to these specific services, the purpose of the offices is to promote well organized and effective extra-curricular interest.

Student Activities Offices for Trinity College and the College of Engineering are located on the West Campus, and for the Woman's College on the East Campus.

DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING

OPPORTUNITIES IN NURSING

Health services to the people of the United States are being expanded at a very rapid rate. Most of the states are at present engaged in studying the need for hospitals and making plans to meet these needs. Departments of Health are making surveys as to the adequacy of their programs and how these programs may be integrated with the programs of hospitals to meet the needs of the population for medical care. These expanding activities call for more personnel with professional preparation.

The professional nurse must recognize physical symptoms of illness which are commonly identified with organic changes. She must also recognize those heretofore less considered manifestations of illness such as anxieties, conflicts, and frustrations, which have a direct influence on organic changes and are now thought to be the result of an incompatible interaction between a person and his environment.

Nurses in their longer contacts with individuals have more opportunities to observe behavior and to listen to expression of thought under varying conditions than do physicians whose contacts are necessarily intermittent and brief. For this reason the nurse must be able to direct her actions and her verbal expressions on the basis of a sound understanding of human behavior and human relationships. She must be able to assess the health needs of the family and community as well as the individual.

The first preparation needed for meeting the requirements in the field of nursing is secured in a school of nursing. For well qualified candidates this school should be a collegiate school offering a program which will give a good basic understanding of the principle and practices of the art of nursing. After graduation from the school of nursing the student may wish preparation needed for the work of a head nurse, supervisor or other administrative position in a hospital or public health organization.

To give the applicant for admission to a school of nursing information as to the admission requirements, programs, fees and living arrangements for preparation in nursing, we offer this bulletin describing the following programs.

1. Programs for basic preparation in professional nursing at the Duke University School of Nursing leading to a diploma in nursing and admission with advanced standing to a degree program. (Pages 20-22.)
2. Programs for preparing head nurses, supervisors and administrators for schools of nursing and nursing services in hospitals and other health organizations as planned in the Division of Nursing Education, Duke University, Durham, N. C. (Pages 30-37.)
3. Programs for preparing nurses for public health nursing as planned by the School of Public Health, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C. (Pages 38-40.)

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING

GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Nursing of Duke University was established in 1931 in association with the School of Medicine of the University and Duke Hospital through the gift of the late James B. Duke. The administrator of the School of Nursing is a member of the Executive Committee of the Medical School, Nursing School and Duke Hospital which promotes the common interests of the three organizations.

The central aim of the educational program is to select young women with aptitudes, interests and personal characteristics needed in nursing, and to provide an educational program enabling them to develop skills, knowledge and attitudes needed for professional nursing service in the community and for maximum personal development.

This program is designed to prepare nurses for:

1. General duty in hospitals.
2. Private duty in hospitals and homes.
3. First level positions under supervision in public health nursing agencies.

FACILITIES FOR INSTRUCTION

The facilities for instruction include the facilities for instruction available in the undergraduate, professional and graduate schools and colleges of Duke University and the clinical facilities of Duke Hospital.

CLINICAL FACILITIES

Duke Hospital has every modern convenience for the diagnosis, proper nursing care, welfare and comfort of the patients including 604 hospital beds, a large public out-patient department, a large private diagnostic clinic and offices and examining rooms for the doctors who serve on the staff of the hospital. There are very close relationships established between the hospital and the Health Departments in North Carolina. A system for referral of patients to the nursing service of the Health Departments has been established between the supervisors of the nursing service in the hospital and the nursing service of the Health Department.

The beds in Duke Hospital are assigned to the various services as follows: Medicine, including dermatology and neurology, has 75 ward beds; surgery, including urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, and orthopaedics, 148 ward beds; obstetrics, including gynecology, 56, and 50 bassinets; neuropsychiatry, 27; and pediatrics, 40. There are 222 private and semi-private rooms, 7 air-conditioned operating rooms, and 4 obstetric delivery rooms. Except for emergencies, all patients are admitted to the hospital from either the out-patient clinic or the private diagnostic clinic.

The hospital has been approved for internships and residencies by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association.

The out-patient department has an average of 353 visits per day. All services including psychiatry carry on an active program in the out-patient departments. Students are assigned to the out-patient department for at least four weeks during their program in the School of Nursing. The first assignment is in the first year, to give the student some knowledge of the background of her patients; subsequent assignments are made concurrent with the experience on each service.

LIBRARIES

The reference library of 2,298 books and periodicals of special interest to students majoring in nursing is located in Baker House. Students may use the general libraries on the East and West Campuses and the Duke Hospital Library. A collection of visual aids including films is being assembled with an index in the library for the use of students and instructors in the School of Nursing.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Applications for admission to the School of Nursing should be made to the Committee on Admissions of the School of Nursing, Box 3714 Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C. Application forms will be sent on request.

ADMISSION

Since the profession of nursing requires women with a high sense of integrity and responsibility, with culture and intelligence whose predominant interest is service, the Admissions Committee will select the applicants who, in its opinion, seem best qualified for nursing. The Admissions Committee must have on file the records indicating the fulfillment of the following requirements before considering an applicant.

1. Graduation from high school with sixteen units of credit as indicated.
2. One year of college with the semester hours of credit as indicated.
3. Aptitude and achievement tests.
4. Three recommendations.
5. Interviews.
6. Physical and dental examination.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

I. An applicant for admission to the School of Nursing must present at least sixteen acceptable units of secondary school credit. A unit of credit is allowed for a course of study pursued throughout an academic year at an accredited secondary school, if the course has been completed satisfactorily.

1. Twelve units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics, and natural science; and must include:
 - (a) English—3 units.
 - (b) Algebra—1 unit.
 - (c) Plane geometry—1 unit.
2. Four units may be in the subjects listed above or from those in the following table. The units indicate the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject:

Subject	Units	Subject	Units
Agriculture	2	Mechanical Drawing	2
Art	1	Music	1
Commercial Subjects	3	Physical Geography	1
Economics	1	Sociology	1
Household Economics	2	Woodworking, Machine Work	2

Other units offered in subjects not included in this list will be considered for acceptance on the basis of full statements transmitted with the applicant's record from the school recommending her.

If students make satisfactory scores on a scholastic aptitude test, the above requirements will not be rigidly adhered to by the School of Nursing.

II. One year of college work is required for admission to the Duke University School of Nursing. This work may be taken at any accredited college or university and should include the following courses:

	S.H.
English	6
Chemistry	8
Zoology or Biology	4
History, Economics or Political Science	6
Electives (Foreign Language, Literature, Mathematics, Religion, History, Appreciation of Art or Music and Physical Education)	8

Students who wish to complete requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts after graduation from the School of Nursing should take six credits of foreign language during the Freshman year. Those who submit two or more units of one language in high school are advised to continue with that language in college. If the college will not allow two sciences in the first year, the one not taken in high school should be selected.

III. Satisfactory scores on a battery of aptitude and achievement tests.

IV. Three recommendations, two of which must come from recent high school or college instructors.

V. Interviews with two members of the Duke University School of Nursing faculty, whenever possible.

VI. Records of recent physical and dental examination.

A physical examination at Duke Hospital is required for final acceptance into the School of Nursing. This examination includes a chest x-ray and a tuberculin test.

Students who attend college more than one year before entering the School of Nursing are advised to take the following courses:

	S.H.
Literature	6
Psychology	3-6
Sociology	3-6
Religion, Ethics or Philosophy	6
Language (second year of same language taken in first year)	6
Electives (Physical Education)	2-8

FEES AND EXPENSES

Tuition	$100.00	$100.00	$100.00
Books (Estimated)	40.00	10.00	10.00
Pre-entrance tests	5.00
Activities	15.00	15.00	15.00
Graduation			3.00
Diploma			5.00
Degree			5.00
Cap and Gown Rental			1.25
Room Key Deposit	1.00
Uniforms	84.20
	$245.20	$125.00	$139.25

The fee for pre-entrance tests and health examination is payable at time testing is done. Checks should be made payable to Duke University.

No student is permitted to attend classes until she has complied with all regulations concerning registration and payment of bills for the term.

Arrangements for purchase of uniforms are made with the uniform company late in September. At that time, $68.70 of the cost of the uniforms is paid.

A fee for public health nursing will be added in the Senior year when arrangements for the experience are completed.

Duke Hospital provides board, room and laundry for students in the School of Nursing. The rooms in the residence are fully equipped. Twenty-five dollars of the tuition fee is payable upon receipt of the acceptance letter, the balance is due upon admission.

Fees for courses which require registration in the Woman's College are charged upon the basis of hours of credit.

LOAN FUND AND SCHOLARSHIP

Through the generosity of the Kellogg Foundation, loan funds sufficient to cover tuition costs are available to students who demonstrate a real need and who are qualified. There are also a limited number of tuition scholarships for exceptionally qualified students.

Residents of North Carolina and others upon recommendation may secure loans from the Medical Care Commission of North Carolina. The conditions under which these loans are granted will be supplied upon inquiry addressed to the Dean of the School of Nursing.

RESIDENCES

Students are housed in the fireproof residences located near the hospital. Rooms are adequately equipped with blankets and linen, making further provision by the student unnecessary. Life in the dormitories is under the regulations established by the Student Government Association with advice from the faculty.

HEALTH REGULATIONS AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The School has general supervision of the student's health. All physical defects, such as defective vision, dental needs, etc., must be corrected before admission to the School. The student must have been immunized against typhoid fever and vaccinated against smallpox during the current year. All students are required to pass a physical examination before admission to the School of Nursing and at intervals thereafter, a final examination being given at the end of the course. Students whose condition needs further observation may be admitted tentatively, but must cancel their application if later findings prove them physically unfit for nursing. Students about whom it is decided that tonsillectomy or other surgery was indicated before admission to the School, or students under care of a private physician for some minor complaint which does not interfere with the practice of nursing but requires hospitalization and surgery, may be asked to pay for this care by the Hospital.

Students are allowed two weeks' sick leave during the three-year course.

ACTIVITIES OFFERED

Swimming, basketball and softball are offered as student activities, in addition to social activities. First-year students are required to elect either swimming or basketball.

READMISSION

Students who are absent for more than one month on account of illness or have leave of absence may be readmitted to the same or a succeeding class at the discretion of the faculty.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Students are not expected to leave the School because of family or other personal reasons. Absence from the School is granted only in extreme cases. If a student is obliged to be away for a period exceeding four weeks, the Dean of the School of Nursing will determine the date of her return and the question of resuming her place in her original class.

DISMISSAL

The faculty of the School of Nursing may, at any time, place a student on probation or release her from the School if, in its opinion, she does not have the qualifications necessary for the profession.

THE DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

The Duke University School of Nursing Alumnae Association was formed for the purpose of rendering mutual help and improvement in professional work, and for the promotion of good fellowship among the graduates of the School.

The Alumnae Association co-operates with the North Carolina State Nurses' Association and the American Nurses' Association in working for the professional and educational advancement of nursing.

Alumnae Notes, a quarterly news publication, furnishes items of interest to the members of the Association.

SANTA FILOMENA

Santa Filomena, Senior Honorary of the Duke University School of Nursing, was organized in April, 1944, under the sponsorship of the 1943 class. The purpose of this organization is to recognize achievement and promote leadership.

The members are chosen from the rising Senior Class and are publicly tapped by the old members at the first meeting of the SGA in their Senior year, the number chosen not exceeding nine or being less than five. Each candidate must show recognized qualities of leadership or must have made some contribution toward the betterment of the School of Nursing. She must have demonstrated superior nursing abilities and her scholastic record must be eighty or above throughout her first two years.

Santa Filomena strives for better interclass relations, and to promote better nursing and higher nursing standards. The specific objectives are chosen by the members each year. All proceedings of the meetings of this organization are held in secrecy as are all ceremonies except the public tapping of the new members. The Santa Filomena's flower is the white lily and the members wear a small gold Florence Nightingale lamp

AWARDS TO NURSESBAGBY AWARD IN PEDIATRICS

The Bagby Award in Pediatrics (a subscription to the American Journal of Nursing) is given at graduation to the best Duke student nurse in pediatrics.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE PLAQUE

The Florence Nightingale plaque is awarded to a graduating student by the Alumnae Association for leadership, scholarship and nursing skill.

THE MOSELEY AWARD

The Moseley Award of $25.00 is given to the student in the senior class who has shown the most skill in Nursing Arts throughout her program in the School of Nursing.

PROGRAM OF THE SCHOOL OF NURSING

The program of the School of Nursing covers a period of three calendar years with one month of vacation each year. At the completion of this program, the student receives the diploma in nursing and is then eligible for the examinations given by the North Carolina State Board of Nurse Examiners. The School is fully approved by the North Carolina Joint Committee on Standardization.

COMBINED ACADEMIC-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS IN NURSING

Students who have been graduated from the Duke University School of Nursing with an average grade of "C" or better may, upon recommendation by the Dean of the School of Nursing, apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University. If accepted she may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science from Duke University by fulfilling the requirements for the degree of choice. Forty semester hours of credit toward these degrees are given for the three-year nursing program or toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education for those showing ability in teaching. See pages 30-31.

The program of studies leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts is as follows:

1. Minimum requirement of the Undergraduate College of Arts and Science:

	S.H.
English 1-2	6
Natural Science	8
Language (completion of the third college year)	6-18
Religion	6
History, Economics or Political Science	6
	32-44
2. Basic nursing program	40
3. At least twelve semester hours in one department other than nursing in courses not primarily open to Freshmen	12
4. Electives	24-36

In addition to twelve semester hours in one department, the program must include 24 semester hours in courses numbered 100 or above.

A total of 124 semester hours credit and 124 quality points is required for graduation.

Students who have been graduated from the Duke University School of Nursing may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science by fulfilling all requirements for that degree. Forty semester hours of credit toward this degree are given for the three-year program in the School of Nursing. The requirements for this degree may be found in the bulletin of the undergraduate colleges.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING IN THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Students from the School of Nursing who are admitted to the Woman's College may receive credit for college courses taken prior to their admission to the School of Nursing provided they meet the requirements listed below.

A student enrolling for the Bachelor's degree, who transfers from a junior college or from a four-year college not affiliated with the Southern Association or a similar regional association, is under all circumstances required to continue, for at least one semester in the Woman's College, the foreign language she presents for minimum graduation requirements. Note: No foreign language is required for the B.S. in Nursing Education.

Credit for courses in science offered for advanced standing by a student transferring from a junior college or from a four-year college not affiliated with the Southern Association or a similar regional association will be determined by the departments concerned.

Transfer credits are tentatively evaluated pending the completion of two semesters work in residence. To validate provisional credits the student must earn at least an average of "C" in a normal load of work. Transfer grades of "C" or above are rated at one quality point per credit hour when validated.

The maximum amount of credit acceptable from a junior college is sixty semester hours, exclusive of physical education. No credit is given for work completed by correspondence, and not more than six semester hours credit is allowed for extension courses. Any extension work accepted must be specifically approved by the Dean of the College.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Anatomy and Physiology.—Through the learning experiences in this course, the student gains an understanding and appreciation of the way body structure and body functions serve to maintain and promote health. These understandings and appreciations enable the student to practice and teach good hygiene effectively and to comprehend anatomical and physiological pathology intelligently.

DR. MARKEE, DR. SAWYER, MISS SMITH

Physiological Chemistry.—This course is designed to aid the student in understanding the relationships between chemistry and health and between chemistry and disease. The student also requires knowledge concerning the chemical basis of medical diagnosis and therapy.

DR. TAYLOR

Microbiology.—From the learning experiences included in this course the student is enabled to understand and appreciate her role in the prevention of microbial disease.

DR. CONANT

Nutrition and Cookery.—This course has been planned that the student may gain specific information relative to normal nutrition. The methods of supplying foods conforming to nutritional needs of both the nurse and the patient are given for varying income levels. The actual care and preparation of foods and the planning of a daily food intake according to nutritional needs of both the nurse and the patient are given for varying income levels. The actual care and preparation of foods and the planning of a daily food intake according to nutritional standards is the content of the laboratory periods.

MISS YEARICK

Social Psychology.—Through a study of the role of social and cultural patterns in their interaction with the individual personality and through an understanding of behavior development and personality adjustment, it is hoped that the student may advance toward maximum personal, social and professional maturity. By exploration of social patterns she learns something of the structure of contemporary society. Through a study of the techniques used in understanding and getting along with others, the student becomes better able to use these techniques in her own contacts with people.

MISS JEFFERS; SPECIAL LECTURERS

Community Health.—Discussion of the evaluation of the public health movement to its attack on present major health problems of the community, including environmental sanitation. The student gains some acquaintance with agencies and community facilities and is introduced to the use of statistics.

MISS MASSEY

Child Growth and Development.—Discussion of the child, his physical, mental, emotional and social growth and development. Includes observation in Child Guidance Conferences.

DR. HOHMAN

Social Foundations of Nursing.—This course is designed to help the student consider the opportunities open to her, her special aptitudes and abilities, her responsibilities, the fields of work for which she presents potentially the best qualifications and how to get started in a professional career. She is helped to see the place of nursing in the social and economic world of today. Emphasis is placed on the need for cooperation between all professions if satisfactory conditions for the maintenance of health and the prevention of disease are to be realized.

MISS WILSON

Foundations of Nursing Care.—This course is designed to guide the student in the acquisition of knowledges, attitudes and skills serving as a foundation for all nursing care. Includes history of nursing, problem solving in relation to giving of medications and basic nursing procedures. Scientific principles are emphasized to clarify methods of carrying out nursing procedures.
MISS CRAWLEY, MISS BASON, MRS. BROCK, MRS. ANDERSON

Medical and Surgical Nursing I.—A discussion of the prevention and treatment of medical and surgical conditions as related to the nervous, cardio vascular, respiratory and digestive systems. Emphasis is placed on measures that can be used to limit pathology so that the functioning of the patient is improved. Includes medical, nursing, pharmacological, dietary, social, economic and physiological aspects of the prevention and cure of these diseases and the rehabilitation of the patient.
INSTRUCTOR TO BE ANNOUNCED

Medical and Surgical Nursing II.—This course is the same as Medical and Surgical Nursing I except that the patients discussed are those with diseases related to the excretory, skeletal muscular, integumentary and female reproductive systems. Also included is a unit on the prevention and treatment of communicable disease.
INSTRUCTOR TO BE ANNOUNCED

Obstetrical Nursing.—A discussion of the physiologist and pathologist aspects of pregnancy, labor and the puerperium and of the immediate care of the newborn.
MRS. RIDER

Pediatric Nursing.—Discussion of the prevention and treatment of diseases commonly found in infancy and childhood.
MRS. LAVIN

Psychiatric Nursing.—Discussion of the principles of psychiatric nursing and the nurses' responsibility in a positive mental health program.
MRS. FLEMING, DR. GOLDSMITH

Public Health Nursing.—Discussion of the development, principles and functions of public health nursing considered as a community health service related to other community health and welfare programs. Special consideration is given to public health nursing within the framework of a rural health department.

DIVISION OF NURSING EDUCATION

ADVANCED PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

A Division of Nursing Education was established in December, 1944, as an integral part of the Department of Education of Duke University. At the present time, qualified graduate nurses may work toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education, or toward the degree of Master of Education with a major in Nursing Education.

The primary objective of the degree program for graduate nurses is to prepare qualified individuals for teaching and supervisory positions in schools of nursing and in nursing service agencies. Facilities for instruction include the undergraduate colleges of Duke University, the School of Nursing, the Medical School and Duke Hospital.

I. DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING EDUCATION

Admission

A student who wishes to work toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education must apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University. To be eligible for admission as a candidate for this degree she must meet the following requirements:

1. Graduation from an approved secondary school with at least fifteen acceptable units of credit. Twelve units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics and natural science.
Three units may be in subjects listed above or in such subjects as art, commercial subjects, household economics, or music.
Students who have satisfactorily completed one or more years of college work in an approved college or university must also fulfill the requirements listed above with respect to high school credit, must present official transcripts of all work done in other institutions, and must have honorable dismissal from each institution previously attended.
2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing which provides satisfactory preparation in medical, surgical, pediatric, and obstetric nursing, as a minimum.
3. Satisfactory scores on specified tests.
4. Satisfactory ratings from three individuals, preferably former teachers and supervisors with whom the individual has had fairly recent contact.

Credit for 120 semester hours (exclusive of physical education) on which an average grade of at least "C" is made is required for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education. The work of the final year must be taken in residence at Duke University. The program of studies leading to this degree must include:

Outline of Program

1. Minimum general education requirements (may be satisfied at Duke University or at any accredited college or university).

Fifteen semester hours in one field such as chemistry, zoology, physics, psychology or sociology, or in a clinical area and related subjects is required. No freshman work may be included in these fifteen semester hours. Nurses who are interested in head nurse work or supervision in a clinical area are advised to take the following courses:

193. Ward Administration and Teaching	3
195. Personnel Work in Schools of Nursing	3
120. Problem in Nursing Care	2

5. Professional experience

One year of experience as a graduate nurse is required before the degree is granted.

II. DEGREE OF MASTER OF EDUCATION WITH A MAJOR IN NURSING EDUCATION

(Not offered in 1950-51)

Admission

A student who wishes to work toward the degree of Master of Education with a major in Nursing Education must apply for admission to the Graduate School of Duke University. To be eligible for admission as a candidate for this degree she must meet the following requirements:

- (1) Graduation from an approved college or university with an average grade of not less than "B."
- (2) Satisfactory standing on the Graduate Record Examination.
- (3) Satisfactory standing on a test of mental ability.
- (4) Ability to write acceptable English as demonstrated on a test.
- (5) Graduation from an approved school of nursing.
- (6) Satisfactory ratings from three individuals, preferably former teachers and supervisors with whom the individual has had fairly recent contact.

Candidates for the Master of Education degree must have had two years of experience including administration, supervision, or teaching in a school of nursing or nursing service organization when the degree is granted.

III. TUITION, FEES, AND OTHER EXPENSESFees Per Semester

A matriculation fee of $20.00 is paid at the time of acceptance to Woman's College.

Tuition	$175.00
General Fee (Undergraduate) including health, library and incidental fees	75.00
General Fee (Graduate School)	60.00
Laboratory Fee (amount depends upon course which is taken)

Living Arrangements

Students may make their own arrangements to live in private homes. A limited number of students can be housed in the Graduate Nurses' Residence, 2204 Erwin Road. The cost of living in this residence is as follows:

Single room (per semester)	$87.50
Double room (per semester)	67.50

Meals can be secured at a nominal rate at University cafeterias.

Employment

A limited number of nurses may be employed at Duke Hospital during the time they are taking courses at Duke University. Nurses who are working full-time (44 hours per week) may take one course each semester. Nurses who wish to reduce hours of work per week to 36, with a corresponding reduction in salary, may take two courses each semester.

For information about employment write to the Director of Nursing Service, Duke Hospital.

IV. PROGRAM IN PSYCHIATRIC NURSING

A twelve-month program in psychiatric nursing is offered to qualified graduate nurses. The primary objective of this program is to prepare individuals for head nurse positions in psychiatric units of hospitals, child guidance clinics, and related fields. Students who wish to qualify for supervisory or teaching positions in the psychiatric field are advised to complete the program which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education.

Facilities for clinical teaching and experience include the psychiatric in-patient unit, the out-patient department, the psychosomatic service of Duke Hospital, child guidance clinics, and the State Hospital in Raleigh, N. C.

Students have approximately 20 hours per week of carefully planned laboratory practice on clinical services, during which time they work closely with patients presenting a wide variety of emotional disturbances. They also have an opportunity to participate in staff conferences and clinics at Duke Hospital and at the State Hospital in Raleigh.

Approximately 30 semester hours of credit toward the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education degree may be earned during the calendar year.

A limited number of training stipends are available through the U. S. Public Health Service for those nurses who have demonstrated particular interest and aptitude in this field.

Requirements for admission are the same as for all students admitted to the program which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education.

V. CLINICAL PROGRAM IN OPERATING ROOM NURSING

A program in operating room nursing of nine months in length is offered to qualified graduate nurses who are interested in preparing for head nurse positions in an operating room.

Admission

An individual who is interested in the program in operating room nursing must apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University as a special student. To be admitted as a special student the following records are required:

1. Transcript of high school or of college record.
2. Transcript of nursing school record.
3. Satisfactory rating from a nursing service administrator or supervisor with whom the applicant has had recent contact.

In addition to the above requirements an applicant must have had a minimum of six months' experience as an operating room nurse.

Classes and Related Experience in Operating Room Nursing

The course in operating room nursing includes 60 hours of organized class work during the period of nine months and an average of 36 hours each week on duty, of which 18 hours is supervised experience. The class work includes a discussion of the facts and principles of chemistry, bacteriology, anatomy and physiology, underlying preparation for and assistance with surgical operations, both general and special. The history of anesthesia is presented, as well as present day trends and developments in the field.

In the related field work the nurse becomes acquainted with the functions of various departments of the hospital and their relationship to the operating room. She has an opportunity to prepare for and assist with various surgical operations including general surgery, chest surgery, neuro-surgery, orthopaedic surgery, urological surgery, plastic surgery and eye, ear, nose and throat surgery. She is also given an opportunity to assist with administrative and supervisory functions in the operating room, and with planning and conducting a teaching program for students and others.

Fees

Each student pays the regular University fees for courses in Nursing Education and related subjects. The fee per credit hour is $12.00 (1949-50). In addition a matriculation fee of $5.00 is paid each semester.

Living Arrangements

Students who are taking the course in operating room nursing receive full maintenance in return for service to the hospital.

Health Care

Each student is required to carry hospitalization insurance to cover the cost of hospitalization during illness.

A sick leave of seven days is given during the nine months period.

Dates of Admission

Students are admitted to the program in operating room nursing at the beginning of each semester.

* Credit toward the degree of B.S. in Nursing Education is given for these courses.

Certificate

At the completion of the nine months program in operating room nursing the student is granted a certificate.

Information

For further information about any program write to Director of the Division of Nursing Education, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina. Application for admission to the Woman's College should be made to the Committee on Admissions, College Station, Durham, North Carolina.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

84N. Social Foundations of Nursing Education.—A survey of the major social and economic trends which have influenced developments in nursing in the past, and which determine its present and future progress. The purpose of the course is to give the nurse a better understanding of the place of nursing in present day society, and the responsibility of the individual nurse toward that society. 3 s.h. MISS INGLES

101N. The Curriculum of the School of Nursing.—A discussion of the philosophical, psychological, and sociological principles which influence the nursing school curriculum, and the problems which are involved in determining the content and organization of that curriculum. 3 s.h. MISS SMITH

115-116N. Nursing Education, Principles and Practice.—A course which is designed to help prospective teachers in schools of nursing to understand students and how they learn, to plan a program of instruction which will make effective learning possible, and to evaluate the outcomes of instruction. Ninety hours of observation of teaching and thirty hours of supervised teaching in the Duke University School of Nursing are required. 8 s.h. MISS SMITH

117. Community Nursing.—The purpose of this course is to help prospective teachers, supervisors, and head nurses to see how they can utilize outpatient departments, community agencies, and other facilities in integrating social and health aspects into the various areas of the nursing school curriculum. 3 s.h. MISS MASSEY

120. Problem in Nursing Care.—Each student works on an individual nursing problem which is designed either to improve the nursing care of patients or the teaching program of the school of nursing. 2 s.h. MISS INGLES

124. Teaching of Nursing Arts.—In this course an effort is made to help teachers in schools of nursing to integrate the facts and principles of the social, biological, and medical sciences with the teaching of nursing arts. Though major emphasis is placed upon the problems which are involved in planning and teaching the first course in nursing arts, the concept of the nursing arts as an integral part of each clinical area is stressed. 3 s.h. MISS CRAWLEY

193. Ward Administration and Teaching.—This course is designed to help head nurses better to understand their functions in planning and managing a program on a hospital division which will result in improved care of patients, greater satisfaction for professional and non-professional personnel, and a more adequate teaching program for students and others. 3 s.h. MISS INGLES

195. Personnel Work in Schools of Nursing.—The primary purpose of this course is to help head nurses and supervisors to develop greater understanding of the principles of human behavior, and greater ability to apply those principles in working with patients and others on hospital divisions, and in establishing cooperative relationships with other departments of the hospital. 3 s.h. MISS SMITH

130N. Psychosomatic Nursing.—A study of the inter-relationship of mind and body in health as well as in illness. The student learns to utilize techniques of observation and interview, both in an experimental and in a therapeutic way. This course helps her to gain an understanding of emotional reactions and of inter-personal relationships which are useful to her in many areas of professional life, as well as in everyday activities. Lectures, clinics, conferences, discussions and experience with patients. 4 s.h.

MISS MOSER AND STAFF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

131-132N. Psychiatry and Psychiatric Nursing.—An advanced study, from the dynamic point of view, with special emphasis upon personality development and upon the preventive and therapeutic aspects of psychiatry and psychiatric nursing. Through patient-centered teaching the student becomes acquainted with a variety of mental and emotional disorders. She learns to plan and carry out broad nursing functions based upon a comprehension of why people behave as they do, and of how more healthy patterns may be developed. In the second semester, the management of practical situations of increasing complexity is stressed. Lectures, clinics, conferences, discussions and experience with patients. 4 s.h.

MISS MOSER AND STAFF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

133N. Seminar in Psychiatric Nursing.—This course offers an opportunity for special study of certain areas of psychiatry, psychiatric nursing and related fields, such as the behavior problems of children, projective tests, group therapy, mental hygiene clinics, and the like. These areas are chosen in terms of the students' needs and interests. Lectures, group discussions, field trips and experience with patients. 3 s.h.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

The program of study in Public Health Nursing is designed to prepare registered professional nurses to carry on the functions of public health nursing in local health departments, visiting nurse associations, or joint health agencies.

Curricula leading to a certificate or baccalaureate degree in Public Health Nursing are offered.

Requirements for Admission

General:

1. Ability to meet the regular entrance requirements of the University.
2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing offering a satisfactory theoretical and clinical experience.
3. Acquisition of the status of a registered nurse in any state.

Specific:

1. Candidates for the Certificate in Public Health Nursing:
 - (a) General requirements above.
2. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing:
 - (a) General requirements.
 - (b) Two years of prescribed academic work in an accredited university or college.
 - (c) Approval of the Committee on Admissions to the curriculum for the Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing.
3. Candidates for the Master of Public Health degree:

Graduation from an approved school of nursing and graduation with a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. The undergraduate program must have included at least eight courses in the natural sciences, and it is desirable that the student shall have had work in social science and education.

Plan of Instruction

The calendar year's curriculum in Public Health Nursing is required of all majors in this field. While there is a prescribed curriculum of study, a program will be arranged on an individual basis with consideration for the educational and experiential background of the student. The program is so arranged that students are admitted in the Fall Quarter and are expected to remain for at least three consecutive quarters. With the approval of the Department, public health nurses with experience may be admitted in the summer provided they plan to remain for a minimum of three consecutive quarters. Field work is an essential part of the program and is required for either the degree or the certificate. Exceptions may be made where a quarter of supervised field experience has been previously taken in an approved University program, or on approval of the curriculum committee.

Curriculum in Public Health Nursing

Required Courses:	Credit Hours
P.H. 101 Epidemiology	3
P.H. 111 Public Health Administration	3
P.H. 114 Mental Hygiene	2
P.H. 131 Parasitism and Human Disease	3½
P.H. 141 Public Health Nutrition	3
P.H. 190 Principles and Practices of Public Health Nursing	5
P.H. 191 Public Health Nursing Organization and Administration	5
P.H. 192 Group Work: Its Interpretive Factors	3
P.H. 193 Applied Public Health Nursing Field Practice	15
P.H. 195 The Public Health Nurse in a Maternal Health Program	3
P.H. 196 Special Fields in Public Health Nursing	5
Soc. 51 An Introduction to Sociology	5
P.H. 198 Growth and Development of the Child	3
P.H. 118 Health and Sickness in Modern Society	3

For experienced students or graduates of university schools of nursing who have had an acceptable course in any of the above, an elective may be substituted.

Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing

Because of the increasing demands of public health departments for nurses with a baccalaureate degree, it is desirable for students to enroll in the curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing.

Candidates for this degree must fulfill the following requirements:

1. Satisfactory completion of 90 quarter hours (60 semester hours) in an accredited college or university. The amount of credit not exceeding 90 quarter hours extended for work in other colleges will be determined by the Committee on Admissions.

(a) Required:

24 quarter hours in the natural sciences, selected from zoology, botany, chemistry, physics, psychology.

20 quarter hours in English.

10 quarter hours in the social sciences, selected from sociology, upper division psychology, history.

(b) Electives:

The departmental adviser will assist the student in the selection of the remaining courses (36 quarter hours) with reference to her individual needs.

2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing, with credit to be determined by the Committee on Admissions.

3. Satisfactory completion of the curriculum in Public Health Nursing in the School of Public Health at the University of North Carolina.

Tuition and Fees

The tuition is $100.00 a quarter. This includes the following University charges for each quarter:

Matriculation	$21.00
Student Activities	3.85
Special Library Fee	3.00
Woman's Association (women students only)	1.00

The laboratory fee for the field quarter in Public Health Education and Public Health Nursing is $300.00 in addition to the $100.00 tuition.

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH

The course leading to the degree of Master of Science in Public Health is designed to provide a broad training in the basic health sciences and is intended to prepare students for professional careers in several vital fields of public health.

Requirements for Admission: For admission to the program of study leading to this degree students in nursing must satisfy with an acceptable record the following requirement:

1. Graduation from an approved school of nursing and graduation with a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. The undergraduate program must have included at least eight courses in the natural sciences, and it is desirable that the student shall have had work in social science and education.

Requirements for the Degree: The following are the principal requirements for the degree:

1. A period of residence of at least one academic year at the University. For nurses and health educators an additional period of three months devoted to field training under the supervision of the University is required. For other personnel the field training is at present optional.
2. The completion with high grades of an approved program of courses which includes public health administration, epidemiology, sanitation, bacteriology, and statistics. The course program shall involve credits of not less than 45 quarter-hours nor more than 60 quarter-hours.
3. A final written comprehensive examination in the field of the student's major interest, and a comprehensive oral examination on the entire program of study.

Candidates for this degree must complete all the requirements within six years from the time of their first matriculation in the program. Students completing their program over a period of years will be required to satisfy all requirements for the degree which are in effect in the final year of their work.

FOREWORD

This bulletin is issued for prospective medical students. Admissions into any class are made only on the understanding that every decision of the Executive Committee shall apply to all students, even though it is made subsequently to their enrollment in the School. At frequent intervals the Executive Committee reviews the records of all students, and those whose progress has been unsatisfactory may be required to leave the School. ONLY THOSE WILL BE ADVANCED WHO, IN THE OPINION OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, GIVE PROMISE OF BEING A CREDIT TO THEMSELVES AND TO THE SCHOOL. The next first-year class will be admitted October 2, 1950. For admission requirements and applications, see page 9.

GENERAL STATEMENT

Duke University School of Medicine and Duke Hospital were established in 1930, through the munificent gift of the late James B. Duke. The School of Medicine has been planned to insure the greatest correlation between the various departments. These facilities are available also for students who are studying for degrees other than that of Doctor of Medicine. The School of Medicine has been approved as Class A by the American Medical Association and is also a member of the Association of the American Medical Colleges. On October 3, 1949, two hundred and eighty-three students were enrolled.

AIMS OF THE SCHOOL

Duke University School of Medicine, from its beginning in 1930, has maintained as its major objectives: (a) the cultivation and teaching of medicine on a strictly scientific basis; (b) the correlation of medical research with medical teaching at all levels of its teaching, and (c) the continuous search for and experimentation with new or improved methods of teaching scientific medicine. In order to attain these objectives, the School has been organized, its physical plant planned, and its administrative structure constituted so that there exists the closest possible academic and physical relationship between undergraduate and graduate work in the University and the School of Medicine, and also between the basic medical sciences and the clinical sciences within the School and its integrated teaching Hospital. The professional staff of the School is composed of two general categories, those with permanent appointment and unlimited tenure, and those with temporary appointment. The latter, the much larger group, is maintained on a highly fluid basis, which makes possible a high degree of selectivity in appointment for academic training and scientific research. The smaller group of permanent appointees has in every individual a background characterized by academic and scientific attainment. The professional, academic, and scientific environment created by the staff is thus such as to engender scientific inquiry and to encourage diligent pursuit of the medical sciences in all their relationships. The staff at all levels devotes its entire professional time to the activities of the School or Hospital.

FACILITIES OF THE HOSPITAL

Duke Hospital, an integral part of Duke University School of Medicine, has every modern convenience for the diagnosis, proper care, welfare and comfort of the patients, both private and charity, white and colored, whether they come from Durham or from a distance. It has 579 beds, including 30 bassinets for newborn infants, and 20 premature nursery bassinets. Medicine, including dermatology and neurology, has 77 ward beds; surgery, including urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, and orthopaedics, 135 ward beds; obstetrics, including gynecology, 59, and 50 bassinets; neuropsychiatry, 9; and pediatrics, 40. There are 209 private rooms and semiprivate cubicles, 7 air-conditioned operating rooms, 4 obstetric delivery rooms, and ward and student laboratories. Offices and examining rooms for members of the Medical Faculty are located in the Hospital. The Hospital has been approved for internships and residencies by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association, and the American College of Surgeons.

Duke Hospital and its Out-Patient Clinic were opened for patients on July 21, 1930. Through December 31, 1949, 377,865 individuals have been examined, diagnosed, and treated. The average daily census of hospital patients during the past year was 454; 104,408 visits were made to the Out-Patient Clinic during the same period. Twenty-one per cent of the patients come from within a radius of twenty miles, the remaining 79 per cent come from the other 99 counties in North Carolina and from 36 other states and 3 foreign countries. The average distance traveled by the patients is more than seventy miles.

The Private Diagnostic Clinic was organized to co-ordinate the diagnostic studies, and to give better care to the complicated problems arising in the examinations of private patients. The Clinical Staff of Duke Hospital and School of Medicine forms the professional staff of this clinic, while the financial side is handled by a business manager. The offices and examining rooms are in Duke Hospital, and all the laboratory and diagnostic facilities of the Hospital and School of Medicine are utilized by the Clinic.

"To study the phenomena of disease without books is to sail an uncharted sea, while to study books without patients is not to go to sea at all."—SIR WILLIAM OSLER.

In addition to the General Library of Duke University and the departmental libraries of biology, chemistry, physics, etc., which have 960,859 volumes available for medical students, Duke Hospital Library contains 49,000 volumes of American and foreign medical literature and subscribes to 570 current American and foreign medical and other scientific journals. These books and journals are available daily from 8:30 A.M. to 10:30 P.M. for the students, nurses, staff, and medical profession.

CURRICULUM OF THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The curriculum, shown below, consists of two semesters in the first year and three quarters each in the second, junior and senior years. There is no summer quarter between the first and second year, but in the two clinical years the subjects of the autumn, winter and spring terms are repeated in the summer quarter. This accelerated schedule is optional,* and students may take the two semesters of their first year, and three quarters in each of their subsequent years, and receive their certificates in four calendar years, or, if they receive permission from the Curriculum Committee, they may at the end of their second year take the clinical quarters given during the summers and receive their certificates in three and one quarter calendar years.

Every effort is made to emphasize the close relationship of preclinical and clinical instruction. Members of the clinical staff assist in the teaching of preclinical subjects and demonstrate to the students of the first two years patients whose conditions illustrate the subjects being taught. Thus, from the student's first days, he is impressed with the interdependence of all branches of the medical science. In the junior and senior years, preclinical instructors assist the clinical staff in presenting the underlying basis of disease.

The free time in this curriculum may be spent in elective work or anything else the student wishes to do. No credits are given, but opportunity is provided for each student on his own initiative to obtain additional training which he may feel to be necessary or desirable. Elective courses have been organized for small groups, or the time may be utilized in independent work (including research) in any department, clinical or preclinical. Arrangements for taking such courses or doing other work are to be made through the Curriculum Committee.

It is hoped that many students will migrate to other medical schools for one or more quarters. Those who wish to do so, or to substitute a schedule different from that listed below, must have their programs approved in advance by the Curriculum Committee, and afterwards must present evidence that they have completed work comparable to that of the curriculum during the quarters in which they were away or were following an altered schedule.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN MEDICINE

After the completion of six quarters in the Duke University School of Medicine, Duke University, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, grants the degree of Bachelor of Science in Medicine to medical students who have completed creditable investigative work, prepared an acceptable report of the investigation, and passed an examination upon the subject of the investigation before an advisory committee. Students who elect to undertake work toward this degree must obtain written permission from the Executive Committee after approval of their program by the head of the department in which the work is to be done. No credit toward this degree is given for additional college work. All students in good standing are encouraged to undertake such investigative work as they may elect with the approval of the head of the department in which they wish to work. All requirements must be completed three months prior to the date on which the B.S. degree is requested.

* The clinical instruction is repeated each quarter in order to utilize all the clinical material and to have small groups of students. Consequently, students may vary the order of the seventh, eighth, and ninth quarters, and also the order of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth quarters. The above schedule merely illustrates the program of one group.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

The degree of Doctor of Medicine is conferred on those who have completed, to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee, the twelve quarters of 11-12 weeks each of the curriculum of the School of Medicine, the preclinical and clinical examinations, and have signed an agreement that they will spend at least two years of the succeeding three years in hospital or laboratory work acceptable to the Executive Committee. As a guarantee of this pledge the diploma is deposited in the Treasurer's Office until after the completion of this training. Failure to fulfill this agreement constitutes a waiver of any claim to possession of the diploma and the degree of Doctor of Medicine.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application forms may be obtained by writing to the Committee on Admission, Duke University School of Medicine, Durham, N. C. A check or post office money order for $5, payable to Duke University School of Medicine, must accompany each request for an application. This is not refundable. If further information is required after the Committee has studied the completed application, a personal interview with the Committee on Admission or a Regional Representative is arranged for the applicant. The candidate then is notified as soon as possible whether he has been accepted or declined; if accepted, he must send a deposit of $50 within two weeks to insure enrollment. This money is applied toward the tuition. The next first-year class will be admitted October 2, 1950. Applications should be submitted by December 1st, of the preceding year. Due to the large number of applicants to all medical schools, candidates are advised to apply to at least four schools. The number of students in each class is limited to 76, but only those students will be accepted who give promise of being a credit to the School and the medical profession. Women are received on the same terms as men. In the event of vacancies, students from other medical schools may be considered for admission to any quarter for which their previous training has fitted them. Each application for advanced standing will be considered upon its own merits.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

"I request that great care and discrimination be exercised in admitting as students only those whose previous record shows a character, determination and application evincing a wholesome and real ambition for life."—JAMES B. DUKE.

Intelligence and character are the essential qualifications for admission.

The minimum requirements for admission to this School include approved college credits of not less than ninety semester hours, which shall include adequate preparation in English, mathematics, physics, biology, and chemistry. This preparation should be obtained in college courses of one-year duration, except in English and chemistry. In those subjects, two years are recommended. The second year in English should be chiefly composition and theme writing. The first year of chemistry should be general (inorganic), and the second, analytic and organic chemistry.

The premedical students should be aware of the importance of a well-rounded general education as a preparation for the study of medicine and not limit himself to scientific courses. He would be better advised to secure a knowledge of the principles and a thorough appreciation of the interrelations of the basic sciences than to accumulate credits in many courses. He should learn how to work independently, to observe critically, and to analyze, rather than simply store, the information presented. His choice of studies, beyond those required for admission, should be governed by his own chief interests and by the intellectual stimulus to be derived from the work. His major interest may be in any field, scientific or otherwise, and should provide an opportunity for the demonstration of his real ability. In general, he should avoid courses in subjects which are included in the medical curriculum.

The selection of students is based upon the quality rather than the quantity of preparation and upon demonstrated evidence of personal attributes of intelligence, character, and general fitness for the study and practice of medicine. In considering an applicant many sources of information may be consulted including (1) his curricular and extracurricular college record, (2) carefully prepared, confidential appraisals by teachers who know him personally, (3) his percentile rating on the Medical College Admission Test,* and (4) the results of an interview with members of the Admission Committee or one of its Regional Representatives.

FEES AND EXPENSES

All fees for each quarter are due and payable at the beginning of each quarter, and no student will be admitted to classes until these fees have been paid at the University Treasurer's Office. A fine of $5.00 is charged for late registration. No credit will be given for any quarter in which the tuition of $250 has not been paid at the Treasurer's Office, whether the work has been done here or elsewhere, except that students who have been permitted by the Curriculum Committee to spend a quarter at another medical school or hospital may subtract the amount of tuition paid at this other medical school or hospital from the $250 due here for that quarter.

It is not advisable for a student to attempt outside work to defray his expenses; the results usually are disastrous to his health and academic standing.

Fees and Expenses

Tuition, per quarter	$250
General Fee, per quarter, including Health, Commencement, and Diploma Fees	7.50

ANGIER B. DUKE MEMORIAL AND OTHER LOAN FUNDS

The Angier B. Duke Memorial, Incorporated, administers through an advisory committee of the officers of the University a loan fund for students. In addition, the loan fund of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation is available for students who are not financially able to meet their expenses. Medical students, after their third quarter, may apply for loans from these sources. No scholarships are awarded in the School of Medicine. The loan funds are administered in accordance with the following regulations:

1. No loan will be made to a student who violates any of the regulations of the University or who is not doing outstanding classwork.
2. Loans will be made only to students who are taking full courses

* Rooms may be reserved by medical students in Few Quadrangle. These rooms are provided with furniture, heat, electric light, and care of rooms; each student furnishes his own blankets, sheets, pillow-slips, towels, and pillows. Applications for rooms, accompanied by a reservation fee of $25, should be made by writing to Mr. W. E. Whitford, Duke University, Durham, N. C.

of study that lead to a degree, and all loans must be arranged not later than one week after the beginning of a quarter.

3. Every applicant for a loan must present with the application such security as the President of the University may approve, and no money will be advanced before a note with approved security is in the hands of the Treasurer of the University.

MEDICAL CARE

ELBERT L. PERSONS, A.B., M.D., Physician in Charge.

With the exceptions noted below, full medical and surgical care is furnished to all regularly matriculated medical students of the University who have paid the quarterly General Fee. This service is under the direction of the Physician in Charge with the co-operation of the Staff of Duke Hospital. It includes hospitalization (limited to thirty days), medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, x-ray studies, and ward but not special nursing. A charge for board is made at the same rate as in the University dining halls. Refraction of eyes and treatment of teeth and of all chronic and pre-existing conditions, such as diseased tonsils, hernia, elective surgery, chronic skin conditions, endocrine disturbances, etc., or accidents or illnesses occurring during vacations or while off the campus, are not included in this service. The cost of any necessary braces and orthopaedic appliances, as well as of special nursing, must be borne by the patient.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The members of the student body elect an Honor Council, in which each class is represented. It is the duty of the Honor Council to hear all cases involving breaches of conduct on the part of members of the student body. All new students entering the School are required to comply with this system of government.

MEDICAL MILITARY SCIENCE AND TACTICS

The course consists of instruction in military medicine and military science and tactics. The student receives compensation during the last two years and while at a required summer encampment. Those completing the program will be offered reserve commissions in the Army Medical Corps or the Air Force Medical Corps and will be given priority in the selection of interns for military hospitals. Details of the program, eligibility, compensation, etc., may be obtained by addressing the PMS&T, Duke University School of Medicine.

FREDERIC M. HANES FELLOWSHIPS

Starting July 1, 1947, any Duke medical student after his first year is eligible for a leave of absence and a Fellowship of $125 per month for full-time research work at Duke with special emphasis in a pre-clinical subject. These Fellowships will be granted on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, for a period of six months, but may be renewed. Information may be obtained from Dr. D. T. Smith.

AWARDS TO MEDICAL STUDENTS AND INTERNS

(Additional information may be obtained from the Dean's Office.)

BORDEN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD IN MEDICINE

An award of $500 may be given to the Duke Senior who, in the opinion of the Executive Committee, has performed the best research work during his or her entire medical course, including that done during the pre-clinical years, and theses for the B.S. degree in Medicine. Applicants should submit their papers, articles or reprints to the Dean at least three months prior to expected date of graduation.

BAGBY AWARD IN PEDIATRICS

The best Duke Pediatric Intern is eligible for a subscription to the American Journal of the Diseases of Children.

MOSBY AWARDS

One-year subscriptions to the Journal of Pediatrics, American Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology, the American Heart Journal, Surgery, American Journal of Syphilis, Gonorrhoea, and Veneral Diseases, Journal of Allergy, Journal of Thoracic Surgery, and Journal of Laboratory and Clinical Medicine may be awarded to the best seniors in pediatrics, obstetrics, medicine, surgery, urology, allergy, thoracic surgery and clinical microscopy, respectively.

DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION

Sch. of Med., 1949; Assoc. in Anat., Duke, 1940-1946; 1940—

GEORGE JAY BAYLIN, A.B., M.D., Associate Professor of Radiology and Associate in Anatomy.

The required courses of instruction in gross human anatomy, histology, and neurology are scheduled for five and one-half days a week for a period of eighteen weeks during the first semester of the first year. Emphasis is placed upon the study of material in the laboratory. In an attempt to utilize more fully the laboratory time, visual educational methods are employed as fully as possible. These techniques consist of colored motion pictures of demonstration dissections, colored lantern slides, and motion pictures, both embryological and neurological. All of the instruction is designed to be as informal and as nearly individual as possible. General principles and the functional viewpoint of living anatomy are stressed in the hope that the student may be stimulated to secure a working knowledge of anatomy in the broadest sense. Whenever possible, fresh tissues and living cells are made available for examination, and clinical cases exemplifying anatomical principles are studied whenever they are available at appropriate times. Through the co-operation of the Department of Radiology, the students are given an opportunity to study portions of the living human body as revealed by the fluoroscope and roentgenograph. The following elective courses are offered:

Demonstrations in Anatomy. Using dissections already prepared, weekly demonstrations of selected regions or systems are made by the members of the group. Sixth quarter—Two hours per week by arrangement. Second-year students in groups of 10.

Review in Anatomy. During the sixth quarter, a review in anatomy will be presented by the visual education methods outlined above, covering gross and neuro-anatomy, and histology.

Special Neuro-anatomy. Laboratory work and conferences upon selected portions of the human central nervous system. Limited to 6 junior or senior students. Two hours weekly by arrangement.

Brain Modeling. Free-hand reconstruction in clay, from gross and sectioned material, of the chief tracts and nuclei of the human brain stem. By arrangement—4 to 10 students.

Experimental Neurology. An operative and laboratory study of the effect of various lesions upon the central and peripheral portions of the nervous system. 4 to 8 junior and senior students by arrangement. Prerequisite—operative surgery.

Advanced Studies in Anatomy. These may be arranged at any time under the direction of the various members of the staff.

Biochemistry

The required course in general biochemistry for first-year students is given over a period of eighteen weeks during the second semester. Two lectures, four laboratory periods, and one conference period per week are devoted first to the correlation of the fundamental facts and theories of physical and organic chemistry of proteins, fats, and carbohydrates with the chemistry of living organisms; followed by an intensive study of the chemical aspects of the processes of digestion, absorption, circulation and respiration, acid-base and salt equilibrium, intermediary and over-all metabolism. Each student carries out on himself a fairly complete metabolic balance study involving quantitative analyses of blood and urine.

Since the success of the students in this course is largely determined by the adequacy and ready availability of their premedical training, it is urged that all students review the fundamental laws, theories, and facts of chemistry before the beginning of the course. A circular outlining the topics requiring special attention is sent to all students upon admission. Additional copies of the circular may be obtained from the Dean's Office. An examination to test the state of preparation of the student is given in the beginning of the course in biochemistry.

Electives. In connection with the course given in the sixth quarter for second-year students a survey of pathological and clinical chemistry is presented. In this course are covered abnormalities of protein, fat and carbohydrate metabolism, acid-base regulation, salt and water distribution, nitrogen retention, calcium and phosphorus metabolism, blood and derived bile pigments. The discussion of these topics is based upon case histories, including the records of the Clinical Chemical Laboratory of the Hospital.

Biochemical Research. The facilities of the department, including various types of research equipment and the clinical material of the blood chemistry laboratory, are available to properly qualified students for independent or supervised investigations. Chemical investigations of problems in biochemistry or in conjunction with the clinical and pathological departments may be carried on.

Seminar in Toxicology. A round-table discussion of the homicidal, suicidal and industrial poisons, alcoholism, etc., by arrangement.

Laboratory Detection of Common Poisons. A laboratory course in the properties, detection, and identification of the common poisons. Consideration is given to the types of material to be examined, legal precautions to be taken and interpretation of the findings, by arrangement.

Chemistry of Proteins, Enzymes, and Viruses. A two-hour seminar is given weekly throughout the Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters.

Physical Biochemistry. A two-hour lecture course with demonstrations, given weekly in Autumn and Winter Quarters. Given alternately with Chemistry of Proteins, Enzymes and Viruses.

Intermediary Metabolism. A two-hour lecture course and seminar conducted during Autumn, Winter and Spring Quarters. Given alternately with Seminar in Nutrition.

Advanced Seminar in Nutrition. A two-hour lecture and seminar course in modern nutritional concepts. Given alternately with Intermediary Metabolism.

Physiology and Pharmacology

FRANK LIBMAN ENGEL, A.B., M.D., Assistant Professor of Medicine, and Associate in Physiology.

The course in medical physiology for first-year students is given over a period of eighteen weeks during the second semester. There are lectures, laboratories, and conferences each week in which are presented the general principles of human physiology and their general application to the practice of medicine. This course runs parallel to biochemistry.

The course in pharmacology is given in the first quarter of the second year. Lectures, laboratories, and conferences deal with the mode of action of drugs in terms of biochemical and physiological processes.

Physiological and Pharmacological Research: The facilities of the department include modern types of research equipment. There are special facilities for research in the field of respiration; circulation; and cellular metabolism. Properly qualified students are permitted to undertake original research in physiology and pharmacology under direction of various members of the staff.

Seminars: Seminars in special fields of physiology are offered to graduate students by various members of the staff.

H. W. CRAIG, Technical Instructor.

NANCY SCOTT, Technical Assistant.

Bacteriology, Immunology, and Mycology. The required course is given in the fourth quarter. An intensive study is made of the common bacteria, fungi, and viruses which cause disease in man. The scope of the laboratory course is reasonably wide and acquaints the student with all the methods and procedures employed in bacteriological laboratories. Most of the lecture time is devoted to the immunological and epidemiological aspects of infection. The instruction is designed to give the students a clear conception of: (1) how organisms gain entrance to the body, (2) the type of poisons which they produce, (3) the nature of immune bodies which are produced by the host, and (4) the methods of preventing the disease by active and passive immunization.

Research Bacteriology. Opportunities for original investigations are afforded a few specially qualified students.

Clinical Bacteriology. During their clinical clerkships on medicine (one quarter each for junior and senior classes), the students may perform the routine and special bacteriological work for the patients assigned to them on the teaching service, under the direction of the Department of Bacteriology and in parallel with the Biological Division of the medical clinic.

General Pathology. The course in general pathology is given during the fifth and sixth quarter of the curriculum, following completion of the prerequisite courses in anatomy, physiology, biochemistry and bacteriology. All the work of the class is done with small groups, each under the guidance of a senior instructor and his junior assistant. The histological aspects of the pathological processes are studied coincidentally with the gross anatomical and physiological alterations of the tissues, thus maintaining a unity of conception of disease. As the various pathological processes and the diseases arising from their elaboration are studied by the student groups, assignments involving reports on the study of groups of cases are made to individual students. The group work and the individual student reports are supplemented by weekly conferences involving the class as a whole and dealing with problems presented by current autopsies and with other problems of general importance. Student collaboration in post-mortem studies is required. Cases thus studied are presented by the students before the class under the direction of the staff; this takes the form of a clinical-pathological conference in which each student plays a particular role.

Elective Courses. Special courses in pathology are given to students who have completed the course in general pathology. These courses are available through special arrangement.

Clinical-Pathological Conference. A weekly clinical-pathological conference for advanced study is held on Saturdays. It is open to all persons interested, but is designed especially for the Hospital and Medical School Staff. Attendance by all the students is encouraged but is optional. Miscellaneous weekly pathological conferences dealing with current cases under treatment on the various services are held for instruction of the staffs concerned.

Student Research. Research facilities are provided for competent students. Those who show an interest in investigative work are given every encouragement and are allowed to work independently or in collaboration with the staff.

Postgraduate Instruction. The staff of the department is composed of senior nonresident and junior resident members. The junior resident staff consists of interns, assistant residents, and a resident; all of these are active teachers as well as advanced students of disease. Ample opportunity for the development of a career in the field of pathology is provided for these men.

Medicolegal Instruction. The department works in close cooperation with the local coroner's office. Special medicolegal investigations for others are undertaken from time to time. The department collaborates with other departments of the Schools of Medicine and Law in a course in legal medicine that is given in alternate years.

Introduction to Clinical Medicine and Physical Diagnosis. This course is initiated, in the fifth quarter, by introductory lectures, case discussions, and instruction in the methods of physical examination and history taking. Early in the course students begin work at the bedside in the examination of selected patients. Emphasis throughout is placed on instruction individually or in small groups. The interpretation and pathogenesis of all abnormal findings are stressed. The Departments of Neurology and Psychiatry provide training in neurological and mental examinations. This plan of teaching continues in the sixth quarter, when, in addition, instruction in the more specialized methods of examination is provided through the co-operation of the Departments of Surgery, Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Radiology.

Clinical Microscopy is given in the fifth quarter. The course includes the essentials of hematology and the examination of fresh material, such as urine, stools, spinal fluids, sputum, transudates, and exudates. The most important parasites of man are studied by the use of fresh and museum material. Second-year and senior students are given opportunities for special work and for investigation. This course is supplemented in the Junior and Senior years by Hematology Conferences, which are held weekly, and Ward Rounds, which are held three times weekly.

Cutaneous Medicine and Syphilology. Instruction consisting of lectures, seminars and study and treatment of patients in the out-patient clinics and on the wards is offered each quarter to Junior and Senior students. In addition, an elective course consisting of advanced teaching in clinical dermatology and syphilology is offered to a limited number of students.

Junior and Senior Medicine. The medical students are assigned to the medical wards as clinical clerks for one half of their time, and to the medical out-patient department where they examine patients for the other half of their time.

Instruction starts in the first year with an introductory course in psychobiology. In the second year, methods of psychiatric examination and a general presentation of the main reaction types are given. Each third-year student has a two-week clerkship on the psychiatric ward, and in the fourth year patients are worked up in the out-patient clinic for a period of three and a half weeks. A neuropsychiatric amphitheater clinic is held weekly throughout the year for third- and fourth-year students. Elective courses in neuropsychiatric methods of research, neurophysiological aspects of neuropsychiatry, psychosomatic medicine, psychoanalysis in medicine, and principles of psychotherapy are offered to fourth-year students. Students are invited to attend the staff case conferences, the monthly psychosomatic conferences and the conferences on neuropsychiatric disorders of childhood. Emphasis is placed upon the close relationship of psychiatry to other branches of medicine. Internships are available in neuropsychiatry with the expectation that they will lead to progressively greater interest in the neuropsychiatric problems encountered on all other services in the Hospital. Investigation is encouraged.

General Surgery. In the sixth quarter the students, during their course in physical diagnosis, attend clinics and demonstrations arranged to familiarize them with the techniques of examinations and diagnostic procedures used in general surgery and the surgical specialties. They also have the opportunity in this quarter to become familiar with certain basic principles in aseptic and atraumatic surgery and in isolation technique. The junior students, during their surgical quarter, attend ward rounds in surgery and the surgical specialties, act as clinical clerks on the wards and assist in the operative treatment of patients assigned to them. The surgical students in the senior year attend ward rounds in general surgery and the surgical specialties in the mornings and assist in the surgical out-patient clinics in the afternoon. Also in groups of two for the proportionate time available they are assigned to the emergency division of the out-patient clinic where they assist in the diagnosis and care of urgent conditions.

A six days' concentrated course of training in the administration of anesthetic agents is open to twenty-four medical students each school quarter. Properly qualified students observe and administer anesthesia under direct supervision of staff anesthetists.

Otolaryngological Division. An introductory course of instruction in the use of otolaryngological instruments, with a review of normal anatomy, is given to second-year students in the sixth quarter. Clinics during one quarter of alternating years are given to junior and senior students; students during their pediatric quarter work in the otolaryngological out-patient clinic as assigned. Ward rounds are held separately each week for third- and fourth-year students. Patients are assigned to junior students during the surgical quarter.

Ophthalmological Division. During the sixth quarter second-year students receive instruction in elementary ophthalmology. During the senior pediatric quarter the students work in the ophthalmological out-patient clinic as assigned, and assist in the study and treatment of eye diseases. Especial emphasis is placed on the underlying medical and surgical conditions. Each student follows throughout his time in the out-patient clinic all patients assigned to him. For those who manifest an unusual interest in this specialty, provision will be made for more advanced work. Throughout the senior surgical quarter the students attend ophthalmological ward rounds for one hour each week. During either their third or fourth academic year clinics covering the more general neuro-ophthalmological and medical problems are given.

Orthopaedic Division. In the sixth quarter an introductory course is given. During the surgical quarters the junior and senior students attend weekly ward rounds of one hour each in orthopaedics and fractures. Amphitheater clinics are held every third quarter. Students in their senior surgical quarter are assigned in rotation to the orthopaedic out-patient clinic. These students also attend orthopaedic staff rounds at 5:30 P.M. Mondays through Fridays. An elective course in the treatment of fractures, limited to three students, is offered during the junior and senior surgical quarters. An elective course in physical therapy is also offered during these quarters. Arrangements may be made for students who so desire to do research or experimental work. They may also attend the state orthopaedic clinics as held.

Urologic Division. In the sixth quarter, second-year students are given a course of lectures and practical demonstrations in urologic physical diagnosis in the normal individual student. Ward rounds on urologic patients are given every Saturday at 8:30 A.M. for third- and fourth-year students in their surgical quarter. Small groups are selected from the senior surgical group of students and assigned in rotation to the urologic out-patient clinic. During one quarter of the year, urologic clinics are given weekly for the junior and senior classes. These clinics deal with the affections of the male and female urinary tract and of the male genital tract. Clinics for urethroscopic and cystoscopic investigation and for the more technical methods of urologic diagnosis and treatment are held Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 1:30 to 5:00 P.M. and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. throughout the year. X-ray conferences on all urologic cases are held Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings from 8:30 to 9:30 and are followed by staff rounds. Three senior students may select one of these cystoscopic clinics, x-ray conferences, and staff rounds as an elective. The Urologic Journal Club meets each Monday from 4:30 to 6:30 P.M., and members of the staff review their respectively assigned journals. Interested students are welcome.

Neurosurgical Division. During all four quarters, separate weekly ward rounds are held for the junior and senior surgical groups. Emphasis in these rounds is placed upon the recognition of neurosurgical problems, followed by observation of the operative and post-operative procedures. Weekly x-ray and pathological conferences are held, and these may be attended by interested individuals.

Division of Plastic Surgery. Weekly ward rounds are given to familiarize both third- and fourth-year students with the principles and practice of plastic and oral surgery. Ward patients are assigned to the third-year surgical students and the fourth-year surgical students work up patients in the out-patient clinic. Each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon, an opportunity is afforded interested students to observe moulage and cast work, cosmetic restoration of color, the making of prosthetic appliances, etc. This work is done under the direction of Mr. Elon H. Clark, of the Department of Medical Illustration.

Division of Thoracic Surgery. During the academic year ward rounds, lectures and demonstrations are held to acquaint the third- and fourth-year students with the principles and practice of surgery of the chest. The anatomy and physiology of the respiration and circulation are reviewed and their application to thoracic surgery is stressed. X-ray diagnosis is emphasized and frequent pathology conferences are held to give the students a well-rounded knowledge of the surgical diseases of the chest.

Division of Anesthesiology. Junior students, during their surgical quarter, are given a series of eleven lectures by the medical anesthesiologists. Following a brief history of anesthetic drugs, the response of the body to such drugs is discussed. The physiological basis of the reactions encountered in the operating room is stressed and the rationale for choice of agents for various patients is presented. A six days' concentrated course of training in the administration of anesthetic agents is open to twenty-four senior medical students each school quarter. These students observe and administer anesthetics under the supervision of staff anesthetists, see page 59.

Dentistry. Second-year students, in the sixth quarter, are instructed in the principles of dentistry.

The student teaching schedule in roentgenology consists of a course in roentgen diagnosis and a course in therapeutic radiology. The first is offered during each scholastic quarter on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. The fundamental physics of x-ray is discussed, with the chief emphasis being placed upon the anatomical, pathological and physiological bases for the interpretation of x-ray films. The course is conducted in seminar fashion and no formal lectures are given. The students participate in and lead discussions with the instructor serving as the moderator. An attempt is made to acquaint the student with the aids of roentgenology in diagnostic problems. The correct use of x-rays in diagnosis is stressed.

Therapeutic radiology is given one hour weekly during each quarter. At these sessions the general problem of the treatment of benign, inflammatory and malignant lesions by x-ray and radium is discussed and the accepted views of the combination of these therapeutic agents with surgery is stressed. Representative cases are demonstrated, and the follow-up results are particularly stressed.

A limited number of senior students are permitted to attend routine film reading sessions in the Department of Radiology. They are also instructed in the fundamentals of fluoroscopic examinations and shown the many pitfalls of the inexperienced fluoroscopist.

A number of conferences with the resident house staff are conducted throughout the year. Each alternate Monday from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. a session with the ear, nose and throat staff is held, during which the roentgen and operative findings are correlated. Each Thursday from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. a pediatric conference is held at which current cases are discussed and clinical and x-ray findings are given. On alternate Wednesdays from 5:00 to 6:00 P.M. conferences are held with the surgical and medical house staffs and all cases with significant x-rays are presented for general discussion. The neurosurgical staff meets with members of the x-ray department every other Tuesday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:00 P.M. for a discussion of all cases that have been studied by the two departments.

Each Thursday afternoon the conference is held by the members of the x-ray staff and visiting radiologists. Difficult cases are brought up for discussion and diagnosis.

Second-year students receive seventeen hours of instruction in the fundamentals of obstetrics and gynecology during their course in physical diagnosis in the sixth quarter. Clinics and demonstrations for junior and senior students are held on Saturdays at 10:30 A.M. during the Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters and on Mondays at 11:30 A.M. in the Summer Quarter. During one quarter of the junior year each group of students attends ward rounds at 8:30 A.M. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays; preoperative conferences at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesdays and Fridays; and the out-patient clinic at 1:30 P.M. five times weekly, for nine weeks. They also attend an endocrine clinic once a week for nine weeks during the junior year. The students also spend part of each day on the wards. Senior students, during their surgical quarter, have ward rounds on obstetrics and gynecology on Saturdays at 8:30 A.M.

Elective courses in the diagnosis and treatment of obstetric and gynecological conditions are offered for junior and senior students.

Junior and senior students, during their medical quarters, have pediatric ward rounds on Saturdays, from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. These junior students receive instruction in introductory pediatrics and the physical diagnosis of infants and children. The senior students are divided into three groups, each of which spends one quarter in pediatrics. During this quarter they are assigned daily as clinical clerks on the children's ward, nursery, and pediatric out-patient clinic, attend ward rounds at 8:30 A.M.
 Mondays and Fridays and 9:30 A.M. on Wednesdays; attend the staff conference at 8:30 A.M. on Wednesdays; attend child guidance clinic each Thursday at 11:00 A.M.; attend conference on pediatric roentgenology each Wednesday at 11:00 A.M.; are instructed in the practical nursing of infants by Miss Sherwood on Fridays at 9:30 A.M.; and are taught the preparation of diets for infants and children by the Professor of Dietetics.
 Each student attends infant feeding clinics on Fridays during this quarter.
 Students may attend, on voluntary basis, the special pediatric clinics—nephritis, cardiac, allergy, and convulsive disorders. Elective courses:
 Senior students may spend two weeks in general practice with Instructors in General Practice. In addition to the six pediatric internships, there are four in which six months each are spent in obstetrics and pediatrics for graduates who plan to enter general practice. Seven assistant residencies and one residency are available.

Public Health. This course consists of two three-hour periods weekly throughout the fifth quarter and is designed to acquaint the student with the general principles of environmental sanitation and the various techniques used by official and voluntary agencies in their efforts to improve health in a community. The laboratory work consists of practical exercises in such subjects as water and milk bacteriology, vital statistics, epidemiology, etc., some of the periods being reserved for field trips so that the student can observe plants in actual operation.

Medical Parasitology is a lecture and laboratory course given one morning a week in the fourth quarter. Most of the emphasis is placed on the symptomatology, diagnosis and therapy of the various helminthic and protozoal diseases in man; several periods are devoted to medical entomology.

Elementary Biostatistics. This course consists of one lecture and one two-hour laboratory period a week throughout the fourth quarter. Instruction is given in methods of tabulation and graphing of medical data and the interpretation of such data. The methods of testing for statistical significance are illustrated by problems taken from the medical literature.

Preventive Medicine. This course is given in the senior year and consists of three one-hour lectures or clinics each week throughout the autumn quarter. Emphasis is placed upon the principles of Preventive Medicine as they can be applied by the physician in private practice. By the case method of presentation, the student has the opportunity of learning how the cooperation of health and social organizations can be of assistance to the physician in his management of the individual patient.

Legal Medicine and Toxicology

J. B. BRADWAY, Professor of Law.

E. C. BRYSON, Associate Professor of Law.

W. D. FOREUS, Professor of Pathology.

D. T. SMITH, Professor of Bacteriology and Associate Professor of Medicine.

H. M. TAYLOR, Associate Professor of Biochemistry and Toxicology.

This course embraces a discussion of the relation of physicians to legal criminal procedures, jurisdiction of the coroner and medical examiner, laws governing the dead human body, personal identity of the living and the dead, the medicolegal autopsy, traumatic injuries and fractures, rape, abortion, asphyxial death, homicidal, suicidal, and industrial poisoning, alcoholism, the examination of blood, stains, fibers, and the detection of malingering. The course is open to junior and senior students and is given in alternate years. Discussions of medicolegal problems for the house staff and senior students, and joint conferences of the medical and law students also are held.

During the senior year, the students in surgery participate in the teaching sessions held by the Undergraduate Cancer Training Program staff and the senior staff. These sessions are held five days a week, and an attempt is made to cover systematically the various regions in the body in respect to the tumors which arise in them. The viewpoints of the clinician, the radiologist, and the pathologist are presented and correlated at this time. The students themselves prepare seminars on theoretical subjects which have a direct bearing on the problem of neoplasia in general. This portion of the program is repeated each quarter throughout the year.

In addition, the Undergraduate Cancer Training Program staff participates in the teaching of neoplasia to the sophomore students. This is done as a supplementary program to the students as they are being taught the principles of neoplastic disease by the Department of Pathology. New material is presented to them and here the clinicopathological approach to the problem of neoplasia has special emphasis. In this phase of the program it has not been possible to cover the entire body but selected regions are utilized.

In addition to the dietetic training of the students of the Schools of Medicine and Nursing, fourteen dietetic interns may be admitted to the School of Dietetics and given the certificate of graduate dietitian after the successful completion of one year's internship. The entrance requirements are a Bachelor's degree from an approved university or college, with majors in nutrition and institutional management, and the courses in chemistry, biology, social science, and education recommended by the American Dietetic Association. The course for dietetic interns provides instruction in all phases of hospital and institutional dietetics, including experience from the buying and storage of food to its service to the patients according to the physician's orders. Interns may apply some of their time in securing graduate credit.

The course starts the first of September. All students pay a registration fee of $10 at the time of appointment. Additional fees are charged if the intern takes additional work in the University for an advanced credit. Maintenance is provided. More detailed information and application blanks may be obtained from the Professor of Dietetics, Duke University School of Dietetics, Durham, N. C.

Hospital and Out-Patient Clinic Teaching, Resident and Intern Teaching Staff

See Departmental lists, pages 15-52.

INTERNSHIPS AND RESIDENCIES

Internships of twelve months' duration with room, board, laundry, and uniforms furnished, but without salary, are available in medicine, surgery (including general surgery, urology, orthopaedics, plastic, anesthesia, thoracic, and neuro-surgery), orthopaedics, urology, otolaryngology-ophthalmology, dentistry, obstetrics and gynecology, endocrinology, pediatrics, neuropsychiatry, and pathology commencing July first.

Application blanks for all internships may be obtained by writing to the Superintendent, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C. Graduates of any Class A medical school are eligible for internships.

After the completion of an internship in Duke Hospital or in another acceptable hospital, a certain number may be appointed as assistant residents in medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, neurology, dermatology, orthopaedics, urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, roentgenology, anesthesiology, pathology, biochemistry, or the Student Health Service or as fellows of the Private Diagnostic Clinic, at a salary of $250 to $500 per year with maintenance, and eventually may be promoted to the residency in the various departments or subdepartments of the Hospital at an annual salary of $500 to $1,000 with maintenance. Applications should be made to the head of the department concerned.

The Hospital and School of Medicine are an integral part of the Duke University campus, and its educational, recreational, and athletic facilities are available for the Resident Staff.

The present Resident Staff of one hundred nine consists of a resident, twelve assistant residents, and nine interns in medicine; a resident and two assistant residents in dermatology and syphilology; an assistant resident in neurology; five assistant residents in neuropsychiatry; a resident, five assistant residents, and thirteen interns in surgery (the five assistant residents are assigned in rotation to general surgery, plastic, thoracic, neuro-surgery, and pathology); a resident, two assistant residents, and one intern in otolaryngology and ophthalmology; a resident and one assistant resident in orthopaedics; a resident and one assistant resident in urology; a resident and one assistant resident in plastic surgery; a resident, four assistant residents, and three interns in obstetrics and gynecology; a resident and one intern in endocrinology; a resident, three assistant residents, and eight interns in pediatrics; three interns in obstetrics and pediatrics: two residents and four assistant residents in radiology; a resident, two assistant residents, and three interns in pathology; four assistant residents in anesthesiology, and eight in hospital administration.

POSTGRADUATE STUDY

Graduates in medicine are welcomed at the various clinics and demonstrations in medicine, surgery, obstetrics, and other specialties, which are held from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. each Saturday, as well as at the daily ward-rounds in the mornings and the out-patient clinics in the afternoons. They can start at any time and remain as long as they wish. Additional special work in any department for a period of not less than three months may be arranged by consultation with the head of the department concerned. A certain number of residencies also are available at Duke Hospital in medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, neurology, dermatology, orthopaedics, urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, roentgenology, pathology, and biochemistry. Further information can be obtained by writing to the Dean.

Returning veterans are requested to register on arrival at the Dean's office, Room M133, and with Miss Barbara L. Perkins, 302 Administration, who will assist them in obtaining the benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights, which will provide tuition and $75 per month for maintenance ($105 if one dependent, $120 if more than one dependent).

SCHOOL OF HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATION

Eight internships in hospital administration leading to a certificate will be available to university graduates whose character, tact, and ability for leadership are good, and whose academic standing is high. These internships are of two years' duration and pay a small salary in addition to room, board, and laundry. Vacations of two weeks are allowed during each year of internship.

The instruction is practical rather than theoretical in emphasis. The interns are rotated through six different assistant administrative positions in the Hospital. There is also a weekly seminar lasting two hours.

During these two or three years, the interns may also register in the Graduate School of Duke University, and receive the A.M. degree after the successful completion of a thesis and twenty-four semester hours of university courses in various fields. This additional work will add one year to the program. Further information may be obtained by writing to the Superintendent, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

MEDICAL SOCIAL SERVICE

JANET WIEN, A.B., Associate in Medical Social Service.

A.B., Radcliffe, 1935; M.S., Simmons, 1944; Medical Social Worker, Grace-New Haven Community Hospital, 1944-1949; Chief of Medical Social Service, Duke Hospital, 1949—

ROSELLA MORGAN McLAIN, A.B., M.S.S.W., Assistant in Medical Social Service.

MARION ISABEL PELTON, A.B., M.S., Assistant in Medical Social Service.

Medical social case-work service is offered to patients referred by personnel within the Hospital, and by interested individuals and health and welfare agencies outside of the Hospital. Assistance and advice in connection with the problems presented are available to the members of the Staff and referring agencies.

The division also assists in teaching social and environmental aspects of illness and medical care through consultations and lectures to the students of the Schools of Medicine and Nursing. In addition, it serves as an agency for supervised field work for students of the Graduate School of the University of North Carolina. Further information concerning training for advanced students may be obtained from the Social Service Division, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

Graduate Students (House Staff)

Residents and Assistant Residents in Anesthesiology

ROBERT CLIFFORD WULFMAN, M.D., Duke, 1945.

BERTRAM F. TOWNSEND, A.B. and M.D., Duke, 1941 and 1944.

ZENAS WALDO FORD, JR., B.S., University of Arkansas, 1940; M.D., Duke, 1946.

A two- to three-year residency training program in anesthesiology is available for physicians who are graduates of a Class A medical school and who have completed an internship in an accredited hospital.

Courses available to graduate nurses include an eighteen months' course for nurses who have had no experience in anesthesia, and a nine to twelve months' course for nurses with five years of practical experience who have not had formal training in the specialty. Instruction embraces the theoretical aspects and clinical application of all drugs and techniques in accepted usage. The program is divided into quarters. The major part of the basic theoretical instruction is given during the first three quarters. After a pre-clinical period of eight weeks, clinical practice runs parallel with the theoretical program. One class is accepted annually and enrolled on January 15. All appointments for the current year are made by September 1 of the preceding year. Graduates of these courses are eligible to take the examination given by the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists. Tuition is $150.00 and $100.00 respectively. Additional information concerning these programs for nurses may be obtained from Mary H. Snively, R.N., Box 3094, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

COURSE IN LABORATORY TECHNIQUE

HAYWOOD MAURICE TAYLOR, B.S., M.S., Ph.D., Associate Professor of Biochemistry and Toxicology.

DAVID TILLERSON SMITH, A.B., M.D., Professor of Bacteriology and Associate Professor of Medicine.

OSCAR CARL EDVARD HANSEN-PRÜSS, A.B., M.D., Associate Professor of Medicine in Charge of Clinical Microscopy.

RALPH WAYNE RUNDLES, A.B., Ph.D., M.D., Associate in Medicine.

MARY ALVERTA POSTON, A.M., Instructor in Bacteriology.

HOYLE W. CRAIG, Technical Instructor in Bacteriology.

PRESTON W. SMITH, Technical Instructor in Hematology.

The course in laboratory technique, which includes training in blood chemistry, clinical microscopy, bacteriology, serology, basal metabolism, etc., is approved by the Registry of Technicians of the American Society of Clinical Pathology. The course lasts eighteen months, the next class starting September 22, 1950. The registration fee is $75.00, and there are no additional charges except for breakage. The students live in town at their own expense. A minimum of two years of approved college work is required. Information as to the specific requirements may be obtained from Dr. Haywood M. Taylor, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

COURSE IN X-RAY TECHNOLOGY

ROBERT JAMES REEVES, A.B., M.D., Professor of Radiology and Chairman of the Department.

GEORGE JAY BAYLIN, A.B., M.D., Associate Professor of Radiology and Associate in Anatomy.

JOHN C. GLENN, A.B., M.D., Assistant Professor of Radiology.

JOHN B. CAHOON, JR., R.T., A.S.X.T., Technical Instructor.

HERMAN L. HASSELL, R.T., Technical Instructor.

Applicants for training in x-ray technology should satisfy one of the following requirements: A.B. or B.S. degree, or Diploma of Graduate Nurse, or special students without either of these requirements who might be appointed by the committee. The course is of twelve months' duration and the following subjects are presented: elementary anatomy and physiology, physics, x-ray equipment, dark room chemistry and procedure, x-ray technics and general office routine. Examination is given at the end of the first quarter and a grade of 75 must be made to continue the course. Two students are appointed in October and two in March each year. The tuition fee is $25. No maintenance is provided. This course is approved by the American Council of Medical Education, American Medical Association, the American College of Radiology and the American Registry of Radiological Technicians.

PHYSICAL THERAPY

LENOX D. BAKER, M.D., Chairman of Committee on Physical Therapy.

HELEN LOUISE KAISER, R.P.T., Associate in Physical Therapy, in Charge of Division of Physical Therapy.

MARY C. SINGLETON, B.S., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

DOROTHY A. BJORK, B.S., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

MARY L. DONOVAN, B.S., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

ENOLA S. FLOWERS, B.S., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

ROSEMARY E. GARRETT, B.A., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

GILLIAN F. GRIFFITH, B.S., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

EDNA M. POPLIN, B.A., R.P.T., Assistant in Physical Therapy.

A fifteen months' course in physical therapy is offered for men and women graduates of accredited schools of physical education and nursing, and for selected applicants who have completed ninety college semester hours, including credit in the biological sciences, physics, chemistry and psychology. The curriculum provides instruction in anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, pathology, psychology, electrotherapy, neuropsychiatry, therapeutic exercise and the principles of rehabilitation. Instruction in the clinical subjects is given by members of the faculty of the School of Medicine. Clinical training will be given at Duke Hospital and affiliated institutions and includes supervision of orthopaedic problems in the Durham Public Schools. The course starts in October. The tuition fee is $350 plus $35 for medical fee, and does not include maintenance. A certificate is awarded upon successful completion of the course. Eighteen hours of credit may be earned toward the baccalaureate degree. In addition to the training of physical therapy students, courses are given to the students of the Schools of Medicine and Nursing. Further information and application blanks may be obtained from the Division of Physical Therapy, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

RECORD LIBRARY

A course for the training of medical record librarians, which has been given full approval by the American Association of Medical Record Librarians and the American Medical Association, includes all details of the theory and practice of clinical record library methods. The length of the training is twelve months. The tuition fee is $175.00 and does not include maintenance. Applications may be made to the Medical Record Librarian, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

DIVISION OF MEDICAL ART AND ILLUSTRATION

ELON H. CLARK, Associate Professor of Medical Art and Illustration.

Rochester Institute of Technology, 1927-1930; Johns Hopkins School of Medical Art, 1930-1933; Instr., Medical Art, Johns Hopkins School of Medical Art, 1933-1934; Chrm., Medical Art and Illustration Div., Duke, 1934—

HENRY F. PICKETT, Instructor in Medical Art and Illustration.

GEORGE C. LYNCH, Medical Artist.

MARY M. BARDEN, Letter Artist.

RAYMOND L. HOWARD, Medical Photographer.

A. C. WEBSTER, Medical Photographer.

TED M. SCOGGINS, Assistant Medical Photographer.

The primary function of this Division is to produce visual clinical records for supplementation of case histories, visual aids for teaching, illustrations for publication, and accurate drawings of conditions in which draftsmanship, knowledge of subject and imagination are the prime requisites. Requests for this work may emanate from any of the medical or allied sciences. Other services offered are: the production of exhibits, casts, models, prosthetic appliances, tantalum plates, charts, graphs, mechanical drawings, clinical photographs (still), motion pictures, photomicrography, fundus photography, copying, lantern slides, prints in black and white and color and special problems in infra-red.

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Indenture of Trust signed on December 11, 1924, by Mr. James B. Duke, which established Duke University, mentioned first among its objects the training of ministers of the Gospel. The Divinity School was, accordingly, the first of the graduate professional schools to be organized. Its work began with the year 1926-27, the formal opening exercises being held on November 9, 1926.

The Reverend Doctor Edmund Davison Soper was the first dean of the Divinity School. He was succeeded in 1928 by the Reverend Doctor Elbert Russell, and the latter in turn in 1941 by the Reverend Doctor Paul Neff Garber. In 1944, Dean Garber was elected to the episcopacy of the Methodist Church, and Doctor Harvie Branscomb assumed the duties of the dean's office. In 1946, Dean Branscomb became Chancellor of Vanderbilt University, and in 1947 the Reverend Doctor Paul E. Root was elected dean but died before he could assume the office. The Reverend Doctor Harold A. Bosley became dean in 1947 and resigned in 1950 to become the pastor of the First Methodist Church, Evanston, Illinois.

THE PURPOSE OF THE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The primary purpose of the Divinity School is to provide training for individuals planning to enter the Christian ministry. This includes not only prospective ministers in local churches, but also those preparing themselves to be missionaries at home and abroad, directors of religious education, teachers of religion, and social workers. Vital to all of these forms of service is a full understanding of the beginnings, content, and history of the Christian faith and its special pertinence for the spiritual needs of the modern world. Studies of a broad and thorough character directed toward such an understanding constitute the center of the curriculum of the Divinity School and are regarded as the basic training for all prospective Christian workers. Specific training in the skills required of local ministers and of leaders in the work of religious education are also provided. As funds become available for the purpose and as needs appear, additional training in specialized skills and areas of knowledge will be added to the curriculum.

Though bound by ties of history and obligations to the Methodist Church, the Divinity School is multi-denominational in its interests and ecumenical in its outlook. Its faculty is limited to no one denomination, but draws upon the resources of them all. Students of the several denominations are admitted on the same basis. The Divinity School conceives its task to be one of broad service to the Church of Christ in all of its forms.

THE RELATION OF THE DIVINITY SCHOOL TO DUKE UNIVERSITY

The Divinity School is an integral unit of the University and shares fully in its activities, privileges and responsibilities. The Sunday services in the University Chapel give the Divinity School students an opportunity to hear each year a number of the leading preachers of the country. The University Libraries make easily accessible a rich collection of approximately a million volumes. Selected courses in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and in the professional schools are open to Divinity School students without payment of additional fees. The general cultural and recreational resources of the University are available to them on the same basis as other students.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

The Divinity School has its own library containing over forty-nine thousand volumes. It is rich in complete files of the more important religious journals and periodicals, in source materials, particularly for the study of American church history, missions and the history of religion, and in facsimiles of the more important manuscripts of the New Testament. Among the most treasured possessions of the Library are eleven Greek New Testament manuscripts, of which one is a magnificent manuscript of the thirteenth or fourteenth century containing the entire text of the New Testament.

The general Library of the University is connected by a corridor with the Divinity School Building. It contains over eight hundred thousand volumes and receives the current issues of several thousand periodicals. The general Library contains also a catalogue of the library of the University of North Carolina located at Chapel Hill, twelve miles away, and a system of exchange operates between the two libraries so that books may be secured from that library also within a few hours.

The Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library was endowed in 1947 by the children of the late Reverend Henry Harrison Jordan for the purpose of providing ministers in the field with the best of current religious literature. This collection was an outgrowth of the Duke Divinity School Loan Library established in 1944.

RELIGIOUS AND SOCIAL LIFE

One of the most important aspects of a program of training for religious service is the development of a warm and discriminating spiritual experience. The center of the corporate life of the Divinity School is its own place of worship, York Chapel. Regular chapel services are held at which all students are expected to be present. Services are led by members of the faculty, by visiting ministers, and by members of the student body. Ordination and other special services are held upon occasion. On each Sunday morning services are held in the University Chapel.

The student body of the Divinity School is united by a strong sense of fellowship and common interest. Student committees organize and supervise social service projects and missions of preaching, jail visitation, and related enterprises. Opportunities for occasional preaching are always available.

PUBLIC LECTURES

The Divinity School presents several public lectures annually. The lectures for 1949-50 were: Professor William Foxwell Albright of Johns Hopkins University, "Prophecy and History in Israel"; Reverend Alan Richardson, Canon of Durham Cathedral, "The Conception of Revelation in Our Modern Theology"; Professor George Florovsky of Saint Vladimir's Theological Seminary, "The Eastern Tradition in Christianity"; Dean Walter George Muelder of Boston Theological Seminary, "The Sources of Industrial Peace."

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL LIBRARY LECTURES

In 1948 the Duke Divinity School Library Lectures were established by The Reverend George Brinkmann Ehlhardt for the purpose of bringing to the campus a succession of the greatest religious leaders of the day. In 1950 this lecture was given by the Reverend Doctor John Cecil Trever, Director of the Department of the English Bible, The International Council on Religious Education. The lecture, entitled "From Ancient Scroll to Modern Bible," was given in conjunction with the exhibition of three ancient Hebrew scrolls lent by His Eminence, Mar Athanasius Yeshue Samuel, Metropolitan and Archbishop of Jerusalem and Trans-Jordan.

THE CHRISTIAN CONVOCATION

The Christian Convocation of 1950 will be held on the Duke campus from June 6-9. The Convocation, under the joint sponsorship of the Duke Divinity School, The North Carolina Pastors' School, The North Carolina Rural Church Institute, and The North Carolina Council of Churches, will bring to the campus an outstanding group of religious leaders as lecturers and teachers.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Certain special scholarship funds have been established, the income of which is available for students wishing to secure training in preparation for the Christian ministry.

These scholarships are all awarded on the basis of service performed in a local church, thus providing for the student experience as well as financial aid.

N. Edward Edgerton Fund

In 1939 Mr. N. Edward Edgerton of Raleigh, North Carolina, an alumnus of Duke University of the Class of 1921, a member of the Board of Trustees of the University and a member of the Committee on the Divinity School, established the N. Edward Edgerton Fund. The award is limited to students who are candidates for the B.D. degree.

P. Huber Hanes Scholarship

Mr. P. Huber Hanes of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, an alumnus of Duke University of the Class of 1900 and a member of the Board of Trustees, has established an annual scholarship yielding the sum of $400.00.

Elbert Russell Scholarship

In 1942 the Alumni Association of the Divinity School established a scholarship fund in honor of Elbert Russell, Dean Emeritus of the Divinity School and for a number of years Professor of Biblical Theology.

W. R. Odell Scholarship

In 1946 the Forest Hills Methodist Church, Concord, North Carolina, established a scholarship fund in memory of W. R. Odell, for many years a member of the Board of Trustees of the University.

Hersey E. Spence Scholarship

In 1948 the Steele Street Methodist Church of Sanford, North Carolina, established a scholarship fund in honor of Professor Hersey E. Spence, a former pastor of the congregation.

Jesse M. Ormond Scholarship Fund

In 1949 the North Carolina Conference established a scholarship fund in honor of Professor Jesse M. Ormond, who for many years was Director of Field Work in the Duke Divinity School and Professor of Practical Theology.

Duke Endowment Scholarships

There are available for students preparing for the Methodist ministry approximately sixty work scholarships provided by the Duke Endowment for aiding rural Methodist churches in North Carolina. Terms of these scholarships are given on page 14 of this catalogue.

ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

In addition to the endowed scholarships and those provided by the Duke Endowment, the Divinity School receives annual scholarship funds from the following churches and individuals: The Edenton Street Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C.; West Market Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C.; Myers Park Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C.; Christ Methodist Church, Charleston, W. Va.; Mr. J. C. Cowan, Jr., Greensboro, N. C. These scholarships are awarded on the same basis as the endowed scholarships.

THE METHODIST COLLEGE ADVANCE

The Divinity School was a participant in the North Carolina Methodist College Advance with askings of $200,000.00 for scholarship aid and extension of the School's service to ministers. Many local churches and individuals have shared in the raising of this significant sum. Specific contributions are the Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library and the James A. Gray Fund.

THE JAMES A. GRAY FUND

In 1947 Mr. James A. Gray of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, presented the fund which bears his name to the Divinity School for use in expanding and maintaining its educational services in behalf of North Carolina churches and pastors. From this fund four scholarships are awarded, two in city church work, and two in rural church work. The Divinity School Seminars are also supported by income from this gift. In 1950 the James A. Gray Lectures were established and the first series was given by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ Church (Methodist) of New York, during The Christian Convocation.

COURSES OF STUDY OFFERED BY THE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The Divinity School offers at present two courses of study. The basic course is that which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. This is a three-year course and is recommended to all those preparing themselves for the work of the regular pastoral ministry.

Beginning with the year 1944-45 the Divinity School offered also a course of study leading to the degree of Master of Religious Education. This course is designed for individuals who wish to become directors or to take other specialized positions in the work of religious education. The course does not provide a general preparation for the work of the regular ministry and cannot serve as a substitute for it. No exchange of credits between the two courses is permitted, nor can departmental courses taken be credited toward more than one degree. Only a limited number of candidates for the Master of Religious Education degree will be accepted annually.

The requirements for each of these degrees are stated on pages 17 through 26 in this catalogue.

COURSES OF STUDY IN RELIGION OFFERED BY THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Students who desire to pursue work in religion beyond that for the Bachelor of Divinity degree should register in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, through which the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy may be obtained. This advanced work is administered through the Department of Religion of the Graduate School and is available to qualified persons of all denominations on an equal basis. Study and research may be pursued in three fields: (1) Biblical Studies; (2) Studies in Church History; and (3) Studies in Christian Thought. A list of courses approved by the Graduate Council for work in these fields, together with general requirements for admission to the Graduate School, may be found in the Bulletin of the Graduate School. This Bulletin is available on application to Dean Paul Gross, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Duke University.

A limited number of University Scholarships and Fellowships, among which are two Gurney Harriss Kearns Fellowships of $1,000 each, may be obtained by exceptionally qualified students. Applications for these must be submitted to Dean Gross on University form blanks not later than March 15 of each year.

Inquiries concerning specific requirements of the Department of Religion in the Graduate School should be addressed to Professor H. Shelton Smith, Director of Graduate Studies in Religion.

FACILITIES FOR ADVANCED STUDY IN THE AMERICAN SCHOOLS OF ORIENTAL RESEARCH

The Divinity School of Duke University is one of the supporting members of the American Schools of Oriental Research. Accordingly, students in the Divinity School have the privilege of attending the American School in Jerusalem or the one in Bagdad without charge for tuition. They may also compete for the financial aids which are offered annually by the Schools. These consist of four fellowships, the stipends depending upon available funds.

COST, RESIDENTIAL ARRANGEMENT, AND STUDENT AID

FEES AND COSTS

The University tuition charge is $175 per semester. Scholarships covering this amount are granted to all Divinity School students. Other charges are as follows:

Fees per semester:

General Fee.....	$ 50.00
Approximate cost of meals per semester.....	175.00
Room per semester (double room).....	62.50
Total per semester.....	$287.50

The "General Fee" is in lieu of all special charges, and includes the following Fees: Matriculation, Medical, Library, Damage, Commencement and Diploma. Students may secure admission to all athletic contests held on the University grounds by payment of the Athletic Fee of $5.00 per semester, plus any Federal taxes that may be imposed.

LATE REGISTRATION

Students matriculating in either semester at a date later than that prescribed in the catalogue shall pay to the Treasurer of the University a penalty of $5.00.

DINING HALL

The dining halls in the University Union have accommodations for all resident Divinity School students. Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus and, in addition, the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

LIVING QUARTERS

Divinity School students are housed in the University dormitories along with other graduate and professional students. Application for room assignments should be addressed to the Housing Bureau, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. The cost of a single room is $87.50 per semester, or a double room $62.50 per student per semester. A reservation fee of $25 is required at the time a room is assigned. This reservation fee is deducted from the room charges at the time of registration. Students are urged to apply for rooms as early as possible. Under present circumstances delays in application are likely to result in failure to secure accommodations. Students occupying rooms in the dormitories who wish to retain their rooms for a following year must notify the Office of the Director in the Business Division by May 15.

All rooms in the dormitories are provided with heat, water, electric lights, and essential furniture. Each student furnishes his own blankets, sheets (mattresses 39" x 74"), pillows and pillow slips, towels, rugs and curtains.

The University has no apartments for married students. Students desiring such quarters should plan to arrive in Durham as early as possible before the opening of the fall semester in order to make their living arrangements. While the Divinity School Office will assist wherever it can in these matters, it cannot assume responsibility for making such arrangements.

STUDENT AID

Duke University remits its regular tuition charges to all students enrolled in the Divinity School. Scholarship aid, over and above this, is available only in the form of work scholarships. The funds for these scholarships come from the sources described on pages 9-10 of this catalogue. Those appointed to these scholarships agree to give ten weeks' service during the summer months to a church to which they are assigned. In return they receive their board and room for the period of their summer service and $600. This latter sum is made available during the academic year preceding the summer work if desired. By special arrangement a student may be assigned to a church for five weeks' work with one-half the stated remuneration.

This plan of scholarship aid has several advantages. It provides an opportunity for earning a large part of the year's expenses, while at the same time assuring the student valuable experience in religious leadership.

Students who must have additional income over and above their summer's earnings may secure part-time employment during the academic year. They are strongly urged, however, to make their arrangements, if possible, so that they will not have duties which will prevent them from taking the fullest advantage of the educational and cultural opportunities of the Divinity School.

WORK SCHOLARSHIPS

The Department of Field Work is maintained to help students receiving scholarship aid to secure work opportunities where they may render service for such aid. Their work will be supervised so that their experiences may be part of their ministerial training. Students not on scholarship are also helped to secure work opportunities for the experience to be gained. All students working under the department have their board, room, laundry, and travel expenses provided by the charge served. Certain courses are required of all students engaged in field work and are designed to prepare students for the work in which they engage. All students assigned to field work must maintain satisfactory grades and attitudes.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Each student of the Divinity School upon enrollment becomes a member of the Student Government Association. Four officers are elected by the student body annually in April to serve for the following year. These officers, the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, along with the Dean of the Divinity School or the Dean of Students, serve as the Executive Committee, and the committee chairmen constitute the Student Council which meets in monthly session to review and coordinate the programs of the several committees. It is desired that all students contribute to the corporate life of the School through active participation in the work of the committees. The Association operates on the basis of a unified budget, each student contributing to its support dues in the amount of $3.00 per semester.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The Divinity School is a fully accredited member of the American Association of Theological Schools. Candidates for admission must hold the degree of A.B., based upon four years of work beyond secondary education, in a college which is approved by one of the regional accrediting bodies, or the equivalent of such a degree, and their college records must be such as to indicate their ability to carry on graduate professional studies. They will be admitted without examination on presentation of an official transcript of college and other academic credits which they may have secured. The application of students from foreign countries will be considered, each on its own merits, the general principle being that a training equivalent to that of a baccalaureate degree from an accredited American college must have been secured. Women will be admitted on the same basis as men. The Divinity School accepts students who desire to transfer from other accredited theological schools on the basis of transcripts of their work and honorable dismissal. However, all transfer students will be expected to meet the full requirements of the Divinity School and should recognize the fact that there may be loss of time in conforming to these requirements. Credits will be formally accepted only after the student has spent one semester in the Duke Divinity School. In addition to an adequate academic preparation, applicants must satisfy the Faculty as to their Christian character and purpose. A formal application blank may be secured from the Dean of the Divinity School. This must be filled out and returned by all candidates for admission.

ADMISSION OF GRADUATES OF NON-ACCREDITED COLLEGES

1. Applicants for admission who are graduates of non-accredited colleges will be considered on their merits, but only those who give evidence of special promise will be admitted. Specifically, such applicants must show that they have attained a superior average (approximately "B") for a four-year college course.

2. Admission of such persons will, in every case, be on probation. Probation means:

a. Students who, during the first year of Divinity School work (thirty semester hours), maintain a consistently low average, including one or more failures, will be required to withdraw from the school.

b. In the case of a student admitted on probation, no credit will be granted toward either the B.D. or the M.R.E. degree for any course in which, during the first year's work (thirty semester hours), a grade of less than "S" (see catalogue section on "grading system") is recorded.

c. When the student has been admitted on probation, and is subsequently found to be deficient in the essential requisites of any given area of the "Pre-Seminary Curriculum" (see next section of catalogue), the Divinity School Faculty reserves the right to direct that the student make up such deficiencies by additional courses of study taken in other schools of Duke University in order to qualify for either the B.D. or M.R.E. degree, but without credit for such courses toward those degrees.

PRE-SEMINARY CURRICULUM

The Divinity School, in substantial agreement with the standards of the American Association of Theological Schools, recommends that prospective candidates for admission keep in mind the desirability of including the following in their undergraduate curriculum:

(A student lacking the essential requisites in any given area may be directed to make up the deficiencies by additional courses of study in order to qualify as a candidate for a Divinity School degree.)

It is suggested that a student should acquire a total of 90 semester hours or complete approximately three-fourths of his college work in the areas listed below. No work done towards a first college degree may be used toward a Divinity School degree.

Basal Fields	Semester	Sem. Hours
English	6	12-16

CONCENTRATION

Concentration of work, or "majoring," is a common practice in colleges. For such concentration or major, a constructive sequence based upon any one, two, or three of the above fields of study would lead up naturally to a theological course.

Of the various possible areas of concentration, where areas of concentration are required, a major in English, philosophy, or history is regarded to be the most desirable.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF DIVINITY

During the academic year 1948-49, the curriculum of the Divinity School was extensively revised. By action of the Faculty, all students admitted to the Divinity School as of September 1, 1949, will conform to the requirements for the B.D. degree as printed in this issue of the catalogue. All students planning to graduate as of June, 1950, will continue under the former plan, especially as to requirement of a major and thesis. A special committee, consisting of the Dean and Professors Cannon and Petry, was set up to adjust the new curriculum to the rights and needs of all other students, whether already enrolled in the School or entering as transfers from other institutions: many such students may find it necessary to graduate under the major and thesis plan.

The plan for the first two years of the revised curriculum went into effect as of September, 1949. The Vocational Groups and the Senior Seminars called for in the work of the third year are in process of development and will be put into effect for the year 1950-51.

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity are the following:

Completion of ninety semester hours of course work, including the required courses of the Core Curriculum, listed on pages 18 and 24.

The selection, not later than the end of the middle year, of one of the Vocational Groups, and completion of the special requirements of the Group chosen, including satisfactory completion of the work of at least one Senior Seminar.

Demonstration of a detailed knowledge of the contents of the narrative portions of the English Bible. Examinations for this purpose in Old and New Testament are given each spring. Examinations for the academic year 1950-1951 will be held on successive Wednesdays in April, exact dates to be announced later.

Students who show deficiencies in English will be required to take special training in addition to meeting the other requirements for the degree. A degree may be withheld on the grounds of English deficiency only.

The course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity is planned to cover three years of normal academic work. In no case will this degree be conferred on a student until he has spent at least two semesters in residence in the Divinity School. This is defined as the completion of thirty semester hours of work, not more than six hours of which may be taken in the Duke University Summer Session.

By special permission a student who has begun his work in Duke Divinity School as a candidate for the B.D. degree may be given credit for not more than 30 semester hours of work taken in another seminary on the approved list of the American Association of Theological Schools. Except in unusual cases, request for such credits must be approved prior to the beginning of work at the other institution. In every such case, however, the final 15 hours of class credit presented for graduation must be done at Duke and must include satisfactory completion of one of the Senior Seminars. No such student will be relieved of any of the requirements for graduation specified in the catalogue of the Duke Divinity School.

Unless all the work offered for the B.D. degree is completed within a period of nine years from the date of beginning, the student will be required to make formal application for re-admission and reevaluation of his credits in the light of the then-existing curriculum of the Divinity School. Except in unusual cases, work of a fragmentary character taken over a long period of years, or work taken many years before a student is admitted to the Duke Divinity School, will not be accepted for credit toward the B.D. degree.

Third (Senior) Year

VOCATIONAL GROUPS. (One of these to be chosen by every B.D. candidate not later than the end of the Middle Year.)

I. The Preaching Ministry and Pastoral Service

In the third year, students electing Vocational Group I must take one course from each of the following fields, except in the case of those students who have previously elected these courses during the first two years:

Religious Education	Speech (for those found deficient in
Practical Theology	first course)
Pastoral Care	Philosophy of Religion

The student will also elect one Senior Seminar. The seminar will carry credit of two semester hours. Free electives in sufficient amount to complete 90 hours for graduation will be taken.

II. Applied Christianity

A. Religious Education. In the third year, students electing Vocational Group II must take the following courses, except in the case of those students who have previously elected these courses during the first two years:

Religious Education and Practical Theology (3 courses distributed between the two departments)

Psychology of Religion (1 course)

The student will also elect one Senior Seminar. The seminar will carry credit of two semester hours. Free electives in sufficient amount to complete 90 hours for graduation will be taken.

(Students planning to teach the Bible in public schools should elect some work in Bible.)

B. Missions.

C. Chaplaincy: Hospital or General.

D. Campus Religious Directors.

(These to be developed as called for.)

III. Teaching and Research in Religion

In the third year, those choosing Vocational Group III must take seven courses from the following:

American Religious Thought	History of Religions
Bible (may be language)	Psychology of Religion
Christian Ethics	Religious Education
Church History	Theology

The student will also elect one Senior Seminar. The seminar will carry credit of two semester hours. Free electives in sufficient amount to complete 90 hours for graduation will be taken.

ADMINISTERING THE NEW CURRICULUM

For the administration of the new curriculum the following regulations have been adopted:

Full-time students will take the core required courses as specified for the respective semesters, being limited to the amount of free elective work indicated in each term. The only exceptions are as specified in the provision for languages.

Since the four-day-a-week schedule of required courses and the free week-ends have been planned with special reference to the needs of students holding pastoral charges, the limitation of nine hours of class work has been changed to permit, but not require, such students to carry the total of hours of the core requirements for the first four semesters, but free electives may not be taken until all the core requirements have been fulfilled. A student who does not do creditable work will be required to reduce his schedule.

The status of "special student" may not be granted simply to permit avoidance of the schedule of core required courses. Every request for this classification will be carefully investigated and approval voted in each case by the curriculum committee in the cases of students already admitted to the Divinity School, and by the admissions committee in the case of applicants for admission as "special students."

Students working under the Duke Endowment, and others holding charges, are required to take one of the Field Work seminars. This work will be taken in the second semester of the first year. Unless taken at that spot, such seminars will be charged against the "free elective" allowance of later terms.

For a student taking both Greek and Hebrew, the Greek may be continued in the second year by postponing one or both of the 2-hour core courses in Old and New Testament. In such cases, the Hebrew will be the free elective in that year.

A part-time student who desires to begin the study of Greek in the first year may postpone the core required course in Old or New Testament.

The Registrar will make suitable entry on the permanent record of any student who is granted permission to deviate from the core requirements in the matter of language.

GRADING SYSTEM

Grades of Incomplete received at the end of the fall semester must be removed by the completion of the work of the course not later than March 15. Grades of Incomplete received at the end of the spring semester must be removed by October 1. If the work of the course is not completed by these dates, the grade shall be recorded as "F."

No student shall be permitted to drop a course after the expiration of one-third the period of instruction of the course without incurring failure except for causes adjudged by the dean to be beyond the student's control.

The grading system of the Divinity School employs the letters E, G, S, and F, which have been defined in percentage equivalents as follows: E = 95-100; G = 85-94; S = 70-84; F = 69 and below. Plus and minus values are recognized as available in each category as: E-, E, E+; G-, G, G+; S-, S, S+; F-, F, F+. A student is expected to maintain an average of S.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The course of study leading to this degree is designed to provide training primarily for individuals desiring to become educational assistants in churches or to engage in other forms of Christian education.

Candidates for this degree must hold the degree of A.B., based upon four years of work beyond secondary education, in a college which is approved by one of the regional accrediting bodies, or the equivalent of such a degree, and with academic and personal records which afford promise of competence in this area of service. The course of study will be especially useful for individuals who had one or more years of experience in religious education and desire further training. Candidates for this degree will be limited in number, and individuals interested are urged to apply for admission well in advance of the opening of the academic year. All work offered for this degree, whether in the regular year or in summer sessions, must be completed within a period of six years from the date of beginning. Only a limited amount of work may be taken in the Duke University Summer Session.

Certain prerequisite studies must have been taken by the candidate during the course of his academic training or must be secured, without credit toward the M.R.E. degree, after being admitted to the Divinity School. These are the following:

General Psychology	6 s.h.
Sociology, or approved equivalent	6 s.h.
Biblical Studies (including work in both the Old and the New Testament)	6 s.h.

Thirty semester hours of academic work are required for graduation. Eighteen of the semester hours must be in the following fields:

Religious Education	6 s.h.
Psychology of Religion	3 s.h.
Christian Ethics	3 s.h.
Biblical Studies	6 s.h.

The candidate must also engage in practice teaching in a church school or undertake some other approved project and must submit a written report covering his practical experience. This project work and report will be under the supervision of the Department of Religious Education.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION*

Odd numbers indicate fall semester courses; even numbers indicate spring semester courses. Required courses of the Core Curriculum and Senior Seminars are numbered from 11 to 99. Elective courses carrying credit in the Divinity School only are numbered from 101 to 199. Courses approved for credit in both the Divinity School and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences are numbered above 200.

V. SENIOR SEMINARS

In the third year each B.D. candidate will take one Senior Seminar, yielding 2 s.h. credit. No student may enroll in more than one Senior Seminar a semester nor receive credit for more than two such Seminars. Juniors and Middlers are not eligible for credit. Senior Seminars will not yield Graduate credit.

Enrollment in each Senior Seminar is limited to 12 to 15 students. No Senior Seminar need be conducted for an enrollment of less than 3 to 5 students. Each Senior Seminar will be in charge of a Chairman. Not less than two nor more than four instructors will participate in each Seminar. General supervision of all Senior Seminars will be exercised by a standing committee of the faculty.

The work done in each Senior Seminar should be equivalent to that done in a normal 2 s.h. course, with reading based upon a prepared reading list and a substantial paper or written project report. It is contemplated that the list of Senior Seminars will probably be changed after the first year and such changes will be approved by the faculty on recommendation of the standing committee on Senior Seminars.

B.D. students planning to graduate in 1950-1951 will, as previously voted by the faculty, have the option of graduating with a major and thesis.

GRADUATE INSTRUCTION IN DUKE UNIVERSITY

ADMISSION

TO GRADUATE COURSES

A student who has received the A.B. or B.S. degree from an institution of recognized standing for a four-year undergraduate course may be admitted to take graduate courses in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Duke University, provided that his undergraduate record gives positive evidence of ability to undertake graduate study successfully. An average grade of not less than "B" is ordinarily accepted as evidence of such ability.

All new applicants for admission to graduate courses are now required to take the Graduate Record Examination before they can be admitted. In cases where it is not possible to take the Examination before arrival at Duke University and where the transcript of work taken elsewhere clearly shows that the student is otherwise eligible, the Examination may be taken the first time it is given here after the student's arrival. Students may make their arrangements for taking this Examination directly with the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Examinations are conducted several times each year at centers distributed throughout the United States and Canada, and wherever possible students should apply to such a center for the Examination.

No college or university work taken before the Bachelor's degree is conferred, or fully earned, may be credited toward an advanced degree except under the following circumstances: A student of Duke University who lacks at the beginning of a semester not more than nine semester hours of fulfilling the requirements for the Bachelor's degree may obtain permission from the Dean of the Graduate School to take during the semester graduate courses sufficient to bring his total work to fifteen hours a week. Such graduate courses will be credited toward the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Education if registered in the Graduate School Office at the beginning of the term and if the student meets the requirements below for formal admission to the Graduate School.

A candidate for admission to graduate courses should ask the proper officer of the college, or colleges, he attended to send directly to the Dean of the Graduate School an official transcript of all undergraduate records. An advanced student should provide also a transcript of the graduate work completed. Students who have attended more than one college or university should note that certification by one institution of work completed at another institution cannot be accepted. In no case will a transcript presented by the candidate himself be accepted as a basis for admission, nor will a transcript mailed by any institution be returned to the student.

An application blank for admission will be provided upon request to the Dean of the Graduate School. The transcript and application should be submitted to the Graduate School by August 1 for admission in the autumn semester and by January 1 for admission in the spring semester.

Letters of recommendation are required of each candidate for admission. The applicant should ask two or three professors qualified to speak of his promise as a graduate student to write letters of appraisal to the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

TO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

After twelve semester hours of graduate courses, the student may apply for admission to the Graduate School, and thus become a candidate for the Master's degree. Such admission is dependent upon the fulfillment of two conditions. (1) The student must have made a mark of "G" (good) in at least three semester hours of work, with no mark less than "S." Candidates who cannot meet this condition may at a later time submit their records for re-evaluation, provided that in their subsequent work they shall have made a substantial number of "G's." (2) The student in his undergraduate work must have met substantially the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University.* Any deficiencies of undergraduate work must be satisfied before admission to the Graduate School. Graduate courses taken at Duke University prior to formal admission to the Graduate School will count toward a higher degree provided they are in accord with its requirements and are acceptable to the major department.

A graduate student may be requested to withdraw from the University at the discretion of the Dean of the Graduate School.

REGISTRATION

Before actually registering in the Graduate School Office, the student who is admitted to graduate courses should consult with the Director of Graduate Studies or his representative in the department in which he proposes to major and receive written approval of his schedule of courses. This can be done during the registration period in September and January. The department concerned will determine whether a student is prepared to take any particular course. In all cases the student must make up without credit toward a graduate degree all prerequisites required by the major department of candidates for advanced degrees. Students who have fulfilled the minimum residence requirements for the doctorate but who are continuing resident study at Duke University for the degree should register in the Graduate School Office.

New students are advised to arrive early during the registration period in order to formulate their programs. Anyone registering for courses after the close of the regular registration period will be charged a late registration fee of five dollars.

* In meeting the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University, a student is not allowed excessive concentration in any one field. The same principle is applied in evaluating the undergraduate record of candidates for admission to the Graduate School.

TUITION AND FEESGENERAL FEES IN THE ACADEMIC YEAR

The following table shows the general fees and charges collected from all students. All fees for each semester are due and payable, unless otherwise specified, at the time of registration at the beginning of that semester. No student is admitted to classes until arrangements have been made with the Treasurer of the University for the settlement of fees.

Tuition, per semester.....	$175.00
General Fee,* per semester.....	60.00
Room-rent—See detailed statement on pages 29-30.
Athletic Fee, not including Federal Tax, Optional, per semester.....	5.00
Special Dissertation Fee, payable by candidates for Ph.D. degree in the last semester before the degree is granted. Returned on satisfactory publication of thesis. See page 37.....	50.00

SPECIAL FEE

An administrative fee is charged in connection with special graduate research work in the summer under direction of a member of the Faculty.

STUDENTS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA GRADUATE SCHOOL

Under an experimental plan of co-operation between the University of North Carolina and Duke University, students regularly enrolled in the University of North Carolina Graduate School and paying full fees to that institution may be admitted to courses in the Duke University Graduate School on payment of a registration fee of two dollars and any other special fees which are required of all students.

TRANSCRIPTS

A student desiring to transfer from Duke University to another institution is entitled to one free transcript of his record. A charge of one dollar, payable in advance, is made for each additional copy. Transcripts of students who enroll in graduate courses only in the summer sessions are issued by the Summer Session Office prior to the fulfillment of all requirements toward an advanced degree, after which time they can be obtained in the regular way from the Graduate School.

PAYMENTS TO FELLOWS, SCHOLARS, AND GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

Payments by the University of stipends to fellows, scholars, and graduate assistants are made in four equal installments, at approximately the middle and end of each semester. Tuition fees are charged against the stipends.

Fellows and scholars are required to pay the regular tuition and fees and are expected to take a full program of work. Assistants who are permitted to register for only four fifths of a regular program are charged a proportionate amount of the tuition in addition to the regular matriculation and other fees.

* General Fees, in lieu of most special charges, include the following fees: Matriculation, Medical, Library, Damage, Commencement, Diploma, and an average of the Laboratory and Materials Fees.

SPECIAL CHARGES FOR TEACHERS AND OTHERS

For the purpose of aiding North Carolina teachers in their professional preparation, Duke University grants a special tuition rate to members of the faculties of neighboring schools and colleges who desire to register during the regular academic session for one or two graduate courses. For such courses a teacher regularly employed and teaching while taking these courses is charged a registration fee of five dollars at the beginning of each semester and a tuition fee of five dollars and twenty-five cents per semester hour of course credit. Under this provision a student may not register for more than seven semester hours each semester.

Employees of Duke University who are paid on a monthly basis throughout the year, ministers of neighboring churches, and wives of the Duke Faculty may be included under the above provisions by the Dean of the Graduate School, provided that such persons do not receive residence credit in any semester for more than two fifths of a regular program in meeting the requirements for advanced degrees.

The special tuition rate for teachers does not apply to the holders of fellowships, graduate scholarships, and graduate assistantships annually awarded in the Graduate School, nor to teachers on leave of absence and not actually engaged in their teaching at the time of registration.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS AND EXPENSESROOMS

On the West Campus a graduate building, Few Quadrangle, was opened in September, 1939, with accommodations sufficient to meet the requirements of the men in the Graduate School and in the professional schools. Special sections are reserved for those registered in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. On the Woman's College Campus a limited number of rooms in the Faculty Apartments is available to women registered in the Graduate School. Students' rooms, both on the Woman's College Campus and on the West Campus, are supplied with all necessary furniture. The student should plan to provide his own towels, sheets, pillows, pillowslips, bedcoverings, and table lamp.

Rooms for men in the graduate dormitory on the West Campus rent at $50.00, $62.50, $75.00, and $87.50 per semester. In the Faculty Apartments on the Woman's College Campus, a single room rents for $87.50 per semester, a double room for $62.50 per semester per person.

Rooms are reserved only for students who have been officially admitted to graduate courses by the University. They are rented for no shorter period than one semester. The occupancy of a room for less than one semester will be charged at the rate of one dollar each day unless the student makes the necessary arrangements with the Housing Bureau before occupying the room. The minimum charge is $25.00. Application for rooms should be made to the Housing Bureau, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. A room reservation fee of $25.00 is required for a definite room assignment. The reservation fee is deducted from the room charges at the time of registration. Those who make application and are accepted will not be entitled to have the reservation fee refunded unless the request for refund is made at least 60 days prior to the date for registration for the semester. Early application for a dormitory room is essential if the student wants to be assured of living accommodations on the campus.

A resident student who wishes to retain his room for the succeeding semester must pay a reservation fee of $25.00 on or before an announced date. All rooms which have not been reserved by that date will be considered vacant for the succeeding semester. When a room is once engaged by a student, no changes will be permitted except with the consent of the Housing Bureau.

Graduate students are required to observe the same general regulations as undergraduate students with respect to the use of the rooms. Leaving one room and occupying another without permission is strictly forbidden and will render the offender liable to a charge for both rooms for the entire semester. No occupant is permitted to rent or sublet a room to another occupant. The use of a room for merchandising of any kind is not allowed.

The University does not assume the responsibility for the personnel selected as roommates, though it will gladly render any assistance possible in the matter.

DINING SERVICE

Food service on both the Woman's College Campus and the West Campus is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.50 to $2.00 per day depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus and, in addition, the Oak Room where full meals and à la carte items are served.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES IN THE ACADEMIC YEAR

The necessary expenses of a graduate student are moderate. The University dormitories and Unions provide comfortable and wholesome living conditions at a minimum cost. Incidental expenses for recreation, traveling, clothes, and other items naturally depend on the tastes and habits of the individual. The table below lists the necessary college expenses for one year for a full program of work:

	Low	Moderate	Liberal
Tuition	$350.00	$ 350.00	$ 350.00
General Fee	120.00	120.00	120.00
Room-rent	100.00	125.00	175.00
Board	350.00	400.00	450.00
Laundry	25.00	30.00	35.00
Books	22.50	30.00	45.00
	$967.50	$1,055.00	$1,175.00

FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND ASSISTANTSHIPS

For the assistance and encouragement of graduate students of high character and marked ability, the University has established a considerable number of fellowships, scholarships and assistantships with stipends ranging from $450 to $1,600. Holders of these awards will be expected to pay the tuition fee and such additional fees as are regularly required. Applications for appointments together with supporting credentials should be received on or before March 1 of each year. In case vacancies occur, applications submitted on a later date will be considered. Appointments are made for no longer than one academic year.

In appointing fellows, preference is usually given to applicants who have completed successfully at least one year of graduate work. Fellows will be required to give a limited amount of assistance in reading papers, in laboratories, or in other departmental duties. All fellows carry a full program of graduate work. Scholars may be asked to give a limited amount of assistance in departmental work. They normally carry a full program of graduate studies. Assistants receiving $700 or more will be registered for four fifths of a normal program of studies.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained from the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

Awards offered for the year 1950-51 are listed below.

FELLOWSHIPS

One Angier Duke Memorial Fellowship of $1,600.

Twelve University Fellowships with stipends varying from $1,050 to $1,500.

Twelve University Fellowships with stipends varying from $950 to $1,200.

Three Gurney Harriss Kearns Fellowships in Religion of $1,000 each.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Approximately eighty additional appointments as teaching assistants or readers will be available for graduate students. The compensation will usually range from $800 to $1,500 depending upon the nature and amount of the work assigned.

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Fifteen scholarships with stipends varying from $450 to $800 each.

CHARLES W. HARGITT RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP IN ZOOLOGY

The Charles W. Hargitt research fellowship in Zoology, carrying a stipend of $2,500, is restricted to research work in the field of Cytology. Appointment is for a single year, with the possibility of reappointment. The fellowship is primarily for post-doctoral research. Inquiries and applications should be made to Dr. C. G. Bookhout, Biology Building, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

FELLOWSHIPS AND GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS IN FORESTRY

Information regarding special fellowships and graduate scholarships in forestry may be obtained from the Dean of the School of Forestry, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

SIGMA XI PRIZE AWARDS

The Society of Sigma Xi offers each year a prize for a Master's thesis and a prize for a Ph.D. dissertation in the fields of Botany, Chemistry, Forestry, Mathematics, Medicine, Physics, Psychology, and Zoology. The student must be in residence during the academic year in which the prize is awarded. Students holding graduate appointments are eligible to compete, but instructors, part-time instructors, and interns are not eligible. The department concerned makes the nomination. Full particulars may be obtained from the secretary of the chapter. Nominations, recommendations, copies of theses, reports, or other materials must be in the hands of the secretary on or before May 1. All papers should be submitted in duplicate.

ADVANCED DEGREES

The degrees offered in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences are Master of Arts (A.M.), Master of Education (M.Ed.), Doctor of Education (Ed.D.), and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.). Most departments of the University are now prepared to give a full program of work leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTSLANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts are required to have a reading knowledge of at least one foreign language. The various departments have the right to recommend specific languages that are acceptable to them. The candidate may satisfy the foreign language requirement either by examination or by transcript showing the completion of the third college year of the language, or he may satisfy the requirement by transcript showing the completion of the second college year in each of two acceptable languages.

A candidate for the degree of Master of Arts, who feels qualified, may request the language examination required of candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, and thus satisfy the language requirements for both degrees at the same time (see page 36).

MAJOR AND MINOR SUBJECTS

As a prerequisite to graduate study in his major subject, a student must have completed a minimum of twelve semester hours of approved preliminary courses in that department and twelve additional semester hours either in that department or in related work. Many departments require eighteen semester hours of undergraduate credit. The student should read carefully the special requirements listed by his department.

To obtain the degree of Master of Arts, a candidate must complete satisfactorily twenty-four semester hours of graduate courses and a thesis. (The student who takes more than fifteen semester hours of work in the Summer Session, must complete a total of twenty-seven hours of course work and a thesis.) The credit for the thesis is six semester hours. Each candidate for the degree must select a major subject, in which the minimum requirement is twelve semester hours and the thesis.

A candidate must take six semester hours of graduate work in a minor outside of, but approved by, the major department, and the remaining six semester hours in the major or minor fields or in a department approved by the major department and by the Graduate School Council. Undergraduate courses may not be credited toward the degree of Master of Arts.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

The minimum residence requirement of candidates for the Master's degree is one academic year. Often a longer period of residence will prove necessary. Those students who take more than fifteen semester hours of courses in the Summer Sessions must fulfill a minimum residence requirement of thirty-three weeks.

Not more than six semester hours of credit toward the Master's degree may be given for acceptable graduate courses or research work completed elsewhere. Such credit shall not shorten the minimum period of full-time residence work required at Duke University. However, with the approval of the student's major department and the Dean of the Graduate School, the student with such credit may be permitted to take six semester hours of required undergraduate training, or six semester hours of a required language, or to register for nine or twelve hours of thesis research instead of the usual six semester hours. No credit toward advanced degrees is given for university extension or correspondence courses.

All the work offered for the Master's degree, whether in the regular academic year or in Summer Sessions, must be completed within a period of six years from the date of beginning. Students who expect to receive advanced degrees at the regular commencement should notify the Graduate Office to that effect by March 15.

THESIS

The Master's thesis is intended to demonstrate the student's ability to collect, arrange, interpret and report pertinent data or material on some special problem. A publishable contribution, though desirable, is not required. Nevertheless, the thesis is expected to exhibit insight into the problem and competence in the use of appropriate scholarly methods and apparatus.

The title of the thesis must be filed with the Dean of the Graduate School on or before November 15 of the academic year in which it is expected that the degree will be conferred. The subject must receive the written approval of the Director of Graduate Studies of the department in which the candidate has his major field of work and also of the professor under whose direction the thesis is being written.

Four (or, at the discretion of the department, three) bound, typewritten copies of each thesis must be submitted to the Dean of the Graduate School in approved form on or before May 1 of the year in which the degree is conferred. All copies of the thesis should be brought to the Graduate Office before distribution to the examining committee. The examining committee is composed of three members of the Graduate Faculty appointed by the Dean of the Graduate School after consultation with the professor directing the thesis. Two copies of the approved thesis, the original and one carbon copy, are returned to the Dean of the Graduate School, who deposits them in the University Library. The original must be endorsed with date and signatures by members of the examining committee.

EXAMINATION

Each candidate for the Master's degree is required to appear before the committee mentioned above for a final examination, which will approximate one and one-half hours in length and will be on the thesis and major field.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF EDUCATION

The degree of Master of Education is granted to teachers or others engaged in educational work, upon the completion of the prescribed program of study. Before a candidate may be admitted to graduate study for the degree of Master of Education he must have completed a minimum of eighteen semester hours of approved undergraduate work in education, including courses in educational psychology and in the history of education, or educational sociology, or school administration. To be accepted as candidates for the degree, students must early in their residence (1) make a satisfactory score on a test of general ability and (2) demonstrate by examination that they can write acceptable English. In addition they must have had two years of practical experience in teaching when the degree is conferred. This experience may be obtained at any time prior to entering upon candidacy for the degree, or it may be obtained concurrently with the period of study for the degree.

The degree of Master of Education may be earned either with or without a thesis.

Requirements without thesis. Students who elect not to write a thesis must earn thirty hours of course credit (thirty-three in the Summer Session). Twelve of these hours must be chosen from the four basic required courses, Education 204, 210, 217, and 235. Exemption from not more than two of the four basic courses will be allowed students who can by examination show that they already possess adequate knowledge of the subject matter of the courses omitted. Toward the end of their residence students must also pass a comprehensive examination on the content and inter-relationships among these four courses. Before taking this examination students must obtain the approval of the Director of Graduate Studies in Education and, three weeks before its announced date, file a notice of their intention to take it.

Other requirements are: a departmental major of at least twelve hours, and a minor of at least six hours in a department other than that of Education. (See page 60 of this Bulletin for suggestions with respect to minors.) Toward the end of their residence students must pass a comprehensive examination on their departmental major.

Requirements with thesis. Students are permitted to substitute a thesis for six hours of course credit, provided (1) that in the first fifteen hours of their work (twelve, in the Summer Session) they earn a "G" record on at least six hours, and (2) that they can present a thesis subject which has been approved by the member of the staff in Education who will supervise the thesis as well as by two other members of the staff. (Two of the three faculty members approving the subject must be resident members of the staff in Education.)

Besides the thesis, students must earn twenty-four hours of course credit (twenty-seven in the Summer Session). Six of these hours must be earned by taking any two of the basic courses, Education 204, 210, 217, and 235. (Thesis students are exempted from the comprehensive examination which is required of non-thesis candidates.) Of the remaining eighteen hours (twenty-one in the Summer Session), six hours must be taken in some department other than Education. (See page 60 of this Bulletin for suggestions.) The other twelve (or fifteen) hours are taken in the departmental major. All other requirements, such as those relating to residence, preparation of thesis, thesis examination, etc., are the same as for the degree of Master of Arts.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

THE DEGREE

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is a research degree; it is not based merely upon the completion of a prescribed period of study or upon the obtaining of credit for a given number of courses. The granting of the degree will be based primarily upon evidence of high attainments in a special field of knowledge and upon the production of a dissertation embodying the results of original research.

A student who plans to enter upon a program of work leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy should consult or enter into correspondence with the Dean of the Graduate School or the Chairman or Director of Graduate Studies of the department concerned. He will then be advised as to the possibility of securing the necessary instruction and supervision of research in the desired field.

RESIDENCE

The normal period of resident graduate study is not less than three academic years. The candidate must spend at least either the last year in actual residence at Duke University, or the first two years. A substantial amount of course work in addition to the thesis will be required. A student whose undergraduate work is insufficient in amount or unsatisfactory in character may expect to spend additional time in preliminary courses essential as a basis for the graduate work he proposes to undertake.

Credit for one year of work done in Summer Sessions may be given with the approval of the Graduate School Council and the department in which the student takes his major work. Except in unusual cases, graduate work of fragmentary character taken over a long period of years, or work completed many years before the student becomes a candidate for the degree at Duke University, will not be accepted as satisfying the requirements of residence.

PROGRAM OF STUDY

The candidate's program of studies requires concentration in one approved department (his major department), together with smaller amounts of course work in one or more related departments. Enough work must be taken in one department other than the major department to constitute an acceptable minor. Exceptions which permit both the major and the minor within the same department are allowed only by special permission of the Dean of the Graduate School.

During the third semester of the student's graduate work a committee of five members is appointed by the Dean of the Graduate School to formulate, in consultation with the student, the remainder of his doctoral program of study. The program of studies recommended by the committee is submitted to the Dean of the Graduate School for his approval on the regular form provided for that purpose. The professor in charge of the student's research in his major department serves as chairman. One member of the committee must be appointed from a department other than the major, usually the minor department. This committee, with occasional necessary changes, will serve also as the examining committee on the student's preliminary and final Ph.D. examinations.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Normally a reading knowledge of both French and German is required. On the recommendation of the department in which the candidate is doing his major work and with the approval of the Dean of the Graduate School, he may, however, be permitted to substitute for either French or German some other language which has a definite relation to the candidate's program of work for the Doctor's degree. No student may appear for his preliminary examination without having satisfied the language requirements for the Doctor's degree. The department in which he takes his major work may indicate preference as to the language in which the student shall first be examined.

Foreign language examinations are conducted by the appropriate language department in conjunction with the department in which the student has his major field of work. For the dates see Calendar, pp. 5-6, above.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

Toward the end of the second full year of graduate work (or in special cases early in the third year), a preliminary examination of each candidate will be held covering the general field of his studies. This examination will be conducted by the committee in charge of the student's work and will be either oral or written, or both, as the committee may determine. A student who passes the examination will be recognized as a candidate for the Ph.D. degree. The examination on his minor subject or subjects will ordinarily be held at the time of his preliminary examination. Graduate students who transfer to Duke University to work toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and who have already passed the preliminary examination for that degree at another university must take the regular preliminary examination at Duke University.

If a student fails on his first examination, he may make a second attempt after six months upon the recommendation of his committee and with the approval of the Dean of the Graduate School. Two failures on this examination make the student ineligible to continue work toward the Ph.D. degree at Duke University.

DISSERTATION

The dissertation for the Ph.D. degree must be a contribution to knowledge. The subject should receive the written approval of the Director of Graduate Studies of the department in which the candidate has his major field of work and also of the professor under whom the dissertation is being written. The title of the dissertation must be filed with the Dean of the Graduate School on or before October 15 of the academic year in which the candidate desires to take the final examination for his degree.

The dissertation must be completed to the satisfaction of the professor under whom it is written, and four bound, typewritten copies in approved form must be deposited with the Dean of the Graduate School on or before April 15 if the student desires to be examined on it before the end of the academic year. The bound copies of the dissertation should contain at the end an autobiographical sketch of the student. The title page must be approved by the major department and by the Dean of the Graduate School. The student should bring to the examination ten additional copies of the autobiographical sketch and ten copies of a brief summary of the dissertation. Two copies of the approved dissertation, the original and one carbon copy, are returned to the Dean of the Graduate School, who deposits them in the University Library. The original must be endorsed with date and signatures by the members of the examining committee.

Before the degree is conferred the candidate must deposit with the Treasurer of the University a special dissertation fee of fifty dollars in cash. If the dissertation is published in a form satisfactory to the Dean of the Graduate School and to the professor under whom it is written within a period of three years from the date the degree is granted, the fee of fifty dollars is returned. Ten copies of the published dissertation must be deposited in the Graduate School Office as provided by regulations of the Graduate School Council. A suitable abstract, or one or more articles, may be accepted as satisfying the publication agreement. If the dissertation is not published within the three-year period in a form accepted by the Dean of the Graduate School and by the professor under whom it is written, the deposit of fifty dollars is forfeited and becomes the property of the University. The forfeited dissertation fees are credited to a special Dissertation Fund, which is used for subsidizing the publication of such dissertations recommended by the Graduate School Council.

FINAL EXAMINATION

The final examination on the dissertation and on the related subject matter in the major or the minor fields will be oral. Approximately one year must elapse between the dates of the preliminary examination and the final examination. Two failures on this examination make a student ineligible to continue work toward the Ph.D. degree at Duke University. The second examination may be given only upon the recommendation of the professor in charge of the dissertation and the approval of the Dean of the Graduate School.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

The Ed.D. degree is professional in character and is available only to persons who are, or intend to become, public school administrators.

ADMISSION

The present admission requirements of the Graduate School for the candidate for the Ph.D. degree apply in every respect to the candidate for the Ed.D. degree. In addition to these uniform admission requirements, the candidate for the Ed.D. degree must: (1) have had at least three years of public school experience, preferably with some of that experience in administration; (2) make a satisfactory score on a psychological examination and show, by examination, ability to write good English; (3) present strong letters of recommendation from qualified persons; and (4) present himself, if possible, for an interview. The Standing Committee on the Ed.D. degree reserves the right to insist upon an interview.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

The residence requirements for the Ed.D. candidate are the same as those for the Ph.D. candidate. To be accepted as a candidate for the Ed.D. degree the student must earn at least nine semester hours of credit at the level of "G" or above during his first year of graduate work at Duke University.

By the end of his second year of residence the candidate stands a preliminary examination similar in character and purpose to the preliminary examination for the Ph.D. degree. He must write an acceptable thesis and defend it at the time of the final examination. The degree is not awarded until after one year of successful apprenticeship in a public school system approved by the Standing Committee on the degree, under conditions which assure adequate supervision of the candidate's activities.

PROGRAM OF WORK

The candidate's major field is Public School Administration; his extra-departmental minor is taken in related fields as described below. The first year of graduate work is the present program for the Ed.M. degree or its equivalent. The work in Public School Administration in the second and third years is organized on the basis of seminars instead of discrete courses. Course work is divided approximately into thirds, with one third in the general field of Education, one third in specialized, professional work in Public School Administration, and one third in related fields. This related work, amounting to at least twenty-four semester hours, must be taken in economics, political science, and sociology, with approval given for needed work taken in other departments. In all cases, the details of the program are to be determined by the Standing Committee on the program, in consultation with each candidate for the degree.

THE GRADING OF GRADUATE STUDENTS

Members of the Faculty are expected to report the grades of graduate students, not later than February 10 for the first semester and not later than June 6 for the second semester, on the cards provided for that purpose.

In the grading of graduate students, "E" (exceptional) is the highest mark; "G" (good), the next lower; and "S" (satisfactory) indicates work of an acceptable but not distinguished quality. "F" (fail) indicates that the work of the student is below passing. In a course in which both graduates and undergraduates are enrolled, the grade "S" represents approximately an 80 per cent rating. A mark of "Inc." (incomplete) may be given when a student has failed, for an acceptable reason, to complete some portion of the required work in a course in which his standing is generally satisfactory. The professor specifies the period of time in which the student is permitted to make up the deficiency, but the professor cannot grant an extension beyond one calendar year from the date the course ends. No residence credit is granted for that part of a student's program which he fails to complete in a satisfactory manner.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Not more than twenty-five students are permitted in a class giving graduate credit, nor are undergraduate students below the Senior year permitted in such a class. Exceptions to these rules may be made by special permission of the Executive Committee of the Graduate School Council on recommendation of the department concerned.

Candidates for advanced degrees should notify the Graduate School Office by March 15 of each year whether or not they expect to complete the requirements for the degree in time for the Commencement in June.

THE LIBRARY

The University Libraries contain 960,859 volumes, 618,613 of which are in the General Library. The remainder are shelved in eight school and departmental libraries: Divinity, 46,318 volumes; Hospital, 48,070 volumes; Law, 89,122 volumes; Woman's College, 79,095 volumes; Biology-Forestry, 40,090 volumes; Chemistry, 13,555 volumes; Engineering, 12,994 volumes; Mathematics-Physics, 12,076 volumes. Between 30,000 and 40,000 volumes are added annually to the University Libraries.

Most of the printed and manuscript materials of interest to graduate students in the humanities and social sciences are in the General Library. This building, first occupied in 1930, was doubled in size in 1949. The enlarged building now contains many special features which contribute to the preservation of materials and aid research students in their study. The book stacks and storage areas are air conditioned. Two hundred and fifty carrels, some enclosed, are available in the stacks as places of study. (Graduate students, upon application, may receive permits admitting them to the stacks.) A reading and study room for graduate students is provided on the first floor. Rare books and manuscripts are preserved in air conditioned quarters in the north tower, rare books occupying four rooms on the first floor and manuscripts, four on the ground level. Elsewhere on the ground level is the Newspaper Reading Room, where back files of newspapers may be consulted, and a Microphotography Laboratory with facilities for reproducing printed and other material. The Newspaper Reading Room contains a battery of microfilm reading machines.

The school and departmental libraries bring books and journals closer to students and faculty in several divisions of the University, particularly in the natural sciences.

The major task in developing a research library for scientists involves securing files of important journals and serials, and from the beginning this has been one of the primary objectives of the Library administration. In 1948-49 the University was receiving currently 3,600 periodicals by subscription, gift, and exchange. Library development in the humanities and social sciences has gone forward with the acquisition of basic collections of source materials and important publications of criticism and discussion. In quantity the purchases have ranged from significant single sets, such as Migne's Patrologia (Latin and Greek) and the Monumenta Germaniae Historica, to special libraries containing many thousands of volumes. Among the important special collections is the Guido Mazzoni library of Italian and comparative literature containing 23,000 volumes and 67,000 pamphlets which came to the University in 1948. Others include a Peruvian library of about seven thousand books and manuscripts; a library of several thousand volumes dealing with Brazil; an Ecuadorian collection of about two thousand volumes; the Robertson library of Philippiniana; the Lanson Collection of French literature consisting of twelve thousand books and monographs; a Goethe collection of one thousand volumes; a Scandinavian collection of three thousand volumes; a special group of five thousand items of early Americana, dating from the seventeenth century to 1820; the Holl church history library dealing primarily with the period of the Reformation; a collection of many thousands of church minutes and records of American denominational history; two collections of eighteenth-century English poetry and prose totaling about five thousand items; the Frank C. Brown folklore collection consisting of about 38,000 folklore manuscripts, with 650 musical scores, 1,400 vocal recordings, and a variety of related materials; a collection of more than five thousand seventeenth- and eighteenth-century British pamphlets; special collections of manuscripts; annotated copies and first editions of Byron, Coleridge, and Emerson; a collection of material on the Fourier movement; the Arents tobacco collection; and the Thomas Collection of books on Chinese history and culture. Special mention should be made of the George Washington Flowers Collection of manuscripts, books, newspapers, and pamphlets dealing with all phases of Southern history, and of the Trent Collection of Walt Whitman books and manuscripts.

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

The importance of public documents as fundamental source materials is clearly recognized, and a comprehensive collection of this material has been assembled. The Library has been a depository for Federal documents since 1890. State documentary publications are also being systematically collected in cooperation with the University of North Carolina. A representative collection of European public documents has been secured. Among them are the British Parliamentary Papers (since 1925), Calendar of State Papers, the Acts of the Privy Council, Hansard's Debates, the Débats Parlementaires of the French Senate and Chamber of Deputies, the Journal Officiel de la République Française, the Bulletin des Lois de la République Française, the Reichsgesetzblatt, the Verhandlungen des Reichstags, the Atti of the Italian Parliament, the Diario of the Spanish Cortes. The public documents of the Latin-American countries, especially Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Ecuador, Peru, and Uruguay form one of the strongest units of the Library. The publications of the League of Nations, United Nations, and International Labour Office, of course, are present.

Under this heading should be mentioned also the Library of Professor Louis Strisower, sometime President of the Institut de Droit International, which contains approximately five thousand volumes dealing with international law. The volumes date from the seventeenth century to the present and contain some especially valuable periodical files and rare books.

PUBLICATIONS OF EUROPEAN ACADEMIES

The Duke University Library has the publications of many of the European academies, containing monographs in most of the fields of knowledge and constituting important sources for the research programs of graduate students and faculty. The sets comprise over four thousand volumes and include Preussische Akademie der Wissenschaften (Berlin); Gesellschaft der Wissenschaften zu Göttingen; Heidelberger Akademie der Wissenschaften; Akademie der Wissenschaften (Vienna); Académie des sciences (Paris); Académie des inscriptions et belles-lettres (Paris); Académie des sciences morales et politiques (Paris); Accademia nazionale dei lincei (Rome); Accademia pontificia dei nuovi lincei (Rome); Real academia española (Madrid); Academia de la historia (Madrid); Akademiia nauk (Leningrad); Dansk videnskabernes selskab (Copenhagen); Norske videnskaps-akademi i Oslo; Akademie van Wetenschappen (Amsterdam); Académie royale des sciences, des lettres et des beaux-arts de Belgique (Brussels).

NEWSPAPERS

The Newspaper Collection of the Library contains about 13,000 volumes and 2,000 rolls of microfilm. Most of the states of the Union are represented, although a large percentage of the papers are from the Atlantic seaboard—about fifty per cent representing the South and thirty per cent the Northeast. Of the eighteenth-century titles, the states best represented are Massachusetts, Maryland, New York, Rhode Island, Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. The collection of nineteenth-century New England papers is strong, but especially extensive are the Library's holdings of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia newspapers for the Ante-Bellum and Civil War periods. The years of World War I are covered by twenty-eight fairly complete files. Foreign newspapers include The (London) Times from 1785, and about a dozen virtually complete runs of European and Latin-American papers from the 1920's and early 1930's. The current subscription list contains seventy papers, about one-half of which are foreign.

MANUSCRIPTS

The manuscript collection now contains 1,500,000 items relating chiefly to the South Atlantic region. Most numerous are records of military, social, and economic life in the Confederate period, including letters, diaries, rosters, military reports, statutes of the Confederate Congress, court records, and papers of various departments of the Confederate Government. Outstanding among the many papers providing a well-rounded picture of life in the South during the nineteenth century are original census returns of Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, and Tennessee for 1850 and 1860. The collection, most extensive in the field of history, contains information on all phases of social and economic life as well as politics. Numerous large collections bear particularly on the history of Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Of interest for historical studies are the papers of P. G. T. Beauregard, John C. Calhoun, David Campbell, Robert Carter, Clement C. Clay, Henry Clay, William H. Crawford, John J. Crittenden, Jefferson Davis, Nathanael Greene, Andrew Jackson, Robert E. Lee, Alfred T. Mahan, Alexander H. Stephens, and others. For the later period the papers of Furnifold W. Simmons and Josiah W. Bailey, senators from North Carolina, are significant. The field of American literature is represented by papers of Thomas Holley Chivers, John Esten Cooke, Clara V. Dargan, Paul Hamilton Hayne, George Frederick Holmes, Alexander B. Meek, Thomas Nelson Page, Augustin L. Taveau, and Walt Whitman. Among British and literary materials there are interesting groups of papers relating to George Moore, the Rossettis, Robert Southey, and Tennyson. Of the medieval manuscripts, consisting chiefly of lectionaries and copies of the New Testament, a thirteenth-century New Testament in Greek, and a Greek liturgical scroll of the Byzantine Empire are noteworthy. The Library has recently acquired the extensive official files of the Socialist Party of America extending from 1901 to 1938; and a collection of the papers of George Holyoake, English cooperator and secularist of the nineteenth century.

A Guide to the Manuscript Collections in the Duke University Library, which describes the papers comprising the collection in 1942, was issued in 1947 as Series 27 and 28 of the Historical Papers of the Trinity College Historical Society. This index was prepared by Nannie M. Tillery, then curator of manuscripts, and her assistant, Noma Lee Goodwin.

EXCHANGE PRIVILEGES WITH THE LIBRARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

The libraries of Duke University and of the University of North Carolina have arrangements for the fullest exchange of privileges and resources. Each library contains a catalogue of the contents of the other.

Books are secured on loan for students and faculty through a delivery service which operates between the libraries every other day. Faculty members and graduate students may secure cards admitting them to the stacks of the other library. The Library of the University of North Carolina contains about 540,000 volumes, and a large collection of manuscripts relating to Southern history. Under this arrangement 1,450,000 volumes and about 4,000,000 manuscripts are available to students of the two institutions.

SCIENCE LABORATORIES

BOTANICAL AND ZOOLOGICAL LABORATORIES

Facilities for graduate study in the Departments of Botany and Zoology are for the most part concentrated in the Biology Building on the West Campus. In addition to well-equipped laboratories for teaching and research in the various fields of botany and zoology, special facilities, such as animal rooms, greenhouses, darkrooms, a small shop, a refrigerated room, and an air-conditioned room are available.

The Botany herbarium, containing over 125,000 specimens, is particularly strong in material from the Southeast and includes notable collections of mosses, ferns, and grasses. The Biology-Forestry Library contains an outstanding collection of books and serials, including most of the important American and foreign periodicals, in botany, forestry, zoology and related fields.

Unique assets for teaching and research are the Sarah P. Duke Gardens, conveniently accessible on the West Campus; the Duke Forest, comprising some eight thousand acres of woodland adjacent to the West Campus; and the Duke University Marine Laboratory at Beaufort, North Carolina. The marine station is exceptionally well located for the study of animal and plant life in the ocean and in the coastal plains area. Graduate courses of instruction are given at the Marine Laboratory during the summer months; research facilities are available throughout the year.

Scholarships for advanced study during the summer months are maintained at the Highlands Laboratory, Highlands, North Carolina, and at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Massachusetts. Requests for additional information concerning these scholarships should be addressed to the Zoology Department.

PHYSICAL LABORATORIES

A new physics building has just been completed. It has 62,500 square feet of floor space and is of the most modern type.

In addition to the usual lecture halls and elementary laboratories, there are special laboratories for work in electrical measurements, electronics, microwaves, optics, atomic physics, and mechanics. A new laboratory for training in radioactive measurements has recently been added.

The research laboratories contain the following special equipment: a new 21 ft. concave grating and other instruments for visible, ultraviolet, infrared, and Raman spectra are available for research in spectroscopy.

Extensive and well equipped laboratories are provided for research in microwaves and microwave spectroscopy in both the centimeter and millimeter range. New type crystal counters, proportional counters, and ion chambers are used for cosmic ray research.

The department has available, in addition to University appointments, a number of research fellowships for work under government contracts and from grants by industry and scientific foundations.

The new physics building contains also a departmental library, a liquid air plant, and shop facilities. The main shop is staffed by four instrument mechanics, two electronic technicians, and a glassblower. There is also a separate shop for use of graduate students.

CHEMICAL LABORATORIES

Graduate work in chemistry is carried on in a modern building with a floor area of about 57,000 square feet. Of this total space a large proportion is available for research and advanced teaching. There are twenty-five double research rooms completely equipped with the usual services. In addition, a number of specially designed rooms are available for present or future research, such as a photographic room, constant temperature room, distillation room, and rooms equipped for dielectric constant and magnetic measurements.

A glassblowing room and a well-equipped shop, operated by a competent mechanic, provide facilities for the construction of special apparatus and for the repair and maintenance of instruments.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

In the School of Medicine elaborate facilities are provided for post-graduate research in the various branches of medical science. The Departments of Anatomy, Bacteriology and Immunology, Biochemistry and Nutrition, and Physiology and Pharmacology offer certain courses and research facilities to students in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. The use of the Duke Hospital Library is available to all graduate students.

OAK RIDGE INSTITUTE OF NUCLEAR STUDIES

Duke University is one of the sponsoring universities of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies located at Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Through this cooperative association with the Institute, the graduate research program has at its disposal all the facilities of the National Laboratories in Oak Ridge and of the research staffs of these laboratories.

DUKE FOREST

The Duke Forest consists of approximately eight thousand acres of land, most of which is adjacent and easily accessible to the University campus. Situated in the lower Piedmont region and composed of second-growth shortleaf pine, loblolly pine, and hardwoods, the Forest is representative of the various types of timber growth and soils found throughout the region. Through placing the Forest under intensive management for forestry purposes, substantial progress has been made in developing the educational work and research in forestry.

The proximity of the Forest to the laboratories, greenhouses, and library facilities of the University provides an excellent opportunity for advanced study and research in forestry. Research, particularly in the fields of silvics, forest soils, silviculture, forest management, properties of wood, forest-tree physiology, forest entomology, and forest pathology, is well under way. Several members of the Botany and Zoology staffs are also engaged in research in the Duke Forest.

For additional information see the Bulletin of the School of Forestry.

ENCOURAGEMENT OF RESEARCH

The President of the University appoints annually a University Council on Research. The members of this Council are chosen from the Faculties of the Schools of Medicine and of Law, the Divinity School, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. In May of each year the Council on Research receives written applications from members of the Faculty for subsidies to be used in the following fiscal year to aid them in carrying out research projects. Stipends are granted for the employment of research assistants, for the purchase of books, and for apparatus, supplies, and equipment. Each member of the Faculty to whom a research stipend is granted must make a written report within twelve months to the Council concerning the progress of the investigation for which the stipend was allowed.

SPECIAL LECTURES

During each academic year the University Lecture Committee arranges for special lectures of value to graduate students interested in various fields of knowledge. The Woman's College Lecture Series brings other guests to the campus. In addition to these lectures, a number of distinguished speakers appear each year on the programs of various schools and departments of the University.

Among the guest lecturers during the academic year 1949-50 were Hanson Baldwin, Military Critic for the New York Times, and Mrs. G. D. H. Cole, noted English writer.

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS

In 1897 Trinity College began sponsoring the publication of "The Historical Papers of the Trinity College Historical Society," which was distributed to members of the Society and by exchange to other institutions. This series was the first publishing venture of the College. In 1902, the 9019, an honor scholastic society on the campus, founded The South Atlantic Quarterly, which is now published by the Press.

In 1921 the Trinity College Press was established to publish the results of research engaged in by the Faculty and such other works as were approved by a board of editors appointed for the purpose. In 1925, with the acceptance of the benefaction of James B. Duke, Trinity College became one of the undergraduate colleges of Duke University, and the following year the University Press was organized to succeed the Trinity College Press.

One of the first steps of the new organization was to revive The Hispanic American Historical Review, which had been founded and published from 1918 to 1922 by a group of scholars interested in Hispanic America. Since 1926 its publication has been continued without interruption, and its mission has been supplemented by many studies dealing with the history, politics, and foreign relations of the Hispanic nations of the New World. In 1929 American Literature was begun with the co-operation of the American Literature Group of the Modern Language Association. This journal was followed in 1931 by Ecological Monographs, a quarterly sponsored by the Ecological Society of America, to take care of papers too long for inclusion in Ecology, which began to appear under the auspices of the Press in 1948. Character and Personality, since 1945 the Journal of Personality, was founded in 1932 as a medium for the publication of studies in fields related to this phase of psychology. In 1935 the Press started the publication of the Duke Mathematical Journal, with the co-operation of the Mathematical Association of America, and in 1937 The Journal of Parapsychology for the publication of the results of research in extrasensory perception and related topics. The Law School of Duke University publishes Law and Contemporary Problems, a quarterly presenting in each issue a symposium treating the legal, economic, and other social-science aspects of current problems. The faculty of the Law School also edits The Journal of Legal Education, which is the official publication of the Association of American Law Schools.

Besides its books, monographs, and regular quarterly publications, the Press issues "Contributions to Psychological Theory" and "Duke University Research Studies in Education," the latter sponsored by the Department of Education of the University. It publishes also the Bulletin of the University Marine Laboratory at Beaufort, North Carolina.

Since its organization the Press has offered to the public the products of scholarly research to the number of more than two hundred volumes. It has not limited its scope to any one field or to any one group of authors. In addition to the many works submitted by members of the Faculty and alumni, a great number of titles by authors without a connection with the University have been issued under the imprint of the Press.

In the broadest sense, the policy of the Press is to make available to the public any scholarly work which, because of the merit of its contents, its style, and its general value, deserves publication, though special attention is given to works in domains of knowledge cultivated by the University and to works pertaining to the region south of the Potomac.

APPOINTMENTS OFFICE

The services of the Appointments Office maintained by the University are extended to all graduate students without charge. Graduate students who are interested in college teaching or employment in industrial fields have been and are being placed in steadily increasing numbers. All graduate students who are interested in securing employment through the Appointments Office, or who wish to have available for their own use in securing employment a complete file containing their academic record and pertinent recommendations, should register with the Appointments Office.

GRADUATE STUDY IN THE SUMMER SESSION

The Duke University Summer Session is divided into three terms of six weeks each. In 1950 the first term begins June 14 and ends July 22, the second term begins July 6 and ends August 12, and the third term begins July 24 and ends August 31. The second term, July 6 to August 12, will offer the greatest variety of graduate courses, except in the departments of English and History. Graduate students who wish to work toward advanced degrees in the Summer Session, particularly in Chemistry, Economics, Education, English, History, Mathematics, Religion, Sociology, Spanish and Zoology will usually find a wide selection of courses offered by members of the Duke Faculty and by visiting professors. Other departments ordinarily offering sequences of work leading to the Master's degree in a series of summer terms are Botany, Physics, Political Science and Psychology. Students in Botany and Zoology have unusual opportunities for research and study in the Duke Marine Laboratory at Beaufort, North Carolina, besides regular courses offered at the University.

Graduate students who present more than fifteen semester hours earned in Summer Sessions toward the Master's degree must meet a minimum residence requirement of thirty-three weeks. No graduate student may register for more than six semester hours of credit in one Summer Session of six weeks. All the work presented for the Master's degree must be completed within six years from the date of beginning. Work completed earlier is not accepted toward either the course or residence requirements. Not more than one year of summer work is accepted toward the residence requirements for the Ph.D. degree.

A Bulletin containing information regarding the graduate courses to be offered during the summer of 1950 may be obtained by addressing the Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C. Summer Session graduate students who desire to be admitted to graduate courses to work toward advanced degrees should make application to the Dean of the Graduate School by June 1 for admission to the first summer term, by June 21 for the second summer term, and by July 10 for the third summer term. They should also request the registrar of the colleges attended to send to the Dean of the Graduate School an official transcript of their undergraduate record.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Most courses listed in this Bulletin are given on the West Campus. The letter (E) following the description means that that course is offered on the East Campus. In general, courses with odd numbers are offered in the first semester, those with even numbers in the second semester.

AESTHETICS, ART, AND MUSIC

PROFESSOR KATHARINE GILBERT, CHAIRMAN—100 ASBURY BUILDING; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN

No graduate degree is offered in this department, but the following courses are suggested as possible minors for students majoring in history, literature, philosophy, religion, psychology, or sociology, or in any other interested departments.

201-202. The Philosophy of Art.—Analysis with the aid of examples of general terms used in the discussion of art. Reference to recent aesthetic theories. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GILBERT
[Not offered in 1950-51]

213-214. History of Aesthetics.—Theories of art and beauty from Pythagoras to Croce. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GILBERT

215. Religious Art of the Ancient Near East.—The development of art, particularly architecture and sculpture, as the material expression of religious ideas in Egypt, Mesopotamia and in part Syria and Palestine to the Persian conquest. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN
[Not offered in 1950-51]

216. Religious Art of the Classical World.—The religious art, particularly architecture and sculpture, of Greece and Rome with special emphasis on the monuments in the Near East. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN
[Not offered in 1950-51]

217. Aegean Art.—A study of the problems of Aegean art as the forerunner of Greek art and in relation to the contemporary civilizations of the eastern Mediterranean world. Open to graduate students, seniors and, after consultation with the instructor, to juniors. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN

218. Early Greek Art.—A study of the problems of the origin and development of Greek art in the geometric period to the end of the archaic. Open to graduate students, seniors and, after consultation with the instructor, to juniors. 3 s.h. (w) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN

DIVISION OF ANCIENT LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES

PROFESSORS CLARK, ROGERS, AND STINESPRING; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS ROSE, TRUESDALE, WAY, AND YOUNG; DR. BROWNLIE

GREEK

Three types of courses are offered for graduate study by the Greek Department, and one representative of each type is given every year. One group of courses is devoted to extensive reading in the six departments of classical Greek literature; another deals with Greek archaeology, dialects, and inscriptions; and the third is a series of seminars covering four years. The courses of each type rotate from year to year in a fixed order for the most part. In 1950-51 the courses offered are 203-204, 247-248, and 305-306.

The requirement for admission to graduate work is four years' study of the Greek language or twenty-four semester hours of course credit. A student with fewer credits may be admitted if he has undoubted ability.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. Greek Tragedy.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

203-204. Homer.—Odyssey. Pindar and Bacchylides. 6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

205-206. Greek Historians.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

207-208. Greek Orators.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

209-210. Plato.—Symposium, Protagoras, and parts of the Republic. 6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

211-212. Aristophanes.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE

(Only one of the six courses listed above is offered each year.)

243. Athenian Topography.—The topography and monuments of ancient Athens. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

244. Greek Epigraphy.—Lectures on the history of the alphabet and the development of the local Greek alphabets, followed by extensive reading of inscriptional texts in facsimile. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

245. Greek Dialects.—A linguistic study of transliterated inscriptions illustrative of the major Greek dialects. The interrelations of the dialectal forms are examined, with reference, where possible, to their origin in protohnic Greek. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

246. Greek Historical Inscriptions.—The more valuable historical inscriptions are read in chronological order and interpreted in their general bearing upon the course of Greek history. 3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

247-248. Greek Archaeology.—Advanced course in the general field for Seniors and Graduates, comprising architecture, sculpture, vases, and the minor arts. 6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

(Of the courses numbered from 243 to 248, only two semester-courses are offered each year.)

257. Social and Cultural History of the Hellenistic World from Alexander to Augustus.—Lectures, readings, and discussions. This course will not be separately credited without the sequel Latin 258. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR ROGERS

FOR GRADUATES

The more advanced work of the graduate department is done in the seminar. One author or group of authors forms the center of study each year. Seminars are offered in Aristophanes (301-302), The Greek Historians (303-304), The Attic Orators (305-306), and The Greek Tragic Poets (307-308). These run through a cycle of four years. In 1950-51 the work will be: 301-302. Aristophanes.

Graduate students of Duke University may attend the American School of Classical Studies in Athens, Greece, without charge for tuition, and they are eligible to compete for the fellowships that are offered annually by the School. These consist of two fellowships in Greek archaeology, and one in the language, literature, and history of ancient Greece, each with a stipend of $1,300. They are awarded mainly on the basis of examinations held in the beginning of February of each year.

LATIN AND ROMAN STUDIES

The program of the Latin Department seeks to provide for two different kinds of student: (a) those who intend to pursue graduate study only to the attainment of the Master of Arts degree, and (b) those who desire to continue research in the field of classical studies and who contemplate working toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Students of the former class should have not less than eighteen semester hours of credit in Latin, over and above the four-year high-school course in Latin or its college equivalent, and an elementary acquaintance with German and French. Students looking to the doctorate should have in addition to the above preparation at least twelve semester hours of credit in Greek and will ordinarily take their minor in Greek. They must have a reading knowledge of German and French. The ability to read Italian will also prove valuable. The Department reserves the privilege of rejecting applications of students who, while meeting these requirements literally, do not in their past records show promise of success in more advanced study.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201. Roman Fiction.

202. Latin Christian Writers.

203-204. Roman Epic: Ennius, Vergil, Manilius, Lucan, Flaccus, Statius, Silius.—A study of this literary genre, and its development by Roman writers; extensive reading of the Roman epics. Not offered if 205-206 is given. 6 s.h. (E)

205-206. Roman Drama: Plautus, Terence, Seneca.—A rapid reading course in which five plays of Plautus, three of Terence, and two of Seneca are studied. 6 s.h. (E)

207-208. Roman Philosophy.

209-210. Vulgar Latin: Introduction to Romance Philology.

211-212. Roman Oratory.—A survey of the history of Roman oratory, centering about the Brutus of Cicero and Tacitus' Dialogus. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

215. Introduction to Roman Art and Archeology.

216. Topography and Monuments of Ancient Rome.

251-252. Roman Life.

258. Social and Cultural History of the Graeco-Roman World.—The Roman Empire as the trustee of Hellenism and Christianity, and its own original contributions to modern civilization; lectures, readings, and discussions. This course continues Greek 257 and will not be separately credited. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

281-282. Roman Historical Literature.

283-284. Roman Law.—Readings in the original sources with parallel study of modern exposition of the Roman legal system. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

FOR GRADUATES

309-310. Sight Reading and Composition.—Comprehensive reading in special fields of Roman Literature not included in other courses, with which the writing of Latin will be correlated. 6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

311-312. Latin Epigraphy.—Introduction to Latin epigraphy, with considerable practice in reading short inscriptions, first semester; and this is followed by a study of important historical inscriptions including the Monumentum Ancyranum; second semester. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR ROGERS

Seminars: Various authors or historical periods are selected from year to year as a basis for training in criticism and research. Seminars are offered in the following: Catullus (301-302), Roman Historians (331-332),

Roman Provincial Administration (341-342), The Reign of Tiberius (343-344), Martial (351-352), Horace (361-362), Lucretius (371-372), and Cicero's Public Career (391-392). The seminar planned for 1950-51 is:

331-332. Roman Historians.—6 s.h.

LINGUISTICS

FOR GRADUATES

375-376. Greek and Latin Linguistics.—A comparative study of the development of forms and inflections in Greek and Latin. 6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

385-386. Elementary Sanskrit.—An introductory course to the classical language and literature. The linguistic importance of Sanskrit will be stressed, especially with reference to Greek, Latin, and Germanic. 6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

SEMITICS

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. First Hebrew.—The principles and structure of the Hebrew language, with translations of selected Old Testament narratives. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR STINESPRING

205-206. Elementary Arabic.—Introduction to the classical language and literature, with some attention to the modern colloquial idiom. 6 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

PROFESSOR STINESPRING

207-208. Second Hebrew.—Samuel or Kings the first semester; Isaiah the second. 6 s.h.

DR. BROWNLEE

FOR GRADUATES

304. Aramaic.—A study of the Aramaic portions of the Old Testament and selected passages from the Targums, Midrashes, and Talmuds. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR STINESPRING

305. Third Hebrew.—A study of late Hebrew prose, with readings from Chronicles, Ecclesiastes, and the Mishnah. Hours to be arranged. 3 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

PROFESSOR STINESPRING

307. Syriac.—A study of the script and grammar, with readings from the Syriac New Testament and other early Christian documents. Some knowledge of Hebrew and Aramic prerequisite. 3 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

PROFESSOR STINESPRING

309. History of the Ancient Near East.—A survey of the early civilizations of Egypt, Palestine, Syria, and Mesopotamia in the light of Biblical archeology. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR STINESPRING

RELATED COURSES IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

Philosophy 217. Philosophy of Aristotle.—3 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR McLARTY

Religion 217. The New Testament in Greek.—Extensive reading of the Greek critical text, with special consideration of variant interpretations. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 218. Galatians and I Corinthians.—A detailed study of two of Paul's major epistles, based on the Greek text. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 220. I Peter and the Gospel of John.—A detailed study of two of the non-Pauline writings of the New Testament, based on the Greek text. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 313.—The Apostolic Fathers.—A study of the Christian development from Clement of Rome to Polycarp, with readings of the Greek text. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 316. Hellenistic Religions at the Beginning of the Christian Era.
—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 318. Text of New Testament.—A study of the materials for the reconstruction of the text, the principles of textual criticism, and the history of the text. Practical exercises in the use of manuscripts and facsimiles will be given. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Under the terms of a co-operative agreement graduate students of Duke University may, with the approval of the chairman of their major department, take any graduate course offered by the Departments of Greek and Latin of the University of North Carolina by the payment of a nominal fee. A list of these courses will be sent upon request.

BOTANY

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST, CHAIRMAN—203 BIOLOGY BUILDING; PROFESSOR KRAMER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—04 BIOLOGY BUILDING; PROFESSORS ADDOMS, HARRAR, OOSTING AND WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND PERRY

Graduate work is offered leading to the Master's and Ph.D. degrees. Students must have a satisfactory background in the biological sciences. This ordinarily includes at least 12 hours of botany beyond an elementary course. A working knowledge of chemistry and of physics is desirable and for some phases of botanical work, required. Graduate work is planned to provide the student with a broad basic training in the various fields of botany, accompanied by specialization in the field of the research problem.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

202. Genetics.—The principles of heredity, their cytological basis, and their bearing on other fields of biology. Laboratory work involves experimental breeding of the fruit fly and interpretation of data from the breeding of plants. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: one year of botany, zoology, or equivalent, and college algebra. 4 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY

203. Plant Cytology.—A study of the structure and organization of plant cells in relation to growth, reproduction, and especially heredity. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

204. Advanced Plant Anatomy.—The structure of vegetative and reproductive organs of seed plants. Physiological and ecological implications of structure are stressed. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Botany 55 or equivalent. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADDOMS

216. Botanical Microtechnique.—Studies in methods of preparing temporary and permanent microscopical slides; theory of staining; the use of the microscope, especially microscopical measurements, drawing, and photomicrography; botanical photography, and lantern slides. Prerequisite: two semesters of botany. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

221. Structure and Classification of Fungi.—Prerequisite: two semesters of botany. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR WOLF

222. Physiology and Ecology of Fungi.—Prerequisite: Botany 221 or equivalent. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR WOLF

225-226. Special Problems.—Students with adequate training may do special work in the following fields. Credits to be arranged.

(a) Bacteriology, Mycology, and Plant Pathology. PROFESSOR WOLF

(b) Cytology. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

(c) Ecology. PROFESSOR OOSTING

- (d) Genetics. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY
- (e) Morphology and Anatomy of Higher Plants.
PROFESSORS ADDOMS, HARRAR AND OOSTING
- (f) Morphology and Taxonomy of Lower Groups.
PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON
- (g) Physiology. PROFESSORS ADDOMS AND KRAMER
- (h) Plant Microchemistry. PROFESSOR ADDOMS
- (i) Taxonomy of Higher Groups. PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

252. Advanced Plant Physiology.—The physicochemical processes and conditions underlying the physiological processes of plants. Prerequisite: Botany 151 or equivalent; organic chemistry recommended. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR KRAMER

255. Advanced Taxonomy.—A study of the historical background of plant taxonomy, modern concepts and systems of classification, nomenclatorial problems, and the taxonomy of specialized groups. Prerequisite: two years of botany, including Botany 52 or equivalent. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

256. Field Ecology.—An ecological survey of local vegetation, including theory and practice in the use of instruments for precise habitat studies, and analysis of community and successional relationships. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR OOSTING

FOR GRADUATES

305. Plant Geography.—The distribution and limits of vegetation types with special consideration of the plant communities of North America. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Botany 156 or equivalent. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR OOSTING

310. Structure and Classification of Bryophytes and Pteridophytes.—The morphological and systematic characteristics of mosses, liverworts, ferns, and fern allies. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

311. Structure and Classification of Algae.—The morphological and ecological characteristics of the common freshwater and marine species and the principles underlying their classification. Collecting, identification, and the making of permanent microscopical preparations. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST

341. Methods in Plant Physiology.—The theory and use of apparatus and methods in the physiological research. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR KRAMER

342. Plant Microchemistry.—The identification and estimation of the constituents of plant cells by the use of microchemical tests. Offered in alternate years. 2 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADDOMS

359-360. Research in Botany.—Individual investigation in the various fields of botany. Credits to be arranged.

PROFESSORS ADDOMS, BLOMQUIST, HARRAR, KRAMER, OOSTING, WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND PERRY

397-398. General Botanical Seminar.—One hour per week throughout the year. Required of all graduates majoring in botany. 2 s.h.

PROFESSORS ADDOMS, BLOMQUIST, HARRAR, KRAMER, OOSTING, WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND PERRY

FOREST BOTANY

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

224. Forest Pathology.—Special reference to diseases of forest trees. Prerequisites: Botany 1 and 2. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR WOLF

253. Dendrology.—Nomenclature, classification, and identification of woody plants with special reference to species indigenous to southeastern United States and other important forest regions of temperate North America. Laboratory and field work. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR HARRAR

RELATED COURSES IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

These related courses may be counted toward a major in botany.

Forestry 257. Design of Forestry Experiments and Analysis of Data.—5 s.h.

PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

Zoology 341. Historical Zoology.—2 s.h.

PROFESSOR HARGITT

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR SAYLOR, EXECUTIVE OFFICER—115A CHEMISTRY BUILDING; PROFESSOR VOSBURGH, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—211 CHEMISTRY BUILDING; PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, AND LONDON; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHAW, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

The graduate work in the Department is planned so as to provide a broad basic training in the fields of inorganic, organic, analytical, and physical chemistry. The selection of the research problem for the A.M. or Ph.D. degree determines in which field further specialization takes place.

An important requirement for the Ph.D. degree is the successful completion, under the direction of a member of the Staff, of a research program leading to the solution of an original problem.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

206. Elements of Theoretical Chemistry.—A course in general theoretical chemistry for students who do not present credit in calculus. Credit is not given for both 206 and 261-262. Three recitations and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, Physics 51-52 or 1-2 and Mathematics 6 s.h. With the permission of the Director of Graduate Studies, graduate students from other departments may offer other advanced science courses in place of some of these prerequisites. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR SAYLOR AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS

215-216. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry.—A study of modern theories of valence and molecular structure; also of inorganic compounds, particularly the less common types, illustrated by suitable laboratory preparations. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, and 261-262, or 206. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOSBURGH AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HILL

233. Instrumental Analysis.—Experiments in the use of physical measuring instruments in chemical analysis with special attention to optical instruments. One lecture and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and one year of physics. 2 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH

234. Physico-Chemical Methods of Analysis.—Discussion of physico-chemical principles as applied to methods of instrumental analysis, illustrated by laboratory experiments, with emphasis on methods involving electrical techniques. One lecture and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 261-262; the latter may be taken concurrently. 2 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH

236. Theory of Analytical Chemistry.—A study of such topics as precision and errors, theories of precipitation and titration, oxidation and reduction, and others, illustrated by typical analytical methods. One lecture. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 261-262. 1 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOSBURGH

251. Qualitative Organic Analysis.—Systematic identification of organic compounds, including a study of solubilities and classification reactions. One lecture and three or six laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 2 or 3 s.h. PROFESSOR HAUSER

252. Advanced Organic Preparations.—A laboratory course including experiments of a more difficult type than those required on the elementary level, accompanied by oral discussions of the techniques and theories involved, and designed to round out the student's knowledge of fundamental organic processes. Three or six laboratory hours. Prerequisite: Chemistry 151-152. 1 or 2 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BROWN AND PROFESSOR BIGELOW

253-254. Advanced Organic Chemistry.—Discussion of the theories of organic chemistry with special reference in the first semester to the mechanism of reactions and in the second semester to the synthesis of some of the more complex compounds such as vitamins, hormones, and alkaloids. Undergraduates are admitted to this course only by permission of the Director of Undergraduate studies. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 4 s.h. PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND HAUSER

261-262. Physical Chemistry.—Fundamentals of general theoretical chemistry illustrated by selected laboratory experiments. Two recitations and three laboratory hours. Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, Physics 51-52 or 1-2 and Mathematics 51-52 or equivalent. 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS AND PROFESSOR SAYLOR

265-266. Chemical Physics. Statistical Theory.—General introduction to statistical mechanics and applications to chemical problems; solution theory, reaction velocity, changes of state, quantum statistics and the metallic state. Lectures, conferences, and assigned problems. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR LONDON

267-268. Chemical Physics. Quantum Theory of Atomic and Molecular Structure.—Theory of atomic and molecular forces and the structure of matter. Lectures, conferences, and assigned problems. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR LONDON

271. Introduction to Research.—Lectures on the use of chemical literature, research methods, recording and publication of results, and other topics. One lecture. 1 s.h. PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND VOSBURGH

273-274. Seminar.—Required of all graduate students in chemistry. One hour a week discussion. 2 s.h. PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, SAYLOR, AND VOSBURGH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

275-276. Research.—The aim of this course is to give instruction in methods used in the investigation of original problems. Nine hours a week and conferences. 3 or 6 s.h. PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, LONDON, SAYLOR, AND VOSBURGH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

FOR GRADUATES

303. Thermodynamics.—Fundamental laws of thermodynamics and their applications to chemistry and physics. 3 s.h. PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH

304. Physical Chemistry of Reactions.—The theoretical aspects of reaction kinetics, chemical equilibrium, atomic and molecular forces, and the relation of these to chemical reactions are considered. Prerequisite: Chemistry 261-262. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS

350. Organic Reactions.—A study of the scope and limitations of the more important types of reactions of organic chemistry from the point of view of their practical use in the synthesis of organic compounds. Lectures and discussion. Prerequisites: Chemistry 251 and 253. 2 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BRADSHER

351-352. Advanced Synthetic Organic Chemistry.—Recent advances in certain selected fields, such as the mechanism of organic reactions, medicinals, dyes, perfumes, terpenes, and alkaloids, will be discussed. The emphasis will be placed on structure studies and synthetic methods. Lecture or seminar one hour each week. 2 s.h.
PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND HAUSER

363-364. Advanced Physical Chemistry.—Recent advances in physical chemistry are considered. Prerequisites: Chemistry 261-262 and 303, or equivalent. 4 s.h.
PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS HILL AND HOBBS

PROFESSOR HOOVER, CHAIRMAN—320 LIBRARY; PROFESSOR SPENGLER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—322 LIBRARY; PROFESSORS BLACK, DE VYVER, HUMPHREY, RATCHFORD, SMITH, AND VON BECKERATH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS HANNA AND SIMMONS

A student who proposes to major in economics in his graduate work should have made an undergraduate record that reveals scholarly competence and have completed, with a grade of "B" or better, at least twelve semester hours in economics distributed as follows: Principles of Economics, six semester hours; Intermediate Economic Theory or equivalent, three semester hours; Elementary Statistics, three semester hours. It is recommended also that, as an undergraduate, he endeavor to complete the following: basic "principles" courses in psychology, philosophy, logic, and each of the social sciences other than economics; mathematics through calculus; several courses in general and cost accounting; enough course work to give him a reading knowledge of two widely used foreign languages; enough work in composition to give him an excellent command of oral and written English, and enough course work in one or several natural sciences to acquaint him well with the methodology of natural science.

In the event of a deficiency in his undergraduate preparation, the student may arrange with the Director of Graduate Studies to remove the deficiency during his first year of residence by taking prescribed courses without graduate credit. Detailed information concerning departmental requirements for advanced degrees may be obtained from the Director of Graduate Studies.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

204. Advanced Money and Banking.—Structure and functioning of the monetary and banking mechanism. Presupposes a thorough grounding in the field. Particular attention is given to significant areas involving issues of economic policy. Primary emphasis is placed upon the underlying basis of monetary management and upon its implementation by the central banking authorities. 3 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SIMMONS

215. Economic Systems.—A study of alternative economic systems. In addition to an analysis of communism, anarchism, and the variants of socialism, the course will include a consideration of other proposed modifications of the existing economic order. Particular attention is given to an analysis of the Soviet economic system. Credit for this course will be given only if the student takes Economics 216. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR HOOVER

216. Economic Functions of the State.—A consideration of the primary and secondary economic functions of government and of the legislation which provides for the performance of these functions. Prerequisite: Economics 215 or its equivalent. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR HOOVER

217. Population Problems and Resources.—Survey of population theory and policy. Study of national and international trends in population—growth and resource—use, together with analyses of their economic and social implications. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR SPENGLER

218. Business Cycles.—Description and analysis of the causes and consequences of economic rhythms and movements of various lengths (e.g., seasonal, cyclical, long-period, etc.). Analysis of methods proposed as means of curtailing such movements, or of mitigating their effects. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR HUMPHREY

231. The Economic History of Europe.—The economic development of Europe from medieval times to the present, treating such topics as guilds, mercantilism, money, banking, crises, the Industrial Revolution, the interrelationships of government and business, and the economic consequences of war. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR SMITH

233. State and Local Finance.—A study of expenditures, taxation, and financial administration in state and local governments with emphasis on current problems. Special attention will be given to research methods and materials and to the financial relations between state and local governments. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR RATCHFORD

234. Federal Finance.—A study of the expenditures, revenues, and financial administration of the government of the United States, with emphasis on current problems. Special attention given to budgetary procedure, corporate and individual income taxes, and the financial relations between federal and state governments. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR RATCHFORD

236. Taxation and Government Finance.—A basic course in public finance for advanced students. Primary emphasis is placed on taxation and tax policy, with consideration also of government expenditures, financial administration, intergovernmental fiscal relations, and public debts. Readings in texts, monographs, and source materials will be supplemented by lectures, class discussions, and reports on special topics. Not open to students who have received credit for Economics 187 or equivalent. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR RATCHFORD

237-238. Statistical Methods.—A study of statistical methods appropriate for dealing with problems in business and the social sciences. In addition to developing more thoroughly the subjects considered in Business Statistics, the following methods will be considered: simple, multiple, partial, and curvilinear correlation; curve fitting; probability; frequency distributions; and reliability of estimates. Prerequisite: Economics 138 or consent of the instructor. 6 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HANNA

241-242. Value and Distribution.—This course is a critical survey of the leading contemporary explanations of price formation and of the determination of interest, rent, wages, and profits. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR SPENGLER

245. Problems of Modern Industrialism.—Description and analysis of the growth of modern industrialism, of the structure and operation of large scale industry, of the inter-relations of industrial, political, and legal development, and of the implications for industry of the modern welfare state. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR VON BECKERATH

256. Labor Legislation.—A study of the relations of the state to labor problems with special reference to remedial legislation, to interference in labor disputes, and to social insurance. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR DE VYVER

260. Social Insurance.—A consideration of the economic and social problems involved in workmen's compensation laws, unemployment insurance, old-age pension, and health insurance for workers. Particular attention will be given to the present federal and state social security legislation. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR DE VYVER

265. International Trade and Finance.—A study of the fundamental principles of international trade and foreign exchange. Subjects covered will include international specialization, balance of payments, foreign investments, tariffs and commercial policies, exchange control, exchange rates, and international monetary problems. 3 s.h.

EDUCATION

PROFESSOR PROCTOR, ACTING CHAIRMAN AND ACTING DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES
 —2A WEST DUKE BUILDING; PROFESSORS CARR, CHILDS, AND NAHM; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BOLMEIER, EASLEY, RUDISILL, AND STUMPF

The Department offers a full major of work in educational psychology toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, with approved minors in as many as two of the departmental divisions listed for the Master's degree and in another department closely related to the thesis problem of the candidate (see below). It is planned to offer complete majors in other divisions as rapidly as growth of the Department warrants.

In addition, the Department offers work toward the Master of Arts and Master of Education degrees, minor work toward the Doctor of Philosophy degree with majors in other departments, and a three-year graduate program in Public School Administration leading to the professional degree, Ed.D. The degree of Master of Arts is available in the divisions of elementary education, experimental education and educational psychology, history and philosophy of education, public school administration, secondary education, and educational sociology. The degree of Master of Education is available in the divisions of elementary education, public school administration, secondary education, and nursing education.

Master's degree candidates must choose their courses according to some unified plan. The mere accumulation of more or less unrelated work in the various divisions with minor work in some department only remotely related to the major field does not lead to a graduate degree. Every candidate for a Master's degree should elect at least six, and preferably twelve, semester hours of course work in his departmental major. No student, except by special approval of the Department and of the Graduate School, is permitted to take minor work in more than one department or to an amount exceeding six semester hours.

For admission to candidacy for the Master's degree within the department, students, in addition to meeting the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School, must satisfy the following specific requirements: (1) eighteen hours of approved prior work in Education; (2) twelve semester hours of approved prior work in a minor field (exception: if psychology or sociology is offered for the minor, six semester hours of work completed after entering the junior year of college satisfy this requirement). To become candidates for the Master of Education degree, students must also (3) make an acceptable score on a test of general ability and (4) show by examination that they are able to write good English.

Candidates for the A.M. degree must write theses. Those who intend to write theses in the history of education are required to take their minor work in American history. Students writing in school administration are advised to elect minor work in economics, sociology, and political science. Students writing in educational psychology should elect their minor work in psychology.

Candidates for the Master of Education degree may or may not write theses. Complete information for both programs will be found on pages 34 and 35 of this Bulletin.

Master of Education candidates who do not write theses must take the four basic courses, Education 204, 210, 217, and 235, must pass a comprehensive examination on them toward the end of their residence, and must stand a comprehensive examination on their departmental major. For candidates for the degree of Master of Education in Nursing Education the departmental major consists of courses Education 310, 311, and 312.

Candidates for the Master of Education degree with thesis must meet the special conditions described on pages 34 and 35, with respect to admission to candidacy, thesis subject, and enrollment in two of the four basic departmental courses.

Students seeking the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in educational psychology must satisfy the uniform requirements of the Graduate School for admission, as well as the Department's requirements respecting approved prior work in education and in a minor field. (See above for the Master's degree.) Candidates are expected to complete 65-75 semester hours of course work and to write theses which represent original contributions. The amount and distribution of course work is an individual matter determined by the supervising committee in relation to the candidate's needs. The program consists of 27-35 semester hours in the major, educational psychology; 15-20 hours in an intra-departmental minor or minors; 15-25 in the extra-departmental minor, and the remainder in related departments as seems advisable. The extra-departmental minor is psychology; few exceptions are allowed. A preliminary examination, covering both major and minor fields, is given late in the second year of graduate work. The doctoral thesis, for which technically eighteen hours of credit are allowed, usually requires more than a calendar year for its completion.

Candidates for the Ed.D. degree must accumulate three years of residence at the graduate level, the last two years at Duke University. A special requirement for admission to the degree program is three years of practical school experience, preferably with some of it in the field of administration. The program calls for approximately 24 semester hours of work in service courses in education and an equal amount of work in a minor or in minor departments, in addition to 24 semester hours of specified work in the field of public school administration in the second and third years. Candidates must write and defend acceptable theses and serve one year of successful apprenticeship under supervision before receiving the degree. For other details in the program, see page 38.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

207. Technique of Teaching.—An advanced course in the teaching process, dealing with the theory underlying sound technique and applied specifically to the work of the elementary school. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR CARR
[Not offered in 1950-51]

212. Psychology of the Elementary School Subjects.—A study of the psychology of learning as applied to teaching the common school subjects. First semester. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR CARR

205-206. Middle English.—Close study of selected texts, with attention to the development of the language and to the history of the literature from 1200 to 1400. A term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR BAUM

215-216. Elizabethan Drama.—Careful study of one or two major dramatists (Jonson or Beaumont and Fletcher) and extensive reading in the other writers (Heywood, Ford, Massinger, Marlowe, Middleton) with emphasis on the nature and qualities of their work in relation to its historical background. Exposition of plays, reports, and a term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GILBERT

217. Milton.—Milton's poetry and prose, with emphasis on the major poems. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GILBERT
[Not offered in 1950-51]

218. Spenser.—The reading of Spenser's work, with chief attention to The Faerie Queene. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GILBERT

219-220. The Eighteenth Century.—Swift, Pope, Defoe, Addison, Steele, and others are studied in the first semester; in the second, Gray, Johnson, Boswell, Goldsmith, the letter writers, and the early Romantic poets. Lectures, oral reports, and a term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR IRVING

221-222. English Literature of the Early Nineteenth Century.—The British Romantic poets and prose writers from Scott to the early Carlyle, with special attention to Wordsworth, Coleridge, and Keats. While these writers will be approached historically, the main object will be to understand and estimate the aesthetic and ethical values of their writings. Discussion and short papers. 6 s.h. (E) VISITING PROFESSOR FOERSTER

223-224. English Literature of the Later Nineteenth Century.—Some of the most important works of the period are discussed in class; the background is filled in by lectures and assigned reading. The first semester is devoted chiefly to Carlyle, Dickens, Thackeray, Tennyson, and Browning; the second semester to Arnold, Ruskin, Pater, George Eliot, Meredith, the Pre-Raphaelites, and Swinburne. A term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR BAUM
[Not offered in 1950-51]

227. Literary Criticism.—A study of the Greek and Roman critics, in chronological order but with emphasis on their permanent value rather than on the mere history; also of the Continental and English critics to about 1700. Lectures, reports, and a term paper. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GILBERT

229-230. American Literature, 1800-1870.—The writers emphasized in the first semester are Emerson, Thoreau, and Hawthorne; in the second semester, Poe and Melville. In the first semester some attention is given also to Edwards, Franklin, Bryant, Longfellow, Holmes, Whittier, Lowell, and Parkman; and in the second semester, to Byrd, Jefferson, Paine, Freneau, Brown, Irving, Cooper, Kennedy, Simms, Timrod, and Lincoln. An oral report and a term paper in the first semester. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR HUBBELL AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEARY

233-234. American Literature since 1870.—Selected works of the chief writers of the period, including Whitman, Lanier, Mark Twain, James, Howells, Emily Dickinson, Crane, Dreiser, and others. The lectures deal with the social background and with the careers of the leading authors. One test and one term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GOHDES

235. History of American Drama.—The development of the theater and of dramatic literature in America. Emphasis will be placed on the drama as a reflection of the philosophical and social influences which affected American writing in other fields. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEARY
[Not offered in 1950-51]

237. English Drama, 1642-1800.—The Heroic Play and the Comedy of Manners of the Restoration period; and the important plays, serious and comic, of the eighteenth century. Lectures, class discussions, and short reports. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WARD
[Not offered in 1950-51]

239. Shakespeare.—A study of the plays and poems, with attention to sources, earlier criticism, and the work of Shakespeare's contemporaries. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR GILBERT
[Not offered in 1950-51]

241. Studies in Dryden.—A detailed study of the poet's non-dramatic work. Lectures on the political, religious, and literary background. A term report. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WARD

[Not offered in 1950-51]

247. Literature in Colonial America.—A study of what was written and read by American colonials. Roger Williams, Edward Taylor, Jonathan Edwards, William Byrd, Benjamin Franklin, and Francis Hopkins are among the writers discussed. Lectures, assigned readings, and occasional papers. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEARY

248. Literature in America, 1775-1820.—The development of a national literature. Philip Freneau, Timothy Dwight, Joel Barlow, Joseph Dennie, Charles Brockden Brown, William Dunlap, and James Kirke Paulding are among the writers discussed. Lectures, assigned readings, and occasional papers. 3 s.h. (w) ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEARY

249-250. English Literature in the Sixteenth Century.—In the first semester, the beginnings of the drama; Barclay and Skelton; More, Elyot, Cheke, and their circles; Ascham; Tottel's Miscellany and A Mirror for Magistrates; Gascoigne; North, Sir Thomas Hoby, and the translators; Lyly; Spenser. In the second semester, Sidney; the sonnet sequences; Marlowe, Kyd, and Peele; Greene, Lodge, Nashe, and Dekker; Shakespeare; Chapman; Jonson. Some of the most important works of the period are discussed in class; the background is filled in by lectures and assigned readings. Short reports on assigned topics and a term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (w)

[Not offered in 1950-51]

251-252. English Literature in the Seventeenth Century.—A survey of the major works in prose, poetry, and drama from 1600 to the death of Dryden. Lectures, reports, and a term paper each semester. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WARD

269-270. Southern Literature.—The principal writers discussed during the first semester are Byrd, Jefferson, Wirt, Kennedy, the Cooke brothers, Legaré, Simms, Timrod, Hayne, Longstreet and other humorists, and the poets of the Civil War. Considerable attention is paid to the historical and cultural background and to Northern and British authors who wrote about the South. An oral report and a term paper each semester. 6 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR HUBBELL
[269 will be offered in the spring semester]

FOR GRADUATES

303. Coleridge.—A study of Coleridge's work as poet and critic, with special emphasis upon his relation to the seventeenth century. Lectures, written and oral reports, one long paper. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR BRINKLEY
[Not offered in 1950-51]

304. Studies in the Metaphysical Poets.—Dome and his followers and their relationship to twentieth-century poetry. Lectures, discussions, reports. Occasional short papers, and a longer study of one poet. 3 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR BRINKLEY
[Not offered in 1950-51]

349-350. Seminar Courses.—An introduction to bibliography and methods of research. One of these courses is required of all candidates for the degree of Master of Arts. 6 s.h. (w)

(a) Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries.

PROFESSOR GILBERT AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WARD

(b) Eighteenth Century.

PROFESSOR IRVING

(c) Early Nineteenth Century.

(d) Later Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR BAUM

(e) American Literature.

PROFESSORS HUBBELL, GOHDES AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR LEARY

[In 1950-51 (a), (b), and (c) will be offered; and (d) (3 s.h.) in the spring semester.]

359-360. Research Courses.—Opportunity for advanced study; intended specially for candidates for the Ph.D. degree. 3 or 6 s.h. (w) STAFF

RELATED COURSES IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

PROFESSOR KORSTIAN, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—307

SOCIAL SCIENCE; PROFESSORS BEAL, COILE, HARRAR, KRAMER, SCHUMACHER, THOMSON, AND WOLF

Major and minor work is offered in the more scientific aspects of forestry leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees to students who have received degrees from professional schools of forestry of recognized standing or from approved colleges or universities. Work for these degrees may be pursued only in forest-tree physiology, wood anatomy and properties, forest pathology, silvics, forest soils, forest mensuration, forest management, forest entomology, and forest economics, except that a major cannot be taken in forest management. College graduates who have had specialized training in botany or soil science and in allied basic subjects, such as physics, chemistry, geology, and zoology, may pursue graduate study and research only in the specialized fields for which their previous work has qualified them. Students who do not have previous training in forestry will be required to complete a minimum of thirty semester hours of approved work in the Division of Forestry as a preliminary requirement for admission to candidacy for the A.M. and Ph.D. degrees. These men will not be regarded as professionally trained foresters. For information on professional training in forestry, see Bulletin of the School of Forestry.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

224. Forest Pathology.—Special reference to diseases of forest trees. Prerequisites: Botany 1 and 2, and Forestry 253, or equivalents. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR WOLF

231. Forest Entomology.—Morphology, general classification, life histories, and control of insects injurious to forest trees, logs, and lumber. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR BEAL

251. Sampling Methods in Forestry.—Statistical background for solution of sampling problems with special reference to sample inventory of a forest property. Offered both semesters. Prerequisite: Forestry S151. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

252. Forest Mensuration.—Empirical equations and curve fitting appropriate for construction of timber yield tables, tree volume and taper tables; significance tests and graphical solution of equations. Assignments require operation of calculating machines. Prerequisite: Forestry 251. 2 s.h.

PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

253. Dendrology.—Nomenclature, classification, and identification of woody plants with special reference to species indigenous to southeastern United States and other important forest regions of temperate North America. Laboratory and field work. Prerequisite: one year of botany. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR HARRAR

257. Design of Forestry Experiments and Analysis of Data.—Role of experimental design in field and laboratory, and statistical analysis of data as aspects of scientific method in forest research. 5 s.h.

PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

259. Wood Anatomy.—Study of the physical features and the gross and minute structural characteristics of wood leading to the identification of the commercial woods of the United States, and the important tropical woods used in American wood-working industries. Elementary microtechnique. Prerequisites: one year of botany. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR HARRAR

260. Properties of Wood.—The chemical nature of wood substance and its industrial chemical derivatives. Wood-moisture relationships; pertinent non-mechanical physical properties; mechanical properties and factors affecting the strength of wood; standard timber testing procedures. Uses of woods as determined by their properties. Prerequisites: Forestry 259, one year of college chemistry; one course of college physics. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR HARRAR

261. Forest Soils.—Origin, development, and classification of soils with special emphasis on those developed in humid climates; morphological, physical, and chemical properties of soils in relation to growth of trees; effect of forests on soils. Prerequisites: Chemistry 1 and 2, and Physics 1, or equivalents; physical geology, mineralogy, petrology, and analytical chemistry are also desirable. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR COILE

263. Silvics.—Ecological foundations of silviculture with special reference to forest site factors; influence of forests on their environment; growth and development of trees and stands; origin, development, and classification of forest communities; methods of studying forest environments. Desirable prerequisites: plant physiology, plant ecology, and Forestry 253 and 261, or equivalents. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

275. Forestry Policy.—Critical study of forestry movement and development of a forestry policy, particularly in the United States; brief résumé of forestry in important foreign countries; public land laws of the United States; development of federal and state forestry; forestry laws. 2 s.h.

PROFESSOR THOMSON

277. Economics of Forestry.—Principles of forest economics. Contributions of land, labor, and capital to income from forestry enterprises; costs of production and maintenance of forest income; forest resources and requirements in products and services; consumption and prices of forest products; forest ownership problems; forest appraisal and comparative valuation; forest fire insurance and forestry credit; forest taxation; timber marketing problems; effect of business cycles and long-term trends upon demand and prices of forest products. Prerequisite: at least one course in the principles of economics. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMSON

FOR GRADUATES

323-324. Advanced Forest Pathology.—Advanced study and research on life histories and control of diseases of forest trees to meet individual needs of graduate students. Prerequisites: plant physiology and forest pathology. Credits to be arranged. PROFESSOR WOLF

351-352. Advanced Physiology of Forest Trees.—Advanced study and research on problems in physiology of forest trees to meet individual needs of graduate students. Prerequisites: plant physiology and plant ecology or silvics. Credits to be arranged. PROFESSOR KRAMER

354. Forest Soil Fertility.—Experimental approach to the problems of fertility in forest soil. Influence of stand composition on nitrogen transformation. Methods of studying the exchange complex and the significance of base exchange in forest soil fertility. Prerequisites: Forestry 251 and 261, plant physiology, bacteriology and analytical chemistry. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR COILE

356. Comparative Forest Valuation.—Critical analysis of classical and contemporary doctrines of comparative forest valuation. Principles underlying the measurement of forces affecting values of land for forestry and alternative uses and investments of capital. Solution of problems involving procedures based upon these principles. Prerequisite: Forestry 277 or equivalent; courses in economic theory are desirable. 2 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMSON

357-358. Research in Forestry.—Credits to be arranged. Students who have had adequate training may do research under direction of members of the Faculty in the following branches of forestry:

a. Silvics.—Prerequisites: Forestry 253, 261, and 263, or equivalents.

PROFESSOR KORSTIAN

b. Forest Soils.—Prerequisite: Forestry 261 or equivalent.

PROFESSOR COILE

d. Forest Management.—Prerequisite: Forestry 280 or equivalent.

e. Forest Economics.—Prerequisite: Forestry 277 or equivalent.

PROFESSOR THOMSON

f. Properties of Wood.—Prerequisites: Forestry 259 and 260, or equivalents.

PROFESSOR HARRAR

g. Forest Mensuration.—Prerequisites: Forestry S151, 251, and 252, or equivalents.

PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

h. Forest Entomology.—Prerequisite: Forestry 231 or equivalent.

PROFESSOR BEAL

GERMANIC LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE

PROFESSOR VOLLMER, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—106 SOCIAL SCIENCE; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SHEARS

201-202. Goethe.—A careful study of Goethe's life and works, with special emphasis upon the broader aspects of his ever-widening interests and literary activities. 6 s.h.

203-204. Eighteenth Century.—Eighteenth-century German literature in its relation to contemporary European philosophy. 6 s.h.

[Offered in 1950-51]

PROFESSOR VOLLMER

205-206. Middle High German.—The language and literature of Germany's first classical period. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOLLMER

207-208. German Romanticism.—The course covers the entire field of German Romanticism from 1800 to 1850. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOLLMER

209-210. Kleist, Grillparzer, and Hebbel.—A study of the leading representatives of German drama in the first half of the nineteenth century. 6 s.h.

211-212. Heinrich Heine.—A study of the German poet and his immediate successors in the movement known as Jungdeutschland. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOLLMER

213-214. Literature of the Empire, 1871-1914.—A study of the literature of this period with special emphasis on a few leading writers such as Fontane, Hauptmann, Mann and Hesse. 6 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SHEARS

[Offered in 1950-51]

FOR GRADUATES ONLY

301-302. Gothic—Middle High German.—In the first term the essentials of Gothic morphology, phonology, and grammar are investigated, and original Gothic literature is read. In the second term the leading medieval German epics are read in the original. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOLLMER

303-304. German Seminar.—A seminar will be conducted in an eighteenth- or nineteenth-century field for properly qualified students. Credit to be arranged.

PROFESSOR VOLLMER

RELATED COURSES IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

The following courses in other departments are recommended to students who are majoring in Germanics, as particularly valuable in building a proper background for Germanic studies:

(a) Graduate courses in literature or philology, offered by the ancient and modern language departments, to be selected after consultation with the Germanic Department.

(b) Graduate courses in history and philosophy, offered by those departments, to be selected after consultation with the Germanic Department.

HISTORY

PROFESSOR LAPRADE, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—2B WEST DUKE BUILDING; PROFESSORS CARROLL, CLYDE, LANNING, ROBERT, AND SYDNOR; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS CURTISS, HAMILTON, MANCHESTER, NELSON, ROBERT, ROPP, AND WOODY; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PARKER

For admission to candidacy to a Master's degree in History the student must present a total of eighteen semester hours of prior work in History, of which at least six must be in American History if he plans to take his major work in that field.

In addition to the preliminary examination described on page 36, a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in History is required to pass, prior to the oral examination on his thesis and his major field, final examinations in three fields of history in addition to his major field; a related subject may be substituted for one of these three fields. The history of the United States and the history of Western Europe must constitute two of these fields unless the major is in the history of the United States or in the history of Western Europe, in which case examination in that field is a part of the final oral examination. The Department is at present prepared to offer graduate instruction in the following fields of history: The history of Western Europe to 1648; the history of Western Europe since 1648; the history of the United States; the history of England; the history of Latin America; the history of American Foreign Relations; the history of the Modern Far East; the history of Russia.

AMERICAN HISTORY

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

203-204. The United States, 1850-1900.—The rise of sectionalism, secession, wartime problems of the Union and Confederacy, political and economic adjustments of Reconstruction, the status of the Negro, the New South, problems of capital and labor, the agrarian revolt, political parties and reform, the Spanish-American War. 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WOODY

207-208. Social and Cultural History of the United States.—A study of American life and manners with emphasis on the social effects of a changing economy, including religious, educational, and reform movements. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR ROBERT

209-210. Constitutional History of the United States, 1763-1860.—A study of the Colonial foundations of American constitutional attitudes, the constitutional aspects of the American Revolution, the framing and ratification of the Constitution, the statehood process and the extension of democracy, the constitutional implications of sectional conflict, and the Supreme Court in its relation to the problems of an industrial America. 6 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

215-216. Foreign Policy and Diplomacy of the United States.—The work in the first semester, covering the period 1775-1877, deals with such topics as the origins and evolution of basic foreign policies; isolation from Europe; paramount interests in Latin America, including the Monroe Doctrine; international co-operation in the Far East. The work in the second semester, covering the period since 1877, deals with such topics as the rise of the new Manifest Destiny; beginnings of American imperialism in Latin America and the Far East; the failure of traditional neutrality in the first World War; postwar conflicts between isolation and collective security; involvement in the second World War. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR CLYDE

[Not offered in 1950-51]

230. The Portuguese Empire and the Rise of Brazil.—The course will deal with Portuguese explorations, the establishment of the Portuguese Empire in the East, the transplanting of Portuguese culture overseas, and the rise of a native Brazilian civilization. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MANCHESTER

231. The Hispanic Colonies of the New World.—The development of the Iberian states as colonizing powers, the work of the conquerors, the Spanish colonial policy and system, their influences and results, native races, the international contest for supremacy, and the decay of Spanish power in America and the Philippines. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR LANNING

[Not offered in 1950-51]

232. The Hispanic American Republics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR LANNING
[Not offered in 1950-51]

233. The Cultural and Institutional History of Colonial Hispanic America.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR LANNING

234. Political and Social Problems in the Hispanic American Republics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR LANNING

263-264. American Colonial History and the Revolution, 1606-1783.—The growth of institutions and economic life in the English colonies; the American Revolution. 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WOODY

[Not offered in 1950-51]

265-266. The Westward Movement in the United States.—A study of the progress of settlement from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast with especial attention to the transmission of culture, developments in transportation, the transition from agrarian to urban communities, the process of state making, and the social, economic, and political effects of the westward march upon the United States as a whole. 6 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

FOR GRADUATES

315. Seminar in Southern History.—Year course. 2 s.h.

PROFESSOR SYDNOR AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WOODY

321. Seminar in the History of Spain and the Spanish-American Colonies.
—Year course. 2 s.h.

PROFESSOR LANNING

336. The South in Federal Politics, 1789-1860.—The interests and political actions of the South on such questions as public lands, internal improvements, foreign policy, the tariff and slavery; the political techniques and theories of the South. Year course. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR SYDNOR

[Not offered in 1950-51]

337. Social and Economic Life of the Old South.—Conditions and trends in the South in respect to population movements, transportation, agriculture, slavery, urban life, commerce, manufacturing, religion, education, and other intellectual activities. Year course. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR SYDNOR

[Not offered in 1950-51]

EUROPE AND THE FAR EAST

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

217-218. Europe since 1870.—International relations since the Franco-German War is the chief subject of study in this course; special emphasis is placed upon the underlying economic and political influence. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR CARROLL

219-220. The History of the European Proletariat.—This course is concerned chiefly with the origins, expansion, and organization of the industrial working classes of Europe. The following problems are emphasized: the decline of serfdom, the growth of an urban working class and social revolutions in England, France, and Germany prior to the eighteenth century, the results of the Industrial Revolution, and labor movements and theories during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR CARROLL

[Not offered in 1950-51]

221-222. The Age of the Renaissance.—The decline of characteristic features of medieval civilization and the rise of modern European institutions with particular attention to intellectual movements from Dante to Erasmus. 6 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NELSON

225-226. The Age of the Reformation.—A survey of European civilization from 1500 through the Peace of Westphalia. 6 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NELSON

227-228. The Napoleonic Empire and Its Aftermath.—A study in the first term of the conditions favoring the rise of Napoleon, the details of his rise to power, the characteristics of his Empire, its importance for European civilization, its decline and collapse, and the attempts of the conservatives at the Congress of Vienna to restore in part the pre-revolutionary world. The theme in the second term is the gradual disintegration of the settlement of Vienna through the ensuing decades to the unification of Germany in 1871. 6 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PARKER

235. War in the Modern World.—This course, which deals with military and naval history since Napoleon, is concerned with the relations between war and modern political, economic, or social conditions rather than with the details of battles. Special attention is given to British and American military methods and to events in the American Civil War and the two World Wars. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR CLYDE

HISTORIOGRAPHY AND THE TEACHING OF HISTORY

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

211. The Teaching of History and the Social Studies.—The work consists of a discussion of the question of aims and values in teaching history and civics, textbooks, programs of study, methods of instruction, the use of maps and pictures, the making of lesson plans for use in the high school, and other problems of high-school teaching. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MANCHESTER

FOR GRADUATES

312. Seminar in the Teaching of History in College.—The work in this course is intended to acquaint students with the problems involved in teaching history in college. It includes critical observation of the teaching by members of the History Staff in Duke University. Year course. 2 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS MANCHESTER AND HAMILTON

This course is required of all candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy who are in residence as many as two years in Duke University unless excused therefrom by the Department.

320. Historiography.—A critical study of the process of finding, appraising, and interpreting the sources of history and of the presentation of the results in narrative. Works of important historians from Herodotus to the present are analyzed. The student undertakes specific exercises in research, criticism, and narration. There is consideration of such general topics as schools, theories, philosophies, and the function of history. Year course. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NELSON

This course is required of all candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy who are in residence as many as two years at Duke University unless excused therefrom by the Department.

329. Historiography of the South.—Attention is given to the more important printed and manuscript sources and to the writings of the older historians. Bibliographical and research problems are introduced. Year course. 4 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WOODY
[Not offered in 1950-51]

MATHEMATICS

PROFESSOR GERGEN, CHAIRMAN—220 PHYSICS BUILDING; PROFESSOR ROBERTS, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—219 PHYSICS BUILDING; PROFESSORS CARLITZ, ELLIOTT, RANKIN, AND THOMAS; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSEL

The Department normally offers one or more courses in each of the main divisions of mathematics: algebra, analysis, geometry, and applied mathematics. The Master's degree with major in mathematics is awarded primarily on the basis of scholarship. The candidate's preliminary mathematical work for the degree must be approved by the Department through the Director of Graduate Studies. It must include differential and integral calculus and an additional six semester hours of work in mathematical courses of at least Junior level. Eighteen of the twenty-four semester hours of course work required by the general regulations for the degree must be taken in the Department.

The Doctor's degree with major in mathematics is awarded as a recognition of potential ability and training in research. The original dissertation is the most important of the formal requirements for it. A candidate should have this requirement in mind from the outset and plan his courses accordingly.

Because of the important mathematical literature in French and German, a student taking graduate work in mathematics should have a practical reading knowledge of these languages near the beginning of his graduate study.

The program for 1950-51 is as follows: Fall semester, 229, 235, 255, 285, 291, 343, 371; spring semester, 230, 236, 256, 286, 292, 344, 372.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201. History of Mathematics.—Evolution of the number system, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, calculus, and modern geometry. Brief sketches of mathematicians. Prerequisite: differential calculus. 3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR RANKIN

204. Teaching of Mathematics.—Fundamental processes, methods of study, mathematical literature, content of courses, applications, use of instruments, correlation of different branches, historical development of secondary school mathematics. Must be preceded or accompanied by integral calculus. 3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR RANKIN

226. Galois Theory of Equations.—Permutation groups, group of an equation, solvability by radicals. Prerequisite: calculus. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

227-228. Theory of Numbers.—Congruences, arithmetic functions, compound moduli, quadratic reciprocity, Gauss sums, quadratic forms, sums of squares. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR CARLITZ

229-230. Algebraic Numbers.—Ideals, unique factorization, divisors of the discriminant, determination of the class number. Prerequisite: theory of equations. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR CARLITZ

235-236. Abstract Algebra.—Groups, fields, rings, matrices, quadratic and bilinear forms, general Galois theory, hypercomplex systems. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR CARLITZ

250. Higher Geometry.—Properties of the triangle, transversals, harmonic properties of figures, poles, polars, inversions. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

255-256. Projective Geometry.—Postulational, synthetic treatment centering around Desargues' theorem and the principle of projectivity. Conics, coördinates, order, continuity, metric properties. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

258. Finite Differences.—Interpolation formulas, symbolic methods, polynomials of Bernoulli and Euler, numerical differentiation and integration, difference equations. Prerequisite: calculus. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CARLITZ

271-272. Introductory Topology.—Topological properties of Euclidean spaces, set-theoretic and combinatorial methods. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR ROBERTS

275. Probability.—Combinatory analysis, mean values, Bernoulli's theorem, probability integral, applications to statistics. Prerequisite: calculus. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSSEL

285-286. Mathematical Analysis for Physicists.—Potentials, Fourier series, Legendre polynomials, Bessel functions, heat equation, wave equation, telegraphic equation, Schrödinger's equation. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSSEL

291-292. Theory of Functions.—Limits, implicit functions, power series, double series, Cauchy's theorem and its applications, residues, Riemann surfaces, conformal mapping. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR GERGEN

FOR GRADUATES

301-302. Algebraic Geometry.—Homogeneous coördinates, singular points and lines, Newton's polygon, Plücker's equations, intersections of curves. Prerequisite: Mathematics 255-256. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

325-326. Real Variable.—Number system, theory of sets, transfinite numbers, Baire classes, Lebesgue, Stieltjes and Denjoy integrals, linear operations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR GERGEN

333-332. Complex Variable.—Analytic continuation, univalent functions, meromorphic functions, analytic functions of several complex variables. Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h.

333-334. Analytic Theory of Numbers.—Distribution of primes, primes in an arithmetic progression, Waring and Goldbach problems. Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR CARLITZ

337-338. Existence Theorems.—Systems of partial differential equations, Pfaffian systems, theorems of Cauchy, Riquier, and Cartan, singular integral varieties. Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

341-342. Integral Equations.—Volterra and Fredholm integral equations, application to boundary problems of differential equations. Prerequisite: differential equations and advanced calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR ELLIOTT

343-344. Ordinary Differential Equations.—Solution by separation of variables, exact differentials, integrating factors, solution in series. Cauchy's existence theorem, linear differential systems, singular points, partial differential equations equivalent to ordinary systems. Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

351-352. Differential Geometry.—Curves and surfaces in three-dimensional Euclidean space, applicability, differential parameters, Riemannian geometry of n-space. Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS

353-354. Trigonometric Series.—Topics in the theory of trigonometric series, related results in Lebesgue integration and complex variable. Prerequisite: Mathematics 325-326. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR GERGEN

371-372. Dimension Theory.—Abstract spaces, separation theory for Euclidean spaces, dimension theory. Prerequisite: Mathematics 271-272. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR ROBERTS

373-374. Continuous Transformations.—Recent results concerning a number of special types of continuous transformations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 271-272. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR ROBERTS

382. Potential Theory.—Properties of harmonic functions, boundary value problems, potentials of general mass distributions. Prerequisite: Mathematics 325-326. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR GERGEN

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR NEGLEY, CHAIRMAN—3-I WEST DUKE BUILDING; PROFESSOR PATTERSON, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—3-I WEST DUKE BUILDING; PROFESSORS GILBERT AND WIDGERY; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. The Philosophy of Art.—Analysis with the aid of examples of general terms used in the discussion of art. Reference to recent aesthetic theories. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GILBERT

203. Contemporary Ethical Theories.—Reading and discussion of twentieth-century American and British moralists. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR NEGLEY

205. The Philosophy of History.—An inquiry into the logic and methodology of the knowledge of history, and into the metaphysical implications of history. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR WIDGERY

208. Political Philosophy.—Analysis of the structure of social organization, with particular reference to the function of legislation in democratic politics. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR NEGLEY

209-210. The Philosophy of Religion.—A critical consideration of the data of empirical religion and the constructive development of modern philosophy of religion. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR WIDGERY

211. History of Ancient Philosophy.—Topic for 1950-51: The Later Dialogues of Plato. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR McLARTY

212. History of Modern Philosophy.—Topic for 1950-51: British Idealists. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR PATTERSON

213-214. History of Aesthetics.—Theories of art and beauty from Pythagoras to Croce. 6 s.h. (E) PROFESSOR GILBERT

217. The Philosophy of Aristotle.—Prerequisite: 93 or 211. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR McLARTY

218. Mediaeval Philosophy.—A study of the philosophy of the Middle Ages with special attention to selected texts from the works of Christian, Jewish and Arabian philosophers. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR PATTERSON

223. Contemporary Philosophy.—Topic for 1950-51: Recent Epistemological Theory. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR PATTERSON

225. Locke, Berkeley, Hume.—3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

231. Philosophy of Science.—An historical and critical survey of the basic philosophical ideas underlying the development of modern science. 3 s.h.

236. Oriental Philosophy I. Chinese Philosophy.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR WIDGERY

238. Oriental Philosophy II. Indian Philosophy.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR WIDGERY

242. Scientific Methodology.—A survey of the methods used in the various natural and social sciences. 3 s.h.

FOR GRADUATES

301a-302a, 301b-302b. Seminar in Philosophy.—Special problems, chiefly metaphysical. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR WIDGERY

307. Seminar: Kant.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NEGLEY

308. Seminar: Hegel.—A study of a selection of the text together with recent interpretations. 3 s.h.

331-332. Seminar in Special Fields of Philosophy.—3 s.h. each semester.

(a) Logic; (aa) Philosophy of Science.

(b) Ethics; (bb) Political Philosophy. PROFESSOR NEGLEY

(c) Aesthetics. PROFESSOR GILBERT

(d) Philosophy of Religion; (dd) History. PROFESSOR WIDGERY

(e) and (ee) History of Philosophy. PROFESSORS WIDGERY AND PATTERSON

341. Seminar: Problems of Political and Legal Philosophy.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NEGLEY

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR NIELSEN, CHAIRMAN—119 PHYSICS BUILDING; PROFESSOR NORDHEIM, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—209 PHYSICS BUILDING; PROFESSORS HATLEY, GORDY, NEWSON, AND SPONER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

The Department of Physics makes provision for both beginning and advanced graduate students. The courses are designed to give a broad basic foundation in classical and modern physics.

All graduate students will first be expected to acquire a thorough knowledge of the various branches of classical physics as well as some familiarity with modern physics and basic laboratory skills. They will be required to take such course work in the 200 group of studies as may be necessary to complete this foundation.

To complete their course requirements in physics, graduate students will take such advanced courses as will best help them and fit them for the type of work in which they plan to specialize and undertake research. The character of the work in other related departments will also depend upon the field of subsequent specialization and research.

Since a reading knowledge of French and German is highly desirable, students are urged to satisfy the language requirements in both as early as possible.

201-202. Mechanics.—The fundamental principles of statics and the dynamics of particles and rigid bodies. Three recitations each week. 6 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

203-204. Electricity and Magnetism.—Fundamentals of electricity and magnetism. Electrostatics and magnetostatics. Direct current circuits, and networks-bridges, potentiometers, galvanometers, alternating current circuits and networks. Electromagnetic waves. 6 s.h. (w)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

205. Spectroscopy.—The theory of optical instruments and a discussion of spectroscopic laws and of information obtained by spectroscopic methods. Three lectures and one three-hour laboratory each week. 4 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR SPONER

207. Sound and Acoustics.—Theory of vibrating systems. Mechanical-electrical-acoustical analogies. Emission and reception of sound, speakers and microphones. Transmission, reflection, refraction, diffraction and absorption of sound. Acoustical applications. Two lectures and one three-hour laboratory each week. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR NIELSEN

213-214. Contemporary Physics.—A course which covers the fundamental concepts and the experimental basis of modern physics. Three lectures each week. 6 s.h. (w)
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

217-218. Advanced Physics Laboratory.—Measurements involving the fields of mechanics, electricity, magnetism, heat, sound, optics, and modern physics. 2-6 s.h. (w)
THE STAFF

219. Introduction to Electronics.—Fundamentals of electron tubes. Motion of charged particles, space charge, gaseous conduction. Electron tube circuits. Three hours of lecture and one three-hour laboratory per week. 4 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR GORDY OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

220. Electron Circuit Analysis.—Linear and non-linear circuit analysis, electric oscillations, operation of filters, Fourier analysis of wave phenomena, coupling in electrical circuits. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR GORDY OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH

243. Elementary Nuclear Physics.—Radioactivity, nuclear transmutations, properties of nuclear radiations and sources of nuclear particles. 3 s.h. (w)
PROFESSOR NEWSON

FOR GRADUATES

303. Thermodynamics.—Fundamental laws of thermodynamics and their applications to physics and chemistry. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR SPONER

305. Kinetic Theory of Matter.—Gas laws, Maxwell's distribution law; mean free path; viscosity; heat conductivity; diffusion; phenomena in gases at low pressure; specific heat; entropy; probability and reaction kinetics. 3 s.h.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

307. Advanced Mechanics I.—General dynamics of particles, systems of particles, and rigid bodies. The methods of Lagrange and Hamilton; general principles of mechanics. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR NORDHEIM

308. Advanced Mechanics II.—Mechanics of deformable bodies. Statics and dynamics of elastic and fluid media. 3 s.h. (w) PROFESSOR NORDHEIM

315-316. Principles of Quantum Theory.—Original and fundamental concepts of quantum theory; wave and matrix mechanics; theory of measurements; exclusion principle and electronic spin. 6 s.h. PROFESSOR NORDHEIM

318. Theory of Electricity and Magnetism.—Electrostatics and potential theory. Dielectric and magnetic media. The magnetic field of currents and the law of induction. AC currents and networks. 3 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

319. Electrodynamics.—Maxwell's system of electrodynamics. Production and propagation of electromagnetic waves. Wave optics. Theory of interference and diffraction. Crystal optics. 3 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

320. Theory of Electrons.—Lorentz' equations of electrodynamics. Classical theories of dispersion, magnetism, and conductivity. Theory of relativity. 3 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

323. Theory of Atomic Spectra.—Excitation of spectra, computation of wave lengths from photographs of spectra, study of the structure of atomic spectra with applications. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR SPONER

324. Theory of Molecular Spectra.—A study of the structure of molecular spectra with applications. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR SPONER

331. Microwave Theory and Application.—Microwave generators, cavity resonators, transmission lines, radiation propagation and detection. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR GORDY

335. Microwave Spectroscopy.—Application of microwaves in the determination of molecular, atomic, and nuclear properties. Stark and Zeeman effects in microwave spectroscopy. Magnetic resonance absorption. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR GORDY

340. Structure of Matter.—Selected topics dealing with the constitution of matter such as crystal structure and x-rays, the solid state and problems of molecular structure. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR SPONER

341. Advanced Topics in Quantum Theory.—Quantum theory of radiation and collisions with special reference to nuclear physics. Prerequisite: Physics 315-316. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR NORDHEIM

344. Advanced Nuclear Physics.—The deuteron, nuclear forces, scattering of elementary particles, beta-radiation. Other aspects of nuclear physics susceptible to theoretical interpretation. 3 s.h. (w)

PROFESSOR NEWSON

351-352. Seminar.—A series of weekly discussions on topics related to the research projects under investigation in the Department. 2 s.h.

STAFF

353-354. Thesis Seminar.—Students who are properly qualified may carry on research work under the direction of members of the Staff. 6 s.h.

STAFF

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROFESSOR RANKIN, CHAIRMAN—308 LIBRARY; PROFESSOR WILSON, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—405 LIBRARY; PROFESSORS COLE, CONNERY AND VON BECKERATH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS HALLOWELL AND VAN WAGENEN

The Department offers instruction designed to afford preparation for teaching, for government service, and for other work related to public affairs.

A student applying for admission to candidacy for an advanced degree with a major in political science is ordinarily expected to have previously completed at least twelve semester hours of course work in political science, including some work in American Government.

Fields of political science in which instruction is at present offered for candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are the following: American Government and Constitutional Law; Comparative Government; Political Theory; American State and Local Government; International Law; Public Administration. Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy who propose to major in political science must elect five fields, including Comparative Government and Political Theory; at least one of the five fields must be taken in a department other than the Department of Political Science.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

207. American Constitutional Law and Theory.—A study of leading principles of American government, as developed through judicial interpretation of the Constitution. 3 s.h.
PROFESSORS WILSON AND RANKIN

209. State and Local Government in the United States.—A study of the historical development of state and local governments, their present organization, their relation to each other and to the federal government. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR RANKIN

211. Political Institutions of the Far East.—A study of the governmental system of Japan, Korea, and China from the Chou Dynasty to the present. 3 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

212. International Politics of the Far East.—A study of changing power relationships in the Orient since the arrival of the Europeans. 3 s.h.

[Not offered in 1950-51]

221. International Public Organization.—A study of the structure and functioning of the United Nations system and of selected organizations outside that system. 3 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR VAN WAGENEN

223. Political Thought to the Seventeenth Century.—A survey of political thought from the time of Plato to the close of the sixteenth century. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR WILSON

224. Modern Political Theory.—Political theories of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and of the first half of the nineteenth, with a study of their influence upon modern political institutions. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR WILSON AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALLOWELL

225. Comparative Government.—A comparative study of modern political institutions with particular attention to European constitutional government and politics. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR COLE

226. Comparative Government.—A comparative study of modern political institutions with particular attention to European authoritarian and dictatorial government and politics. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR COLE

227-228. International Law.—Elements of international law, particularly as interpreted and applied by the United States. 6 s.h.
PROFESSOR WILSON

229. Recent and Contemporary Political Theory.—An analytical study of liberalism, socialism and fascism, with special attention to the political theories of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. 3 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALLOWELL

230. American Political Institutions.—A study of the formation and development of institutions of the national government in the United States, with historical and analytical treatment. 3 s.h.
PROFESSOR RANKIN

231. American Political Theory.—An analysis of the main currents in American political thought from colonial beginnings to the present day, with emphasis upon the development of liberalism in America. 3 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALLOWELL

235. The British Commonwealth.—An analysis of the political relationships between the members of the British Commonwealth and a comparative study of the governments of the British Dominions, with particular reference to Canada. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR COLE

241. National Administration.—The development of the federal administrative structure, its present organization, working concepts and processes in the United States. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CONNERY

242. Administrative Management.—The role of the executive in administrative planning, organization, direction and supervision, with some reference to methods of work simplification and management improvement. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CONNERY

244. Administrative Law.—The law of the administrative process, including the nature of regulatory authority, the status and liability of public officers, administrative tribunals and judicial review of administrative action. 3 s.h. [Not offered in 1950-51] PROFESSOR CONNERY

246. Government Administration and Public Policy.—Through use of the laboratory technique, a consideration of the type of administrative problems that the United States Government encounters in the field of public policy and their possible solution. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CONNERY

247. Regulatory Administration.—A survey of the problems involved in the exercise of administrative discretion, including methods of administrative adjudication, judicial control over administrative action, and extra-legal relations. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CONNERY
[Not offered in 1950-51]

252. Spanish-American Constitutionalism.—A comparative study of the nature, sources, and use of political authority in the constitutional law of Argentina, Chile, Colombia, and Uruguay. 3 s.h.

271. Sociopolitics and Capitalism.—Labor and labor policies in Western Europe and the United States in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries; the development of the monopoly power and political power of labor in recent decades. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR VON BECKERATH

291. Municipal Government.—A study of problems relating to the structural system and activities of municipalities in the United States. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR RANKIN

292. Municipal Administration.—A study of principles and methods of municipal administration in the United States. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR RANKIN

FOR GRADUATES

310. Seminar in State Government.—Open to students who have completed course 209 or its equivalent. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR RANKIN

311. Seminar in Far Eastern Politics.—Open to students who have completed course 211 or its equivalent. 3 s.h. [Not offered in 1950-51]

321. Seminar in Political Theory.—Open to students who have completed 6 s.h. in Political Science 223, 224, 229, 231 or their equivalents. 3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HALLOWELL

325. Seminar in Comparative Government.—Open to students who have completed course 225 and 226 or their equivalents. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR COLE

328. Seminar in International Law.—Open to students who have completed course 227-228 or its equivalent. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR WILSON

341. Seminar in Public Administration.—Open to students who have completed course 241 and 242 or their equivalents. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR CONNERY

PSYCHOLOGY

PROFESSOR ADAMS, CHAIRMAN—201 BIVINS HALL; PROFESSOR ZENER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—205 PSYCHOLOGICAL LABORATORY; PROFESSOR RODNICK, DIRECTOR OF CLINICAL TRAINING—110 BIVINS HALL; PROFESSORS DAI, KUDER AND LUNDHOLM; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BANHAM AND KOCH; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR COHEN

The aim of the Department is to provide opportunity for advanced study and research in a variety of fields of general experimental and clinical psychology.

Regardless of the field of eventual specialization, a thorough grounding in the facts, methods, and theories of general psychology is required. The graduate program is planned so as to achieve this common background primarily during the first year, with specialization in course work in the second. Normally the language examinations, preliminary examination, and a special examination in statistics would be passed and the doctoral dissertation formulated by the end of the second year. Emphasis is laid upon the completion, under direction of a member of the Staff, of a dissertation demonstrating competence and independence in the successful investigation of an original and significant problem.

Students specializing in clinical psychology will undertake field work in a variety of clinical settings as an integral part of their academic work during the first and second years. In addition, they will normally spend the third year in an appropriate internship, with the fourth year in residence at the University to complete the dissertation.

No limitation is laid down as to the departments in which it is possible to minor. The fields most usually relevant to graduate study in psychology, however, are sociology and anthropology, endocrinology, physiology, neuro-anatomy, education, and philosophy.

In addition to the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School, a candidate must have satisfactorily completed fifteen semester hours of course credit in psychology. A deficiency in undergraduate preparation may, in certain cases, be removed by taking courses without graduate credit concurrently with a correspondingly reduced schedule of graduate courses as arranged with the Director of Graduate Studies.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. Proseminar.—An integrated core curriculum in fundamental and general psychology, designed to provide an advanced background in the principles, and the empirical and theoretical methods, of the major fields of psychology. The topics include: scientific methods in psychology, biological foundations of behavior, motivation, learning, perception, behavior development, personality, the social determinants of behavior, and contemporary psychological theories. Required of all first year students. 9 s.h. each semester.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR KOCH; PROFESSORS ADAMS, KUDER, RODNICK, AND ZENER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BANHAM

203. Dynamic Psychology: Conation and Our Conscious Life.—A systematic presentation of the psychology of adult human achievements, adaptive as well as creative, with emphasis upon the significance for these endeavors of the acts of experiencing. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR LUNDHOLM

204. Motivation and Learning.—Social and biological conditions of the operation, modification, and organization of motivational systems. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ZENER AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR KOCH

[Not offered in 1950-51]

206. Social Psychology.—Kinds of membership character; psychology of social movements; propaganda; revolution; nationalism; war. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADAMS

207. Psychology of Memory, Thinking, Perceiving.—A study of thinking, remembering, and perceiving with reference to the basic processes involved and their determining conditions, with emphasis upon organization, meaning, and motivation. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ZENER

[Not offered in 1950-51]

209. Experimental Methods in Human Psychology.—A study of methods for the control, identification, and recording of essential variables in human psychological situations, with consideration of the relation of experimental techniques to problem formulation and psychological theory. Laboratory and lectures. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR ZENER

212. Physiological Psychology.—An advanced study of the interrelationships between psychological and physiological processes. Prerequisites: courses in Neuro-anatomy and in Physiology (M204 and M261, or Zoology 324, or their equivalents). 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ZENER

215. Developmental Psychology.—The environmental forces conditioning the development of personality structure and the mechanisms contributing to psychological growth; critical periods in character formation from infancy to senescence. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADAMS

221-222. Propracitum.—Lectures, demonstrations and practice in the use of basic procedures, projective and non-projective, employed in clinical psychology; principles of interpretation and reporting of test findings. Laboratory periods will be held in clinical field facilities. 3 s.h. each semester.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BANHAM AND CLINICAL STAFF

223. Abnormal Psychology.—A systematic presentation of the psychology of functional mental disorders with emphasis on its bearing upon general psychological theory. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR LUNDHOLM

[Offered in spring semester only]

224. Psychology of Aesthetics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR LUNDHOLM

226. Psychology: Historical and Theoretical.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR ZENER
[Not offered in 1950-51]

236. Theoretical Psychology.—This course is devoted to the analysis of techniques of theory construction in psychology. The discussion of these methodological issues is co-ordinated with the analysis of concrete formulations in contemporary psychological theory. 3 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR KOCH

265. Fundamental Statistical Procedures in Psychology.—A course in the application of the more common statistical principles and techniques used in psychological research. Measures of central tendency, variability, and correlation, and the elements of sampling theory are studied with illustrative data from various problem areas in psychology. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR KUDER

266. Advanced Statistics of Psychological Investigation.—A study of various more advanced statistical principles and procedures employed in psychological research. The course includes the topics of multiple and partial correlation, analysis of variance as employed in controlled experimentation, measures of correlation other than product-moment correlation, reliability and validity of measures, and fundamental concepts of factor analysis. Prerequisite: Psychology 265 or its equivalent. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR KUDER

FOR GRADUATES

302. Seminar.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR LUNDHOLM

303-304. Research.—2 or 3 s.h.

PROFESSORS ADAMS, DAI, KUDER, LUNDHOLM, RODNICK, AND ZENER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BANHAM AND KOCH

305. Psychopathology.—An examination of behavior disorders, with particular emphasis on explanatory concepts and the evidence from research in this field. 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR RODNICK

306. Seminar in Child Psychology (Clinical).—2 or 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADAMS

309. Theory of Learning.—3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ADAMS

310. Seminar: Selected Problems in the Dynamics of Behavior.—3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ZENER

320. Seminar in the Theory of Mental Tests.—3 s.h.

PROFESSOR KUDER

331. Interviewing Methods of Case Study.—Lectures, conferences and practice in interviewing, the technique of anamnesis; types of interview for different purposes; directive and non-directive methods; summarizing and reporting case histories; use of interviewing techniques in the diagnosis and treatment of personality problems. 3 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BANHAM

[Not offered in 1950-51]

335. Clinical Psychology Practicum.—Seminar discussion and supervised field experience in the application of psychological procedures and principles to clinical cases in a variety of institutional settings. Prerequisite: Psychology 221 and 222. 3 to 6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR COHEN; PROFESSOR RODNICK;
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BANHAM

336. Psychological Diagnosis.—Seminar discussions and supervised field experience with concentration on special diagnostic problems. Prerequisite: Psychology 335. 3 to 6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR COHEN; PROFESSOR RODNICK;
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BANHAM

341. Society, Culture and Behavior Disorders.—A critical survey of current theories of the structure and genesis of psychoneurosis, with particular stress on psychoneurotic disturbances as problems of the self in relation to society and culture. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR DAI

342. Principles of Psychotherapy.—A critical study of the current methods of treating behavior disorders, such as brief psychoanalytic therapy, non-directive methods and group procedures. Stress is laid on integration of the best workable procedures into a set of psychotherapeutic principles in a socio-psychological frame of reference as discussed in Psychology 341 which is a prerequisite. Case material will be used for purposes of illustration. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR DAI

371. Pre-school Behavior Problems.—The diagnosis and treatment of behavior problems, to include: types and selection of problems for study, analysis and statement of the problem, systematic inquiry into causes, planning and allocating treatment programs, follow-up inquiry, progressive adaptation of treatment, preventive measures. Prerequisites: at least one course in child development, in mental measurement, and in abnormal psychology. 3 s.h.

RELIGION

PROFESSOR SMITH, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—302 DIVINITY SCHOOL; PROFESSORS CLARK, CUSHMAN, PETRY, SPENCE, AND STINESPRING;
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BEACH; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR
YOUNG; AND DR. BROWNLEE

Graduate study in religion leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy may be pursued in three fields: (1) Biblical Studies; (2) Studies in Church History; and (3) Studies in Christian Thought. A student majoring in one of these fields will be expected to take such courses in one or both of the other fields as may be necessary to give an adequate understanding of his own field of specialization.

Students pursuing work in the field of religion will be expected to take such other courses in cognate fields as will aid in the understanding of their field of specialization. Special attention is called to the Division of Ancient Languages and Literature for those working in Field I; to the Department of History for those working in Field II; and to the Departments of Philosophy, Political Science, and Sociology for those working in Field III.

ROMANCE LANGUAGES

PROFESSOR JORDAN, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—214 CARR; PROFESSORS COWPER AND WALTON; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS
CASTELLANO AND DAVIS

To be eligible for graduate study in this Department, the student should normally have credit for four years of college work in the chosen language, or eighteen hours beyond the conventional two units offered at entrance to college. In addition to this minimum requirement, one semester of composition and grammar review is highly desirable.

It is recommended that candidates for the Master's degree take a second Romance Language for the minor subject.

A candidate for the Ph.D. degree should be equipped to follow graduate courses in a second Romance Language. Some training in Romance Linguistics will be required for this degree, the amount to be determined by the Department upon consideration of the student's preparation in the field.

Graduate students will be required to maintain oral practice in their major language through non-credit exercises that will be provided.

PROFESSOR GRAY, CHAIRMAN—218 BIOLOGY BUILDING; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WILBUR, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—328 BIOLOGY BUILDING; PROFESSOR EMERITUS PEARSE; PROFESSOR HARGITT; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BOOKHOUT, HUNTER, AND WHARTON; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS HORN AND JOHNSON

For admission to candidacy for the Master's degree the applicant should have completed an undergraduate major in zoology or its equivalent. (Courses in general science and botany cannot be counted as a part of the zoology major.) This normally amounts to about twenty-four semester hours of course work, which should be distributed among the various fields of zoology and must include comparative anatomy of vertebrates or vertebrate zoology, physiology, and embryology. The major work must have been passed with good grades. At least one year of chemistry is required, and a year of physics is recommended. Work for the degree will require eighteen hours in advanced courses in zoology, six hours in a minor department, and a thesis.

For admission to candidacy for the Ph.D. degree it is expected that the undergraduate major in zoology will amount to about thirty-two hours which have been passed with good grades. Comparative anatomy of vertebrates or vertebrate zoology, physiology, and embryology must be included in the undergraduate major. At least two years of chemistry and one year of botany are required and one year of physics is recommended; for certain fields organic chemistry is desirable. Toward the end of the first year of residence a committee will be appointed for each candidate, which will review his preparation and set specific requirements to be met. This program will include one or more graduate courses in each of several fields of zoology; broad knowledge of science in general and of biology in particular, attained by wide reading; required major and minor courses, and research; and a satisfactory dissertation which is the result of original work. The Department requires that a first draft of the dissertation shall be completed by March 15 of the year in which the degree is to be conferred. At least one year before the degree is to be conferred each candidate must pass an examination on the whole field of zoology and the minor.

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

202. Helminthology.—Classification, morphology and host relations of parasitic worms. Lectures, readings, reports and laboratory work. Prerequisite: Zoology 161. 4 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HUNTER

204. Advanced Parasitology.—Lectures, conferences, readings, and laboratory work dealing with practical and theoretical matters relating to animal parasites. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Zoology 161. 4 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

222. Entomology.—Anatomy, physiology, embryology, and classification of insects. Prerequisite: one year of zoology. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR GRAY

224. Vertebrate Zoology.—A study of the life histories, adaptations, ecology, and classification of vertebrate animals. Prerequisite: Zoology 53. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR GRAY

229. Endocrinology.—The structure, physiology, and embryology of the endocrine glands. Lectures, reading assignments, reports, and laboratory work. Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92, and 171. 4 s.h.

238. Systematic Zoology.—The fundamental theory and practice involved in the collection, identification and classification of animals. Prerequisites: Zoology 1 and 2. 4 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

253. Advanced Vertebrate Morphology.—Lectures, reports and reading assignments in the comparative morphology of the vertebrates, with particular emphasis on theories concerning the interrelationships of vertebrates, and the origin of certain vertebrate structures. Advanced laboratory study in selected groups of vertebrates. Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92. 4 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HORN

271. General Physiology.—The physiological processes of living matter approached through studies of cells. Prerequisites: two years of biology and at least one year of chemistry. 4 s.h. (w)

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WILBUR

274. Invertebrate Zoology.—A study of structure, functions, and habits of invertebrate animals under normal and experimental conditions. Field trips will be made to study, collect, and classify animals in their natural habitats. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 1 and 2. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

276. Protozoology.—The morphology, physiology, taxonomy, and culture of protozoa. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 1 and 2. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

278. Invertebrate Embryology.—Lectures, readings and laboratory work dealing with culture, development and life history of invertebrates. Prerequisite: Zoology 92. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

FOR GRADUATES

303. Ecology.—Relation of animals to environment. Lectures, readings, reports, conferences; laboratory and field work. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR GRAY

306. Advanced Ecology.—Lectures, conferences, field work, and methods. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisite: Zoology 303. 4 s.h.

307. Foundations of Zoology.—Lectures, readings, and discussions on the background and training essential for a professional zoologist. Offered in alternate years. 2 s.h.

324. Advanced Physiology.—Recent advances in Physiology. Lectures, conferences and laboratory work. Prerequisite: Zoology 271. 4 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WILBUR

328. Experimental Embryology.—Lectures, readings, reports and laboratory work. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92, 156, 271, or equivalents. 4 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JOHNSON

341. Historical Zoology.—Readings and discussions. A critical study of the developments of modern biological concepts and theories, their past and present significance. Offered in alternate years. 2 s.h.

PROFESSOR HARGITT

343. Cytology.—The structure of the cell. Lectures, readings, reports, and laboratory work. Offered in alternate years. Prerequisites: Zoology 53, 92, 156, or equivalent. 4 s.h.

PROFESSOR HARGITT

351-352. Zoological Journal Club.—A weekly meeting of graduate students and Faculty to hear reports and to discuss biological facts, theories, and problems. One hour a week throughout the year. Required of all graduate students who major in zoology. 2 s.h.

STAFF

353-354. Research.—Students who have had proper training may carry on research under direction of members of the Staff in the following fields. Hours and credits to be arranged.

(a) Embryology.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JOHNSON

(b) Physiology.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WILBUR

(c) Histology, Cytology.

PROFESSOR HARGITT

(d) Invertebrate Zoology, Histology, Cytology.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BOOKHOUT

- (e) Ecology. PROFESSOR GRAY
 (f) Entomology, Vertebrate Zoology. PROFESSOR GRAY
 (g) Vertebrate Morphology and Morphogenesis.
 ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HORN
 (i) Parasitology. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HUNTER
 (i) Parasitology. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHARTON

355-356. Seminar.—Special seminar courses in particular fields are given by various members of the Staff when the number of students makes them desirable. These will be in the fields indicated under courses 353-354 above. 2 s.h.

COURSES IN THE MEDICAL SCHOOL OPEN TO GRADUATE STUDENTS

PROFESSORS BEARD, F. BERNHEIM, CONANT, EADIE, HALL, HETHERINGTON, MARKEE, NEURATH, AND D. T. SMITH; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS EVERETT, HANDLER, MCCREA, PEELE, SAWYER, AND TAYLOR; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS M. L. C. BERNHEIM, DUKE, SCHWERT, AND RUNDLES

The facilities of the departments listed below are available to qualified students for independent or supervised research and investigations whether working for advanced degrees or otherwise.

Graduate students desiring to pursue a major or a minor in any of the departments listed below or to be admitted to any of the courses listed below should consult or write to the Director of Graduate Studies of the Department concerned: Anatomy, Dr. J. E. Markee; Microbiology, including Parasitology, Dr. D. T. Smith; Biochemistry and Nutrition, Dr. H. Neurath; Physiology and Pharmacology, Dr. Frank G. Hall. Because of special schedules in the Medical School, graduate students are advised to write the Heads of the Department for the exact dates of the different courses.

ANATOMY

Completion of training equivalent to that required of an undergraduate majoring in biology is prerequisite for these courses in human anatomy.

M201. Gross Human Anatomy.—A course especially designed for graduate students, comprising a complete dissection of the cadaver. The laboratory work is supplemented by conferences which place emphasis on the biological aspects of the subject. Oct.-Feb. Hours and credits (maximum 8 s.h.) by arrangement. Prerequisite: adequate training in comparative anatomy and embryology. DR. MARKEE AND STAFF

M202. Microscopic Anatomy.—Conferences and laboratory work on the morphological characteristics of the tissues of the animal body. The work is based upon a study of fresh and prepared material and is approached from the physiological viewpoint. Oct.-Feb. Hours and credits (maximum 3 s.h.) by arrangement. Prerequisite: adequate training in histology or cytology. DR. MARKEE AND STAFF

M203. Anatomy of the Nervous System.—A study of the gross and microscopic structure of the human central nervous system, special attention being paid to the structural and functional relationships between the various nuclei and fiber tracts. Oct.-Feb. Hours and credits (maximum 4 s.h.) by arrangement. Prerequisite: Anatomy M201. DR. MARKEE AND STAFF

M204. Neuroanatomical Basis of Behavior.—A study of the gross and microscopic anatomy of the nervous system with emphasis on the structural and functional relationships between tracts, nuclei, and cortical areas. In so far as possible the result of deficit in a system or systems will be demonstrated by motion picture aids and the mechanisms involved will be reviewed and discussed. Restricted to graduate students with the equivalent of a major in Psychology. 3 s.h.

DR. HETHERINGTON

MICROBIOLOGY

M221. Bacteriology and Immunology.—This course is devoted primarily to the study of the biological and immunological relationships of microorganisms (bacteria, fungi, Rickettsia and viruses) in disease. It is not a course in bacteriologic technique. An additional course in technical methods is provided for those who require it. Five lectures, two 1-hour conferences and three laboratory periods of 3 hours each weekly, in fall quarter. Prerequisites: courses in general zoology, general botany, histology and comparative anatomy, general and organic chemistry. 6 s.h.

DR. D. T. SMITH AND STAFF

M322. Immunochemistry.—A seminar dealing with the fundamentals of immunological reactions in general and with the chemistry of antigen-antibody reactions in particular. 2 s.h.

M323. Advanced Bacteriology and Immunology.—This course is intended primarily for graduate students majoring in bacteriology, but it is also available as a minor to such other graduate students in related fields, to whom it is recommended by respective supervising committees and with the approval of the Department of Bacteriology. Prerequisites: Bacteriology and Immunology, M221. 8 s.h.

DR. D. T. SMITH AND STAFF

M324. Research Seminar on Viruses.—Limited to advanced students. 2 s.h. per semester.

DR. BEARD

M325. Medical Mycology.—This course is intended to familiarize the graduate student, majoring in mycology, with the fungi causing disease in man and animals. The course includes practical laboratory work with materials from patients in Duke Hospital and that sent to the Duke Fungus Registry from outside sources. Prerequisites: A.M. in Botany with Major in Mycology and M221. Course limited to four students each year. 8 s.h.

DR. CONANT

BIOCHEMISTRY AND NUTRITION

The program of graduate studies in biochemistry is designed primarily for Ph.D. candidates who intend to pursue a research career in this field. Candidates for the A.M. degree only are not encouraged to apply for admission and are accepted only under exceptional conditions. Before registering for graduate courses in biochemistry, students are required to have completed at least one year of graduate course work in chemistry, physics, and/or biology at Duke University or at some other approved institution. As preparation for courses in advanced chemistry, the student must have completed college courses in analytical geometry and elementary calculus. He also must have had adequate preparation for the reading examination in French and German which is required of candidates for the Ph.D. degree.

M241. General Biochemistry and Nutrition.—Three lectures, four laboratory periods of three hours each, one two-hour seminar weekly for eighteen weeks. Prerequisites: general chemistry, organic chemistry, physical and analytical chemistry, and at least one year of college biology. Feb.-June. 8 s.h.; without laboratory work 3 s.h.

DRS. TAYLOR, NEURATH, HANDLER,
M. L. C. BERNHEIM AND SCHWERT

M242. Biochemical Preparations.—Laboratory work with conferences when necessary. This course involves detailed study of the chemistry of enzymes, proteins, fats, carbohydrates and derivatives. Prerequisite: Biochemistry 241 or its equivalent. Hours by arrangement. 2, 3, or 4 s.h.

DRS. HANDLER, NEURATH, AND SCHWERT

M341. Theories and Methods of Physical Biochemistry.—A lecture and seminar course on basic physical concepts and experimental methods in the study of biological compounds and systems. With demonstrations. Given alternately with M343-344. 2 s.h.
DRS. NEURATH AND SCHWERT

M343-344. Biochemistry of Proteins and Enzymes.—A lecture and seminar course devoted to the chemical, physical and biological properties of proteins and enzymes. In the first semester, general aspects of protein chemistry will be considered, whereas in the second semester specific protein and enzyme systems will be reviewed. Given alternately with M341. 4 s.h.
DRS. NEURATH AND SCHWERT

M345-346. Seminar required of all graduate students majoring in biochemistry, one hour per week. 2 s.h.

DRS. NEURATH, TAYLOR, HANDLER, SCHWERT,
AND M. L. C. BERNHEIM

M347-348. Biochemical Research.—A laboratory course in which the students are introduced to specialized concepts and methods currently employed in biochemical research. This will be accomplished by rotating assignment of the students to the various special laboratories of the department. Prerequisite: Biochemistry M241 or its equivalent. 2, 3, or 4 s.h.

DRS. TAYLOR, NEURATH, HANDLER, SCHWERT,
AND M. L. C. BERNHEIM

M349-350. Intermediary Metabolism.—A seminar course devoted to a study of the detailed mechanisms of carbohydrate, fat and protein metabolism. Given alternately with Biochemistry M351-352. Prerequisite: Biochemistry M241 or its equivalent. 4 s.h.
DR. HANDLER

M351-352. Nutrition.—A seminar course in which the chemical and physiological behavior of essential nutritional factors is considered, as well as the nature of deficiency states. Prerequisite: Biochemistry M241 or its equivalent. Given alternately with Biochemistry M349-350. 4 s.h.
DR. HANDLER

HEMATOLOGY

M211. Three lectures and three laboratory periods of 3 hours each, weekly, for eleven weeks in the spring quarter. Prerequisites: courses in general zoology, general botany, histology and comparative anatomy. 4 s.h.
DR. RUNDLES

PHYSIOLOGY AND PHARMACOLOGY

M261-262. Human Physiology.—Six lectures and twenty laboratory hours per week. Prerequisites: Anatomy M201 and Biochemistry M241 (or equivalents) and at least one year of college physics. Feb.-June. Credits depending on work taken. (Maximum 8 s.h.)

M365. Respiration and Aero-Physiology.—A study of the fundamental respiratory processes in living organisms, and of the special physiological responses and adjustments of the individual during high altitude flight. Lectures, conferences, laboratory. Prerequisites: M261-2 or equivalent. 4 s.h. DR. HALL

M367. Physiology of the Nervous System.—Presentation of the fundamental processes of nervous tissue and of the integration of these functions in man. Lectures, conferences, and laboratory. Prerequisites: M261-2 or equivalent. 2 s.h.
DR. EADIE

M369. Pharmacology. Mode of Action of Drugs.—Studies and discussions of the pharmacological action of drugs in terms of biochemical and physiological processes. Lectures, conferences, and laboratory. Prerequisites: M261-2 or equivalent. 4 s.h.
DR. F. BERNHEIM

M370. Seminar.—A weekly meeting of graduate students and staff in which papers reviewing classical and current physiological literature are reported. Required of all graduate students who are candidates for A.M. or Ph.D. degree. 2 s.h. DR. EADIE, DR. HALL AND STAFF

M372. Research.—Individual investigations in the various fields of physiology. Credits to be arranged. STAFF

MEDICAL PARASITOLOGY

M291. Medical Parasitology.—One lecture and one three-hour laboratory period per week for eleven weeks during the fall quarter. Prerequisites: courses in Zoology 204, general botany, histology and comparative anatomy. 1 s.h.

CALENDAR OF THE COLLEGES

1950

- Sept. 14 Thursday, 9:00 A.M.—Dormitories open to freshmen.
- Sept. 14 Thursday, 7:30 P.M.—Assembly for all entering freshmen; Freshman Orientation Program begins.
- Sept. 18 Monday—Registration and matriculation of new students with advanced standing, Trinity College and the College of Engineering.
- Sept. 19 Tuesday—Registration and matriculation of new students with advanced standing, Woman's College.
- Sept. 20 Wednesday, 11:00 A.M.—Formal opening of the Colleges.
- Sept. 21 Thursday—Instruction begins.
- Nov. 11 Saturday—Last day for reporting mid-semester grades.
- Nov. 14 Tuesday—Junior examination in English Usage.
- Nov. 23 Thursday—Thanksgiving Day: a holiday.
- Dec. 11 Monday—Founders Day.
- Dec. 20 Wednesday, 5:00 P.M.—Christmas recess begins.

1951

- Jan. 4 Thursday, 8:00 A.M.—Instruction is resumed.
- Jan. 17 Wednesday—Mid-year examinations begin.
- Jan. 27 Saturday—Mid-year examinations end.
- Jan. 29 Monday—Registration and matriculation of new students.
- Jan. 30 Tuesday—Last day for matriculation for second semester.
- Jan. 31 Wednesday—Second semester begins.
- March 15 Thursday—Last day for reporting mid-semester grades.
- March 24 Saturday, 12:30 P.M.—Spring vacation begins.
- April 2 Monday, 8:00 A.M.—Instruction is resumed.
- May 21 Monday—Final examinations for second semester begin.
- May 31 Thursday—Final examinations end.
- June 2 Saturday—Commencement begins; Senior Class Day; meeting of the Board of Trustees.
- June 3 Sunday—Commencement Sermon.

HISTORY

Duke University owes its existence to a charitable trust set up by James B. Duke by an Indenture dated December 11, 1924, and known as the Duke Endowment; to gifts made by him to the University in the succeeding year; and to bequests that came through his will at his death, October 10, 1925. It is built around Trinity College which was brought to Durham and maintained there largely through the generosity of the Duke family.

Trinity College in its origin goes back to 1838. In that year the citizens of a rural community in the northwest section of Randolph County, North Carolina, established a school with Rev. Brantley York as principal. In 1839 this school was enlarged and named Union Institute. In 1841 it was incorporated by the following enactment of the Legislature of North Carolina:

*An Act to Incorporate Union Institute Academy:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Nathan Hunt, Joseph Mendenhall, Joseph Johnson, Lewis Leach, Jabez Leach, Martin W. Leach, and Ahi Robbins, and their successors, are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic to be known and distinguished by the name and style of the Trustees of Union Institute Academy, and by that name shall have succession, and shall be able and capable in law to have, receive and possess lands and tenements, goods and chattels, acquired by gift or otherwise, and use and apply the same according to the will of the donor, or dispose of the same when not forbidden by the terms of the gift. They may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any Court of Justice, and shall have power to fill vacancies in their body, which may occur by death, resignation, or otherwise, establish such laws and regulations for the government of said Institution as they may deem necessary, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and do and perform all such acts and things as are incident to, and usually exercised for, bodies politic, for the accomplishments of the object contemplated.

Ratified the 12th day of January, 1841.

In the year 1842 Braxton Craven became principal of the school. The growth and development of the school caused the Trustees to plan to put it in direct relation to the educational needs of the public schools of the State. Application was made to the Legislature of North Carolina for a new charter, and on January 28, 1851, Union Institute Academy was incorporated as Normal College by the following enactment:

An Act to Incorporate Union Institute, in Randolph County, a Normal College:†

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the present Trustees of Union Institute, to-wit: M. W. Leach, Ahi Robbins, Joseph Johnson, James Leach, and C. M. Hines; together with Rev. B. Craven, of said Institute; Hon. A. H. Sheppard, of Salem; John A. Gilmer, Esq., of Greensboro; Col. Samuel Hargrave, of Lexington; J. L. Blackmer, Esq., of Salisbury; Rev. S. A. Andrews, of Greensboro; Dr. S. G. Coffin, of Jamestown; H. B. Elliott, Esq., of Randolph; J. W. Thomas, Esq., of Davidson; John B. Troy, of Randolph; J. P. H. Russ, of Randolph; Eli Russell, of Montgomery, and Gen. J. M. Leach, of Lexington; and their successors be, and they are hereby declared, a body politic and corporate, to be known and distinguished by the name and style of the Normal College, and by that name shall have a perpetual succession, and a common seal, and be able and capable in law, of holding lands, tenements and chattels, sufficient for the uses and purposes of said College, and of suing and being sued, and of pleading and being impleaded.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That said Trustees shall have the power to fix the time of holding the annual and other meetings, and to prescribe the manner in which vacancies in their body may be filled, five Trustees being a quorum to do business.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the said College shall be under the supervision, management and government of a President and such other persons as said Trustees may appoint; the said President, with the advice of the other persons so appointed, shall from time to time make all needful rules and regulations for the internal government of said College, and fix the number and compensation of teachers to be employed therein, to prescribe the preliminary examinations and the terms and conditions on which pupils shall be received and instructed, and the number of pupils to be received from the respective counties.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That said Trustees shall have power to make such rules, regulations and bylaws, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States and of this State as may be necessary for the good government of said College, and the management of the property and funds of the same.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That when any pupil shall have sustained a satisfactory examination on the studies, or course of studies, prescribed by the Faculty and Trustees of said College, such person shall be deemed qualified to teach common schools and may receive a certificate signed by the President and at least seven Trustees, which certificate shall be sufficient evidence of ability to teach in any of the common schools in this State, without any reexamination of the county committees; and where county certificates are now required before paying out the public funds, the certificate of the Normal College shall answer in lieu thereof.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the whole College course shall be divided into four classes or degrees, styled first, second, third and fourth, and students shall be ranked accordingly.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That all pupils entering said College shall first sign a declaration, in a book to be kept by the President for that purpose as follows: "We, the subscribers, hereby declare that it is our intention to devote ourselves to the business of teaching common schools in the State of North Carolina, and that our sole object in resorting to this Normal College is the better to prepare ourselves for that important duty," which declaration it shall be the duty of the President to explain to the pupils before they sign the same.

Ratified 28th January, 1851.

On November 21, 1852, the Legislature ratified amendments to the charter of 1851 including changes and additions as follows:

*An Act to Amend an Act, Entitled "An Act to Incorporate Union Institute, in Randolph County, Normal College":

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That J. C. Dobbin, John A. Gilmer, W. H. Washington, A. H. Sheppard, H. B. Elliott, J. M. Leach, Joseph Johnson, S. G. Coffin, A. S. Andrews, Joseph B. Cherry, N. W. Woodfin, B. Craven, James Leach, Calvin Graves, Ahi Robbins, John B. Troy, Robert Strange, John W. Thomas, Samuel Hargrave, J. P. H. Russ, W. M. Leach, W. L. Steele, R. M. Saunders, W. B. Lane, G. W. Caldwell, C. H. Wiley, Jabez Leach, John A. Lillington, J. T. Morehead, Thales McDonald, R. C. Puryear, S. P. Hill, Alexander Gray, James M. Garrett, and Edward Ogburn and their successors be, and they are hereby declared, a body politic and corporate to be known and distinguished by the name and style of "The Trustees of Normal College," and by that name and style shall have a perpetual succession and a common seal, and be able and capable in law of holding lands, tenements and chattels for the uses and purposes of said College; and of suing and being sued, and of pleading and being impleaded.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the Governor of the State shall be ex-officio President of the Board of Trustees, and that the common school superintendent, should such an officer exist, shall be ex-officio Secretary of the Board, and that all vacancies in the Board shall be filled by a majority of the Trustees of said College.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the Trustees shall have power of appointing an Executive Committee, to consist of seven members which committee shall control the internal regulations of said College, and fix all salaries and emoluments, and of doing all other things necessary for an institution of learning not inconsistent with the laws of this State and of the United States.

SEC. 4. . . . They shall have also the power to grant such degrees and marks of honor as are given by Colleges and Universities generally.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Board of Trustees shall, within ten days after the meeting of each [Legislature] make a full report of the condition and operations of said Normal College, and the general character of Normal Instruction; also, the condition and progress of Normal schools generally, together with all other information deemed important in the education of teachers, giving also the names and residences of all who have been authorized to teach.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors of the literary fund are hereby directed to loan to the Trustees of Normal College, the sum of ten thousand dollars out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated, at six per cent interest, to be paid semiannually, upon said Trustees giving bond and good security for the same.

Under the amended charter authorizing the institution to confer degrees, two students were graduated on July 28, 1853, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

In the year 1853-1854 a larger building was erected by means of money lent by the State of North Carolina under the authority granted in the amended charter. In November, 1856, the Trustees of Normal College authorized President Craven to propose to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that the institution be placed under the ownership and control of that body. The Conference passed the following resolution:

1. That the Conference authorize and request the Board of Trustees of Normal College to raise by donations twenty thousand dollars.
2. That all lands and property belonging to the College be conveyed to the Board of Trustees in trust for the North Carolina Conference.
3. That the Conference fill all vacancies in the Board.
4. That the Conference appoint a visiting committee, which committee shall have equal power with the Board as to the internal regulations and operations of the College.

Within the following two years the Trustees arranged to meet all the conditions stipulated. The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in consequence, became invested with the complete ownership and control of the College.

On February 16, 1859, the charter was amended and the name of the institution changed to Trinity College by the following enactment of the Legislature of North Carolina:

*An Act to Amend the Charter of Normal College:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the corporation established by an act passed in 1852, and known by the style and title of the "Trustees of Normal College," be and the same is hereby changed to Trinity College; and said corporation shall henceforth, by the name and style of Trinity College, hold and use all the authority, privileges, possessions and liabilities it had under the former title and name.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the estate, real and personal, received and controlled by the Trustees of Trinity College, shall be for the uses and purposes of a literary institution for the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That all vacancies in the Board of Trustees shall be filled by said North Carolina Conference: Provided, however, that no person shall be elected a Trustee till he has first been recommended by a majority of the Trustees present at a regular meeting; and the Trustees shall have power to remove any member of their body who may remove beyond the boundaries of the State, or who may refuse or neglect to discharge the duties of a Trustee.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the Faculty and Trustees shall have the power of conferring such degrees and marks of honor as are conferred by colleges and universities generally; and that five Trustees shall be a quorum to transact business.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That no person shall keep, maintain, or have at Trinity College, or within two miles thereof, any tippling-house establishment, or place for the sale of wine, cordials, spirituous or malt liquors; nor shall any person in the State, without a written permission from the Faculty, sell, or offer to sell, give or deliver to any student of Trinity College, or to any other person, any wine, cordials, spirituous or malt liquors for the purpose of being used or with a knowledge that the same will be used at said College, or within two miles thereof, by any student.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That no person shall set up, keep or maintain at Trinity College, (or) within two miles thereof, any public billiard table, or other table, of any kind at which games of chance or skill, by whatever name called, may be played; and that no person, without written permission from the Faculty, shall within the same limits exhibit any theatrical, sleight-of-hand, natural or artificial curiosities, or any concert, serenade, or performance in music, singing or dancing.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That sections second, fourth and fifth of the charter passed in 1852, are hereby repealed, and that all acts and laws coming within the meaning and purview of this present act are hereby repealed.

During the Civil War the College shared the common fate of Southern colleges. President Craven resigned in 1863, and Professor William T. Ganaway was elected his successor. In October, 1865, Dr. Craven was re-elected to the presidency; however, the work of the College, which had been suspended in April of that year, was not resumed till January, 1866. Dr. Craven remained president of the College till his death, November 7, 1881. Professor William Howell Pegram was then elected chairman of the Faculty. He served till the close of the academic year, June, 1883.

The Reverend Marquis L. Wood was elected president in 1883; he resigned in December, 1884, when Professor John F. Heitman was elected chairman of the Faculty. John Franklin Crowell was chosen president of the College in April, 1887.

* Laws of 1858-1859, chapter 85, page 81.

President Crowell conceived the idea of enlarging the scope of college work and of removing Trinity College to a city. The Board of Trustees on May 7, 1889, passed the following resolutions:

Resolved (1). That after mature and prayerful consideration we believe it best for the interest of Methodism in North Carolina, and the cause of God, to move Trinity College to some prominent center within this State: Provided, There shall be tendered to this Board a proper guarantee of a suitable site, with buildings on it, of at least equal value, and as well suited for the uses of the College as those on the present site.

Resolved (2). That a committee of five be appointed to carry out the true intent of the above resolution, and report to the next annual meeting of the Board of Trustees.

At a meeting of the Trustees held in Greensboro, North Carolina, November 30, 1889, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved (1). That the Board of Trustees of Trinity College accept the offer of the citizens of Raleigh to erect a college building on the site designated, said building to be according to the plans and specifications mentioned in their offer.

Resolved (2). That we recommend the N. C. Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, to authorize the removal of Trinity College in accordance with the above and former resolutions passed by this Board.

Resolved (3). That the grounds and buildings now owned and used at Trinity College be held by the same Board of Trustees to be used as an academical department to prepare students for the college classes.

In accordance with these resolutions, through President Crowell, the Conference was asked at its session in Greensboro, December, 1889, to grant permission to remove the College to the City of Raleigh. The Conference took the following action:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of Trinity College be and is hereby authorized and directed to move Trinity College to the City of Raleigh, when the citizens of said city shall have erected on the site designated and known as the Boylan lot, the building proposed and agreed to be built by them Provided, That before said college is moved, as aforesaid, there shall be made, executed and delivered to said Trustees a good and sufficient deed in fee simple with proper covenants of warranty and seizin, conveying the lot and site designated to said Trustees and their successors in office, for the use and benefit of the North Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as it now exists, and for the use and the benefit of such Conferences, as may be hereafter created by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, out of any territory within the State of North Carolina.

Some time after this action of the Conference, Washington Duke and other citizens of Durham, North Carolina, made a proposition to the Trustees to locate the College in Durham, and this proposition was accepted. On January 21, 1891, the Legislature of North Carolina issued the following charter:

An Act to Amend the Charter of Trinity College:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That the Trustees of Trinity College are authorized and empowered to remove the operations and exercises of said College, and to locate the buildings deemed necessary by them for the purpose of the College, at or near the town of Durham, North Carolina. They may, if they so elect, establish and maintain in connection with said College institutions of primary and intermediate education at the present site of the College in Randolph County, and at such other points as they may now or hereafter determine, for the purpose of preparing students for admission to a collegiate course. The management of such auxiliary and subordinate high schools and academies shall be vested in the said Board of Trustees, who are authorized to make by-laws and regulations for them, as well as for the College proper.

SEC. 2. That the Trustees of Trinity College are authorized to receive and hold by gift, devise or purchase, property, real and personal, to be held for the use of said College and its dependent schools or for the use of either or both (as may be designated in the conveyance or will), (to a value not exceeding in the aggregate sum three millions of dollars).

SEC. 3. That the Trustees shall be thirty-six in number, of whom twelve shall be elected by the North Carolina Conference of M. E. Church, South, twelve by the W. N. C. Conference of said church, and twelve by graduates of said College. The term of office of Trustees shall be six years, and they shall be so arranged that four Trustees shall be elected by each Conference and four by the graduates every two years. The Trustees shall regulate by by-laws the manner of election of the Trustees to be chosen by the graduates. Should there exist a vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise, of any Trustee, the same shall be filled for the unexpired term by the Board of Trustees. The terms of the Trustees now in office shall expire January first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two. At the first election held under this amendment to the Charter, the body of graduates and each of the Conferences shall respectively elect four Trustees for the term of two years; in like manner each of said constituencies shall elect four Trustees for the term of four years, and in like manner each shall elect four Trustees for the term of six years.

In September, 1892, the College opened its first session in the new plant located at Durham. In May, 1894, President Crowell resigned, and on August 1, 1894, the Reverend John C. Kilgo was elected his successor. In May, 1897, the Trustees authorized the admission of women as students to all departments of the College.

On account of the fact that the fundamental laws under which the College was managed were contained in an original charter and in several amendments, it was deemed best by the Board of Trustees, in June, 1902, to appoint a committee to make an application to the Legislature for a new charter, which should unify and harmonize the provisions of the existing legislation. On February 28, 1903, the Legislature of North Carolina granted the new charter which is identical with the charter as found on pages 13-14, except that the corporate name of the institution is changed to Duke University and the corporation is given perpetual existence, an amendment enacted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, January 19, 1911, having already stricken out the limitations set in former charters to the amount of property the College might hold.

Having been elected a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, President Kilgo resigned in June, 1910. William Preston Few was elected to succeed him and was formally inaugurated November 9, 1910.

On December 29, 1924, the Board of Trustees of Trinity College met to consider the Indenture of Trust executed by James B. Duke, December 11, 1924. The Board voted unanimously to accept the provisions of the Indenture insofar as it affected Duke University, and authorized the necessary steps to be taken whereby, on December 30, 1924, a charter for the University was granted. The charter follows closely that of Trinity College and is printed on pages 13-14.

President Few died October 16, 1940. Dr. R. L. Flowers was elected President January 29, 1941.

On November 19, 1948, Arthur Hollis Edens was named President to succeed Dr. Flowers, who was made Chancellor on the same day.

Duke University is approved by the recognized accrediting agencies in the field of university education and is a member of various associations devoted to the interests of such education. Among those in which it holds membership are the Association of American Universities, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of Colleges, the Southern University Conference, the American Association of Law Schools, the Association of American Medical Colleges, the American Association of Theological Schools, and others.

GOVERNMENT

1. THE INDENTURE OF TRUST BY WHICH THE UNIVERSITY WAS CREATED

Among the provisions of James B. Duke's Indenture of Trust was an educational institution to be known as Duke University, in respect to which the Indenture contains the following provisions, and these provisions apply also to gifts made by him the year before he died and to bequests that came to the University at his death or that have come since:

I. (In Article FOURTH) The Trustees hereunder are hereby authorized and directed to expend as soon as reasonably may be not exceeding Six Million Dollars of the corpus of this trust in establishing at a location to be selected by them within the State of North Carolina an institution of learning to be known as Duke University, for such purpose to acquire such lands and erect and equip thereon such buildings according to such plans as the Trustees may in their judgment deem necessary and adopt and approve for the purpose, to cause to be formed under the laws of such state as the Trustees may select for the purpose a corporation adequately empowered to own and operate such properties under the name of Duke University as an institution of learning according to the true intent hereof, and to convey to such corporation when formed the said lands, buildings and equipment upon such terms and conditions as that such corporation may use the same only for such purposes of such university and upon the same ceasing to be so used then the same shall forthwith revert and belong to the Trustees of this trust as and become a part of the corpus of this trust for all the purposes thereof.

However, should the name of Trinity College, located at Durham, North Carolina, a body politic and incorporate, within three months from the date hereof (or such further time as the Trustees hereof may allow) be changed to Duke University, then, in lieu of the foregoing provisions of this division "FOURTH" of this Indenture, as a memorial to his father, Washington Duke, who spent his life in Durham and whose gifts, together with those of Benjamin N. Duke, the brother of the party of the first part, and of other members of the Duke family, have so largely contributed toward making possible the corpus of this trust as soon as reasonably may be a sum not exceeding Six Million Dollars in expanding and extending said University, acquiring and improving such lands, and erecting, removing, remodeling and equipping such buildings, according to such plans, as the Trustees may adopt and approve for such purpose to the end that said Duke University may eventually include Trinity College as its undergraduate department for men, a School of Religious Training, a School for Training Teachers, a School of Chemistry, a Law School, Co-ordinate College for Women, a School of Business Administration, a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, a Medical School and an Engineering School, as and when funds are available.

II. (In Article FIFTH) Thirty-two per cent of said net amount not retained as aforesaid for addition to the corpus of this trust shall be paid to that Duke University for which expenditures of the corpus of the trust shall have been made by the Trustees under the "Fourth" division of this Indenture so long as its name shall be Duke University and it shall not be operated for private gain, to be utilized by its Board of Trustees in defraying its administration and operating expenses, increasing and improving its facilities and equipment, the erection and enlargement of buildings and the acquisition of additional acreage for it, adding to its endowment or in such other manner for it as the Board of Trustees of said institution may from time to time deem to be of its best interests, provided that in case such institution shall incur any expense or liability beyond provision already in sight to meet same, or in the judgment of the Trustees under this Indenture be not operated in a manner calculated to achieve the results intended hereby the Trustees under this Indenture may withhold the whole or any part of such percentage from said institution so long as such character of expense or liabilities or operation shall continue, such amounts so withheld to be in whole or in part either accumulated and applied to the purposes of such University in any future year or years, or utilized for the other objects of this Indenture, or added to the corpus of this trust for the purpose of increasing the principal of the trust estate, as the Trustees may determine.

III. (In Article SEVENTH) I have selected Duke University as one of the principal objects of this trust because I recognize that education, when conducted along sane and practical, as opposed to dogmatic and theoretical, lines, is, next to religion, the greatest civilizing influence. I request that this institution secure for its officers, trustees, and faculty, men of such outstanding character, ability, and vision as will insure its attaining and maintaining a place of real leadership in the educational world, and that great care and discrimination be exercised in admitting as students only those whose previous record shows a character, determination, and application evincing a wholesome and real ambition for life. And I advise that the courses at this institution be arranged, first, with special reference to the training of preachers, teachers, lawyers and physicians, because these are most in the public eye, and by precept and example can do most to uplift mankind, and second, to instruction in chemistry, economics, and history, especially the lives of the great of earth, because I believe that such subjects will most help to develop our resources, increase our wisdom and promote human happiness.

IV. (In Article THIRD) As respects any year or years and any purpose or purposes for which this trust is created (except the payments hereinafter directed to be made to Duke University) the Trustees in their uncontrolled discretion may withhold the whole or any part of said incomes, revenues and profits which would otherwise be distributed under the "Fifth" division hereof, and either (1) accumulate the whole or any part of the amount so withheld for expenditures (which the Trustees are hereby authorized to make thereof) for the same purpose in any future year or years, or (2) add the whole or any part of the amounts so withheld to the corpus of the trust, or (3) pay, apply and distribute the whole or any part of said amounts to and for the benefit of any one or more of the other purposes of this trust, or (4) pay, apply and distribute the whole or any part of said amounts to or for the benefit of any such like charitable, religious or educational purpose within the State of North Carolina or the State of South Carolina, or any such like charitable hospital purpose which shall be selected therefor by the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the then Trustees at any meeting of the Trustees called for the purpose, complete authority and discretion in and for such selection and utilization being hereby given the Trustees in the premises.

2. THE CHARTER OF THE UNIVERSITY

SECTION 1. That A. P. Tyer, J. H. Southgate, B. N. Duke, G. A. Oglesby, V. Ballard, J. A. Long, J. F. Bruton, J. N. Cole, F. A. Bishop, J. G. Brown, C. W. Toms, J. W. Alspaugh, W. R. Odell, J. A. Gray, F. Stikeleather, Kope Elias, S. B. Turrentine, P. H. Hanes, T. F. Marr, G. W. Flowers, M. A. Smith, R. H. Parker, W. J. Montgomery, F. M. Simmons, O. W. Carr, R. A. Mayer, N. M. Journey, Dred Peacock, B. B. Nicholson, W. G. Bradshaw, E. T. White, T. N. Ivey, J. B. Hurley, R. L. Durham, W. C. Wilson, and their associates and successors shall be, and continue as they have been, a body politic and corporate under the name and style of DUKE UNIVERSITY, and under such name and style shall have perpetual existence and are hereby invested with all the property and rights of property which now belong to the said corporation, and said corporation shall henceforth and perpetually, by the name and style of DUKE UNIVERSITY, hold and use all the authority, privileges, and possessions it had or exercised under any former title and name, and be subject to all recognized legal liabilities and obligations now outstanding against said corporations.

SEC. 2. That such corporation is authorized to receive and hold by gift, devise, purchase or otherwise, property, real and personal, to be held for the use of said University and its dependent schools or for the use of either or both (as may be designated in the conveyance or will).

SEC. 3. That the Trustees shall be thirty-six in number, of whom twelve shall be elected by the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South; twelve by the W. N. C. Conference of the said church; and twelve by the graduates of said University; Provided, however, That no person shall be elected a Trustee till he has first been recommended by a majority of the Trustees present at a regular meeting; and the Trustees shall have power to remove any member of their body who may remove beyond the boundary of the State or who may refuse or neglect to discharge the duties of a Trustee. The term of office of Trustees shall be six years, and they shall be so arranged that four Trustees shall be elected by each Conference and four by the graduates every two years. The Trustees shall regulate by bylaws the manner of election of the Trustees to be chosen by the graduates. Should there exist a vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise of any Trustee, the same shall be filled for the unexpired term by the Board of Trustees. That the present Trustees shall continue and remain in office during the term for which they have been heretofore respectively elected.

SEC. 4. That the said corporation shall be under the supervision, management and government of a president and such other persons as said Trustees may appoint; the said president, with the advice of other persons so appointed, shall from time to time make all needful rules and regulations for the internal government of said University and prescribe the preliminary examinations and terms and conditions on which pupils shall be received and instructed.

SEC. 5. That said Trustees shall have power to make such rules, regulations, bylaws not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States and of this State, as may be necessary for the good government of said University and management of the property and funds of the same.

SEC. 6. That the Trustees shall have power to fix the time of holding their annual and other meetings, to elect a president and professors for said University, to appoint an executive committee to consist of seven members, which committee shall control the internal regulations of said University and fix all salaries and emoluments, and to do all other things necessary for an institution of learning not inconsistent with the laws of this State and of the United States.

SEC. 7. That the Faculty and Trustees shall have the power of conferring such degrees and marks of honor as are conferred by colleges and universities generally; and that five Trustees shall be a quorum to transact business.

SEC. 8. That all laws and parts of laws or of the charter heretofore granted which are in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 9. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification and acceptance by the Board of Trustees.

3. THE BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY

1. AIMS OF THE UNIVERSITY. The aims of Duke University are to assert a faith in the eternal union of knowledge and religion set forth in the teachings and character of Jesus Christ, the son of God; to advance learning in all lines of truth; to defend scholarship against all false notions and ideals; to develop a Christian love of freedom and truth; to promote a sincere spirit of tolerance; to discourage all partisan and sectarian strife; and to render the largest permanent service to the individual, the state, the nation, and the church. Unto these ends shall the affairs of this University always be administered.

2. THE UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES, THEIR MEETINGS AND THEIR OFFICERS. The Alumni Trustees, nominated by the Board as provided for in the Charter, are elected by the Alumni Association. The officers of the Board are chairman, vice-chairman, and recording secretary. They are elected by the Trustees at their annual meeting to serve one year or until their successors are elected and qualify. The chairman calls to order and presides at all meetings of the Board, calls extraordinary meetings when, in his judgment, such meetings may be necessary, and represents the Trustees at public meetings of the University. He is ex-officio member of the Executive Committee. In the absence of the chairman, the vice-chairman calls to order and presides over meetings of the Board, but does not perform any of the other duties of the chairman unless ordered to do so by the Board or the Executive Committee. The recording secretary records the minutes of all the meetings, does the correspondence, and is the custodian of the records and other documents that may belong to the Board.

3. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. The Executive Committee consists of seven members and may, under certain circumstances, consist of eight members, three of them from the University Trustees, including the chairman of the Board ex-officio, three from the Endowment Trustees, the President of the University ex-officio, and, in the event there is a Chancellor elected and acting, the Chancellor of the University ex-officio. It performs the duties set out for it in the charter—namely, controls the internal regulations of the University and fixes all salaries and emoluments. It has all the powers of the Board of Trustees in the interims between meetings of the Board of Trustees except the nomination of Trustees and election of members of the Executive Committee; however, appointment of officers of the University by the Executive Committee is subject to the approval of the University Trustees. The Executive Committee is expressly empowered to appoint an Investment Committee and to give to such Committee such powers and duties, as in the judgment of the Executive Committee, may seem fit. The Executive Committee is elected by the University Trustees, three of them on nomination of the Endowment Trustees, and the Committee elects its own officers who are chairman and recording secretary. It meets once a month (unless otherwise determined by the Committee) and oftener when necessary and by its own resolution sets its time and date of meetings except that special meetings are called by its chairman upon three or more days written or telegraphic notice to the members of the Committee. The Committee, through its chairman, once a year makes a report to the annual meeting of the University Trustees.

4. OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY. The officers of the University are a president, three vice-presidents, a business manager and comptroller, a treasurer, a burser, a dean of the University, and such other deans as may be needed, a recording dean or registrar, and a secretary who is also secretary of the faculty. There may also be a chancellor and a vice-chancellor. Whenever it may seem wise, one person may hold more than one office.

PRESIDENT. The President of the University calls, and presides at, all the meetings of the Faculties, sees that the laws and regulations of the Executive Committee and the Trustees affecting the administration and work of the University are carried out, appoints all committees of the Faculties and has direction of the discipline and work of the University. He has the authority to veto any action of the Faculties, when, in his judgment, such action is not in harmony with the aims and laws of the University, or when he may deem such action as unwise. However, in every instance he shall submit to the Faculty in writing his reasons for setting aside their action, and the secretary of the Faculty shall record his reasons in the record book of the Faculty. The President makes an annual report to the Board of the work, conditions, and needs of the University, and of other matters that may be of concern to it or to the cause of higher education. He nominates all members of the Faculties, and represents them at all public meetings of the University. He is an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee; and acts, unless the Trustees designate the Chancellor of the University for the purpose, as a medium of communication between the University Trustees and the Endowment Trustees.

CHANCELLOR. There may be a Chancellor of the University. If the Trustees appoint such an officer, he shall be selected for this office because of his long and faithful service to the University. Such an officer, if appointed, is a high officer of the University. He may be designated by the Trustees as the medium of communication between the University Trustees and the Endowment Trustees and when he is so designated the President does not act in such a capacity. He is available, when requested by the President, to render all possible services in an advisory capacity. He has such other duties as may, from time to time, be delegated to him by the Trustees. If and when a Chancellor is appointed, he is a member ex-officio of the Executive Committee.

VICE-CHANCELLOR. There may be a Vice-Chancellor of the University. If the Trustees appoint such an officer he shall be selected because of his long and faithful service to the University. When requested by the Chancellor, he performs the duties designated to the Chancellor by the Trustees. He is available, when requested by the Chancellor or President, to render all possible services in an advisory capacity. He also has such other duties as, from time to time, may be delegated to him by the Trustees.

VICE-PRESIDENTS. The three Vice-Presidents of the University have supervision of the work of the University in the divisions of (a) education, (b) public relations, and (c) student life. In the absence of the President, Vice-Presidents, in the above order, may perform such duties of the President as may demand immediate attention.

BUSINESS MANAGER AND COMPTROLLER. The Business Manager, who is also Comptroller, has the custody of all property of the University. He is responsible to an administrative committee and through such committee to the Trustees either directly or through the Executive Committee for all matters pertaining to the business affairs of the University except the investment of funds and is required to make monthly reports through such administrative committee to the Executive Committee and annual reports through the administrative committee to the Trustees concerning his accounts and the property in his charge. Such administrative committee is composed of not less than three nor more than five persons, three of whom are the President of the University, as chairman, the Business Manager and Comptroller, and a Vice-President selected from time to time by the Trustees or the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee has power to determine the number, if any, of additional members, up to the limit set, to be added to or removed from membership in the committee and in their judgment to make selection of the persons to be so added or so removed. The Business Manager and Comptroller annually prepares or causes to be prepared a Budget of expected Receipts and Disbursements and submits same to the Executive Committee for their approval. Upon such approval, he is primarily responsible for the operation of the Budget. He nominates to the Executive Committee any and all assistants required by him to do well the duties of his office. The Business Manager and Comptroller shall be required to give bond in such amount as may be designated by the Trustees or the Executive Committee for the faithful performance of his duties.

TREASURER. The Treasurer has primary responsibility for the care and custody of all securities and for the financial records of the University. He makes an annual report of his accounts to the Trustees and such reports, as from time to time, may be required of him by the Executive Committee. He also makes to the Business Manager and Comptroller monthly reports and oftener when required. He nominates to the Executive Committee any and all assistants required by him to do well the duties of his office including the nomination of a Bursar and Assistant Treasurer or Treasurers which officers and assistants shall primarily be responsible to him. The Treasurer and his assistants shall be required to give bond in such amount as may be designated by the Trustees or the Executive Committee for the faithful performance of their duties.

BURSAR. The Bursar has primary responsibility for all collections and disbursements. He is nominated by and responsible to the Treasurer to whom he makes such reports as the Treasurer from time to time requires of him. The Bursar shall be required to give bond in such amount as may be designated by the Trustees or the Executive Committee for the faithful performance of his duties.

SECRETARY. The Secretary of the University has custody of the corporate seal of the University and affixes and attests same when circumstances require and the Trustees or the Executive Committee so direct. He is also secretary of the Faculty, attends its meetings and makes permanent records of actions and transactions at such meetings. He has such other duties and responsibilities as his title suggests and as may, from time to time, be delegated to him by the appropriate authorities.

5. FACULTIES. The General Faculty of the University is composed of professors, associate professors, and assistant professors who have been elected to membership in the Faculty. Concerning questions that do not lie exclusively in the field of any one Faculty and questions of University educational policy this Faculty has the right to enact such regulations as it may deem necessary to carry on the instruction, advance the standard of work, and otherwise develop the scholarly aims of the University. The General Faculty recommends to the University Trustees such persons as it deems fit to receive academic degrees or other marks of academic distinction. This Faculty meets twice a year and at other times on the call of the President or Dean of the University, or on the written request of five members.

The professional schools have their own faculties, each with its dean and other appropriate officers elected by the Executive Committee with the approval of the University Trustees, and each is authorized to perform any educational functions that lie in its field.

The Faculty Council includes the Deans and Assistant Deans of Trinity College and the Woman's College, the Dean of the Graduate School, the Secretary of the General Faculty, the Chairman and Director of Undergraduate Studies in each department offering instruction in the undergraduate colleges of liberal arts and sciences, one additional member elected by each department that has five or more teachers giving instruction in arts and sciences, and such others as may be appointed to membership in the Council by the governing bodies of the University. The Council meets once a month and considers questions of curriculum in the field of arts and sciences and other educational details and policies that are outside the functions of any one faculty.

The Council on Undergraduate Teaching consists of the Deans and Assistant Deans of Trinity College, the Woman's College, the College of Engineering, some other officers and appointed members, and teachers of all ranks who are giving fifty per cent or more of their time to the instruction of undergraduates. Courses to which both Seniors and graduates are admitted are understood as intended primarily for graduate students. The business of this Council is to stimulate good teaching and to find ways and means to make college teachings as effective as possible. It has the right to take such action as may be necessary to promote these ends.

The Council on the Instruction of Freshmen is composed of the Dean of Undergraduate Instruction, the Dean of Freshmen, and the Supervisor of Freshman Instruction from each department offering courses for Freshmen. It considers policies and matters of detail as affecting Freshman Instruction and also provision for the general welfare of Freshmen. The Freshman Council makes recommendations to the Faculty Council for action in matters of general policy. The Freshman Council has the power to call upon members of the Faculty for reports or other information pertaining to the instruction of Freshmen at such dates as it may determine.

The Council on Education for Women consists of the Dean of the Woman's College and of one representative from each department offering courses which are largely taken by women students. It shall consider matters of interest and policy relating to the instruction and general welfare of the women students of the University, and make recommendations to the President, or the Faculty Council. The members of the Council on Education for Women are appointed by the President of the University.

The Council on Engineering Instruction consists of the Dean of the College of Engineering, the Secretary of the College, the Dean of the University, the Chairmen of the several departments in engineering, one representative to be appointed by the President of the University from each of the Departments of Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Economics, English. The Council deals with questions relating to instruction in engineering, the welfare of engineering students, and the cause of engineers in general. The Executive Committee consists of the Dean and the Secretary of the College of Engineering, and the Chairmen of the Departments of Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering.

The Council on Graduate Instruction consists of members of the Faculty above and including the ranks of associate professors who give at least half of their time to graduate work under the direction of the Graduate School, and others who may be appointed by the Governing Bodies of the University. One member is appointed from each of the professional schools which give courses for graduate credit, and in some cases more than one. The Council has to do with whatever pertains to instruction and requirements for degrees in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

The Executive Committee of the Council on Graduate Instruction consists of the Dean and six members appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the Dean. Blanks are distributed once a year to each member of the Council with the request that six names be entered on the blank as his suggestions for members of the Committee. It is understood that the Dean is to take these suggestions into account in his recommendations to the President. Insofar as possible the Humanities, Biological and Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, and other fields are to be represented on the Executive Committee of the Council on Graduate Instruction. No more than four of the six committee members are to be reappointed for any ensuing year.

6. ACADEMIC YEAR. The academic year begins on the morning of the Wednesday following September 15. The annual Commencement comes in the week including the first Sunday in June. The Christmas recess begins at 1:00 P.M. December 20 (or December 19 if December 20 falls on Sunday), and ends at 8:00 A.M., January 3 (or January 4 if January 3 falls on Sunday). The spring recess begins at 1:00 P.M. of the Saturday in March nearest to March 25, and ends at 8:00 A.M., of Monday nine days later. Thanksgiving Day is a holiday.

7. TENURE OF OFFICE. Teachers of all ranks are subject to removal by the Executive Committee, with the approval of the University Trustees, for misconduct or neglect of duty. Teachers may be elected for terms of one, two, three, or four years; or teachers with the rank of professor may be elected without time-limit. Administrative officers are usually elected without time-limit, but the Executive Committee, with the approval of the University Trustees, may remove any officers of the University whenever, in their opinion, he is not properly performing the duties of his office.

8. The bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of the University Trustees by the affirmative vote of two thirds of the then membership of the Board, provided that the proposed amendment is submitted through the Secretary of the Board to the members at least twenty days before the meeting.

SABBATICAL LEAVE

Sabbatical leave of absence for members of the General Faculty is granted under regulations adopted by the Executive Committee of the Trustees on March 28, 1923, revised in 1928, partly in abeyance in the year 1933-34 and the succeeding three years, and restored in the year 1937-38. The conditions on which sabbatical leave of absence is granted are set forth below.

1. Every member of the General Faculty (composed of professors, associate professors, and assistant professors) is eligible for sabbatical leave after six years in the service of the University. Such leave may be taken for a full year at half salary or a half year at full salary.

2. In order to obtain a sabbatical leave written request for such leave must be filed with the President of the University by December 1 of the academic year preceding the one in which the leave is to take effect.

3. If in exceptional cases it should develop that the granting of leave to an applicant during the year for which application is made would raise very serious difficulties detrimental to the best interests of the applicant's department or school, or the interests of the institution as a whole; or because of questions concerning the applicant's period of service prior to the leave, the President shall appoint a committee which shall have power to decide the question of granting the sabbatical leave for the particular year under consideration. This committee shall consist of five members as follows: two members of the general faculty appointed yearly by the President, the Treasurer of the University, the Dean of the school or college of which the applicant is a member, the chairman of the applicant's department, or should no such chairman exist another member of the applicant's department.

4. If this committee should decide against the granting of a sabbatical leave for the year for which the applicant applied, the applicant would be eligible for sabbatical leave the following year or any year thereafter upon making application in due form as above.

5. After September 1, 1928, if a member of the faculty on becoming eligible for sabbatical leave does not for some special reason apply for such leave, he may count the additional years of service prior to his leave towards the six years of service necessary before he can apply for a subsequent leave. If in an exceptional case an applicant for personal reasons applies for a sabbatical leave to be effective in advance of his regular year and such leave is granted, he shall not be eligible for a subsequent leave until he has served six years plus the number of years by which this leave is advanced.

6. On recommendation of the committee after leave of absence has been granted it may be postponed for urgent reasons and under conditions to be determined by the committee.

7. All those cases which have occurred in the past or which may occur in the future in which leave of absence is granted under conditions where the absentee receives full pay for a half year or half pay or more for a full year's leave of absence, shall be considered as regular sabbatical leave under these regulations.

8. These revised regulations became effective as of September 1, 1928, and sabbatical leaves under such regulations began with the academic year 1929-30. The regulations were partly in abeyance in 1933-34, 1934-35, 1935-36, and 1936-37. The restoration of the regulations begins with the academic year 1937-38. The four years, 1933-34, 1934-35, 1935-36, and 1936-37, may not count toward the six years of service necessary before application can be made for leave of absence. In all cases in which special arrangements have been made for the granting of sabbatical leave (as described in condition No. 7) during the period of partial abeyance of the plan, the next six years of service shall be counted as beginning with the academic year 1937-38. All other members of the General Faculty who apply for sabbatical leave may count the years of service they had to their credit at the beginning of the academic year 1933-34.

RETIREMENT

The following resolution was passed by the Board of Trustees on June 5, 1948:

RESOLVED, That the following regulations shall from the date of the adoption of this resolution govern the retirement of all officers and employees of Duke University:

I. Retirement.

Except as provided in Section II of this resolution all officers and employees of Duke University, except the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor, shall retire at the end of the academic year in which they attain the age of sixty-nine (69), herein called the normal retirement age.

II. Extension of Service.

By special vote of the Board of Trustees individual extensions of service beyond the normal retirement age may be made for a definite period not to exceed one year, but no such extension shall postpone retirement beyond the end of the academic year in which the age of seventy (70) is attained.

III. Amendment of Retirement Annuity Plan Adopted October 1, 1925.

The retirement annuity plan adopted by Duke University on October 1, 1925, is hereby amended in those respects required to conform said plan with the provisions of this resolution.

IV. Amendment.

The University reserves the right at any time to amend these regulations by lowering the retirement age, or altering or abolishing the provision for extension of service, or otherwise.

UNDERGRADUATE COLLEGES

Trinity College

The Woman's College

The College of Engineering

1949-1950

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

THE COLLEGES

GENERAL STATEMENT

Duke University offers in Trinity College, the Woman's College, and the College of Engineering the following academic degrees for undergraduate work: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education, and Bachelor of Science in Civil, Electrical, or Mechanical Engineering.

TRINITY COLLEGE

Trinity College, situated on the West Campus, is the undergraduate college of arts and sciences for the men of Duke University. Through the catholicity of its subject matter, its insistence on a common core of fundamental courses, and its emphasis on a more intensive study of some selected subject, the College aims to give its students a knowledge and appreciation of the culture of the Western World and at the same time to provide a foundation for careers in business and the professions. Its fundamental object is to develop the individual talent of its students.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The Woman's College, the college of arts and sciences for undergraduate women, is situated on the East Campus. As a co-ordinate college within the University system it offers distinctive advantages. The superior faculties, libraries, and laboratories of the university are available; yet the students also have the special opportunities which belong to a separate woman's college. They receive training in leadership by administering their own organizations and by participating in community projects. At the same time they have the stimulus which comes from co-educational classes and the experience of working with the men of the other colleges in many campus activities.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The College of Engineering, one of the three undergraduate colleges of the University, offers standard four-year programs of study in Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. All three curricula are fully approved by the national accrediting agencies of the engineering profession. Courses in the humanities have been given due recognition because it is realized that the engineer has definite responsibilities as a citizen and these responsibilities cannot be properly stressed in the purely technical curricula. Men and women civilian students, as well as members of both the Air ROTC unit and the Naval ROTC unit, are admitted to the College. Engineering students may participate in all general campus organizations and activities as well as in those of the College of Engineering.

THE LIBRARIES

The University Libraries contained 960,859 volumes and more than a million manuscripts at the end of the school year 1948-49. Many additional hundreds of rare books, periodicals and newspapers are available in the 3,129 reels of microfilm which the Library possesses. Seventy foreign and domestic newspapers and about 3,600 periodicals are received currently.

The General Library, in which 618,613 volumes are shelved, is centrally located on the West Campus. The Undergraduate Reading Room on the first floor contains a selected collection of 3,500 books for general reading, together with an equal number of supplementary volumes reserved for undergraduate courses. One of the features of this unit of the Library is an attractively furnished room opening off the Undergraduate Reading Room, with a selection of current books of general interest on open shelves. The main reference room of the Library, containing 5,000 volumes of important reference works of a general character, is on the second floor. Nearby are the Loan Desk, where books may be borrowed from the stacks, and the Union card catalog, a record of all the books in the University Libraries. In the same general area is the Documents Room, which houses the official publications of the federal and state government. These areas are open to all students.

The General Library building has been doubled in size by completion of an addition which was begun in 1947. The new area contains stacks, special reading rooms, offices for staff and faculty, and reading and storage facilities for rare books and manuscripts. The entire area for book storage, rare books and manuscripts is air-conditioned. Seniors, honor students, and others undertaking special studies may be admitted to the stacks of the General Library.

The Chemistry library of 13,555 volumes, the Physics-Mathematics library of 13,002 volumes, the Biology-Forestry library of 40,090 volumes, are housed for the convenience of the faculty and students in the buildings of these departments. The libraries of the schools of Divinity (46,318), Law (89,122), and Medicine (48,070), and the College of Engineering (12,994) likewise are shelved in the buildings of these special schools. Undergraduate students may, if occasion demands, have access to material in any of the libraries.

The Woman's College Library contains 79,095 volumes, chiefly the books most constantly needed in the undergraduate work of women students. An attractive feature of the library is the Booklovers' Room, where on open shelves students may find interesting books in various fields. In honor of Mr. James A. Thomas, the Thomas Memorial Room was opened in December, 1942, affording a quiet, attractive place for study or reading. The decorations and furnishings in the room were provided by Chinese and American friends of Mr. Thomas.

THE AIR FORCE RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Duke University, in cooperation with the United States Air Force, operates an Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps program administered by an Air Force ROTC Unit under the command of a Professor of Air Science and Tactics. The unit functions as a regular department of instruction known as the Department of Air Science. It selects and trains students, who possess the requisite character, intelligence, desire, and sense of duty, to become Air Force Officers.

For enrollment in the Basic Course (freshman and sophomore years) the student must:

- a. Be a male citizen of the United States.
- b. Be physically qualified under standards prescribed by the Air Force. Due allowance will be made for defects which are correctible prior to the student's eligibility for appointment as a commissioned officer.
- c. Be accepted by the institution as a regularly enrolled student.
- d. Be not less than 14 years of age and not have reached 23 years of age at the time of enrollment.
- e. Successfully complete such general survey and screening tests as may be prescribed.

For enrollment in the Advanced Course (junior and senior years) the student must:

- a. Have successfully completed the Basic Course or have had at least one year of honorable service.
- b. Execute a written agreement with the government to complete the Advanced Course, contingent upon remaining in school, and to attend the Advanced Summer Camp at the time specified.
- c. Not have reached 27 years of age at the time of initial enrollment in the Advanced Course.
- d. Successfully complete such general survey and screening tests as may be prescribed.
- e. Be selected by the Professor of Air Science and Tactics and the appropriate authority of the institution.

All uniforms, texts, and training equipment required for the Air Science Course are furnished at government expense and students are paid approximately $600.00 while completing the Advanced Course.

Upon graduation and completion of the Advanced Course students will be offered commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve. Outstanding students will be offered life time careers in the Regular Air Force. Flying training is available after graduation for those who desire it and are physically qualified.

A student enrolled in Air Force ROTC is eligible for deferment from the Draft.

THE NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

The postwar NROTC was established by Public Law 729, signed by the President on August 13, 1946. This law, commonly known as the Holloway Plan, instituted the selection and training of officer candidates for the Navy and Marine Corps by means of Naval Scholarships in colleges and universities throughout the country. A Naval ROTC Unit, under the command of the Professor of Naval Science, a Captain in the regular Navy, is located at Duke University.

The purpose of the NROTC is to provide a steady supply of well-educated junior officers for the line and staff corps of the regular Navy and Marine Corps and to build up a Reserve of trained officers who will be ready to serve their country in a national emergency. The NROTC, the U. S. Naval Academy, and the Naval Aviation Cadet Program are the three sources of career officers for the Navy. Officers commissioned from these sources are assured equal rank, treatment, and opportunity.

Scholarships are awarded to candidates selected as a result of an annual nation-wide test and selection procedure. These men are designated as Regular NROTC Students and are appointed Midshipmen, USNR. The scholarship covers the cost of tuition, fees, and textbooks. NROTC Midshipmen receive retainer pay at the rate of $600 per year. The Navy furnishes necessary uniforms and equipment.

Normally students will attend college for four years while in the NROTC. They may take any course leading to a baccalaureate or higher degree, except that Midshipmen entering in 1950 and thereafter may not pursue courses leading to degrees in pre-medicine, pre-dentistry, pre-theology, medicine, dentistry, or theology. They must include in their courses of study 24 semester hours of Naval Science plus certain minimum requirements in mathematics, physics, and English. They will wear the uniform only when engaged in drills or other Naval Activities prescribed by the Professor of Naval Science, and except for the ordinary requirements of gentlemanly behavior will be subject to Naval discipline only at those times. They are required to make two summer cruises at sea, and one summer training period of amphibious and aviation indoctrination. Upon graduation Regular NROTC students must accept a commission as Ensign, USN, or Second Lieutenant, USMC, if offered, and will be ordered to active duty for a period of 15-24 months. After fifteen months service those so desiring may request an additional year of active duty, and apply for permanent retention in the services as career officers. Those who do not desire to remain as career officers must accept a commission in the Reserve of the appropriate service and remain in the Reserve at least until the sixth anniversary of their first commission. Reserve Officers are not called to active duty except during a declared emergency or war, unless at their own request.

A second type of officer candidate in the NROTC is the Contract NROTC Student. These students are selected from qualified students regularly enrolled in Duke University. They have the status of civilians who have entered into a mutual contract with the Navy. They do not receive the compensation or benefits paid the Regular NROTC Student, but are furnished uniforms, Naval Science textbooks and equipment; and a subsistence allowance (currently 90 cents per day) during the final two years of NROTC training. Contract students make one training cruise during which they receive active duty pay. Contract students on graduation must accept a commission in the Naval or Marine Corps Reserve, but may, if they so desire and their services are required, request active duty and a commission in USN or USMC. If ordered to active duty they then are eligible for selection as career officers under the same provisions as graduating NROTC Regulars.

Under the provisions of the Selective Service Act of 1948, Regular NROTC Students who serve a period of active duty as an integral part of their training under Public Law 729 are deferred from Selective Service. Contract Students, by virtue of an agreement to accept a commission on graduation and to serve on active duty if required, are deferred from Selective Service. All NROTC Students are considered on inactive duty in the Naval Reserve while in college, and such service may not be counted for exemption or deferment should a student be separated from the program for any reason.

TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

ADMISSION

Applicants may qualify for admission to Trinity College or the Woman's College as members of the Freshman Class or as students with advanced standing. Since the enrollment in the two colleges is limited, the Committee on Admissions will select the students who, in its opinion, are best qualified to benefit from the educational advantages which the colleges offer.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application for admission to Trinity College should be made to the Secretary of Duke University, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina, for transmittal to the Council on Admissions. Application for admission to the Woman's College should be made to the Committee on Admissions, College Station, Durham, North Carolina. Forms of application will be sent on request.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Admission to Trinity College and to the Woman's College is dependent upon the ability, attainments, and character of the applicant. Each applicant must see that the Committee on Admissions receives a complete record of his work in secondary school or college, the required medical certificate, and satisfactory evidence of his good character and ability.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

An applicant for admission to the Freshman Class must present at least fifteen acceptable units of secondary school credit. A unit of credit is allowed for a course of study pursued throughout an academic year in an accredited secondary school, provided five recitations per week have been held and the prescribed amount of work has been completed satisfactorily.

1. Twelve units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics, and natural science; and must include:
 - (a) English—3 units.
 - (b) Algebra—1 unit.
 - (c) Plane geometry—1 unit.
2. The three additional units may be in the subjects listed above or from those in the following table. The units indicate the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject:

SUBJECT	UNITS	SUBJECT	UNITS
Agriculture	2	Mechanical Drawing	2
Art	1	Music	1
Commercial Subjects	3	Physical Geography	1
Household Economics	2	Woodworking, Machine Work	2

Other units offered in subjects not included in this list will be considered for acceptance on the basis of full statements transmitted with the applicant's record from the school recommending him.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

A graduate of an accredited school, who submits fifteen acceptable units of secondary school subjects, is recommended by his principal, and otherwise meets the requirements of the Committee on Admissions, may be admitted without examination. The certification and recommendation must be on blanks furnished by the College and signed by the principal of the school in which the applicant completed his course.

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION

An applicant who presents fifteen acceptable units for admission from a nonaccredited school is required to validate these units by entrance examinations and such other tests as the College may prescribe.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING

A student of good character who has completed satisfactorily at least one full year of college work in an approved college may be admitted with advanced standing. He must have fulfilled the equivalent of the requirements for admission to the Freshman class, must present official certificates of all work completed in other institutions, and must have an honorable dismissal from each institution previously attended. Credit for work completed will be determined in relation to the curriculum of Trinity College or the Woman's College.

A student enrolling for the Bachelor's degree, who transfers from a junior college or from a four-year college not affiliated with the Southern or a similar regional association, must continue, for at least one semester in Trinity College or in the Woman's College, the foreign language he presents for minimum graduation requirements. Credit for courses in science offered for advanced standing by a transfer from a junior college or a non-affiliated four-year college will be determined by the departments concerned.

Transfer credits are tentatively evaluated pending the completion of two semesters of work in residence. To validate provisional credits the student must earn at least an average of "C" in a normal load of work. Transfer grades of "C" or above are rated at one quality point per credit hour when validated.

The maximum amount of credit acceptable from a junior college is 60 semester hours, exclusive of physical education. No credit is given for work completed by correspondence, and not more than six semester hours credit is allowed for extension courses. Any extension work accepted must be specifically approved by the Dean of the College.

ADMISSION FOR SPECIAL WORK

Upon the approval of the Dean, a student of mature age may be admitted for special work in such courses of instruction as he is qualified to take. He may not be admitted as a candidate for a degree in a regular course unless he meets all requirements for admission.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

A student, who, following withdrawal from College, desires to return, should apply to the Committee on Admissions. When applying for re-admission the student should make a detailed statement of his or her activities since withdrawal from College.

PRELIMINARY TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS

General ability and achievement tests are administered to all entering students during an orientation period at the beginning of each semester. These tests enable the appropriate adviser to prepare a course of study adapted to the ability and achievements of the individual student. Physical examinations are also given.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are based on the principle that the student will derive the maximum benefit from his college work if his program includes a broad distribution of studies among representative fields of culture, concentration within a special field, and some work of his own choice.

For graduation with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, the following course work must be completed in accordance with the academic regulations as stated on pages 138-142 of this Bulletin.

Uniform Course Requirements	S.H.
English Composition	6
Foreign Language	6-18
Natural Science	11
Religion	6
Social Science and History	12
Literature, Music, Art, and Philosophy	6
Physical Education	4
Major and related work	42
Electives to make a total of	124

These requirements are described in detail below. Descriptions of courses can be found under "Courses of Instruction, Trinity College and the Woman's College" on pages 88-127 of this Bulletin.

English Composition, 6 s.h.—This requirement is met by the completion of English 1-2. Students who demonstrate proficiency in English usage may be allowed to substitute a course in English literature for English 1.

Foreign Language, 6 to 18 s.h.—This requirement is met by the completion of the third college year of a foreign language. The languages which meet this requirement are French, German, Greek, Latin, Spanish. The number of courses required depends on previous training and ability as shown on placement tests. Students presenting for entrance four units of Latin may, however, satisfy the language requirement by the completion of the third college year of Latin or by two years of Greek. In exceptional cases, on the recommendation of the language department concerned and with the approval of the Dean, a student who has completed the second college year of one language may satisfy the requirement by the completion of the first year of another language.

Natural Science, 11 s.h.—To satisfy this requirement a student must complete a laboratory course (8 s.h.) in one of the natural sciences (botany, chemistry, geology, physics, zoology), and one course of at least 3 semester hours selected from mathematics (except Mathematics 1), logic and scientific methodology (Philosophy 48, 104, and 242), or from the sciences listed above.

Religion, 6 s.h.—To meet this requirement 6 semester hours must be chosen from Religion 1, 2, 51, 52, 101, 103, 114, 181, 182, 183, or Philosophy 99.

Social Science and History, 12 s.h.—(a) Students who present for entrance two acceptable units of history can satisfy this requirement by 12 semester hours chosen from History 1-2, or 51-52, Economics 51-52, Education 84.

105, Political Science 61-62, Psychology 91-92, or Sociology 91-92. Six of the 12 semester hours must be taken in economics, history, political science, or sociology. (b) Students who do not present for entrance two acceptable units of history must take History 1-2, or 51-52, and 6 semester hours selected from the other social sciences named in (a).

Literature, Music, Art, and Philosophy, 6 s.h.—This requirement can be satisfied by a total of 6 semester hours in courses in English or American literature, foreign literature courses numbered above 100, literature courses in translation, courses in aesthetics, art, music, or Philosophy 91, 93, or 94.

Physical Education, 4 s.h.—In Trinity College physical education is required during each of the first two years and is normally completed by the end of the sophomore year; in the Woman's College it is required during the first three years and is normally completed by the end of the junior year.

Major and Related Work, 42 s.h.—Prior to registration in the spring of his sophomore year, each student is required to choose his major field and confer with his departmental adviser on the requirements for major and related work.

The major work consists of 18 to 24 semester hours in one department exclusive of courses open primarily to Freshmen.* The choice of courses must be approved by the major department. The related work must be taken in at least two other departments and is selected subject to the approval of the major department and the Dean; it may not include more than one course of 6 or 8 semester hours open primarily to freshmen. Courses satisfying the uniform course requirements may also be counted toward the requirements in major and related work. Information on specific departmental requirements for major and related work can be found in the section "Courses of Instruction" (pages 72-146), and several programs of study designed as preparation for professions are given in the next section.

The total amount of work that a student may take in any one department toward the Bachelor of Arts degree is limited to a maximum of 36 semester hours. In the Department of Aesthetics, Art, and Music, and the Department of Philosophy, the Department of English, the Department of Economics and Business Administration, and the Department of Romance Languages, a total of 54 semester hours is permitted, provided a total of not more than 36 semester hours is taken in any one division of the department.

Electives.—In addition to the uniform courses required and major and related work, other courses must be completed to make a total of at least 124 semester hours, including 4 semester hours of physical education.

Students whose courses of study permit may elect a maximum of 18 semester hours in engineering, forestry, or medical science. The courses elected in these subjects must be approved by the major department and the Dean of the college.

CHOICE OF A MAJOR FIELD

The requirement of 42 semester hours in a major field is based primarily on the belief that some advanced study in one subject, together with related work in allied subjects, is a valuable part of a general education. The selection of a major field usually depends on a student's cultural or vocational interests.

GENERAL PROGRAM

The General Program is designed for the student whose primary interest is in one of the liberal arts subjects. The subjects in which major

* Courses open primarily to freshmen are numbered from 1 to 49 and a list of them is given under "Courses of Instruction, Trinity College and the Woman's College."

work is offered are: art, botany, chemistry, economics, education, English, French, geology, German, Greek, history, Latin, mathematics, music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, religion, sociology, Spanish, zoology.

SPECIALIZED PROGRAMS

The student who has chosen a vocation may wish to include specialized training in his program. The following programs of study in preparation for various professions or professional schools are outlined for the guidance of the student.

BUSINESS

The student who plans to engage in some form of business may choose his major work in economics or he may take the following specified courses to satisfy the requirements for the major and related work.

Freshman Year: Economics 11 (recommended but not required), Mathematics 5 and 16.

Sophomore Year: Economics 51-52, Economics 57-58, Political Science 61-62.

Junior and Senior Years: Economics 138, Economics 143, Economics 144, Economics 153, Economics 171-172 or Economics 105 and 158, Economics 181-182, Economics 189. Three hours of the economics courses shown in Economics Major Section B.

In addition to the courses specified above, 9 semester hours from other courses in the Department of Economics and Business Administration must be elected.

A student planning to take the examination to qualify as a Certified Public Accountant may, with the permission of the Department of Economics, substitute courses in accounting (including Economics 184) for courses 11, 138, 144, 189, and for 3 semester hours of the electives in Section B (p. 90).

RELIGIOUS WORK

A student who plans to enter the ministry or other religious work should have a broad liberal arts training. He may major in religion or any other subject. It is suggested that the student include in his program as many as possible of the following courses.

Freshman Year: Religion 1-2, History 1-2.

Sophomore Year: Religion (6 s.h.), Economics 51-52 or Political Science 61-62, English Literature (6 s.h.).

Junior Year: Religion (6 s.h.), Psychology 91-92, English 151-152.

Senior Year: Religion (6 s.h.), Sociology (6 s.h.), Philosophy (6 s.h.).

SOCIAL WORK

The student who plans to pursue professional studies in preparation for social work (such as family welfare, child welfare, public welfare, probation and parole and similar forms of neighborhood and community work) should take his major work in sociology, with related work in other social sciences. The following courses should be included:

History 1-2, or 51-52.
Economics 51-52.
Political Science 61-62.
Psychology 91-92.
Philosophy (6 s.h.).

Zoology is recommended for the required course in Natural Science. Electives should be chosen mainly from history, economics, political science, education, sociology, philosophy, psychology, or religion.

TEACHING

The program for students who intend to teach is designed to prepare for positions both in the elementary school and in the high school. All prospective teachers, regardless of the type of school in which they expect to teach, (a) must take a sequence of four basic courses in the Department of Education, namely, Education 84, 88, 103, and 118; (b) should read carefully the certification requirements of the state in which they plan to teach and should arrange their programs with their departmental adviser accordingly; and (c) should begin early the required sequence of courses in education, taking Education 84 and/or 88 first, preferably in the first semester of the sophomore year.

High School Teaching. Students may meet certification requirements by qualifying in one teaching subject, but they are strongly advised to choose their electives to meet requirements in two teaching subjects. In any case their programs must include courses in education and in other subjects sufficient to satisfy the certification requirements of the state in which they will teach. Courses in materials and methods should be reserved for the senior year; and courses in observation and practice teaching may be taken only in the senior year.

Elementary School Teaching. Students preparing to teach in the elementary school must complete the following specific requirements: Education 142, History 91 or 92, and Political Science 63 or 61-62, Economics 115-116, Music 151, Physical Education 102, and Health Education 112. Education 101-102 (which includes observation and practice teaching) should be reserved for the senior year.

PREPARATION FOR GRADUATE SCHOOL

The student who plans to enter a graduate school of arts and sciences for advanced study should consult an adviser in the field of the proposed advanced study concerning suitable preparation. Most graduate schools have definite requirements in foreign languages for all students. Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are required to pass reading examinations, usually in German and French. In some cases other languages may be substituted. As soon as practicable, the student should ascertain the requirements of the particular graduate school he desires to enter.

PREPARATION FOR LAW SCHOOL

Students who plan to study law may select their major work in any field. The following courses are recommended:

Economics 51-52, 57-58.
 English 55-56.
 History 1-2 or 51-52, 105-106.
 Philosophy 48 and 91.
 Political Science 61-62.
 Sociology 91-92.

Advisers for the pre-legal students are: Mr. Frank de Vyver, Mr. J. H. Hallowell, and Mr. W. B. Hamilton.

PREPARATION FOR MEDICAL OR DENTAL SCHOOL

Students planning to enter a medical or dental school should select the following foundation courses for the study of medicine:

Chemistry 1-2, 61, 151-152.
 English 55-56.
 Mathematics 5, 6.
 Physics 51-52.
 Zoology 1-2, 53.

Pre-medical and pre-dental students may take their major work in a single department, or they may satisfy the requirement for the major and related work by the completion of at least 13 semester hours chosen from the following courses in addition to the 48 semester hours of foundation courses above:

Botany 101 or Zoology 110.
 Chemistry 70.
 Mathematics 51, 52.
 Physics 101-102.
 Psychology 91-92.
 Zoology 92, 171.

Other science courses numbered above 100 may be substituted for these with the approval of an adviser for the pre-medical group and the Dean. When the major work is in science, electives in social sciences or humanities are recommended. It is advisable to choose German or French as the foreign language. Each pre-medical student should ascertain the requirements and recommended courses of the medical school that he expects to attend.

Advisers for the pre-medical students are: Mr. C. C. Hatley, Mr. Mychyle W. Johnson, and Mr. Charles K. Bradsher.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

For graduation with the degree of Bachelor of Science, the following course work must be completed in accordance with the academic regulations as stated on pages 138-142 of this Bulletin.

Uniform Course Requirements	S.H.
English Composition	6
French and German (second college year)	12-24
Mathematics	6
Natural Science	8
Economics, History, or Political Science	6
Religion	6
Physical Education	4
Major and related work	48
Electives to make a total of	124

These requirements are described below. Descriptions of courses can be found under "Courses of Instruction, Trinity College and the Woman's College" on pages 88-127 of this Bulletin.

English Composition, 6 s.h.—This requirement is met by the completion of English 1 and 2. Students who demonstrate proficiency in English usage may be allowed to substitute a course in English literature for English 1.

French and German.—Bachelor of Science candidates must complete at least the second college year, or equivalent as determined by examination, of both French and German.

Mathematics, 6 s.h.—This requirement may be met by completion of Mathematics 5 and 6.

Natural Science, 8 s.h.—This requirement can be satisfied by courses in one of the natural sciences, namely, botany, chemistry, geology, physics, and zoology. The courses must include laboratory work, and may not be counted as part of the major or related work.

Economics, History, or Political Science, 6 s.h.—A student who does not present for entrance two acceptable units of history (exclusive of other social work) must take a course in history; otherwise, he has his choice of economics, history, or political science. The courses that will satisfy this requirement are listed under "Courses of Instruction."

Religion, 6 s.h.—To meet this requirement 6 semester hours must be chosen from Religion 1, 2, 51, 52, 101, 103, 114, 181, 182, 183, or Philosophy 99.

Major and Related Work, 48 s.h.—Major and related work consists of 48 semester hours in the Natural Sciences. This work must be selected from the departments of botany, chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics, psychology, and zoology. The major work consists of not less than 24 semester hours in one department, the choice of courses being subject to the approval of the department. The major work does not include courses primarily open to freshmen. The related work is taken in at least two other departments and is selected subject to the approval of the major department. It may not include more than one course primarily open to freshmen. A minimum of 14 semester hours of related work is required, 8 hours of which must be in lab. oratory science. Further information concerning the requirements for the major and related work in the various departments will be found under "Courses of Instruction" (pages 88-127).

Electives.—In addition to the above, the student must elect sufficient courses to complete, with an average grade of "C," the 124 semester hours necessary for graduation.

Students whose courses of study permit may elect a maximum of 18 semester hours in engineering, forestry, or medical science. The courses elected in these subjects must be approved by the major department and the Dean of the college.

The total amount of work that a student may take in any one department toward the Bachelor of Science degree is limited to a maximum of 40 semester hours.

On or before the date announced for the spring registration, every sophomore in this group should select his major department in the Natural Sciences and arrange, under the guidance of an adviser in the major department, his program of studies for the following year. He should obtain the adviser's written approval of all courses selected in the division before submitting his program to the Dean for final action. In like manner, each upperclassman will recheck the courses in his division of concentration each year with a representative of his major department.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN ENGINEERING

See page 131 of this Bulletin.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING EDUCATION

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education are designed to prepare qualified graduate nurses for administrative, teaching, and supervisory positions in schools of nursing and in nursing service agencies.

To be eligible for admission to Duke University as a candidate for this degree a student must meet the following requirements:

1. Graduation from an approved secondary school with at least fifteen acceptable units of credit. (See specific requirements for admission to Trinity College and the Woman's College.)
2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing which provides satisfactory preparation in medical, surgical, pediatric, and obstetric nursing, as a minimum.
3. Satisfactory scores on specified tests.
4. Supervisory ratings from three individuals, preferably former teachers and supervisors with whom the individual has had fairly recent contact.

Credit for 120 semester hours (exclusive of physical education) on which an average grade of at least "C" is made is required for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education. The work of the final year must be taken in residence at Duke University. The program of studies leading to this degree must include:

	S.H.
1. Minimum general education requirements	38-50
May be taken at Duke University or at any accredited college or university.
English 1-2	6
Natural science	8
History, economics, or political science	6
Sociology	3-6
Psychology	3-6
Electives	12-18
Literature, art, music, religion, ethics, language are suggested.
2. Basic Nursing Program	maximum 40
May be taken at the Duke School of Nursing or at any approved school of nursing. The amount of credit which is granted for the nursing school program is determined on an individual basis.
3. Courses in Education and Nursing Education	20
88 Psychological Foundations of Modern Education ...	3
84N Social Foundations of Nursing Education	3
101N The Curriculum of the School of Nursing	3
115N-116N Nursing Education: Principles and Practices ...	8
117 Community Nursing Service—Seminar in Field Trips of Community Agencies	3

4. Field of Concentration 15
Fifteen semester hours in one field, such as chemistry, physics, psychology, sociology, zoology, or in a clinical area and related subjects. No freshman work may be included in these 15 semester hours.
5. Professional Experience ,
One year of experience as a graduate nurse is required before the degree is awarded.

COMBINED ACADEMIC-PROFESSIONAL COURSES

The provision whereby a senior may elect the work of the first year in a professional school of the University shall apply solely to eligible students in Trinity College or the Woman's College. The privilege of completing a combined course for the degree is conditioned upon admission to the professional school at the close of the junior year. A student thus admitted registers as a senior in the College and as a first-year student in the professional school.

ACADEMIC-LAW COMBINATION

A student who has completed, with an average grade of "C" or higher, 96 semester hours of undergraduate work, including the uniform course requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and the work of the junior year in his major and related fields, may, with the approval of the Dean of the College, transfer to the Duke University School of Law and be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Duke University upon the satisfactory completion therein of the work of the first year.

It is understood that this provision shall apply solely to eligible undergraduates who have completed three years in residence in Duke University, and that not less than the full first-year's work of the Law School will be acceptable for credit towards the bachelor degree.

No single discipline or program of study can be described as the best preparation for the study of law. There are various methods of approach to legal study. Students differ with respect to the undergraduate studies by which they profit most in preparing themselves for law school.

Completion of the undergraduate work necessary to qualify for the Academic-Law Combination does not insure admission to the Duke University School of Law, nor impose any restriction whatever upon its freedom in selecting students for admission.

The first-year program of the Law School will include in 1950-1951 the following courses:

	Fall Semester	Spring Semester
	S.H.	S.H.
Chattel Transactions	2	2
Contracts	3	3
Estates in Land	—	3
Research and Writing I	1	1
Torts (including some Procedure)	2	3
Legislation	3	—
Business Associations I (Agency, Partnership, Introduction to Corporations)	—	2
Criminal Law	3	—
	14	14

Students wishing further information are invited to consult with the Dean of the School of Law.

ACADEMIC-FORESTRY COMBINATION

A student who has completed with an average grade of "C" or higher the program of study given below may, with the approval of the Dean of the College, transfer to the School of Forestry and be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Science from Duke University upon the satisfactory completion of one year's work. It is understood that this provision shall apply solely to eligible undergraduates who have completed three years in residence in Duke University. The professional degree of Master of Forestry may be obtained on the satisfactory completion of an additional year in the School of Forestry.

The program of studies in preparation for admission to the School of Forestry is divided into four parts: (1) a group of studies required of all students; (2) courses required in a selected division of concentration; (3) additional elective courses sufficient to make a total of at least 92 semester hours of credit; and (4) summer field work in surveying and forest mensuration as described below.

The studies required of all students, of which the first four, together with 6 semester hours of a language, should ordinarily be taken in the freshman year, are as follows:

	S.H.
Botany 1-2	8
Chemistry 1-2	8
English 1-2	6
Engineering Drawing 1-2	4
Modern Foreign Language*	12-18
Mathematics 5, 6	6
Physics 1-2	8
Economics 51-52	6
Geology 51	4

At the end of the freshman year each student shall select a division of concentration. One of the following programs of concentration is recommended:

Botany. Botany 52, 151, 156, one additional course in Botany and Zoology 1.

Chemistry. Chemistry 61, 70, and 151-152; and Botany 151.

Economics. Economics 60, two additional semester courses in economics, and Political Science 61-62.

A student who does not select one of the above programs must complete the work of the junior year in his major and related fields.

Summer field work is required of all students in the School of Forestry. This program of 13 weeks, preferably to be taken upon completion of the junior year, includes Civil Engineering S110 (Plane Surveying), 4 s.h.; Forestry S150 (Forest Surveying), 5 s.h.; and Forestry S151 (Forest Mensuration), 4 s.h.

Completion of the first three years of work toward the Bachelor of Science degree does not insure admission to the Duke University School of Forestry, nor impose any restriction whatever upon its freedom in selecting students for admission.

* The requirement is the same as for the Degree of Bachelor of Science, except that Spanish may be substituted for French.

Students wishing information concerning admission to the School of Forestry are invited to consult with the Dean of that School.

ACADEMIC-NURSING COMBINATION

A student who graduated from the Duke University School of Nursing in September, 1947, or thereafter, with an average grade of "C" or better, may, upon recommendation of the Dean of the School of Nursing, apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University. If accepted, she may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science by fulfilling the requirements of either degree.

Forty semester hours of credit toward the 120 semester hours (exclusive of physical education) required for the Bachelor's degree are allowed for the three-year nursing program. At least 30 semester hours, of which 24 semester hours must be in courses numbered 100 or above, must be taken in residence in the Woman's College. An average grade of "C" or better is required for all work.

The program of studies leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts must include:

	S.H.
1. Uniform Course Requirements	47-59
English 1-2	6
Language (completion of the third college year)	6-18
Natural Science	11
Religion	6
Social Science and History	12
Literature, Music, Art, and Philosophy	6
2. Basic nursing program	40
3. Field of concentration	12
At least 12 semester hours in one department other than nursing in courses not primarily open to freshmen ...	12
4. Electives	9-21

To be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Science, a student must complete the course of study outlined under the Requirements for the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Note: Courses primarily for freshmen are numbered from 1 to 49; those primarily for sophomores are numbered from 50 to 99; those primarily for juniors and seniors from 100 to 199; those primarily for seniors and graduates from 200 to 299. The amount of credit for each course is given in semester hours following the description of the course.

Odd-numbered courses are offered in the fall semester, and even-numbered courses are offered in the spring semester. Double numbers indicate that the course is a year-course and must normally be continued throughout the year if credit is received. A student must secure written permission from the instructor in order to receive credit for either semester of a year-course.

This is a condensed description of courses. For a full description see the Bulletin of Undergraduate Instruction.

APPLIED MUSIC

Members of the Department offer instruction in the following media: A. Piano; B. Strings; C. Woodwinds; D. Brass.

A student who plans to take Applied Music should consult with the appropriate faculty member as early as possible before registering for the course offered in his chosen medium at his class level. His proficiency before registration is tested by audition and rated as Grade I-VIII. Upon satisfactory completion of the course his proficiency is again rated, and his Grade recorded as a Roman numeral following the course number; e.g., a freshman who passes the first semester course in Piano with a proficiency rating of Grade VI is recorded as having completed Music 47A-VI, a senior who passes the first semester course in Violin with a proficiency rating of Grade II is recorded as having completed Music 197B-II, and so on. This is in addition to the customary letter-grades recorded for students in all courses.

- 147D-148D. Brass.—Juniors only. 2 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE
- 197D-198D. Brass.—Seniors only. 2 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BONE

Requirements and Credits: One semester hour of credit is allowed for $\frac{1}{2}$ hour of private instruction per week and a minimum of one hour of practice daily, under the particular conditions specified below, and in accordance with standard university practice in grading proficiency. For any number of semester hours of credit in Applied Music, an equal number of hours must be taken in Music Theory or Music History.

Majors in Music Theory must earn 7 semester hours credit in Applied Music. Credit may be reckoned from Grade I.

Majors in Music History and Criticism must earn 8 semester hours credit in Applied Music. Credit may be reckoned from Grade I.

Majors in Music Education must earn 7 semester hours credit in Applied Music, as follows:

General (Choral) majors:

Major medium, reckoned from Grade III.—5 s.h.

Minor medium, reckoned from Grade I.—2 s.h.

Instrumental majors:

Major medium, reckoned from Grade III.—5 s.h.

Minor medium, reckoned from Grade I.—2 s.h.

Piano proficiency through Grade II.

Students other than Music Majors may receive not more than 8 semester hours credit for work in Applied Music. Credit may be reckoned from Grade I.

Fees per Semester: Fees for instruction in Applied Music include rental of practice facilities sufficient to meet the credit requirements. They are payable to the Treasurer's Office of Duke University at the beginning of each semester, as follows:

One ½ hour lesson per week for 15 weeks.....	$40.00
Either
One hour's daily use of cubicle with piano.....	15.00
Or
One hour's use daily of cubicle without piano.....	10.00

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR IN MUSIC

Prerequisite: Music 11-12 or 61-62.

Major Requirements: Music 81-82, and 22 additional semester hours in the Department. The major student will select, in consultation with his Departmental Adviser, a sequence of Music courses emphasizing (a) theory, or (b) history and criticism, or (c) education, or (d) the use and understanding of a particular medium.

DEPARTMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS

Students taking Applied Music are urged by the Department to participate in one or more of the following departmental organizations:

- Duke University Symphony Orchestra
- Duke University Chamber Orchestra
- Duke University Concert Band
- Duke University Madrigal Singers

AIR SCIENCE

PROFESSOR SWITZER, COLONEL, USAF; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RAMBEAU, LIEUTENANT COLONEL, USAF; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BAIRD, MAJOR, USAF; AND ASSISTANTS

Eligibility Requirements.—All physically qualified freshmen who are citizens of the United States and are enrolled in Trinity College or the College of Engineering are eligible to enroll in the Air Force ROTC (Engineering students see College of Engineering). Veterans with one year or more of military service may be exempted from the freshman and sophomore courses (AS 1-2 or 11-12, AS 51-52 or 61-62).

Air Force ROTC Courses.—Trinity College students pursuing the program will specialize in general administration and supply. Students in the College of Engineering will specialize in Air Installations. The courses are established by the United States Air Force and are approved by the College as electives for all undergraduates. Field or laboratory instruction in leadership, drill and exercise of command is included as a part of all courses to indoctrinate the student in the fundamental principles of command.

ADMINISTRATION AND SUPPLY

AS 1-2. Principles and Problems of National Defense.—4 s.h. STAFF

AS 51-52. Applied Air Power and Elementary Air Force Administration.—Prerequisite: AS 1-2 or equivalent. 4 s.h. STAFF

AS 101-102. Air Force Administration and Supply.—Prerequisites: AS 1-2 and 51-52 or equivalent. 8 s.h. STAFF

AIR INSTALLATIONS

Related work: Eighteen semester hours which may include appropriate courses in history, aesthetics, art, music, languages, literature in translation, philosophy, or courses in composition, dramatics, and speech. Related work must be taken in at least two departments.

Electives: Students may use 12 hours of their free electives for additional work in English and American literature. The maximum credit in such courses may not exceed 36 hours. A total of 54 semester hours credit in the department is allowed. Students who are looking forward to graduate work should take as many of the period courses as possible. No more than five seniors may be admitted to any course on the 200 level.

FORESTRY

Students without a Bachelor's degree who are preparing for work in forestry as a profession should take the courses outlined under the Academic-Forestry Combination (see pages 86-87). However, with the consent of the instructor in charge, certain forestry courses may be elected by students in other curricula provided they have had adequate preparation (see Bulletin of the School of Forestry).

Members of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, whether or not registered in the Academic-Forestry Combination, may elect the following course:

52. Principles of Forestry.—2 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMSON
[Not offered in 1950-51]

PROFESSOR GERGEN

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

The student who is planning to take his major work in mathematics is advised to consult with the Director of Undergraduate Studies of the Department as early as possible in his college work. The specific major and related work requirements are as follows.

For the A.B. degree:

Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 and 6.

Major and Related Work: 42 semester hours.

Major Requirements: Mathematics 50, 51, 52, 53, and 12 semester hours in courses in Mathematics numbered above 100, exclusive of Mathematics 201, 204. The total amount of work which the student may take in Mathematics toward the A.B. degree is limited to 36 semester hours.

Related Work: 18-24 semester hours of course work, ordinarily in the following departments: chemistry, economics and business administration, philosophy, physics. This work must be approved by the Department of Mathematics through the Director of Undergraduate Studies of the Department. It may include at most one 6 or 8 semester hour introductory course. The work must be taken in at least two departments.

For the B.S. degree:

Prerequisite: Mathematics 5 and 6.

Major and Related Work: 48 semester hours.

Major Requirements: Mathematics 50, 51, 52, 53, and 12 semester hours in courses in mathematics numbered above 100, exclusive of Mathematics 201, 204. The total amount of work which the student may take in mathematics toward the B.S. degree is limited to 40 semester hours.

Related Work: 14-24 semester hours of course work in the natural sciences. This work must be approved by the Department of Mathematics through the Director of Undergraduate Studies of the Department. It may include at most one course primarily open to freshmen. A minimum of 8 semester hours must be in laboratory science. The work must be taken in at least two departments.

MEDICAL SCIENCE

These courses in medical science have been approved by the Faculty Council as appropriate for the Bachelor's degree.

103. Human Physiology.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 1-2 and Zoology 1-2. 6 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCCREA AND STAFF

109. Anatomy Related to Motion.—Prerequisite: Zoology 1-2. 8 s.h.

PROFESSOR MARKEE AND STAFF

NAVAL SCIENCE

PROFESSOR EARLE, CAPTAIN, U. S. NAVY; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR VAN ARSDALL, COMMANDER, U. S. NAVY; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS BRACKETT, BREWER, COX, AND GUSTAFSON, LIEUTENANTS, U. S. NAVY; AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR FETTERS, CAPTAIN, U. S. MARINE CORPS

Standardized titles and designators for courses are established by the Bureau of Naval Personnel for use at the 52 NROTC institutions. The first digit indicates the year of the course; the second digit indicates whether semester or quarter (0 for semester, 1 for quarter); the third digit indicates the semester or quarter of school year in which offered. Specialized courses for Marine Corps officer candidates are indicated by the letter "M" after the designator, and substitute for the basic course of the same number.

- NS-101. Naval Orientation.—3 s.h. CAPTAIN EARLE, LIEUTENANT BREWER
 NS-102. Naval Orientation.—3 s.h. CAPTAIN EARLE, LIEUTENANT BREWER
 NS-201. Naval Weapons.—3 s.h. LIEUTENANTS BRACKETT AND GUSTAFSON
 NS-202. Naval Weapons.—3 s.h. LIEUTENANTS BRACKETT AND GUSTAFSON
 NS-301. Navigation.—3 s.h. LIEUTENANT COX
 NS-302. Navigation.—3 s.h. LIEUTENANT COX AND COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL
 NS-302M. History of the Art of War.—3 s.h. CAPTAIN FETTERS, USMC
 NS-401. Naval Machinery and Diesel Engines.—3 s.h. COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL
 NS-401E. Naval Machinery, Ship Stability.—1 s.h. COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL
 NS-402. Ship Stability, Naval Justice, and Leadership.—3 s.h. COMMANDER VAN ARSDALL
 NS-401M. United States Military History and Policy.—3 s.h. CAPTAIN FETTERS, USMC
 NS-402M. Amphibious Warfare.—3 s.h. CAPTAIN FETTERS, USMC

REQUIREMENTS FOR COMMISSION

Naval Science: 24 semester hours.

University courses: Completion of course requirements to qualify for the baccalaureate degree, or higher. These courses must include Mathematics 6, and Physics 1, 2 or 51, 52, to be completed by the end of the sophomore year. Physical training must be taken in accordance with University requirements, and each student must include such instruction in swimming as to qualify him as a first class swimmer.

Summer training: Regular NROTC students must participate in three periods of training on board ship or at naval stations. Contract students are required to take one training cruise of three weeks duration, normally between the junior and senior years.

DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Prerequisites: Zoology 1 and 2.

Major Requirements: Twenty-four semester hours including courses 53, 92 and 152 or 271. The remaining twelve hours may be from any other courses for which the student is eligible. Related work, usually chosen from courses in botany, chemistry, geology, mathematics, and physics, must include at least one year of chemistry.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ADMISSION

Students may qualify for admission to the College of Engineering as members of the Freshman Class or as a student with advanced standing. Since the enrollment in the College is limited, the Committee on Admissions will select the students who, in its opinion, are best qualified to benefit from the educational advantages which the College has to offer. Prospective students and relatives are invited to visit the University and the College of Engineering in particular. This would be advantageous to the applicant, since it would enable him to acquaint himself with the facilities of the University and to discuss possible courses of study.

All correspondence relating to admission of men should be addressed to the Secretary of Duke University, Duke Station, Durham, N. C.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

An applicant for admission to the Freshman Class in engineering must have completed at least fifteen units of preparatory work, partly in required and partly in elective subjects. For a detailed explanation of the units in the table below, see the definitions as set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and other regional associations.

The subjects in which this credit may be offered and the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject are given in the following table:

	UNITS		UNITS
English	4	Botany	1
Latin	4	Zoology	1
Greek	3	General Biology	1
German	3	Physical Geography	1
French	3	General Science	1
Spanish	3	Agriculture	2
Mathematics	4	Mechanical Drawing	2
History and Civics	4	Shop Work	2
Physics	1	Art	1
Chemistry	1	Music	1
		Commercial Subjects	3

Required Units

Seven of the fifteen units required for admission must be:

English	3	units
Physical Science	1	unit
Algebra	1½	units
Plane Geometry	1	unit
*Solid Geometry	½	unit

* Any deficiency in this requirement shall be made up before the beginning of the sophomore year.

Elective Units

In addition to the above seven required units, sufficient elective units must be offered to make a total of fifteen. At least five of the additional units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics, and natural or physical science. It is recommended that these electives be chosen from the following list:

English (in addition to the required 3 units)	1	unit
Algebra (in addition to the required 1½ units)	½	unit
Trigonometry	½	unit
Physics or Chemistry or Biology (in addition to the required unit)	1 to 3	units
Foreign Languages	1 to 4	units
†History or Social Studies	1 to 3	units

The three additional units needed to make the total of fifteen may be in the subjects listed above or they may be selected at large from the table under the heading General Requirements.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

A graduate of an accredited school, who submits fifteen acceptable units of secondary school subjects, is recommended by his principal, and otherwise meets the requirements of the Admissions Committee, may be admitted without examination. The certification and recommendation must be on blanks furnished by the College and signed by the principal of the school in which the applicant completed his course.

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION

Students who present 15 units for admission from schools not accredited by the University, and students who present the proper units but whose grades are not acceptable, are required to validate their units by entrance examinations in English and in mathematics, and such other tests as the University may prescribe.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Students may be admitted to advanced standing from other approved institutions under the following conditions: all applicants must have fulfilled the equivalent of the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, must present official certificates of all work done in other institutions, and must have an honorable dismissal from the institutions they previously attended.

Applicants for advanced standing should present, so far as possible, subjects corresponding to those required at Duke University. Students admitted to advanced standing may not, during their first semester, elect more than the minimum number of hours required of the class which they enter except by permission of the Dean of Engineering.

Students who have transferred from other colleges must, in order to make their provisional classification final, pass during their first year of residence not less than the equivalent of four year-courses with an average grade of "C" or higher.

† Students who do not present at least one acceptable unit of history must take history in college.

ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS

Students of mature age not fully prepared to enter the Freshman Class may be admitted as special students and allowed to enroll for such work as they are prepared to carry. Further, they are required to take 15 hours of classwork a week.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

A student, who, following withdrawal from College, desires to return, should apply to the Committee on Admissions. When applying for re-admission the student should make a detailed statement of his or her activities since withdrawal from College.

PRELIMINARY TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS

General ability and achievement tests are administered to all entering students during an orientation period at the beginning of each semester. These tests enable the appropriate adviser to prepare a course of study adapted to the ability and achievements of the individual student. Physical examinations are given also.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN CIVIL, ELECTRICAL, OR MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

GENERAL STATEMENT

The studies for degrees in Engineering are designed for students who are preparing for civil, electrical, or mechanical engineering as a profession and lead to the following degrees: B.S. in C.E., B.S. in E.E., and B.S. in M.E. All curricula of the College of Engineering are fully accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development.

Credit for 148 semester hours and at least 148 quality points is required for each of these degrees. A grade of "F" carries neither semester hours nor quality points. The work of the senior year (a minimum of 36 semester hours) must be taken in residence. The following course work must be completed with the exceptions noted above in accordance with the academic regulations as stated in this Bulletin.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The undergraduate colleges are operated on the two-semester plan: the autumn semester and the spring semester begin and end in accordance with the published calendar of this bulletin. Two semesters of seventeen weeks each constitute the academic year.

MATRICULATION, REGISTRATION, AND ENROLLMENT

All new students must appear before the Committee on Admissions and obtain cards of admission which must be presented at the Treasurer's Office at the time of matriculation. All students, both old and new, are required to matriculate at the beginning of each semester and to obtain from the Treasurer certificates of matriculation before they can be registered in classes. Students matriculating in either semester at a date later than that prescribed in this catalogue shall pay to the Treasurer a penalty of $5.00 for late registration. Students whose course cards have been approved in the spring in the manner provided below are given an opportunity during the summer to matriculate by mail for the first semester. No student without an enrollment card is admitted to any class. Students who enter after the beginning of the semester are marked absent in the work they have missed in the courses to which they are admitted, and these absences carry the same penalty as do other absences from the courses.

COURSE CARDS

Members of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes are required to submit to the Dean, not later than the date of spring registration, cards showing their selection of courses for the following year. These cards must be approved by the Dean. After being approved, the cards must be filed for permanent record in the Dean's office. Students who do not select their courses for the following year at the time appointed must pay a fee of $5.00 to the Treasurer of the University before their course cards may be approved in the fall. The same regulations apply for the second semester. An advance deposit of $25.00 is required before the spring registration for the fall semester.

Students whose course cards have been approved but who, for reasons not arising within the University, desire to make changes in the cards approved are required to pay to the Treasurer a fee of $1.00 for each change made.

No course may be elected later than two weeks after the opening of the semester.

If a student drops a course without permission from the Dean, the grade for that course shall be recorded as "F."

If a student drops with permission a course in which he is failing at that time, the grade for that course shall be recorded as "F" unless, in the judgment of the Dean, circumstances do not justify this penalty.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

One year in residence (a minimum of 30 semester hours in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and 36 in the College of Engineering) is required of all candidates for degrees. The work of the senior year must be taken in residence with the exception that one course of 6 to 8 semester hours in final fulfillment of requirements may be taken in another institution of approved standing, provided the course is approved by the head of the department concerned and by the Dean.

DEFINITION OF CREDIT

The term of credit used is the semester hour, which signifies one recitation a week throughout the semester. Two or three hours of laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of class work.

SEMESTER HOURS AND QUALITY POINTS

The requirements for the degree are computed not only in semester hours but also in quality points. Quality points are the points earned by a student, according to his grades: for an "A" three quality points per semester hour; for a "B" two quality points per semester hour; for a "C" one quality point per semester hour; for a "D" no quality points; for an "F" a loss of one quality point per semester hour. Credit for 124 quality points is required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science.

HOURS OF CLASSWORK

The normal course load of an undergraduate student in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences is five academic courses, 14 to 17 semester hours, and the maximum number permitted is 19 semester hours, exclusive of physical education. In the College of Engineering the normal course is six academic subjects and 15 to 18 semester hours, exclusive of physical education. No student is permitted to take less than 14 semester hours work without special permission from the Dean nor to take more than the normal load of work unless his average grade in the preceding semester is higher than "C."

CLASS STANDING

In the Colleges of Arts and Sciences to rank as a sophomore a student must have to his credit at least 26 semester hours and 26 quality points; as a junior at least 56 semester hours and 56 quality points; and as a senior at least 92 semester hours and 92 quality points. In the College of Engineering he must have, respectively, at least 30 semester hours and 30 quality points; 68 semester hours and 68 quality points; and 106 semester hours and 106 quality points.

JUNIOR-SENIOR COURSE RESTRICTIONS

In the Colleges of Arts and Sciences no senior may take for graduation credit any course primarily open to freshmen; and no junior may take for graduation credit more than one course primarily open to freshmen. A list of these courses is published in the Bulletin under "Courses of Instruction."

SENIOR WORK

A student of the Senior Class, irrespective of his average grade in preceding years, must, in order to be eligible for graduation, complete the work of his senior year with a minimum average grade of "C".

DEFICIENCIES IN COMPOSITION

The following regulations have been adopted by the Faculty:

1. Any student, who must take English 1 and whose score in the English placement test indicates that he is not yet ready for English 1, must earn a passing grade in English L before being permitted to enter English 1.

2. In the fall of his or her junior year every student of Trinity College and of the Woman's College must take an examination in English usage. The regulation does not apply to students of the College of Engineering, which has special course requirements in English composition in addition to the freshman year. Students with irregular schedules, resulting from acceleration or transfer to Duke after the fall of their junior year, should take the examination in the fall of the year most nearly approximating the fifth semester. Students who prove deficient in this examination will be required to complete satisfactorily a special, non-credit laboratory course in remedial English.

3. Whenever the work of a student in any course is considered to be unsatisfactory because of gross errors in English, the instructor may report the student to the Dean who will require him to enroll in remedial English until, in the opinion of the director, the deficiency is removed.

4. All instructors are requested to advise their students each semester concerning this regulation.

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations are held in all subjects in January and May.

REGULATIONS REGARDING GRADES

Grades shall be reported so as to indicate one of four things:

(1) Passed. A grade of "A," "B," "C," or "D" shall indicate that a student has passed a course. The work of this group of students shall be graded according to the following system: "A": exceptional; "B": superior; "C": medium; "D": inferior.

(2) Failed. A grade of "F" shall indicate that the student has failed the course, and in order to receive credit for the course he must repeat the work in class.

(3) Incomplete. (a) A grade of "I" may be reported by the instructor if for any reason he is unable to report the final grade at the regular time. (b) Incomplete courses must be completed before the close of the succeeding semester; otherwise the "I" is recorded as "F," and the course must be repeated in class if the student is to receive credit for it.

(4) Absent from Final Examination. (a) The grade "X" shall indicate that the student was absent from the final examination. (b) A student absent from examination, if his absence has been excused by the Dean of the College, may receive an examination upon the payment of a fee of $3.00 to the Treasurer of the University. The instructor concerned shall arrange for the examination in cases where absences are excused. (c) All students (with "X" grades), who have not obtained a passing grade before the end of the succeeding semester in which the "X" was incurred, are regarded as having failed in the course concerned and must repeat the work in class in order to receive credit. (d) If a student's absence from an examination is not excused by the Dean of the College, his grade for the course concerned shall be recorded as "F."

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCE REGULATIONS

Regular and punctual attendance in class work is expected of all students. Weekly reports of all absences from class are to be made by each instructor and filed in the Dean's office. No instructor has the authority to excuse a student from class attendance, and it is his duty to report all absences and tardinesses to the Dean's office. The first three tardies in a given course are counted as one absence, and each succeeding tardy is counted as one additional absence.

To provide for absences due to brief illness and other absences for necessary reasons, one absence per semester hour credit may be incurred in each course during each semester.

Absences due to continuous illness of at least four days' duration and authorized absences for representation of the University may be excused provided foresight has been used in previous absences.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors who, in a normal schedule, make averages of "B" or above in the preceding semester will be allowed two absences per semester hour but will, in all other respects, be subject to the same regulations as other students.

All absences immediately before and after announced holidays are doubled.

For each unexcused excessive or consecutive absence, the student incurs the loss of quality points in proportion to the number of such absences taken; one quality point for the first absence, two for the second, and three for the third. When the third unexcused, excess, or consecutive absence is incurred, the student is debarred from the course with the loss of six quality points.

When a student's course load is reduced, because of unexcused absences, to less than 12 semester hours, he shall be required to withdraw from the University.

EXCLUSION FOR FAILURE

A student of the Freshman Class to remain in the University must pass at least 6 semester hours of work in his first semester and 18 semester hours in his first year. All other students must pass at least 9 semester hours each semester. A student who is ineligible to re-enter in September is ineligible to enter the Summer Session.

STUDENTS TRANSFERRING FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS

Students whose advanced credits from another institution are accepted by the University will be given one quality point for each semester hour with which they are credited, provided an average of "C" or better is made during the first two semesters in residence.

CANDIDATES FOR ACADEMIC DEGREES

A tentative list of all candidates for the Bachelor's degree shall be prepared under the supervision of the Dean of the College as early in the college year as possible, shall be furnished in copy to each department of instruction for information and reference, and also shall be posted in copy on the official bulletin board of the University for the information of the students concerned.

A final list of all candidates for the degree shall be submitted by the Dean to the Faculty at its first regular meeting in May and shall be adopted by the Faculty as the final list. After the adoption of this list no name may be added to it.

A student who completes in a summer session the work required by the University for the Bachelor's degree will be granted the degree at the end of the summer.

GENERAL REGULATIONS AND INFORMATION

ASSEMBLY AND CLASS MEETINGS

TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The sophomore, junior and senior classes of Trinity College and the College of Engineering are held on call. The freshman classes of these colleges meet weekly; attendance is compulsory.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE

A weekly assembly is held for all students in the Woman's College. The freshman class meets once each week, and other classes meet at appointed times.

Attendance upon all of these meetings is compulsory for all students involved.

CONDUCT OF STUDENTS

The University expects of its students loyal and hearty co-operation in developing and maintaining high standards of conduct as well as of scholarship. The University therefore reserves the right, and matriculation by the student is a concession of this right, to ask the withdrawal of any student whose conduct at any time is not satisfactory to the University, even though no specific charge be made against the student.

SCHOLASTIC REGULATIONS FOR ATHLETIC AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

The following regulations have been adopted by the Faculty:

1. Any student who receives less than a passing grade on more than six hours of his required work of the preceding term shall be ineligible to represent the University in any athletic contest, concert, or other public event.

2. Members of athletic teams or other student groups engaging in public representation of the University are expected to be carrying satisfactorily their current work. A student may be barred from participation in such representation if, in the opinion of the Dean, he is not passing satisfactorily his current work.

Duke University is a member of the Southern (Athletic) Conference and observes the scholastic requirements of that Conference.

PUBLICATIONS COUNCIL

The student publications of the University are under the control of a council that was established in 1924 and reorganized by the Executive Committee of the University in 1935, and is constituted as follows: three members from the University Staff appointed by the President of the University; two members from the alumni appointed by the President of the University; six men from the junior and senior classes, elected by the students in Trinity College and the College of Engineering; four women from the junior and senior classes, elected by the students in the Woman's College; and four editors and four managers of student publications, ex officio members without voting power.

No student publication can be started at the University without the approval of the Council.

REGULATIONS REGARDING PUBLIC LECTURES AND OTHER PUBLIC OCCASIONS

All public lectures or addresses and other public events that are given under the auspices of the University or of any organization in any way connected with the University are under the supervision of the Faculty Council on Public Lectures. All dates and programs must be approved by this council.

(1) The Council on Public Lectures shall provide each year an official calendar.

(2) All public occasions held on either the East or the West Campus are listed for the Weekly Calendar of Duke University in the office of the Department of Alumni Affairs in the West Campus Union. This calendar appears each Saturday, and such notices must be received by 1:00 P.M. on the Thursday preceding.

Social or other events held in the West Campus Union must be listed in the Office of the Director of Alumni Affairs, and permission must be secured for such social use of the public rooms in the building.

REPORTS

A report of each student's class attendance and his proficiency in academic work is sent to his parents or guardians after the examinations at the end of each semester. Mid-semester reports for freshmen are also mailed to parents.

ADMINISTRATION OF DISCIPLINE

General oversight of the conduct of students and the administering of discipline are under the supervision of the Vice-President in the Division of Student Life. The duty of immediate supervision, guidance, and control of the students in each college is entrusted to the Dean of that College. However, through the expressed willingness of the students of the University to assume the responsibility of maintaining high standards of morals and honor at all times, the student body has properly become to a great degree self-governing. Two councils, one of men and the other of women, each composed of duly elected representatives of the student body, exercise the authority granted the students to investigate all cases of misconduct, as well as all other cases of violation of proper student standards and traditions, and to make recommendations of penalties based on their findings.

The student councils have been helpful to the administrative authorities of the University. They exert a guiding and stimulating influence for the promotion of high ideals of conduct and of student relationships.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The program of Health and Physical Education in Duke University has four distinct phases, as follows:

1. Student Health.
2. Physical Instruction.
3. Intramural Sports.
4. Intercollegiate Athletics.

MEDICAL CARE

With the exceptions noted below, full medical and surgical care is furnished to all regularly matriculated students of the University, during both the college year and the summer quarter. The cost is included in the general fee paid each semester and in the medical fee charged each student in the summer quarter. The service is under the direction of the University Physician with the co-operation of the Staffs of the Infirmaries (one on each campus) and the University Hospital. It includes hospitalization (limited to thirty days), medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, X-ray work, and ward, but not special, nursing. The student pays for his board while in the hospital. Refraction of eyes, treatment of teeth and of all chronic and pre-existing conditions, such as diseased tonsils, hernias, elective surgery, chronic skin conditions, endocrine disturbances, etc., and accidents or illnesses occurring during vacations or while off the campus, are not included in this service. (A commercial accident-expense reimbursement policy is available if desired.) The cost of any necessary braces and orthopaedic appliances, as well as of special nursing, must be borne by the student.

A woman physician is in residence on the Woman's College campus, and a nurse is in constant attendance at the women's Infirmary. Patients in this Infirmary can be transferred to the Duke Hospital at any hour of the day or night. Male students receive ambulant care at the student health office in the hospital building during dispensary hours. Men are admitted to the hospital directly whenever necessary. The emergency service and the specialist consulting services of the Hospital and Medical School are always available.

The medical certificate, required by the Committee on Admissions and sent to all prospective students, gives advice as to certain types of medical and surgical care to be done by the home physician or surgeon prior to the departure of the student for college. The advice concerns such things as the giving of typhoid or smallpox vaccine, removal of diseased tonsils, correction of errors of refraction, repair of a hernia, or removal of a chronic appendix. Important time is frequently lost in correcting these conditions after entrance into college, and the cost of this work must be borne by the student.

When the student comes to the University, he is given a careful physical examination. Any physical defects are recorded along with the record of the questionnaire from the family physician. All students are requested to be successfully vaccinated against smallpox before admission to the University. It is urgently advised that they take typhoid vaccine if they have not done so within three years.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS
TRINITY COLLEGE AND THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The men's colleges require all students to engage in some type of physical activity for two years or four full semesters. This work consists of participation in natural, practical, physical activity for at least three one-hour periods each week. A credit of four semester hours is required in physical education for graduation. The purpose of this work is to improve body control and strength through big muscle activities, to stimulate the development of mental and physical alertness, to establish habits of regular exercise, and to give training and experience in various kinds of recreational sports that will be indulged in after the student graduates from the University.

Intramural sports are fostered and promoted in all lines of athletic activity. Meets, tournaments, and leagues are seasonally organized in the different sports. All students in the University are eligible to enjoy the intramural privileges, provided they comply with the intramural rulings. Participation in these activities is entirely voluntary, but they are very popular because they provide an opportunity for every man to enter into competition and recreation in those sports which he enjoys most.

The intercollegiate athletic program is controlled entirely by the University and consists of the organization and training of representative freshman and varsity teams in the following sports: football, basketball, baseball, track, cross country, swimming, lacrosse, wrestling, tennis, and golf.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The Physical Education Department aims to give the students of the Woman's College an appreciation of the value of activity for general physical well-being, skill in one or more activities which can be enjoyed as recreation during and after college, a well-developed and well-coordinated body, and a knowledge of good posture and efficient handling of the body in everyday activities.

To this end, students are allowed to choose from a large number of activities including individual, dual, and team sports, swimming, and several types of dancing. In order to insure a variety of skills, each student, during her three years of required physical education, must elect one semester's work in each of the following types of activity: individual or dual sports, and dance. All students who are unable to pass the swimming test must take one semester of swimming before graduation. In addition to the two hours per week of activity classes, all freshmen are required to take a course in orientation in physical education and body mechanics, meeting once a week during the first semester.

The Dance Group, the Swimming Club, and the Woman's Athletic Association give opportunities for all students to take part in the types of intramural activities most interesting to them. The swimming pool, tennis courts, and other athletic equipment are available to all students for use at specified times.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION FEES

In order to meet certain hygienic aspects of physical education and intramural athletics, the University has made available for all students, in addition to facilities for physical activity and recreation, the following equipment and services:

1. (a) Men. A regulation uniform: shirt, trunks, supporter, socks, sweat clothes, and towel.
(b) Women. Gym suit, dance costume, bathing suit, warm-up suit.
2. Provision for locker and handling of uniform.
3. The laundering of uniform and towel as needed.

The privileges and services listed above are available to all students who pay full fees, so long as they comply with the rules and regulations established for the care and handling of same.

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees at a meeting held on January 8, 1949, received and considered a report from the Board's standing Committee on Physical Education and Athletics recommending a reconstitution of the Athletic Council. The report recommended that the action of the Board of Trustees at its regular annual meeting in June, 1907, by which it set up an Athletic Council, be rescinded and that a new Athletic Council be created. The Executive Committee adopted the report of the Board's standing Committee on Physical Education and Athletics as follows:

The Athletic Council shall be composed of seven members on the following basis:

Three from the Faculty to be appointed at once by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and thereafter annually at the time of the annual Commencement by the President as follows: one member from the General Administration; one member from the undergraduate colleges division of the educational administration; and one member from the instructional staff of the undergraduate colleges. From this group the President shall appoint the Faculty Chairman, who shall be Chairman of the Athletic Council and its Executive Committee.

Four from the Alumni, one of whom shall be a University Trustee, an alumnus, and a member of the Board's standing Committee on Physical Education and Athletics, who is to be appointed not less frequently than every three years by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. The remaining three of the Alumni members of the Council shall be elected annually by the general Alumni Association for terms of three years and may not succeed themselves. (For the purpose of giving effect to this limitation as of the 1949 Commencement, one member shall be elected for a term of one year, one for two years and one for three years. In order to immediately reconstitute the Council, the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees shall appoint at once the four Alumni members to serve until their successors are elected or appointed at the 1959 Commencement.)

The Director of Alumni Affairs shall ex officio be Secretary of the Athletic Council and of its Executive Committee.

The three Faculty members of the Athletic Council constitute a committee which alone has the responsibility of enforcing the scholarship and athletic requirements of the University for participation in intercollegiate sports. The athletic eligibility rules are those of the Southern Conference.

The Executive Committee of the Athletic Council is composed of the Faculty Chairman of the Council, one other Faculty member of the Council and one Alumni member of the Council. The Executive Committee of the Council recommends to the President of the University persons to serve as Director of Athletics and as coaches in the various sports. The election of such persons however rests solely with the Board of Trustees of the University or with its Executive Committee on recommendation of the President of the University. The Executive Committee of the Council recommends to the Athletic Council athletic schedules and the award of insignia of merit earned by members of the athletic teams. However, decisions with respect to same rest solely with the Athletic Council subject to approval of the President.

Each of the four undergraduate classes shall select annually, for terms of one year, a member of each respective class to serve in an advisory capacity to the Athletic Council upon call of the Faculty Chairman on the matter of awarding insignia of merit.

All funds arising from athletics are handled entirely by the Treasurer of the University. An audit of the receipts and disbursements of these funds is to be made annually by the official auditors of the University and a report thereof made annually to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

The Duke University Church (Interdenominational) conducts services throughout the year. Preaching services are held on Sunday at 11:00 A.M. in the University Chapel. A Vesper service, conducted each Thursday at 7:00 P.M., is sponsored by the Student Religious Council. Organ recitals and special musical programs are given from time to time on Sunday afternoons in the Chapel. During the summer, carillon recitals are given twice a week.

APPOINTMENTS OFFICE

The University maintains an Appointments Office, with services extended to all students and alumni without charge. This office has two divisions, commercial (general placement) and educational (teacher placement). Students and alumni are encouraged to register with the office in order to make available in one center information respecting their various qualifications for the employment they seek.

THE BUREAU OF TESTING AND GUIDANCE

The University maintains a Bureau of Testing and Guidance in which is centralized the counseling and guidance program for students. It is responsible for the administration of various testing programs throughout the year. Included in the responsibilities of the Bureau are admissions tests, placement tests, vocational series, other specialized programs including the Graduate Record Examination, the Navy College Aptitude Test, the Medical College Admissions Test, and specific testing programs requested by the schools and colleges within the University. The Bureau likewise maintains facilities for research projects in the field of guidance and testing and offers such services to schools and individuals outside the community as its facilities permit. Requests for further information should be addressed to The Director, Bureau of Testing and Guidance, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina.

UNIVERSITY LECTURES

THE AVERA BIBLE LECTURES

The Avera Bible Fund was established in 1897 in honor of the late W. H. Avera by his wife, who donated $2,500 for this purpose. The income from this amount is used to establish a lectureship and to provide a collection of books on Biblical Literature.

JOHN MCTYEIRE FLOWERS LECTURES

The John McTyeire Flowers Lectures, established by the late B. N. Duke as a memorial to John McTyeire Flowers, a young alumnus of Trinity College who died in the Far East in 1905, were inaugurated in 1921.

UNIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES

The University Series of Lectures is given each year. These lectures are under the supervision of the Committee on Public Lectures of the Faculty.

FOUNDERS DAY

In commemoration of the signing by the late James B. Duke, on December 11, 1924, of the Indenture of Trust creating the Duke Endowment, under which Trinity College was expanded into Duke University, appropriate exercises are held on Founders Day at the University. Various local alumni groups celebrate the anniversary in connection with their annual meetings, some of which are held on December 11 but most of which take place on other dates during the autumn.

ALUMNI ORGANIZATIONS

GENERAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association of Duke University is composed of the former students of Duke University and its predecessor, Trinity College. The Association gives its annual dinner at Commencement, at which time the annual business meeting of the Association is held.

GENERAL ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

The Alumnae Association of Duke University is composed of the women graduates and former students of Duke University and its predecessor, Trinity College. The Association joins with the Alumni Association in the annual dinner at Commencement. The annual business meeting is held during Alumnae Week End.

DUKE UNIVERSITY NATIONAL COUNCIL

The Duke University National Council is a working body for the alumni interests and maintains a constant supervision of alumni activities. It devotes its activities and efforts to advancing the welfare of Duke University by all appropriate means. Two meetings are held each year, one at Commencement and the other in the fall. The Council is composed of representatives from the various classes, local associations, students, faculty, parents, representatives at large, honorary members, officers of the General Alumni and Alumnae Associations, and representatives from the alumni and alumnae organizations of the professional schools.

ALUMNAE COUNCIL

The Alumnae Council was established by the General Alumnae Association in 1925. As the working organization of the group which established it, the Council endeavors to bind more closely the alumnae and the University and to advance the interests and aims of Duke University.

THE ALUMNI OFFICE

The General Alumni Office was organized to promote the work of the local alumni and alumnae associations and to co-ordinate the various activities of the General Alumni and Alumnae Associations and the Duke University National Council and Alumnae Council. Eighty county and local alumni associations have been formed in North Carolina and other states.

THE ALUMNI REGISTER OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

The Alumni Register of Duke University is a monthly magazine published by the Alumni Association in the interest of the alumni and the University. It aims to keep the alumni in touch with one another and with the University.

THE ALUMNI NEWS

The Duke University Alumni News is sent to all alumni four times during the year.

DUKE UNIVERSITY BUREAU OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

The Duke University Bureau of Public Information is the official publicity agency of the University for the purpose of sending out news to the press.

FEES AND EXPENSES

UNDERGRADUATE COLLEGES OF ARTS AND SCIENCES AND COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

All fees listed below, with the exception of that for registration, are due and payable at the beginning of each semester. The general fee is in lieu of special fees usually charged for matriculation, use of laboratories, student health service, commencement, etc. Regularly enrolled undergraduate students are issued non-transferable identification books which entitle such students to attend without charge all intercollegiate athletic events regularly scheduled by the Director of Athletics and held on the campus. Special fees for instruction in Applied Music are listed on page 92.

Registration, payable only once, on notice of acceptance. This is not refundable	$ 20.00
Tuition	175.00
General Fee	75.00

An advanced deposit of $25.00 is required of all students at the time of spring registration in order to reserve a place in the classes for the fall semester. This is applied toward payment of the general fee upon the opening of the fall semester. The deposit will be refunded to students whom the University does not permit to return. Students who fail to return of their own volition are not entitled to a refund.

An advance deposit of $25.00 is also required of old students who have been out of school for one or more semesters and have been accepted for readmission. It is applied toward payment of the general fee for the semester of readmission. The advance deposit is paid at the time of acceptance and is not refundable.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR AN ACADEMIC YEAR

The necessary expenses of a student are moderate; the University dormitories provide thoroughly comfortable and wholesome living conditions at a minimum of cost. Incidental expenses depend naturally upon the tastes and habits of the individual, but the actual necessary expenses are as follows:

	Low	Moderate	Liberal
Tuition	$350.00	$ 350.00	$ 350.00
General Fee	150.00	150.00	150.00
Room-rent	100.00	125.00	175.00
Board	325.00	375.00	450.00
Laundry	25.00	30.00	35.00
Books	20.00	30.00	40.00
	$970.00	$1,060.00	$1,200.00

The actual fees and expenses necessary for one year in residence as a student in Trinity College, the Woman's College or the College of Engineering, then, can be met within $970.00.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MEN

Single room, per semester—Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, West Campus	$87.50
Double room, per student, per semester—Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, West Campus	62.50

There are three groups of resident houses, designated as Craven, Crowell, and Kilgo Quadrangles, on the West Campus. The rooms are single, double, or arranged in suites of two rooms for four students. There are thirty-one houses within the three groups designated by the letters of the alphabet.

Freshmen are required to live under the supervision of housemasters in dormitories reserved exclusively for them. They are not permitted to own or operate automobiles.

Rooms may be reserved only for applicants who have been officially accepted by the University. A fee of $25.00 is required for reservation. This fee is deducted from the room rental charge at the time of registration for the semester; it is not refunded unless application for the refund is made sixty days prior to the registration date of the semester.

A resident student in order to retain his room for the succeeding semester must make application, accompanied by a reservation fee of $25.00. All rooms which have not been reserved on or before an announced date will be considered vacant for the succeeding semester and will be reserved in the order in which applications are made.

Rooms are rented for no shorter period than one semester, or, in the case of a medical student, one quarter, unless by special arrangement with the Housing Bureau. A period of occupancy other than a semester or quarter and without special arrangement will be charged at a minimum rate of $1.00 each day.

The exchange of rooms may be arranged at the Housing Bureau within fifteen (15) days after the official opening of the semester or quarter of the school term. A charge of two dollars ($2.00) will be made for the exchange of rooms after the periods allowed for such exchange. Persons exchanging rooms without the approval of the Housing Bureau will be subject to charges for both rooms.

The authorities of the University do not assume the responsibility for the personnel selected as roommates. Each student is urged to select the roommate when the room is reserved.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS FOR MEN

Duke University is particularly eager that its students shall have the best dormitory life to be found in any institution. It has endeavored to provide buildings and equipment commensurate with this ideal. The institution asks and believes that in return each student will respond by arranging his personal belongings in an orderly manner and by caring for the buildings and furniture as he would do in the home of a friend. The following regulations are offered as a guide and a reminder that care is desired.

1. The student will be held responsible for any damage to the room or furnishings during the rental period, and will pay for all damages caused by his neglect, misuse or abuse of any part of the University property. Inspections will be made throughout the college year to observe the condition of the rooms and to advise students concerning the care of rooms, if necessary.

2. Maids will prepare the rooms daily except Sunday, the service beginning promptly at 8:00 A.M. and ceasing at 1:00 P.M., thereby giving the student complete use of his room during the afternoon.

3. University furniture or furnishings must not be removed from the room in which they have been placed by the University.

4. Electric wiring, door locks, window screens, steam or water lines should not be changed or added, since the University supervises and makes such changes as are necessary and advisable.

5. Pictures, pennants and clippings should be hung from the picture moulding and not tacked or pasted on walls or woodwork.

6. Each student is expected to supply necessary sheets, blankets, pillows, rugs, and curtains. Furniture, beds and mattresses (39" x 74"), tables, chairs, dressers, mirrors, and window shades are furnished by the University.

7. All trunks and heavy luggage will be stored in the trunk rooms. Janitors will remove the trunks from the hallways to the storage rooms when they are unpacked.

8. The exchange of rooms or keys should be arranged at the office. Any exchanges made otherwise will subject the participant to charges for both rooms.

9. The use or possession of intoxicating liquors, wines or beer, and gambling in any manner in any of the buildings or on the grounds of Duke University are forbidden.

10. Animals shall not be kept in the dormitories.

11. Women are permitted in the dormitories only when accompanied by the University Hostess.

12. The use of dormitory rooms as a sales office or storeroom, or the solicitation for sales or gifts within the buildings or on the grounds is prohibited except by appointees of the University.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR WOMEN

Undergraduate women are required to live in the residence houses of the Woman's College unless they are living with parents or close relatives in the city. Under special circumstances the Dean may make an exception in the case of a mature student.

Residence Houses. There are eight residence houses: Alspaugh, Aycock, Bassett, Brown, Giles, Jarvis, Pegram and Southgate. All rooms in Jarvis and Southgate are double; in Aycock there is a limited number of singles; and in the other houses there are a few singles and several suites consisting of a double and a single or two singles.

A Counselor, who is a member of the Dean's Staff, lives in each dormitory to advise the students and to assist the student House Council in the administration of the house.

Room Furnishings. All rooms contain only the principal articles of furniture. A student is required to supply her own linens, blankets, bedspreads, curtains, and study-lamps. She may, if she wishes, provide additional articles such as scatter-rugs and small tables or bookcases, but she is not permitted to have large rugs or heavy overstuffed furniture.

Room Rent. Each occupant of a double room is charged $62.50 a semester; the occupant of a single room, $87.50 a semester.

Rooms are rented for no shorter period than one semester, unless by special arrangement with the Dean of Residence. A period of occupancy other than a semester or quarter and without special arrangement will be charged at a minimum rate of $1.00 each day.

Room Reservations. Room reservations are made with the Dean of Residence of the Woman's College. To obtain a reservation, a student must pay a fee of $25.00, which is later deducted from the room rent. A new student should pay this fee as soon as she is accepted by the Committee on Admissions. If she does not pay it within ten days, her admission is cancelled. As an applicant for admission may not reserve a room until she is officially accepted, she is requested not to send the reservation fee before she receives notice of her admission.

A student cancelling her room reservation sixty days or more prior to the official opening of the semester may have her fee refunded. After that date no refunds are made.

In the spring, resident students reserve rooms for the next fall semester in accordance with the plan announced by the Dean of Residence. New students are, as far as possible, given their choice of the remaining rooms.

Roommates. A new student who wishes a double room but has made no arrangement for a roommate will be assigned a roommate by the College. After a student has been a resident for one semester, she is responsible for obtaining and keeping a roommate. If a student occupying a double room does not obtain a roommate in the time required by the Dean of Residence—approximately two weeks after the beginning of the semester—she may be required to pay the rental consideration for the entire room.

Room Occupancy. After a student has engaged a room, she is not permitted to move to another without the consent of the Dean of Residence. A student leaving one room and occupying another without permission may be charged for both rooms for the entire semester. No student is allowed to rent or sublet the room she has engaged to another occupant.

DINING SERVICE

West Campus.—Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day, depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus, and the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

Woman's College, East Campus.—The dining halls of the Woman's College are situated in the Union and in Southgate. No resident woman is permitted to board elsewhere than at these halls. The charge for board is $175.00 per semester, payable at the time of registration.

It is hoped that present rates may be maintained. Charges, however, are necessarily dependent upon costs of labor, foods and materials, and some adjustment may be necessary.

Because of the large number of those served in the dining halls, it is not possible to arrange special diets for individual students. Special diet for the sick is served in the Infirmary.

REGULATIONS REGARDING PAYMENTS

The Executive Committee of Duke University has enacted the following regulations which govern the payment of all fees due the University:

1. The President and the Treasurer of the University have no authority to suspend or in any way alter these regulations.
2. Any student who has failed to pay his bills on the dates advertised in the catalogue is denied the right to attend classes until his account is settled in full; subsequent withdrawal does not entitle a student to a refund.

3. No student is considered by the Faculty as an applicant for graduation until he has settled with the Treasurer for all his indebtedness to the University.

4. No student who has not settled all his bills with the Treasurer of the University is allowed to stand the final examinations of the academic year.

When a student wishes his bills sent to his parents or guardian, the student or his parent or guardian must so notify the Treasurer of the University in writing in due time; but this in no way releases the student from liability to established penalties, if his bills are not paid on the dates advertised.

TRANSCRIPTS

Students desiring transcripts are entitled to one transcript without charge. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. Records are not released when any outstanding amount is reported by the Treasurer's Office.

SCHOLARSHIPS, LOANS, AND EMPLOYMENT AID

Duke University annually awards available scholarships, administers loan funds, and supervises student employment through a committee of the Faculty for deserving undergraduates of Trinity College, the Woman's College, and the College of Engineering.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships intended to aid needy and deserving students have been established from time to time by persons deeply interested both in Duke University and in the members of its student body. All scholarship endowments are held in trust and are kept separate and distinct from other holdings of the University. All income is faithfully applied in accordance with the terms of the gift or bequest.

In addition, a limited number of scholarships, notably the honorary awards in recognition of scholastic merit and strength of character, are financed through current funds of the University.

Scholarships are awarded annually by a committee of the Faculty appointed by the President of the University. In some cases donors have specified certain limitations and conditions. These are faithfully followed, but in all cases final award is made by the Faculty committee.

Any prospective student may apply for a scholarship. Applications, however, may be made formally by a prospective student only after his application for admission has been made, all necessary credentials have been presented, and notification of acceptance has been given. All applications are to be by letter and must include on a form furnished by the University a complete statement of the applicant's needs. The number of scholarships available is small in comparison with the number of applicants for these awards. As a result, the committee, in making its decisions, must in so far as possible limit scholarship aid to cases where the need is imperative.

All applications for scholarship aid should be made to the Scholarship Committee, Secretary's Office, Duke University.

THE ANGIER DUKE REGIONAL PRIZES

Value. Nine prizes of $750.00 each are awarded annually to six men and three women. Prizes are awarded for one year and are renewable from year to year for a maximum duration of four years, on the condition that the holder maintain a scholastic average in the upper quartile of his class and further that he show evidence of developing the qualities of leadership which served as the basis for the original selection. When all awards are renewed, there are thirty-six holders of prizes in residence. The total value to the recipient who qualifies for the maximum period is $3,000.00.

Eligibility. Any resident of the state of North Carolina is eligible to apply regardless of where he or she prepares for college. A candidate may be a graduate of a secondary school, public or private, located within or beyond the borders of the state. Candidates must be eligible for admission to the freshman class of Trinity College, the College of Engineering or the Woman's College in the ensuing academic year. A candidate must have attained scholastic standing in the highest 25 per cent of his or her class as of the closing date of his or her most recently completed semester.

Objective. The prizes are intended to encourage as students young men and women who give promise of becoming leaders in their chosen fields of endeavor. As potential leaders, they should possess character, personality, intellectual integrity, vitality, and imagination. As students they should possess scholastic ability of a creative sort and minds that can digest and use the knowledge they acquire. The prizes are designed to stimulate young men and women who possess these traits to become citizens with a genuine interest in society and ability to influence and direct the course of affairs.

Procedure. Applications for one of the prizes awarded either to men or women should be addressed to Mr. John M. Dozier, Office of the Secretary, Duke University, Durham, N. C.

LOAN FUNDS

A number of loan funds have been established for the benefit of students of Duke University. The most important and largest of these is the Angier B. Duke Memorial Student Loan Fund, which is administered through an advisory committee of officers of the University. The amount available to be loaned annually depends upon the income from investments and on the amount repaid on loans previously made to students.

The same committee of officers administers the other endowed loan funds of the University.

Although a considerable sum accrues annually for loans to students, it is not sufficient to provide for all calls for assistance. The committee in approving loans selects those students who, from the standpoint of character, scholastic attainment, personality, and degree of financial need, are most deserving of consideration.

The following regulations govern the making of all student loans:

1. No loans shall be made to a student who violates any of the regulations of the University or whose classwork is not satisfactory to the Faculty.

2. As a general policy a student is not potentially eligible for loan assistance until he has been in residence at least one semester and until those responsible for the administration of loan funds have had an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the worthiness and the need involved in any particular case.

3. Loans will be made only to students who are taking approved courses of study that lead to a degree, and all loans must be arranged for not later than one week after the beginning of a semester.

4. Every applicant for a loan must present with the application such security as the President of the University may approve, and no money shall be advanced before a note with approved security is in the hands of the Treasurer of the University.

5. No loan will be made to defray any other expenses than those incurred during the academic year for tuition, for matriculation, or for room-rent.

6. Interest at rate of six per cent annually shall be charged for all loans of money, and the interest must be paid annually.

7. Applications for loans should be made to the Loan Committee, Secretary's Office, Duke University Station. A formal application for loan assistance may be made only on blanks furnished in the Secretary's Office at the time of registration. The granting or withholding of a loan is a matter entirely within the discretion of the Loan Committee. A student is expected to use all other possible means of securing financial assistance before applying for aid from the Loan Fund.

EMPLOYMENT

In order to serve the students attending Duke University who need part-time employment, a student employment office is maintained. There are many work opportunities both on the campus and in the city of Durham. Although there is no definite number of such places, a considerable number of students each year help defray their college expenses by working.

A listing of all known available jobs is kept in this office, and the majority of students who wish to work are placed in suitable jobs. The student employment office also keeps a permanent record of the work activities of the self help students and is able to write recommendations in the senior year of these students for the Appointments Office.

Prospective students may make application for part-time employment only after they have completed an application for admission and notification of acceptance has been given. The job application should be by letter prior to the reporting date for entrance, and a complete detailed job application form must be completed on the date of arrival at Duke University.

Those students in Trinity College and the College of Engineering in need of such employment may apply to Mr. J. M. Dozier, 209 Administration Building, West Campus. Students in the Woman's College should apply to the Assistant Dean of Residence, 108 East Duke Building, East Campus.

HONORS AND PRIZES

To be eligible for Honors a student must earn during the year a credit of not less than thirty semester hours. Students in the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes who earn an average of at least two and one-half quality points per semester hour are given Honors. All semester hours on which a student receives a grade are counted in the determination of Honors.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts or of Bachelor of Science with distinction is conferred in accordance with the following rules:

Students who have completed a minimum of ninety semester hours in Duke University are eligible for general Honors at graduation. Those who earn an average of at least two and one-half quality points per semester hour are recommended for a degree magna cum laude. Those who earn an average of at least two and three-fourths quality points per semester hour are recommended for a degree summa cum laude. All semester hours taken in Duke University on which a student receives a grade are counted in the determination of Honors.

MEDALS AND PRIZES

The Wiley Gray Medal was established by the late Robert T. Gray, Esq., of Raleigh, North Carolina, to be awarded annually in memory of his brother. It is given for the graduating oration that shall be, in the opinion of a committee, the best, with respect to both declaration and composition.

The Debate Council authorizes the awarding of medals to members of the graduating class who have represented the University in at least two intercollegiate debates. The medals are given by the local chapter of the Tau Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

The Robert E. Lee Prize is the gift of The Reverend A. W. Plyler, of the Class of 1892, and Mrs. Plyler. The sum of $50 is awarded annually at Commencement, preferably to that member of the Senior Class who in character and conduct, in scholarship and athletic achievement, in many virtues and capacity for leadership, has most nearly realized the standard of the ideal student. The Dean of the College, the Graduate Manager of Athletics, and the President of the Student Council constitute a committee to draft and adopt regulations governing the award.

Alpha Kappa Psi Medallion. Beta Eta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional fraternity in commerce, awards annually the Alpha Kappa Psi Scholarship Key to the male senior student pursuing a degree in the Department of Economics and Business Administration, who has attained the highest scholastic average for three years of collegiate work in this University.

The Willis Smith Prize. Mr. Willis Smith, a member of the Raleigh Bar and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Duke University, awards each year to that member of the graduating class of the Law School who has maintained the highest scholastic average during the entire three years of Law School work, a prize consisting of a set of books selected personally by Mr. Smith each year for that purpose.

Julia Dale Prize in Mathematics. This is a prize of books given annually to the undergraduate who shows the greatest proficiency in the study of the calculus.

The Milmow Prize, consisting of one year's subscription to the Electrical World, is awarded each year to that student from North or South Carolina graduating in the Department of Electrical Engineering, who, in the opinion of the Faculty of that department and as shown by his grades, has made the most progress in electrical engineering during his last year in college.

The Tau Beta Pi Prize. The North Carolina Gamma chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity, awards each year a suitable prize, such as an engineering handbook, to a sophomore student in engineering for outstanding scholastic achievement during the freshman year.

The Pegram Chemistry Club Prize will be awarded in the spring of each year for scholarship in chemistry, physics, and mathematics. The prize is to consist of one-year junior membership in the American Chemical Society, and a one-year subscription to either the Journal of the American Chemical Society, or to Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. To qualify for this prize the student must (1) be enrolled as an undergraduate of Duke University and (2) be taking or have taken a fourth-year chemistry course. The winner of this prize is to be selected by a committee consisting of at least one Faculty member and at least two members of the Pegram Chemistry Club; the selection is to be based on the quality-point average for all courses taken in chemistry, physics, and mathematics. In case of a tie equal awards will be given.

The Sigma Xi Prize. The Society of the Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, is devoted to the encouragement of scientific research, and seeks to stimulate those who show promise of accomplishment in scientific research. As an encouragement to younger men and women the Duke Chapter of Sigma Xi has established the following prizes to be awarded annually to students resident at Duke University: $20.00 for an undergraduate project or paper, $20.00 for a Master's thesis or its equivalent, and $40.00 for a Ph.D. dissertation or its equivalent. Nominations, recommendations, copies of theses, reports or other material must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Chapter on or before May 5.

The Erasmus Club Prize in the Humanities. The Erasmus Club, founded in 1925, a group of Duke faculty members interested in research in language, literature, and the arts, seeks to stimulate interest and study in these fields. To encourage Duke students in this field, the Erasmus Club has established an annual prize, amounting to $25.00, for the best original essay by an undergraduate which embodies the results of research, criticism, or evaluation in some subject in the humanities. Prospective competitors should consult some member of the Faculty, preferably their major professor. Essays must be typewritten and must be submitted to the president of the Club before the first of April. The Club reserves the right to withhold the prize in case there are no essays of acceptable quality.

The Anne Flexner Memorial Award in Creative Writing has been established by the friends and family of Anne Flexner, who graduated from Duke in 1945. It consists of fifty dollars in cash and a book bearing the Anne Flexner Memorial Award bookplate. It is given annually for the best pieces of creative writing submitted by a Duke undergraduate. It is limited to short stories (5,000 word limit), one-act plays (5,000 word limit), poems (100 line limit), and informal essays (3,000 word limit). Only one manuscript may be submitted by a candidate, and manuscripts must be delivered to the English Office, Room 2G5, West Duke, before April 15.

The William Senhauser Prize is given by his mother in memory of her son, a member of the Class of 1942, who lost his life in the Pacific Theatre of War on August 4, 1944. The award is made annually to the sophomore or junior in Trinity College or the College of Engineering who has made the greatest contribution through participation and leadership in intramural sports. The winner of this prize is chosen by a committee selected by the President of the University.

The Friends of Duke University Library offer three prizes of $25.00, $15.00, and $10.00 in an annual contest open to all undergraduate students for the best book collections acquired during their college years. The contest is supervised by the Undergraduate Committee of the Friends of the Library, which announces each fall the terms of the award. Inquiries may be directed to the Curator of Rare Books. Collections entered in the contest are exhibited each spring in the General Library, and the prizes are awarded on the basis of the student's collection and a personal interview to determine the over-all planning and objectives of his collecting activity, and his familiarity with his own books and the general field of his collecting interest.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

The Men's Association of Duke University comprises all men students in Trinity College and the College of Engineering. Through its officers and a council it initiates policies and oversees matters within the control of the student body. The council is composed of nine members: three executive officers, two representatives from the Senior Class, two from the Junior Class, one from the Sophomore Class, and one from the College of Engineering.

The Women's Student Government Association is similar in character to the men's association. Its council is composed of the officers of the Association, house presidents and president of the Town Girls' Club, class representatives, and chairman of the Freshman Advisory Council, ex officio.

The Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association are branches of the national student Christian Associations. Each body aims to enrich not only the religious life of its members as individuals but also to promote religious group activity. These organizations carry on extensive activity in the fields of social service, faculty-student relations, forums, and other related projects. Membership in the Student Religious Council relates these organizations to the total religious activities program of the Duke University Church, Interdenominational.

Other organizations and activities include the following:

Bench and Bar Society (Pre-Legal Undergraduates); Class of 1950; Class of 1951; Class of 1952; Class of 1953; Classical Club (Men); Club Panamericano; Commodore Club; Debate Council (Men); Duke Masonic Club; Duke Players; Duke University Church (Interdenominational); Duke University Handbook and Directory; Duke University Steering Committee; Engineers' Club; G. STUDENT ACTIVITIES OFFICE

The Student Activities Offices were established for the purpose of assisting and co-ordinating the financial activities of the various student organizations in Trinity College, the College of Engineering, and the Woman's College.

The offices offer to student organizations a banking service through the office of the University Treasurer. They also provide auditing services for organizations requiring it. Permanent records of all financial activities of organizations are kept under the supervision of the offices. The Student Activities Offices, co-operating with the University Purchasing Department, also serve in the capacity of purchasing agent for affiliated student organizations. There is no charge for this service.

In addition to these specific services, the purpose of the offices is to promote well organized and effective extra-curricular interest.

Student Activities Offices for Trinity College and the College of Engineering are located on the West Campus, and for the Woman's College on the East Campus.

Spring Semester, 1951, begins January 31.

1949-1950
ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

GRADUATE INSTRUCTION IN DUKE UNIVERSITY

ADMISSION

TO GRADUATE COURSES

A student who has received the A.B. or B.S. degree from an institution of recognized standing for a four-year undergraduate course may be admitted to take graduate courses in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Duke University, provided that his undergraduate record gives positive evidence of ability to undertake graduate study successfully. An average grade of not less than "B" is ordinarily accepted as evidence of such ability.

All new applicants for admission to graduate courses are now required to take the Graduate Record Examination before they can be admitted. In cases where it is not possible to take the Examination before arrival at Duke University and where the transcript of work taken elsewhere clearly shows that the student is otherwise eligible, the Examination may be taken the first time it is given here after the student's arrival. Students may make their arrangements for taking this Examination directly with the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Examinations are conducted several times each year at centers distributed throughout the United States and Canada, and wherever possible students should apply to such a center for the Examination.

No college or university work taken before the Bachelor's degree is conferred, or fully earned, may be credited toward an advanced degree except under the following circumstances: A student of Duke University who lacks at the beginning of a semester not more than nine semester hours of fulfilling the requirements for the Bachelor's degree may obtain permission from the Dean of the Graduate School to take during the semester graduate courses sufficient to bring his total work to fifteen hours a week. Such graduate courses will be credited toward the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Education if registered in the Graduate School Office at the beginning of the term and if the student meets the requirements below for formal admission to the Graduate School.

A candidate for admission to graduate courses should ask the proper officer of the college, or colleges, he attended to send directly to the Dean of the Graduate School an official transcript of all undergraduate records. An advanced student should provide also a transcript of the graduate work completed. Students who have attended more than one college or university should note that certification by one institution of work completed at another institution cannot be accepted. In no case will a transcript presented by the candidate himself be accepted as a basis for admission, nor will a transcript mailed by any institution be returned to the student.

An application blank for admission will be provided upon request to the Dean of the Graduate School. The transcript and application should be submitted to the Graduate School by August 1 for admission in the autumn semester and by January 1 for admission in the spring semester.

Letters of recommendation are required of each candidate for admission. The applicant should ask two or three professors qualified to speak of his promise as a graduate student to write letters of appraisal to the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Duke University Durham, North Carolina.

TO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

After twelve semester hours of graduate courses, the student may apply for admission to the Graduate School, and thus become a candidate for the Master's degree. Such admission is dependent upon the fulfillment of two conditions. (1) The student must have made a mark of "G" (good) in at least three semester hours of work, with no mark less than "S." Candidates who cannot meet this condition may at a later time submit their records for re-evaluation, provided that in their subsequent work they shall have made a substantial number of "G's." (2) The student in his undergraduate work must have met substantially the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University.* Any deficiencies of undergraduate work must be satisfied before admission to the Graduate School. Graduate courses taken at Duke University prior to formal admission to the Graduate School will count toward a higher degree provided they are in accord with its requirements and are acceptable to the major department.

A graduate student may be requested to withdraw from the University at the discretion of the Dean of the Graduate School.

REGISTRATION

Before actually registering in the Graduate School Office, the student who is admitted to graduate courses should consult with the Director of Graduate Studies or his representative in the department in which he proposes to major and receive written approval of his schedule of courses. This can be done during the registration period in September and January. The department concerned will determine whether a student is prepared to take any particular course. In all cases the student must make up without credit toward a graduate degree all prerequisites required by the major department of candidates for advanced degrees. Students who have fulfilled the minimum residence requirements for the doctorate but who are continuing resident study at Duke University for the degree should register in the Graduate School Office.

New students are advised to arrive early during the registration period in order to formulate their programs. Anyone registering for courses after the close of the regular registration period will be charged a late registration fee of five dollars.

* In meeting the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University, a student is not allowed excessive concentration in any one field. The same principle is applied in evaluating the undergraduate record of candidates for admission to the Graduate School.

TUITION AND FEESGENERAL FEES IN THE ACADEMIC YEAR

The following table shows the general fees and charges collected from all students. All fees for each semester are due and payable, unless otherwise specified, at the time of registration at the beginning of that semester. No student is admitted to classes until arrangements have been made with the Treasurer of the University for the settlement of fees.

Tuition, per semester.....	$175.00
General Fee,* per semester.....	60.00
Athletic Fee, not including Federal Tax, Optional, per semester.....	5.00
Special Dissertation Fee, payable by candidates for Ph.D. degree in the last semester before the degree is granted. Returned on satisfactory publication of thesis.....	50.00

SPECIAL FEE

An administrative fee is charged in connection with special graduate research work in the summer under direction of a member of the Faculty.

STUDENTS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA GRADUATE SCHOOL

Under an experimental plan of co-operation between the University of North Carolina and Duke University, students regularly enrolled in the University of North Carolina Graduate School and paying full fees to that institution may be admitted to courses in the Duke University Graduate School on payment of a registration fee of two dollars and any other special fees which are required of all students.

TRANSCRIPTS

A student desiring to transfer from Duke University to another institution is entitled to one free transcript of his record. A charge of one dollar, payable in advance, is made for each additional copy. Transcripts of students who enroll in graduate courses only in the summer sessions are issued by the Summer Session Office prior to the fulfillment of all requirements toward an advanced degree, after which time they can be obtained in the regular way from the Graduate School.

PAYMENTS TO FELLOWS, SCHOLARS, AND GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

Payments by the University of stipends to fellows, scholars, and graduate assistants are made in four equal installments, at approximately the middle and end of each semester. Tuition fees are charged against the stipends.

Fellows and scholars are required to pay the regular tuition and fees and are expected to take a full program of work. Assistants who are permitted to register for only four fifths of a regular program are charged a proportionate amount of the tuition in addition to the regular matriculation and other fees.

* General Fees, in lieu of most special charges, include the following fees: Matriculation, Medical, Library, Damage, Commencement, Diploma, and an average of the Laboratory and Materials Fees.

SPECIAL CHARGES FOR TEACHERS AND OTHERS

For the purpose of aiding North Carolina teachers in their professional preparation, Duke University grants a special tuition rate to members of the faculties of neighboring schools and colleges who desire to register during the regular academic session for one or two graduate courses. For such courses a teacher regularly employed and teaching while taking these courses is charged a registration fee of five dollars at the beginning of each semester and a tuition fee of five dollars and twenty-five cents per semester hour of course credit. Under this provision a student may not register for more than seven semester hours each semester.

Employees of Duke University who are paid on a monthly basis throughout the year, ministers of neighboring churches, and wives of the Duke Faculty may be included under the above provisions by the Dean of the Graduate School, provided that such persons do not receive residence credit in any semester for more than two fifths of a regular program in meeting the requirements for advanced degrees.

The special tuition rate for teachers does not apply to the holders of fellowships, graduate scholarships, and graduate assistantships annually awarded in the Graduate School, nor to teachers on leave of absence and not actually engaged in their teaching at the time of registration.

FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND ASSISTANTSHIPS

For the assistance and encouragement of graduate students of high character and marked ability, the University has established a considerable number of fellowships, scholarships and assistantships with stipends ranging from $450 to $1,600. Holders of these awards will be expected to pay the tuition fee and such additional fees as are regularly required. Applications for appointments together with supporting credentials should be received on or before March 1 of each year. In case vacancies occur, applications submitted on a later date will be considered. Appointments are made for no longer than one academic year.

In appointing fellows, preference is usually given to applicants who have completed successfully at least one year of graduate work. Fellows will be required to give a limited amount of assistance in reading papers, in laboratories, or in other departmental duties. All fellows carry a full program of graduate work. Scholars may be asked to give a limited amount of assistance in departmental work. They normally carry a full program of graduate studies. Assistants receiving $700 or more will be registered for four fifths of a normal program of studies.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained from the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

Awards offered for the year 1950-51 are listed below.

FELLOWSHIPS

One Angier Duke Memorial Fellowship of $1,600.

Twelve University Fellowships with stipends varying from $1,050 to $1,500.

Twelve University Fellowships with stipends varying from $950 to $1,200.

Three Gurney Harriss Kearns Fellowships in Religion of $1,000 each.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Approximately eighty additional appointments as teaching assistants or readers will be available for graduate students. The compensation will usually range from $800 to $1,500 depending upon the nature and amount of the work assigned.

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Fifteen scholarships with stipends varying from $450 to $800 each.

CHARLES W. HARGITT RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP IN ZOOLOGY

The Charles W. Hargitt research fellowship in Zoology, carrying a stipend of $2,500, is restricted to research work in the field of Cytology. Appointment is for a single year, with the possibility of reappointment. The fellowship is primarily for post-doctoral research. Inquiries and applications should be made to Dr. C. G. Bookhout, Biology Building, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

FELLOWSHIPS AND GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS IN FORESTRY

Information regarding special fellowships and graduate scholarships in forestry may be obtained from the Dean of the School of Forestry, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

SIGMA XI PRIZE AWARDS

The Society of Sigma Xi offers each year a prize for a Master's thesis and a prize for a Ph.D. dissertation in the fields of Botany, Chemistry, Forestry, Mathematics, Medicine, Physics, Psychology, and Zoology. The student must be in residence during the academic year in which the prize is awarded. Students holding graduate appointments are eligible to compete, but instructors, part-time instructors, and interns are not eligible. The department concerned makes the nomination. Full particulars may be obtained from the secretary of the chapter. Nominations, recommendations, copies of theses, reports, or other materials must be in the hands of the secretary on or before May 1. All papers should be submitted in duplicate.

ADVANCED DEGREES

The degrees offered in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences are Master of Arts (A.M.), Master of Education (M.Ed.), Doctor of Education (Ed.D.), and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.). Most departments of the University are now prepared to give a full program of work leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

THE LIBRARY

The University Libraries contain 960,859 volumes, 618,613 of which are in the General Library. The remainder are shelved in eight school and departmental libraries: Divinity, 46,318 volumes; Hospital, 48,070 volumes; Law, 89,122 volumes; Woman's College, 79,095 volumes; Biology-Forestry, 40,090 volumes; Chemistry, 13,555 volumes; Engineering, 12,994 volumes; Mathematics-Physics, 12,076 volumes. Between 30,000 and 40,000 volumes are added annually to the University Libraries.

Most of the printed and manuscript materials of interest to graduate students in the humanities and social sciences are in the General Library. This building, first occupied in 1930, was doubled in size in 1949. The enlarged building now contains many special features which contribute to the preservation of materials and aid research students in their study. The book stacks and storage areas are air conditioned. Two hundred and fifty carrels, some enclosed, are available in the stacks as places of study. (Graduate students, upon application, may receive permits admitting them to the stacks.) A reading and study room for graduate students is provided on the first floor. Rare books and manuscripts are preserved in air conditioned quarters in the north tower, rare books occupying four rooms on the first floor and manuscripts, four on the ground level. Elsewhere on the ground level is the Newspaper Reading Room, where back files of newspapers may be consulted, and a Microphotography Laboratory with facilities for reproducing printed and other material. The Newspaper Reading Room contains a battery of microfilm reading machines.

The school and departmental libraries bring books and journals closer to students and faculty in several divisions of the University, particularly in the natural sciences.

The major task in developing a research library for scientists involves securing files of important journals and serials, and from the beginning this has been one of the primary objectives of the Library administration. In 1948-49 the University was receiving currently 3,600 periodicals by subscription, gift, and exchange. Library development in the humanities and social sciences has gone forward with the acquisition of basic collections of source materials and important publications of criticism and discussion. In quantity the purchases have ranged from significant single sets, such as Migne's Patrologia (Latin and Greek) and the Monumenta Germaniae Historica, to special libraries containing many thousands of volumes. Among the important special collections is the Guido Mazzoni library of Italian and comparative literature containing 23,000 volumes and 67,000 pamphlets which came to the University in 1948. Others include a Peruvian library of about seven thousand books and manuscripts; a library of several thousand volumes dealing with Brazil; an Ecuadorian collection of about two thousand volumes; the Robertson library of Philippiniana; the Lanson Collection of French literature consisting of twelve thousand books and monographs; a Goethe collection of one thousand volumes; a Scandinavian collection of three thousand volumes; a special group of five thousand items of early Americana, dating from the seventeenth century to 1820; the Holl church history library dealing primarily with the period of the Reformation; a collection of many thousands of church minutes and records of American denominational history; two collections of eighteenth-century English poetry and prose totaling about five thousand items; the Frank C. Brown folklore collection consisting of about 38,000 folklore manuscripts, with 650 musical scores, 1,400 vocal recordings, and a variety of related materials; a collection of more than five thousand seventeenth- and eighteenth-century British pamphlets; special collections of manuscripts; annotated copies and first editions of Byron, Coleridge, and Emerson; a collection of material on the Fourier movement; the Arents tobacco collection; and the Thomas Collection of books on Chinese history and culture. Special mention should be made of the George Washington Flowers Collection of manuscripts, books, newspapers, and pamphlets dealing with all phases of Southern history, and of the Trent Collection of Walt Whitman books and manuscripts.

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

The importance of public documents as fundamental source materials is clearly recognized, and a comprehensive collection of this material has been assembled. The Library has been a depository for Federal documents since 1890. State documentary publications are also being systematically collected in cooperation with the University of North Carolina. A representative collection of European public documents has been secured. Among them are the British Parliamentary Papers (since 1925), Calendar of State Papers, the Acts of the Privy Council, Hansard's Debates, the Débats Parlementaires of the French Senate and Chamber of Deputies, the Journal Officiel de la République Française, the Bulletin des Lois de la République Française, the Reichsgesetzblatt, the Vcrhandlungen des Reichstags, the Atti of the Italian Parliament, the Diario of the Spanish Cortes. The public documents of the Latin-American countries, especially Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Ecuador, Peru, and Uruguay form one of the strongest units of the Library. The publications of the League of Nations, United Nations, and International Labour Office, of course, are present.

Under this heading should be mentioned also the Library of Professor Louis Strisower, sometime President of the Institut de Droit International, which contains approximately five thousand volumes dealing with international law. The volumes date from the seventeenth century to the present and contain some especially valuable periodical files and rare books.

PUBLICATIONS OF EUROPEAN ACADEMIES

The Duke University Library has the publications of many of the European academies, containing monographs in most of the fields of knowledge and constituting important sources for the research programs of graduate students and faculty. The sets comprise over four thousand volumes and include Prcussische Akademie der Wissenschaften (Berlin); Gesellschaft der Wissenschaften zu Göttingen; Heidelberger Akademie der Wissenschaften; Akademie der Wissenschaften (Vienna); Académie des sciences (Paris); Académie des inscriptions et belles-lettres (Paris); Académie des sciences morales et politiques (Paris); Accademia nazionale dei lincei (Rome); Accademia pontificia dei nuovi lincei (Rome); Real academia española (Madrid); Academia de la historia (Madrid); Akademiia nauk (Leningrad); Dansk videnskaberne selskab (Copenhagen); Norske videnskaps-akademi i Oslo; Akademie van Wetenschappen (Amsterdam); Académie royale des sciences, des lettres et des beaux-arts de Belgique (Brussels).

NEWSPAPERS

The Newspaper Collection of the Library contains about 13,000 volumes and 2,000 rolls of microfilm. Most of the states of the Union are represented, although a large percentage of the papers are from the Atlantic seaboard—about fifty per cent representing the South and thirty per cent the Northeast. Of the eighteenth-century titles, the states best represented are Massachusetts, Maryland, New York, Rhode Island, Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. The collection of nineteenth-century New England papers is strong, but especially extensive are the Library's holdings of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia newspapers for the Ante-Bellum and Civil War periods. The years of World War I are covered by twenty-eight fairly complete files. Foreign newspapers include The (London) Times from 1785, and about a dozen virtually complete runs of European and Latin-American papers from the 1920's and early 1930's. The current subscription list contains seventy papers, about one-half of which are foreign.

MANUSCRIPTS

The manuscript collection now contains 1,500,000 items relating chiefly to the South Atlantic region. Most numerous are records of military, social, and economic life in the Confederate period, including letters, diaries, rosters, military reports, statutes of the Confederate Congress, court records, and papers of various departments of the Confederate Government. Outstanding among the many papers providing a well-rounded picture of life in the South during the nineteenth century are original census returns of Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, and Tennessee for 1850 and 1860. The collection, most extensive in the field of history, contains information on all phases of social and economic life as well as politics. Numerous large collections bear particularly on the history of Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Of interest for historical studies are the papers of P. G. T. Beauregard, John C. Calhoun, David Campbell, Robert Carter, Clement C. Clay, Henry Clay, William H. Crawford, John J. Crittenden, Jefferson Davis, Nathanael Greene, Andrew Jackson, Robert E. Lee, Alfred T. Mahan, Alexander H. Stephens, and others. For the later period the papers of Furnifold W. Simmons and Josiah W. Bailey, senators from North Carolina, are significant. The field of American literature is represented by papers of Thomas Holley Chivers, John Esten Cooke, Clara V. Dargan, Paul Hamilton Hayne, George Frederick Holmes, Alexander B. Meek, Thomas Nelson Page, Augustin L. Taveau, and Walt Whitman. Among British and literary materials there are interesting groups of papers relating to George Moore, the Rossettis, Robert Southey, and Tennyson. Of the medieval manuscripts, consisting chiefly of lectionaries and copies of the New Testament, a thirteenth-century New Testament in Greek, and a Greek liturgical scroll of the Byzantine Empire are noteworthy. The Library has recently acquired the extensive official files of the Socialist Party of America extending from 1901 to 1938; and a collection of the papers of George Holyoake, English cooperator and secularist of the nineteenth century.

A Guide to the Manuscript Collections in the Duke University Library, which describes the papers comprising the collection in 1942, was issued in 1947 as Series 27 and 28 of the Historical Papers of the Trinity College Historical Society. This index was prepared by Nannie M. Tilly, then curator of manuscripts, and her assistant, Noma Lee Goodwin.

EXCHANGE PRIVILEGES WITH THE LIBRARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

The libraries of Duke University and of the University of North Carolina have arrangements for the fullest exchange of privileges and resources. Each library contains a catalogue of the contents of the other. Books are secured on loan for students and faculty through a delivery service which operates between the libraries every other day. Faculty members and graduate students may secure cards admitting them to the stacks of the other library. The Library of the University of North Carolina contains about 540,000 volumes, and a large collection of manuscripts relating to Southern history. Under this arrangement 1,450,000 volumes and about 4,000,000 manuscripts are available to students of the two institutions.

SCIENCE LABORATORIES

BOTANICAL AND ZOOLOGICAL LABORATORIES

Facilities for graduate study in the Departments of Botany and Zoology are for the most part concentrated in the Biology Building on the West Campus. In addition to well-equipped laboratories for teaching and research in the various fields of botany and zoology, special facilities, such as animal rooms, greenhouses, darkrooms, a small shop, a refrigerated room, and an air-conditioned room are available.

The Botany herbarium, containing over 125,000 specimens, is particularly strong in material from the Southeast and includes notable collections of mosses, ferns, and grasses. The Biology-Forestry Library contains an outstanding collection of books and serials, including most of the important American and foreign periodicals, in botany, forestry, zoology and related fields.

Unique assets for teaching and research are the Sarah P. Duke Gardens, conveniently accessible on the West Campus; the Duke Forest, comprising some eight thousand acres of woodland adjacent to the West Campus; and the Duke University Marine Laboratory at Beaufort, North Carolina. The marine station is exceptionally well located for the study of animal and plant life in the ocean and in the coastal plains area. Graduate courses of instruction are given at the Marine Laboratory during the summer months; research facilities are available throughout the year.

Scholarships for advanced study during the summer months are maintained at the Highlands Laboratory, Highlands, North Carolina, and at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Massachusetts. Requests for additional information concerning these scholarships should be addressed to the Zoology Department.

PHYSICAL LABORATORIES

A new physics building has just been completed. It has 62,500 square feet of floor space and is of the most modern type.

In addition to the usual lecture halls and elementary laboratories, there are special laboratories for work in electrical measurements, electronics, microwaves, optics, atomic physics, and mechanics. A new laboratory for training in radioactive measurements has recently been added.

The research laboratories contain the following special equipment: a new 21 ft. concave grating and other instruments for visible, ultraviolet, infrared, and Raman spectra are available for research in spectroscopy. Extensive and well equipped laboratories are provided for research in microwaves and microwave spectroscopy in both the centimeter and millimeter range. New type crystal counters, proportional counters, and ion chambers are used for cosmic ray research.

The department has available, in addition to University appointments, a number of research fellowships for work under government contracts and from grants by industry and scientific foundations.

The new physics building contains also a departmental library, a liquid air plant, and shop facilities. The main shop is staffed by four instrument mechanics, two electronic technicians, and a glassblower. There is also a separate shop for use of graduate students.

CHEMICAL LABORATORIES

Graduate work in chemistry is carried on in a modern building with a floor area of about 57,000 square feet. Of this total space a large proportion is available for research and advanced teaching. There are twenty-five double research rooms completely equipped with the usual services. In addition, a number of specially designed rooms are available for present or future research, such as a photographic room, constant temperature room, distillation room, and rooms equipped for dielectric constant and magnetic measurements.

A glassblowing room and a well-equipped shop, operated by a competent mechanic, provide facilities for the construction of special apparatus and for the repair and maintenance of instruments.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

In the School of Medicine elaborate facilities are provided for post-graduate research in the various branches of medical science. The Departments of Anatomy, Bacteriology and Immunology, Biochemistry and Nutrition, and Physiology and Pharmacology offer certain courses and research facilities to students in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. The use of the Duke Hospital Library is available to all graduate students.

OAK RIDGE INSTITUTE OF NUCLEAR STUDIES

Duke University is one of the sponsoring universities of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies located at Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Through this cooperative association with the Institute, the graduate research program has at its disposal all the facilities of the National Laboratories in Oak Ridge and of the research staffs of these laboratories.

DUKE FOREST

The Duke Forest consists of approximately eight thousand acres of land, most of which is adjacent and easily accessible to the University campus. Situated in the lower Piedmont region and composed of second-growth shortleaf pine, loblolly pine, and hardwoods, the Forest is representative of the various types of timber growth and soils found throughout the region. Through placing the Forest under intensive management for forestry purposes, substantial progress has been made in developing the educational work and research in forestry.

The proximity of the Forest to the laboratories, greenhouses, and library facilities of the University provides an excellent opportunity for advanced study and research in forestry. Research, particularly in the fields of silvics, forest soils, silviculture, forest management, properties of wood, forest-tree physiology, forest entomology, and forest pathology, is well under way. Several members of the Botany and Zoology staffs are also engaged in research in the Duke Forest.

For additional information see the Bulletin of the School of Forestry.

ENCOURAGEMENT OF RESEARCH

The President of the University appoints annually a University Council on Research. The members of this Council are chosen from the Faculties of the Schools of Medicine and of Law, the Divinity School, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. In May of each year the Council on Research receives written applications from members of the Faculty for subsidies to be used in the following fiscal year to aid them in carrying out research projects. Stipends are granted for the employment of research assistants, for the purchase of books, and for apparatus, supplies, and equipment. Each member of the Faculty to whom a research stipend is granted must make a written report within twelve months to the Council concerning the progress of the investigation for which the stipend was allowed.

SPECIAL LECTURES

During each academic year the University Lecture Committee arranges for special lectures of value to graduate students interested in various fields of knowledge. The Woman's College Lecture Series brings other guests to the campus. In addition to these lectures, a number of distinguished speakers appear each year on the programs of various schools and departments of the University.

Among the guest lecturers during the academic year 1949-50 were Hanson Baldwin, Military Critic for the New York Times, and Mrs. G. D. H. Cole, noted English writer.

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS

In 1897 Trinity College began sponsoring the publication of "The Historical Papers of the Trinity College Historical Society," which was distributed to members of the Society and by exchange to other institutions. This series was the first publishing venture of the College. In 1902, the 9019, an honor scholastic society on the campus, founded The South Atlantic Quarterly, which is now published by the Press.

In 1921 the Trinity College Press was established to publish the results of research engaged in by the Faculty and such other works as were approved by a board of editors appointed for the purpose. In 1925, with the acceptance of the benefaction of James B. Duke, Trinity College became one of the undergraduate colleges of Duke University, and the following year the University Press was organized to succeed the Trinity College Press.

One of the first steps of the new organization was to revive The Hispanic American Historical Review, which had been founded and published from 1918 to 1922 by a group of scholars interested in Hispanic America. Since 1926 its publication has been continued without interruption, and its mission has been supplemented by many studies dealing with the history, politics, and foreign relations of the Hispanic nations of the New World. In 1929 American Literature was begun with the co-operation of the American Literature Group of the Modern Language Association. This journal was followed in 1931 by Ecological Monographs, a quarterly sponsored by the Ecological Society of America, to take care of papers too long for inclusion in Ecology, which began to appear under the auspices of the Press in 1948. Character and Personality, since 1945 the Journal of Personality, was founded in 1932 as a medium for the publication of studies in fields related to this phase of psychology. In 1935 the Press started the publication of the Duke Mathematical Journal, with the co-operation of the Mathematical Association of America, and in 1937 The Journal of Parapsychology for the publication of the results of research in extrasensory perception and related topics. The Law School of Duke University publishes Law and Contemporary Problems, a quarterly presenting in each issue a symposium treating the legal, economic, and other social-science aspects of current problems. The faculty of the Law School also edits The Journal of Legal Education, which is the official publication of the Association of American Law Schools.

Besides its books, monographs, and regular quarterly publications, the Press issues "Contributions to Psychological Theory" and "Duke University Research Studies in Education," the latter sponsored by the Department of Education of the University. It publishes also the Bulletin of the University Marine Laboratory at Beaufort, North Carolina.

Since its organization the Press has offered to the public the products of scholarly research to the number of more than two hundred volumes.

It has not limited its scope to any one field or to any one group of authors. In addition to the many works submitted by members of the Faculty and alumni, a great number of titles by authors without a connection with the University have been issued under the imprint of the Press.

In the broadest sense, the policy of the Press is to make available to the public any scholarly work which, because of the merit of its contents, its style, and its general value, deserves publication, though special attention is given to works in domains of knowledge cultivated by the University and to works pertaining to the region south of the Potomac.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

This is a condensed description of courses. For a full description, see Bulletin of the Graduate School.

Certain undergraduate courses are open to graduate students with the approval of the Department. See the Bulletin of Undergraduate Instruction.

AESTHETICS, ART, AND MUSIC

PROFESSOR KATHARINE GILBERT, CHAIRMAN—100 ASBURY BUILDING; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN

No graduate degree is offered in this department, but the following courses are suggested as possible minors for students majoring in history, literature, philosophy, religion, psychology, or sociology, or in any other interested departments.

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------|
| 201-202. The Philosophy of Art.—6 s.h.
[Not offered in 1950-51] | PROFESSOR GILBERT |
| 213-214. History of Aesthetics.—6 s.h. | PROFESSOR GILBERT |
| 215. Religious Art of the Ancient Near East.—3 s.h.
[Not offered in 1950-51] | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN |
| 216. Religious Art of the Classical World.—3 s.h.
[Not offered in 1950-51] | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN |
| 217. Aegean Art.—3 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN |
| 218. Early Greek Art.—3 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MARKMAN |

DIVISION OF ANCIENT LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES

PROFESSORS CLARK, ROGERS, AND STINESPRING; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS BROWNLEE, ROSE, TRUESDALE, WAY, AND YOUNG

GREEK

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 201-202. Greek Tragedy.—6 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE |
| 203-204. Homer.— Odyssey . Pindar and Bacchylides. 6 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE |
| 205-206. Greek Historians.—6 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE |
| 207-208. Greek Orators.—6 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY |
| 209-210. Plato.— Symposium , Protagoras , and parts of the Republic . 6 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY |
| 211-212. Aristophanes.—6 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TRUESDALE |
| (Only one of the six courses listed above is offered each year.) | |
| 243. Athenian Topography.—3 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY |
| 244. Greek Epigraphy.—3 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY |
| 245. Greek Dialects.—3 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY |
| 246. Greek Historical Inscriptions.—3 s.h. | ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY |

247-248. Greek Archaeology.—6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WAY

(Of the courses numbered from 243 to 248, only two semester-courses are offered each year.)

257. Social and Cultural History of the Hellenistic World from Alexander to Augustus.—3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

FOR GRADUATES

The more advanced work of the graduate department is done in the seminar. One author or group of authors forms the center of study each year. Seminars are offered in Aristophanes (301-302), The Greek Historians (303-304), The Attic Orators (305-306), and The Greek Tragic Poets (307-308). These run through a cycle of four years. In 1950-51 the work will be: 301-302. Aristophanes.

Graduate students of Duke University may attend the American School of Classical Studies in Athens, Greece, without charge for tuition, and they are eligible to compete for the fellowships that are offered annually by the School. These consist of two fellowships in Greek archaeology, and one in the language, literature, and history of ancient Greece, each with a stipend of $1,300. They are awarded mainly on the basis of examinations held in the beginning of February of each year.

LATIN AND ROMAN STUDIES

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201. Roman Fiction.

202. Latin Christian Writers.

203-204. Roman Epic: Ennius, Vergil, Manilius, Lucan, Flaccus, Statius, Silius.—Not offered if 205-206 is given. 6 s.h.

205-206. Roman Drama: Plautus, Terence, Seneca.—6 s.h.

207-208. Roman Philosophy.

209-210. Vulgar Latin: Introduction to Romance Philology.

211-212. Roman Oratory.—6 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

215. Introduction to Roman Art and Archeology.

216. Topography and Monuments of Ancient Rome.

251-252. Roman Life.

258. Social and Cultural History of the Graeco-Roman World.—3 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

281-282. Roman Historical Literature.

283-284. Roman Law.—6 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

FOR GRADUATES

309-310. Sight Reading and Composition.—6 s.h.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

311-312. Latin Epigraphy.—Second semester. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR ROGERS

Seminars: Various authors or historical periods are selected from year to year as a basis for training in criticism and research. Seminars are offered in the following: Catullus (301-302), Roman Historians (331-332),

Roman Provincial Administration (341-342), The Reign of Tiberius (343-344), Martial (351-352), Horace (361-362), Lucretius (371-372), and Cicero's Public Career (391-392). The seminar planned for 1950-51 is:

331-332. Roman Historians.—6 s.h.

FOR GRADUATES

375-376. Greek and Latin Linguistics.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

385-386. Elementary Sanskrit.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROSE

SEMITICS

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

201-202. First Hebrew.—6 s.h. PROFESSOR STINESPRING

205-206. Elementary Arabic.—6 s.h. PROFESSOR STINESPRING
[Not offered in 1950-51]

207-208. Second Hebrew.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BROWNLEE

FOR GRADUATES

304. Aramaic.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR STINESPRING

305. Third Hebrew.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR STINESPRING
[Not offered in 1950-51]

307. Syriac.—Some knowledge of Hebrew and Aramaic prerequisite. 3 s.h.
[Not offered in 1950-51] PROFESSOR STINESPRING

309. History of the Ancient Near East.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR STINESPRING

RELATED COURSES IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

Philosophy 217. Philosophy of Aristotle.—3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR McLARTY

Religion 217. The New Testament in Greek.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 218. Galatians and I Corinthians.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 220. I Peter and the Gospel of John.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 313.—The Apostolic Fathers.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 316. Hellenistic Religions at the Beginning of the Christian Era.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

Religion 318. Text of New Testament.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR CLARK

BOTANY

PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST, CHAIRMAN—203 BIOLOGY BUILDING; PROFESSOR KRAMER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—04 BIOLOGY BUILDING; PROFESSORS
ADDOMS, HARRAR, OOSTING AND WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND PERRY

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

202. Genetics.—Prerequisites: one year of botany, zoology, or equivalent, and college algebra. 4 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR PERRY

203. Plant Cytology.—Prerequisite: one year of botany. 4 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON

204. Advanced Plant Anatomy.—Prerequisite: Botany 55 or equivalent.
4 s.h. PROFESSOR ADDOMS

216. Botanical Microtechnique.—Prerequisite: two semesters of botany. 4 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ANDERSON
221. Structure and Classification of Fungi.—Prerequisite: two semesters of botany. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR WOLF
222. Physiology and Ecology of Fungi.—Prerequisite: Botany 221 or equivalent. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR WOLF

305. Plant Geography.—Prerequisite: Botany 156 or equivalent. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR OOSTING
310. Structure and Classification of Bryophytes and Pteridophytes.—4 s.h. PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST
311. Structure and Classification of Algae.—4 s.h. PROFESSOR BLOMQUIST
341. Methods in Plant Physiology.—4 s.h. PROFESSOR KRAMER
342. Plant Microchemistry.—2 s.h. PROFESSOR ADDOMS
- 359-360. Research in Botany.—Credits to be arranged. PROFESSORS ADDOMS, BLOMQUIST, HARRAR, KRAMER, OOSTING, WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND PERRY
- 397-398. General Botanical Seminar.—2 s.h. PROFESSORS ADDOMS, BLOMQUIST, HARRAR, KRAMER, OOSTING, WOLF; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND PERRY

FOREST BOTANY

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

224. Forest Pathology.—Prerequisites: Botany 1 and 2. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR WOLF
253. Dendrology.—Prerequisite: one year of botany. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR HARRAR

RELATED COURSES IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS

These related courses may be counted toward a major in botany.

Forestry 257. Design of Forestry Experiments and Analysis of Data.—
5 s.h. PROFESSOR SCHUMACHER

Zoology 341. Historical Zoology.—2 s.h. PROFESSOR HARGITT

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR SAYLOR, EXECUTIVE OFFICER—115A CHEMISTRY BUILDING; PROFESSOR VOSBURGH, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—211 CHEMISTRY BUILDING; PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, AND LONDON; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

FOR SENIORS AND GRADUATES

206. Elements of Theoretical Chemistry.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, Physics 51-52 or 1-2 and Mathematics 6 s.h. With the permission of the Director of Graduate Studies, graduate students from other departments may offer other advanced science courses in place of some of these prerequisites. 4 s.h. PROFESSOR SAYLOR AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS

215-216. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, and 261-262, or 206. 6 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOSBURGH AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HILL

233. Instrumental Analysis.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and one year of physics. 2 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH

234. Physico-Chemical Methods of Analysis.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 261-262; the latter may be taken concurrently. 2 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS; PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH

236. Theory of Analytical Chemistry.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 261-262. 1 s.h.

PROFESSOR VOSBURGH

251. Qualitative Organic Analysis.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 2 or 3 s.h.

PROFESSOR HAUSER

252. Advanced Organic Preparations.—Prerequisite: Chemistry 151-152. 1 or 2 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BROWN AND PROFESSOR BIGELOW

253-254. Advanced Organic Chemistry.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70 and 151-152. 4 s.h.

PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND HAUSER

261-262. Physical Chemistry.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 70, 151-152, Physics 51-52 or 1-2 and Mathematics 51-52 or equivalent. 6 s.h.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS AND PROFESSOR SAYLOR

265-266. Chemical Physics. Statistical Theory.—6 s.h. PROFESSOR LONDON

267-268. Chemical Physics. Quantum Theory of Atomic and Molecular Structure.—6 s.h.

PROFESSOR LONDON

271. Introduction to Research.—1 s.h. PROFESSORS BIGELOW AND VOSBURGH

273-274. Seminar.—2 s.h.

PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, SAYLOR, AND VOSBURGH;

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

275-276. Research.—3 or 6 s.h.

PROFESSORS BIGELOW, GROSS, HAUSER, LONDON, SAYLOR, AND VOSBURGH;

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS BRADSHER, BROWN, HILL, AND HOBBS

FOR GRADUATES

303. Thermodynamics.—3 s.h. PROFESSORS SAYLOR AND VOSBURGH
304. Physical Chemistry of Reactions.—Prerequisite: Chemistry 261-262.
3 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HOBBS
350. Organic Reactions.—Prerequisites: Chemistry 251 and 253. 2 s.h.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BRADSHER

 PROFESSOR RANKIN
204. Teaching of Mathematics.—Must be preceded or accompanied by integral calculus. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR RANKIN
226. Galois Theory of Equations.—Prerequisite: calculus. 3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR THOMAS
- 227-228. Theory of Numbers.—Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR CARLITZ
- 229-230. Algebraic Numbers.—Prerequisite: theory of equations. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR CARLITZ
- 235-236. Abstract Algebra.—Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR CARLITZ
250. Higher Geometry.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR THOMAS
- 255-256. Projective Geometry.—Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR THOMAS
258. Finite Differences.—Prerequisite: calculus. 3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR CARLITZ
- 271-272. Introductory Topology.—Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR ROBERTS
275. Probability.—Prerequisite: calculus. 3 s.h.
 ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSEL
- 285-286. Mathematical Analysis for Physicists.—Prerequisite: calculus.
 6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DRESSEL
- 291-292. Theory of Functions.—Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR GERGEN

FOR GRADUATES

- 301-302. Algebraic Geometry.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 255-256. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR THOMAS
- 325-326. Real Variable.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR GERGEN
- 331-332. Complex Variable.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h.

- 333-334. Analytic Theory of Numbers.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR CARLITZ
- 337-338. Existence Theorems.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR THOMAS
- 341-342. Integral Equations.—Prerequisite: differential equations and advanced calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR ELLIOTT
- 343-344. Ordinary Differential Equations.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 291-292. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR THOMAS
- 351-352. Differential Geometry.—Prerequisite: calculus. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR THOMAS
- 353-354. Trigonometric Series.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 325-326. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR GERGEN
- 371-372. Dimension Theory.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 271-272. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR ROBERTS
- 373-374. Continuous Transformations.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 271-272. 6 s.h.
 PROFESSOR ROBERTS
382. Potential Theory.—Prerequisite: Mathematics 325-326. 3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR GERGEN

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR NEGLEY, CHAIRMAN—3-1 WEST DUKE BUILDING; PROFESSOR PATTERSON, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—3-1 WEST DUKE BUILDING; PROFESSORS GILBERT AND WIDGERY; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MCLARTY; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR WELSH

 SMITH; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING

- 201-202. Mechanics.—6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH
 203-204. Electricity and Magnetism.—6 s.h. ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH
 205. Spectroscopy.—4 s.h. PROFESSOR SPONER
 207. Sound and Acoustics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NIELSEN
 213-214. Contemporary Physics.—6 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING
 217-218. Advanced Physics Laboratory.—2-6 s.h. THE STAFF
 219. Introduction to Electronics.—4 s.h.
 PROFESSOR GORDY OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH
 220. Electron Circuit Analysis.—3 s.h.
 PROFESSOR GORDY OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH
 243. Elementary Nuclear Physics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NEWSON

FOR GRADUATES

303. Thermodynamics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR SPONER
 305. Kinetic Theory of Matter.—3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING
 307. Advanced Mechanics I.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NORDHEIM
 308. Advanced Mechanics II.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NORDHEIM
 315-316. Principles of Quantum Theory.—6 s.h. PROFESSOR NORDHEIM
 318. Theory of Electricity and Magnetism.—3 s.h.
 ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING
 319. Electrodynamics.—3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING
 320. Theory of Electrons.—3 s.h. ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GREULING
 323. Theory of Atomic Spectra.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR SPONER
 324. Theory of Molecular Spectra.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR SPONER
 331. Microwave Theory and Application.—4 s.h. PROFESSOR GORDY

335. Microwave Spectroscopy.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR GORDY
 340. Structure of Matter.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR SPONER
 341. Advanced Topics in Quantum Theory.—Prerequisite: Physics 315-
 316. 3 s.h. PROFESSOR NORDHEIM
 344. Advanced Nuclear Physics.—3 s.h. PROFESSOR NEWSON
 351-352. Seminar.—2 s.h. STAFF
 353-354. Thesis Seminar.—6 s.h. STAFF

POLITICAL SCIENCE

1949-1950

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Indenture of Trust signed on December 11, 1924, by Mr. James B. Duke, which established Duke University, mentioned first among its objects the training of ministers of the Gospel. The Divinity School was, accordingly, the first of the graduate professional schools to be organized. Its work began with the year 1926-27, the formal opening exercises being held on November 9, 1926.

The Reverend Doctor Edmund Davison Soper was the first dean of the Divinity School. He was succeeded in 1928 by the Reverend Doctor Elbert Russell, and the latter in turn in 1941 by the Reverend Doctor Paul Neff Garber. In 1944, Dean Garber was elected to the episcopacy of the Methodist Church, and Doctor Harvie Branscomb assumed the duties of the dean's office. In 1946, Dean Branscomb became Chancellor of Vanderbilt University, and in 1947 the Reverend Doctor Paul E. Root was elected dean but died before he could assume the office. The Reverend Doctor Harold A. Bosley became dean in 1947 and resigned in 1950 to become the pastor of the First Methodist Church, Evanston, Illinois.

THE PURPOSE OF THE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The primary purpose of the Divinity School is to provide training for individuals planning to enter the Christian ministry. This includes not only prospective ministers in local churches, but also those preparing themselves to be missionaries at home and abroad, directors of religious education, teachers of religion, and social workers. Vital to all of these forms of service is a full understanding of the beginnings, content, and history of the Christian faith and its special pertinence for the spiritual needs of the modern world. Studies of a broad and thorough character directed toward such an understanding constitute the center of the curriculum of the Divinity School and are regarded as the basic training for all prospective Christian workers. Specific training in the skills required of local ministers and of leaders in the work of religious education are also provided. As funds become available for the purpose and as needs appear, additional training in specialized skills and areas of knowledge will be added to the curriculum.

Though bound by ties of history and obligations to the Methodist Church, the Divinity School is multi-denominational in its interests and ecumenical in its outlook. Its faculty is limited to no one denomination, but draws upon the resources of them all. Students of the several denominations are admitted on the same basis. The Divinity School conceives its task to be one of broad service to the Church of Christ in all of its forms.

THE RELATION OF THE DIVINITY SCHOOL TO DUKE UNIVERSITY

The Divinity School is an integral unit of the University and shares fully in its activities, privileges and responsibilities. The Sunday services in the University Chapel give the Divinity School students an opportunity to hear each year a number of the leading preachers of the country. The University Libraries make easily accessible a rich collection of approximately a million volumes. Selected courses in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and in the professional schools are open to Divinity School students without payment of additional fees. The general cultural and recreational resources of the University are available to them on the same basis as other students.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

The Divinity School has its own library containing over forty-nine thousand volumes. It is rich in complete files of the more important religious journals and periodicals, in source materials, particularly for the study of American church history, missions and the history of religion, and in facsimiles of the more important manuscripts of the New Testament. Among the most treasured possessions of the Library are eleven Greek New Testament manuscripts, of which one is a magnificent manuscript of the thirteenth or fourteenth century containing the entire text of the New Testament.

The general Library of the University is connected by a corridor with the Divinity School Building. It contains over eight hundred thousand volumes and receives the current issues of several thousand periodicals. The general Library contains also a catalogue of the library of the University of North Carolina located at Chapel Hill, twelve miles away, and a system of exchange operates between the two libraries so that books may be secured from that library also within a few hours.

The Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library was endowed in 1947 by the children of the late Reverend Henry Harrison Jordan for the purpose of providing ministers in the field with the best of current religious literature. This collection was an outgrowth of the Duke Divinity School Loan Library established in 1944.

PUBLIC LECTURES

The Divinity School presents several public lectures annually. The lectures for 1949-50 were: Professor William Foxwell Albright of Johns Hopkins University, "Prophecy and History in Israel"; Reverend Alan Richardson, Canon of Durham Cathedral, "The Conception of Revelation in Our Modern Theology"; Professor George Florovsky of Saint Vladimir's Theological Seminary, "The Eastern Tradition in Christianity"; Dean Walter George Muelder of Boston Theological Seminary, "The Sources of Industrial Peace."

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL LIBRARY LECTURES

In 1948 the Duke Divinity School Library Lectures were established by The Reverend George Brinkmann Ehlhardt for the purpose of bringing to the campus a succession of the greatest religious leaders of the day. In 1950 this lecture was given by the Reverend Doctor John Cecil Trever, Director of the Department of the English Bible, The International Council on Religious Education. The lecture, entitled "From Ancient Scroll to Modern Bible," was given in conjunction with the exhibition of three ancient Hebrew scrolls lent by His Eminence, Mar Athanasius Yeshue Samuel, Metropolitan and Archbishop of Jerusalem and Trans-Jordan.

THE CHRISTIAN CONVOCATION

The Christian Convocation of 1950 will be held on the Duke campus from June 6-9. The Convocation, under the joint sponsorship of the Duke Divinity School, The North Carolina Pastors' School, The North Carolina Rural Church Institute, and The North Carolina Council of Churches, will bring to the campus an outstanding group of religious leaders as lecturers and teachers.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Certain special scholarship funds have been established, the income of which is available for students wishing to secure training in preparation for the Christian ministry.

These scholarships are all awarded on the basis of service performed in a local church, thus providing for the student experience as well as financial aid.

N. Edward Edgerton Fund

In 1939 Mr. N. Edward Edgerton of Raleigh, North Carolina, an alumnus of Duke University of the Class of 1921, a member of the Board of Trustees of the University and a member of the Committee on the Divinity School, established the N. Edward Edgerton Fund. The award is limited to students who are candidates for the B.D. degree.

P. Huber Hanes Scholarship

Mr. P. Huber Hanes of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, an alumnus of Duke University of the Class of 1900 and a member of the Board of Trustees, has established an annual scholarship yielding the sum of $400.00.

Elbert Russell Scholarship

In 1942 the Alumni Association of the Divinity School established a scholarship fund in honor of Elbert Russell, Dean Emeritus of the Divinity School and for a number of years Professor of Biblical Theology.

W. R. Odell Scholarship

In 1946 the Forest Hills Methodist Church, Concord, North Carolina, established a scholarship fund in memory of W. R. Odell, for many years a member of the Board of Trustees of the University.

Hersey E. Spence Scholarship

In 1948 the Steele Street Methodist Church of Sanford, North Carolina, established a scholarship fund in honor of Professor Hersey E. Spence, a former pastor of the congregation.

Jesse M. Ormond Scholarship Fund

In 1949 the North Carolina Conference established a scholarship fund in honor of Professor Jesse M. Ormond, who for many years was Director of Field Work in the Duke Divinity School and Professor of Practical Theology.

Duke Endowment Scholarships

There are available for students preparing for the Methodist ministry approximately sixty work scholarships provided by the Duke Endowment for aiding rural Methodist churches in North Carolina. Terms of these scholarships are given on page 14 of this catalogue.

ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

In addition to the endowed scholarships and those provided by the Duke Endowment, the Divinity School receives annual scholarship funds from the following churches and individuals: The Edenton Street Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C.; West Market Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C.; Myers Park Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C.; Christ Methodist Church, Charleston, W. Va.; Mr. J. C. Cowan, Jr., Greensboro, N. C. These scholarships are awarded on the same basis as the endowed scholarships.

THE METHODIST COLLEGE ADVANCE

The Divinity School was a participant in the North Carolina Methodist College Advance with askings of $200,000.00 for scholarship aid and extension of the School's service to ministers. Many local churches and individuals have shared in the raising of this significant sum. Specific contributions are the Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library and the James A. Gray Fund.

THE JAMES A. GRAY FUND

In 1947 Mr. James A. Gray of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, presented the fund which bears his name to the Divinity School for use in expanding and maintaining its educational services in behalf of North Carolina churches and pastors. From this fund four scholarships are awarded, two in city church work, and two in rural church work. The Divinity School Seminars are also supported by income from this gift. In 1950 the James A. Gray Lectures were established and the first series was given by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ Church (Methodist) of New York, during The Christian Convocation.

COURSES OF STUDY OFFERED BY THE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The Divinity School offers at present two courses of study. The basic course is that which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. This is a three-year course and is recommended to all those preparing themselves for the work of the regular pastoral ministry.

Beginning with the year 1944-45 the Divinity School offered also a course of study leading to the degree of Master of Religious Education. This course is designed for individuals who wish to become directors or to take other specialized positions in the work of religious education.

The course does not provide a general preparation for the work of the regular ministry and cannot serve as a substitute for it. No exchange of credits between the two courses is permitted, nor can departmental courses taken be credited toward more than one degree. Only a limited number of candidates for the Master of Religious Education degree will be accepted annually.

COURSES OF STUDY IN RELIGION OFFERED BY THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Students who desire to pursue work in religion beyond that for the Bachelor of Divinity degree should register in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, through which the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy may be obtained. This advanced work is administered through the Department of Religion of the Graduate School and is available to qualified persons of all denominations on an equal basis. Study and research may be pursued in three fields: (1) Biblical Studies; (2) Studies in Church History; and (3) Studies in Christian Thought. A list of courses approved by the Graduate Council for work in these fields, together with general requirements for admission to the Graduate School, may be found in the Bulletin of the Graduate School. This Bulletin is available on application to Dean Paul Gross, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Duke University.

A limited number of University Scholarships and Fellowships, among which are two Gurney Harriss Kearns Fellowships of $1,000 each, may be obtained by exceptionally qualified students. Applications for these must be submitted to Dean Gross on University form blanks not later than March 15 of each year.

Inquiries concerning specific requirements of the Department of Religion in the Graduate School should be addressed to Professor H. Shelton Smith, Director of Graduate Studies in Religion.

FACILITIES FOR ADVANCED STUDY IN THE AMERICAN SCHOOLS OF ORIENTAL RESEARCH

The Divinity School of Duke University is one of the supporting members of the American Schools of Oriental Research. Accordingly, students in the Divinity School have the privilege of attending the American School in Jerusalem or the one in Bagdad without charge for tuition. They may also compete for the financial aids which are offered annually by the Schools. These consist of four fellowships, the stipends depending upon available funds.

COST, RESIDENTIAL ARRANGEMENT, AND STUDENT AID

FEES AND COSTS

The University tuition charge is $175 per semester. Scholarships covering this amount are granted to all Divinity School students. Other charges are as follows:

Fees per semester:

General Fee.....	$ 50.00
Approximate cost of meals per semester.....	175.00
Room per semester (double room).....	62.50
Total per semester.....	$287.50

The "General Fee" is in lieu of all special charges, and includes the following Fees: Matriculation, Medical, Library, Damage, Commencement and Diploma. Students may secure admission to all athletic contests held on the University grounds by payment of the Athletic Fee of $5.00 per semester, plus any Federal taxes that may be imposed.

LATE REGISTRATION

Students matriculating in either semester at a date later than that prescribed in the catalogue shall pay to the Treasurer of the University a penalty of $5.00.

DINING HALL

The dining halls in the University Union have accommodations for all resident Divinity School students. Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day depending upon the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple choice menus and, in addition, the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

LIVING QUARTERS

Divinity School students are housed in the University dormitories along with other graduate and professional students. Application for room assignments should be addressed to the Housing Bureau, Duke Station, Durham, N. C.

The University has no apartments for married students. Students desiring such quarters should plan to arrive in Durham as early as possible before the opening of the fall semester in order to make their living arrangements. While the Divinity School Office will assist wherever it can in these matters, it cannot assume responsibility for making such arrangements.

STUDENT AID

Duke University remits its regular tuition charges to all students enrolled in the Divinity School. Scholarship aid, over and above this, is available only in the form of work scholarships. The funds for these scholarships come from the sources described on pages 9-10 of this catalogue. Those appointed to these scholarships agree to give ten weeks' service during the summer months to a church to which they are assigned. In return they receive their board and room for the period of their summer service and $600. This latter sum is made available during the academic year preceding the summer work if desired. By special arrangement a student may be assigned to a church for five weeks' work with one-half the stated remuneration.

WORK SCHOLARSHIPS

The Department of Field Work is maintained to help students receiving scholarship aid to secure work opportunities where they may render service for such aid. Their work will be supervised so that their experiences may be part of their ministerial training. Students not on scholarship are also helped to secure work opportunities for the experience to be gained. All students working under the department have their board, room, laundry, and travel expenses provided by the charge served. Certain courses are required of all students engaged in field work and are designed to prepare students for the work in which they engage. All students assigned to field work must maintain satisfactory grades and attitudes.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Each student of the Divinity School upon enrollment becomes a member of the Student Government Association. Four officers are elected by the student body annually in April to serve for the following year. These officers, the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, along with the Dean of the Divinity School or the Dean of Students, serve as the Executive Committee, and the committee chairmen constitute the Student Council which meets in monthly session to review and coordinate the programs of the several committees. It is desired that all students contribute to the corporate life of the School through active participation in the work of the committees. The Association operates on the basis of a unified budget, each student contributing to its support dues in the amount of $3.00 per semester.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The Divinity School is a fully accredited member of the American Association of Theological Schools. Candidates for admission must hold the degree of A.B., based upon four years of work beyond secondary education, in a college which is approved by one of the regional accrediting bodies, or the equivalent of such a degree, and their college records must be such as to indicate their ability to carry on graduate professional studies. They will be admitted without examination on presentation of an official transcript of college and other academic credits which they may have secured. The application of students from foreign countries will be considered, each on its own merits, the general principle being that a training equivalent to that of a baccalaureate degree from an accredited American college must have been secured. Women will be admitted on the same basis as men. The Divinity School accepts students who desire to transfer from other accredited theological schools on the basis of transcripts of their work and honorable dismissal. However, all transfer students will be expected to meet the full requirements of the Divinity School and should recognize the fact that there may be loss of time in conforming to these requirements. Credits will be formally accepted only after the student has spent one semester in the Duke Divinity School. In addition to an adequate academic preparation, applicants must satisfy the Faculty as to their Christian character and purpose. A formal application blank may be secured from the Dean of the Divinity School. This must be filled out and returned by all candidates for admission.

ADMISSION OF GRADUATES OF NON-ACCREDITED COLLEGES

1. Applicants for admission who are graduates of non-accredited colleges will be considered on their merits, but only those who give evidence of special promise will be admitted. Specifically, such applicants must show that they have attained a superior average (approximately "B") for a four-year college course.

2. Admission of such persons will, in every case, be on probation. Probation means:

a. Students who, during the first year of Divinity School work (thirty semester hours), maintain a consistently low average, including one or more failures, will be required to withdraw from the school.

b. In the case of a student admitted on probation, no credit will be granted toward either the B.D. or the M.R.E. degree for any course in which, during the first year's work (thirty semester hours), a grade of less than "S" (see catalogue section on "grading system") is recorded.

c. When the student has been admitted on probation, and is subsequently found to be deficient in the essential requisites of any given area of the "Pre-Seminary Curriculum" (see next section of catalogue), the Divinity School Faculty reserves the right to direct that the student make up such deficiencies by additional courses of study taken in other schools of Duke University in order to qualify for either the B.D. or M.R.E. degree, but without credit for such courses toward those degrees.

PRE-SEMINARY CURRICULUM

The Divinity School, in substantial agreement with the standards of the American Association of Theological Schools, recommends that prospective candidates for admission keep in mind the desirability of including the following in their undergraduate curriculum:

(A student lacking the essential requisites in any given area may be directed to make up the deficiencies by additional courses of study in order to qualify as a candidate for a Divinity School degree.)

It is suggested that a student should acquire a total of 90 semester hours or complete approximately three-fourths of his college work in the areas listed below. No work done towards a first college degree may be used toward a Divinity School degree.

Basal Fields	Semester	Sem. Hours

CONCENTRATION

Concentration of work, or "majoring," is a common practice in colleges. For such concentration or major, a constructive sequence based upon any one, two, or three of the above fields of study would lead up naturally to a theological course.

Of the various possible areas of concentration, where areas of concentration are required, a major in English, philosophy, or history is regarded to be the most desirable.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF DIVINITY

During the academic year 1948-49, the curriculum of the Divinity School was extensively revised. By action of the Faculty, all students admitted to the Divinity School as of September 1, 1949, will conform to the requirements for the B.D. degree as printed in this issue of the catalogue. All students planning to graduate as of June, 1950, will continue under the former plan, especially as to requirement of a major and thesis. A special committee, consisting of the Dean and Professors Cannon and Petry, was set up to adjust the new curriculum to the rights and needs of all other students, whether already enrolled in the School or entering as transfers from other institutions: many such students may find it necessary to graduate under the major and thesis plan.

The plan for the first two years of the revised curriculum went into effect as of September, 1949. The Vocational Groups and the Senior Seminars called for in the work of the third year are in process of development and will be put into effect for the year 1950-51.

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity are the following:

Completion of ninety semester hours of course work, including the required courses of the Core Curriculum.

The selection, not later than the end of the middle year, of one of the Vocational Groups, and completion of the special requirements of the Group chosen, including satisfactory completion of the work of at least one Senior Seminar.

Demonstration of a detailed knowledge of the contents of the narrative portions of the English Bible. Examinations for this purpose in Old and New Testament are given each spring. Examinations for the academic year 1950-1951 will be held on successive Wednesdays in April, exact dates to be announced later.

Students who show deficiencies in English will be required to take special training in addition to meeting the other requirements for the degree. A degree may be withheld on the grounds of English deficiency only.

The course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity is planned to cover three years of normal academic work. In no case will this degree be conferred on a student until he has spent at least two semesters in residence in the Divinity School. This is defined as the completion of thirty semester hours of work, not more than six hours of which may be taken in the Duke University Summer Session.

By special permission a student who has begun his work in Duke Divinity School as a candidate for the B.D. degree may be given credit for not more than 30 semester hours of work taken in another seminary on the approved list of the American Association of Theological Schools. Except in unusual cases, request for such credits must be approved prior to the beginning of work at the other institution. In every such case, however, the final 15 hours of class credit presented for graduation must be done at Duke and must include satisfactory completion of one of the Senior Seminars. No such student will be relieved of any of the requirements for graduation specified in the catalogue of the Duke Divinity School.

Unless all the work offered for the B.D. degree is completed within a period of nine years from the date of beginning, the student will be required to make formal application for re-admission and reevaluation of his credits in the light of the then-existing curriculum of the Divinity School. Except in unusual cases, work of a fragmentary character taken over a long period of years, or work taken many years before a student is admitted to the Duke Divinity School, will not be accepted for credit toward the B.D. degree.

Third (Senior) Year

VOCATIONAL GROUPS. (One of these to be chosen by every B.D. candidate not later than the end of the Middle Year.)

I. The Preaching Ministry and Pastoral Service

In the third year, students electing Vocational Group I must take one course from each of the following fields, except in the case of those students who have previously elected these courses during the first two years:

Religious Education	Speech (for those found deficient in
Practical Theology	first course)
Pastoral Care	Philosophy of Religion

The student will also elect one Senior Seminar. The seminar will carry credit of two semester hours. Free electives in sufficient amount to complete 90 hours for graduation will be taken.

II. Applied Christianity

A. Religious Education. In the third year, students electing Vocational Group II must take the following courses, except in the case of those students who have previously elected these courses during the first two years:

Religious Education and Practical Theology (3 courses distributed between the two departments)

Psychology of Religion (1 course)

The student will also elect one Senior Seminar. The seminar will carry credit of two semester hours. Free electives in sufficient amount to complete 90 hours for graduation will be taken.

(Students planning to teach the Bible in public schools should elect some work in Bible.)

B. Missions.

C. Chaplaincy: Hospital or General.

D. Campus Religious Directors.

(These to be developed as called for.)

III. Teaching and Research in Religion

In the third year, those choosing Vocational Group III must take seven courses from the following:

American Religious Thought	History of Religions
Bible (may be language)	Psychology of Religion
Christian Ethics	Religious Education
Church History	Theology

The student will also elect one Senior Seminar. The seminar will carry credit of two semester hours. Free electives in sufficient amount to complete 90 hours for graduation will be taken.

ADMINISTERING THE NEW CURRICULUM

For the administration of the new curriculum the following regulations have been adopted:

Full-time students will take the core required courses as specified for the respective semesters, being limited to the amount of free elective work indicated in each term. The only exceptions are as specified in the provision for languages.

Since the four-day-a-week schedule of required courses and the free week-ends have been planned with special reference to the needs of students holding pastoral charges, the limitation of nine hours of class work has been changed to permit, but not require, such students to carry the total of hours of the core requirements for the first four semesters, but free electives may not be taken until all the core requirements have been fulfilled. A student who does not do creditable work will be required to reduce his schedule.

The status of "special student" may not be granted simply to permit avoidance of the schedule of core required courses. Every request for this classification will be carefully investigated and approval voted in each case by the curriculum committee in the cases of students already admitted to the Divinity School, and by the admissions committee in the case of applicants for admission as "special students."

Students working under the Duke Endowment, and others holding charges, are required to take one of the Field Work seminars. This work will be taken in the second semester of the first year. Unless taken at that spot, such seminars will be charged against the "free elective" allowance of later terms.

For a student taking both Greek and Hebrew, the Greek may be continued in the second year by postponing one or both of the 2-hour core courses in Old and New Testament. In such cases, the Hebrew will be the free elective in that year.

A part-time student who desires to begin the study of Greek in the first year may postpone the core required course in Old or New Testament.

The Registrar will make suitable entry on the permanent record of any student who is granted permission to deviate from the core requirements in the matter of language.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The course of study leading to this degree is designed to provide training primarily for individuals desiring to become educational assistants in churches or to engage in other forms of Christian education.

Candidates for this degree must hold the degree of A.B., based upon four years of work beyond secondary education, in a college which is approved by one of the regional accrediting bodies, or the equivalent of such a degree, and with academic and personal records which afford promise of competence in this area of service. The course of study will be especially useful for individuals who had one or more years of experience in religious education and desire further training. Candidates for this degree will be limited in number, and individuals interested are urged to apply for admission well in advance of the opening of the academic year. All work offered for this degree, whether in the regular year or in summer sessions, must be completed within a period of six years from the date of beginning. Only a limited amount of work may be taken in the Duke University Summer Session.

Certain prerequisite studies must have been taken by the candidate during the course of his academic training or must be secured, without credit toward the M.R.E. degree, after being admitted to the Divinity School. These are the following:

General Psychology	6 s.h.
Sociology, or approved equivalent	3 s.h.
Biblical Studies (including work in both the Old and the New Testament)	6 s.h.

Thirty semester hours of academic work are required for graduation. Eighteen of the semester hours must be in the following fields:

Religious Education	6 s.h.
Psychology of Religion	3 s.h.
Christian Ethics	3 s.h.
Biblical Studies	6 s.h.

The candidate must also engage in practice teaching in a church school or undertake some other approved project and must submit a written report covering his practical experience. This project work and report will be under the supervision of the Department of Religious Education.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION*

This is a condensed description of courses. For a full description, see the Bulletin of the Divinity School.

Odd numbers indicate fall semester courses; even numbers indicate spring semester courses. Required courses of the Core Curriculum and Senior Seminars are numbered from 11 to 99. Elective courses carrying credit in the Divinity School only are numbered from 101 to 199. Courses approved for credit in both the Divinity School and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences are numbered above 200.

V. SENIOR SEMINARS

In the third year each B.D. candidate will take one Senior Seminar, yielding 2 s.h. credit. No student may enroll in more than one Senior Seminar a semester nor receive credit for more than two such Seminars. Juniors and Middlers are not eligible for credit. Senior Seminars will not yield Graduate credit.

Enrollment in each Senior Seminar is limited to 12 to 15 students. No Senior Seminar need be conducted for an enrollment of less than 3 to 5 students. Each Senior Seminar will be in charge of a Chairman. Not less than two nor more than four instructors will participate in each Seminar. General supervision of all Senior Seminars will be exercised by a standing committee of the faculty.

The work done in each Senior Seminar should be equivalent to that done in a normal 2 s.h. course, with reading based upon a prepared reading list and a substantial paper or written project report. It is contemplated that the list of Senior Seminars will probably be changed after the first year and such changes will be approved by the faculty on recommendation of the standing committee on Senior Seminars.

B.D. students planning to graduate in 1950-1951 will, as previously voted by the faculty, have the option of graduating with a major and thesis.

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Fall Semester, 1950, begins September 21 ;

Spring Semester, 1951, begins January 29.

1949-1950

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

THE SCHOOL: ITS PURPOSES AND METHODS

Built on the foundation of the School of Law of Trinity College, with its history of legal instruction running back to the middle of the past century, the Duke University School of Law was established in 1924. In 1930 the School was moved into its present building, the Faculty and library were greatly increased, and the activities of the School broadened. The School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the "Approved List" of the American Bar Association. More than thirty-five states and one hundred institutions of higher learning are represented in its student body.

The curriculum of the School of Law provides thorough preparation for the practice of law in any state; its graduates have been admitted to the bar in forty states and the Territory of Hawaii. Opportunities for specialization in particular branches of the law are afforded.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS—REGISTRATION—FEES

DIRECTIONS TO APPLICANTS FOR ADMISSION

Application must be made on the prescribed Law School application blank which will be sent upon request. No application can be finally passed upon until all required documents are on file. These documents are: (1) the application itself, to which a recently made personal photograph should be attached; (2) a complete transcript of record and evidence of graduation or right to honorable withdrawal from the institution from which credit is offered; (3) letters from (a) a responsible official of the college attended, (b) a responsible person in the applicant's home community, and (c) the applicant himself, in his own handwriting, containing a statement of his general activities, and intellectual interests with special reference to reasons for wishing to attend law school; (4) a report of the applicant's score on the Law School Admission Test.

TIMES OF ADMISSION

Beginning students may enter only at the opening of the Fall semester in any year. Students who have completed the first year of law study at this or any other law school approved by the Association of American Law Schools may enter at the beginning of any semester.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

An application for admission as a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws may be submitted by any person (1) who is a graduate of a college of approved standing and who has maintained a minimum average of "C" on all work taken, or (2) who has completed in a college of approved standing work equivalent in number of units to three-fourths of that required for graduation and whose college work in its entirety shows an average grade equal to that required for graduation, the requirement in each case being determined by the regulations of the college where the work was taken.

Special provisions for the admission of veterans, whereby military service may be substituted for one year of the three years of college required for admission, are stated below.

VETERANS' ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Any person who served in active military or naval service on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of the war, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable and who either has served ninety days or more (exclusive of any period he was assigned for a course of education or training under the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program), or has been discharged or released from active service by reason of an actual service-incurred injury or disability, may substitute such term of service for one year of the three years of college required for admission. Academic credits will be recognized if gained through examinations on work of college grade pursued while in the military or naval service, if such work is given credit by an approved college; such credits, however, may not exceed one year of the required two years of college study.

The Duke University School of Law has been approved by the Veterans Administration for law study under the provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, Public Law 16, and the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, Public Law 346, often referred to as the "G.I. Bill of Rights." An office is maintained at the University for the handling of the interests of the many students studying under the supervision of the Veterans Administration.

COMBINED COURSE

A number of colleges, upon application by their students, have permitted those who have completed three years of undergraduate work to enter the Law School of Duke University and upon the satisfactory completion of the first year of law school work to receive their Bachelor of Arts degree from such colleges. It is suggested that students desiring to enter Duke University School of Law make inquiry of their proper college authorities regarding this point.

A student from an undergraduate college of Duke University who has completed three years of study may apply to that college to enroll in a combined course wherein his first year of law study may be accepted toward the Bachelor of Arts degree, and, upon the completion of four additional semesters of law study, he will receive the Bachelor of Laws degree.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Any person who has complied with the requirements for admission set forth in this announcement prior to the commencement of his law study, who presents evidence of the satisfactory completion of at least one year of study at any law school which is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and who is eligible for readmission to the law school from which he proposes to transfer, may be admitted to advanced standing, subject to such rules as would be applicable to students in this School having a comparable scholastic record. Provisional credit for courses so completed will be given, final credit being conditioned on the completion of at least one full year of law study in this School with an average at least five points above the passing grade. Adjustment of credit for work done in such other law schools may be made by the Dean or by vote of the Faculty.

CANDIDATES FOR GRADUATE DEGREES

Applications for admission to graduate study should be addressed to the Dean of the Law School and should include transcripts of records of legal and pre-legal work.

REGISTRATION

Registration must be completed on the first day of each semester. Instruction will begin in all classes on the following day. The applicant must obtain from the Dean of the Law School an admission card, indicating that he is entitled to register. Registration is conducted in the Law Building. All students, both old and new, are required to register at the beginning of each semester, at which time class schedules and course cards must be filled out and approved. Students who register in any semester at a date later than that prescribed are required to pay to the Treasurer of the University a penalty of $5.00 for late registration unless excused therefrom. A student's registration for any semester is not complete until he has paid the tuition and fees for that semester. The $5.00 penalty for late registration will be imposed, therefore, unless the student has paid his tuition and fees by registration day.

REGISTRATION FOR BAR EXAMINATION

Many states now require that a student, prior to or shortly after beginning the study of law, register with the board of bar examiners of the state if he intends to practice therein. Each student should write to the secretary of the board of bar examiners of the state in which he plans to practice and ascertain if that state makes this requirement.

CONDUCT OF STUDENTS

All students are admitted subject to the rules of the University and of the School of Law, and continuance in the School is conditioned upon the observance of such rules.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Tuition fees are due at the beginning of each semester. The tuition fee is $175.00 a semester. In addition, a general fee of $50.00 per semester is required in lieu of separate fees for matriculation, medical service, and the like.

The admission of an applicant is not final until he deposits the sum of $25.00 with the Treasurer of the University. This deposit will not be returned. It will be credited to the account of the student or, if the student is entitled to the benefits of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act or the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, it will be refunded upon his matriculation.

An athletic fee of $5.00, plus any Federal taxes that might be imposed, payable at the beginning of each Fall and Spring semester, is optional. Payment of the athletic fee entitles the student to admission to all athletic events on the campus.

The payment of the general fee entitles the student to full medical and surgical care, with the exceptions noted below. This service is under the direction of the University Physician with the co-operation of the staff of Duke Hospital. It includes hospitalization, medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, X-ray studies, and ward nursing. A charge for board is made at the same rate as in the University dining halls. Refraction of eyes, treatment of teeth and of all chronic conditions, such as the removal of diseased tonsils, are not included in this service. The cost of any necessary braces and orthopedic appliances, as well as of special nursing, must be borne by the student.

DINING SERVICE

Food service is cafeteria style. The cost of meals approximates $1.25 to $1.75 per day, depending on the need and taste of the individual. The dining facilities on the West Campus include three cafeterias with multiple-choice menus and the Oak Room where full meals and a la carte items are served.

THE GRADUATE DORMITORY AND THE "LAW CABINS"

Furnished double rooms may be secured in the graduate dormitory on the West Campus at $62.50 per person per semester. A few single rooms are available at $87.50 per semester.

A group of log cabins, a part of the dormitory system, especially designed as a study center for law students, is located in the Duke Forest about five minutes' walk from the Law Building. These cabins, five in number, including a large cabin for use as a social hall, house thirty-two students. All rooms in the law cabins are furnished double rooms and may be secured at $50.00 per person per semester.

These charges in each case include heat, light, water, and janitorial service but do not include pillows or bed clothing of any kind.

Rooms are reserved only for applicants who have been officially accepted by the University, upon application to the Director in the Business Division, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina. A reservation fee of $25.00 must accompany the application for a room. The fee is deducted from the room rental charge at the time of registration for the semester; it is not refunded unless application for the refund is made sixty days prior to the registration date of the semester.

Each student is expected to supply necessary sheets, blankets, pillows, rugs, and curtains. Furniture, beds and mattresses (39" x 74"), tables, chairs, dressers, mirrors, and window shades are furnished by the University.

Law students are advised to make early application, since assignment of rooms is made considerably in advance of the beginning of each semester. The applicant should state that he has been accepted for admission to the School of Law. All dormitory or cabin rooms are to be occupied under the rules and regulations established by the University. Law students are not required to live in the University dormitories.

BACHELOR OF LAWS DEGREE

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE BACHELOR OF LAWS DEGREE

Upon favorable recommendation of the Faculty, the degree of Bachelor of Laws will be conferred on students who shall have successfully completed six semesters' study of law, the last two semesters of work immediately preceding the granting of such degree having been completed in this School.

A student shall be deemed to have completed successfully six semesters' study of law if during this period he has

(1) secured a passing grade in courses aggregating the number of semester hours in the first-year program, plus forty-eight semester hours, including all courses required for graduation;

(2) secured in every required course a grade not requiring repetition thereof; and

(3) secured an average grade at least five points above passing in all work taken other than first-year courses, or, if the grade in such work is lower than that above specified, an average grade of five points above passing in all work taken.

Students who have spent only their last two semesters of study in residence in this School must have received an average grade at least five points above passing for that year.

MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM STUDENT LOADS

No regular student is permitted to take less than ten course hours per semester. No first-year student is permitted to take courses in excess of the first-year program.

Second- and third-year students are not permitted to take for credit more than fifteen course hours per semester; nor to audit and take for credit more than sixteen course hours per semester. In exceptional cases, students may petition the Faculty for permission to take more or less than the prescribed maximum or minimum loads.

GRADUATE WORK IN LAW

OBJECTIVES OF THE GRADUATE STUDY PROGRAM

The graduate program of the School of Law is framed with a view to the encouragement and recognition of legal scholarship. It is addressed to the needs of those who have objectives consistent with the purposes of graduate legal education. It provides training for the qualified student who aspires to a teaching career, or who wishes to become proficient in a special field of the law, to do serious legal research, to prepare himself for a public law practice in or out of government, or to acquire a broader and deeper legal education than the undergraduate curriculum offers.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF LAWS

Any person who has received the first degree in law from a law school qualified for membership in the Association of American Law Schools may be admitted as a candidate for the degree of Master of Laws, provided he satisfies the Committee on Graduate Study that his objective in desiring to do graduate work in law is consistent with the purposes for which the program is offered, and provided he demonstrates to the Committee, on the basis of his law school record, his capacity to take and profit by graduate work in law. In exceptional cases an applicant who does not meet the above requirements may, on vote of the Faculty, be admitted to candidacy for this degree if he is able to demonstrate that he is specially qualified, as by reason of practice or teaching. Normally the applicant will be required to show a level of scholarship appreciably higher than that required for the first degree in law at the institution from which he received that degree. An exceptionally high record in law school and in the graduate study program is expected of those who aspire to a teaching career. It should be emphasized that the graduate study program is designed for graduates with a definite objective, not for those who seek to pursue further law study simply from disorientation.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF LAWS

The degree of Master of Laws is reserved for students who, having demonstrated their capacity for graduate work in law, maintain a level of scholarship substantially higher than that required for the degree of Bachelor of Laws in a course of study which involves distinctively graduate work.

The candidate for this degree is required to complete a course of study comprising not less than twenty nor more than twenty-six semester hours, or approved research equivalent thereto. Two full semesters are required for the completion of this program. A candidate for this degree is required to include in his course of study at least two of the following courses: International Law, Jurisprudence, and Legal History. In addition to the minimum requirement of twenty semester hours, the candidate is required to submit an essay representing substantial research on a legal subject. This essay is to be prepared under the supervision of the instructor in charge of the field in which the research is done. The candidate will find it helpful to have formulated a project of research, or alternative projects, before his admission to graduate study.

The candidate's course of study will be selected, ordinarily, from the following list of courses: Public Regulation of Business Seminar, Jurisprudence, Conflict of Laws, International Law, Legal History, Banking, Corporate Planning, Debtors' Estates, Insurance, Corporate Reorganization, Credit and Insolvency, Family Law, Family Law Seminar, Future Interests, Tax and Estate Planning, Labor Relations, Labor Standards, Labor Law Seminar, Federal Taxation I, Federal Taxation II, and State Taxation. This program of study is not inflexible. In appropriate cases the candidate will be encouraged to take related work in other departments of the University. Other courses of comparable content may be substituted for those listed. In special circumstances, credit not in excess of two hours per semester may be arranged for special, supervised research projects.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF JURIDICAL SCIENCE

Any person holding the degree of Master of Laws from this or any other law school which is qualified for membership in the Association of American Law Schools may, on vote of the Faculty, be admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science, provided he completed the work for the Master's degree with distinction.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF JURIDICAL SCIENCE

Upon favorable recommendation of the Faculty, the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science will be conferred on students admitted to candidacy for that degree who complete and submit a monograph or series of essays suitable for publication and deemed by the Faculty to be of distinguished character. At least one academic year, and, in the absence of an extension granted by the Faculty, not more than three years, must elapse between the award of the Master's degree and the award of the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science. Students who have received the degree of Master of Laws from another law school must spend at least two full semesters engaged in research at this School, and in addition may be required to complete a course of study prescribed by the Committee on Graduate Study. The monograph or series of essays required may be based upon, or be an extension of, the essay required for the Master's degree, provided substantial additional research is represented.

POST-GRADUATE AND REFRESHER COURSES

The School of Law provides instruction for students not meeting the requirements for admission to candidacy for graduate degrees who desire refresher courses or who desire simply to complete a fourth year of law school work. The successful completion of the courses taken by such students may be evidenced by certificate of the Dean.

FACILITIES AND ACTIVITIES

THE LAW SCHOOL BUILDING

The Law Building, like all other structures on the main campus of Duke University, is in Tudor Gothic style of colorful Cambrian stone from the Duke University quarries. It was occupied by the School of Law for the first time in September, 1930.

THE LEGAL AID CLINIC

A Legal Aid Clinic was organized at the School of Law in 1931 under the direction of Professor John S. Bradway. The purpose of the Clinic is threefold: to give the student experience in handling actual cases; to develop creative skills, techniques, and mental habits; to encourage a sense of responsibility to client, court, profession, and community. The student is obliged to synthesize his knowledge in applying it to concrete situations which may often cut across course boundaries. He is introduced to the technique of fact gathering, the steps in a legal plan of campaign, the handling of clients, the management of a law office. A series of exercises is conducted in legal research and briefing, leading in the first semester to the writing by each student of a trial brief and in the second semester an appellate brief for a lawyer in active practice. Classroom work involves laboratory exercises in preparation for the handling of actual cases. The law practice in the Clinic is of a sort calculated to stress the ethical responsibilities of the lawyer and the social implications of his work. Instruction in the handling of the actual cases is individualized. Training in the art of interprofessional co-operation is provided through contacts between the Clinic and various agencies of social welfare in North Carolina.

The Legal Aid Clinic is in effect an active law office offering the student, under supervision, experience in interviewing actual clients, investigation of facts, preparing cases for adjustment or for trial in court, writing legal documents, briefing, and other tasks familiar to the practicing attorney. Approximately four hundred persons a year apply for the services of the Clinic. Only those applicants who are unable to pay counsel fees, and only those cases where there is no opportunity for a contingent fee are accepted.

The activities of the Clinic are centered in a suite of offices in the Law School building, and in an interviewing office in the business center of Durham. In addition to the Director, a staff of five members of the North Carolina State Bar assists in the educational and supervisory activities of the Clinic and in representing its clients in court proceedings.

LAW AND CONTEMPORARY PROBLEMS

The School of Law publishes a quarterly, Law and Contemporary Problems, under the editorship of Professors Robert Kramer, John deJ. Pemberton, Jr., and Bueford G. Herbert. This periodical, now in its fifteenth volume, presents in each issue a symposium on a problem of current importance, in which the interrelated social and economic, as well as legal, factors are discussed by writers of competence in these respective fields.

JOURNAL OF LEGAL EDUCATION

The Journal of Legal Education, a quarterly, is also edited at the School of Law under the direction of Professors Robert Kramer and John deJ. Pemberton, Jr. The publication serves as the organ for the Association of American Law Schools, providing a clearing house for ideas and professional studies in the constantly expanding field of legal education.

THE DUKE BAR ASSOCIATION

The Duke Bar Association was established in the spring of 1931. It is open to all the students of the Law School and is organized along the lines of the American Bar Association. Its purpose is to introduce the student to the problems considered by the bar in professional organizations and to develop professional consciousness and responsibility. A Faculty Committee on Student Affairs serves as general adviser to the student officers.

MOOT COURTS

A program of student Moot Court arguments is conducted under the supervision of the Faculty as a part of the courses in Research and Writing in which all students are required to participate.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOAN FUNDS

Scholarships covering tuition ($350) are available to a limited number of first-year students, graduates of approved American universities and colleges, who are in need of such assistance. Applicants must have made excellent records in their college work and must show unusual promise of success in the study of law.

Applications for scholarships should be presented to the Dean of the Law School, together with a transcript of college work and letters of recommendation from responsible persons, certifying to the character and fitness of the applicant.

Other scholarships are awarded, as funds may permit, to high ranking students who have spent a year or more at the Law School. There are also a number of positions as assistants in the Law Library and as research assistants which are open to students, particularly in their second or third year, who do not receive other aids from the University.

The University administers certain endowed loan funds for the benefit of students who are not able to meet their expenses, for the purpose of helping worthy students who have established a satisfactory record at the School to continue their education.

Two funds have been provided out of which small loans may be made to tide students over temporary financial emergencies arising during the course of the year. One of these was supplied by the Law School Guild and is limited as to amount and duration of loan. The other is due to the generosity of Mr. P. Frank Hanes of the Winston-Salem bar and is limited to the needs of selected students. These funds are administered by a committee of the Faculty.

GRADUATE LAW FELLOWSHIPS

Two graduate fellowships carrying a grant of $1,500 each are awarded each year. To be eligible for these fellowships, applicants must have completed with distinction the work required for the first degree in law at this Law School or some other school approved by the Association of American Law Schools, and must have been admitted to candidacy for the LL.M. or J.S.D. degree. Preference will be given to students who plan to make law teaching a career. All applications should be addressed to the Dean of the School of Law, Duke University. Fellowships will be awarded by the law faculty on recommendation of the Committee on Graduate Study.

WILLIS SMITH PRIZE

Mr. Willis Smith, a member of the Raleigh bar and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Duke University, awards annually to that member of the graduating class of the Law School who has maintained the highest scholastic average during the entire three years of law school work, a prize consisting of a set of books selected personally by Mr. Smith each year for that purpose. To qualify for this prize the student must have made an outstanding record through his law school course.

JAMES F. BYRNES SENATE PRIZE

Delta Theta Phi Foundation, Inc., through the James F. Byrnes Senate, awards each year to that member of the first-year class of the Law School who has completed the work of the first year with the highest scholastic average during that year a cash prize of fifty dollars.

ORDER OF THE COIF

A chapter of the Order of the Coif, national legal scholarship society, has been established at Duke University School of Law. Its purpose is "to foster a spirit of careful study and to mark in a fitting manner those who have attained a high grade of scholarship." Election is restricted to the ten per cent of the graduating class who have attained the highest rank in their law school work.

LEGAL FRATERNITIES

Three of the largest national legal fraternities maintain active chapters at the School of Law. The Charles Evans Hughes Inn of Phi Delta Phi International Legal Fraternity was founded at the School of Law in 1931. The Wiley Rutledge Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was founded at the School in 1946. In 1947 the James F. Byrnes Senate of Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity was installed at the School. All three fraternities seek to further professional standards. Students may be elected to membership at any time following their first full semester of law study. During the school year the fraternities sponsor separate programs of luncheons featuring prominent local speakers from the profession, an annual address by an attorney of national prominence, and occasional social functions.

RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

The University is located about two miles from the business district of Durham on wooded hills constituting part of the five-thousand-acre Duke Forest, which is maintained by the School of Forestry. Within a short distance from the campus are facilities for golf, horseback riding, and woodland hiking. Students of the Law School are entitled to the use of the University gymnasium, tennis courts, swimming pool, and similar privileges without cost. Motion pictures are shown in Page Auditorium twice a week, and concert programs, recitals, lectures, and plays are presented frequently.

PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION

The program of instruction of the School of Law has been thoroughly revised as a result of studies made by the Faculty. The curriculum had become overcrowded. For years new courses have been added at this and other schools as new fields of law have become important; old courses have been retained. Students who wished to specialize in particular fields often found it necessary to omit some of the older, more fundamental courses. Insufficient attention had been given to legal writing, the drafting of legal instruments, and legal planning.

The newly adopted curriculum is designed to insure that students may prepare to specialize in practice without foregoing any part of the basic legal education required for general practice and desirable for all specialists. Courses have been combined; duplications in courses have been eliminated. The larger part of students' third year has been opened for studies of specialties. New courses and seminars have been added, especially in the third year in which teaching methods will be different from those used in the older courses. In these courses and seminars legal writing and drafting and legal planning will be emphasized.

The courses offered are listed below. They are grouped under three headings: First-Year Program; Recommended Second-Year Program, and Third-Year Courses. At page 26 the individual courses are described; in that section of the Bulletin they are grouped under the following headings: 1. General Courses; 2. Business Courses; 3. Property Courses; 4. Public Law Courses; 5. Procedure and Practice Courses.

The First-Year Program is prescribed. It includes basic courses in the fields of contracts, business associations, property (including sales and other chattel transactions), and torts. These courses serve also to acquaint the student with the nature of the judicial process (which is stressed in Chattel Transactions), the court system and court procedure (stressed in Torts), and legal history (stressed in the second property course and in other courses). In the field of public law, legislation and the legislative process are studied in the first semester; there follows in the second semester a course in the fundamentals of criminal law and its administration. A course in research and writing (which is continued throughout the second year), after consideration of how the law is found in law books, trains students in writing memoranda of law and legal arguments and in drafting legal documents; the course emphasizes, for each student, the law of the state in which he intends to practice, and introduces students to the art of legal planning. It includes the preparation of briefs and the arguing of moot court cases.

The Recommended Second-Year Program comprises nearly all the other basic courses which all students need regardless of what kind of law practice they plan to enter and the courses prerequisite to third-year work in special fields and in legal planning. Third-year courses may be substituted for courses in this program with the consent of the instructor and Dean. The research and writing course continues throughout the year. The basic work in property and business associations is completed. In the field of business transactions, the students study negotiable instruments and credit. A course in federal taxation, basic to advanced third-year work for specialists, adequately covers the subject for students not planning to specialize in it. Legal and equitable remedies, and court procedure in civil cases, are studied in the course in remedies. Students continue their study of public law in courses in constitutional and administrative law.

The Third-Year Courses (of which an aggregate of 10 to 15 hours each semester is to be selected by each student) are designed to emphasize legal planning and drafting and to enable students to equip themselves to specialize in particular fields. The faculty recommends that all students complete their basic legal education by taking courses in evidence and legal ethics. There are also fundamental courses in legal history and jurisprudence and in conflict of laws and international law. The rest of the third-year courses are in specialties; they are grouped below under the headings (1) business (including inter alia advanced corporation law), (2) estates, family, and property, (3) procedure, practice, and local law, and (4) public law (including inter alia labor law and taxation). A number of these specialty courses (those preceded by asterisks in the list below) emphasize legal planning and drafting. Each student is required to include two of these courses in his third-year program; enrollment in each is limited.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

GENERAL STATEMENT

Duke University School of Medicine and Duke Hospital were established in 1930, through the munificent gift of the late James B. Duke. The School of Medicine has been planned to insure the greatest correlation between the various departments. These facilities are available also for students who are studying for degrees other than that of Doctor of Medicine. The School of Medicine has been approved as Class A by the American Medical Association and is also a member of the Association of the American Medical Colleges. On October 3, 1949, two hundred and eighty-three students were enrolled.

FACILITIES OF THE HOSPITAL

Duke Hospital, an integral part of Duke University School of Medicine, has every modern convenience for the diagnosis, proper care, welfare and comfort of the patients, both private and charity, white and colored, whether they come from Durham or from a distance. It has 579 beds, including 30 bassinets for newborn infants, and 20 premature nursery bassinets. Medicine, including dermatology and neurology, has 77 ward beds; surgery, including urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, and orthopaedics, 135 ward beds; obstetrics, including gynecology, 59, and 50 bassinets; neuropsychiatry, 9; and pediatrics, 40. There are 209 private rooms and semiprivate cubicles, 7 air-conditioned operating rooms, 4 obstetric delivery rooms, and ward and student laboratories. Offices and examining rooms for members of the Medical Faculty are located in the Hospital. The Hospital has been approved for internships and residencies by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association, and the American College of Surgeons.

Duke Hospital and its Out-Patient Clinic were opened for patients on July 21, 1930. Through December 31, 1949, 377,865 individuals have been examined, diagnosed, and treated. The average daily census of hospital patients during the past year was 454; 104,408 visits were made to the Out-Patient Clinic during the same period. Twenty-one per cent of the patients come from within a radius of twenty miles, the remaining 79 per cent come from the other 99 counties in North Carolina and from 36 other states and 3 foreign countries. The average distance traveled by the patients is more than seventy miles.

The Private Diagnostic Clinic was organized to co-ordinate the diagnostic studies, and to give better care to the complicated problems arising in the examinations of private patients. The Clinical Staff of Duke Hospital and School of Medicine forms the professional staff of this clinic, while the financial side is handled by a business manager. The offices and examining rooms are in Duke Hospital, and all the laboratory and diagnostic facilities of the Hospital and School of Medicine are utilized by the Clinic.

LIBRARY

In addition to the General Library of Duke University and the departmental libraries of biology, chemistry, physics, etc., which have 960,859 volumes available for medical students, Duke Hospital Library contains 49,000 volumes of American and foreign medical literature and subscribes to 570 current American and foreign medical and other scientific journals. These books and journals are available daily from 8:30 A.M. to 10:30 P.M. for the students, nurses, staff, and medical profession.

CURRICULUM OF THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The curriculum, shown below, consists of two semesters in the first year and three quarters each in the second, junior and senior years. There is no summer quarter between the first and second year, but in the two clinical years the subjects of the autumn, winter and spring terms are repeated in the summer quarter. This accelerated schedule is optional,* and students may take the two semesters of their first year, and three quarters in each of their subsequent years, and receive their certificates in four calendar years, or, if they receive permission from the Curriculum Committee, they may at the end of their second year take the clinical quarters given during the summers and receive their certificates in three and one quarter calendar years.

Every effort is made to emphasize the close relationship of preclinical and clinical instruction. Members of the clinical staff assist in the teaching of preclinical subjects and demonstrate to the students of the first two years patients whose conditions illustrate the subjects being taught. Thus, from the student's first days, he is impressed with the interdependence of all branches of the medical science. In the junior and senior years, preclinical instructors assist the clinical staff in presenting the underlying basis of disease.

The free time in this curriculum may be spent in elective work or anything else the student wishes to do. No credits are given, but opportunity is provided for each student on his own initiative to obtain additional training which he may feel to be necessary or desirable. Elective courses have been organized for small groups, or the time may be utilized in independent work (including research) in any department, clinical or preclinical. Arrangements for taking such courses or doing other work are to be made through the Curriculum Committee.

It is hoped that many students will migrate to other medical schools for one or more quarters. Those who wish to do so, or to substitute a schedule different from that listed below, must have their programs approved in advance by the Curriculum Committee, and afterwards must present evidence that they have completed work comparable to that of the curriculum during the quarters in which they were away or were following an altered schedule.

* See footnote on the next page.

OPTIONAL ACCELERATED SCHEDULE*

(The hours for these courses will be posted on the bulletin board.)

FIRST YEAR

FIRST SEMESTER:	HOURS
October 3, 1949, to February 8, 1950.
Anatomy (including histology and neuroanatomy)	638
SECOND SEMESTER:
February 15 to June 10, 1950.
Physiology	341
Biochemistry	279
Psychobiology	12

SUMMARY

Total number of hours in curriculum	5,148
---	-------

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN MEDICINE

After the completion of six quarters in the Duke University School of Medicine, Duke University, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, grants the degree of Bachelor of Science in Medicine to medical students who have completed creditable investigative work, prepared an acceptable report of the investigation, and passed an examination upon the subject of the investigation before an advisory committee. Students who elect to undertake work toward this degree must obtain written permission from the Executive Committee after approval of their program by the head of the department in which the work is to be done. No credit toward this degree is given for additional college work. All students in good standing are encouraged to undertake such investigative work as they may elect with the approval of the head of the department in which they wish to work. All requirements must be completed three months prior to the date on which the B.S. degree is requested.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

The degree of Doctor of Medicine is conferred on those who have completed, to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee, the twelve quarters of 11-12 weeks each of the curriculum of the School of Medicine, the preclinical and clinical examinations, and have signed an agreement that they will spend at least two years of the succeeding three years in hospital or laboratory work acceptable to the Executive Committee. As a guarantee of this pledge the diploma is deposited in the Treasurer's Office until after the completion of this training. Failure to fulfill this agreement constitutes a waiver of any claim to possession of the diploma and the degree of Doctor of Medicine.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application forms may be obtained by writing to the Committee on Admission, Duke University School of Medicine, Durham, N. C. A check or post office money order for $5, payable to Duke University School of Medicine, must accompany each request for an application. This is not refundable. If further information is required after the Committee has studied the completed application, a personal interview with the Committee on Admission or a Regional Representative is arranged for the applicant. The candidate then is notified as soon as possible whether he has been accepted or declined; if accepted, he must send a deposit of $50 within two weeks to insure enrollment. This money is applied toward the tuition. The next first-year class will be admitted October 2, 1950. Applications should be submitted by December 1st, of the preceding year. Due to the large number of applicants to all medical schools, candidates are advised to apply to at least four schools. The number of students in each class is limited to 76, but only those students will be accepted who give promise of being a credit to the School and the medical profession. Women are received on the same terms as men. In the event of vacancies, students from other medical schools may be considered for admission to any quarter for which their previous training has fitted them. Each application for advanced standing will be considered upon its own merits.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The minimum requirements for admission to this School include approved college credits of not less than ninety semester hours, which shall include adequate preparation in English, mathematics, physics, biology, and chemistry. This preparation should be obtained in college courses of one-year duration, except in English and chemistry. In those subjects, two years are recommended. The second year in English should be chiefly composition and theme writing. The first year of chemistry should be general (inorganic), and the second, analytic and organic chemistry.

The premedical students should be aware of the importance of a well-rounded general education as a preparation for the study of medicine and not limit himself to scientific courses. He would be better advised to secure a knowledge of the principles and a thorough appreciation of the interrelations of the basic sciences than to accumulate credits in many courses. He should learn how to work independently, to observe critically, and to analyze, rather than simply store, the information presented. His choice of studies, beyond those required for admission, should be governed by his own chief interests and by the intellectual stimulus to be derived from the work. His major interest may be in any field, scientific or otherwise, and should provide an opportunity for the demonstration of his real ability. In general, he should avoid courses in subjects which are included in the medical curriculum.

The selection of students is based upon the quality rather than the quantity of preparation and upon demonstrated evidence of personal attributes of intelligence, character, and general fitness for the study and practice of medicine. In considering an applicant many sources of information may be consulted including (1) his curricular and extracurricular college record, (2) carefully prepared, confidential appraisals by teachers who know him personally, (3) his percentile rating on the Medical College Admission Test,* and (4) the results of an interview with members of the Admission Committee or one of its Regional Representatives.

* This test is given at many of the colleges during the spring and autumn terms. If information is not available locally, it may be obtained from the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J.

FEES AND EXPENSES

All fees for each quarter are due and payable at the beginning of each quarter, and no student will be admitted to classes until these fees have been paid at the University Treasurer's Office. A fine of $5.00 is charged for late registration. No credit will be given for any quarter in which the tuition of $250 has not been paid at the Treasurer's Office, whether the work has been done here or elsewhere, except that students who have been permitted by the Curriculum Committee to spend a quarter at another medical school or hospital may subtract the amount of tuition paid at this other medical school or hospital from the $250 due here for that quarter.

It is not advisable for a student to attempt outside work to defray his expenses; the results usually are disastrous to his health and academic standing.

Fees and Expenses

Tuition, per quarter	$250
General Fee, per quarter, including Health, Commencement, and Diploma Fees	7.50
Athletic Fee, admitting student to all athletic contests held on the University campus, during the quarter (optional)	5.00
	plus Federal tax
Room-rent, per quarter* (estimated)	58.50
Board, per quarter (estimated)	120 to	130
Laundry, per quarter (estimated)	10 to	20
Books, per quarter (estimated)	25 to	50
National Board of Medical Examiners, Fees† $20 (Part I), $15

(Part II)

Microscope, ophthalmoscope, otoscope, and other equipment, which are required of each student and which must conform to rigid standards, may be obtained on a rental basis from the Univer- sity, per quarter	40 to	60
Estimated total expenses, per month	150 to	250

ANGIER B. DUKE MEMORIAL AND OTHER LOAN FUNDS

The Angier B. Duke Memorial, Incorporated, administers through an advisory committee of the officers of the University a loan fund for students. In addition, the loan fund of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation is available for students who are not financially able to meet their expenses. Medical students, after their third quarter, may apply for loans from these sources. No scholarships are awarded in the School of Medicine. The loan funds are administered in accordance with the following regulations:

1. No loan will be made to a student who violates any of the regulations of the University or who is not doing outstanding classwork.

* Rooms may be reserved by medical students in Few Quadrangle. These rooms are provided with furniture, heat, electric light, and care of rooms; each student furnishes his own blankets, sheets, pillow-slips, towels, and pillows. Applications for rooms, accompanied by a reservation fee of $25, should be made by writing to Mr. W. E. Whitford, Duke University, Durham, N. C.

† Payable at the beginning of the quarter in which a student is eligible for the examination.

2. Loans will be made only to students who are taking full courses of study that lead to a degree, and all loans must be arranged not later than one week after the beginning of a quarter.

MEDICAL CARE

With the exceptions noted below, full medical and surgical care is furnished to all regularly matriculated medical students of the University who have paid the quarterly General Fee. This service is under the direction of the Physician in Charge with the co-operation of the Staff of Duke Hospital. It includes hospitalization (limited to thirty days), medical and surgical care, drugs, dressings, x-ray studies, and ward but not special nursing. A charge for board is made at the same rate as in the University dining halls. Refraction of eyes and treatment of teeth and of all chronic and pre-existing conditions, such as diseased tonsils, hernia, elective surgery, chronic skin conditions, endocrine disturbances, etc., or accidents or illnesses occurring during vacations or while off the campus, are not included in this service. The cost of any necessary braces and orthopaedic appliances, as well as of special nursing, must be borne by the patient.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The members of the student body elect an Honor Council, in which each class is represented. It is the duty of the Honor Council to hear all cases involving breaches of conduct on the part of members of the student body. All new students entering the School are required to comply with this system of government.

MEDICAL MILITARY SCIENCE AND TACTICS

The course consists of instruction in military medicine and military science and tactics. The student receives compensation during the last two years and while at a required summer encampment. Those completing the program will be offered reserve commissions in the Army Medical Corps or the Air Force Medical Corps and will be given priority in the selection of interns for military hospitals. Details of the program, eligibility, compensation, etc., may be obtained by addressing the PMS&T, Duke University School of Medicine.

FREDERIC M. HANES FELLOWSHIPS

Starting July 1, 1947, any Duke medical student after his first year is eligible for a leave of absence and a Fellowship of $125 per month for full-time research work at Duke with special emphasis in a pre-clinical subject. These Fellowships will be granted on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, for a period of six months, but may be renewed. Information may be obtained from Dr. D. T. Smith.

AWARDS TO MEDICAL STUDENTS AND INTERNS

(Additional information may be obtained from the Dean's Office.)

BORDEN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD IN MEDICINE

An award of $500 may be given to the Duke Senior who, in the opinion of the Executive Committee, has performed the best research work during his or her entire medical course, including that done during the pre-clinical years, and theses for the B.S. degree in Medicine. Applicants should submit their papers, articles or reprints to the Dean at least three months prior to expected date of graduation.

BAGBY AWARD IN PEDIATRICS

The best Duke Pediatric Intern is eligible for a subscription to the American Journal of the Diseases of Children.

MOSBY AWARDS

One-year subscriptions to the Journal of Pediatrics, American Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology, the American Heart Journal, Surgery, American Journal of Syphilis, Gonorrhoea, and Venereal Diseases, Journal of Allergy, Journal of Thoracic Surgery, and Journal of Laboratory and Clinical Medicine may be awarded to the best seniors in pediatrics, obstetrics, medicine, surgery, urology, allergy, thoracic surgery and clinical microscopy, respectively.

DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION

Anatomy

The required courses of instruction in gross human anatomy, histology, and neurology are scheduled for five and one-half days a week for a period of eighteen weeks during the first semester of the first year. Emphasis is placed upon the study of material in the laboratory. In an attempt to utilize more fully the laboratory time, visual educational methods are employed as fully as possible. These techniques consist of colored motion pictures of demonstration dissections, colored lantern slides, and motion pictures, both embryological and neurological. All of the instruction is designed to be as informal and as nearly individual as possible. General principles and the functional viewpoint of living anatomy are stressed in the hope that the student may be stimulated to secure a working knowledge of anatomy in the broadest sense. Whenever possible, fresh tissues and living cells are made available for examination, and clinical cases exemplifying anatomical principles are studied whenever they are available at appropriate times. Through the co-operation of the Department of Radiology, the students are given an opportunity to study portions of the living human body as revealed by the fluoroscope and roentgenograph. The following elective courses are offered:

Demonstrations in Anatomy. Using dissections already prepared, weekly demonstrations of selected regions or systems are made by the members of the group. Sixth quarter—Two hours per week by arrangement. Second-year students in groups of 10.

Review in Anatomy. During the sixth quarter, a review in anatomy will be presented by the visual education methods outlined above, covering gross and neuro-anatomy, and histology.

Special Neuro-anatomy. Laboratory work and conferences upon selected portions of the human central nervous system. Limited to 6 junior or senior students. Two hours weekly by arrangement.

Brain Modeling. Free-hand reconstruction in clay, from gross and sectioned material, of the chief tracts and nuclei of the human brain stem. By arrangement—4 to 10 students.

Experimental Neurology. An operative and laboratory study of the effect of various lesions upon the central and peripheral portions of the nervous system. 4 to 8 junior and senior students by arrangement. Prerequisite—operative surgery.

Advanced Studies in Anatomy. These may be arranged at any time under the direction of the various members of the staff.

Biochemistry

The required course in general biochemistry for first-year students is given over a period of eighteen weeks during the second semester. Two lectures, four laboratory periods, and one conference period per week are devoted first to the correlation of the fundamental facts and theories of physical and organic chemistry of proteins, fats, and carbohydrates with the chemistry of living organisms; followed by an intensive study of the chemical aspects of the processes of digestion, absorption, circulation and respiration, acid-base and salt equilibrium, intermediary and over-all metabolism. Each student carries out on himself a fairly complete metabolic balance study involving quantitative analyses of blood and urine.

Since the success of the students in this course is largely determined by the adequacy and ready availability of their premedical training, it is urged that all students review the fundamental laws, theories, and facts of chemistry before the beginning of the course. A circular outlining the topics requiring special attention is sent to all students upon admission. Additional copies of the circular may be obtained from the Dean's Office. An examination to test the state of preparation of the student is given in the beginning of the course in biochemistry.

Electives. In connection with the course given in the sixth quarter for second-year students a survey of pathological and clinical chemistry is presented. In this course are covered abnormalities of protein, fat and carbohydrate metabolism, acid-base regulation, salt and water distribution, nitrogen retention, calcium and phosphorus metabolism, blood and derived bile pigments. The discussion of these topics is based upon case histories, including the records of the Clinical Chemical Laboratory of the Hospital.

Biochemical Research. The facilities of the department, including various types of research equipment and the clinical material of the blood chemistry laboratory, are available to properly qualified students for independent or supervised investigations. Chemical investigations of problems in biochemistry or in conjunction with the clinical and pathological departments may be carried on.

Seminar in Toxicology. A round-table discussion of the homicidal, suicidal and industrial poisons, alcoholism, etc., by arrangement.

Laboratory Detection of Common Poisons. A laboratory course in the properties, detection, and identification of the common poisons. Consideration is given to the types of material to be examined, legal precautions to be taken and interpretation of the findings, by arrangement.

Chemistry of Proteins, Enzymes, and Viruses. A two-hour seminar is given weekly throughout the Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters.

Physical Biochemistry. A two-hour lecture course with demonstrations, given weekly in Autumn and Winter Quarters. Given alternately with Chemistry of Proteins, Enzymes and Viruses.

Intermediary Metabolism. A two-hour lecture course and seminar conducted during Autumn, Winter and Spring Quarters. Given alternately with Seminar in Nutrition.

Advanced Seminar in Nutrition. A two-hour lecture and seminar course in modern nutritional concepts. Given alternately with Intermediary Metabolism.

Physiology and Pharmacology

The course in medical physiology for first-year students is given over a period of eighteen weeks during the second semester. There are lectures, laboratories, and conferences each week in which are presented the general principles of human physiology and their general application to the practice of medicine. This course runs parallel to biochemistry.

The course in pharmacology is given in the first quarter of the second year. Lectures, laboratories, and conferences deal with the mode of action of drugs in terms of biochemical and physiological processes.

Physiological and Pharmacological Research: The facilities of the department include modern types of research equipment. There are special facilities for research in the field of respiration; circulation; and cellular metabolism. Properly qualified students are permitted to undertake original research in physiology and pharmacology under direction of various members of the staff.

Seminars: Seminars in special fields of physiology are offered to graduate students by various members of the staff.

Bacteriology, Immunology, and Mycology

Bacteriology, Immunology, and Mycology. The required course is given in the fourth quarter. An intensive study is made of the common bacteria, fungi, and viruses which cause disease in man. The scope of the laboratory course is reasonably wide and acquaints the student with all the methods and procedures employed in bacteriological laboratories. Most of the lecture time is devoted to the immunological and epidemiological aspects of infection. The instruction is designed to give the students a clear conception of: (1) how organisms gain entrance to the body, (2) the type of poisons which they produce, (3) the nature of immune bodies which are produced by the host, and (4) the methods of preventing the disease by active and passive immunization.

Research Bacteriology. Opportunities for original investigations are afforded a few specially qualified students.

Clinical Bacteriology. During their clinical clerkships on medicine (one quarter each for junior and senior classes), the students may perform the routine and special bacteriological work for the patients assigned to them on the teaching service, under the direction of the Department of Bacteriology and in parallel with the Biological Division of the medical clinic.

Pathology

General Pathology. The course in general pathology is given during the fifth and sixth quarter of the curriculum, following completion of the prerequisite courses in anatomy, physiology, biochemistry and bacteriology. All the work of the class is done with small groups, each under the guidance of a senior instructor and his junior assistant. The histological aspects of the pathological processes are studied coincidentally with the gross anatomical and physiological alterations of the tissues, thus maintaining a unity of conception of disease. As the various pathological processes and the diseases arising from their elaboration are studied by the student groups, assignments involving reports on the study of groups of cases are made to individual students. The group work and the individual student reports are supplemented by weekly conferences involving the class as a whole and dealing with problems presented by current autopsies and with other problems of general importance. Student collaboration in post-mortem studies is required. Cases thus studied are presented by the students before the class under the direction of the staff; this takes the form of a clinical-pathological conference in which each student plays a particular role.

Elective Courses. Special courses in pathology are given to students who have completed the course in general pathology. These courses are available through special arrangement.

Clinical-Pathological Conference. A weekly clinical-pathological conference for advanced study is held on Saturdays. It is open to all persons interested, but is designed especially for the Hospital and Medical School Staff. Attendance by all the students is encouraged but is optional. Miscellaneous weekly pathological conferences dealing with current cases under treatment on the various services are held for instruction of the staffs concerned.

Student Research. Research facilities are provided for competent students. Those who show an interest in investigative work are given every encouragement and are allowed to work independently or in collaboration with the staff.

Postgraduate Instruction. The staff of the department is composed of senior nonresident and junior resident members. The junior resident staff consists of interns, assistant residents, and a resident; all of these are active teachers as well as advanced students of disease. Ample opportunity for the development of a career in the field of pathology is provided for these men.

Medicolegal Instruction. The department works in close cooperation with the local coroner's office. Special medicolegal investigations for others are undertaken from time to time. The department collaborates with other departments of the Schools of Medicine and Law in a course in legal medicine that is given in alternate years.

Medicine

Introduction to Clinical Medicine and Physical Diagnosis. This course is initiated, in the fifth quarter, by introductory lectures, case discussions, and instruction in the methods of physical examination and history taking. Early in the course students begin work at the bedside in the examination of selected patients. Emphasis throughout is placed on instruction individually or in small groups. The interpretation and pathogenesis of all abnormal findings are stressed. The Departments of Neurology and Psychiatry provide training in neurological and mental examinations. This plan of teaching continues in the sixth quarter, when, in addition, instruction in the more specialized methods of examination is provided through the co-operation of the Departments of Surgery, Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Radiology.

Clinical Microscopy is given in the fifth quarter. The course includes the essentials of hematology and the examination of fresh material, such as urine, stools, spinal fluids, sputum, transudates, and exudates. The most important parasites of man are studied by the use of fresh and museum material. Second-year and senior students are given opportunities for special work and for investigation. This course is supplemented in the Junior and Senior years by Hematology Conferences, which are held weekly, and Ward Rounds, which are held three times weekly.

Cutaneous Medicine and Syphilology. Instruction consisting of lectures, seminars and study and treatment of patients in the out-patient clinics and on the wards is offered each quarter to Junior and Senior students. In addition, an elective course consisting of advanced teaching in clinical dermatology and syphilology is offered to a limited number of students.

Junior and Senior Medicine. The medical students are assigned to the medical wards as clinical clerks for one half of their time, and to the medical out-patient department where they examine patients for the other half of their time.

Neuropsychiatry

Instruction starts in the first year with an introductory course in psychobiology. In the second year, methods of psychiatric examination and a general presentation of the main reaction types are given. Each third-year student has a two-week clerkship on the psychiatric ward, and in the fourth year patients are worked up in the out-patient clinic for a period of three and a half weeks. A neuropsychiatric amphitheater clinic is held weekly throughout the year for third- and fourth-year students. Elective courses in neuropsychiatric methods of research, neurophysiological aspects of neuropsychiatry, psychosomatic medicine, psychoanalysis in medicine, and principles of psychotherapy are offered to fourth-year students. Students are invited to attend the staff case conferences, the monthly psychosomatic conferences and the conferences on neuropsychiatric disorders of childhood. Emphasis is placed upon the close relationship of psychiatry to other branches of medicine. Internships are available in neuropsychiatry with the expectation that they will lead to progressively greater interest in the neuropsychiatric problems encountered on all other services in the Hospital. Investigation is encouraged.

Surgery

General Surgery. In the sixth quarter the students, during their course in physical diagnosis, attend clinics and demonstrations arranged to familiarize them with the techniques of examinations and diagnostic procedures used in general surgery and the surgical specialties. They also have the opportunity in this quarter to become familiar with certain basic principles in aseptic and atraumatic surgery and in isolation technique. The junior students, during their surgical quarter, attend ward rounds in surgery and the surgical specialties, act as clinical clerks on the wards and assist in the operative treatment of patients assigned to them. The surgical students in the senior year attend ward rounds in general surgery and the surgical specialties in the mornings and assist in the surgical out-patient clinics in the afternoon. Also in groups of two for the proportionate time available they are assigned to the emergency division of the out-patient clinic where they assist in the diagnosis and care of urgent conditions.

A six days' concentrated course of training in the administration of anesthetic agents is open to twenty-four medical students each school quarter. Properly qualified students observe and administer anesthesia under direct supervision of staff anesthetists.

Otolaryngological Division. An introductory course of instruction in the use of otolaryngological instruments, with a review of normal anatomy, is given to second-year students in the sixth quarter. Clinics during one quarter of alternating years are given to junior and senior students; students during their pediatric quarter work in the otolaryngological out-patient clinic as assigned. Ward rounds are held separately each week for third- and fourth-year students. Patients are assigned to junior students during the surgical quarter.

Ophthalmological Division. During the sixth quarter second-year students receive instruction in elementary ophthalmology. During the senior pediatric quarter the students work in the ophthalmological out-patient clinic as assigned, and assist in the study and treatment of eye diseases. Especial emphasis is placed on the underlying medical and surgical conditions. Each student follows throughout his time in the out-patient clinic all patients assigned to him. For those who manifest an unusual interest in this specialty, provision will be made for more advanced work. Throughout the senior surgical quarter the students attend ophthalmological ward rounds for one hour each week. During either their third or fourth academic year clinics covering the more general neuro-ophthalmological and medical problems are given.

Orthopaedic Division. In the sixth quarter an introductory course is given. During the surgical quarters the junior and senior students attend weekly ward rounds of one hour each in orthopaedics and fractures. Amphitheater clinics are held every third quarter. Students in their senior surgical quarter are assigned in rotation to the orthopaedic out-patient clinic. These students also attend orthopaedic staff rounds at 5:30 P.M. Mondays through Fridays. An elective course in the treatment of fractures, limited to three students, is offered during the junior and senior surgical quarters. An elective course in physical therapy is also offered during these quarters. Arrangements may be made for students who so desire to do research or experimental work. They may also attend the state orthopaedic clinics as held.

Urologic Division. In the sixth quarter, second-year students are given a course of lectures and practical demonstrations in urologic physical diagnosis in the normal individual student. Ward rounds on urologic patients are given every Saturday at 8:30 A.M. for third- and fourth-year students in their surgical quarter. Small groups are selected from the senior surgical group of students and assigned in rotation to the urologic out-patient clinic. During one quarter of the year, urologic clinics are given weekly for the junior and senior classes. These clinics deal with the affections of the male and female urinary tract and of the male genital tract. Clinics for urethroscopic and cystoscopic investigation and for the more technical methods of urologic diagnosis and treatment are held Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 1:30 to 5:00 P.M. and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. throughout the year. X-ray conferences on all urologic cases are held Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings from 8:30 to 9:30 and are followed by staff rounds. Three senior students may select one of these cystoscopic clinics, x-ray conferences, and staff rounds as an elective. The Urologic Journal Club meets each Monday from 4:30 to 6:30 P.M., and members of the staff review their respectively assigned journals. Interested students are welcome.

Neurosurgical Division. During all four quarters, separate weekly ward rounds are held for the junior and senior surgical groups. Emphasis in these rounds is placed upon the recognition of neurosurgical problems, followed by observation of the operative and post-operative procedures. Weekly x-ray and pathological conferences are held, and these may be attended by interested individuals.

Division of Plastic Surgery. Weekly ward rounds are given to familiarize both third- and fourth-year students with the principles and practice of plastic and oral surgery. Ward patients are assigned to the third-year surgical students and the fourth-year surgical students work up patients in the out-patient clinic. Each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon, an opportunity is afforded interested students to observe moulage and cast work, cosmetic restoration of color, the making of prosthetic appliances, etc. This work is done under the direction of Mr. Elon H. Clark, of the Department of Medical Illustration.

Division of Thoracic Surgery. During the academic year ward rounds, lectures and demonstrations are held to acquaint the third- and fourth-year students with the principles and practice of surgery of the chest. The anatomy and physiology of the respiration and circulation are reviewed and their application to thoracic surgery is stressed. X-ray diagnosis is emphasized and frequent pathology conferences are held to give the students a well-rounded knowledge of the surgical diseases of the chest.

Division of Anesthesiology. Junior students, during their surgical quarter, are given a series of eleven lectures by the medical anesthesiologists. Following a brief history of anesthetic drugs, the response of the body to such drugs is discussed. The physiological basis of the reactions encountered in the operating room is stressed and the rationale for choice of agents for various patients is presented. A six days' concentrated course of training in the administration of anesthetic agents is open to twenty-four senior medical students each school quarter. These students observe and administer anesthetics under the supervision of staff anesthesiologists.

Dentistry. Second-year students, in the sixth quarter, are instructed in the principles of dentistry.

Radiology

The student teaching schedule in roentgenology consists of a course in roentgen diagnosis and a course in therapeutic radiology. The first is offered during each scholastic quarter on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. The fundamental physics of x-ray is discussed, with the chief emphasis being placed upon the anatomical, pathological and physiological bases for the interpretation of x-ray films. The course is conducted in seminar fashion and no formal lectures are given. The students participate in and lead discussions with the instructor serving as the moderator. An attempt is made to acquaint the student with the aids of roentgenology in diagnostic problems. The correct use of x-rays in diagnosis is stressed.

Therapeutic radiology is given one hour weekly during each quarter. At these sessions the general problem of the treatment of benign, inflammatory and malignant lesions by x-ray and radium is discussed and the accepted views of the combination of these therapeutic agents with surgery is stressed. Representative cases are demonstrated, and the follow-up results are particularly stressed.

A limited number of senior students are permitted to attend routine film reading sessions in the Department of Radiology. They are also instructed in the fundamentals of fluoroscopic examinations and shown the many pitfalls of the inexperienced fluoroscopist.

A number of conferences with the resident house staff are conducted throughout the year. Each alternate Monday from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. a session with the ear, nose and throat staff is held, during which the roentgen and operative findings are correlated. Each Thursday from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. a pediatric conference is held at which current cases are discussed and clinical and x-ray findings are given. On alternate Wednesdays from 5:00 to 6:00 P.M. conferences are held with the surgical and medical house staffs and all cases with significant x-rays are presented for general discussion. The neurosurgical staff meets with members of the x-ray department every other Tuesday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:00 P.M. for a discussion of all cases that have been studied by the two departments.

Each Thursday afternoon the conference is held by the members of the x-ray staff and visiting radiologists. Difficult cases are brought up for discussion and diagnosis.

Obstetrics and Gynecology

Second-year students receive seventeen hours of instruction in the fundamentals of obstetrics and gynecology during their course in physical diagnosis in the sixth quarter. Clinics and demonstrations for junior and senior students are held on Saturdays at 10:30 A.M. during the Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters and on Mondays at 11:30 A.M. in the Summer Quarter. During one quarter of the junior year each group of students attends ward rounds at 8:30 A.M. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays; preoperative conferences at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesdays and Fridays; and the out-patient clinic at 1:30 P.M. five times weekly, for nine weeks. They also attend an endocrine clinic once a week for nine weeks during the junior year. The students also spend part of each day on the wards. Senior students, during their surgical quarter, have ward rounds on obstetrics and gynecology on Saturdays at 8:30 A.M.

Elective courses in the diagnosis and treatment of obstetric and gynecological conditions are offered for junior and senior students.

Pediatrics

Junior and senior students, during their medical quarters, have pediatric ward rounds on Saturdays, from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. These junior students receive instruction in introductory pediatrics and the physical diagnosis of infants and children. The senior students are divided into three groups, each of which spends one quarter in pediatrics. During this quarter they are assigned daily as clinical clerks on the children's ward, nursery, and pediatric out-patient clinic, attend ward rounds at 8:30 A.M. Mondays and Fridays and 9:30 A.M. on Wednesdays; attend the staff conference at 8:30 A.M. on Wednesdays; attend child guidance clinic each Thursday at 11:00 A.M.; attend conference on pediatric roentgenology each Wednesday at 11:00 A.M.; are instructed in the practical nursing of infants by Miss Sherwood on Fridays at 9:30 A.M.; and are taught the preparation of diets for infants and children by the Professor of Dietetics. Each student attends infant feeding clinics on Fridays during this quarter. Students may attend, on voluntary basis, the special pediatric clinics—nephritis, cardiac, allergy, and convulsive disorders. Elective courses: Senior students may spend two weeks in general practice with Instructors in General Practice. In addition to the six pediatric internships, there are four in which six months each are spent in obstetrics and pediatrics for graduates who plan to enter general practice. Seven assistant residencies and one residency are available.

Preventive Medicine and Public Health

Public Health. This course consists of two three-hour periods weekly throughout the fifth quarter and is designed to acquaint the student with the general principles of environmental sanitation and the various techniques used by official and voluntary agencies in their efforts to improve health in a community. The laboratory work consists of practical exercises in such subjects as water and milk bacteriology, vital statistics, epidemiology, etc., some of the periods being reserved for field trips so that the student can observe plants in actual operation.

Medical Parasitology is a lecture and laboratory course given one morning a week in the fourth quarter. Most of the emphasis is placed on the symptomatology, diagnosis and therapy of the various helminthic and protozoal diseases in man; several periods are devoted to medical entomology.

Elementary Biostatistics. This course consists of one lecture and one two-hour laboratory period a week throughout the fourth quarter. Instruction is given in methods of tabulation and graphing of medical data and the interpretation of such data. The methods of testing for statistical significance are illustrated by problems taken from the medical literature.

Preventive Medicine. This course is given in the senior year and consists of three one-hour lectures or clinics each week throughout the autumn quarter. Emphasis is placed upon the principles of Preventive Medicine as they can be applied by the physician in private practice. By the case method of presentation, the student has the opportunity of learning how the cooperation of health and social organizations can be of assistance to the physician in his management of the individual patient.

Legal Medicine and Toxicology

This course embraces a discussion of the relation of physicians to legal criminal procedures, jurisdiction of the coroner and medical examiner, laws governing the dead human body, personal identity of the living and the dead, the medicolegal autopsy, traumatic injuries and fractures, rape, abortion, asphyxial death, homicidal, suicidal, and industrial poisoning, alcoholism, the examination of blood, stains, fibers, and the detection of malingering. The course is open to junior and senior students and is given in alternate years. Discussions of medicolegal problems for the house staff and senior students, and joint conferences of the medical and law students also are held.

UNDERGRADUATE CANCER TRAINING PROGRAM

(Supported by a grant in aid from the U. S. Public Health Service.)

During the senior year, the students in surgery participate in the teaching sessions held by the Undergraduate Cancer Training Program staff and the senior staff. These sessions are held five days a week, and an attempt is made to cover systematically the various regions in the body in respect to the tumors which arise in them. The viewpoints of the clinician, the radiologist, and the pathologist are presented and correlated at this time. The students themselves prepare seminars on theoretical subjects which have a direct bearing on the problem of neoplasia in general. This portion of the program is repeated each quarter throughout the year.

In addition, the Undergraduate Cancer Training Program staff participates in the teaching of neoplasia to the sophomore students. This is done as a supplementary program to the students as they are being taught the principles of neoplastic disease by the Department of Pathology. New material is presented to them and here the clinicopathological approach to the problem of neoplasia has special emphasis. In this phase of the program it has not been possible to cover the entire body but selected regions are utilized.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The next class of students will be admitted to the Duke University School of Nursing on September 15, 1950, but applications will be considered at any time. Information about the entrance and other requirements, length of course, tuition fees, application forms and bulletins may be obtained by writing to the Dean of the School of Nursing, Box 3714, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C. Duke University offers a combined academic-professional program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Art, Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education. Information as to this program may be secured from the same source.

SCHOOL OF DIETETICS

In addition to the dietetic training of the students of the Schools of Medicine and Nursing, fourteen dietetic interns may be admitted to the School of Dietetics and given the certificate of graduate dietitian after the successful completion of one year's internship. The entrance requirements are a Bachelor's degree from an approved university or college, with majors in nutrition and institutional management, and the courses in chemistry, biology, social science, and education recommended by the American Dietetic Association. The course for dietetic interns provides instruction in all phases of hospital and institutional dietetics, including experience from the buying and storage of food to its service to the patients according to the physician's orders. Interns may apply some of their time in securing graduate credit.

The course starts the first of September. All students pay a registration fee of $10 at the time of appointment. Additional fees are charged if the intern takes additional work in the University for an advanced credit. Maintenance is provided. More detailed information and application blanks may be obtained from the Professor of Dietetics, Duke University School of Dietetics, Durham, N. C.

STAFF OF DUKE HOSPITAL

INTERNSHIPS AND RESIDENCIES

Internships of twelve months' duration with room, board, laundry, and uniforms furnished, but without salary, are available in medicine, surgery (including general surgery, urology, orthopaedics, plastic, anesthesia, thoracic, and neuro-surgery), orthopaedics, urology, otolaryngology-ophthalmology, dentistry, obstetrics and gynecology, endocrinology, pediatrics, neuropsychiatry, and pathology commencing July first.

Application blanks for all internships may be obtained by writing to the Superintendent, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C. Graduates of any Class A medical school are eligible for internships.

After the completion of an internship in Duke Hospital or in another acceptable hospital, a certain number may be appointed as assistant residents in medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, neurology, dermatology, orthopaedics, urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, roentgenology, anesthesiology, pathology, biochemistry, or the Student Health Service or as fellows of the Private Diagnostic Clinic, at a salary of $250 to $500 per year with maintenance, and eventually may be promoted to the residency in the various departments or subdepartments of the Hospital at an annual salary of $500 to $1,000 with maintenance. Applications should be made to the head of the department concerned.

The Hospital and School of Medicine are an integral part of the Duke University campus, and its educational, recreational, and athletic facilities are available for the Resident Staff.

The present Resident Staff of one hundred nine consists of a resident, twelve assistant residents, and nine interns in medicine; a resident and two assistant residents in dermatology and syphilology; an assistant resident in neurology; five assistant residents in neuropsychiatry; a resident, five assistant residents, and thirteen interns in surgery (the five assistant residents are assigned in rotation to general surgery, plastic, thoracic, neuro-surgery, and pathology); a resident, two assistant residents, and one intern in otolaryngology and ophthalmology; a resident and one assistant resident in orthopaedics; a resident and one assistant resident in urology; a resident and one assistant resident in plastic surgery; a resident, four assistant residents, and three interns in obstetrics and gynecology; a resident and one intern in endocrinology; a resident, three assistant residents, and eight interns in pediatrics; three interns in obstetrics and pediatrics; two residents and four assistant residents in radiology; a resident, two assistant residents, and three interns in pathology; four assistant residents in anesthesiology, and eight in hospital administration.

POSTGRADUATE STUDY

Graduates in medicine are welcomed at the various clinics and demonstrations in medicine, surgery, obstetrics, and other specialties, which are held from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. each Saturday, as well as at the daily ward-rounds in the mornings and the out-patient clinics in the afternoons. They can start at any time and remain as long as they wish. Additional special work in any department for a period of not less than three months may be arranged by consultation with the head of the department concerned. A certain number of residencies also are available at Duke Hospital in medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, neurology, dermatology, orthopaedics, urology, otolaryngology, ophthalmology, roentgenology, pathology, and biochemistry. Further information can be obtained by writing to the Dean.

Returning veterans are requested to register on arrival at the Dean's office, Room M133, and with Miss Barbara L. Perkins, 302 Administration, who will assist them in obtaining the benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights, which will provide tuition and $75 per month for maintenance ($105 if one dependent, $120 if more than one dependent).

SCHOOL OF HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATION

Eight internships in hospital administration leading to a certificate will be available to university graduates whose character, tact, and ability for leadership are good, and whose academic standing is high. These internships are of two years' duration and pay a small salary in addition to room, board, and laundry. Vacations of two weeks are allowed during each year of internship.

The instruction is practical rather than theoretical in emphasis. The interns are rotated through six different assistant administrative positions in the Hospital. There is also a weekly seminar lasting two hours.

During these two or three years, the interns may also register in the Graduate School of Duke University, and receive the A.M. degree after the successful completion of a thesis and twenty-four semester hours of university courses in various fields. This additional work will add one year to the program. Further information may be obtained by writing to the Superintendent, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

MEDICAL SOCIAL SERVICE

Medical social case-work service is offered to patients referred by personnel within the Hospital, and by interested individuals and health and welfare agencies outside of the Hospital. Assistance and advice in connection with the problems presented are available to the members of the Staff and referring agencies.

The division also assists in teaching social and environmental aspects of illness and medical care through consultations and lectures to the students of the Schools of Medicine and Nursing. In addition, it serves as an agency for supervised field work for students of the Graduate School of the University of North Carolina. Further information concerning training for advanced students may be obtained from the Social Service Division, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

ANESTHESIOLOGY

A two- to three-year residency training program in anesthesiology is available for physicians who are graduates of a Class A medical school and who have completed an internship in an accredited hospital.

Courses available to graduate nurses include an eighteen months' course for nurses who have had no experience in anesthesia, and a nine to twelve months' course for nurses with five years of practical experience who have not had formal training in the specialty. Instruction embraces the theoretical aspects and clinical application of all drugs and techniques in accepted usage. The program is divided into quarters. The major part of the basic theoretical instruction is given during the first three quarters. After a pre-clinical period of eight weeks, clinical practice runs parallel with the theoretical program. One class is accepted annually and enrolled on January 15. All appointments for the current year are made by September 1 of the preceding year. Graduates of these courses are eligible to take the examination given by the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists. Tuition is $150.00 and $100.00 respectively. Additional information concerning these programs for nurses may be obtained from Mary H. Snively, R.N., Box 3094, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

COURSE IN LABORATORY TECHNIQUE

The course in laboratory technique, which includes training in blood chemistry, clinical microscopy, bacteriology, serology, basal metabolism, etc., is approved by the Registry of Technicians of the American Society of Clinical Pathology. The course lasts eighteen months, the next class starting September 22, 1950. The registration fee is $75.00, and there are no additional charges except for breakage. The students live in town at their own expense. A minimum of two years of approved college work is required. Information as to the specific requirements may be obtained from Dr. Haywood M. Taylor, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

COURSE IN X-RAY TECHNOLOGY

Applicants for training in x-ray technology should satisfy one of the following requirements: A.B. or B.S. degree, or Diploma of Graduate Nurse, or special students without either of these requirements who might be appointed by the committee. The course is of twelve months' duration and the following subjects are presented: elementary anatomy and physiology, physics, x-ray equipment, dark room chemistry and procedure, x-ray technics and general office routine. Examination is given at the end of the first quarter and a grade of 75 must be made to continue the course. Two students are appointed in October and two in March each year. The tuition fee is $25. No maintenance is provided. This course is approved by the American Council of Medical Education, American Medical Association, the American College of Radiology and the American Registry of Radiological Technicians.

PHYSICAL THERAPY

A fifteen months' course in physical therapy is offered for men and women graduates of accredited schools of physical education and nursing, and for selected applicants who have completed ninety college semester hours, including credit in the biological sciences, physics, chemistry and psychology. The curriculum provides instruction in anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, pathology, psychology, electrotherapy, neuropsychiatry, therapeutic exercise and the principles of rehabilitation. Instruction in the clinical subjects is given by members of the faculty of the School of Medicine. Clinical training will be given at Duke Hospital and affiliated institutions and includes supervision of orthopaedic problems in the Durham Public Schools. The course starts in October. The tuition fee is $350 plus $35 for medical fee, and does not include maintenance. A certificate is awarded upon successful completion of the course. Eighteen hours of credit may be earned toward the baccalaureate degree. In addition to the training of physical therapy students, courses are given to the students of the Schools of Medicine and Nursing. Further information and application blanks may be obtained from the Division of Physical Therapy, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

RECORD LIBRARY

A course for the training of medical record librarians, which has been given full approval by the American Association of Medical Record Librarians and the American Medical Association, includes all details of the theory and practice of clinical record library methods. The length of the training is twelve months. The tuition fee is $175.00 and does not include maintenance. Applications may be made to the Medical Record Librarian, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

DIVISION OF MEDICAL ART AND ILLUSTRATION

The primary function of this Division is to produce visual clinical records for supplementation of case histories, visual aids for teaching, illustrations for publication, and accurate drawings of conditions in which draftsmanship, knowledge of subject and imagination are the prime requisites. Requests for this work may emanate from any of the medical or allied sciences. Other services offered are: the production of exhibits, casts, models, prosthetic appliances, tantalum plates, charts, graphs, mechanical drawings, clinical photographs (still), motion pictures, photomicrography, fundus photography, copying, lantern slides, prints in black and white and color and special problems in infra-red.

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING

Fall Semester, 1950, begins September 21 ;

Spring Semester, 1951, begins January 31.

1949-1950

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING

GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Nursing of Duke University was established in 1931 in association with the School of Medicine of the University and Duke Hospital through the gift of the late James B. Duke. The administrator of the School of Nursing is a member of the Executive Committee of the Medical School, Nursing School and Duke Hospital which promotes the common interests of the three organizations.

The central aim of the educational program is to select young women with aptitudes, interests and personal characteristics needed in nursing, and to provide an educational program enabling them to develop skills, knowledge and attitudes needed for professional nursing service in the community and for maximum personal development.

This program is designed to prepare nurses for:

1. General duty in hospitals.
2. Private duty in hospitals and homes.
3. First level positions under supervision in public health nursing agencies.

FACILITIES FOR INSTRUCTION

The facilities for instruction include the facilities for instruction available in the undergraduate, professional and graduate schools and colleges of Duke University and the clinical facilities of Duke Hospital.

CLINICAL FACILITIES

Duke Hospital has every modern convenience for the diagnosis, proper nursing care, welfare and comfort of the patients including 604 hospital beds, a large public out-patient department, a large private diagnostic clinic and offices and examining rooms for the doctors who serve on the staff of the hospital. There are very close relationships established between the hospital and the Health Departments in North Carolina. A system for referral of patients to the nursing service of the Health Department has been established between the supervisors of the nursing service in the hospital and the nursing service of the Health Department.

LIBRARIES

The reference library of 2,298 books and periodicals of special interest to students majoring in nursing is located in Baker House. Students may use the general libraries on the East and West Campuses and the Duke Hospital Library. A collection of visual aids including films is being assembled with an index in the library for the use of students and instructors in the School of Nursing.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Applications for admission to the School of Nursing should be made to the Committee on Admissions of the School of Nursing, Box 3714 Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C. Application forms will be sent on request.

ADMISSION

Since the profession of nursing requires women with a high sense of integrity and responsibility, with culture and intelligence whose predominant interest is service, the Admissions Committee will select the applicants who, in its opinion, seem best qualified for nursing. The Admissions Committee must have on file the records indicating the fulfillment of the following requirements before considering an applicant.

1. Graduation from high school with sixteen units of credit as indicated.
2. One year of college with the semester hours of credit as indicated.
3. Aptitude and achievement tests.
4. Three recommendations.
5. Interviews.
6. Physical and dental examination.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

I. An applicant for admission to the School of Nursing must present at least sixteen acceptable units of secondary school credit. A unit of credit is allowed for a course of study pursued throughout an academic year at an accredited secondary school, if the course has been completed satisfactorily.

1. Twelve units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics, and natural science; and must include:
 - (a) English—3 units.
 - (b) Algebra—1 unit.
 - (c) Plane geometry—1 unit.
2. Four units may be in the subjects listed above or from those in the following table. The units indicate the maximum amount of credit acceptable in each subject:

Subject	Units	Subject	Units
Agriculture	2	Mechanical Drawing	2
Art	1	Music	1
Commercial Subjects	3	Physical Geography	1
Economics	1	Sociology	1
Household Economics	2	Woodworking, Machine Work ...	2

Other units offered in subjects not included in this list will be considered for acceptance on the basis of full statements transmitted with the applicant's record from the school recommending her.

If students make satisfactory scores on a scholastic aptitude test, the above requirements will not be rigidly adhered to by the School of Nursing.

II. One year of college work is required for admission to the Duke University School of Nursing. This work may be taken at any accredited college or university and should include the following courses:

	S.H.
English	6
Chemistry	8
Zoology or Biology	4
History, Economics or Political Science	6
Electives (Foreign Language, Literature, Mathematics, Religion, History, Appreciation of Art or Music and Physical Education)	8

Students who wish to complete requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts after graduation from the School of Nursing should take six credits of foreign language during the Freshman year. Those who submit two or more units of one language in high school are advised to continue with that language in college. If the college will not allow two sciences in the first year, the one not taken in high school should be selected.

III. Satisfactory scores on a battery of aptitude and achievement tests.

IV. Three recommendations, two of which must come from recent high school or college instructors.

V. Interviews with two members of the Duke University School of Nursing faculty, whenever possible.

VI. Records of recent physical and dental examination.

A physical examination at Duke Hospital is required for final acceptance into the School of Nursing. This examination includes a chest x-ray and a tuberculin test.

Students who attend college more than one year before entering the School of Nursing are advised to take the following courses:

	S.H.
Literature	6
Psychology	3-6
Sociology	3-6
Religion, Ethics or Philosophy	6
Language (second year of same language taken in first year)	6
Electives (Physical Education)	2-8

FEES AND EXPENSES

	First Year	Second Year	Third Year
Tuition	$100.00	$100.00	$100.00
Books (Estimated)	40.00	10.00	10.00

Activities	15.00	15.00	15.00
Graduation			3.00
Diploma			5.00
Degree			5.00
Cap and Gown Rental			1.25
Room Key Deposit	1.00
Uniforms	84.20
	$245.20	$125.00	$139.25

The fee for pre-entrance tests and health examination is payable at time testing is done. Checks should be made payable to Duke University.

No student is permitted to attend classes until she has complied with all regulations concerning registration and payment of bills for the term.

Arrangements for purchase of uniforms are made with the uniform company late in September. At that time, $68.70 of the cost of the uniforms is paid.

A fee for public health nursing will be added in the Senior year when arrangements for the experience are completed.

Duke Hospital provides board, room and laundry for students in the School of Nursing. The rooms in the residence are fully equipped. Twenty-five dollars of the tuition fee is payable upon receipt of the acceptance letter, the balance is due upon admission.

Fees for courses which require registration in the Woman's College are charged upon the basis of hours of credit.

LOAN FUND AND SCHOLARSHIP

Through the generosity of the Kellogg Foundation, loan funds sufficient to cover tuition costs are available to students who demonstrate a real need and who are qualified. There are also a limited number of tuition scholarships for exceptionally qualified students.

Residents of North Carolina and others upon recommendation may secure loans from the Medical Care Commission of North Carolina. The conditions under which these loans are granted will be supplied upon inquiry addressed to the Dean of the School of Nursing.

RESIDENCES

Students are housed in the fireproof residences located near the hospital. Rooms are adequately equipped with blankets and linen, making further provision by the student unnecessary. Life in the dormitories is under the regulations established by the Student Government Association with advice from the faculty.

HEALTH REGULATIONS AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The School has general supervision of the student's health. All physical defects, such as defective vision, dental needs, etc., must be corrected before admission to the School. The student must have been immunized against typhoid fever and vaccinated against smallpox during the current year. All students are required to pass a physical examination before admission to the School of Nursing and at intervals thereafter, a final examination being given at the end of the course. Students whose condition needs further observation may be admitted tentatively, but must cancel their application if later findings prove them physically unfit for nursing. Students about whom it is decided that tonsillectomy or other surgery was indicated before admission to the School, or students under care of a private physician for some minor complaint which does not interfere with the practice of nursing but requires hospitalization and surgery, may be asked to pay for this care by the Hospital.

Students are allowed two weeks' sick leave during the three-year course.

ACTIVITIES OFFERED

Swimming, basketball and softball are offered as student activities, in addition to social activities. First-year students are required to elect either swimming or basketball.

READMISSION

Students who are absent for more than one month on account of illness or have leave of absence may be readmitted to the same or a succeeding class at the discretion of the faculty.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Students are not expected to leave the School because of family or other personal reasons. Absence from the School is granted only in extreme cases. If a student is obliged to be away for a period exceeding four weeks, the Dean of the School of Nursing will determine the date of her return and the question of resuming her place in her original class.

DISMISSAL

The faculty of the School of Nursing may, at any time, place a student on probation or release her from the School if, in its opinion, she does not have the qualifications necessary for the profession.

THE DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

The Duke University School of Nursing Alumnae Association was formed for the purpose of rendering mutual help and improvement in professional work, and for the promotion of good fellowship among the graduates of the School.

The Alumnae Association co-operates with the North Carolina State Nurses' Association and the American Nurses' Association in working for the professional and educational advancement of nursing.

Alumnae Notes, a quarterly news publication, furnishes items of interest to the members of the Association.

SANTA FILOMENA

Santa Filomena, Senior Honorary of the Duke University School of Nursing, was organized in April, 1944, under the sponsorship of the 1943 class. The purpose of this organization is to recognize achievement and promote leadership.

The members are chosen from the rising Senior Class and are publicly tapped by the old members at the first meeting of the SGA in their Senior year, the number chosen not exceeding nine or being less than five. Each candidate must show recognized qualities of leadership or must have made some contribution toward the betterment of the School of Nursing. She must have demonstrated superior nursing abilities and her scholastic record must be eighty or above throughout her first two years.

AWARDS TO NURSES

BAGBY AWARD IN PEDIATRICS

The Bagby Award in Pediatrics (a subscription to the American Journal of Nursing) is given at graduation to the best Duke student nurse in pediatrics.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE PLAQUE

The Florence Nightingale plaque is awarded to a graduating student by the Alumnae Association for leadership, scholarship and nursing skill.

THE MOSELEY AWARD

The Moseley Award of $25.00 is given to the student in the senior class who has shown the most skill in Nursing Arts throughout her program in the School of Nursing.

PROGRAM OF THE SCHOOL OF NURSING

The program of the School of Nursing covers a period of three calendar years with one month of vacation each year. At the completion of this program, the student receives the diploma in nursing and is then eligible for the examinations given by the North Carolina State Board of Nurse Examiners. The School is fully approved by the North Carolina Joint Committee on Standardization.

COMBINED ACADEMIC-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS IN NURSING

Students who have been graduated from the Duke University School of Nursing with an average grade of "C" or better may, upon recommendation by the Dean of the School of Nursing, apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University. If accepted she may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science from Duke University by fulfilling the requirements for the degree of choice. Forty semester hours of credit toward these degrees are given for the three-year nursing program or toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education for those showing ability in teaching. See pages 30-31.

The program of studies leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts is as follows:

1. Minimum requirement of the Undergraduate College of Arts and Science:

	S.H.
English 1-2	6
Natural Science	8
Language (completion of the third college year)	6-18
Religion	6
History, Economics or Political Science	6

| 2. Basic nursing program | 40 |
| 3. At least twelve semester hours in one department other than nursing in courses not primarily open to Freshmen | 12 |
| 4. Electives | 24-36 |

In addition to twelve semester hours in one department, the program must include 24 semester hours in courses numbered 100 or above.

A total of 124 semester hours credit and 124 quality points is required for graduation.

Students who have been graduated from the Duke University School of Nursing may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science by fulfilling all requirements for that degree. Forty semester hours of credit toward this degree are given for the three-year program in the School of Nursing. The requirements for this degree may be found in the bulletin of the undergraduate colleges.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING IN THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Students from the School of Nursing who are admitted to the Woman's College may receive credit for college courses taken prior to their admission to the School of Nursing provided they meet the requirements listed below.

A student enrolling for the Bachelor's degree, who transfers from a junior college or from a four-year college not affiliated with the Southern Association or a similar regional association, is under all circumstances required to continue, for at least one semester in the Woman's College, the foreign language she presents for minimum graduation requirements. Note: No foreign language is required for the B.S. in Nursing Education.

Credit for courses in science offered for advanced standing by a student transferring from a junior college or from a four-year college not affiliated with the Southern Association or a similar regional association will be determined by the departments concerned.

Transfer credits are tentatively evaluated pending the completion of two semesters work in residence. To validate provisional credits the student must earn at least an average of "C" in a normal load of work. Transfer grades of "C" or above are rated at one quality point per credit hour when validated.

The maximum amount of credit acceptable from a junior college is sixty semester hours, exclusive of physical education. No credit is given for work completed by correspondence, and not more than six semester hours credit is allowed for extension courses. Any extension work accepted must be specifically approved by the Dean of the College.

DIVISION OF NURSING EDUCATION

ADVANCED PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

A Division of Nursing Education was established in December, 1944, as an integral part of the Department of Education of Duke University. At the present time, qualified graduate nurses may work toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education, or toward the degree of Master of Education with a major in Nursing Education.

The primary objective of the degree program for graduate nurses is to prepare qualified individuals for teaching and supervisory positions in schools of nursing and in nursing service agencies. Facilities for instruction include the undergraduate colleges of Duke University, the School of Nursing, the Medical School and Duke Hospital.

I. DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING EDUCATION

Admission

A student who wishes to work toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education must apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University. To be eligible for admission as a candidate for this degree she must meet the following requirements:

1. Graduation from an approved secondary school with at least fifteen acceptable units of credit. Twelve units must be in English, foreign language, history and social studies, mathematics and natural science.

Three units may be in subjects listed above or in such subjects as art, commercial subjects, household economics, or music.

Students who have satisfactorily completed one or more years of college work in an approved college or university must also fulfill the requirements listed above with respect to high school credit, must present official transcripts of all work done in other institutions, and must have honorable dismissal from each institution previously attended.

2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing which provides satisfactory preparation in medical, surgical, pediatric, and obstetric nursing, as a minimum.
3. Satisfactory scores on specified tests.
4. Satisfactory ratings from three individuals, preferably former teachers and supervisors with whom the individual has had fairly recent contact.

Credit for 120 semester hours (exclusive of physical education) on which an average grade of at least "C" is made is required for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education. The work of the final year must be taken in residence at Duke University. The program of studies leading to this degree must include:

4. Field of Concentration—15
 Fifteen semester hours in one field such as chemistry, zoology, physics, psychology or sociology, or in a clinical area and related subjects is required. No freshman work may be included in these fifteen semester hours. Nurses who are interested in head nurse work or supervision in a clinical area are advised to take the following courses:

- 193. Ward Administration and Teaching 3
- 195. Personnel Work in Schools of Nursing 3
- 120. Problem in Nursing Care 2

5. Professional experience
 One year of experience as a graduate nurse is required before the degree is granted.

II. DEGREE OF MASTER OF EDUCATION WITH A MAJOR IN NURSING EDUCATION

(Not offered in 1950-51)

Admission

A student who wishes to work toward the degree of Master of Education with a major in Nursing Education must apply for admission to the Graduate School of Duke University. To be eligible for admission as a candidate for this degree she must meet the following requirements:

- (1) Graduation from an approved college or university with an average grade of not less than "B."
- (2) Satisfactory standing on the Graduate Record Examination.
- (3) Satisfactory standing on a test of mental ability.
- (4) Ability to write acceptable English as demonstrated on a test.
- (5) Graduation from an approved school of nursing.
- (6) Satisfactory ratings from three individuals, preferably former teachers and supervisors with whom the individual has had fairly recent contact.

Candidates for the Master of Education degree must have had two years of experience including administration, supervision, or teaching in a school of nursing or nursing service organization when the degree is granted.

III. TUITION, FEES, AND OTHER EXPENSESFees Per Semester

A matriculation fee of $20.00 is paid at the time of acceptance to Woman's College.

Tuition	$175.00
General Fee (Undergraduate) including health, library and incidental fees	75.00
General Fee (Graduate School)	60.00
Laboratory Fee (amount depends upon course which is taken)

Living Arrangements

Students may make their own arrangements to live in private homes. A limited number of students can be housed in the Graduate Nurses' Residence, 2204 Erwin Road. The cost of living in this residence is as follows:

Single room (per semester)	$87.50
Double room (per semester)	67.50

Meals can be secured at a nominal rate at University cafeterias.

Employment

A limited number of nurses may be employed at Duke Hospital during the time they are taking courses at Duke University. Nurses who are working full-time (44 hours per week) may take one course each semester. Nurses who wish to reduce hours of work per week to 36, with a corresponding reduction in salary, may take two courses each semester.

For information about employment write to the Director of Nursing Service, Duke Hospital.

IV. PROGRAM IN PSYCHIATRIC NURSING

A twelve-month program in psychiatric nursing is offered to qualified graduate nurses. The primary objective of this program is to prepare individuals for head nurse positions in psychiatric units of hospitals, child guidance clinics, and related fields. Students who wish to qualify for supervisory or teaching positions in the psychiatric field are advised to complete the program which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education.

Students have approximately 20 hours per week of carefully planned laboratory practice on clinical services, during which time they work closely with patients presenting a wide variety of emotional disturbances. They also have an opportunity to participate in staff conferences and clinics at Duke Hospital and at the State Hospital in Raleigh.

Approximately 30 semester hours of credit toward the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education degree may be earned during the calendar year.

A limited number of training stipends are available through the U. S. Public Health Service for those nurses who have demonstrated particular interest and aptitude in this field.

Requirements for admission are the same as for all students admitted to the program which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education.

V. CLINICAL PROGRAM IN OPERATING ROOM NURSING

A program in operating room nursing of nine months in length is offered to qualified graduate nurses who are interested in preparing for head nurse positions in an operating room.

Admission

An individual who is interested in the program in operating room nursing must apply for admission to the Woman's College of Duke University as a special student. To be admitted as a special student the following records are required:

1. Transcript of high school or of college record.
2. Transcript of nursing school record.
3. Satisfactory rating from a nursing service administrator or supervisor with whom the applicant has had recent contact.

In addition to the above requirements an applicant must have had a minimum of six months' experience as an operating room nurse.

Classes and Related Experience in Operating Room Nursing

The course in operating room nursing includes 60 hours of organized class work during the period of nine months and an average of 36 hours each week on duty, of which 18 hours is supervised experience. The class work includes a discussion of the facts and principles of chemistry, bacteriology, anatomy and physiology, underlying preparation for and assistance with surgical operations, both general and special. The history of anesthesia is presented, as well as present day trends and developments in the field.

In the related field work the nurse becomes acquainted with the functions of various departments of the hospital and their relationship to the operating room. She has an opportunity to prepare for and assist with various surgical operations including general surgery, chest surgery, neuro-surgery, orthopaedic surgery, urological surgery, plastic surgery and eye, ear, nose and throat surgery. She is also given an opportunity to assist with administrative and supervisory functions in the operating room, and with planning and conducting a teaching program for students and others.

Fees

Each student pays the regular University fees for courses in Nursing Education and related subjects. The fee per credit hour is $12.00 (1949-50). In addition a matriculation fee of $5.00 is paid each semester.

Living Arrangements

Students who are taking the course in operating room nursing receive full maintenance in return for service to the hospital.

Health Care

Each student is required to carry hospitalization insurance to cover the cost of hospitalization during illness.

A sick leave of seven days is given during the nine months period.

Dates of Admission

Students are admitted to the program in operating room nursing at the beginning of each semester.

Certificate

At the completion of the nine months program in operating room nursing the student is granted a certificate.

Information

For further information about any program write to Director of the Division of Nursing Education, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

Application for admission to the Woman's College should be made to the Committee on Admissions, College Station, Durham, North Carolina.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

The program of study in Public Health Nursing is designed to prepare registered professional nurses to carry on the functions of public health nursing in local health departments, visiting nurse associations, or joint health agencies.

Curricula leading to a certificate or baccalaureate degree in Public Health Nursing are offered.

Requirements for Admission

General:

1. Ability to meet the regular entrance requirements of the University.
2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing offering a satisfactory theoretical and clinical experience.
3. Acquisition of the status of a registered nurse in any state.

Specific:

1. Candidates for the Certificate in Public Health Nursing:
 - (a) General requirements above.
2. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing:
 - (a) General requirements.
 - (b) Two years of prescribed academic work in an accredited university or college.
 - (c) Approval of the Committee on Admissions to the curriculum for the Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing.
3. Candidates for the Master of Public Health degree:

Graduation from an approved school of nursing and graduation with a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. The undergraduate program must have included at least eight courses in the natural sciences, and it is desirable that the student shall have had work in social science and education.

Plan of Instruction

The calendar year's curriculum in Public Health Nursing is required of all majors in this field. While there is a prescribed curriculum of study, a program will be arranged on an individual basis with consideration for the educational and experiential background of the student. The program is so arranged that students are admitted in the Fall Quarter and are expected to remain for at least three consecutive quarters. With the approval of the Department, public health nurses with experience may be admitted in the summer provided they plan to remain for a minimum of three consecutive quarters. Field work is an essential part of the program and is required for either the degree or the certificate. Exceptions may be made where a quarter of supervised field experience has been previously taken in an approved University program, or on approval of the curriculum committee.

Curriculum in Public Health Nursing

Required Courses:	Credit Hours
P.H. 101 Epidemiology	3
P.H. 111 Public Health Administration	3
P.H. 114 Mental Hygiene	2
P.H. 131 Parasitism and Human Disease	3½
P.H. 141 Public Health Nutrition	3
P.H. 190 Principles and Practices of Public Health Nursing	5
P.H. 191 Public Health Nursing Organization and Administration	5
P.H. 192 Group Work: Its Interpretive Factors	3
P.H. 193 Applied Public Health Nursing Field Practice	15
P.H. 195 The Public Health Nurse in a Maternal Health Program	3
P.H. 196 Special Fields in Public Health Nursing	5
Soc. 51 An Introduction to Sociology	5
P.H. 198 Growth and Development of the Child	3
P.H. 118 Health and Sickness in Modern Society	3

For experienced students or graduates of university schools of nursing who have had an acceptable course in any of the above, an elective may be substituted.

Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing

Because of the increasing demands of public health departments for nurses with a baccalaureate degree, it is desirable for students to enroll in the curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health Nursing.

Candidates for this degree must fulfill the following requirements:

1. Satisfactory completion of 90 quarter hours (60 semester hours) in an accredited college or university. The amount of credit not exceeding 90 quarter hours extended for work in other colleges will be determined by the Committee on Admissions.

(a) Required:

24 quarter hours in the natural sciences, selected from zoology, botany, chemistry, physics, psychology.

20 quarter hours in English.

10 quarter hours in the social sciences, selected from sociology, upper division psychology, history.

(b) Electives:

The departmental adviser will assist the student in the selection of the remaining courses (36 quarter hours) with reference to her individual needs.

2. Graduation from an approved school of nursing, with credit to be determined by the Committee on Admissions.
3. Satisfactory completion of the curriculum in Public Health Nursing in the School of Public Health at the University of North Carolina.

Tuition and Fees

The tuition is $100.00 a quarter. This includes the following University charges for each quarter:

Matriculation	$21.00
Student Activities	3.85
Special Library Fee	3.00
Woman's Association (women students only)	1.00

The laboratory fee for the field quarter in Public Health Education and Public Health Nursing is $300.00 in addition to the $100.00 tuition.

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH

The course leading to the degree of Master of Science in Public Health is designed to provide a broad training in the basic health sciences and is intended to prepare students for professional careers in several vital fields of public health.

Requirements for Admission: For admission to the program of study leading to this degree students in nursing must satisfy with an acceptable record the following requirement:

1. Graduation from an approved school of nursing and graduation with a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. The undergraduate program must have included at least eight courses in the natural sciences, and it is desirable that the student shall have had work in social science and education.

Requirements for the Degree: The following are the principal requirements for the degree:

1. A period of residence of at least one academic year at the University. For nurses and health educators an additional period of three months devoted to field training under the supervision of the University is required. For other personnel the field training is at present optional.
2. The completion with high grades of an approved program of courses which includes public health administration, epidemiology, sanitation, bacteriology, and statistics. The course program shall involve credits of not less than 45 quarter-hours nor more than 60 quarter-hours.
3. A final written comprehensive examination in the field of the student's major interest, and a comprehensive oral examination on the entire program of study.

Candidates for this degree must complete all the requirements within six years from the time of their first matriculation in the program. Students completing their program over a period of years will be required to satisfy all requirements for the degree which are in effect in the final year of their work.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1950-1951

FORESTRY IN DUKE UNIVERSITY

GENERAL STATEMENT

Forestry in Duke University began early in 1931, when, through placing the Duke Forest under intensive management for forestry purposes, a substantial beginning was made in laying the foundation for educational work and research in forestry.

An academic-forestry curriculum, designed for students intent upon pursuing the study of forestry, particularly as a profession after graduation, was organized in Trinity College of Duke University in 1932 (see Announcement on Undergraduate Instruction in Duke University). This four-year course of study provides only for instruction in fundamental and auxiliary subjects basic to a proper understanding of the highly specialized work in technical forestry. Duke University offers no professional degree in technical forestry available to undergraduates.

Training in technical forestry leading to the professional degrees, Master of Forestry and Doctor of Forestry, is offered in the School of Forestry, and is open to all graduates of the academic-forestry curriculum in Trinity College and to graduates of recognized scientific schools or colleges, universities, and professional schools of forestry.

Duke University is also prepared to offer, through the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, graduate work in the more scientific aspects of forestry leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. This work is available to graduates of schools of forestry of recognized standing, and to college or university graduates holding the Bachelor's degree with their major work in appropriate scientific subjects. Undergraduate subjects which the college student, who does not have forestry training but who is contemplating work toward either degree in forestry, should take in preparation for this work may be illustrated as follows: At least two full years in botany, including general morphology or anatomy, the taxonomy, physiology, and ecology of plants; at least one course in zoology or general biology; courses in chemistry, physics, geology, economics, mathematics; and at least two years of French or German.

Several staff members of the Southeastern Forest Experiment Station are engaged in co-operative research projects in the Duke Forest. Specialists from this station and other prominent members of the U. S. Forest Service and representatives of forest and wood-using industries give occasional scheduled lectures at the School.

EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

The School of Forestry is located in the Social Science and Biology Buildings on the West Campus. The School is provided with instruments and tools for use in both field and laboratory work in silvics, silviculture, harvesting, and forest mensuration. Modern surveying instruments and accessory equipment are available for work in forest surveying.

Laboratories for work in wood anatomy and properties are provided with microtechnique and photomicrographic instruments, wood-working machinery, and a 50,000-pound Olsen Universal timber-testing machine, in addition to a glue and plywood laboratory. A modern forest soils laboratory equipped for physical and chemical studies is available. In the field of seasoning and preservation of wood a commercial-sized, single-compartment dry kiln and a fully equipped experimental pressure treating cylinder are available for instruction and research.

Facilities are also available for advanced work in plant physiology, plant anatomy, plant taxonomy, genetics, plant ecology, plant pathology, and the several branches of zoology.

The School of Forestry Library contains a growing collection of material on forestry and related subjects. It includes important books and periodicals in English and in French, German, and other foreign languages. The Library is well provided with American material, including Federal and State documents and reports. Over 150 periodicals and serials of importance in forestry and related fields are received by subscription or exchange.

Greenhouses, connected to the Biology Building through a soil-storage and work room, provide adequate space for experimental work.

A nursery has been established by the University for joint use of the Sarah P. Duke Floral Garden, the Botany Department, and the School of Forestry. The forestry section of this nursery is used mainly for the growing of planting stock for the Arboretum and trees needed for research or other special purposes.

West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company has made available to Duke University a field headquarters for work in forests of the South Atlantic Coastal Plain located 18 miles northwest of Summerville, South Carolina. This company has extensive forest holdings under close supervision of a staff of technical foresters in South Carolina and permits access to its lands for instruction and research in forestry and allied fields. This headquarters camp with modern facilities for as many as 45 men is used as a base primarily for utilization work each spring and for special work in silviculture. The quarters may be available at other times for students and faculty members of the Duke School of Forestry working on special problems or doing advanced work in any of the fields of forestry concerned with coastal plain problems. The establishment of this headquarters camp in the coastal plain region makes it possible for the School of Forestry to provide instruction and conduct research in this important forest area in which many privately owned forests as well as public forests are intensively managed for the production and utilization of a wide range of forest products. The Southern Railway Demonstration Forest is within easy reach of this center and will also be available for work, particularly with longleaf pine.

The School sponsors occasional lectures on forestry and conservation by speakers of national reputation.

An active Forestry Club is maintained as a student organization to bring the members of the School and students in the undergraduate academic-forestry curriculum into closer contact and to afford opportunities for extracurricular activities not otherwise available.

FOREST INDUSTRY TRAINING PLAN

The School of Forestry and the Southern Pine Association have initiated a joint plan for training graduate foresters in the Southern lumber industry. Graduates of the School will be placed, with the assistance of the Association Forester, with companies desiring to participate, for a period of approximately one year during which time the men will work in a variety of capacities under competent supervision.

The plan is designed better to equip young foresters for careers in forest industries and to make them more useful employees capable of developing executive capacities. The gap between academic education and practical training will be bridged under the operation of the plan for the mutual benefit of the men and their prospective employers.

Detailed information about this program can be obtained from the School of Forestry or from the Southern Pine Association, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE DUKE FOREST

The Duke Forest, located in Durham and Orange counties, North Carolina, consists of five main units: namely, the Durham, New Hope Creek, Hillsboro, Eno, and Blackwood divisions. Early in the development of Duke University it was recognized that the possession of such an area offered an unusual opportunity for the development of educational work in forestry.

Situated on the lower Piedmont plateau at elevations ranging from 280 to 650 feet, and composed of second-growth shortleaf and loblolly pines, oak, gum, hickory, maple, yellow poplar, ash, and other hardwoods, the Forest is representative of the various types of timber growth found throughout the region. Over a hundred different species of trees are found within or near the Forest. The land is rolling and there is relatively little rock outcrop, swamp, or other land of low productivity for timber growing. The total area of the Forest proper, exclusive of the University campus, is approximately eight thousand acres.

THE ARBORETUM

Of outstanding value in the teaching of both forestry and botany in the future is the provision for the development of an arboretum. In their annual meeting on June 4, 1934, the Board of Trustees of Duke University, upon the recommendation of their Forestry Committee, voted to set aside permanently an area of over three hundred acres in the Forest to be used for arboretum purposes. The area lies adjacent to the main University campus immediately across the road from the Chapel.

Through the generosity of the late W. W. Flowers, of New York, a member of the Class of 1894 and a Trustee of the University, it has been possible to develop preliminary plans and to make a number of plantings. This is naturally a long-time project, and many years will elapse before the Arboretum will be most useful and most attractive. The University Trustees' Committee on Forestry in its report to the Board refers to the Arboretum as follows:

"The Arboretum should serve as a station for the study of trees and woody plants as individuals and in small groups in their scientific relations, economic properties, and cultural characteristics, requirements, and possibilities. It should render an economic service by acting as a research laboratory where trees and shrubs can be studied from the viewpoint of a fuller utilization of their commercial possibilities. It should render a cultural service by serving as a center where foresters, landscape architects, nurserymen, gardeners, and the general public may increase their knowledge of indigenous trees and shrubs and where they may become acquainted with the foreign species that can be grown here. Within the University the Arboretum will supply living specimens and material for several branches of botany and forestry."

The development of the Arboretum will proceed along these lines as rapidly as available funds and planting stock will permit.

FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS IN FORESTRY

A number of fellowships, scholarships, and research assistantships are available to men who offer promise of becoming leaders in the forestry profession. These will be awarded for high character and marked scholastic ability as judged by education, experience, and personal references.

Holders of the awards will pay tuition and such additional fees as are regularly required.

The awards are of three classes with stipends and special conditions as follows:

(1) Fellowships of $600 to $1,000 each. Each recipient must have previously completed work equivalent to that required at Duke University for a Master's degree with major in forestry or in a discipline basic to forestry. He will devote his time to an approved program of study and research in any of the branches of forestry. He is expected to become a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Forestry or Doctor of Philosophy.

(2) Scholarships of $250 to $700 each. Each recipient will normally devote his time to an approved program of study leading to the degree of Master of Forestry or Master of Arts with a major in forestry.

Holders of fellowships and scholarships will be expected to do a limited amount of assisting.

(3) Graduate assistantships of $1,000 each. Each recipient will devote half-time to research or other work of the School of Forestry. He will be permitted to enroll for not more than 20 semester hours in a school year on a program of study, or study and research, leading to the degree of Master of Forestry, Master of Arts, Doctor of Forestry, or Doctor of Philosophy.

Two Union Bag & Paper Corporation forestry fellowships of $800 each are available for graduate study leading to the degrees of Master of Forestry or Doctor of Forestry with major work in the fields of harvesting and marketing of forest products, silviculture, or forest economics, or combination majors in two of the above fields, for men interested in private forestry careers. Preference will be given to forestry graduates of southern institutions for one of the awards. College graduates not having degrees in forestry must have completed at least one year of forestry in a recognized school of forestry to be eligible for these fellowships. The Woodlands Division of the Union Bag & Paper Corporation with headquarters at Savannah, Georgia, has agreed to employ the recipients of the awards during the summer preceding their enrollment in the Duke School of Forestry to provide opportunity for contact with private forestry activities and to assemble material for their theses, should they desire to avail themselves of this opportunity. A fund is available each year for expenses incurred in the collection and analysis of thesis data and for other expenses in connection with the fellowships. This fund is disbursed by the School of Forestry only as needed for essential expenses.

The following arrangements are common to all fellowships, scholarships and research assistantships in forestry:

(1) Each applicant must have received a Bachelor's degree from an acceptable professional school of forestry or must be a graduate of a recognized college or university. If an applicant is not a graduate of a school of forestry, he must have had major work in botany or soil science and in the allied basic sciences. Each applicant must show reasonably high scholarship. Preference will be given to men who have already obtained technical or professional training in forestry.

(2) It is highly desirable that each applicant state as specifically as possible the field in which he wishes to study. The definite selection of a major field of work—one that is specific in purpose and involves training both in fundamentals and in technique—is very helpful to the Committee on Awards.

(3) Application blanks for fellowships, scholarships, and research assistantships may be obtained by writing to the Dean of the School of Forestry, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina. When the blank has been filled out by the applicant, it should be returned to the above address, and an official transcript of record showing college or university credits must accompany it or be forwarded promptly. The application and transcript must be filed not later than March 1 for consideration for the following academic year. In case vacancies occur, applications submitted on a later date may be considered.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

The following general requirements of the School of Forestry apply to candidates for the Master of Forestry degree:

Admission to the School of Forestry presupposes that the applicant is either a graduate of a scientific school, college, or university of high standing, but without professional training in forestry; or that he is a graduate of a professional school of forestry. He will present not less than four years of credit of collegiate grade with at least one and one half times as many quality points as hours.¹

An applicant with no professional training in forestry will present a certified transcript of his academic record showing that he has had conferred upon him a degree in arts, science, or engineering; and that he has satisfactorily completed undergraduate work in minimum amount as follows:

One year of botany, including the morphology, physiology, and identification of plants.

One year each of English composition and of chemistry.

One course each in physics and in the principles of economics.

Mathematics, through college algebra and trigonometry.

It is urged that an applicant without professional training in forestry present additional credits in the above subjects and in one or more of the following subjects: soils, geology, mineralogy, petrology, climatology, surveying, languages (particularly German and French), sociology, political science, philosophy, psychology, and zoology.

An applicant who is a graduate of a professional school of forestry will present a certified transcript of scholastic record showing the award of a degree. Before registering for the first semester of residence, such applicants will be required to select the branch or branches of forestry in which they wish to concentrate the major part of their work and to prepare their proposed programs in conference with the appropriate faculty adviser.

Students must make application for admission in advance of the opening of the school year. Those students entering without acceptable courses in plane surveying, forest surveying, and forest mensuration must take the twelve weeks of work in these subjects in the Summer Session, and are required to submit their applications prior to May 1. Students entering with advanced standing in surveying and forest mensuration should make application before September 1. Application blanks will be sent upon request made to the Dean of the School of Forestry.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF FORESTRY

The degree of Master of Forestry (M.F.) is conferred upon students who have satisfactorily completed two years of study in technical forestry and one term of twelve weeks work in plane surveying, forest surveying, and forest mensuration in the Summer Session. In addition to the Summer Session work a total of not less than sixty semester hours credit is required for the M.F. degree, of which at least fifty shall have been obtained in the School of Forestry. Each student must have obtained at least as many quality points as semester hours of credit, under the quality-point system described in footnote 1 of the preceding section, to qualify for the M.F. degree.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF FORESTRY

THE DEGREE

The degree of Doctor of Forestry (D.F.) is a professional and research degree, involving both advanced study and research. It is based upon evidence of high attainments in a special branch of forestry knowledge or in the broad field of forestry, including the production of a thesis which is the result of original work and which is a distinct contribution to knowledge in the field of forestry.

FORESTRY IN THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Graduate work toward the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in the more scientific branches of forestry is available to adequately prepared students at Duke University. This work is given through the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences by certain members of the School of Forestry Faculty.

The following special conditions will influence the acceptance of students for graduate study in forestry: The student must have received a degree from a professional school of forestry of recognized standing or from an approved college or university. Graduates of professional schools of forestry must also have had adequate training in liberal arts and sciences, approximating 86 semester hours, before being admitted to candidacy for the Master of Arts or Doctor of Philosophy degree. College graduates who have had specialized training in botany or soil science and in allied basic subjects, such as physics, chemistry, geology, and zoology, may pursue graduate study and research only in the specialized fields for which their previous work has qualified them.

The Forestry Staff will determine whether a student is qualified to pursue graduate study in any of the special fields of forestry in which work is available.

The Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees are attained through scientific work rather than technical or professional training in forestry. Work for these degrees may be pursued only in forest-tree physiology, wood anatomy and properties, forest pathology, forest entomology, silvics, forest soils, forest mensuration, forest management, and forest economics, except that a major cannot be taken in forest management. A student upon registration chooses a field of study which may lie in two or more departments. The members of the Graduate School Faculty best qualified in that field are named as the student's advisory committee, regardless of the department of which they are members. This committee will advise the student in the planning and conduct of his work and will evaluate it when completed.

A reading knowledge of French and German must be acquired early in the course of graduate study in forestry because much of the forestry literature of the world is written in or has summaries in these languages. For the Ph.D. degree the language requirement must be met before the preliminary examination is taken and usually before the preparation of the thesis is begun.

The length of time required for a student to obtain the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in forestry is determined by the character of his previous work and by the quality of his work in the Graduate School. Upon the recommendation of the Forestry Staff and with the approval of the Council on Graduate Instruction, work of equal grade done in residence at another college or university, or at a research station or institute not connected with a college or university, may be accepted toward a Ph.D. degree, but at least the last year of the first two years of graduate study must be spent in actual residence at Duke University. Only in connection with the preparation of the thesis will work be accepted that has been done elsewhere than in residence at a college, university, or research station.

Students whose research is concerned with the study of trees and forest stands in the Duke Forest during the growing season may find it necessary to be at the University during the summer.

The field of study may include advanced work in allied subjects as well as advanced work in forestry. The students should have covered, however, most of the basic subjects prior to entering the Graduate School. The required advanced work will depend upon the student's previous training and the special field of study selected. Before beginning his work a student must obtain approval of his proposed program of study, including the plans for the research for his thesis. Courses of study must be correlated with each other and with the thesis research.

For further information on requirements for admission to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and on the general requirements for the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees reference should be made to the Bulletin of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

FEES AND EXPENSES

The following tables show the general fees and charges collected from all students. All fees for each semester are due and payable, unless otherwise specified, at the time of registration at the beginning of that semester, and no student is admitted to classes until arrangements have been made with the Treasurer of the University for the settlement of fees.

GENERAL FEES

Tuition, per semester	$175.00
General Fee, per semester	60.00

TRANSCRIPTS

A student desiring to transfer from Duke University to another institution is entitled to one transcript of his record. A charge of one dollar is made for each additional copy.

PAYMENTS TO FELLOWS AND SCHOLARS

Payments by the University of stipends to fellows, research assistants, and scholars are made in four installments, on November 25, January 25, March 25, and May 25. Fellows and scholars are required to pay the regular tuition fee and such additional fees as are ordinarily required of graduate students.

ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR AN ACADEMIC YEAR

The necessary expenses of a graduate student are moderate: the University dormitories provide thoroughly comfortable and wholesome living conditions at a minimum cost, while all charges made by the University have been kept low. Incidental expenses naturally depend upon the tastes and habits of the individual. The following table gives the necessary college expenses for one year:

	Low	Moderate	Liberal
Tuition	$350.00	$ 350.00	$ 350.00
General Fee	120.00	120.00	120.00
Room-rent	125.00	125.00	175.00
Board	337.50	388.00	468.00
Laundry	20.00	25.00	35.00
Books	22.50	30.00	45.00
Athletic Fee (optional)	10.00	10.00	10.00
Total	$985.00	$1,048.00	$1,203.00

DUKE UNIVERSITY SUMMER SESSION

Duke University, located at Durham, North Carolina, includes Trinity College, the Woman's College, the College of Engineering, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Divinity School, and the Schools of Law, Medicine, Nursing, and Forestry. The student body is drawn from the entire United States, with a representative group of foreign students.

THE SUMMER SESSION PROGRAM: CREDITS

The Summer Session program is designed to serve:

1. Students now matriculated in the various schools and departments of Duke University, graduate and undergraduate, who wish to earn additional credits toward the completion of the work for their degrees.

2. Students matriculated in other colleges and universities who wish to earn credits to be transferred back to the school in which they are matriculated.

3. Graduates of accredited high schools and undergraduates with advanced standing who have been admitted to Duke University and who wish to enter upon their program of work in advance of the regular session.

4. Teachers in service who wish to earn credits for the renewal of their certificates, or to enter upon a program of work for an advanced degree, or to pursue certain courses which will contribute to the improvement of their teaching efficiency.

5. Candidates for the Master of Arts and Master of Education degrees who desire to complete degree requirements in a series of summers.

Professional credits towards teachers' certificates are granted by the various state boards of education, each in accordance with its own carefully planned rules. Teachers in service, before enrolling for certification credit, should consult the rules laid down by their State Board of Education. If necessary, they should send to their State Board of Education a list of the courses in which they plan to enroll and inquire whether these will be acceptable for certification credit.

The normal courses in the Summer Session will meet daily, Monday through Friday, for an eighty minute period, throughout the term of six weeks. (Certain unit courses, particularly the beginning courses in English and the foreign languages, will meet twice daily. Elementary courses in the physical and natural sciences occupy a student's entire time daily and continue through a period of eight weeks, except Physics S51, S52 which will continue through ten weeks.) Each normal course carries a credit of three semester hours and two such courses constitute a full load for the student. No student is permitted to obtain credit for more than two such courses and no instructor teaches more than two. The maximum credit allowed for Summer Session work is one semester hour per week spent in residence and work. The maximum credit allowed for the six-weeks term, therefore, is six semester hours. Laboratory courses which are extended to eight or ten weeks carry eight or ten semester hours of credit.

Courses numbered 1-49 are primarily for Freshmen, or Freshmen and Sophomores. Courses numbered 50-99 are ordinarily for Sophomores, or Sophomores and Juniors. Courses numbered 100-199 are designed for Juniors and Seniors. Courses numbered 200-299 are planned for Seniors and graduates. Courses numbered from 300 up admit graduate students only and are of limited enrollment. Courses numbered from 200 up are usually limited in enrollment to approximately twenty-five students, and during the Summer Session consist almost entirely of graduate students. Graduate seminars are limited to fifteen students or fewer.

ENROLLMENT IN THE SUMMER SESSION

The Summer Session makes available the facilities of Duke University to those persons who can use them to good advantage and for serious purposes. Candidates for degrees, graduate and undergraduate, will be admitted on the same basis as they are admitted to Duke University for work during the regular session. Applicants who do not desire to matriculate for a degree may be admitted as unclassified students upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that they are qualified to do satisfactory work in the courses which they may elect to pursue.

Undergraduates—Undergraduate students now enrolled in Trinity College or the College of Engineering should enroll for the Summer Session just as they do for classes in the regular year. They should go to the office of Dean H. J. Herring and obtain the proper blank for enrollment and have their programs approved when they enroll. Undergraduate students now enrolled in the Woman's College should obtain the enrollment blank from Dean Hazen Smith and have their programs approved by her.

Men who desire to enter Duke University, either as Freshmen or undergraduates with advanced standing, should make application to Dean H. J. Herring, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. Women desiring to enter either as Freshmen or undergraduates with advanced standing, should apply to Mrs. W. S. Persons, Chairman of the Committee on Admissions for the Woman's College, College Station, Durham, N. C.

Other undergraduates, men or women, Freshmen or upperclassmen, who desire to enter as unclassified students and who are already admitted or enrolled at another institution, should apply to Paul H. Clyde, Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C. Students already matriculated in another institution should ask for the Course Approval Blank for use in securing the approval of the Dean of their school for the courses they elect and for use in transferring their credits back to the institution in which they are matriculated. Applicants who are entering college for the first time should have the institution in which they will be enrolled for the regular year submit to the Director of the Summer Session a certificate of admission.

Teachers in service who do not hold a Bachelor's degree but desire to attend the Summer Session in order to earn credits towards the renewal or the advancement of their certificate and who do not wish to become candidates for a degree from Duke University should apply to Paul H. Clyde, Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C., and have sent to him a transcript of their undergraduate college record. In some cases the presentation of their teaching certificate will be sufficient evidence for admission. Teachers who wish to matriculate for a Bachelor's degree will apply for admission to the appropriate persons as indicated in the preceding paragraphs.

Graduates—Applicants who wish to earn credits toward the renewal of their certificates or who wish to enroll for certain courses on the graduate level and who do not plan to matriculate for a graduate degree may be admitted to the Summer Session as unclassified graduate students. These should apply to Paul H. Clyde, Director of the Summer Session, Duke University, Durham, N. C., and should have sent to him a transcript of their undergraduate and previous graduate work. This is necessary in order that such students may be admitted to courses in which regularly matriculated graduate students are enrolled.

All applications for admission to the graduate school should be made as early as possible in order to allow ample time for obtaining transcripts and for evaluating credentials. Decisions on applications that come in after June 1 in all probability cannot be reached until after the opening of the Summer Session.

ADMISSION TO GRADUATE COURSES

Applicants who wish to matriculate for a graduate degree should apply directly to The Dean of the Graduate School, Duke University, Durham, N. C., for a graduate school application blank. When such applicants have been admitted, the Summer Session Director will send the proper blank for the reservation of a room and course enrollment.

After twelve semester hours of graduate work for which a student is registered in the Graduate School office, the student may apply for formal admission to the Graduate School, and thus become a candidate for the Master's degree. Such admission is dependent upon the fulfillment of two conditions. (1) The student must have made a mark of "G" or "Good," in at least three semester hours of work, with no mark less than "S." Candidates who cannot meet this condition may at a later time submit their records for re-evaluation, provided that in their subsequent work they shall have made a substantial number of "G's."* (2)

* In the grading of graduate students, "E" (exceptional) is the highest mark; "G" (good), the next lower; and "S" (satisfactory) indicates work of an acceptable but not distinguished quality. "F" (fail) indicates that the work of the student is below passing. In a course in which both graduates and undergraduates are enrolled, the grade "S" represents approximately an 80 per cent rating.

The student in his undergraduate work must meet substantially the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University.† Any deficiencies of undergraduate work must be satisfied before admission to the Graduate School. The graduate courses taken at Duke University prior to formal admission to the Graduate School will count toward a higher degree provided they are in accord with the requirements and are acceptable to the department of the student's major. A graduate student may be requested to withdraw from the University at the discretion of the Dean of the Graduate School.

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations in courses are held on the two last days of each term. Final examinations for short courses which occupy the student's complete program will be held on the last day of each course.

The qualifying examination for the Master of Education degree will be held on Saturday, July 8, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Room 2D, West Duke Building.

The comprehensive examination for the Master of Education degree will be arranged to suit the convenience of the students concerned in so far as is possible.

FEES AND EXPENSES

A registration fee of $20.00 is charged to all students carrying the normal program of six semester hours. When the program carried is four semester hours or less, the fee is $10.00. The regular tuition fee is $8.00 for each semester hour. Teachers in active full-time service in schools and colleges are, upon proper application, allowed a tuition scholarship rebate amounting to one-half of the regular tuition, for not more than four terms of six weeks within a period of six years. After their fourth term teachers pay regular tuition charges. (Application for this scholarship rebate should be made to the Director of the Summer Session in advance of registration.) Graduate students completing the work for the Master's degree in the Summer Session will pay a fee of $25.00 for thesis supervision and/or for examinations. Because of the extra services rendered, a special fee of $10.00 is charged students enrolled in the School of Spanish Studies, and a $10.00 laboratory fee is charged students enrolled in the Marine Laboratory.

Major expenses for a six-weeks term are estimated as follows:

Registration	$20.00
Tuition (deduct $24.00 for teachers in active service)	48.00
Medical service	3.50
Room-rent	$30.00 or 21.00
Board, estimated: ample $90.00, minimum	60.00
Special fee for School of Spanish Studies or Marine Laboratory	10.00
Books and class materials	$7.00 to 10.00
Bus fare, laundry, and miscellaneous expenses range from	$9.00 to 15.00

The minimum expenses for teachers who receive the scholarship rebate should be approximately $150.00. Maximum expenses will range up to $200.00 or possibly $225.00.

† In meeting the requirements for the A.B. or B.S. degree at Duke University, a student is not allowed excessive concentration in any one field. The same principle is applied in evaluating the undergraduate record of candidates for admission to the Graduate School.

THE SCHOOL OF SPANISH STUDIES

The ninth annual session of the School of Spanish Studies will be held during the first term, June 14 to July 22. The courses offered will include undergraduate work of the first three years and advanced oral Spanish, as well as graduate work in Spanish and Spanish-American literature. There will be liberal opportunity for speaking the language, hearing lectures, holding discussions, and attending evening programs all conducted in Spanish. Students of the School of Spanish Studies will live in the Residence, Southgate Hall on East Campus. Here only Spanish will be spoken. A private dining-room in the Residence will be used on all days except Sundays, when facilities will be available in the East Campus Union. A member of the staff or a native Spanish-American assistant will be assigned to each table to lead the conversation.

During the Summer Session courses in Spanish are given only in the School of Spanish Studies. An applicant, however, may register for one course in the School of Spanish Studies and another course in some other department. In this case the registrant is a member of the Spanish School student body and is privileged to live and eat in the Spanish House. When it appears necessary for such a student to live elsewhere, this may be arranged by permission of the Director of the School.

INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS OF MATHEMATICS

The Institute for Teachers of Mathematics will hold its tenth annual session August 7-18 inclusive. The theme of the Institute is "Mathematics at Work." There will be morning, afternoon, and evening meetings each day of the Institute. Applications of mathematics to current problems in industry and science will be stressed. Lecturers of recognized ability in industrial research and teachers of note have been secured. Approximately eight study groups will be arranged under the leadership of outstanding teachers.

The Mathematics Laboratory now being established at the University will provide helpful materials and suggestions for the members of the Institute. The registration fee will be $10.00. Those who so desire may secure a room in the University dormitories at $1.50 per day. Meals may be secured in the University dining halls, cafeteria style. A separate folder containing full details and program of the Institute will be ready for distribution about April 15. For further information write the Director of the Summer Session or W. W. Rankin, Director of the Mathematics Institute, Duke University, Durham, N. C.

THE INSTITUTE OF NURSING EDUCATION

In addition to the courses in Nursing Education, this summer there will be held for the fourth year an Institute of Nursing Education. The Institute will be held for a period of one week, July 24-29. The program will deal with "Improving Nursing Care Through an Effective Clinical Teaching." Nurses who wish to attend the Institute should write to Miss Dorothy Smith, Acting Director of the Division of Nursing Education, Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C., for an application blank. The fee for the Institute is $5.00. A room may be secured in the nurses' residence hall at $1.50 per day. Meals may be secured in the University dining halls, cafeteria style, at very reasonable prices. For detailed information write to the Director of the Summer Session, College Station, Durham, N. C.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

This is a condensed description of courses. For a full description, see Bulletin of the Summer Session.

BOTANY

PROFESSOR HUGO L. BLOMQUIST, CHAIRMAN—203 BIOLOGY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS); PROFESSOR PAUL J. KRAMER, DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES—04 BIOLOGY BUILDING (WEST CAMPUS)

For admission to candidacy for the Master's degree in Botany, students must have completed a minimum of eighteen semester hours of biological science, including six semester hours of Botany in courses numbered above 100. Students who have not yet had the minimum eighteen hours, however, may enter higher courses by permission of the instructor, if he is convinced that they can carry the work for undergraduate credit, and may count such work toward the eighteen hours necessary for candidacy.

HISTORY

PROFESSOR WILLIAM T. LAPRADE, CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES
—2B WEST DUKE BUILDING (EAST CAMPUS)

For admission to candidacy for a Master's degree in History, the student must present a total of eighteen semester hours of prior work in History, of which at least six must be in American History if he plans to take his major work in that field. Before enrolling for thesis supervision, candidates for the Master's degree are required to complete at least three semester hours of seminar work and are strongly urged to enroll for this work in the second term of their attendance in the Summer Session.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS

Duke University derives its principal support from endowment funds and from miscellaneous gifts and grants. Permanently invested capital funds enable the University to offer to students academic and professional training at a fraction of its actual cost. The effectiveness of the University is determined to a large extent by its financial resources.

Gifts and bequests devoted to the improvement of the work of the University will be received and administered by the trustees in accordance with the desires of the donor.

Gifts. Any kind of property, real or personal, may be the subject of a gift and only such form as is required to pass title is necessary. If the gift consists of real property, the title will be passed by deed; if it consists of cash or unregistered bonds, the gift is consummated by delivery of the property; or if stocks, by delivery of properly endorsed stock certificates. Unless restricted, the use of gifts is at the discretion of the Board of Trustees. Usually the proceeds, conservatively invested, are added to the permanent endowment of the University. The donor may, however, restrict the use of any gift and designate definitely the objects for which it shall be used. In such cases, the transfer of property would be accomplished by a letter or other documents describing in detail the objects for which the proceeds of the gift are to be used and when accepted by the University the term or conditions set out therein become binding upon it.

Bequests. Bequests may be made to the University by an appropriate clause inserted in a will by codicil to a will already drawn. The following forms will serve as appropriate clauses for wills or codicils:

General

I give (devise; if real property) and bequeath to Duke University, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina and located in the City and County of Durham, State of North Carolina, and its successors forever, the sum of dollars (or otherwise describe the gift) for the general purposes and uses of the University at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

Specific

I give (devise; if real property) and bequeath to Duke University, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina and located in the City and County of Durham, State of North Carolina, or its successors forever, the sum of dollars (or otherwise describe gift) and direct that the income therefrom shall be used for the following purposes, viz. (here describe in detail the use desired).

Codicil

Having hereinbefore made my last Will and Testament dated, and being of sound mind, I hereby make, publish, and declare the following codicil thereto; (here insert clause in same form as if it had been included in body of Will). Except as hereinbefore changed, I hereby ratify, confirm and republish my said last Will and Testament.
